GENERAL NEWS.

Prohibitionists were defeated last Saturday in Williamson and Falls counties.

Chief Arthur of the order of railroad engineers died very suddenly last Saturday.

H. J. Smith, bank cashier at Bellevue, Texas, was shot by a customer because he refused to pay a draft.

The boll weevils have appeared in south and central Texas, but the number of insects has greatly diminished since last year.

T. H. Brown, a merchant of Atlanta, Ga., was murdered in Dallas Monday and a barkeeper has been arrested charged with the crime.

A young man engaged in keeping a soda fountain in Nacogdoches has been arrested charged with poisoning his competitor's fountain. Strychnine was the poison used.

One enterprising fellow in east Texas has a drove of guineas which he hires to farmers to clear their fields of boll weevils. It is claimed that the fowls work faithfully devouring the insects.

The first bale of Texas cotton of the 1903 crop was grown in Zapata county and shipped last Saturday to Moody & Co., at Galveston, who sold it for $136. Cleveland & Co., of Houston bought the cotton from the purchaser in Galveston and shipped it to New York.

The state treasury department received a remittance of $200 last week on account of the forfeiture of a bond in a felony case. The law does not say to what fund remittances of this character are to be applied and from what could be learned this is the first time a remittance of this kind has ever reached the treasury department.

After the prohibition election in Robertson county the antis asked the judge in that district for an order restraining the local newspaper from publishing the order of the commissioners court putting prohibition into effect. The injunction was refused by that judge, but was granted by the district judge at Waco. The newspaper publisher disregarded the injunction and a test now will be whether or not the Waco judge had jurisdiction in the Robertson county district. The result of this contest will be watched with a great deal of interest.

Probably the fact is not generally known that Texas was at one time called the New Phillipines. The first settlement in what is now Texas was made by French emigrants in 1685. During the next twenty-five years there was an intermittant struggle between the French and Spanish for supremacy, resulting in favor of the latter and in 1814 the name of the New Phillipines was given to the country. This was its official name in the Spanish records for years and until the name of Texas, from a tribe of Indians, gradually came into vogue.—Indianapolis Journal.

When we published a paper in Mt. Vernon, Ill., on the second floor, a store was opened in the room under our office. The senior proprietor came up stairs and contracted for three colums of space for twelve months with locals each issue and 2500 dodgers each week. This firm started on borrowed capital. In less than two years it had money enough to start two stores, one in Sedalia and one in St. Louis. It dissolved partnership and each partner took a field to himself. Byron Nugent was the partner, who is now the senior member of B. Nugent & Bro., the great St. Louis house. He not only owns the store building and ground, but is erecting a modest little cottage home, which will cost $87,000. We must add that some of the old mossbacks who were in business in Mt. Vernon before Byron Nugent ever saw the place are still grumbling about dull trade and hard times. — Pine Bluff Republican.

A Missouri paper tells of a young man who called on his best girl one Sunday recently. After they had talked until they could not think of anything more to say, he declared his intention of kissing her. She apparently was indignant and declared she would tell her father if he did. Remembering the old saying about faint heart never winning fair lady, the young man dared and succeeded in planting a fairly respectable kiss some where behind her ear. The young woman arose hastily and walked into the other room. "Papa," she said, "Mr. S. wants to see your new gun." "All right! All right," said the old man, delighted with a chance to show off his new shotgun. Taking it down from the rack he stepped into the parlor. The young man broke four window panes in getting out and when last seen he was still running bareheaded down the country road.—Ex.

CARLSBAD, N. M.

Editor Eagle:

The people of the west believe in celebrating the fourth in a whole hearted fashion. Thursday, July 2, Carlsbad, the beautiful, was decked in her holiday attire. And thus attired she was entrancing. The store fronts were elaborately decorated with bunting and every where from tree and house tops proudly floated the stars and stripes. The effect of the red, white and blue was especially beautiful, where only glimpses could be had through the green leaves of the trees.

Thursday night the firemen gave a grand ball on the pavilion, which is on the court house campus or lawn. This lawn on ordinary occasions is a charming place. A handsome court house stands in the center of the lawn. Elevated walks lead out to the north, south, east and west. On either side [illegible] from hats [illegible] light shining near by [illegible] trees to glitter as diamonds. Crowds of beautifully dressed women moved here and there, talking and gaily laughing with the men, who were there in great numbers. Lightly tripping feet kept time to the music, and chased the merry hours away. Friday morning the stores closed at 10 o'clock. Every one followed the band to the ball park. The grand stand was packed with people, who were out to enjoy themselves. The band played, babies cried, little boys unceasingly cried "lemonade, soda water, peanuts, etc," people shouted and clapped their hands; and the boys "played ball." But Hereford defeated Carlsbad. Two o'clock found us at the roping grounds. We paid fifty cents for a seat in the grand stand. Again we found the same merry crowd, joshing and pounding each other with rubber return balls, blowing tin horns and doing anything to make a noise. But above all the noise there was a peculiar crackling sound. We grabbed at posts and each other and went to the ground with the over crowded seats. And when we found no one was injured, we laughed and stood up. After much galloping by the cow boys; more music by the band: A man on the judges stand, through a megaphone announced the name of the first roper. We felt and knew that we were in the presence of the real cow boys. The champion roper of the world was over there among those booted, spurred fellows with the high hats and long ropes. There were nineteen in the contest. The steers were vicious, 4-year old, Texas long horns. We watched each "boy" with breathless interest, rope, throw and tie his steer. Clay McGonigal (the champion) was third to the last. He dashed out, roped, threw and tied his steer in 32½ seconds, the best time so far. People shouted and clapped their hands. The next man made 1 minute. The last, Abe Wilson, was called. His steer came trotting out looking about carelessly and inquiringly. Before we realized what had happened his steer was roped, thrown and tied. "Abe Wilson, 31 seconds," came from the megaphone. People went wild. They shouted; men tossed their hats in the air, women waved their fans and handkercheifs wildly; the cow boys rushed up and almost pulled Abe Wilson from his horse. He was the hero of the hour. He won first prize, which was seven hundred dollars. A ball at the opera house for children ended the third.

The fourth dawned clear and bright, as days often do. We were up and in town in time to meet the excursion from Roswell. I think all of Roswell came down, at least the biggest portion. Tommie Logan and Otis Hearne were the only Goldthwaite people down. Tommie had come down the night before. Otis Hearne informed us that Homer Humphries and wife were on the train, but got off at Artesia on account of the illness of Mr. Logan. A welcome address was delivered by Capt. Boujac. A choir of thirty trained voices sang "Red, white and blue, America." The band played and people applauded. In the forenoon we had a drill by the mounted Lanciers, which was very charming. Hose cart race between Carlsbad and Roswell, Carlsbad victorious. Ball game, and in the afternoon a consolation roping contest, in which five cow boys roped without bridles on their horses. Clay McGonigal made the best time, which was 29 seconds. In the evening a band concert and fire works display, with afterwards a grand ball at the opera house, also one at the club rooms; ended the 4 h.

Our little city is quiet now, and all that remains of the fourth is a few flags still floating on the summer breeze. Yet [illegible] for past due [illegible] was made this week that [illegible] large proportion of the taxes levied by the city for some years past were illegal and void, and that the bonds issued by the city for the payments of interest upon which the taxes were levied, were also illegal and void. The amount of bonds involved was $91,000. The result of the trial was a judgment against the city, denying its right to levy and collect the contested taxes, the effect of which is to also annul the $91,000 of bonds.

It comes from high authority that the local option law in Hardin county does not apply to the precinct in which Sour Lake is situated. This is brought about by the recent decision of the court of criminal appeals to the the effect that the law is void if notices have not been posted for a certain length of time. It appears that the notice of a local option election in Hardin county was not posted in Sour Lake, hence the law can not be applied to that precinct. The officers there have been advised to collect the license from the saloon men and allow them to go ahead with their business.

She is common and plain, with an old-fashioned name, her dresses are oft queer creations; her bonnets the same, and though unlearned in fame, she sometimes has gross imitations. In sickness or health, in poverty or wealth, her heart beats the same loving measure; if fortune takes flight (as it may in a night) you're made welcome to use of her treasure. There's a smile on her face, in her heart there's the grace of a God who is loving and tender; if misfortune o'er takes in life's uneven race there's none but would die to defend her. Loving actions she plans and her deeds always stand high above those performed by another, and the touch of her hands is like balm to the heart. God bless the dear old-fashioned mother.—Word and Works.

Gen. Cassius M. Clay is dead at his home near Richmond, Ky.

An enterprising firm of music dealers advertise the last prayer of Pope Leo XIII set to music and ready for delivery.

Chas. Hedges, superintendent of the free mail delivery system, has been removed from office for falsifying his accounts. He is a Texas man, having been appointed from the Tenth congressional district of this state.

Get into the habit of thinking pleasant thoughts. If everything around is slightly tinged with blue and there seems to be but one reasonable thing to do, and that is to find a quiet corner where you can safely think over the blue things, don't do it. You may find out your quiet corner if you wish, but think of something pleasant, even though you do it with tears in your eyes.—Young People Weekly.

Live grasshoppers will eat dead grasshoppers. A Missouri farmer mixed Paris green and bran together and let a grasshopper eat it. He died. Twenty ate him up. They died. Four hundred ate these twenty, and they died. A hundred and sixty thousand ate those eight thousand, and died and the farmer was troubled no more. The man who did the counting is not dead, but he was a champion liar.—Ex.

A farmer living near Bryan, Brazos county, has invented a machine which he thinks will effectually destroy the boll weevils and incidentally win the $50,000 reward offered by the State. The machine is made in the form of a slide to run between the rows and mash the weevil to death. It has cross bars in front to agitate the stalk and shake the weevil off in front of the slide. The slide is made of two wings which fasten together in the middle with hinges so that it will automatically adjust itself to the surface, whether the cotton be cultivated flat or in ridges. Practical farmers think it will prove a success.

This is an age of lodges, and the latest will prove a great boon to mankind. It is a club that is organized for the mutual protection from bores. When you are obliged to listen to a long story about something that you do not wish to know, any member seeing you in distress is obliged to aid you. You give him the grand hailing sign of distress and he calls you on very important business, something like having your teeth pulled or your picture taken or your leg sawed off. You immediately excuse yourself and "make your get away."—Abilene News.

POPE LEO DEAD.

Pope Leo XIII died Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. For more than two weeks the old man's battle with death was watched with interest by the whole world. His recovery was thought to be impossible from the first owing to his extreme age. He was born March 2, 1810, and was ordained a priest December 31, 1837. On December 19, 1853, he was made a cardinal and was elected pope February 20, 1878. His successor will be elected by the college of cardinals which assembles at Rome for that purpose and the selection will be made after he has been dead nine days. The candidates for the position must receive two-thirds of the votes of the cardinals, of whom there are seventy, but they are seldom if ever all present.

Pope Leo XIII succeeded Pope Pius as supreme administrator of the Catholic church. On Dec. 31, 1887, he celebrated the golden jubilee of his priesthood and received in gifts of money and other valuables $26,700,000, which came from all parts of the world. His revenues from various sources were in the neighborhood of $3,000,000 per year. The papal revenues are used in establishing and maintaining institutions of learning and hospitals and defraying the expenses of those charged with the government of the church. Personally, Pope Leo was held in high esteem. He was a most benevolent, approachable and sympathetic man and his simplicity of manner and his great mental powers commanded the respect and admiration of the world, regardless of creeds and denominations.

RECIPROCITY.

There was a drummer in town one day this week offering for sale a number of blank forms of letters used by merchants in notifying customers of notes and accounts becoming due. We suppose he sold some of his blanks, but a number of the business men told him they patronized their home printer; that the work could be done here as cheap as he could have it done and equally as well, besides giving that much business to the local paper that was constantly urging its readers to patronize the Goldthwaite merchants. His work resulted in some orders for similar letters being given the Eagle and at the same time proved that the business men believe like the Eagle that people should spend their money with their home dealers whenever practicable.

The Junior Christian Endeavor society at the Presbyterian church has changed its hour of meeting from 3 to 5 o'clock each Sunday afternoon.

The first bale of 1902 cotton was received August 5 and if the present warm, dry weather continues the first bale for 1903 will not be much later than that date.

The Big Valley Irrigation company has not yet received the piping needed to start the pump, but the required material will probably arrive in a few days.

ROCK SPRINGS.

Editor Eagle:

Farmers are about all ready to lay aside their crops.

R[illegible] is needed in this part of the country.

Boyd Harrell visited friends at Star Saturday and Sunday.

Alton Gatlin and Elbert Norman attended preaching at Cryer Saturday night.

Mr. Carlisle and family of Dublin are visiting the family of W. P. Norman this week.

A number of Rock Springs girls attended the song service at Miller Grove Sunday afternoon. A heavy rain fell during the service, and they hastened from the singing to cross Browns creek before the rise came down, but when they arrived at the creek behold the creek was swimming. They shed a few tears of homesickness and went to the home of Mrs. Wesson, where they spent the night very pleasantly.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Snider visited their parents on North Brown Saturday and Sunday.

The young people enjoyed a nice musical entertainment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Roberts Monday night. Quite a number from our sister community, Miller Grove, attended.

Billie Daniels is visiting relatives and friends at Evant.

Miss Eva Miller has accepted the Rock Springs school.

The Baptist brethren of this place have consolidated this meeting with the Williams Ranch meeting which was to begin on Friday night before the first Sunday in August. The meeting will be held at this place and Revs. Thames and Hays will do the preaching. So let every body come the first Sunday and hear the gospel.

OLD HUNCH BACK

GERMAN SYRUP.

We want to impress on our reader that Boschee's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market to-day that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specifics, such as pure tar, extracts of gums, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night and be free from the spasm of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectoration in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles 25 cents; regular size containing nearly four times as much 75 cents. At all druggists.

STEERS WANTED.

We want two or three hundred yearling steers, will take them on your notes or accounts, or trade for anything in our line. They must be smooth and good colors. Scrubs and Jerseys barred out at any price. Yours for high grade goods.

WEAKLEY & WATSON.

DON'T FAIL TO TRY THIS.

Whenever an honest trial is given to Electric Bitters for any trouble it is recommended for a permanent cure will surely be effected. It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the kidneys and bowels, stimulate the liver, invigorate the nerves and purify the blood. It's a wonderful tonic for run-down systems. Electric Bitters positively cures kidney and liver troubles, stomach disorders, nervousness, sleeplessness, rheumatism, neuralgia and expels Malaria. Satisfaction guaranteed by Ross & Clements. Only 50 cents.

LOST.

One gray mare 6 or 7 years old about 14½ hands high. No brand, gentle to work and ride. Shod in front. Any information will be appreciated. W. H. ESTEP, San Saba.

PARK ARRANGEMENTS.

The committee charged with arranging for the purchase of land for a city park and permanent reunion grounds met in the court house Monday afternoon and decided to adopt the form of charter prepared by J. L. Lewis. The charter providing for a board of 7 directors to be elected each year, the committee selected Messrs. W. R. Cox, P. H. Clements, Leon Harris, L. R. Conro, J. T. Prater, Mrs. R. M. Thompson and Miss Stella Frater to serve as directors the first year.

It was decided to capitalize the organization at $1000 and Messrs. W. F. Brown, Leon Harris and Mrs. R. M. Thompson were appointed to solicit subscriptions for stock. The stock was placed at $1 per share, to be sold in blocks of five or more shares. Subscriptions for the stock are payable in installments of 25 per cent. The first installment becoming due when charter is secured. The balance will be due in three payments, each thirty days apart. The subscription lists have already been put in circulation and a considerable amount of stock has been taken.

REVIVAL AT SHIVE.

Rev. J. P. Walker, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, will begin a revival at Shive next Friday night, to continue ten days. He will be assisted by Evangelist N. F. Grafton, who is highly recommended in his line of work. The Snyder Coming West says of him: "Mr. Grafton is a clear and forcible speaker. Holds his audience from start to finish. He differs from the common evangelist in that he knows when he has said enough." The Quanah Tribune says: "Evangelist Grafton's sermon to men only was the only clean service of the kind we ever heard. We are glad we were there." Rev. Smith, the Methodist pastor at Whitesboro says Mr. Grafton is the only evangelist he would endorse. Revs. Walker and Grafton will have a large canopy tent under which they will hold the services.

STREETS NEED WORK.

The Goldthwaite streets are getting in a bad condition and the gentlemen who were recently elected members of the council will have to rush their business in order to have the necessary work done before some of the streets become impassable. As the matter of caring for the streets is left entirely with the people living in the incorporation and they can not be forced to work the roads leading to the town the road working business has become considerably demoralized. The new council has not yet qualified and taken the reins of the city government, but it is understood that the city's business will soon be taken in charge and administered.

JUNIOR B Y P. U. PROGRAM.

Roll call.
Recitation—Willie Harris.
Reading—Hettie Stark.
Recitation—Floyd Jackson.
Reading—Ben Hester.
Recitation—Lois Allen.
Solo—Janie Hester.
Duet — Lois Humphries and Minnie Rahl.
Quartett — Louise Hammond, Vera Kirby, Elliott and George Bourland.
Talk by W. B. Jackson.

BAPTIST REVIVAL.

The protracted meeting is still in progress in the Baptist church and the Eagle is not advised as to the probable duration of it. Quite a number of new members have been added to the church during the revival, and those in charge of the meeting are hopeful of securing more conversions and additions to the church. Large congregations attend the services and considerable interest is apparent.

ICE CREAM SUPPER.

A number of the ladies of the Star community have united in arranging for an ice cream festival at that place next Tuesday night. The receipts will be used to purchase an organ for the church at Star. The organ is needed and all denominations will get the benefit of it, therefore, the object of the entertainment is a worthy one and those who attend this festival will enjoy the occasion we know.

MOWER REPAIRS.

I keep Buckeye mower and binder repairs on hand. See me before you buy a mower and rake. I have something special to offer you in prices.—J. N. Keese, at the marble yard, Fisher street.

The world rates us where it finds us. If we are found opposing the right and thereby lending our support to the wrong we will be classed with those whose life work is that of demolishing instead of building. Let us lay a foundation for a life work by acquiring at least a reasonable education, and train our minds to think. Let us have some aim in life and let that aim be a correct one; and when this aim has been settled in our minds, work steadily to that end. It is the man with one object in view who is successful. The world doesn't want men who can do most anything, but it does need men who understand how to do one particular thing better than anybody else. The secret of success is steady application along some special line.—Stockdale Enterprise.

John P. Moore, postmaster at Energy, was arrested last Tuesday by Deputy U. S. Marshal Whit Dryden, on charge of having sold stamped envelopes at a higher price than allowed by law. Heretofore four stamped envelopes have been sold for 10 cents, but a recent ruling put them down to 9 cents. This Mr. Moore had not learned, hence was arrested and carried to Fort Worth where he made bond in the sum of $300 and returned to his home. Uncle Sam is very particular with his employes, but in this case we think he could have informed Mr. Moore in a polite note and no harm would have been done.—Comanche Visitor.

Three farmers of the Antelope Gap community were here Thursday selling wheat and oats and the aggregate amount received by them for their grain was more than $700. Verily, the grain crop has been beneficial to this country this year.

Hallettsville, Tex., Oct. 26, 1903.

Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis: Dear Sir—In the year 1896 I used your Texas Wonder for kidney and rheumatic troubles and I can safely recommend it to others who are suffering in the same manner. Yours respectfully, A. B. DEVALL, County Treasurer.

BUGGIES, HACKS, SURRIES,

Harness, Whips and Lap Dusters.

We would be pleased to have all young men who contemplate buying a buggy to call and examine our line before making their purchases. We carry nothing but Standard Makes of High Grade Goods in stock and you cannot make a mistake, as we have no other kind to offer. Don't buy some cheap make of buggy, as your best girl may think you are a cheap man. Cheap means worthless and you cannot afford to experiment at your own expense. Picnics and different kinds of amusements open up pretty soon and you might have more pleasure by early buying. Boys, come around, we will treat you right, and remember you get what you pay for when you buy from us. Yours for High Grade Vehicles,

BIG VALLEY.

Editor Eagle:

Revs. Haye and Vann's protracted services daily at 11 a. m and 6 to 10 p m. are proclaiming backsliders with glowing countenances and prophesying tongues. Also sinners around the mercy seat.

O give thanks to our God for his goodness to us children and pray for the people of U S. A. individually and wholely.

Big Valley crops are from 90 to 1 20, still growing and fruiting.

Lots of wagons hauling products to market. Henry Ezell sold a load of water melons Thursday at twenty cents each to one of the advertising merchants in Goldthwaite.

W. H. Oglesby, president of the Big Valley irrigation company, furnished the city people with tomatoes, peaches, melons, eggs and honey.

Fruit tree, machine, musical and drummer agents spying the Valley.

The Book Agent says he is feasting with the good people. He planted Bibles and Holiness tracts seven years ago and still his talk is "love one another for a friend love h at all times."

Wm. Trowbridge is off in the cool of this morning loaded with melons for town folks.

SAVES A WOMAN'S LIFE.

To have given up would have meant death for Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass. For years she had endured untold misery from a severe lung trouble and obstinate cough. "Often" she writes, "I could scarcely breathe and sometimes could not speak. All doctors and remedies failed till I used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was completely cured." Sufferers from coughs, colds, throat and lung trouble need this grand remedy, for it never disappoints. Cure is guaranteed by Ross & Clements. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

JUST ABOUT BEDTIME.

Take a Little Early Riser—it will cure constipation, billiousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are different from other pills. They do not gripe and break down the mucous membranes of the stomach, liver and bowels, but cure by gently arousing the secretions and giving strength to these organs. Sold by Ross & Clements.

STEERS WANTED.

We want two or three hundred yearling steers, will take them on your notes or accounts, or trade for anything in our line. They must be smooth and good colors. Scrubs and Jerseys barred out at any price. Yours for high grade goods.

CITY PARK.

The movement to have a city park arranged in the southern portion of this town meets with the approval of all who understand the proposition, and it is now almost certain that the plans as outlined by the citizens committee will be carried to a successful termination.

It is proposed to buy from ten to twenty-five acres of land, the amount to be governed by the price per acre required by the railroad company and other owners. The land is all to be fenced and cross-fenced. A pavillion or auditorium will be built, a refreshment stand large enough to hold a fair sized stock of goods will be erected, a well is to be sunk and a wind mill placed over it. This will be a suitable place for all gatherings and picnics and the sale of privileges for conducting the refreshment stand will be a source of revenue and the money so received can be used to improve the grounds. When reunions are held there or the people of the town decide to give a barbecue the grounds will be in readiness, thereby obviating the necessity for a subscription list to be circulated to get money to pay for clearing off the grounds, providing water and the like, therefore, donations will be unnecessary in most instances. Heretofore the people have had the grounds put in order, and in a few weeks the signs of the work done thereon had vanished, because of the absence of a fence around the premises. When this park is fenced and the improvements made thereon these things will be permanent, and therefore, the people of the town should be sufficiently interested to subscribe liberally for stock, understanding that there is no denomination, society or party with prior rights to the improvements and that no citizen is benefitted more than another by the enterprise.

REMANDED TO JAIL.

An inquest was held by Judge Hutchinson in Mullin Saturday, Monday and Tuesday to determine the manner in which Henry Smith was killed last week. After hearing the evidence the court announced that his verdict was that Henry Smith came to his death by a gunshot wound inflicted by Will Welty. A complaint was then filed with the court charging Welty with the murder and he was remanded to jail without the benefit of bond. His attorney has applied to District Judge Goodwin for a habeas corpus trial of the case and the Judge will announce in a few days what date he will be here to try the case.

THE JEWELER.

The 12 year old daughter of Mr. J. J. West died of typhoid fever at the family home in San Saba Wednesday.

Ed Levy and wife returned to their home in Brownwood Wednesday night, after a visit to W. B. Jackson and family in this city.

For cooking vessels, table glassware, crockery, etc, you will find only the best and most reliable goods the market produces at the old reliable Weakley & Watson.

Rev. A. Atkinson has been in Lampasas county this week and reports that T. O. Harrell & Son, who own a thrasher, have already thrashed 38,000 bushels of grain, 9000 of which came from one farm.

L. R. Conro will extend his building, now occupied by L. H. Little, the full length of his lot. Twenty feet of the addition will be used by Mr. Little and the remainder will be occupied as a ware house.

Ben Nugent, an industrious farmer of the Miller Grove community, gave the Eagle two well grown cotton bolls last Saturday. These were the first grown bolls we had seen and if Mr. Nugent has a pretty good patch of cotton with that sized bolls, the man who gets a bale of cotton to market before he does will have to rustle.

MANY ACCIDENTS.

This week has certainly been one of accidents in this part of Texas.

BOY KILLED.

Wednesday at noon the 4 year-old son of Chas. Mangrem of San Saba was killed by a house falling on him. Workmen were engaged in moving the old building formerly occupied by Wiley Williams' saloon, and had props around the house. While the men were at dinner the house fell and the little boy who was passing by was crushed beneath the timbers.

GIRL DROWNED.

The 10 year-old daughter of Pete Jackson was drowned in the railroad lake at Lometa Wednesday afternoon. She and some other girls were bathing in the lake and she ventured into water beyond her depth and was drowned before assistance could reach her. The Jackson family lived in Goldthwaite a good many years ago and have friends here who sympathize with them in this great misforture

YOUNG LADY HURT.

A horse fell with Miss Ollie Montgomery, in the Newburg community, Wednesday afternoon bruising her badly, but it is not thought that she is seriously injured. The young lady is a cousin of Mrs. J. J. Mills and J. C. Street of this city and they were informed by telephone Thursday that she was resting well.

KILLED BY A SNAKE.

Geo. Hufstutler's 10-year-old daughter was bitten by a rattlesnake at her home near Lometa Tuesday morning and died from the poison in a few hours. The particulars as secured by wire for the Eagle are that some of the Hufstutler family were sleeping in the yard near the house, on account of the weather being so warm. About 4 o'clock the little girl awoke and started to the house, when she stepped upon the snake, which was of huge size and carried twelve rattles.

INTERESTING MEETING.

Rev. G. W. Gartman and L. O Hicks are conducting a revival in the North Brown community and much interest is manifested. The meeting commenced last Friday and there was dinner on the ground Sunday. The congregations are large at every service and it is likely a number will go from this city Sunday to take part in the services.

ARRANGING GROUNDS.

Editor Eagle:

I want to announce through your paper that the Holiness will meet at the Holiness camp grounds at Center City August 3, to arrange the grounds for the Holiness meeting, which will begin August 14. We invite all who feel disposed, to come and help us in arranging the grounds.

W. E. Grisham, the popular grocer whose place of business is located between the two banks, "set 'em up" to the Eagle force with peaches Thursday.

J. O. Swindle was one of the prosperous farmers of the Cowhouse country who had business in this city this week.

Miss Effie Hester returned yesterday morning from Austin, where she attended the summer session of the State University.

For a lazy liver try Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets. They invigorate the liver, aid the digestion, regulate the bowels and prevent bilious attacks. For sale by all dealers.

The death of Mr. William Riley Lawson occurred a few days ago at the residence of his son-in-law, W. C. Beshears, on Pompey creek. The old gentleman was 80 years of age.

John Reeves, who owns one of the finest orchards in all of this country, was here this week selling fruit and made the Eagle a present of some extra nice peaches.

Mrs. R. A. Taylor and four little sons arrived in the city yesterday for a visit to relatives. Their home is in Miami, I. T., where Mr. Taylor is telegraph operator.

Rev. Linn has been in Mullin this week assisting in a revival. He requests that the Eagle announce that he will return to Goldthwaite in time to fill his regular appointments in the Methodist church Sunday.

Ice cold melons.—C. F. Blanton.

Rev. A. Atkinson has returned from Wallace creek, where he and Rev. Clampitt conducted a meeting last week. There were between 40 and 50 conversions and reclamations during the meeting.

Ewell Atkinson writes his relatives here about lightning striking a little boy near Gail, Borden county. The boys pants were set on fire by the the flash, but he was not seriously injured and the wagon in which he was riding was not damaged.

Children, like the vine, seek light, and nothing will enlighten your children more than having access to good, clean literature. Join Ross & Clements circulating library of 300 volumes and give your children a chance to read good books.

Parties wishing to transfer their children from one school district to another will have to attend to the matter before the apportionment is made, which will be some time next month. Judge Patterson will supply the necessary blanks for those who wish to make transfers.

Brownwood cream bread—Tullos.

Arrangements were made some time ago by the Masonic lodge at this place to have a school of instruction conducted in the lodge this week, but at a meeting of the lodge Monday afternoon it was decided to postpone it until a more convenient time.

No man or woman in the state will hesitate to speak well of Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets after once trying them. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels, improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. For sale by all dealers.

Hammond Bodkin of Berkley, Ky., arrived in the city Thursday and will spend the remainder of the year with his uncle, C. D. Hammond. He will fill a position in Mr. Hammond's store and if he is pleased with this country and climate he may decide to locate permanently.

Brownwood cream bread at Tullos.

Prof. S. J. Fisher has decided to locate in Goldthwaite and will take charge of the Mills County Institute for the fall session. Prof. Fisher is a graduate of several of the leading colleges in the state and has taught in some of the larger schools in this section. He is a gentleman of refinement and ability and the educational interests of the town have been advanced by his locating at this place.

Another guessing contest is on at Lochabay's barber shop. For every 10 cents paid for laundry done by the Lampasas laundry will be allowed a guess at the number of shot in a bottle and the one estimating the correct number will receive $10.

Rev. N. J. Ethredge of Roby, Texas, a Seven Day Adventist, has written to friends here that he will preach in the Presbyterian church in this city next Monday and Tuesday nights. He preached the first sermon ever delivered in Goldthwaite and officiated at the first wedding in Mills county.

Consul Commander J. A. Allen of Woodmen lodge announces that a regular meeting of that order will be held Monday night, at which time a number of new members will be initiated. The Mullin Woodmen have been invited to participate in this meeting and it is hoped that a number of the ... will be present.

HAMPTON ROADS, VA.

Editor Eagle:

I being a reader of your most valuable paper for a number of years and being a resident of Mills county at Center City, I have quite a number of friends and relatives there and would like them to know where I am and how I am getting along.

I left home about the middle of January. I spent about two months at Brownwood, then going to Fort Worth, where I enlisted in the U. S. Navy March 24, 1903. There were about twenty-five of us who enlisted at Fort Worth and we all left there March 31 and landed at the Navy yard, League Island, Philadelphia, Pa., April 3, and were assigned to the receiving ship Minneapolis, and I remained there for about two months.

I enjoyed the trip very much, but when I reached here I found a big difference in the climate. Much cooler here than in Texas. I started to school before I left home to get a literary education, but I think that before my four years are up in the navy I will have a good education.

After spending two months on the receiving ship Minneapolis, I was transferred to the training ship Yankee, which is now making a three months cruise through the southern waters. It is very pleasant to be out on the great waters and I think that I would like to spend my life on the sea. After making this cruise we will stand an examination for ordinary seamen, and those who pass this examination will have their salaries raised from $16 to $19 per month. I joined as landsman and for training I get $16 per month.

Out of the twenty-five who came with me there but seven in the service today. Some having received medical discharges and some having run away. It hasn't been but a few days since the fourth of July and we had a very nice time that day. We had a sham battle between five training cruisers, which included the Mongahela, the Prairie, Topeka, Yankee and Alliance, which is the flag ship of the squadron, and it certainly was a very fine sight.

I received a copy of your paper a few days ago, which gave me great pleasure to learn that the people in Texas are going to have fine crops this year, as they have not made a crop in two years, and to learn that the people were getting along so well. I don't get a copy of your paper, but once a month and that is sent to me by my people, and I feel very lonesome without it, and would be very glad if you would send me a copy with this piece being in it.

I will now say goodbye, hoping some day in the near future I will be back among my old friends in Mills county. JOHN SNYDER.

U. S. S. Yankee, in care of Navy Department, Washington, D. C.

ELECTION LAW.

A portion of the law will appear each week until all has been published. The provisions are not operative until after Feb. 1, 1904.

Sec. 120. If any person shall open or keep open any barroom, saloon or wholesale liquor house, where vinous, malt, spirituous and intoxicating liquors are sold, during any portion of the day on which an election is held for any purpose or office in the voting precinct, town or city where such election is held, or shall in such voting precinct, village, town or city, sell, barter or give away any vinous, malt, spirituous or intoxicating liquor during the day of such election, or if any person shall carry or cause to be carried to the polling place on the day of election any such liquor for the purpose of sale, gift, or drinking the same, or if any person shall find and take possession of any liquor at or near the polling place, or inform another of its whereabouts, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, that such liquors may be sold on election day by a drug store to fill a prescription of a physician, who will at the time certify in writing on honor that it is needed by his sick patient, leaving such certificate with the druggist, and provided such sick patient is confined for that day to his bed.

Sec. 121. Any person who attempts to falsely personate at an election another person, and vote or attempt to vote on the authority of a poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption not issued to him by a county tax collector, is guilty of a felony, and shall be punished by hard labor within the walls of a penitentiary not less than three nor more than five years.

Sec. 122 If any person shall make a false affidavit that his poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption has been lost or mislaid, or wilfully and corruptly induce another to make such affidavit, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than three nor more than five years.

Sec. 123. If any person shall wilfully alter or obliterate, suppress or destroy any ballots, election returns or certificates of election, he shall be deemed guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the State penitentiary not less than three nor more than five years.

Sec. 124. Any collector of taxes who shall knowingly and wilfully issue and deliver a poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption to a fictitious person, shall be punished by confinement in the State penitentiary not less than three nor more than five years.

Sec. 125. Any collector of taxes, or clerk in his office, who shall deliver any poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption to any other person than to the citizen whose name is written thereon and who is entitled thereto, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 126. Any one to whom a poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption may be intrusted for safe keeping, who fails to return the same to the owner thereof at least three days before any primary election day or primary convention day, and three days before any general election day, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, that if the party so intrusted is unable to find the citizen who gave it to him, he may evade the penalty of this section by proving that he delivered it three days before such election day to the county collector of taxes of the county to be delivered to the owner.

Sec. 127. Any person who shall sell, pledge, loan or deposit his poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption for money or any other thing of value, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and the person who purchases, borrows or obtains possession of the same by way of pledge or loan, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Either of the parties to such wrongful act may be compelled to appear and testify in a proceeding against the other, but he shall not thereafter be arrested or punished for his participation in such wrongful act

Sec. 128. If any person intrusted with the transmission to the precinct election judges of official ballots, poll tax receipts and exemption certificate rolls, sample cards, instructions, and all supplies required to conduct an election, or who being intrusted with the retransmission of election returns, or election boxes, wilfully fails to deliver, or wilfully does any act to defeat the delivery thereof, or not being a person intrusted therewith shall do any act to defeat the due delivery of such election returns, election supplies, or election boxes, or who being an officer or person with whom may be legally intrusted the ballots cast at an election, shall open and read any ballot or permit it to be done, except as provided by law in the discharge of his duty, be shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 129. Any person who fails to keep securely any ballot box containing ballots voted at an election, when committed to his charge by one having authority over the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 130. Any person who shall do any electioneering, or solicit a citizen to vote for any person on election day within one hundred feet of a polling place, or who, being a precinct judge or clerk at an election, electioneering at any place on election day, either at a primary election or primary convention, or general election, or shall wilfully and illegally remove official ballots from the polling place, or who, being a voter, shall show his ballot after he marks it so as to reveal the vote he has prepared, or marks it otherwise than the law provides for identification, or who, being a voter, shall deliver to a precinct judge of election any other ballot than the one delivered to him by a judge at a polling place, or who, being a precinct judge or clerk of election, shall indicate by word, gesture or sign to any citizen on the day of election how he desires him to vote, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 131. Any person who lends or contributes, or offers or promises to lend or contribute or pay, any money or other valuable thing to any voter to influence his vote, or to influence the vote of any other person, whether under the guise of a wager or otherwise, to induce any voter to vote or refrain from voting at an election for or against any person or persons, or for or against any particular proposition submitted to voters, or to induce such voter to come to the polls or remain away from the polls at any election, or to induce such voter or other person to place or cause to be placed his name on the poll tax or certificate of exemption rolls, is guilty of a felony, and on conviction shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary not less than three nor more than five years, and, in addition, forfeits any office to which he may have been elected at the election, with reference to which such offense may have been committed, and becomes incapable of holding office under the laws of Texas.

A SURGICAL OPERATION.

Is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me eighteen months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since—H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Ross & Clements.

BASEBALL PLAYERS AND FOOT RACERS!

Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, Oct. 27, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks foot-races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c, $1 bottle at Dr. J. H. Logan.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secret mucin, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach. For years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure—J. R. CURED OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by all dealers.
