

Local Lions schedule the ladies

The Eldorado Lions Club will put on their traditional ladies' night honoring the school faculty members this coming Tuesday evening, Sept. 13th, starting at 7:30 in El Dorado Restaurant.

Lions Club president, Phil Olson and Walter Wallis, immediate past president, report arrangements complete for the event.

Those invited are Lions Club members and their wives and all school faculty members and their husbands and wives, as well as trustees of the Schleicher County Independent School District.

At the Lions Club meeting last week, Boss Lion Olson took the reservations of the members who plan to attend the ladies night Tuesday.

Lion Wallis and the other school administrators are taking reservations this week of the school personnel who will plan to attend.

This early-fall ladies night is a long-standing tradition of the Lions Club that has been put on each year by the club for many years. Well over a hundred people usually attend the event.

There will not be a meeting of the Lions Club at noon on Wednesday, Sept. 14th, since the ladies night takes the place of it. The club will meet again on Wednesday, Sept. 21st.

Something To Think About

by Jannette Wilkerson

FOOTBALL - SCHOOL OF HARD KNOCKS

This is it! His last football season. Since he was in the fifth grade, I've sat in the stands watching him get clobbered, creamed, and smeared. Each game I've said a silent prayer that he wouldn't get his brain scrambled or a limb busted, and each week he made a sincere plea that should that happen, I wouldn't run out on the field. So as the band played the School Song, they stood reverently, determined to defend the honor of their Alma Mater with total disregard to physical abuse. Yep! The last season of sharing every blow he takes, and as Howard would say, "sharing the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat." So why am I not glad? Why are parents grateful to this sometimes brutal game? Maybe it's because we realize football has taught them more about 'life' than they ever get from books, parents, or even Sunday School.

They've learned 'first hand' the importance of teamwork, pulling together to get a job done, how to excel individually, putting themselves against their own endurance. They have found out for themselves that even with pain you can still go one more yard, and make just one more score. They know what part their attitude plays in succeeding. It's taught them how to use brains and brawn to their advantage, as well as those around them. They've learned self-reliance without being alone, and that pride, integrity, sportsmanship, and spirit, more than compensates for weight and speed.

But best of all, football has given them 'Desire' - the desire that comes from love and respect for the game, the team, and the coaches. They know how to be 'do-er's'; desire transformed into fuel to meet the odds, and isn't that what life is? a game of challenge?

That makes Winners! Even before the game is played - and that's something to think about.....

Stretch your energy dollars - install an energy-efficient electric heat pump

A heating system that's more than 200% efficient may seem like something out of the future. But it isn't. It's yours today, with the electric heat pump. Because when correctly installed in a properly insulated home, the heat pump produces two units of heat for each single unit of electricity it uses. The heat pump operates by using the future's most abundant energy source, solar energy. It transfers heat that's always present in sun-warmed outside air into your home during the winter. And reverses the process, pumping heat outdoors during the summer.

If you have plans to buy, build, or remodel, or are looking for a new heating and cooling system for your home, call a local FACTORY CERTIFIED heat pump dealer or talk with WTU. We will arrange for a WTU heating and cooling specialist to contact you. Learn more about the easy-to-install, economical electric heat pump — your most energy-efficient heating and cooling system buy.

Remember REDDY Supplies the energy— but only YOU can use it wisely!

COUGARS DOWN HIGHLAND, 27-20

The Christoval Cougars got off to a winning start Friday night as they defeated Highland 27-20.

In the first quarter Tim Hayes scored for the Cougars on a 30 yd run. The extra point failed. Highland countered soon after with a 12 yd scoring run by Ivan Kryci. After the extra point failed the score was tied 6-6.

In the second quarter, Highland pulled ahead as Kryci again scored on a 2 yd run. The point after attempt was good and the score at halftime was 14-6.

Christoval began the third quarter with a score by Tim Hayes 8 yds out. The score was set up by a blocked punt by Byron Sawyer. On Highland's next possession Kyle Green intercepted a Highland pass and returned it 45 yds for a touchdown. The point after was good. Hayes scored once again in the third quarter on a 4 yd run. With the extra point good, the score was 27-14 in favor of Christoval.

The only score in the fourth quarter was a 40 yd touchdown pass by Highland bringing the final score to 27 for Christoval and 20 for Highland.

This week the Cougars travel to Loop. The next home game is Sept. 23, with Ira. If you have never seen a 6-man football game, we urge all of you to come and watch the Cougars in action. In this time of energy shortage, there is no need to go to Dallas to see the excitement of a football game. Just come to Christoval and watch the Big Red Cougars in action!

There are 33 girls in the drill team under the direction of Roylan Neil. Cheerleaders are Vickie Martinez (Head), Terri Martin, Barbara Herrera and Lisa Green. All of these girls put on a wonderful performance during half-time Friday night.

work table, a supply of pots, a hammer to break up old pots for shards for drainage, (do wash these pots before broken to remove any mineral deposits on the sides or on the rims, this tends to burn off plants), pruning shears are needed to trim plants that need pruning and shaping and a tub or rich humus soil.

All pots should be washed - this opens the pores of clay pots to permit it breathing for the soil.

All plants, except cacti, aloes, rubber plants and some of the succulents, are trimmed back severely.

After pruning, the plant is removed from the pot by inverting it and striking the pot with a sharp blow on the edge of the table while supporting the plant and earth ball with spread fingers. The earth ball will usually slip right out of the pot unless you neglected to wash the pot the last time you planted it. If the plant is not root bound it may be placed back in the pot, but I feel that all the soil value has been used up and the plant will make better growth with new soil.

Remove the old soil from the roots with a rubbing or kneading motion. Repot in the same pot. If a larger plant is desired, use a larger pot.

Some plants, as geraniums and amaryllis, seems to do better when root bound, they should be pruned just a little for a larger pot, if you prefer.

After soil removal and pruning place a half-inch of broken pottery in the bottom of the pot and replant.

Place the soil in the pot an inch at a time and firm with the fingers or a stick or pencil is an ideal tool. Place the plant at the same

A Message from Eldorado's Ministerial Alliance

by Dean Brigham, Minister
First Christian Church

"LOVE CONQUERS SIN"

"He was manifested to take away our sins." 1 John 3:5

Sin is represented in the Bible as an active, malignant, blighting, death-dealing force in human life. Our experience with sin and our observation of its workings confirm the charges brought against it by the Bible. Sin enters the heart of man and contaminates his emotions; it invades his intellect and warps his judgment; it masters the will and determines the decisions and choices; it degrades the physical senses until they hunger for the satisfactions of sinful delights.

John gives us the only remedy that has ever been provided to remove sin from the human heart and life; "He was manifested to take away our sins." The purpose was not merely to curb sin, limit its activities, or even punish its deeds, but to remove it and cleanse the life of its blight. A young man once remarked: "My brother has a sin which only the grace of God can cure." Only the grace of God through Christ can conquer sin in us and free us from its domination.

This word "manifested" calls attention to our part in becoming free from our sins. Jesus died for our sins; that was a work which he alone could do. He arose for our justification; no one else could do that. He is now at the right hand of God interceding for us; no one else can fill that place. These functions belong exclusively to him.

In the manifested Christ we see: Love wounded by our sins, the kind of man or woman we may become without sin, the power which will enable us to be like him.

"Whoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law; for sin is the transgression of the law. And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

Talk to someone this week that has never accepted Christ as their personal Saviour and see how happy you will be. Go to the Church of your choice this Sunday.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

How many lives have been saved and how many times has the duration of pain been shortened by ambulance service is an academic question because that is what it is supposed to do. The situation in Schleicher County is unique in that it is totally volunteer work dependant upon the quick arrival of men drawn off their jobs or from their sleep to assist the personnel at the Medical Center in the transfer of the critically ill patients. These volunteers submit their names on a roster which is kept at the Center and the Sheriff's office and are called when an emergency is encountered. About 12 men take care of this vital service 365 days each year. We need more, obviously, but that is not the concern of this letter. However, recognition should be given to those driver attendants and the volunteer list for September as follows: Frank Williams, Ronnie Mittel, Richard Harris, Lynn Meador, W.G. Crippin, Jerry Swift, Phil Olson, Bob Lester, Domingo Pina, Rudy Robledo and Kenith Homer.

The Schleicher County Emergency Service uses the ambulance supplied by funds from the County and maintained by collections from those people who utilize the service. All monies collected are used for the upkeep of the vehicles and to purchase new supplies and modern equipment. Several men who cannot volunteer to transport patients spend much time in repairing and maintaining the ambulance so that it is constantly ready. More money is needed for these services but that is not the reason for this information.

For eight years we have been able to get drivers at the time of need which is always an emergency. Sometimes, however, the driver on call is out of town, cannot be reached for some reason, or may not be available on short notice. When such an occasion arises Phil Olson responds with "I'll be right there" when called. The reason for this note is a public thank you from me and the staff to Phil for giving his time and himself to the relief of pain and suffering by his volunteer action. It is habit now to say "call Phil" if any of the men on the daily roster cannot be reached immediately and HE ALWAYS COMES.

Phil, I am most appreciative of your devotion and service. The staff knows the lives you have helped save, and join me in this THANK YOU. Our health care services would be less than complete without your assistance.

Of course we need more volunteer drivers/attendants, that small group of men who make the emergency runs. A special recognition however should go to Phil because as long as he is around you will have an emergency ambulance service in Schleicher County.

Very truly yours,
J.B. Brame, M.D.

KNOW YOUR NEIGHBOR

This week's interview landed square in the nest of the Hummingbird's, the home of Lester and Ann Rogers, in what is known as the Methodist parsonage, distinctly personalized by the bathtub filled with overflowing Rose Moss and cactus along one corner of the yard.

As I interviewed Lester, it was as if I had been transported back in time, so vividly was his past experiences reviewed. To share them with the readers is a pleasure indeed.

Lester Rogers was born in Blocker, Oklahoma, the oldest of three children, 2 boys and 1 girl, to Della and Alford Rogers on August 14, 1920.

He first entered school in Wainright, Okla., in what was called primary, at that time, where the first three grades were taught in one room with about 35 or 40 students in the room. The entire school had 175-200 students, as Lester recalls.

His first grade teacher was Teresa Willner, and had a wooden leg.

"The first school bus was a wagon pulled by horses which we rode about 5 miles to school rain or shine," Lester relates. Two years later in 1929, it snowed 2 days after Thanksgiving and continued snowing and sleeting until by January there was 3 and 4 ft of snow and ice everywhere, but we never missed a day of school," he went on to add. "On that year we rode our first gas driven bus, a 1929 Blue Chevrolet truck, covered in back with the same wagon canvas used on the previous wagon. A senior would help up the children and pull a cord to let the driver know when to move on."

"The driver's name was Ed Guthrie, and he had strict discipline, with the Peck's Bad Boys riding up front in disgrace with him. Occasionally, he would have to spank someone, and he didn't hesitate either. However, I can't remember but one boy who was made to walk home and this straightened him out," Lester recalled.

"We all carried our lunch as there was no lunchroom until I was about in the 5th or 6th grade, when each teacher cooked a pot of soup on the coal stoves with bonnets around them to keep the children out of trouble. Into the pots went whatever each child brought - potatoes, onions, canned corn, etc., along with meat and crackers to eat it with furnished by the government. We each brought our own bowl and spoon which we returned home to be washed each night as there was no running water.

"The janitor's job included carrying water for drinking along with tending the stoves and cranking up the kolar light plant during basketball games.

"Since there was no water, naturally, we used the path (not the bath) to the outhouses out back about 100 yds," he went on to add.

The two pranks he remembers most at the school house was the calf he and several boys slipped into school and they left all doors open inside the building, and darned if that calf didn't even go upstairs. This was on Halloween weekend, but came Monday morning, school started just the same. "We had a tough principal named F. A. Caven," said Lester.

The other time someone broke a window pane and tossed a skunk in and Lester stated that he wouldn't be surprised if the girls didn't do that. "We all stuck together though, in fact, the twelve students I started with graduated together at that same school," he went on to add.

"We had no PE but I loved basketball and we would play all during recess. At first we sold Cloverine Salve to buy our suits, but later on people began donating. Our shoes cost 75c and socks were 6 pair for a dollar, and we were then ready to play.

"I made the high school basketball team in the 7th grade along with two other classmates, and with two Sophomore year on, held the starting position along with four more. It was not against the rules for grade school to play on high school teams in Oklahoma then," Lester explained.

As the crew flew, he lived 7 miles from school and right after practice, he had to hurry home to help with the chores, so across the pastures he ran jumping fences as he went, adding to his natural skill as a basketball player. His position on the team was post, just under the basket, and he still holds the record for most points for that school in any one game - 72 points.

This was a Class C school at that time and his team won state in his sophomore year. "I guess the seven of us thought we were pretty great until one coach slowed us down. He had coached the grade school boys in his senior and went on to college and came back as our coach and pretty well knew us and the area. It was training season and a big party was going on that night. He told us if we went and broke the rules we wouldn't play the next night. We went anyway," Lester laughed as he related the incident. "Not a word was said. We thought we had it made - we dressed, warmed up between the girls game and were all ready to go. The whistle blew and the coach chose his five and we went to the bench. Second quarter time came and the president of the school board and the superintendent came charging over to ask questions. Half time came, Mamas, Daddys, everybody came crowding in the dressing room. Now the coach asked each and everyone of us if we knew why we were not playing," Lester said. Lester was the first one he asked and he agreed that, yes, he knew and so did all the other except one whose suit was then taken away. When the game resumed, the coach said there was an announcement to be made.

Lions Club plans fund-raising projects

With Phil Olson as Boss Lion, the Eldorado Lions Club has two money-raising projects on the agenda for this fall.

At their meeting this week, the club voted to put on the Halloween Candy Sale again. Last year about 450 bags of candy were sold at $1.50 each and similar arrangements will be made for the event next month.

The Candy Sale will be conducted near the Post Office with Lions Club members taking turns selling. The sale will be put on about 10 days ahead of Halloween. Kenith Homer is to be chairman of this sale.

The second money-raising project of the Lions Club for the immediate future will be the Broom & Mop Sale. It will be conducted early in November and articles sold will be made by the Texas Blind Shops. Other articles sold in addition to brooms and mops will include brushes, cleaning supplies, wash cloths, top brooms, etc., all made by blind workers and sold through Texas Lions Clubs.

Further details will be given in the Express News as we get closer to November; in the meantime be saving up your broom and mop needs.

Both of the foregoing projects have been staged by the Eldorado Lions Club for many years and the sale proceeds are used by the local club for local projects and needs.

Two pastors equal one good time at nursing home last Sunday!

Due to a mix-up or a slight misunderstanding, the pastors from two of the local churches came to the Nursing Home Sunday for our service in the dining room, and it was wonderful that it happened that way, because as a result, we had a glorious service. Reverend Lyman Mobley, pastor of the local Presbyterian Church and Gene Stark, pastor of the local First Baptist Church, were with us. Rev. Mobley brought an inspiring message and Gene Stark led the singing. The sermon was greatly appreciated and enjoyed and we all love to sing. Some Sunday's they sing only a song or two, but we got to sing several good hymns this Sunday. We were so happy, also, because the dining room was almost filled with visitors from out of town.

We do wish that every Sunday we could have a goodly number of visitors, as we all like to see new faces that we don't see during the week.

The Antioch Baptist Church will conduct the service here on September 11th.

I say again, as I have said before, that Eldorado and Schleicher County should be very proud of our hospital and nursing home. Many towns, as small as this one, are not as fortunate as we are here, along that line.

Elva Daniels is still not doing very well and is in bed most of the time. All of the other residents are doing as well as usual.

We had a few visitors last week: Mr & Mrs Bill Wade and children of Sonora, Texas and Mrs Sellman, also of Sonora, visited Myrtle Wade; Delia Gardener had several visitors: Mr & Mrs Frank Oldhour of Mason, Texas - a niece of hers visited her - also Mr & Mrs Frank Carter of Austin (Mrs Carter is her granddaughter) and her friend Mrs Maudie Barnes of Lamesa were her guests.

Mrs. Ross McAngus of San Angelo visited her mother-in-law, Lizzie McAngus; Mr & Mrs Howard Proctor of San Angelo visited her mother, Elva Daniels; Lodi Putman Carter of San Angelo visited LaVita Brooks.

Monday evening of last week, our own Winnie Jackson, vendor at the candy case in the lobby, fell while feeding her horses at her home west of town.

She has a broken knee and ankle. We are all so very sorry about this and are wishing for her as quick a recovery as is possible.

She is doing fine and sat in the lobby in the wheel chair yesterday for a while. She will be greatly missed every afternoon at the candy case.

The Bingo winners last Wednesday were: Ella Casbeer 1 game - Bess Andrews 1, Beulah Harris 1, Delia Gardener 1, Maggie Sluder 2, Erna Rexroat 1.

The Bingo winners last Friday were: Carrie Blake-way 2 games, Maggie Sluder 1, Erna Rexroat 1, LaVita Brooks 1, and Bess Andrews 1.

Several persons, during the past week, have mentioned to me about my first ride in the "Sky Blue Yonder" last week. Dr. Brame is one who has and he just shook his head. I don't know whether he was surprised, because possibly he may have heard how I had always felt about it. Perhaps he doesn't care much about that mode of travel.

JUST JOGGIN' ALONG!

By Express News Publisher, ED MEADOR

Seems like we're always talking about the weather, but like everyone else, we haven't learned what to do about it. Anita like it better south of the border, and Babe didn't even look our way. I'd just about decided the cool breezes were holding out on us too, until the last couple of days. There's a lot of small grain waiting in the ground, and the nagging thought that old Jack Frost must be whetting his appetite keep cropping up. And all of those distant thunderheads seem to be laughing just as us. For a lot of ranchers, a good, general rain would sure be welcome. A lot of cotton farmers might disagree with the fluffy white stuff beginning to pop open in the fields. So it's one of those situations where your "damned if does and damned if it don't". Most likely we'll just take what comes . . . and like it.

Eldorado has a football team to be proud of this year, friends, and if you were absent at the opening game against Rankin last Friday evening, you missed a bunch. Out-manned and out-weighted, the Eagles put on the best opening night performance seen around these parts in many years. They played as a team, and they blocked and tackled with vengeance. It was a heart-breaker to lose 19-13 in the last forty-five seconds, but those young men left no doubt that they were for real. Coach Mike Williamson and his staff are due a lot of credit for the Eagles' showing against the eighth rated Class A team in the state. So the Eagles are flying, and somebody is gonn' get scratched.

Would you like to find out if what you think matters? Well, now's your chance. The coming weeks will see one of the greatest debates in our recent history as Congress decides whether or not to ratify the treaty President Carter is signing with Panama. Might be a good time, regardless of your position on the matter, to let your congressmen and senators know just how you feel. Recent indications are that the mails are running 9-1 against the treaty. If that holds up, it's a pretty sure bet the majority of the people in the US of A don't care for the idea. But remember, someone pointed out not long ago that this is getting to be a country where the majority doesn't rule.

At least you still have the freedom and ability to speak your mind. So take advantage of the fact and make your wishes known.

There wasn't much doubt last Friday evening as to who won the half-time show. The Red Devil band looked great, but that "Marching Band from Eagleland" took the field and the crowd. Mr Mac has been doing that with his charges for as long as most of us can remember. They are proud to be there, and the way they play lets everyone know they are in integral part of a fine school and a great community. Guess who they get the most enjoyment out of performing for . . . no doubt about it . . . Mom and Dad and You! So nothing really needs to be said about where everybody will be this coming Friday night. Just someone let those folks in Iraan know that they better get ready for a crowd.

Tommie Boswell. Hostesses will be Dorothy Clark and Rose Berry. The sorority meets twice monthly and helps in sev-ral community activities such as hosting the annual Halloween Carnival and presenting a $100 scholarship for local seniors.

"Youths Against Cancer" will organize

Members of the local chapter of the American Cancer Society are looking for adult sponsors for a new program of the ACS, called YAK (Youths against Cancer).

Purposes of the program are to educate youths by building awareness in all aspects of cancer, to initiate awareness of roles that youths can assume in the fight against cancer, make people aware of the basic cancer facts of prevention, detection, and treatment and to use this knowledge to protect their own and their families' health, to provide services to cancer patients where youths can offer their own unique skills, to assist in fund raising activities by participating in youth oriented activities and creating an awareness of the ACS in youth and adults. Goals of the program are to involve youths in the fight against cancer, acquaint youths with skills and materials which they can effectively reach those around them, and involve youths in community activities. Anyone interested in helping with this program can call Ruthie Dacy, president of the local ACS chapter.

Grass fire occurs at Forlano's

A grass fire that began about 4:30 p.m. Saturday burned about ten acres of land close to the Dr Albert Forlano home west of town. The fire began while workmen from Southwest Texas Electric Cooperative were working on a transformer about 30 feet from the Forlano home. Sparks caused from a short ignited the dry grass. The fire quickly spread to within 15 feet of the house and then north to a pasture. Nine men from the Eldorado Volunteer Fire Department answered the fire alarm, as well as several neighbors.

Forlano to speak at H. D. Luncheon today

The Schleicher County Home Demonstration Clubs will have a membership luncheon at noon today in the Memorial Building. The purpose of this luncheon is to help homemakers in the community become more aware of home demonstration clubs and the work they do.

Speaker for the luncheon will be Dr Albert Forlano, professor of medicinal chemistry, retired.

Dr Forlano will speak on the effects that non-prescription medication alone or in combinations makes on our bodies. He will be talking about the effect that non-prescription drugs can have when taken without medical supervision. He will also talk about the interactions of drugs with alcoholic beverages.

Soil Conservation Service Prepares for Tour

Plans for the range tour and field day on the Jimmie Powell ranch have been finalized, according to Freddie Williams, director of the Eldorado-Divide Water and Soil Conservation District.

The tour will be September 29, beginning at 9 a.m. Registration will begin the activities, followed by chartered bus tours of the Powell ranch operation. The tour will end at Fort McKavett, where the crowd will eat barbeque and hear guest speaker Dolph Briscoe.

Other speakers for the noon meal and program will be Dr. W. A. "Dub" Waldrip, general manager of Spade Ranches; Pearce Johnson, chairman of the commission, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department; J. A. Whittenburg, III, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association; Bill Schneemann, president of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association; Kenneth Kuykendall, president of the Texas Association of Soil and Water Conservation District; Gary Mathis, president of the Texas Section, Society of Range Management; Dr. B. J. Ragsdale, past president of the Society of Range Management and Gully Cowser, Jr., superintendent of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Voy Lee Butts, chairman of the Eldorado-Divide Soil and Water Conservation District will give the welcome, and Howard Derrick, local rancher, will give the introductions.

Sponsoring the tour are the Texas section, Society of Range Management, Eldorado Divide Soil and Water Conservation District, USDA Soil and Conservation Service, the University of Texas system and the Texas A&M University System.

The tour is open to the public, although 1450 invitations have been mailed.

Powell accelerated his grassland restoration work in 1969 when he worked out a detailed conservation plan. The plan, after being approved by the board of directors of the Eldorado-Divide Soil and Water Conservation District, was used as the basis for a Great Plains Conservation Program contract which Powell entered into with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. GPCP is administered by the Soil Conservation Service.

The plan called for about 10,200 acres of tree dozing and range seeding. It also called for cross-fencing 6 pastures and adding 26 new water developments, including 9 windmills and 2 1/2 miles of pipelines. Powell now has 12 pastures on the ranch, ranging in size from 300 acres to 1,300 acres, with a total of 34 livestock watering developments.

To date, Powell has increased his stocking rate from 24 animal units per section to 55 animal units per section.

When deer on the ranch are included in the calculations, Powell's stocking rate hits an almost unbelievable 60 animal units per section, or one animal unit to about 10.6 acres.

And that's in an area that averages only about 22 inches of rainfall per year. Powell runs sheep, cattle, Angora goats, a few Spanish goats, and a string of horses. He uses a modified short duration grazing system on part of the ranch from about April 5 to about September 1.

Here's how the complicated systems works: After fall lambs are sold in the spring--generally by Easter or not later than April 15--some 2,700 to 3,000 head of sheep from 12 pastures are grouped into one herd and placed in one pasture. (Actual livestock numbers fluctuate according to range condition.) About every two weeks, the sheep herd is moved to a different pasture in the rotation.

After calves are weaned in June and July, some 270 to 300 cows are also grouped into one herd and placed in the pasture immediately ahead of the sheep. About every two weeks, both herds are moved again, with the cattle always ahead of the sheep. After the pastures are grazed, most of them are rested until September, when the livestock are scattered back into the 12 pastures on the ranch.

But only about two-thirds of the ranch is grazed with this rotation. The remaining one-third is rested during the April to September period.

All livestock are fed supplemental feed during the winter, although the amount depends on the weather, amount of forage available, and other factors. The cubed ration is formulated to correct specific deficiencies revealed in the bi-monthly forage analyses made by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. These tests have been made regularly since 1971. Forage collections are made by TAE personnel stationed at the San Angelo Research Center and the Schleicher County Agricultural Agent. Laboratory analysis work is done by TAE personnel at Texas A&M University.

The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station is also making some bitterweed control experiments on the Powell ranch, but results are inconclusive at this time.

CHECKING GRASSLAND -- Jimmie Powell checks the grassland before the range tour the end of this month.

Powell has followed an extensive grassland improvement program since 1969.

David Lloyd heads 1977 Cotton Program

The 1977 Cotton Boll Weevil Diapause Control Program is underway. The Schleicher County Cotton Association headed by President, David Lloyd, is in its 5th year. The producers of Schleicher County have been involved in trying to improve the cotton growing condition in the county.

The Boll Weevil numbers have been less this year than ever before -- the damage only occurred during the past 30 days. Before this time the weevil damage has been almost non-existent.

The cotton producers have invested approximately $3 to $9 per acre each year for the past 5 years. This is an effort that not all agriculture producers will endure to improve their own situation. The Texas Department of Agriculture has aided in the program 3 of the years. The other two years have been done by the producers' own funds.

The 1977 spraying will begin September 13th -- spraying 6301 acres. Sept. 19th, Oct. 3rd, Oct. 17th, and Oct. 31st are the dates set for the spraying.

The officers and directors are: President - David Lloyd; Vice President - Walter Powell, Jr.; Secretary-Treasurer - Duwain Sauer.

Directors are: Billy Williams, Nick Jurecek, Norris Sauer, Mike Mikeska, De Lux, Ricky Fuessel, and Johnny Griffin.

Remember when you see a cotton farmer that he is trying to improve the cotton growing situation in Schleicher County.

SCHLEICHER COUNTY SUNFLOWER SEEDS -- Chris McCravey (white hat) and Walter Powell (left) watch as sunflower seeds are unloaded at the Eldorado Wool Warehouse Depot. The seeds were harvested from the Steve Williams farm in the western part of the county. McCravey said that the sunflower harvest was about halfway complete with about 500 acres left to be cut.

FALL LANDSCAPE COLOR

Now is the time to begin observing fall colors in the countryside and to make plans to add colorful and interesting plants to your own home landscape, says a landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Plants may be selected for their attractive foliage or fruit, interesting seed pods, or unusual bark characteristics. Many such plants are available at nurseries, but some may have to be collected from their native habitat.

Eagles lose opener to Rankin 19-13

326 Total Yards	324
5-8-1 Passes	3-5-0

2-2 Fumbles-Lost	0
5-37 Penalties-Yards	7-75

Everyone was pleased with almost everything except the score.

The Eldorado Eagles dropped a heartbreaker to the Rankin Red Devils here last Friday night. The opening game for both teams was a hard fought battle. No one really knew if it would be a win, lose, or draw until the final 45 seconds had been played. But then it descended upon the Eagles for a 19-13 loss.

Coach Mike Williamson said he was very pleased with the pursuit and enthu-siasium he saw. But the team will have to work on a few fundamentals.

Early in the game it looked like it would be a long game for the hometown boys. Rankin received the opening kickoff and moved the ball from their 34 yardline to the Eldorado 11.

A swing pass from Rankin quarterback Randy Daege to end Randy Glosion made it Rankin 6, Eldorado 0. The PAT by Michael Dupriest was good and Rankin led 6-0 with 8:45 left in the first quarter.

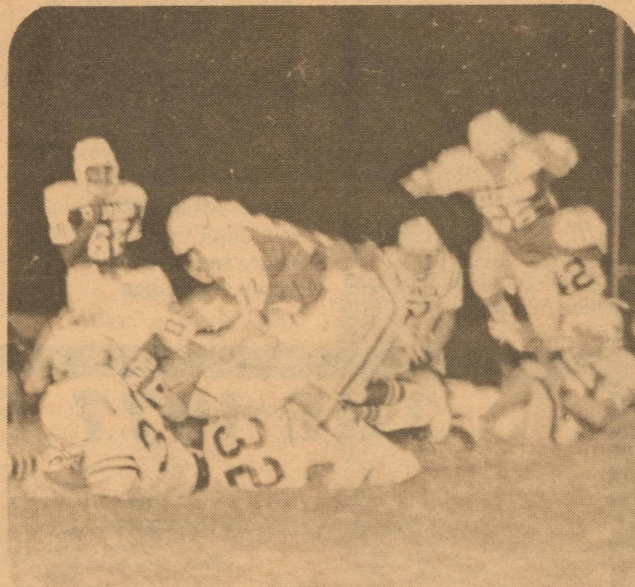

The Eagles were quick to strike back. On the first down following Rankin's kickoff, senior quarterback Ernesto Martinez connected with senior fullback David Robledo for a 70 yard pass run combination. Robledo held the ball and Martinez made it a tied ballgame with 8:02 remaining in the first quarter.

No scoring was done for the remainder of the first quarter. The Eagles did recover a fumble and work the ball down to the Rankin 3 yard line. But Rankin held and Eldorado missed a sharp angle field goal attempt.

Rankin began an 80 yard drive after the missed field goal. The Red Devil touchdown came on a 4 yard plunge by 188 pound sophomore Scott Russom. The PAT failed but Rankin led 13-7.

Each team traded punts in the second quarter until Eldorado could mount a drive. The Eagles began on their own 38 yardline, and scored another Martinez to Robledo pass. This time it was for 18 yards and a touchdown.

The PAT failed. The game was tied 13-13 until the second half began.

A group of unidentified Eagles bring down an Iran running back as they near the goal line.

The third quarter each team got inside their opponent's 10 yardline, but neither team was able to score.

In the fourth quarter Eldorado could not get past midfield. But Rankin was within the Eagle 15 yardline three times. Each time the Eagle defense stiffened and held the Red Devils from scoring.

The end came on an intercepted pass by Rankin. This set up Rankin with a 1 & 10 on the Eagle 41 yardline with four minutes to go.

Eleven plays later, Rankin quarterback Bront Myers put the game on ice with a 4 yard pass for Golson's second touchdown of the night.

The PAT failed, but it wasn't needed. Rankin had all the points they needed. The Eagles travel to Iraan tonight.

See you at the game!

to come out on top. Iraan is expected to finish behind Rankin in their district. They have a huge line, but they're not too fast.

(Someone at the Standard Times told me that the Iraan coach, Doug Huckaby, said, "Our boys aren't fast at all. You could give them all day and they couldn't run out of sight!") But when they get that big, they only have to run over you.

The Eagles can win tonight if they keep the penalties and other mistakes down to a minimum.

P.P.K. Registration continues in Sonora

Registration for the 1977 Punt, Pass & Kick competition has begun in the showroom of Sonora Motor Co. In making the announcement, Durwood Neville, owner of the dealership, said: "We're looking forward to a big local PP&K competition in Sonora. We hope all the youngsters 8 through 13 years of age in this area will come in to register and take part."

Mr. Neville pointed out that PP&K-throughout its six levels of competition-is free of any charge, and that youngsters need only have a parent or guardian accompany them to the showroom to register.

"Our competition here will have 1st, 2nd and 3rd place trophies for contestants in each of the six age groups, or 18 trophies in all," said Neville. "Increasing each entrant's chances of winning is the fact that youngsters compete only against others in their own age group," said the Ford Dealer.

"Of course there is no body contact in PP&K. It's punting, passing and place-kicking for distance and accuracy points, just as the name says. First place winners in each age group in our competition will go on to the Zone competition. And from there, top winners go on up the ladder through District, Area, Division and National Finals," he said.

"This year the National Finals will be held at Super Bowl XII in New Orleans on January 15, 1978. Naturally, we hope some of our Sonora or Eldorado PP&K winners will make it all the way to the Finals," Neville said.

The Ford Dealer further explained that each entrant, upon registering, receives a free PP&K Tips Book. In the 1977 edition there are competition tips by NFL stars Marv Bateman, Ken Stabler, and Toni Linhart. The Tips Book also includes complete PP&K rules and helpful conditioning exercises for contestants.

PP&K registration will close at Sonora Motor Co. on September 30.

This is the 17th anniversary year of PP&K. From its inception the youth activity has been sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America in cooperation with the National Football League. In that time, more than 14 million youngsters have taken part in PP&K, making it one of the largest youth activities.

SIGN UP FOR THE 17TH ANNUAL PUNT, PASS & KICK COMPETITION

It's football time again; and if you enter our PP&K Competition, you can test your football skills by competing with others your own age. Winners will receive a PP&K trophy and a chance to compete in higher levels of competition - with the finals to be held at Super Bowl XII in New Orleans.

It's easy to register! Come into our dealership with your parent or guardian to sign up. While you're here, be sure to pick up a free PP&K Tips Book. In it you'll find tips from the pros on how to prepare for PP&K.

ments were served by ladies in the church. The Rev Gene Stark, pastor, said that the bashes had not been planned for each week as previously reported. However, he said there are plans being made for one more.

Men of the First Baptist Church will have their chance to see how well they can fair in the kitchen, as they will be eligible to enter a cake baking contest Sunday. The contest will be held after Sunday night services, according to the Rev Gene Stark, pastor. Judging will be done by a panel of three women judges. Categories are the best tasting, worst tasting, best looking, worst looking and the biggest flop.

Cake mixes are a "no-no" as the cakes have to be made from scratch and without any help from wives, warns the pastor.

TO CONDUCT SERVICE
The Antioch Baptist Church will have charge of the service this Sunday afternoon, Sept 11th, at the Nursing Home.

Booster Club will present Spirit Award

Far too seldom we fail to praise that boy or girl who made every practice, put full effort into each workout, boosted his teammates and who had enough enthusiasm in one week to win a hundred games. Truly these qualities are most important in any athlete and deserve due recognition by the fans. The Eagle Booster Club has purchased a plaque to be presented to a student athlete each week, with his name inscribed on it, not only for their efforts on the fields, courts, and greens, and in front of the fans, but for that spirit shown on all occasions. The coaches will choose the athlete on sportsmanship, enthusiasm, leadership, and ability demonstrated in all phases of preparation for games throughout the week. This award will be given during all sports seasons for accomplishments by both boy and girl athletes.

The Eagle Boosters urge everyone to attend our meetings and give all our student athletes the encouragement they need and the support they deserve. Your help on any Booster Club project shows the spirit and enthusiasm in your hearts.

BANK CENTS

From the Management and Staff of
The First National Bank of Eldorado

The nation's money supply is similar in ways to commodities, like wheat, oats, cattle, and corn. Most bankers and other financial people consider the money supply as the total of all checking and savings accounts, plus the cash in public hands. The most recent total given of all these was in the area of $300 billion.

Just like agriculture commodities, if the supply of money is large, then the price paid for money, interest, will generally go down. On the other hand, if money is in short supply, then the bidding for it will cause an increase in the cost of borrowed money.

But, unlike the commodity markets the money supply can be and is, managed by the Federal Reserve Bank (Bankers call it the FED). The Fed controls the supply of money by how much new money they print. If there is inflation, they may choose to decrease the amount they print in new money; if there is recession, they may choose to print more.
