Stock Show---Huge Success

THE 1989 SCHLEICHER COUNTY STOCK Show appears to have been a smashing success. Hundreds of food and livestock entries by the youth of Schleicher county were appreciated by people from all over West Texas. This reporter was most impressed by the obvious pride that our young people have in their work.

Although the weather was cold and at times icy, it did not hamper the action surrounding this year's stock show. Results of the Arts and Crafts and the Food Show divisions are listed below. The winners of the other divisions are listed on the back page.

FOOD SHOW

Best of Show, Senior Division in the Food Show, was Bodie Gilstrap with Portlands Pineapple Carrot Cake. Best of Show in the Junior Division was Lindsay Johnson with Chocolate Mint Brownies. Winning the Sub-Junior Best of Show was Chad Williams with Orange Butter Coffee Cake.

Powell Memorial

MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY OF VIRGIL J. Powell were presented with a Memorial Resolution at the Annual Stockholders Meeting of West Texas Wool and Mohair Association held on January 11, 1989 in the Community Room of First National Bank of Mertzon.

Mr. Powell was Chairman of the Board of Directors for many years and was loved and respected by all knew him. His positive leadership helped promote sound wool and mohair marketing at West Texas Wool and Mohair Association and throughout Texas.

He is sorely missed by employees at the warehouse as he always had a friendly and positive word of encouragement for each employee regardless of his/her job.

The resolution was presented by Vice-Chairman Howard Derrick to Madolyn Powell Mertz of Eldorado.

Editor's Clips

By Mary Jenkins

You have heard it spoken of as the snake that poisons everything. It topples governments, wrecks marriages, ruins careers, and destroys reputations. It causes heartaches, nightmares, and indigestion; spawns suspicion, generates grief, and dispatches innocent people to sob and cry on their pillows. Even the name of this snake hisses. It is called gossip--office gossip, party gossip, neighborhood gossip, even church gossip.

Gossip is a trap that is easy to fall into. When we hear something, we automatically want to tell someone else what we have just heard. This isn't always harmful. It becomes harmful when we add a little bit to it or take a little bit from it and make the whole story into something else.

Before you repeat a story, ask yourself, Is it true? Do you know that what you have heard is factual, accurate and is a reality? Have you checked it out to be sure about it, or are you just taking someone else's word on it?

Is it fair? If you repeat what someone else has said, will it be impartial, unbiased and justly so?

Is it necessary? Is it essential that you repeat what you have heard? Someone once said, "Plant a little gossip and you will reap a harvest of regret". If it is not necessary, then let the story die with you.

Gossip always seems to travel fast. These sometimes groundless rumors cover a lot of ground. By the time it gets around it has changed in content.

Before you are tempted to reveal a tale told to you by someone else, ask first, is it true, is it fair and is it necessary. Then you may not worry as to the result of what you are telling.

The Publisher's Desk

My old Grandmammy used to say about church, "Children, it doesn't matter how high you jump or how loud you shout. What matters is what you do when you hit the ground."

I guess that this is true for most things in life. What really matters is not how you say things. It's what you say and what you do. I know some people (as I'm sure you do) who jump and shout a really good game. Trouble is, when they hit the ground, it's usually feet first on top of somebody else.

I know some other folk who never make a big stink and yet, they are always there when they are needed. These are the kind of people who are never too busy to lend a helping hand and always busy enough not to say and do hurtful things to other people.

When the final scores are added up, wonder who's going to come out ahead?

Letter to The Editor

Dear Editor,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of those who supported the Eldorado Success during my tenure as publisher there, the last two and one-half years.

Texas' poor economic times have finally filtered down to the newspaper industry, and weekly papers will be the ones most drastically hurt. If small communities are to continue having newspapers both the businesses and individuals that make up the communities are going to have to support them.

Eldorado faces a challenge itself--one of almost having to rebuild the downtown area. However, with the continued fine work of the chamber of commerce we're sure the challenge will be faced.

Special thank you's go to the following:

--First National Bank--Rick and Jo Ed and the board of directors for their support of the newspaper. Eldorado has the best bank in the country and that gives it a leg up on other communities.

--All our regular advertisers--Jim Glidden, Jim Adams, Food Center in Sonora, Raymond Mittel, Jerry Jones, the McCallas, the McCormicks, Bill Clark, Shot's, Perry's and Philip Meyer...to name only a few.

--Our subscribers, particularly the oldtimers who never missed a chance to tell us how much they like the paper, or just dropped by for a visit.

--News sources--the school, city, hospital, etc. who usually responded in good fashion when we requested their help on news stories.

--Sue Neill and Sharon Fitts, who worked so hard for the paper. Your loyalty was appreciated.

All these folks will be missed. Those who will not be will be those who spread unfounded rumors and worked against the paper and me personally. But as they say, they'll get theirs one of these days.

The decision to sell the Eldorado Success was a business one--pure and simple. It had absolutely nothing to do with the advent of the Good News Review. The paper was on the market before Gary Smith ever came to town.

Pappy always said businesses are businesses and should never be viewed as love objects. If they are not serving the purpose you want them to then move on to something else.

At any rate I enjoyed publishing the Success and loved being a part of the Schleicher community for most of the time I was there. Thanks to those who were so great.

Best of luck to Gary Smith and crew as they embark on a journey that will not be easy. We urge each and every resident of Eldorado and Schleicher County to support the Success.

Look forward to seeing you at the World Championship Cowboy Campfire Cookin' and Pasture Roping.

Sincerely,
Terry B. Neill

Life Among the Fishes

By Thomas Giovannitti

I don't want to sound "nit-pickey" but I've been here over four years now, and a few people still call me a "Yankee" now and then. For one thing, a Yankee is someone from New England or someone who plays baseball in the Bronx, New York. New Jersey, where I was born and raised is one of what are called the Mid-Atlantic States. It is a state oftend maligned in books, periodicals, and late-night television comedy.

All of this demeaning talk about New Jersey is unwarranted, especially referring to one of its native sons as a Yankee. If it will help those who sometimes mistake me for a Yankee to just observe me a little more closely they will easily see I am not a Yankee.

For one thin, I don't have an accent. Yankees all sound like Teddy Kennedy or Mike Dukakis. They say things like, "Pok the caa" (Park the car.), and they went to "Haavad Callage" (Harvard College). Now I don't talk like that, do I?

In fact people raised in the Mid-Atlantic states have very little accent at all. We do have a tendency to make our "th's" sound like "D's" and the plural form of you is not "you'all" as people here seem to think, but is the proper "use" and in "Use guys better watch out or you'll be wearing cement shoes!"

It has always been a mild source of amusement for me when some guy from Texas would say to me, "You all tawk funnae ye-know. Dawgone Yankees fixin to take over dis-place."

I have to admit that sometimes I will affect a certain Damon-Runyonesque speech pattern if I "tink it will amuse the natives".

It might make you feel a little more warmly to this "Mid-Atlantic person" (a little more difficult than "Yankee" but more accurate) since I now own a Pearl button shirt and a "cowboy" hat. I haven't worn them in public yet since I'm working on my Texas accent before I spring the whole effect on you'all. I am sorry that is y'all. See I'm already improving. I am fixin' to get serious about dis-here speech impediment I gots. I'm-a-hoopin' y'all will help me sews I cen spik jest like I was from here.

Quincy's Quotes

"Just wait til your father gets home."

If you are the child on the receiving end of this threat, then you figure either, (1) the ultimate punishment will come when "father" gets home or (2) you have been down this road before and you know Dad is a pushover. If worse comes to worse and punishment comes today it might as well be worth it, so why not keep terrorizing Mom til "father gets home".

If you are the mother issuing this threat, you have reached your limit for the day, possibly the week. You have done the laundry, run the taxi service, cleaned the house, cooked the meals, chased down the dog, paid the bills, run the errands and feel that "father" needs to do his share of the parent at this point.

Now, if you are the father in this scenario, you are walking into your "castle" blind. Get Ready! Your spouse has been with YOUR children all day and probably spoken to no one over the age of ten. Discipline the children or not, as you will and soothe the ruffled feathers of your spouse. Accomplishing that, get the paper, sit down on the sofa, put your feet up and think you are truly the father they were waiting for, if you can.

Our Sympathy

LAYVONNE ANDERSON HOLSEY, 58, DIED Saturday in Angelo Community Hospital.

Services were held at 3 p.m. Tuesday in Warner Avenue Church of Christ with burial in Eldorado Cemetery. Kerbow Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

She was born September 25, 1930, in Ranger. She was employed in the cafeteria of Eldorado ISD and was a member of the Church of Christ. She had lived in Eldorado since 1959, having moved from Odessa.

Survivors include four sons, Donald Holsey of Austin, Brian Holsey, Larry Holsey and Zack Holsey, all of Eldorado; tow daughters, Priscilla Alley of San Antonio and Cindy Dickason of Weatherford; five brothers, Horace Anderson of Brownwood, Kenneth Anderson of Canyon, Jerry Mac Anderson of Klamath Falls, Ore., Jimmy Don Anderson of Little Rock, Ark., and Monte Anderson of Artesia, N.M.; three sisters, Doris McCoy of Sweetwater, Dorophene Anderson of San Angelo and Jackie Cochran of Abilene; and 11 grandchildren.

Our sympathy is extended to Danny Curtis on the loss of his grandfather, C.S. Curtis, Sr., age 93, of Grant, Oklahoma.

Mr. Curtis is survived by his wife, Halley, one son and one daughter.

Most school children can tell you two negatives make a positive, but few can name the man who first said so. It's said to have been John Lowth who first laid down that rule of grammar in 1762.

Driver License Plan

Editor's note: Each office in the Irion County Courthouse will have the option to use this space in the Good News Review to give information to the Citizens of Irion County from time to time as needed.

Effective January 1, 1984 the State of Texas began issuing driver licenses under a classified licensing plan. The classified plan does not effect the validity of an operator or chauffeur license issued under the old law. These license continue in effect according to their terms until such time they are converted to an equivalent class of license.

Regarding the application of minors who would apply for a driver's license; a Class C driver is one who is under the age of eighteen (18) years, provided the person is sixteen(16) years of age or older and has completed a driver training course approved by the Department, and has passed the examination required by Section 10 of this Act. The Department of Public Safety will not grant the application of any minor under the age of eighteen (18) years for a driver's license unless application is signed by the parent of the applicant who has the custody of the applicant, otherwise by the guardian having the custody of the applicant, or in the event a minor under the age of eighteen (18) years has no parent, or guardian, the license shall not be issued to the minor unless his application therefor is signed by his employer or by the countyjudge of his residence.

Section 35 of the Statute concerns permitting unauthorized minors to drive. This section states that no person shall cause or knowingly permit his child or ward under the age of eighteen (18) years to drive a motor vehicle upon any highway when such minor is not authorized hereunder or in violation of any provisions of this Act.

Section 36 further states that "No person shall authorize or knowingly permit a motor vehicle owned by him under his control to be driven upon any highway by any person who is not authorized hereunder or in violation of any provisions of this Act.

THANK YOU

Our sincere appreciation goes to many people who helped make our loved one happy and comfortable the years she lived in Eldorado.
To her many friends who made her life full before and after she entered the nursing home.
To those who visited and cared for her with love and compassion in the nursing where she was so happy.
To Dr. Brame, Dr. Johnson and the nurses for their tireless efforts during the last few hours. She was fortunate to have spent her latter years in the loving, caring community of Eldorado, and we thank each of you.
