Salary Increase Boosted For Sheriff And Deputies

Committee Asking Support Of County

"So the police won't have to be magicians and try to raise their families on less than adequate salaries, we have formed the Support Your Local Police Committee," commented presi-

Portales FFA Group Visit Local Farm

The junior and senior Future Farmers of America Chapter of Portales, N. M., visited the Little Fish Farm on Tuesday, April 27 on a field trip.

Ed Little led the boys and their sponsors, Leonard Word and Doyle Shearer around the ponds, while explaining the methods used in growing and producing cultured catfish. The group was especially interested in the self-feeder used in the stocker pond and was surprised to hear that the fish learned to trip the lever for food within a few days time.

A three and three-fourths pound fish was dressed out to demonstrate the processing procedures used to get the fish ready for the skillet.

A question and answer session followed while refreshments were served to the sponsors and the following members of the chapter: Scotty Lee, president; Noel Gollehon, Larry Mauldin, Russ Smith, Earl Blevins, Bert Maloney, Danny Marks, Steve Collins, Troy Newton, Dewayne Cates and Gayle Cochran.

dent Mrs. Gene Lowe at a meeting Thursday night. "Also, if we can keep the salaries of our officers on a liveable basis, they will not be forced to seek federal funds, which leads to federal control," Mrs. Lowe made the statement following the reading of a statement of principles at the meeting at Leal's Restaurant.

She then read several articles of area city officers unionizing in an attempt to gain an increase in salaries and benefits.

It was reported that even with the salary increase given county deputy sheriff's two months ago, the lowest paid city police officer. The Support Your Local Police Committee discussed and voted to contact civic and social clubs in an educational drive on what would be the minimum salary needed to adequately bring the salaries of the deputy sheriffs up comparable with surrounding counties.

Also discussed was the fact that if an officer should get killed, or be taken to court for something done in the line of duty, they are on their own as there are no funds budgeted for an attorney for city, county or state officers. The responsibility of retaining an attorney would be on the shoulders of the officer involved.

However, the group turned down a proposal to create an emergency fund for officers and stated they felt it was up to the city, county and state to provide such emergency funds.

Narrow-Row Cotton Fertility Is Critical

Proper fertilizer management is one of the keys to top cotton yields on the Texas South Plains. And when it comes to producing cotton in narrow rows, fertilizer use is even more critical.

"At present we advise producers who plan to grow narrow-row cotton to follow sound soil test recommendations," explains Dr. Art Onken who heads up the soil fertility research program at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock. "Next to water, no other single input can produce comparable lint yield increases as can proper fertilization."

Research is currently under way to determine the fertility requirements of high population cotton as is found in the narrow-row method of production, points out Onken. Previous research has shown that conventional varieties adaptable to narrow rows will respond to fertilizer much as they would in conventional 40-inch rows. However, varieties bred specifically for narrow-row and high population may have higher fertility requirements. Such varieties will be on the market within the next two to three years.

Much of the soil fertility research as regards narrow-row cotton was initiated last year through a grant to the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The grant supports a three-year program of narrow-row cotton research in which varieties, row spacing, plant population, root distribution and root activities, fertilizer rate and irrigation timing and rate will be investigated.

According to Onken, the studies will be conducted at

Woodleys Resign Plainview Posts

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Woodley former Muleshoe residents, have resigned from their respective posts at the Central Plains General Hospital in Plainview and plan to move to Terrell.

Woodley, 60, resigned as administrator of the hospital effective May 28. He stated he was leaving Plainview for Terrell where he will be administrator of the State School at Terrell, 30 miles east of Dallas.

He will spend two months in Austin in preparation for his duties at the school. He said he was making the change as advancement in the field of administration.

Mrs. Woodley resigned as executive director of the Central Plains Comprehensive-Community Mental Health-Mental Retardation program. Part of her duties required her to work with Bailey County officials, as the Central Plains region included Bailey County.

In the early 1960's, he completed work on his masters degree with emphasis on hospital administration at George Washington University in Washington, D. C. Residency in hospital administration was served in Brackenridge Hospital in Austin, then Woodley served as assistant administrator of the same hospital.

Woodley moved from that position to Plainview as general manager of Plainview Production Credit Association.

He was hired as administrator of the Central Plains General

Miss Fleming assisted Homemaking III in the preparation of party sandwiches for the bridge benefit and Homemaking I, II and III students baked cookies at home and brought them to be used on the refreshment tables.

Mrs. Harbin said, "Students in Home Ec classes are always encouraged to broaden their horizons by using their knowledge and skills in helping others."

Zogi Entrances In Three Group Performances

Proving adequately that the 'hand is quicker than the eye' Prince Zogi held three entranced audiences Tuesday in performances of his 'magic show' in Muleshoe.

Prince Zogi performed in two matinees Tuesday, especially designed for the younger audiences. The matinees were staged during Tuesday morning for Muleshoe High School students and in the early afternoon for junior high students.

It was reported that a majority of the school students in the two schools attended the performances, and several youngsters at the evening show said they had already attended one show during the day.

Although a sparse crowd of adults attended the evening performance, they were visibly pleased with the colorful show. Zogi's feats with doves, canaries, ducks and colorful scarves, along with ESP card tricks and other displays proved to be crowd-pleasers.

The show in Muleshoe was sponsored by the Businessmen's Activities Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, who also held their popular candy sale for prizes during intermission in the show. More than $500 in prizes was awarded more than 100 recipients during the candy sale.

Consensus was 'if you missed Zogi's TV Revue you missed a great show.'

Doctor Mac Feted On 75th Birthday

Doctor B.O. McDaniel was honored by the employees of West Plains Memorial Hospital with a birthday supper Wednesday night at the Corral Restaurant. The occasion was to celebrate his 75th birthday.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by Mrs. Gordon 'Corky' Green, vocalist, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Neil King on the guitars. Marshall Cook was speaker and his subject was giving highlights of the changing times, especially changes in the medical field.

Stressed were changes from surgery on the kitchen table and being paid for his services with chickens and sweet potatoes (lots of sweet potatoes) to the present.

He said the major stride in medicine was the invention of antibiotics, especially penicillin. Another discovery that most people take for granted now are the many tests that modern-day laboratories perform. This is a great help to the doctors, concluded Cook. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Glen Stephens, Mrs. Bud Barber, Mrs. R.E. Chappell, Mrs. Harrold White, Mrs. John Blackwell and Mrs. Gordon 'Corky' Green.

B.O. McDaniel was born in Mississippi on April 28, 1896. He attended schools in Mississippi and graduated from the University of Mississippi. Then, he attended medical school at

Texas Lions Seek Youth For New Camp

The Texas Lions League, which has operated a summer camp for handicapped children at Kerrville for the past 18 years, has added a new dimension of service this year with a special three-week camp for diabetic youngsters in cooperation with the diabetes associations of Texas.

League President Everett J. Grindstaff of Ballinger said the pilot program would be known as the Texas Lions Camp for Diabetic Children.

The special summer session--June 7 through June 25--will be held at the facilities of Camp Manison near Friendswood, between Houston and Galveston, where a diabetic camp has been operated for the past 14 years.

The diabetic camp represents another important step forward by the Lions of Texas in serving children who require special attention, Grindstaff said.

At the home camp in Kerrville, nearly 12,500 blind, deaf, mute and crippled children have enjoyed two weeks of summer fun. During the other months of the year, the League--in cooperation with the State Commission following good health practices mission for the Blind--operates and to give them self-confidence a rehabilitation center for adults once when they have to leave at the camp and has aided more than 800 Texans who have lost their sight.

Chapters of the South Texas and North Texas Diabetes Association, plus officers of diabetic camps, six through 16, and county medical in the pilot program, Dr. Luther societies, have been requested B. A common question of Internal Revenue employees is "What do you do after you get all the tax returns filed?" Of course, the inquirer visualizes the IRS job as being a big one every April 15. A good answer would be--"We go ahead working on the tax returns that came in last year and the year before, and in some cases, 10 years ago. We have dozens of filing periods and a lot of other deadlines besides the income tax deadline...."

When you have 79 or 80 million individual tax returns from about 115 million taxpayers (including joint returns) and you have to work with them on how much each individual owes out of the total of $200 billion, you don't run out of problems right after April 15. If IRS solves all of the income tax problems they can work on the problems that are created by the many other federal taxes. Let's hope they stay busy checking on the other guy who didn't get his tax return correct like we did.

A local insurance agent gave information on hospitalization and life insurance available to the sheriff's officers and stated the county does pay for this, along with a $3,000 natural death or $6,000 accidental death policy and said the expense was borne by the county.

The Support Your Local Police group did unanimously agree to request the Bailey County Commissioners Court to raise the sheriff and deputy salaries a minimum of an additional 20 percent. Following the motion and vote, the group decided to approach Commissioners Court with a formal request, also to start a concentrated countywide campaign seeking support of everyone in the county.

three locations--near Welch in Dawson County, near Aiken in Floyd County and at the A&M Center. These sites represent the three broad areas of soils and climatic conditions on the South Plains.

"All soil test recommendations made by personnel at the Extension Soil Testing Laboratory at the A&M Center are correlated to research findings to provide producers with the best possible fertilizer management guidelines," adds Onken. "Our soil fertility research program was begun in the mid-fifties to provide the basis for present fertilizer recommendations with respect to fertilizer rate, time and method of application, nutrient source and soil testing methods."

police system in the world. Even in England, the officers are federal officers. As long as we can keep local control of our officers, and keep from having to seek federal funding, our officers can be controlled on a local basis.

"There are three things that need to be done to help our officers. The first is to raise salaries. If local people don't meet the problem locally, the federal government can then step in and take over.

"When I became a city commissioner two years ago," he continued, "the local city police were paid very low wages. Since that time, there have been two salary increases. Now, our lowest paid officer makes only four hundred dollars less a year than our county sheriff, and possibly makes as much with his uniform allowance. The county has no uniform allowance.

"During 14 years in office, Sheriff Dee Clements has received only two salary increases and the last one was eight years ago. His salary is now $6,382.20 per year. Our chief of police in Muleshoe is paid $7,800 a year.

"I would also like to remind you," he said, "that our sheriff and his deputies are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week. I have heard that if you approach the commissioners' court with a request for a salary raise, they will say you would have to grant a raise to everyone, such as the road workers. I don't see how anyone could compare the work of a sheriff or his deputy with a road worker," added Heathington. "The road worker does not face personal danger on each and every call he receives."

Heathington also cited figures from surrounding counties on their salary scale for officers. Lamb County pays the sheriff $7,072 and the deputies $5,610. The sheriff of Castro County is paid $8,100 and the deputies are paid $6,360 and $6,000. Parmer county officials pay the sheriff $7,425 and the deputies $6,167 and $5,682. A recent $45 a month raise was added to the deputy pay in Parmer County, according to recent figures. Dallam County (Dalhart) pays the sheriff $7,681 and a deputy is paid $5,908; plus Blue Cross-Blue Shield, social security, retirement and presently a five percent cost of living wage increase has been proposed.

A local grocery store owner-operator, T. R. White, commented that his stock boys make more than the county officers in Bailey County. He said he had not been personally aware that officers in Bailey County were so low paid.

Also coming under considerable scrutiny by the Support Your Local Police Committee was a comparison of the pay for county commissioners in a number of counties. It was reported that the Bailey County Commissioners are among the higher paid county commissioners in the area.

Committees were designated to begin contacting service clubs and other organizations in an attempt to raise law enforcement salaries to a basis where officers can live comfortably.

Support Your Local Police Committee is open to membership for anyone and they can obtain information by calling Mrs. Lowe or Kenneth Heathington.

ESA Week Proclaimed

Founder's Day, ESA Sunday, Banquet Planned

ESA WEEK IN MULESHOE . . . Mayor Irvin St. Clair is shown signing the proclamation designating May 1-8 as ESA Week in Muleshoe. Pictured with the mayor is Mrs. John Gentry representing Epsilon Chi chapter of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority.

ESA Week in Muleshoe will be observed by the Muleshoe chapter, Epsilon Chi, May 1-7, beginning with the celebration of Founder's Day Saturday, May 1. On this day the chapter will present the Zues Award to a man in the community who has helped the sorority during the past year.

The first chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha was formed in Jacksonville, Texas in 1929. It became an international sorority in 1948.

The local chapter was formed in October 1949 with Mrs. Ruby Gregory as the first president. Mrs. Gregory reported that the first project undertaken by the chapter was a door to door Red Cross drive. The first Educational Director was Mrs. Noel Woodley now of Plainview. Some of the charter members are Mrs. Kenneth Precure, Mrs. James Glaze, Mrs. Bill Jim St. Clair, Miss Bill Ed Jones, Halsee Lee Herrington and Gwyneth Bigham. The chapter here was formed when Mrs. Gregory and a few of the others mentioned above decided to make a chapter here since they had belonged to other chapters in other towns. They had a rather rough time at first due to the small size of the town. This year marks their 22 year in Muleshoe.

A list of former presidents include: Mrs. Gregory, Jerri Ferrell, Gwyneth Bigham, Mrs. Wilson Witherspoon, Mrs. Bill Jim St. Clair, Joy Finley, Alta Mae Ellis, Mrs. Carl Bamert, Mrs. Herb Griffiths, Mrs. Robert Hooten, Miss Bill Ed Jones, Mrs. Roy Wrinkle, Mrs. Jim Small, Mrs. Kenneth Precure, Mrs. Ernest Martin, Mrs. Elvonda DeVaney, Mrs. Don Seales, Mrs. John Young, Mrs. Buck Johnson, Mrs. Eugene Howard, Mrs. Jack Rennels, present president and Mrs. Mac Brown, president-elect. The chapter also has 11 pledges. During the year, members of the sorority have given 416 hours of service in philanthropic projects.

The highlight of the year for Epsilon Chi was the forming of a sister chapter, Sigma Epsilon, in Friona. The local chapter has entered its yearbook, history and rush in competition at the state convention to be held May 13-16 in Austin.

The ways and means project for the year was a Hawaiian luau of which the sorority plans to make an annual event and are making plans for another one to be held this summer. On ESA Sunday, all the members and their families will attend church services at the First United Methodist Church and will gather afterwards for a family dinner at Leal's.

On Tuesday night, a Mother-Daughter banquet will be held at the XIT Steakhouse. The outstanding ESA'er and the outstanding pledge from the spring pledge class will be honored at the banquet. J. Fred Thompson of the Portales News Tribune will be the guest speaker.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED . . . Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bleeker of Muleshoe are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Vondale, to Joe Bob Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mann of Friona. The wedding ceremony will be Friday, June 11, at 8:00 p.m., at the First United Methodist Church of Muleshoe. Miss Bleeker is a 1967 graduate of Muleshoe High School and attended West Texas State University. Mann is a 1967 graduate of Friona High School and is a graduate of Denver Automotive Institute and is now serving in the United States Navy at Charleston, South Carolina.

When transplanting seedlings of either flowers or vegetables it is a good idea to use a "starter" solution to water them with instead of plain water.

You can make a "starter" by diluting any liquid fertilizer or dissolving any crystalline one to the strength stated on the package.

The usual solution has one ounce of "starter" mixed with one gallon of water—dilute enough to cause no damage.

The rich man is not one who is in possession of much, but one who gives much. —St. John Chrysostom.

John Tower United States Senate COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES

I know that I do not need to tell you about the disastrous effect nature is dealing our state. Many counties have not had rain since last fall. At the same time, some areas, the unwilling subjects of our whimsical weather patterns have recently experienced localized flooding, and tornadoes have accompanied some of the recent thunderstorms. Some areas have experienced severe drought; high winds have blown away topsoil and created heavy dust storms; and in cases where heavy rains have fallen suddenly on the hardpan which remained, the excessive run-off has caused localized flooding.

This weekend I would like to discuss what the federal government is doing and can do to provide assistance and relief from these abnormal natural events.

Drought conditions for wide areas of South, Central and West Texas including the Panhandle have approached disaster proportions. The future for wheat and cattle is bleak indeed and other crops face disaster if drought conditions persist.

The President, on April 14, took action which I have applauded. The President acted under a section of the new Disaster Assistance Act passed by Congress late last year which I supported in the Senate. This new section enables the President, when he determines a disaster is imminent, to mobilize all the resources of the federal government to avert or lessen the effects of such disaster. This is the action the President took.

He authorized the Office of Emergency Preparedness, the President's disaster assistance arm, to coordinate a full federal response in order to meet the existing need. This action covers all of Texas and gives the OEP full discretion in determining the need and in coordinating the federal response to that need.

While a tornado or hurricane brings sudden and clear disaster, a drought approaches disaster proportions slowly, growing worse day by day. The severeness of a drought varies from one local area to another. This is why I believe the action taken is appropriate. The OEP has the full authority to bring federal assistance as each local need intensifies.

The first action of the OEP was to procure hay from available sources outside Texas and begin to bring it into the state so that it could be made available to farmers and ranchers most in need. The Agriculture Department also moved to avert the effects of the drought by declaring 50 counties eligible for Commodity Credit Corporation-owned feed grain at reduced prices for eligible farmers and ranchers. And the Agriculture Department has declared 89 counties in which farmers and ranchers may graze livestock on croplands taken out of production under the Cropland Adjustment Program. In addition, 53 Texas counties are eligible for Farmers Home Administration emergency long-term low-interest loans.

I would urge Texas farmers and ranchers who feel they may be eligible for any of this assistance to contact their local offices of the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service. These offices in each county are being kept abreast of federal assistance available in their counties and can be of the most immediate assistance to affected farmers and ranchers.

This past week OEP director George Lincoln and Agriculture Secretary Hardin toured many of the areas of Texas which are more severely stricken by the drought. I accompanied these men on their tour and I believe this tour clearly demonstrated the gravity and the seriousness of the situation.

I believe a need exists for increased federal assistance in addition to that which is already reached severe proportions. These areas need actual dollar assistance which will bolster the local economy.

The OEP now has the authority required to make available that kind of assistance. They have the authority, for example, to ask the Labor Department to make available unemployment assistance to farmers, ranchers, and their employees who are out of work due to the drought.

I am working to keep the OEP fully informed of local situations in the severely stricken counties as conditions are made known to my office. My office is daily asking the OEP to take a closer look at this area or that one. And my office is passing on to Texas information as the actions taken by the government as additional assistance is made available.

I can also report that the Congress is moving to fulfill an administration request for additional funds for disaster assistance. A Senate appropriations subcommittee held hearings this week on a request to provide $25 million more for disaster assistance efforts this fiscal year. I am supporting that request and I believe the Congress will be providing those funds shortly.

Pre-Registration Held For Students

The freshmen, sophomores and juniors of Muleshoe High School pre registered for the 1971-72 school year, Monday, April 26. Each student was given a course request form. The students may take one of two plans in planning their schedule. The first is the General Plan in which three units of English, two units of Mathematics, to units of Laboratory Science, three units of Social Science, one-half unit of Health, and seven units of elective subjects are required. This plan meets the minimum requirements of the state agency for graduation and is designed for those not expecting to go to college. Some colleges will accept this plan for entrance. A student enrolling in this plan for graduation must have his parents come to the principal's office and sign a waiver releasing the school from the obligation of preparing the student to enter college.

Requirements for the College Preparatory Plan are four units of English, two units of Mathematics, two units of Laboratory Science, three units of Social Science, one-half unit of Health, and six units of electives. CHOOSING SIDES

"Choose you this day whom ye will serve: but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15.

Children choose sides for a game; we choose someone to serve in this world. But rather than have it be a choosing by chance, ours shall be a definite, thought out, choice. We can choose God "this day" by attending Church on Sunday. As our Lord said in Matthew 4:10, "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve." Let us worship and serve Him through His appointed agency, the Church.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex.--Texas is going to have liquor-by-the-drink -- and faster than nearly anybody expected.

Legislature completed action on the bill last week, spelling out the machinery for legalized mixed drink sales in open bars, and Gov. Preston Smith promptly signed it into law.

Smith said the measure will have "tremendous impact on the economy of our state" through increasing tourism.

Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr. has sent out instructions to local officials, noting particularly that the bill provides for mandatory local option elections on the drinks issue in 46 counties on May 18.

Counties which must schedule referendums in their "all-wet" areas in connection with the May constitutional amendments vote are those which last November approved lifting the open saloons ban and which contain cities or precincts where "package" sale of distilled spirits already is legal.

Dies cautioned judges and clerks of those counties that they must call local option elections prior to April 28 to assure 20 days' notice. Elections will be held only in areas (precincts and cities) of the 46 counties where sale of all alcoholic beverages is legal. Only in counties where sale of all alcoholic beverages is legal countywide will the May 18 vote be held throughout the county.

These are the counties which will have liquor-by-the-drink referendums on their May 18 ballots:

Aransas, Austin, Bandera, Bee, Bexar, Brazoria, Calhoun, Cameron, Colorado, Comal, Dallas, DeWitt, Duval, El Paso, Fayette, Fort Bend, Galveston, Gillespie, Goliad, Guadalupe, Harris, Hidalgo, Hudspeeth, Jefferson, Jim Wells, Kendall, Kenedy, Kerr, Kinney, Kleberg, LaSalle, Lavaca, Loving, Maverick, Midland, Montgomery, Nueces, Presidio, San Patricio, Starr, Sutton, Tarrant, Travis, Val Verde, Victoria, Washington, Wedd, Wharton, Wilson and Zapata.

"It is a relief to have this issue settled in Texas once and for all," commented Smith.

Later elections can be called in other partially-wet counties by the standard petition route.

CRIME FUNDS DISTRIBUTED

More than $1.5 million in criminal justice action grants have been approved for 34 projects to combat crime.

Six of the projects are for police training. They include Heart of Texas Council of Governments, Waco, $29,690; Southwestern Legal Foundation, Dallas, $24,000; Tarrant County junior college district, $33,047 for law enforcement supervisory personnel program in data processing; City of Tyler, $22,732 to continue operating its career development program through Tyler Law Enforcement Academy;

Houston-Galveston Area Council, $39,935 for regional law enforcement training center; and North Central Texas COG, Arlington, $5,126 to send 30 officers to an armed robbery conference.

Crime prevention projects on drug education were approved for Texas Department of Corrections, $52,000, and City of Wichita Falls, $12,500. Prevention and juvenile delinquency control programs were approved for Texas Rehabilitation Commission, $39,748; Houston Independent School District, $15,000; Cameron County, $64,606 and Central Texas COG, Killeen, $56,986. Projects to increase effectiveness of corrections and rehabilitation were approved for Sam Houston State University, $78,273 (two projects); Travis County, $53,617 and Texas Department of Corrections, $70,570 (three grants).

Area COG, $11,786; and Middle Rio Grande Valley Development Council, $4,537 to combine information networks into an improved teletype loop.

COURT SPEAK

Following U.S. Supreme Court approval of massive busing to achieve racial balance, federal court at Tyler ordered three all-black school districts dissolved and told the state to eliminate any racially-separate unit.

Fourth Court of Civil Appeals in a Toyah school district case held that it is illegal to conduct public business in closed meetings with the public barred. Actions taken in illegal meetings are illegal and void. Court held, Decision reversed a lower court.

State Supreme Court said Abilene police needed no search warrants to search the pockets of a man suspected of being about to sell marijuana.

High Court upheld State Savings and Loan Commissioner W. Sale Lewis' 1969 approval for a branch office of the Stephenville Savings and Loan Association in Granbury (Hood County) and rejection of an application for a new association there. Decision upheld Austin district court and Third Court of Civil Appeals.

HOSPITAL AID ALLOCATED

State Board of Health has allocated $8.9 million in federal Hill Burton funds for health facilities construction.

Funds were drastically reduced by the federal administration, particularly for new general hospital construction. Texas received only $300,000 for new hospital construction. Hill-Burton pays up to 50 percent of cost of construction or modernization of health facilities in areas of critical need. Of recent allocations, rehabilitation received $612,000; out-long term care, $1.4 million; modernization, $2.5 million and new construction, $200,000.

INSPECTION PROGRAM APPROVED

Texas meat inspection program finally has received federal approval.

Accreditation of the Texas State Health Department-conducted program was based on a recently-completed survey of the state's 800 meat processing plants and slaughterhouses and finding that they had met standards equal to those of the federal government.

U.S. Secretary of Agriculture last February caused concern by advising the Health Department that federal standards were not met. New Texas Meat and Poultry Act went into effect Sept. 2, 1969, giving authority for an inspection program to the division of veterinary public health of the State Health Department. New school was established to train inspectors to meet the federal guidelines.

Purpose of the program is to give added protection to the consumer, according to State Health Commissioner Dr. James E. Peavy.

APPOINTMENTS -- Governor Smith named Hillsboro attorney Robert G. Dohoney as district attorney of the 66th district effective May 1. He succeeds Frank G. McGregor of Hillsboro who resigned.

L. O'Brien Thompson of Amarillo was named chairman of a sub-committee to properly evaluate the current operating status of the Criminal Justice Council. Members of the sub-committee are Criminal Appeals Judge Truman Roberts of Austin, Dr. George Beto of Huntsville, Harris County District Attorney Carrol Vance, Dallas Police Chief Frank Dyson and Judge Noah Kennedy of Corpus Christi.

LAND BOARD MEET RESET-- School Land Board reset its oil and gas lease sale for July 6 after learning that the U. S. Corps of Engineers apparently will permit drilling in coastal waters.

May 4 sale of submerged leases on state lands had been cancelled after the Corps declared a moratorium on offshore drilling pending draft of an environmental impact statement.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong said the Corps will issue permits while a statement on environmental is being drawn. Armstrong said applications will be processed through normal procedures under specified conditions.

Nominations for tracts to be sold at the July sale must be in the general land office by May 14.

SHORT SNORTS

Texas civil juries in damage suits will be able to return verdicts by 10-to-two (rather than unanimous) votes under a new law passed despite a filibuster in the Senate.

State game management officers are authorized to assist in enforcing the antiquities code, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

Medical fraternities at UT Medical School, Galveston, are not entitled to property tax exemption as a matter of law, ruled Attorney General Martin.

May draft call from Texas is for 959 men.

MANSFIELD ON WAR

Washington--Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said recently that in his opinion the Laotian operation had widened the Indochina war and had weakened the entire allied position in Southeast Asia.
