Christoval Pioneer Passes Beyond, Lived In Days Of Indian Raids

Mrs. Sylvania P. DeLong was born in Young County near Old Fort Belknap, Texas, November 14th, 1845. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, pioneer people of West Texas. She was married at the age of 18 to G. W. DeLong and moved to Kicapoo Springs in 1865 and to Lapan Springs in 1866. While living at Lapan Springs, she was left alone one night with a girl friend, a first cousin, Miss Ira Williams, who later became the mother of the Springstun Brother of this county, also Mrs. Jess Koy, an Indian visited them at night and they had the real thrill of their lives, but managed to frighten him away by handling the situation with skill and good judgement. Indians in those days frequently raided this section of Texas and the homes such as the DeLong home, met the situation with skill and made it safe for the future generations to come to this portion of Texas to find a home. While living at Lapan in an almost outdoor camp, Mr. DeLong started to the head of South Concho to cut timber to build a house where he lived on Lapan. On his trip before he reached the Concho he and a companion was attacked by Indians, Mr. DeLong was shot in the arm and the arm broken. His companion was shot with a poison arrow in the ear. After an hour of fighting, Mr. DeLong who had taken refuge under his wagon with a small rifle, succeeded in killing the Indian chief, which caused the retreat of the Indians after they had managed to get their dead comrade. Mr. DeLong then returned to his home with his ox team and his wounded companion, also with his own arm shattered reaching his home after midnight found his companion ready to render all the service possible. This and many other incidents was the life of this good woman. Mr. DeLong, her husband, was known as a minute man which helped to drive the Indians from this section of Texas. She moved to Christoval in 1874 and settled near where the townsite of Christoval is now located and her husband was the main factor in digging the First Irrigation ditch which is still in operation and which place she lived for about 60 years. When this writer was a lad of four years in 1880, we moved to the South Concho and Mrs. DeLong was one of the first women that we remember meeting and for a period of 30 years was a frequent visitor in her home.

Her home for many years kept an open door for the traveler who chanced to traverse this open and almost barren country, and many a weary traveler was made glad when nightfall found him sheltered in this hospitable home. Mrs. DeLong was the mother of nine children, five of whom survive her. She reared them to be honest men and women, to love God and be kind to mankind. She loved the church and enjoyed life. She was left a widow when her children needed the care of a father the worst and her burden became double, but with her dauntless courage, she met every situation with an unbroken spirit and lived to see her every effort become the fruits of the first class.

After her family were all grown and married and had homes of their own, she lived at her old homestead with two grand children for many years and one remained with her even unto the hour of death. She was taken seriously ill several weeks ago and was carried to a hospital in San Angelo, later being removed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kannady, where the final hours of life ebbed away to meet the God of her love and to be re-united with those gone on before. For several years she told her children she was longing for the day of departure, her usefulness was

Schleicher County Poll Tax Paid 487

The editor was asked Saturday how many voters Schleicher would have for this year's voting. There were 487 paid poll tax and 12 exemptions which would make 491. They were paid as follows: Eldorado, 326; Mayer No. 2, 10; Rudd, No. 3, 41; Vermont No. 4, 23; Six Mile No. 5, 20; Alexander No. 6, 23; Kaffir No. 7, 17; and Cliff No. 8, 27.

Our guess is that there is about as many on each side of the question that has not paid any poll tax. And if the entire voting strength is polled the prohibition forces will lead by between 50 and 60 votes in this county. In this estimate we are giving the anti-forces quite a few dry votes. This is just guess work. We are aware of the prevailing unrest that is sweeping the country, but we yet have faith in our people. We still do not believe the majority will enter the wet fold. There is no hope to better the situation by voting more on and a much easier way to handle it. Repealing the 18th amendment will not put beer and whisky back in Eldorado, but if you vote for 3.2 beer, it will come back to your own fair State.

SERVICES AT METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching both morning and evening by Bro. J. L. Ratliff. 11:00 o'clock subject: "The Master Teacher." 8:15 o'clock subject: "The Golden Rule." Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services. Brother Ratliff is filling Bro. Marshall's place while he is away.

passed, her work had been wrought the best she could give and the end was most pleasant. On Thursday July 20th, death came. Thus ended the life of this noble character, this wife, this mother, this christian and this friend of man.

The services were conducted from the Methodist Church at Christoval of which she was a member from its first organization, the Rev. Grady Timmons speaking the last words of comfort to the living, by extolling the virtues of the remains of this character. Many friends of a life time for them attended this service and gave every assistance possible for them to give in the last rites of the one they had known, loved and honored so long.

She is survived by five children, D. E. DeLong, Eldorado; J. H. DeLong, Christoval; G. W. DeLong, Mertzon; Mrs. John Bowen, San Angelo; and Mrs. J. E. Kannady of San Angelo. She has 32 grand children, and 13 great-grand children.

The pall bearers were six grand sons, Henry, Frank, Burton, Edwin and Aubrey DeLong and Roy Kannady. Honorary pall bearers were W. S. Crawford, John Smith, R. C. Chapple, T. Z. Williams, T. Montgomery, A. T. Wright, Lewis Holland and Will Adams.

Many friends of the family here at Eldorado attended the funeral, some of whom had known her for 50 years. The remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband who had preceded her to that land beyond, in the family grave yard on the old home place four miles north of Christoval. She lived to see many transformations in the mode of travel, in the mode of living and the mode of dress. She moved to Christoval in an ox wagon, and before her death the Santa Fe Railroad built their track to Eldorado just in front of her old home. Her religious worship began at Christoval under the brush arbor and her funeral was held in the new brick church. Thus closed the chapter of a well spent life, her children, her grand-children and her great-grand-children must carry on the work she left behind.

Mr. Holland, his son-in-law remained here and Mr. Barbee made his home with him for a considerable part of the time. Mr. Holland moved into town and entered the Hotel business and Mr. Barbee became a well known figure on our streets for the past several years he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Wood at Paint Rock.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Wood, with whom he had lived several years after moving from Ballinger, where his wife was buried in 1913; Mrs. N. J. Wardlaw of Glen Rose and Mrs. S. W. Among the important disease problems under investigation are soremouth, swellhead, convulsions, hard yellow liver, big liver, internal and external parasites. Other important problems are poisonous plant troubles, study of inheritance of characters in sheep and goats and improvement by breeding, shrinkage studies of individual and flock fleeces of wool and mohair, range vegetation studies, and grazing habits of livestock.

JULY 28, 1933

Up at Chicago Sunday morning four Gunmen held up the Olympic Club dance and gathered in some $30,000.00 shekels of silver and $14,000.00 in jewels. It must have been a wealthy bunch.

Quite a lot of amusement has been going on out at Arlington Downs the past week. It has never yet been decided who has the fast pony, but most of the decisions will be confirmed July 27th.

The Success will close its forms this week on Wednesday, so we can take in the barbecue Thursday. We learned early in life to co-operate so we could all get along.

Our contention is that when liquor returns we will have women bartenders, why not? They are on an equal with men. It is no worse for mother to sell liquor than it is for father to drink it, and not as bad, for the men should be the stronger of the two.

Isaiah says, "Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflames them!"

"Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge; and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst."

He must have had reference to America.

This Editor does not want any one to think, that we believe that all who drink intoxicants are evil doers, but we do contend that we can get along without it and it will do no good to bring it back, not even in a financial way, for we have more home owners now than in the days of saloons. We have done away with our homes for alcoholic treatment. There is no nation under the sun that has a higher wage scale for its working people than the United States, and the Tax rate is less in the United States than any other country, the depression was felt less here than any other country, and took it two years longer to be felt than other countries. Will we listen to a lot of wealthy politicians and put ourselves back in the grip of the liquor traffic.

Another sad story ended Monday when Marvin Ivy (Buck) Barrow was severely wounded and his wife also wounded and captured at Dexter, Iowa. Barrow was pardoned from the Texas Prison, March 20th, 1933, by Governors Fergusons, and has left a trail of crime and murder in his wake since he was liberated. It is not a shame that he is shot down, the pity of the whole thing is that such characters can get pardons after they have been sentenced and turned loose on the public to deprecate like beast upon their prey. The other brother Clyde Barrow was supposed to be with him but escaped. He too was pardoned by Governor Ross Sterling and took up his banditry as soon as pardoned. We believe in pardons but not that kind. Pardons are supposed to be issued in case of injustice in trials, but people are not seeking the truth these days. They are worshipping false idols and chasing politicians instead of the men.

While at Christoval Friday attending the DeLong funeral, the editor met Fred Myres of whom we had not seen in thirty years. Fred has been rambling around over the United States and has dropped back into his old home town of Christoval. His father was among the pioneer families of the South Concho.

Hop Cheatham was in from the farm Saturday buying supplies.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By W. H. Darrow,
 Extension Service Editor

Using extreme care in summer following his wheat land in a demonstration with the county agent, T. M. Parmley of Hartley county had the only wheat in his community to survive drouth and winds. With no other vegetation for miles around and half starved jack rabbits were about to destroy the crop when the damage was checked by distributing poisoned grain. The yield was 5 bushels per acre.

They feel dressed up in their made-over clothes, renovated by use of foundation patterns, say 13 Victoria county home demonstration club women who made over 13 dresses at a cost of $2.20. The renovated garments are now rated worth $15.91.

Six Comanche county 4-H club boys brought 7 hogs to the poultry packing plant in Comanche in mid-June where they learned the "A. and M. Way" of butchering and curing. A show of hams and bacon is to be held when the meat comes out of the cure. Planning to sell the meat, the boys have now decided that it's too good to sell.

The Hopkins County Home Demonstration Club Market opened late in May in Sulphur Springs with 19 farm women selling products of home manufacture. Building and store equipment were furnished by local merchants.

Ten community canning units each with three steam pressure canners and a sealer are operating on a toll basis in Red River county following demonstrations in canning by Extension Service workers.

Everybody who had farmed the land for 30 years had taken everything to house and barn and never brought anything back, says C. C. Schrader, String Prairie, Bastrop county. He has fertilized this poor sand and terraced it with county agent help and now has fine corn with inter-cropped peas in the wide corn middles for the heep to harvest.

A cotton campaigner wired the Extension Service the other day that prices of feed had advanced so sharply that farmers couldn't buy, and asked what steps to take. Director O. B. Martin laconically replied: "Grow some."

There is yet ample time to plant late feed stuffs if summer rains come, says County Agent C. L. Beason of Brazos county, pointing out the experience of John Ettle two years ago. He planted hegari in corn middles early in August, corn having been cut and shocked early. Lat August rains gave him 50 tons of hegari from 50 acres.

In estimating 1933 cotton yields in campaign reduction offer contracts in Concho county, farmers' records of past years show that men who have terraced or contoured their land have made uniformly higher yields than those running rows up and down hills, says the county agent.

LIFE IS TOO SHORT

(By Chaplain Worcester)
 Life is too short for me to spend any of it kicking my neighbor in the pants because he cannot see the difference in weedle dee and tweedle dum. This is a free country; and, besides that, the toe of my neighbor's boot may be sharper than mine!

Life is too short to waste it in growling and complaining. There are too many squeaking wheels already; so, let me keep quiet and spread grease.

Life is too short for me to drop bones and snap at shadows. I had better gnaw contentedly on legitimate pleasures in hand than lose them all in jumping at things that only seem more desirable.

Oil Consumption is cut 28.5 per cent in run at Indianapolis

Drastic reduction in the cost of auto operation is forecast as a result of motor oil tests conducted at the Indianapolis Speedway under auspices of the A. A. A. Contest Committee. During these tests a new oil, developed by the Gulf Refining Company, obtained 28.5 per cent more miles to the quart and cost 28.5 per cent less to use, when tested against three popular, high-grade brands familiar to every motorist.

Fords, Chevrolets, Plymouths and Buicks, picked at random from the streets of Indianapolis, were used in the four-day run. Each car travelled 450 miles a day at a constantly maintained speed of 45 M. P. H., using a different brand of oil each day. Oil consumption was rigidly checked by A. A. A. officials, and results were corrected for variations in temperature. The new oil, which out-per-

Helped By Cardui

Here's the true story of how Cardui helped Mrs. H. E. Dunaway, of McComb, Miss., as written by herself:

"I was sick and rather discouraged. I was so weak and thin, I was not able to do my work as it should be done. This made me fret a good deal, and did not help my condition.

"I had pains across my back and lower part of my body. My nights were spent in rolling from one side of the bed to the other, hoping I would soon go to sleep. Then when morning would come, I would be just as tired as when I went to bed. A neighbor, seeing how badly I felt, told me to try Cardui. After I had taken one bottle, I was much better. I kept on taking Cardui, and I was stronger and slept much better at night."

Modern Electric Refrigeration Will Plug These Budget Leaks!

You're throwing away 20 per cent of your food bill—if your home lacks modern refrigeration equipment—through losses in wasted food... spoiled food... and small-quantity high-price buying! This substantial sum will make the payments on a modern, efficient, money-saving Electric Refrigerator!

Food experts agree that in the average home an Electric Refrigerator will have at least one-fifth of the cost of your food. Half of that sum will be saved through the elimination of spoilage and the safe preservation of valuable left-overs. The other half will be realized through quantity buying at "week-end bargains" offered by your grocer. These important savings are possible with a modern Electric Refrigerator, because this invaluable "Electrical Servant" provides the proper temperatures for safe and healthful refrigeration... automatically!

Let a new Frigidaire earn its way in your home. You can pay as it saves—then bank the balance. Ask for a demonstration—and about present low prices and easy terms—TODAY!

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

BREAD AND BUTTER PICKLES

25 large cucumbers
12 onions (white-medium)
1-2c salt
1 pt. vinegar
2c sugar
2 tbsp. Mustard seed
2 tbsp ginger
2 tbsp tumeric powder

Let unpeeled cucumbers stand in water over night. Then slice cucumbers and onions and place in pan with the salt (no water). Let stand one hour, then rinse off salt, add vinegar, sugar, mustard seed, ginger, and tumeric powder. Boil all ingredients until peel turns yellow, (about 40 minutes) pack pickles solid in sterilized jars and allow to stand to days before using.

PICKLED CORN

"Pickling corn is a very quick and easy method of preserving corn," said Mrs. W. D. Swift, President of Alexander Home Demonstration Club.

The following method of pickling corn is used by Mrs. Swift: Blanch corn in hot water until milk is set. Cut from ear (making just one cutting and do not scrape ear). To every 3 pints of corn use 1 pint of salt use a stone jar and put corn and salt in layers. Cover with cloth to keep out dust. This will keep indefinitely and more corn may be added from time to time.

When using the corn, soak in cold water until the desired amount of salt is removed. Fry with butter, cream or meat fryings.

SYMPTOMS OF CANCER

AUSTIN, Texas, July 10.—Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, in speaking of cancer, said that it ranked fourth as a cause of death in Texas, being exceeded only by heart disease, tuberculosis, and pneumonia, in the order named. One of the reasons so many people die of cancer is because the disease usually exists some time before it is recognized and treated. It has then progressed from a local and small cancer to a large and dangerous one.

In the beginning cancer is not painful, if it were many would go to their doctor immediately and receive treatment. Any lump, especially in the breast, which comes and remains without any satisfactory explanation, should be looked upon with suspicion. Other suspicious symptoms are any sore that does not heal about the tongue, mouth or lips; sores caused by broken teeth or ill fitting dental plates should receive attention; irregular bleeding or discharge from any of the orifices of the body is a danger signal; persistent indigestion with loss of weight is a symptom of cancer of the stomach, which is so frequent as to make its early detection possible. With any of these signs one should go immediately to a doctor. In many cases the suspicion of cancer will have been unfounded but it is better to be safe.

It is desirable to treat all diseases in their early stages, but in no affection is it more important than in cancer. The danger is like that of a fire, at first there is but a spark which can be easily extinguished but if let go unchecked it soon becomes unmanageable. Many cases of cancer can be cured and many more prevented if the public will give their full cooperation to the medical profession. Periodic physical examinations made with cancer in mind affords the best protection against this disease.

Surgery, X-ray and radium are the main weapons which are used to combat cancer. They are employed as preventives when they remove pre-cancerous conditions and as a cure when they remove the cancer itself.

Members of the Bailey Ranch Home Demonstration Club experienced several "shocks" on Monday night when they entertained their husbands with an "Earthquake" Forty-two party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Henderson.

Partners for the game were chosen and the "shocks" consisted of queer stunts and unque prizes contained in written directions which were opened and read every four hands. No one knew until the last moment whether he would be rewarded for high score or low. High score for the evening went to Edgar Spencer and Mrs. Henderson. At the end of a hilarious evening everyone was awarded a "prize" which was a paper sack containing the sandwiches and cakes. These being served with iced tea. Those enjoying the fun were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gibson and W. B.; Mr. and Mrs. Hop Ashmore; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Mund; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Spencer and Mrs. Spencer's mother, Mrs. Ashmore of Rorkwood; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kent; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Redford; Mrs. Claude Meador; Mrs. Frank Spencer; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mund and the host and hostess. ### HISTORY CAN REPEAT ITSELF

In 1860 the federal government cost the average citizen $2.08 per year.

In 1931 the cost of government, for all units, was $107.37 per capita.

In 1913 the total cost of government was $2,900,000,000 and in 1919 $7,500,000,000, and in 1931 it was $14,000,000,000.

In 1929—a year of inflated prosperity—the total tax of the American people amounted to 16 per cent of their incomes.

In 1931—a year of bleak depression—it amounted to 28 per cent. The current year may be the most expensive in our history, with the exception of the war period.

How much of the increase in the cost of government, federal, state and local, can be laid to waste, is problematical. But there is no question but that it runs into the hundreds of millions, for there are scores of bureaus, commissions and inflated governmental payrolls, many of which simply duplicate the work of others.

We have permitted the government to go into various tax-exempt business ventures in competition with the livelihoods of private citizens who are forced to pay the taxes to maintain the competition.

More and more money is going into tax-exempt government bonds instead of taxable, labor employing investments. The result is increased unemployment and distress.

History shows many examples of taxing a people until they repudiate tax obligations. Unless all units of government retrench, it is not impossible to force such a tax crisis in our own country.—Industrial News Review.

Edgar Spencer was in from the ranch Saturday on business.

THE DANGER OF GOVERNMENTAL RELIEF

The new farm bill is swinging slowly into action. The government will undertake to balance production and demand, to improve the farmer's financial condition, to ease the burden of mortgages, and to raise the prices of his produce.

While this may be temporarily beneficial it will be permanently harmful, if the farmer as an individual, comes to depend on governmental aid measures, no matter how carefully they are drawn—they are apt to create a feeling of dependence in the beneficiary that leaves him helpless when aid has been taken away.

The wise farmer will recognize the bill for what it is—an effort to carry him through a critical period, and give him a hand in straightening out his troubles, so that he may stand on his own feet thereafter. Lasting farm progress comes from the farmer's own effort. It must be the reflection of his own will, his own aggressiveness, his own courage, if it is to be permanent.

During the next few years there is no agency that will be of vital importance—the farm cooperative. It is the agency through which the individual farmer, in company with his neighbors, may fight his own battles and win his own victories. Long after governmental relief is no longer necessary, the cooperative will remain. No matter how often we may change our ideas of what attitude government should take toward the farmer, the cooperative idea is fixed and will not be dislodged. And this is the time for farmers to work their hardest in advancing the interest of their cooperatives.—Industrial News Review.
