Communist Daily Slaps At Wedemeyer

By SPENCER MOOSA
CHUNGKING, Nov. 5 (AP)—The Chinese Communist New China Daily News reached new heights of virulence against the United States today in charging that Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer's promise that Americans would avoid participation in Chinese internal strife was "nothing but a lie."

The charge against the commander of American troops in China was carried in a dispatch from the communist headquarters at Yenan. The Americans, it said, not only armed and equipped central government troops, "but have invaded our liberated areas in North China, opened fire on us, arrested some of our army personnel and disarmed some of our troops."

When American Marines first landed at Chinwangtao, the Communists sent representatives to contact them, but "they were fired upon and had to reply," the dispatch said, adding the Communists withdrew after an hour of hostilities.

After the Marines had occupied Chinwangtao and the nearby town of Haiyang, the dispatch said, the Communists, who were not informed of the Americans' intentions, and considering China's "territorial rights involved" sent six representatives to negotiate with them.

The Americans arrested the negotiators without explanation and before releasing them, asserted the news, "threatened that the Communists would be dealt with by the American fleet and Marines."

The dispatch also charged that: (1) October 18 a detachment of

US MARINES OUT OF CHINA FIGHT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (AP)—The White House said today "there have been no clashes between Chinese Communists and United States Marines." Eben Ayers, assistant press secretary, made this statement to reporters. He did not indicate what occasioned his comment. There were reports, however, from Communist headquarters in China that American Marines had fired on Chinese Communist representatives at Chinwangtao. The Chinese, the dispatch said, "had to reply to the fire, but withdrew after about an hour of hostilities."

Ayers told a news conference that President Truman had received a message from Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, Commanding General of the United States Forces in the Chinese Theater.

30 American and Chinese police arrested five members of the staff of the Communist office in the former British concession in Tientsin.

10 American planes from Nanyuan airfield in the suburbs of Peiping flew over the Communist-held town of Kuan on Oct. 21 and dropped leaflets warning the Communists to withdraw in three days.

The last of the same day 14 American planes strafed Kuan while a mass meeting was being held.

Earlier, in a dispatch from one of its correspondents, the Communist paper had charged the Marines with "positively" participating in armed intervention in China's undeclared civil war.

American Marines at Chinwangtao in cooperation with Kuomintang troops attacked Communist-liberated areas for days," it said.

Around 70,000 U. S. Marines have been stationed in the Tientsin-Peiping area of North China to aid Nationalist forces, and in policing until Chiang can move in reinforcements.

American officials have emphasized that the Marines have been ordered to stand clear of China's civil strife and take no sides.

Official reports reaching Chungking today said 10,000 Chinese Communists were attacking Nationalists in the suburbs of Kweisui, capital of Sulyuan province in inner Mongolia.

A government spokesman claimed, however, that Kweisui was "fortunately" still in the hands of the defenders.

Joe Rias Treated For Cuts In Affray

Joe Rias received treatment for cuts at Malone-Hogan Hospital Saturday after police answered a disturbance call at a hotel in the flats section.

Two women were arrested for fighting on First and Main Saturday afternoon, police said. Investigation was made on two house prowlers early Saturday. One was reported at 202 Washington Blvd at 12:15 a. m. and another at 1005 West Third at 1:45 a. m.

Curfew In Force In Trouble Spots In Jewish Area

By GEORGE PALMER
JERUSALEM, Nov. 5 (AP)—A precautionary dusk-to-dawn curfew was in force at Palestine trouble spots today after a quiet weekend in which there was no recurrence of last week's Arab-Jewish disturbances.

Cairo also was reported calm. There was only one small anti-Zionist demonstration yesterday and police quickly broke it up. However, dispatches said that 1,000 persons were under arrest as an aftermath of rioting Friday and Saturday.

Maj. Gen. C. F. Loewen, military commander of the northern area, issued the curfew order. It commanded all persons living in specified sections between Tel Aviv and Haifa as well as residents of the Haifa port and refinery areas to remain indoors between 5:30 p. m. and 5:30 a. m.

The only new incident reported yesterday occurred when six persons were detected tampering with the Royal Navy depot fence near Haifa. They fled after an interchange of shots with guards. There were no casualties.

A conciliatory voice was raised over the weekend when Musa Bey El Alami, Palestine delegate to the Pan-Arab league, said that the Arab people would agree to additional Jewish immigration into Palestine if an impartial United Nations body decided the country's economy could carry the load and if all Allied nations also agreed to accept Jewish immigrants.

The spokesman explained that the Arabs object not to "the Jews as such" but to political Zionism. He criticized the Jews for segregating themselves into "water-tight Jewish communities."

Billy Bob McDonald Commissioned Ensign

Midshipman Billy Bob McDonald, son of H. A. McDonald of Monahan, was among 1,121 men commissioned as Ensigns, United States Naval Reserve, in ceremonies held Nov. 2 in the Cathedral of Saint John the ivine, New York City.

The group was the twenty-sixth class to be graduated from the oldest and largest Naval Reserve Officer Training School, and brings the total number of graduates from the Training Center to approximately 24,000.

Ens. McDonald graduated from Big Spring High school.

Dutch Planning To Regain Control Of Eastern Empire

BATAVIA, Java, Nov. 5 (AP)—Dutch officials were understood today to be considering a plan to gain firm control of a small part of Western Java and establish that area as a rallying ground from which they could extend their efforts to end the native Nationalist uprising in the East Indies.

The Dutch plan to bring in many more troops, although there has been no official announcement on the subject. Some unofficial estimates of the size of the reinforcements run as high as 20,000 men before Christmas.

Strife-torn Java was quiet today following the flare up of sporadic fighting in the northern section of Batavia during the night, but it was like the quiet before the storm. The picture as a whole is blacker and more ominous, with tens of thousands of trigger-happy Indonesians armed to the teeth and determined on revolution.

The British are in a dilemma, apparently undecided whether to fight their way through and re-accept Amer can mediation, claiming that the Russians, French and Chinese also may wish to have their thumbs in the pie.

If the Dutch gain control of Western Java they could be expected to try to make it a center where pro-Dutch elements of the population could come and live without fear of being molested by Indonesian extremists.

RIFLE BULLET HITS DELTA AIRLINER

DALLAS, Nov. 5 (AP)—Officers are investigating today the cause of a .22 calibre rifle bullet shot yesterday which hit a Delta Air Lines plane, resulting in the slight injury to two persons.

The plane was flying at about 700 feet two miles west of Love Field when the bullet entered the plane, the pilot said. The bullet broke a window, causing a scratch on the finger of Stewardess Virginia Caldwell of Denton, and W. D. Alberts, a passenger of Los Angeles.

SEARCHERS DESPAIR OF FINDING CHILD LOST IN MOUNTAINS ALIVE

DOWNIEVILLE, Calif., Nov. 5 (AP)—"I hope it is kidnapping and that he is alive and safe—rather than lost in those mountains," the grief-stricken father of Dickie Tum Suden, 3, exclaimed last night as weary searchers began to despair of finding the child alive.

The father, Joseph Tum Suden, who operates the Brush Creek gold mine, and other members of the family clung to the kidnap theory as one of the last rays of hope as tired searchers and foot-sore dogs concluded their fourth fruitless day of hunting in the towering Sierra Nevada.

Blonde, blue-eyed Dickie disappeared Thursday from the yard of his home at Goodyear Bar.

Merritt said yesterday that he had received a "crank" message from a California business concern "indicating in a half hidden way they might be able to help."

Approximately 250 soldiers from Camp Beale, Marysville, are now aiding civilians, woodsmen, townspeople, and forest rangers in the search.

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 5 (AP)—City and county officers said today they were checking the possibility that the body of a three-year-old boy found in the Franklin canal here yesterday is that of Dickie Tum Suden, missing Downieville, Calif., child.

George L. Wilke Dies Sunday

George Louis Wilke, 65, optometrist here since 1922, died at a local hospital Sunday at 3 a. m.

Although he had been ill since July and thus inactive in business, Dr. Wilke apparently was on the road to recovery. Last week he had been able to spend some time at his office, but Saturday he suffered an attack of uremic poisoning.

Born March 31, 1880 near Boerne, he was reared on a ranch, moving later to Lampasas where he was married to Mary Effie Taylor in March 1911. They resided in Miami and Celeste, Texas before coming to Big Spring in 1922.

From the time he went into business here, Dr. Wilke became an ardent booster for Big Spring. His business had been operated continuously since and was among the three oldest established concerns.

For many years he was on the board of the First Christian church until ill health forced his retirement. He had been a charter member of the Rotary club here but inactive in recent years. He was perhaps the first to see in local native stones the possibility of unique settings. In years past he had maintained several civic connections.

Rites were held at the First Christian church Monday 3 p. m. with the Rev. J. E. McCoy, pastor, officiating, and the church choir in charge of music. Burial was in the city cemetery with Eberley-Curry Funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Dr. Wilke is survived by his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Mary Alice Woodward, Big Spring; one son, Leonard Wilke, San Antonio; a grandson, Leonard Wilke, San Antonio; and two brothers, W. J. Wilke, Houston, and Louis Wilke, Boerne.

Pallbearers were J. H. Greene, Roy Reeder, Albert Fisher, Shine Phillips, Vivian Nichols, J. L. Sanderson, Marvin House, Virgil Smith, W. W. Inkman, Cecil Westerman, Robert Currie.

Many Stranded As Buses Take Strike Holiday

DALLAS, Nov. 5 (AP)—The strike of drivers, ticket agents and baggage room workers of the Southwestern Greyhound bus lines which began at midnight last night was picketless and peaceful today.

Between 1,200 and 1,500 employees were idle in a seven-state area. Terminals from El Paso to Memphis were closed.

The strikers are members of the Amalgamated Street, Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America (AFM).

Although servicemen and recently discharged veterans by the score were being delayed in Dallas and other points throughout Texas, Eighth Service Command headquarters here said it would not become involved as a peace-maker.

Four major schedules out of Dallas with final destinations El Paso, San Antonio, Memphis and Tulsa were cancelled completely, Joe Evans, district superintendent for Greyhound here, said.

Truman Urges End Of Strikes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (AP)—President Truman told management and labor today they must solve their differences because controversies "cannot be allowed to stop us" in the struggle to reconvert to peacetime production.

Addressing the opening session of a labor-management conference of 18 industrial leaders and a like number of organized labor heads, the president said the American people do not like industrial strife that has retarded prosperity, "especially after the solemn promise" of both groups that they would "cooperate with their government."

Greyhound Lines Drivers Striking

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 5 (AP) Bus drivers and other employees of Southwestern Greyhound Lines, Inc., left their jobs at midnight last night in seven southern and western states, joining striking Greyhound workers in 19 eastern states.

Approximately 800 workers walked out in Texas. Other points affected were in Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, New Mexico, Colorado and Arkansas.

Union leaders and company officials said the dispute was over wages. W. C. O'Kelley, business agent for the Amalgamated Street Railway and Motor Coach Employees union (AFM) in the southwest, said the union is asking a cent a mile increase in drivers' pay more than the present 4 1/2 cents a mile. The company has offered 5.3 cents.

In the east, drivers receive 5 cents and are seeking 5.75. The company has offered 5.4 in that area.

No change was reported in the situation east of the Mississippi where 4,000 drivers and other employees of six bus lines walked out Nov. 1.

Approximately 125 drivers in Dallas joined the strike, according to C. K. Wilson, member of the Dallas local of the union. He said W. C. Estes, district president at Oklahoma City, had telephoned him and requested the strike. The station, just half an hour before the scheduled walkout, was crowded with hundreds of prospective travelers, ignorant of the proposed strike.

A similar number of drivers was affected in the Houston area. W. C. Estes, Oklahoma City, president of the union in the southwest, termed the walkout "unauthorized" yesterday.

O'Kelley said that he is scheduled to meet with P. W. Tibbitts, president of the Greyhound Lines in Fort Worth Nov. 8 to discuss the situation.

Search Underway For Meteorite

AMARILLO, Nov. 5 (AP)—A search is underway today for the meteor which fell west of Adrian at noon Saturday.

Oscar Monning, member of the Texas Observers, Fort Worth, and Floyd W. Studer, Amarillo, member of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, were seeking parts of the meteor northeast of here.

Fragments fell near highway 66, according to Uel Pruett of Kansas City. Pruett was driving near the scene at the time. J. C. Estlack, Clarendon postmaster, said windows and doors rattled, with a sound like "boxcars slamming together."

Electric lights and radios north of here were out for two minutes.

Two Youths Charged Collecting For Paper

Two juveniles were in custody of Jake Bruton, county juvenile officer Monday. He was investigating reports that they had collected from several persons in southern and western Big Spring on the pretense they were Herald route boys or were collecting for them.

Persons given receipts other than printed Herald forms were asked to contact The Herald.

HOUSE REPUBLICAN FAVORS TAFT FOR PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (AP)—A house Republican urged today that Senator Robert Taft of Ohio be the party's candidate for President in 1948.

The suggestion came from Rep. Mason (Ill) in what he termed "the opening gun" of the 1948 GOP Presidential campaign.

Mason, in an address prepared for house delivery, also: 1. Proposed a cabinet team he said should be placed before voters along with Taft. 2. Proposed that "Jeffersonian Democrats" line up with "Lincoln Republicans" against "New Dealers, Socialists, Communists, Professional Do-Gooders and Give-Aways."

He suggested that former Re-

Roosevelt Files Made Available

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (AP)—The late President Roosevelt's White House files—64 bundles each as big as a bale of hay—have been made available to a senate-house committee inquiring into the Pearl Harbor disaster.

Senator George (D-Ga.) told a reporter today it is his understanding that no restrictions have been placed on the committee's looking over the documents.

Committee members said the files are locked up in a single room under the custody of Miss Grace G. Tully, personal secretary to the late president. Miss Tully alone has the key to the room, they said.

Capt. Fleweller Returns To States

MATHER FIELD, Calif., Nov. 3—Capt. Gene H. Fleweller of Big Spring, a B-29 pilot with 12 missions against the Japanese home-land, returned to the United States Nov. 2 after a tour of seven months with the 20th Air Force's 314 Bombardment Wing on Guam.

Capt. Fleweller, a veteran of 200 combat flying hours, has been awarded the Air Medal and Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon with bronze battle star. He has 71 points under the Army's readjustment point system.

He is the son of Mrs. Lina C. Fleweller, 210 East Park Street, Big Spring, and his wife is the former Maybelle Spero of Cleveland, Ohio.

"Bohemian Girl" To Be Presented Tonight At 8:15 In Auditorium

"The Bohemian Girl", by Michael William Belfe, will be presented Monday evening at 8:15 p. m. in the City Auditorium by the North Texas State College school of music, under the auspices of the high school PTA.

The all student cast includes 23 vocalists and an orchestra of 23 members. Lead parts are played by Helen Hunter of Wichita Falls, Joseph Truncale of Fort Arthur, William Reynolds of Fort Worth, E. C. Richards of Jacksboro, and Earl Keel of Fort Worth. The opera is produced by Miss Mary McCormick and the vocalists and orchestra are directed by Dr. Wilfred C. Bain, head of the school of music.

The story is laid in and about Presburg, Hungary, in the 18th century immediately after Poland had been overrun by Hungarian power. Thaddeus, a noble Pole, seeking to escape the enemy, finds his way to the estates of Count Arnheim whose retainers are waiting to accompany him on a hunt. Devilshoof and his gypsy band appear, and Thaddeus changes clothes and mingles with them just as a troop of soldiers comes to apprehend him.

heim's little daughter, Arline, from the attack of a wild boar while the huntsman and Florestin, the count's nephew, run away. The count, in gratitude, invites him to a feast at which he refuses to drink the health of the Austrian emperor. Devilshoof comes to his aid when the Austrians threaten Thaddeus. They are both arrested, but escape, Devilshoof carrying the child, Arline.

For twelve years Arline has lived with the gypsies and is beloved by Thaddeus. Taunted by Devilshoof, the gypsy queen, though she herself loves Thaddeus, joins the lovers' hands according to gypsy rite. Later at the fair in Presburg the queen is the cause of the arrest of Arline for theft and the girl is brought before Count Arnheim, her father, where she is recognized by him when he notices the scar left by the attack of the boar. She joins her father.

At a party given in her honor Arline longs for the gypsy freedom, and the gypsy queen enters and suddenly denounces Arline for hiding a man in her bedroom. Thaddeus is brought from his hiding place and proclaims his identity as a Polish noble and the count welcomes him as his son-in-law. The gypsy queen in fury attempts to kill Thaddeus, but Devilshoof snatches the gun from her hands, preventing the tragedy.

ALVIN PLANS UNIQUE SET-UP IN JUNIOR COLLEGE SYSTEM

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 5 (P)—If tentative plans formulated by Alvin, Texas, for a junior college are followed, the system will be a model and unique school setup in Texas. Dr. C. C. Colvert, professor-consultant in junior college education at the University of Texas declared today.

"Alvin is planning the 'six-four-four' schedule," Dr. Colvert, who was called in by the Alvin School Board for consultation, said. "There will be six grades in the elementary schools; four in high school, and four in junior college. Alvin will be the only school in Texas to have such a 14-grade setup, and it is believed that the break between senior high school and junior college work will be eliminated entirely with the new system."

Only those students from the immediate school district would attend the school, but later the college would expand to serve the surrounding area, Dr. Colvert explained.

Present plans of the Alvin district are for $400,000 in a school expansion program, for additions to the high school and junior high, and the junior college would be in addition to this general program.

"Big Spring, Sweetwater, Pampa, Childress, and Wharton county are also considering the possibilities of having junior colleges," the University professor said, and he has served each town in making tentative plans for their colleges.

Texas Today CEILOMETER HANDY GADGET FOR FLIERS TO HAVE AROUND

BY JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

A handy little gadget to have around the house is the ceilometer. The Dallas airport is installing one. It measures the height of clouds. The cost is $16,000.

Melvil Glese, Jr., son of the mayor of Elsa, might have some use for a ceilometer.

Melvil is only 13, but he's a pilot, probably the youngest in Texas. His dad owns a PT-19, and he took instructions from a man in Edcouch. He spends most of his time around an airport, and recently flew a plane from Elsa to Brownsville for an international airport celebration.

Air express employees at Brownsville ran across a shipment bound for Buenos Aires that they stumped for a while.

It was labeled Hydroxymercuropropanolamide Orthocarbonyloxyacetate. It weighed four pounds.

They finally sent it on through identified as a chemical product.

So many people are playing "football parlays" by means of cards which offer gambling odds on dozens of widely separated games that the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal has announced it can not give all scores by telephone.

A page one notice said on recent Friday and Saturday nights at six telephone trunk lines to the office had been tied up with such calls.

Henceforth, only Lubbock and Texas Tech games will be given. "No other scores will be given by telephone, not even to the dozens who each week insist they are personal friends of the management and hence have a priority on special treatment," said the announcement.

A fire truck from Denison came to the rescue of the beached Moulton, largest boat on Lake Texoma. The Moulton was not on fire. It had sprung a leak and was beached during a storm. It was, in fact, full of water.

The fire truck pumped water from the flooded hull and refloated the boat.

Maj. Ralph W. Baker has been assigned as post ordnance officer at Ft. Sill, Okla., and not at the Big Spring bombardier school as erroneously reported in a story in Sunday's Herald.

Maj. Baker, a veteran of two world wars, has been stationed at Ft. Sill since April, 1942. Until he reentered service, Maj. Baker engaged in civil engineering practice here and had served several years as county surveyor.

Big Spring One Of 101 Quints In Cage Race

AUSTIN, Nov. 5 (AP)—A tentative list of conference AA schools planning to participate in the University of Texas Interscholastic League basketball in 1945-46 was released recently by Rodney Kidd, athletic director of the league.

Although 101 schools are now in the conference, still others are expected to join before the closing date of November 15, Kidd said. Schools in conference AA which have indicated they will take part in the basketball series include the following, by districts:

- 1—Amarillo, Borger, Brownfield, Lubbock, Pampa, Plainview,
- 2—Burkburnett, Childress, Electra, Graham Olney, Quanah, Vernon, Wichita Falls.
- 3—Ablene, Big Spring, Lamesa, Midland, San Angelo, Odessa, Sweetwater.
- 4—Austin (El Paso), Bowie (El Paso), Yoleta.
- 5—Bonham, Denison, Gainesville, Greenville, Paris, Sherman.
- 6—Arlington, Denton, Highland Park (Dallas), McKinney, Sulphur Springs.

7—Amon Carter-Riverside (Fort Worth), Arlington Heights (Fort Worth), Fort Worth Technical, North Side (Fort Worth), Paschal (Fort Worth), Polytechnic (Fort Worth).

8—Crosier Technical (Dallas), Forest Avenue (Dallas), North Dallas, Sunset (Dallas), W. H. Adamson (Dallas), Woodrow Wilson (Dallas).

9—Breckenridge, Brownwood, Cisco, Mineral Wells, Ranger, Stephenville, Weatherford.

10—Bryan, Cleburne, Corsicana, Ennis, Hillsboro, Temple, Waco, Waxahachie.

11—Gladewater, Henderson, Kilgore, Longview, Marshall, Texarkana, Tyler.

12—Athens, Jacksonville, Livingston, Lufkin, Nacogdoches, Palestine.

13—Milby (Houston), Jefferson Davis (Houston), Reagan (Houston), Lamar (Houston), Houston (Houston), San Jacinto (Houston), Austin (Houston).

14—Beaumont, Galveston, Goose Creek, Orange, Port Arthur, South Park (Beaumont).

15—Austin, Brackenridge (San Antonio), Corpus Christi, Kerrville, Laredo, San Antonio Tech, Jefferson (San Antonio).

16—Brownville, Edinburg, Harlingen, Kingsville, Robstown, San Benito.

Only Seven Teams Boast Perfect 1945 Record

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Editor

Only five of the sixteen districts of Texas schoolboy football have undisputed leaders as the campaign enters its final month.

Paschal tops the Fort Worth district, Crozier Tech is the Dallas pace-setter, Waco leads in District 10, Milby is the No. 1 team at Houston and Galveston is out in front in District 14. The other districts present this picture:

- 1—Amarillo, Plainview and Pampa tied for the lead.
- 2—Wichita Falls and Vernon tied.
- 3—Odessa and Sweetwater.
- 4—Austin (El Paso) and El Paso High.
- 5—Paris and Denison.
- 6—Denton undefeated but Highland Park (Dallas) has not yet played a conference game.
- 9—Brownwood and Breckenridge.
- 11—Marshall and Tyler; Longview undefeated but once tied.
- 12—Jacksonville and Lufkin.
- 15—Austin, Corpus Christi, Jefferson (San Antonio) and Brackenridge (San Antonio) tied for the lead.
- 16—Brownville and Edinburg tied for the top.

This week brings some of the most crucial games of the conference race.

In District 1 Amarillo meets Plainview, in District 3 Odessa tangles with Sweetwater, in District 5 Paris plays Denison, in District 6 Denton tackles Highland Park, in District 12 Breckenridge clashes with Brownwood, in District 11 Tyler engages Longview and in District 16 Brownville plays Edinburg.

The Odessa-Sweetwater, Paris-Denison, Highland Park-Denton, Breckenridge-Brownwood and Brownville-Edinburg games are considered as decisive struggles in the district championship battles.

Milby probably will become the first district champion actually crowned. The Buffs have either to beat or tie Austin Friday night to clinch the title.

Just eight teams remained undefeated and untied in the state and more than half of these appear in danger of falling this week. The schools with perfect records are Pampa, Plainview, Odessa, Paris, Brownwood, Lufkin, Milby and Brownville. Plainview faces all sorts of trouble from Amarillo, Odessa may find Sweetwater hard to handle, Paris is none too sure about beating Denison, Brownwood has a rugged foe in Breckenridge. Milby might lose to Austin and Brownville is uncertain against Edinburg. Lufkin should beat Nacogdoches without trouble and Pampa should take Lubbock.

Although there will be some bronze-busting at Dallas and Los Angeles before the season closes, the competition in the Boston Garden opening Thursday could clinch the title for Linderman, one of seven brothers from Red Lodge.

If Bill misses out on the championship, held by Louis Brooks of Sweetwater, Tex., for the last two years, Brother Bud probably will take the big money for they are running head and head. Bill has won almost $20,000 for the season in recognized rodeos.

Toots Mansfield, a seasoned campaigner from Rankin, Texas, added the $2,000 calf roping championship to his laurels, the fourth time he has taken the event in the garden. A second place in the wild cow milking contest upped his New York time to over $5,000.

G. K. Lewallen of Blackwell, Texas, scored a decisive 500-point victory in the wild bull riding contest.

The 213 cowboys split up $145,825 as their share of the estimated gross gate of $1,500,000 contributed by continuous sellout crowds of 15,000 wild west fans.

The first three in each event included: Calf roping, second place, Tom Tyler, Shofford, Texas.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

The duet sale for the Hondo AAF - Southwestern university football game, booked to be played in Steer Stadium beginning at 2 o'clock the afternoon of Saturday, Nov. 24, gets into full swing this week.

AB Club's ambitious Jack Frost Johnson, the huge sand and gravel man who spearheaded the campaign to land the bout for Big Spring, said he hoped that about 4500 duets can be disposed of. That would be capacity for the Longhorn arena.

Walker Bailey, the organization's president, predicts the minimum guarantee will be raised by Nov. 17, a week before the classic is to take place.

The city might co-operate by declaring an afternoon holiday the day of the game.

Proceeds from the game, over and above expenses, will go toward improvement of one of ABC's favorite charities, the West Side park. The unit hopes to raise enough money to purchase a quantity of playground equipment, footballs, baseballs, gloves and whatnot for the children who frequent that recreational spot.

Roy Reeder, one of ABC's alert and likeable workers, wants to make such an arrangement an annual institution here. Success of the initial venture can determine the fate of such an idea.

Perhaps, if the Nov. 24th arrangement goes "over the top," some Southwest conference clubs can be lured here in future years.

One of Southwestern's outstanding players is John Ulrey, a Big Spring product who started at right end for Coach R. M. Medley's clan last Saturday against Baylor.

Ulrey is only a freshman at the Georgetown school but he's certain to letter for the Corsairs.

Little is known of the Hondo AAF eleven, other than the fact that they lost to Oklahoma university's Sooners in their first tilt of the season by a 21-6 count.

The Hondos are coached by Bob Coe, who was associated with the venerable Alonzo Stagg for many years.

Peppy Blout's last minute touchdown that enabled Texas university to trip SMU, 12-7, last Saturday was the first score made in Southwestern conference football play by a Big Spring player since Olie Cordill ran wild for Rice institute back at the turn of the decade.

Cordill, incidentally, is helping Ernie Finckert mentor the Air Transport Command gridders of Nashville, Tenn., this season.

Hogan's 289 Wins Richmond Open
RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5 (AP)—Big league golfers finally found a course they couldn't lick this year and Ben Hogan's five-over-par 289 was good enough to win the Richmond open, $2,000 in war bonds.

Hogan's score over the hermitage country club's par 71 layout was the highest 72-hole winning figure for a big-time tourney since Sam Snead of Hot Springs, Va., won the Portland open a year ago with an identical card. Hogan, who registers from Hershey, Pa., added a 74-73 yesterday to his 142 of the first two days.

Longhorns Bear Down For San Angelo Clash

The victory-starved Big Spring high school football Steers go back to work in earnest this afternoon to further preparations for the "Armistice Day" invasion of San Angelo.

The annual classic is slated to be played Friday night, two days prior to the national holiday.

Although it fades in importance to some of the other District Three business at hand, the engagement—as always—highlights the Longhorns' fall card. It's no secret that the Big Springers would rather wrack up a win over the Bobcats than any other team in the family.

When the two elevens get together, past records mean very little for both tribes invariably play "above their heads."

In recent years the Concho eleven has had clearly the upper hand in the arguments but, from all indications, the Cats are not as mean as they have been. They've looked good, bad and indifferent and Coach John Dibrell, who saw them play last weekend, figures they're ripe for a reversal.

The Conchoans played exceptionally well in an outing some weeks ago against Odessa, though losing 7-0. Then last week they had to play like all get-out to edge Midland, 13-7.

Dibrell's gang is in top shape for the odyssey. Ensor Puckett, up-and-coming wing, was inactive most of last week, but he's back now and ready to operate. So is Billy Casey, who had several conferences with the medics.

Wedding Bells Star's Parting With Academy Amicable

AUSTIN, Nov. 5 (AP)—Ralph Ellsworth, who has returned to the University of Texas to finish out his college athletic eligibility, wants it distinctly understood that he had no grievance against the navy when he resigned from Annapolis Military Academy.

Commenting on reports of why he left the academy, Ellsworth, who was an all-conference half-back at Texas in 1943 and played with Navy last year, said his reasons were:

1. When he entered Annapolis, the naval program lasted only three years. But after the war ended, the academy went back on the four-year basis. That meant an extra year plus a tour of sea duty, all of which was more time than Ellsworth cared to spend in the navy.

2. He was told by academy physicians that he might not receive a commission upon graduation because of a knee trouble diagnosed as "water on the knee," which does not particularly hamper him in football or track.

3. He had no complaint to make against the academy because he wasn't a starter on the navy's football team. "The veteran backs were just a little too good for me," Ellsworth said. But even then he played quite a bit, averaging about half of each game.

4. There were no scholastic troubles. Always an honor student, he made very high grades at Annapolis.

5. He wanted to return to civilian life so he could marry Miss Jackie McKay, who was sweetheart of the university in 1943. Ellsworth and Miss McKay have been engaged for the last six months.

So he decided to resign and return to the university where he can qualify for a petroleum degree in little more than a year.

Ellsworth went to Dallas Saturday with the football squad when it played Southern Methodist. He didn't participate but explained that it was because he was ill with bronchitis.

Regarding athletic eligibility he figures he has still another season after this at the university.

Three 'Sudden Death' Games Due In S'west

By The Associated Press

Three more of those "sudden death" games are scheduled this week in a Southwest conference football race that may be decided by discharges from the armed service.

The campaign has reached that stage where a defeat is enough to kick any team out of the championship picture.

Returning service men already are taking a big hand in the proceedings as the race rolls down its final four weeks.

At Dallas Saturday Bobby Layne who got out of the merchant marine a few days before Texas played Southern Methodist, passed and ran the Longhorns to a 12-7 victory that shoved the Orange back in the middle of the title drive.

In that game Doak Walker, who was discharged from the merchant marine the same time as Layne, almost carried S.M.U. to victory. He made the Mustangs more potent than any time this season and indicated the Methodists would be powerful factors in deciding where the championship is to rest.

Texas faces Baylor at Austin Saturday. The Bears cling only to a mathematical chance of figuring in the title. Defeat by Texas would definitely kick the Bruins into the discard along with Arkansas, which lost whatever hopes it may have had when it was trounced 34-0 by Texas A. and M. last week.

On the other hand, Texas, now tied for the lead with A. and M. and Texas Christian, would find itself pretty close to the shadow of the eight-ball should it lose to Baylor.

Down at College Station Southern Methodist and Texas A. and M. will battle it out for survival while Rice risks its chances at Houston against Arkansas.

Texas Christian is the only team that runs no risks this week. The Horned Frogs play Texas Tech of the Border conference at Lubbock.

T.C.U. did itself proud last Saturday in toppling Oklahoma 13-7 to improve the conference's inter-sectional record and to show Texas will have its hands full Nov. 17 when the Frogs play the Longhorns at Austin.

Texas had all sorts of trouble beating Oklahoma. T.C.U. did it comparatively easy. Baylor downed Southwestern 19-0 and Rice beat Texas Tech 13-0 in other non-conference tilts.

Follow label directions.

Mansfield Again Top Calf Roper

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—The yipee-wiy! boys packed their boots and saddles in Boston-bound trunks today and headed into the stretch of the rodeo campaign with Bill Linderman of Red Lodge, Montana, riding herd on the unofficial national all-round cowboy crown.

Although there will be some bronze-busting at Dallas and Los Angeles before the season closes, the competition in the Boston Garden opening Thursday could clinch the title for Linderman, one of seven brothers from Red Lodge.

Everybody's asking... "When can I get new tires?"

HERE'S THE FIRST POSTWAR NEWS ABOUT U. S. ROYALS

When can I get new tires?
It won't be long now. War production is over. The entire facilities of our 5 giant plants are rolling out tires and tubes 100% for civilian use. This great production capacity is devoted to turning out more and more tires for you. By January 1, 1946 we expect to be making as many civilian tires every day as we made before the war. Next spring we will be turning out more tires than we ever built before.

What about rationing?
We expect the government to continue rationing for at least 60 days. Present indications are it will be removed or greatly relaxed before the end of 1945.

How good will the new tires be?
Since Pearl Harbor, "U. S." scientists have made as much progress in applying synthetic materials to tire manufacture as had been made in the previous three decades with natural rubber. When you buy your U. S. Royals, you'll buy more than just a good tire—you'll buy a great tire. Car owners are sending us reports from every section of the country that they are getting prewar performance and better from their U. S. Royals. From tire dealers, tire service men and tire engineers, men who have made tires their life work, the evidence piles up—U. S. Royals are out in front in mileage, in safety, in all-around performance.

Where and How can I get new U. S. Royals?
Your U. S. Royal Dealer offers you a plan to assure the earliest possible delivery of tires and to keep your present tires rolling during the waiting period.

Here is the plan:

- Go to your U. S. Royal Dealer today for a thorough tire inspection.
- If you are in urgent need of new tires, he will show you how to get them at the earliest possible moment.
- If your need is not immediate, he will use his expert knowledge of tire care to keep your car on active duty until new U. S. Royals are available.
- The quickest way to get new U. S. Royals is to register your tire needs with your U. S. Dealer now.

HOLD OUT FOR U. S. ROYALS

When you get your new set of U. S. Royals, you can expect great service from them. Meanwhile, get full use of your car by seeing your community U. S. Royal Dealer.

A Dangerous Situation

The internal disturbance in China, now erupting into proportions of civil war, is disquieting in view of the fact that the world has struggled for so long to be relieved of fighting.

In the past the Chinese communists have had sympathy and in all probability the support of the Soviet government. On the other hand, Chiang Kai-shek's central Chinese government has moved in the direction of the democracies, a course interrupted to considerable extent by the fortunes of war.

Out of this unhappy land have come stories upon stories, some supporting the Chinese communists with declaration the Chiang was keeping more men facing this group than he deployed against the Japs. However, in recent months, the weight of information seems to brand these stories about the Chinese communist position as fantasy.

Save Used Fats

Appeals to housewives to save used fats and to turn them to their grocer are not just so much bureaucratic hang-over from the war.

A decline in cosmetic output has resulted from a reduction in lard and factory grease production. Although the war's end has freed the lands from whence came heavy imports of oil from the Far East, it did not work the miracle of restoring neglected coconut groves or demolished copra-processing mills.

The average woman who has had to run from store to store in search of soap should be able to appreciate the need for fats. However, this is but part of the need, for every manufactured item that is machined requires cutting oils; every electric wire requires industrial fats and oil for wire-drawing; most paints and varnishes must have oil; synthetic rubber demands huge quantities of soap, which means oil; all textiles at some stage in their manu-

For almost a generation now lights of hope from time to time have gleamed through the darkness surrounding the problem of establishing a Jewish national home in Palestine, but always they've proved to be will-o'-the-wisps which danced away as quickly as they came.

So one is cautious in approaching what looks to be encouraging signs in connection with this highly dangerous Arab-Jewish imbroglio. Still, despite the fresh crisis, because of this crisis there are new flashes of hope, though only time will tell whether they are real or only more of the delusive prospectiveness which we have chased before.

One good indication is that England seems anxious for aid in carrying out the responsibility of her Palestine mandate. She's fishing for American assistance in solving the problem—and wants more than the advice we have been giving her. The significance of the development as I see it is that ultimately the Jewish national home might be dealt with, not solely by Britain or by British and America, but by the United Nations Security Organization. The Jewish national home has become an international issue.

Certainly the time has come when some concrete action must be taken. If the affair drags on, there will be the danger not only of war in Palestine between the Arabs and the Jews, but neighboring Arabs are threatening to take a hand in support of their brothers.

What looks like another flash of hope is seen in the statement issued by Musa Bey El Alami, Palestine Arab delegate to the powerful Pan-Arab league. He says the Arab people would agree to additional Jewish immigration into Palestine if an impartial United Nations body decided that the country's economy could carry the load—and if all Allied nations also agreed to accept Jewish immigration.

Here again the real significance seems to lie in the suggestion of bringing the United Nations into the settlement. If Musa Bey's statement means what it seems to mean, the Palestine Arabs are willing to accept United Nations mediation.

With The AEF: With A Flourish

By HAL BOYLE

TOKYO (AP)—When the Japanese open a new dance hall, it's strictly like launching a battleship. They do everything but crack a bottle of champagne over the prow of one of their "two yen a dance" girls.

The latest venture in the Nipponese campaign to get the American soldier to pay Japan's war debt is a colossal dance hall in the basement of a bombed-out department store on the famous Ginza. This oasis on the Ginza is the "Willow Run" of the world's dance halls—with 2,000 Japanese girl dancers ready to jitterbug or fox-trot with any American G.I.—and it is aimed specifically at pulling yen out of G.I. pockets.

It promises to be one of the most popular entertainment spots in the Japanese capital for occupation troops. Japanese-conceived and Japanese-financed, it originated with a group of businessmen who formed a "recreation and amusement association" to develop the project. They sank more than $100,000 in remodeling the huge, concrete-walled department store basement. The 2,000 dancing partners have been given English lessons and taught at least the rudiments of American style dancing.

Because of the possibility of disturbance, no Japanese men patrons will be allowed. It will be solely a dance hall for the Yank soldiers. For two yen—a about 14 cents—he can have a three-minute dance with any girl of his choosing, and a big bar will serve him a large mug of Japanese beer for six yen—about 40 cents. There will be no hard liquor.

Major-domo for the financial interests involved is spry, elderly little M. Kanechiko—generally known as "Little Tokyo," who in his gray, race-track-checked suit looks like a character from a Damon Runyon story. The girls made a big hit with American soldiers at the formal opening.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

A New Secret, Pearl Harbor Report

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—The joint congressional committee investigating Pearl Harbor has a hushed-up war department report on the disaster, which is going to be very hot to handle. It shows woeful, unexplainable or deliberate neglect inside the Army-Navy in Washington.

The report, prepared but never released by the Army's Pearl Harbor investigating board, directed by Lieut. Gen. George Grunert, is marked "Top Secret." It unfolds a fantastic chain of developments, beginning November 20, 1941, more than two weeks before the Japs struck.

On November 20, the Japanese government sent a coded message to its embassies in Washington and London, warning them to be on the lookout for an important announcement dealing with the "winds," which would be broadcast on a news program from Tokyo.

This was to be the tip-off to Jap diplomats as to whether Japan would go to war against the United States, Great Britain, Russia—or all three. It was also to reveal whether war would be made against the Dutch. In addition, the approximate time of the breaking of relations with these nations was to be given.

This communication was known as the "Winds Alert" message. It was intercepted and decoded two days later by U. S. experts, according to the secret Pearl Harbor report. Thus Washington higher-ups knew on November 22, about two weeks before the Pearl Harbor attack, that the Japs were definitely preparing for early war.

That same day—Nov. 20—another message was sent by Tokyo to Japanese Ambassador Nomura in Washington stating that November 29 was the "absolute deadline" for Nomura to reach an agreement with the United States. "After that, things are going to happen," Tokyo bluntly informed the Jap ambassador. The message was decoded by U. S. experts that same day, so Washington knew about it immediately.

On November 28, another communication, known as the "Winds Code" message, arrived at the Jap embassy, informing Admiral Nomura and his aides in Washington that the war tip-off mentioned in the first "Winds" message would come soon. If the phrase "east wind rain" were broadcast on the news program from Tokyo, it would mean that war with the United States would come at any moment.

If the phrase "west wind clear" were broadcast, it would mean that war between Japan and Great Britain would come at any moment. War with Russia was to be signalled by the words "north wind cloudy." A similar message, referring to winds, also was included in the coded communication to warn of a Jap attack on the Dutch East Indies.

On December 4, 1941, three days before Pearl Harbor, the awaited announcement came on the daily Tokyo broadcast. It was heard in Hawaii at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. The key words, signaling war against the United States, the British and the Dutch—all three—were broadcast.

Russia wasn't mentioned, indicating that Japan had abandoned all notion of war against Russia, if she ever seriously had any. About the same time, Tokyo instructed its embassy in Washington to destroy all its code equipment, except the bare essentials necessary to receive one or two more messages, and then to destroy the remaining essentials once those messages had been received. In the opinion of those questioned by the Pearl Harbor board, this meant certain war. It meant that Japan had decided to cut off all communication with the United States.

This development, together with the final "winds" broadcast, touched off a fresh frenzy of activity in the high-up Army-Navy councils. However, as far as realistic action to prepare our Pearl Harbor defenses was concerned, there was little or nothing done.

The Federal Communications Commission picked up the final "winds" message on its short-wave monitoring system. The Navy also got it, but there is nothing in the report to show that the war department was listening in.

The secret Pearl Harbor report reveals that the first information about the broadcast came to the war department when Rear Adm. Leigh Noyes, chief of the naval communications section, phoned Col. Otis K. Sadtler of Army intelligence at 9:39 a. m., December 5, and reported:

"Sadtler, the message is in." (Editor's note—Another installment in Drew Pearson's revelations regarding Pearl Harbor will follow shortly.)

Labor and Management Pessimistic as it may sound, the betting is ten to one that the long anticipated labor-management conference fails. . . . Should the conference collapse, labor is in for the most repressive legislation in history. Labor knows it. . . . But the cold fact is that neither labor nor management thinks they can reach agreement, and some labor men don't want to. . . . Crux of the entire conference will come in about 10 days over the trick issue of compulsory arbitration. . . . This will be the big stumbling block. . . . Labor won't arbitrate issues like the union shop or union security. . . . Management won't arbitrate wage increases as long as there are price ceilings.

Actually, some management leaders don't care much about the conference's success. . . . They are banking on failure. . . . Some industrialists won't be angry if they don't manufacture another product during the rest of the year. . . . The present tax structure doesn't make it profitable for them to produce. They've already reaped the harvest on war contracts for 1945.

The man to watch at the conference is John L. Lewis. . . . Murder lurks under his bushy eyebrows. . . . He's out to take over the leadership of labor again, thinks this is his opportunity. . . . Lewis was supposed to rejoin the A. F. of L. last month but suddenly declined. . . . Before the A. F. of L. board meeting in Cincinnati, Lewis lunched with A. F. of L.'s Bill Green, told Green he would send a per capita dues check to the A. F. of L. to guarantee re-affiliation. . . . As a result, Green opened a place for Lewis to attend the conference as an A. F. of L. delegate. . . . To do so, he asked reactionary carpenters' union chief big Bill Hutchinson to step down and be an alternate. . . . Hutchinson screamed bloody murder. Meanwhile, the executive board sat on its hands for five days waiting to hear from Lewis.

On the fifth day, Green deputized A. F. of L. vice president Matthew Woll to call Lewis on the phone, find out what was holding up his check. . . . "I don't care to affiliate with the A. F. of L.," Lewis told Woll. "Why should I go as an A. F. of L. delegate when I can go representing John L. Lewis?"

Schwellenbach's Big Test The conference is a big test for Labor Secretary Lew Schwellenbach who is squarely on the spot. GOP Senator Vandenberg forced the meeting. If it fails, Democrat Schwellenbach may be out on his ear. . . . One danger signal is the absence of any clear-cut federal wage policy. . . . Truman's general, vague speech on wages didn't give definite percentages for wage increases. The speech made both industry and labor mad, though neither said it very loud.

This may be Bill Green's last big appearance. . . . George Meany, the tough, cigar-smoking secretary-treasurer of the A. F. of L., is out for Green's job, may win. A. F. of L. vice-president Matt Woll now represents no union, is actually a big business insurance man, holds no union elective office. . . . The meeting will pit CIO president Phil Murray against his old friends, John L. Lewis and mouse-like Tom Kennedy of the miners' union. The three were inseparable for years, now their thoughts about each other are unprintable. . . . At Murray's right hand will be Sidney Hillman and the auto union's hustling, bustling R. J. Thomas, both formidable foes.

For management, star performers will be Eric Johnson of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and conservative eagle-eyed Ira Mosher of the National Association of Manufacturers. . . . Mosher refused to sign the labor-management post-war charter which the A. F. of L., CIO, and U. S. Chamber of Commerce agreed to last summer. (Copyright, 1945, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Hollywood— 'Come In,' Says Connie, 'I'm Busy'

By GENE HANDSAKE

HOLLYWOOD—If there's anything Constance Bennett is afraid of, it's a camera. I was unable to discover it.

Besides being a movie star, she has a national broadcast five days a week, markets a line of cosmetics and is about to go into the dress business and write a newspaper column.

Connie sat silent at a dressing-room mirror bordered with light bulbs and fluorescent tubes, rouging her thin lips with a tiny brush. A radio engineer, coiling his cable, was just leaving with an announcer and a production man following Miss Bennett's morning broadcast.

She brushed a piece of tissue beneath her eyes, applied lash paint with a sort of toothbrush, said, "There!" and stood up—radiant in a flame-hued dress. Her towering blonde wig was for a scene in "Centennial Summer."

She put a cigarette in a holder, lighted it, reclined on a chaise longue and spoke of her daily broadcast:

"It's a woman's program. I discuss world affairs, interior decorating, outstanding personalities, children, clothes—anything a woman would be interested in. I get very intelligent letters. Even men write—doctors, judges and other people you wouldn't expect."

Miss Prue, a gray French poodle with a shorn body but woolly legs and head, licked my shoe, then curled up beside Miss Bennett. "Miss Bennett has taught her to sit quietly on the couch all through the broadcast," said the star's radio producer, Miss Jean Wright.

Miss Bennett said she starts her newspaper column, also on women's interests, in January. Her "fashion frocks" go into national distribution about May from a Cincinnati factory. Had she had a hand in designing them? Oh, what I said!

"Not just a hand," she exclaimed: "I actually did design them!"

She has produced one motion picture, "Paris Underground"—whose timing was unfortunate in that the war ended before it could be released—but Connie, undaunted, plans to produce two films every 18 months.

I asked Miss Bennett how she manages to get so much done. Well, she gets up at 5:30 in the morning; discusses the next day's broadcast with Miss Wright at lunch, and jots down more radio notes at home evenings and Sundays.

"I can concentrate on one thing at a time," she explained. "I have a pigeon-hole brain."

A BIBLE LESSON IN STOLEN GOODS

SEATTLE, Nov. 5 (AP)—The Rev. R. A. Ostedal, Lutheran minister, suggested that the person who stole a set of visual education slides here the other day would do well to view them through a projector. "They concern a man who traveled from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves," said the pastor. "They were stolen from the car of a young minister who traveled from Stanwood to Seattle and fell among thieves."

Washington— Man On The Atomic Commission

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — When Brien McMahon was running for senator in Connecticut, he was discussing with a reporter why his name was not better known in his native state, although he had made an outstanding record as assistant attorney general in Washington.

"I've never been very good at personal publicity," McMahon said. "Some people just have it and some don't; I'm one of those who don't."

As chairman of the Senate's brand new committee on the control of atomic energy, the 42-year-old freshman Democratic senator won't need any flair for personal publicity. He'll get it in spite of himself. He has already started. By being in the Senate less than a year and heading what everyone agrees is one of the most important committees ever set up in the upper chamber, he has broken a long cherished Senate tradition: that to the seniors go the plums.

Sen. McMahon was born in Norwalk, Conn., and educated there until he went off to Fordham and Yale to become a lawyer. His father, a building contractor, was in politics up to his Irish ears and for a long time was known locally as "watch-dog of the city treasury."

So young Brien came by his politics naturally and early. Even at Fordham, he was a nicknamed "Senator" because he had said someday he would like to be one. However, all his jobs were appointive until he struck out with both fists flailing in the 1944 campaign against isolationist but able and popular Sen. John A. Danaher. McMahon confidently predicted he would win by 35,000 votes; he beat his own prediction by 5,000.

What he had done before that—and it hadn't won him much personal publicity in his home state—was to become, at 31, the youngest man ever appointed assistant U. S. attorney general, and to hang up an enviable record in that job. Out in Chicago, he prosecuted some chums of a certain notorious "Baby Face" Nelson. He went down into "Bloody Harlan" county, Kentucky, to prosecute coal operators and county officials for allegedly depriving the coal miners of their rights. He was maligned, threatened, even shot at, and the case was declared a mistrial, but his threat to come back and try it all over again put an end to a bloody labor war.

Sen. McMahon is a pleasant friendly, but serious-minded person. He is a vigorous liberal in international affairs and this, coupled with his great capacity for hard work, is what has carried him so far in so short a time in the Senate. That, and undoubtedly a little private respect on the part of his colleagues for any man who could knock John Danaher down in a political race.

Aside from his professional activities, Sen. McMahon does little to attract the "personal publicity" that some members of Congress go in for. He has an attractive young wife and three-year-old daughter. He attends about as many of the Washington social functions as he should and no more. About his only hobby is golf, which he shoots in the eighties. About his closest friends are the two partners of his former all-Irish law firm, Walter E. Gallagher and Richard J. Connor.

Concerning his new appointment as chairman of the Senate atomic energy control committee, he is deadly serious. To congratulations, his most frequent comment was: "It is a grave responsibility."

Manager Advises Older Wage Earners Leaving Positions

Elliott W. Adams, Manager of the San Angelo field office of the Social Security Board—Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance states that many wage earners who are 65 years of age or older are now leaving employment covered by the Social Security Law.

In order that their rights may be protected, and that they will not lose possible benefits, or suffer a reduction in monthly benefits, which many of them are entitled to, they should call at, or write to the Social Security Board Field Office at 414 Rust Building, San Angelo, Texas, and request an explanation as to their status under the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Program. This also applies to survivors of wage earners who have died before reaching age 65.

Qualified personnel will discuss with potential claimants their rights under the law and will assist them in filing claims for monthly benefits.

The object of this service is to protect the beneficiary against possible losses and to render an efficient service to the public serviced by the San Angelo office.

Prisoner Inspired By Blood Of Yorks

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 5.—(AP)—A story of courage spurred by the records of Tennessee's Alvin C. York was told here when a returned army officer relayed a message from far-off Cuzco, India, to the World War I hero.

The officer, Maj. L. Malcolm Morris of Hohenwald, Tenn., said that York's cousin, Tim C. York of Tyler, Tex., had spent three and one-half years in a Japanese prison camp, "living on little more than the inspiration of his famous relative's courage."

"I saw the boy in Cuzco after he had been liberated from the prison camp," said Morris "and he asked me to tell his cousin 'howdy' when I got back to Tennessee."

"Young York had been living in a work camp in the Malayan jungle and looked as though he had been starved nearly to death," Morris continued. "He brightened up, though, when he found I'd met his idol, and told me, and his family pride had kept him going."

Picked Up

Two Latin-American youths were picked up here Sunday by Jake Bruckton, Juvenile Officer, and lodged in the county jail on a charge of breaking a plate glass window in a business establishment in the east part of town.

Scarlet Fever Serious Illness For Youngsters

Scarlet fever, now nearly three and one-half times higher than the seven-year median in Texas, is one of the most disabling and dangerous diseases usually associated with childhood, although actually it is confined to no age limit, according to Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer.

One hundred and nineteen cases were reported in the state for one week in October, bringing the year's total to 3,433. Three cases have been reported in Big Spring this year.

Dr. Cox described scarlet fever as an acute infectious disease, the onset of which is sudden. The first symptoms including sore throat, vomiting, fever and headache, may appear in three to five days after exposure. These are followed by the distinctive rash which gives this disease its name, Dr. Cox stated.

Complications may cause prolonged disability or death. Children suffering with scarlet fever may develop sinusitis and middle-ear infections which can lead to mastoiditis. As the germs spread through the child's system, the joints, kidneys, and heart may become involved, causing life-long invalidism or crippling.

"A child with any kind of sore throat should see the family physician promptly," Dr. Cox asserted. "If scarlet fever is present, the treatment recommended will do much to alleviate discomfort and reduce the possibility of serious complications."

Dr. Cox stated that children under ten years of age are most susceptible, and that those persons who fail to contract scarlet fever until grown stand an excellent chance of never having the disease.

Dixie Thornton Wins Grand Poster Prize

Dixie Thornton, West Ward seventh grader, won the grand prize of the miniature house for the best fire prevention poster as well as the first prize for all seventh graders, W. C. Blankenship, superintendent, announced today.

Firemen built the play house which is completely furnished and wired with electric lights. Prize money of $2 for first prize and $1 for second prize is being donated by the chamber of commerce.

Prizes were awarded by grades for all the schools. Winners by grades include: third—Howard Sheets, East Ward, first; Jerry Snyder, Central Ward, second; fourth—Clifford Horne, North Ward, first; Billy Dean Jenkins, North Ward, second; fifth—Benjie Jo Yeates, West Ward, first; Elbert Long, Central Ward, second; sixth—Darlene Stump, East Ward, first; Barbara Lee Smith, Central Ward, second; seventh—Dixie Thornton, West Ward, first and Dannela May Davidson, North Ward, second.

Awards will be made this week, Blankenship said. Winners of the high school essay contest will be announced later.

NEW WEAPON

SAIGON, Nov. 5 (AP)—Something new in secret weapons popped up here today. French authorities announced they had captured "a very clever type of Ammanese automatic bow" which shoots five arrows at a time from a special magazine.

stalled bus traffic along US 80, but the Kerrville buses to the south and the TNMO lines to the north were running regular schedules.

Stranded passengers at the local terminal were few if any, for those sweating out a settlement were those originating their trips at this point or seeking to make connections from north or south. Virtually all Greyhound equipment was piled up at the division points—at Abilene on the east and Pecos on the west—for under terms of contract, drivers were to drive their buses through to the next division point if their schedule started before midnight Sunday.

The strike brought L. B. (Berry) Williams, district manager at Abilene, back to Big Spring. Since the local terminal was company operated, not even officer personnel was left. As supervisor, Williams had to come here to keep the office open.

Prize Steer Entered In Livestock Exhibit

County Agent Durward Lewter and two members of the Howard county 4-H club, Lloyd Robinson of Knott and James Coates of Coahoma, leave for Dallas Tuesday morning where Robinson's prize steer will be entered in the Pan American Live Stock show.

The fair begins at the State Fair grounds in Dallas on Friday, Nov. 9, and continues through Sunday, Nov. 18.

The animal will be placed on exhibition for a few minutes Tuesday morning in front of the Chamber of Commerce office before the party leaves town.

BEDTIME STORY ABOUT A COLT

CLAYTON, N. M., Nov. 5.—(P)—John Haverfield, Scott City, Kan., cattle buyer, and some of the boys were discussing horses in Haverfield's hotel room.

After a particularly glowing description of a colt from Larry Kehoe, Texline, Tex., Haverfield made this proposition:

"I'll buy him without ever seeing him if you'll bring him right up here in this room and tie him to the bedpost."

And—to the cheers of a crowd in the lobby—that's just what Kehoe did.
