She emphasized that Christ is the only hope of the world. Everyone was urged to study one hour each day from the four gospels, and continued that each Christian should try to call

Christ to mind for one second of each minute.

The lesson study was closed with a prayer by Mrs. C. M. Watson.

The lesson for Circle Four was conducted by Mrs. H. G. Keaton in the home of Mrs. R. E. Satterwhite.

Mrs. Keaton gave the devotional and gave a brief introduction to the new study book, "The Church Among Uprooted Americans."

Mrs. N. W. McCleskey presided at the business meeting at which it was decided that a rummage will be held soon, and that the circle will assist in the serving of lunch to the Lions club.

Present were Mrs. H. J. Whittington, Mrs. Thomas Coffee, Mrs. G. W. Chowns, Mrs. H. G. Keaton, Mrs. N. W. McCleskey, Mrs. B. H. Settles, Mrs. John Chaney and Mrs. Satterwhite.

Tigers In Far Better Condition Than Cubs For Wednesday Outing

Hal Newhouser Slated For Hill Assignment

By SID FEDER
 CHICAGO, Oct. 9 (AP)—It is a photo finish as to whether the ball players or the fans were dizzier from the antics that threw this weird world series between the Detroit Tigers and the Chicago Cubs into the full seven-game route, and the question now is not which team will win the series tomorrow, but which team will boot it.

The way things have been going through this freakiest of all fall frolics—not omitting the about face by the official scorers on the decisive play in yesterday's game—it appears that the club which finally finishes in front will do so because it can't help itself. The other outfit won't let it lose. They're going to need the finale of this richest of all series at 12:30 p. m. (CST) tomorrow all because of yesterday's "rhubarb" that the Tigers finally lost to the Cubs 8-7 in 12 innings of something that resembled baseball.

In yesterday's game there were such doings as 38 players parading about the premises; a base-runner falling flat on his face with home plate in sight; dinky fly balls falling for hits while fly chasers bowed politely; enough throws to wrong bases to bring a suggestion for a radar set in the infield, and an assortment of pitching by nine elbowers.

On the other side there was Hank Greenberg's homer in the eighth that topped off a four-run Detroit rally and tied the game. And Stan Hack's four hits, the last of which, with two away and a mate on first in the 12th broke up the ball game.

It was on the original ruling on Hack's hit in the 12th that the official scorers reversed themselves. Dizzy Trout, five-hit winner of Saturday's game, was in there for the Detroitis by that time—the fifth Bengal pitcher during the afternoon.

Frank Secory had touched him for a single and Billy Schuster was sent in to run. Hack, who'd knocked in two tallies during a four-run Cub rally in the fifth, hit the 2-1 pitch through short and on into left field.

Hank Greenberg came in to field it and Schuster slowed up coming into third. Then the ball took a crazy jump over Greenberg's shoulder and kept right on its merry way out to the left field wall. By the time Hank caught up with it, Schuster was home. Hack was on second and the series was tied at three games apiece.

The scorers ruled it a single for Hack and an error for Hank. This started a sizzling stew among baseball writers and baseball men. Five hours later the scorers announced they'd re-counted the votes and ruled it a two-bagger for Stan, and no bobbler for Greenberg.

Hack, who's leading the series with a .440 batting mark, didn't know whether to cheer about the extra-baser he was handed, or moan about the switch. Because when the scorers gave him that double, it cut his number of singles for the day to three.

As a result of his game-wrecker, the win went to the second hero Hank of this series—Borowy—who won the opener last Wednesday and was clubbed out in six rounds Sunday. Hank came on in the ninth, after Claude Passeau and a couple of other collapsing Cub curvers had taken the long walk, and pitched four scoreless innings for his second win of the set.

The Tigers are in a lot better spot for the "odd" game tomorrow than the National leaguers. Detroit has Lefty Hal Newhouser, who's won one and dropped one so far in the series, ready to go, with Lefty Stubby Overmire set to play fireman.

The Cubs had to use all four of their regular starters—Hank Wyse and Ray Prim in addition to Passeau and Borowy—to win yesterday's game.

As a result, the lobby rookies are quoting 2 to 3, Detroit, for the big pot.

Hack's four belts yesterday gave him a total of 11 for the series, within one of the all-time record. This was one of the very few game marks approached, equalled or surpassed during the fantastic contest. Another was the all-time financial high of $1,388,277 set for a series' gross receipts.

Other highlights of the game included the 3 hours and 28 minutes

Steers, Aggies Only Unbeaten 11's In State

By The Associated Press
 Only two undefeated teams remain among Texas colleges as the football season digs deep into October.

Texas and Texas A. & M. have unsullied records but all other members of the Southwest conference, together with this state's two members of the Border conference, have met defeat at least once.

John Tarleton and the North Texas Aggies, only junior colleges playing football in the state, lost their openers last week, Tarleton falling before Camp Hood 12-0 and NTAC losing to Blackland Army Air Field 20-0.

Southwestern, the only member of the Texas conference fielding a grid squad this year, broke into the win column last week with a 13-7 decision over Rice of the Southwest conference.

This week finds all the eleven Texas colleges in action except one—Texas Christian.

Texas plays Oklahoma at Dallas, and Texas A. & M. meets Louisiana State at Baton Rouge. Baylor engages Arkansas, Southern Methodist clashes with Oklahoma A. & M. at Oklahoma City, Rice plays Tulane at Houston, Southwestern takes on National University of Mexico at San Antonio, Texas Tech entertains Tulsa at Lubbock, the North Texas Aggies play the Southern Methodist B team at Arlington, John Tarleton takes on Camp Hood at Stephenville and West Texas State plays Amarillo Air Field at Amarillo.

Standings of the Texas colleges to date:

Team	W.	L.	T.	Pts.	Op.
Texas	3	0	0	92	7
Texas A&M	3	0	0	89	20
Baylor	2	1	0	78	7

Three Southwest Clubs Crippled

DALLAS, Oct. 9 (AP)—Three coaches of Southwest conference football teams reported crippled teams for this week's play. But Baylor and Arkansas, meeting in the only conference race tilt this Saturday, reported none and added new men to their squads.

End Jimmy Cox, former all-state end of Paris, joined the Arkansas Razorbacks yesterday. Cox, 21, was discharged from the Navy last Friday.

At Waco, Coach Frank Kimbrough added weight to the Baylor line as William Chapman, 295-pound tackle from McKinney, reported yesterday.

Coach D. X. Bible kept three Texas Longhorn regulars on the sidelines during practice yesterday because of injuries. Freshman Byron Gillory, Munroe Marrison and Jack Wallace of Edinburg, guard, may be on the bench for the Oklahoma game.

Two regulars on the Texas A. & M. squad may be missing from the tussle with Louisiana State University Saturday. Preston Smith, fullback, and Tom Daniel, quarterback, are both out of this week's practice.

Coach Jess Neely of the Rice Owls said the big three of his line, Theo Chmelik and I. B. Rose, tackles, and Danny Senuta, guard, will not be ready for Saturday's play against Tulane.

SUICIDE VERDICT
 GEORGETOWN, Oct. 9 (AP)—A verdict of suicide by hanging was returned by Justice of the Peace Luke Martin in the death of Julian Estes, 61, of Georgetown yesterday. Estes was found dead in his garage.

It took to finish it, which is 34 minutes longer than any other series scramble; 36 players—19 for each team; nine pitchers who walked in and out; 94 at bats for the two clubs, 48 of them for the Tigers and 24 left on bases.

Coyotes Beat Out Scotties For Top Spot

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
 AP Sports Editor
 DALLAS, Oct. 9 (AP)—The Text schoolboy football campaign has progressed to the point of that annual foolishness: ranking the top 10 teams.

If ever there was a more difficult chore, your correspondent hasn't found it. Looking over 103 teams, many of which have played only in their own areas, and picking the best is too difficult to be taken seriously. However, on the basis of comparative scores and the observations of competent authorities over the state, together with views of the writer, we come up with this ranking as of now:

1. Wichita Falls.
2. Highland Park (Dallas).
3. Waco.
4. Lufkin.
5. Marshall.
6. Amarillo.
7. Austin.
8. Odessa.
9. Pampa.
10. Brackenridge (San Antonio).

For the second ten:
 Goose Creek, Paris, Plainview, Breckenridge, Brownwood, Port Arthur, Temple, Cleburne, Milby (Houston), Brownsville.

Wichita Falls appears to have its best team since 1941. The spark of the Coyote grid brigade is Lindy Berry, who specializes in punt and kickoff returns. He has one of 90 yards already to his credit this season.

The Steer secondary worked separately from the line in yesterday's drills. While Dibrell was sending the backs through extensive passing drills, the assistant coach, Conn Isaacs, had his tackles, guards and centers over in another corner of the field and was dispatching them through hard blocking drills.

For the most part, the drop in temperatures, made most apparent by a brisk north wind, was welcomed by the athletes. They responded enthusiastically and vociferously to the tutor's instructive barking.

Hugh Cochran and Company were told by Dibrell they are going to experience trouble with the Lamesa line, which stood up rather well in last week's Lubbock test, despite the fact that the Tornadoes were humbled by three touchdowns. Bill Fortenberry, a holdover from the 1944 squad, does Trojan work on one side of the Lamesa wall while Bud Euly, a lanky guard, holds up the opposite side to satisfaction.

House Divided

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 9 (AP)—The Missouri house of representatives was a house divided yesterday.

But not along usual party lines. Part of the members worked at advancing bills toward final vote as others gathered around a radio to hear the world series. Inning scores were relayed by Speaker Pro Tem Murray Thompson.

Huddled over a radio with the headset divided between them were Democratic Floor Leader Roy Hamlin and Republican Representative Fred Norden.

Texans Assume Rodeo Spotlight In Garden

NEW YORK, Oct. 9 (AP)—Texans took the spotlight in last night's rodeo competition at Madison Square Garden as Bucky Brennan of Fort Worth won the bareback bronc riding award and Buff Douthitt of King, Texas, threw his steer in the fastest time.

The summaries included:
 Bareback bronc riding—won by Bucky Brennan, Ft. Worth, 308 points; 2—Hank Mills, Montrose, Colo., 303; 3—Bill Iler, Ft. Worth, 299.

Saddle bronc riding—won by Bill McMackin, Florence, Ariz., 318 points; 2—Vic Schwarz, Jolly, Tex., 315; 3—Bart Clennon, White Salmon, Wash., 312.

Steer wrestling—won by Buff Douthitt, King, Tex., 15 seconds; 2—Al Garrett, Las Vegas, Nev., 20 3-5; 3—Billy Lawrence, Boulder, Colo., 21 1-3.

Newark Beaten By Colonels

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 9 (AP)—Rex Cecil, former Boston Red Sox hurler, is Manager Nemo Leibold's choice to make it two straight for the Louisville Colonels of the American Association in tonight's second game of the little world series.

Skipper Bill Meyer of the Newark Bears who bowed, 4-2 to the Colonels in last night's opener, said he was banking on Karl Drews to even the count for the International leaguers.

GAME MOVED UP

AUSTIN, Oct. 9 (AP)—The Bergstrom Field-Corpus Christi Naval football game, originally scheduled for Saturday night, will be played at Texas Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon.

STADIUM PLANS APPROVED

AUSTIN, Oct. 9 (AP)—Plans to increase the seating capacity of House Park, the Austin high school football stadium, to 15,000 were approved by the school's athletic council last night.

I CHOSE THEM!"

"You sure see plenty of Riverside Tires on our factory parking-lot!"

"I looked around, last year, when my first set of tires wore out. You'd be surprised how many of the gang on my shift rode back-and-forth to the plant on Riversides! NOT because Riversides happen to come on their cars, but because they deliberately CHOSE them... in preference to all other brands!"

Industrial workers are typical of the millions of car-owners who have switched to Riversides. All these folks, like yourself, want a tire that gives them most for their money; long wear on rugged roads; real protection against blow-outs. (Riversides today are 12% stronger than our pre-war tires!)

Urged By Creighton Continued Care Of Tires

"New tires are still scarce," Charlie Creighton said Monday. However, he forecast a bright spot in the automotive future by saying that the new tires will be forthcoming before too long. Nevertheless, Creighton said, car owners must continue to take good care of their tires. They should continue to take all of the precautions for protecting their tires by avoiding sharp stones and other objects, and easing up on curbs instead of bumping them. The repair materials for tire recapping and vulcanizing are now easily obtainable, and quick, effective repair work at the Creighton Tire company. Charlie Creighton said that when the new tires are on the market, motorists can expect much better tire equipment, since wartime manufacturers have made great advances in the production of tires. The tubes which can be bought now, are greatly improved over those manufactured before the war, and Creighton predicted that the tires will be of equal quality. When tires are again plentiful, Creighton is the dealer for the Seiberling tires. Creighton is also dealer for Seiberling batteries, which, he declared are almost as difficult to get as are their tires, but when they are available, Creighton will have them. When civilian production is again in full swing, Creighton plans to stock the best of auto accessories and parts. Now Creighton is able to offer to his customers the best in fuels in the Magnolia lines. For the best in repair, and in the future, the best of equipment, car owners are advised to go to the Creighton Tire company at 203 W. Third street.

Miss Latin America

AP Newsfeatures THIS romantic looking lady is Uncle Sam's close neighbor, Miss Latin America, who made a big hit when presented to delegates at the recent Pan American Newspaper Conference in Venezuela. Miss Latin America's creator, Leon Helguera, who hopes she'll take her place alongside international symbols like John Bull and Marianne, says the lady is a composite creation. "Her tall haircomb symbolizes the mother countries, Spain and Portugal. The flowers in her hair, the natural beauty of Latin America. Her long tresses, her Indian origin. Her striped blanket, the cold and temperate climate of the high plateaus. The three rows of flounces on her dress, North, South and Central America. The string of pearls, the isles of the Caribbean. The white in the flag symbolizes peace. Twenty gold stars (the 20 republics) surround a map of Latin America, framed by a gold ring representing unity.

The Nation Today— CIO Political Action Committee Quietly Laying Election Plans

By JAMES MARLOW NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—One year ago the CIO Political Action Committee was very much in the headlines. It was a tremendous influence in the presidential election of Nov. 1944. Since then you've heard very little of the PAC. But that's because the PAC's work has been less sensational. Since the fall of 1944 it has been doing the spadework necessary for the congressional elections of 1946. Actually, there are two Political Action Committees. They are the CIO Political Action Committee and the National Citizens Political Action Committee.

The National Citizens Political Action Committee is not supported by the CIO but by national subscription from various private members who think it's a good idea to belong to such an organization. The chairman of the executive committee is Elmer A. Benson, former governor of Minnesota. C. B. Baldwin, former government worker, is executive vice chairman. The NC PAC doesn't work directly with CIO groups. Rather, it works with special groups, such as progressive farm groups and private citizens around the country in an attempt to interest them.

The chairman of the CIO Political Action Committee is Sidney Hillman, who was also chairman during the tumultuous period of the 1944 congressional and national elections. The CIO PAC is now trying to collect one dollar each from every CIO member — there were about 5 1/2 million during the war, although that number must have dwindled sharply. The CIO PAC is sending out to its membership pamphlets on the very important issues before congress.

It sends its information to the international unions of the CIO. The unions relay this information to their CIO industrial councils — made up of city, county and state groups. These councils — strictly CIO groups — inform their congressmen of what they think should be voted on in the current session. Further than that: Groups of these local industrial councils go to Washington to find out what the pitch is on voting, and to make their wishes understood. In other words: The members of the CIO unions are kept informed on the voting records of the various congressmen. The CIO PAC headquarters denies that it directly tells its members how they should vote.

Local Pin Aces Rout Lubbock

A Big Spring women's bowling team composed of Gypsie Smallwood, Edna Drennon and Mary Ruth Dozier made a victorious conquest of the Lubbock kegling lanes Sunday afternoon, sweeping two sets in as many tries from an all-star aggregation of that city. Miss Drennon, with a single game high of 236 and a three-game combine of 539, set a blistering pace for the Big Spring threesome. For the six games, Edna boasted an average of 173, six pins better than the mark she has maintained in city league play. Miss Dozier contributed prominently to the win with a six-game tally of 971 and an average of 162 while Miss Smallwood compiled a total of 888 points and had a breakdown of 148 pins per try. The Big Spring advantage amounted to 201 points in the first series and climbed to 418 for the last three games.

Despite "Jug-Haid" Antics Afield, Record Crowds Sitting In On Show

By JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO, Oct. 9 (AP)—Gus Phan thinks this is a great world series, no matter how much the boys up in the press box need it as a classic example of how not to play major league baseball.

Only 37,184 patrons have to push through the Wrigley Field turnstiles for tomorrow's deciding seventh game to tie the 1926 attendance record of 328,051 for a limit series. Yesterday's chilled throng of 41,708 was the smallest at the three games already played here. A total of 290,867 fans have attended the six games to date.

While Managers Charley Grimm of the Cubs and Steve O'Neill of the Tigers pull their hair and veteran scribes shake their heads in sad dismay over the antics of the contenders, the series already has pumped a record $1,388,277 into baseball's coffers.

There's only one answer. Baseball fans like competition, plain, fancy or hung together with baling wire—just so one team breaks its neck defeating the other. And it's a miracle no necks have been broken in this series the way the fellows ignore each other chasing the ball and trip over pebbles on the base-paths.

It seemed impossible that as many a series as this one could finish without a well-horned goat and it won't. The nomination of the moment goes to pinch-hitter Charley Hostetter of the Tigers, who took a Mack Sennett spill en route home in the seventh inning with what would have been the winning run.

When you stop to realize that Mr. Hostetter is 40 years old, it's hard to criticize him for gasping for breath flat on his face while Catcher Mickey Livingston got organized for a chase that eventually liquidated the bewildered Tiger.

Even General Manager Jack Zeller of the Tigers got a belly laugh out of Hostetter's three-point landing which might be because Zeller insists he will quit the Bengals in December despite the refusal of President Walter O. Briggs to accept his proffered resignation. Zeller wants to retire to his Texas home.

Looking Em Over

With ANGUS LECESTER
Letters to the Desk Department:
"Dear Sir:
"I want to take this opportunity to thank the good people of Big Spring for the fine co-operation they've shown in helping get the Lakeview school football team started. I appreciate it and I know the boys do.
"Without your help, we would have found it hard to keep going. Knowing that you appreciate our efforts makes us try all the harder.
"We've worked to give you good football in the two games we've played thus far, and we'll try even harder from here on out.
"Hoping to see you all Thursday night, I remain,
FRANK MILLER
(Coach)"

Pointers Tops In Grid Votes

NEW YORK, Oct. 9 (AP)—Army's two impressive triumphs this season have convinced most of the 111 sports experts who took part in the Associated Press' first weekly poll of 1945 that the Cadets still rate as the No. 1 team of collegiate football.

The West Pointers were acclaimed as national champions last year after they had won all of their nine games and rolled up 504 points to their opponents' 35.

The Cadets bowed over the Personnel Distribution Command Comets 32-0 and the Wake Forest Deacons 54-0 in their first two tilts.

Eighty-six of the 111 writers cast their first place ballots for Earl Blaik's powerhouse.

Navy, 49-0 and 21-0 victors over Villanova and Duke in order, was ranked second.

The rest of the Big Ten (with first place votes and points in parenthesis were: Notre Dame (3-699), Ohio State (3-658), Minnesota (2-605), Southern California (1-435), Alabama (0-305), Indiana (0-216), Michigan (1-185), and Texas (0-167).

Foes Find Tough Going Through Farmer Line

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 9 (AP)—Making a few yards on Texas A. & M.'s football team is quite a project.

Three opponents have been able to gather only 200 both in the air and on the ground and that's an average of 66.6 per game which is far ahead of last year's top mark in the nation's football—Virginia's 96.8 average. And it's better than the all-time record of 69.9 set in 1937 by Santa Clara.

The Aggies, ranked about fifth among Southwest conference teams before the season opened, have thus projected themselves as the team to beat, because not only are they tough to handle on defense but they know how to roll up the yards the opposition fails to get.

Statistics of the Southwest conference, released today by James H. Stewart, conference secretary, show the Cadets to have held Ellington Field, Texas Tech and Oklahoma to 166 yards rushing and 34 passing.

All three opponents completed only two passes against the Aggies out of 22 thrown—an average of only .099. Oklahoma attempted eight and failed to connect on even one.

But the Aggies also rank second in the conference in offense with 908 yards, making 622 rushing on 286 passing. Only Texas surpasses them, the Longhorns rolling to 691 on the ground and 382 in the air for a total of 1,053.

The German youth went to spring training last season with Lefty O'Doul's San Francisco Seals as a pitcher but O'Doul had him arm ever rounded into shape and it naturally tightened up on him. Lefty then pink-slipped him. Curt maintained such a fierce love for the game that he refused to quit, finished out the season with the Bay Meadows semi-pros and then played winter ball.

Mel Steiner, another athlete who used to be on Tony Rego's payroll when the little Hawaiian was running the local club, wound up with the Hollywood Stars, who wound up in the Coast loop cellar. Steiner had his troubles with AA pitching. He hit only about .220 for the season.

Del Ballinger, ex-Midland receiver, caught more games than any other backstop in the PCL and helped Pepper Martin mastermind the San Diego Padres. He wants to manage some pro club later on in life.

One of the biggest success stories in the Coast circuit was that of Battle Malone "Bone" Sander, a native Texan who played with Amarillo's WT-NM league nine around 1939 and who was custodian of the initial sack for the Seals most of the last campaign.

Beating out the cagey Gussie Suhr for the position, Sanders, a great favorite with the Frisco fans, hit something like .320 for the O'Douls, might get a tryout with the New York Giants in the spring.

The Not-So-Innocent Tangle With The Law

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

When better ways to tangle with the law are found, Texans will find them.

Up in Sherman, a man wandered into the fifty-ninth district court. "What place is this?" he demanded. "I want to see what's going on."

He was arrested for drunkenness, jailed, found out what went on in court.

In Waco an army officer hooked his bumper into the bumper of a parked car, pulled it into collision with a third automobile.

While officers were investigating, two boys of 15 and 16, who had absolutely nothing to do with the accident, butted in, criticized the manner of the investigation with what officers called "very abusive language."

They were arrested and jailed.

Peace comes to Wichita Falls. One man was charged with chasing a neighbor around the neighborhood with a shotgun, posted a peace bond of $500; another was released on bond after being accused of whipping a neighbor's child; still another was fined $25 for slapping his sister-in-law; a negro posted $300 bond after a family skirmish.

All in one day.

Down in McAllen a taxi driver reported to police a fare had pulled a gun on him. Police investigated.

The fare explained he was simply carrying a bottle of soft drink, and when he fumbled in his pocket for money, the shiny nose of the pop bottle protruded.

The taxi driver, both the patron and the driver admitted, had left in a hurry.

In Corpus Christi, the $64 question was whether a sunburn was an accident or not.

Sam Schneider, golf pro at the country club, had suffered a severe sunburn. He sued the insurance company, which said the sunburn was just plain negligence on his part.

The jury decided it was an accident.

After handling things like these all day, you can imagine how Police Officer E. B. Harbuck of Marshall must have felt when he got the hot seat.

He was peacefully making his rounds chalking automobile tires when he began to notice the seat of his motorcycle was getting hot. He discovered it was on fire, headed for the fire station.

A report on the reconversion of telephone factories

The telephone factories of Western Electric, the Bell System manufacturing unit, have been working seven days a week since V-J Day, reconverting to "civilian" telephone production.

They're clearing the decks for the tremendous job of furnishing telephone service to the 246,000 people waiting in the Southwest.

War contracts have been cut
Many of Western Electric's war contracts for electronic and communications equipment have been canceled outright. Others have been reduced. By the middle of September, unfilled war orders were only about 40 per cent of those on hand August 1. Further cancellations are indicated.

Reconversion involves the complete dismantling of many war shops and the reinstallation of equipment for peacetime manufacture. Every available mechanic capable of performing this kind of work has been engaged on a seven-day basis to shorten reconversion time—speed up the production of telephone instruments and switchboards and cables—and create the maximum number of peacetime jobs.

Telephone production is increasing
Telephone instruments are relatively easy and quick to make. Production is currently at the rate of 25,000 per week—but these, of course, must be divided among telephone companies all over the country. The rate is being rapidly increased, but capacity production must await complete reconversion.

More important than telephones, in point of view of those waiting for service, is the lack of central office switchboards and dial apparatus, and telephone cable.

From radar to switchboards:::
During the war, three of Western Electric's four switchboard shops and one of its two exchange cable shops were completely dismantled and the space used for the manufacture of radar and other special products. Now every step is being taken to reconvert this space as fast as war contract cancellations permit. Nearly two thirds of the 246,000 people waiting for service in the Southwest are waiting because of lack of central office facilities and cable. Such equipment is already being manufactured, but full capacity production cannot be reached until reconversion has been completed.

Turning the manufacturing corner:::
Thus, as telephone factories swing back to making peacetime equipment, we are definitely turning the corner toward the time when we can get all the telephones, cable, and central office apparatus we need so much. It will take time to catch up with 246,000 orders now on hand, of course; But we are doing it as quickly as we can, and nothing will please us more than to get back to our standard of furnishing service whenever the customer requests it.

Go And Do Men On Project

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Editor

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., Oct. 9 (AP) — The atomic bomb project here, in plant construction alone, was equivalent to building one Panama Canal each year for three years.

The project was in three parts, science, industrial fabrication and the army. The army's job was to make the project go, to keep on schedule, finish in time to win, with a working force that finally numbered about 500,000, bigger than any great company's payroll, and all secret.

Head man of the "go" phase was Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves. Chief deputy was Col. Kenneth D. Nichols. Two women probably knew the inside. One was Miss Virginia Olsson, of Calais, Maine, secretary to Brig. Gen. Marshall who first headed the project, and afterward, throughout, for Col. Nichols. The other was Mrs. Jean O'Leary, Groves' secretary.

Code names were used for some of the chief personages. General Groves was variously referred to as Gus, the Lone Ranger, the Headless Horseman, Gen., and 99. Ninety-nine was the way his pen name initials L. G. looked to some associates, and also was the name of a famous railroad train.

General Groves probably felt like the Lone Ranger when it fell to him to make some of the important decisions, as when he decided that plutonium, the new explosive metal, should be made out of common uranium 238.

Plutonium was number four among the ways to get the material for a bomb. There was at first some doubt whether to proceed down that fourth road. It was pure alchemy, completely new. It might not be needed if anyone of the others succeeded.

The decision was to take no chances, to do the maximum, and it paid handsomely. For the plutonium success multiplied by 100-fold the world's supply of explosive atoms for atomic power, regardless of bomb results.

General Groves is called "Soft-spoken" by many people. But a few smile superciliously and say it isn't true, that he is a big driver. He drove hard.

If General Groves was the go man, Col. Nichols was the do man. He is medium height, blond, 37, a West Pointer, magnetic, always courteous and with time for his men.

He has travelled 100,000 miles a year each year. This is because of letters which could not be mailed. Only he and Groves had full entrée into various phases of the project.

Nichols works fast. Early in the war Dr. Henry T. Wensel, of the National Bureau of Standards, was sent to see Nichols to talk over some possible service to the Army. Nichols welcomed Wensel with a smile and:

"Come here. This is your office, there is your desk, that is your files, and there's work for you in them. We have been waiting for you."

Never a written authorization to this day. Dr. Wensel is chief of the research control section at Oak Ridge.
