City Council

the Ambulance Service beginning in October. The motion died for a lack of a second.

Mrs. Pool had met earlier with the council seeking a salary for a full time paramedic service. The council felt the only alternative would be for the salary to come from the Ambulance Service budget if possible.

The council requested that Mrs. Pool study the alternative and bring a progress report on the Ambulance Service's cash flow in a few months.

Animal control problems in the City were then discussed. With the absence of the animal control officer, the number of pets running loose has increased. The council will work with Lucinda Mann to resume enforcement of local animal control ordinances.

A review of requirements from the Texas Department of Health on the local water system were reviewed. Don Case was authorized to purchase a flapper valve to be installed on the water tank. City employee Jack Barnett is currently working toward a C License certification as required by the state.

Members of the council voted to purchase a new lawn mower locally and Jimmy Britten will be submitted as a candidate for the Texas Department of Community Affairs Review Board.

Sunday at noon, the Young Adult Sunday School Class at First Baptist Church were served lunch in the home of Darrell and Charlotte Whatley.

52nd Alanreed Homecoming Draws Good Crowd

The 52nd Annual Alanreed Homecoming was held Sunday at the school gym. A good crowd was on hand to join in the fellowship.

Welcoming remarks were given by Homecoming President Robert Bruce. The response was given by Harvey Craig who expressed his appreciation to the people who plan and put on the celebration each year.

The Cemetery Report was given by Cemetery Association President O.J. Weldon who thanked everyone for the contributions they have made through the year.

Homecoming Secretary Lena Carter gave the Homecoming Report and read the minutes from last year. She also read off a list of the names of Alanreed natives who have died during the past year. ## Rain Finally Comes To Area

Tuesday finally saw some much needed rainfall coming to McLean. The exact amount received was not available at press time. However, before Tuesday, the total for the year was an impressive sounding 8.47" but most of it came earlier in the year. During May and June, normally two of the area's wettest months, there hasn't been much moisture to speak of. In May, McLean got a total of 1.80" while so far in June, prior to Tuesday, only .03" had been received.

The temperature hasn't helped any. Last Wednesday, June 8, was a real scorcher as the mercury hit 103 in town. Fortunately, the heat didn't last and since that time the temperatures have been fluctuating between the 80's and the 90's.

The area isn't yet suffering from the drought conditions that are plaguing other parts of the nation but a good, soaking rain probably wouldn't hurt anyone's feelings.

Coffee Honors Velma Hickox

To honor Velma Hickox, who is moving to Amarillo, Cleo Nix and Bernice Brown gave a coffee last week.

The serving table was laid with a white cloth. On the table was a fruit plate containing watermelon, cantaloupe, pineapple and strawberries. To accompany the fruit were three kinds of sweet bread and a vanilla sauce to put on them. Of course coffee and tea were served.

Those persons who had not seen Cleo's house had only oh's and awe's at all the pretties she has on the wall and setting around. Of course, Cleo, Rose and Darlene are all clever, so that accounts for her wonderful way of decorating. Those who had seen it enjoyed seeing it again.

Velma was presented a box of body powder and a pretty card from the Thimble Needle Club and received towels from Ethel Neal.

Those enjoying the occasion were Ivy Clark, Doshia Cornett, Nettie Fields, Mary Lee Friemel, Truman Goodlett, Betty Hudson, Wynona Koetting, Mary Knorpp, Vivian Lacy, Emalea London, Lenabel Newton, Stella Patterson, Loula Wall, Mertie Schaffer, Ethel Neal, LaVesta Barnett, Irma Blackwell, Nell Britten, Helen Wade, Burnice Johnson, Helen Kitchens, Wilma and Betty Lou and the hostesses, Cleo Nix and Bernice Brown.
