Public Hearing Will View Proposed 1990 Budget

A public hearing to allow citizen comments of Carson County's proposed 1990 budget will start at 10 AM Monday, August 28, in the Commissioners' Courtroom at the Courthouse.

As outlined in last week's News, the proposal calls for a tax increase to allow salary increases of 8% for the judge, 7% for the sheriff and 5% for other elected officials except the commissioners who would each be allotted an additional $100 monthly car allowance.

State law permits the Commissioners' Court to raise taxes without publishing public notices to that affect as long as the effective tax rate is not raised over 1.03%. The 1990 proposal has been held below that figure.

The most often asked question from taxpayers right now is, "How long has it been since county officials got a rise?"

Records show that in 1983, when Judge Roselius took office, his salary was $23,548 and other elected officials, excluding the commissioners, received $21,878. Those figures were raised to $24,314 and $23,519 respectively, in 1984. All salaries increased again in 1985 to $27,466 for the judge and $25,518 for others.

In addition to salary, the judge receives an annual $1,800 for service as Juvenile Judge and a car allowance that was $1,800 in 1983 and was increased to $2,400 the following year. Car Allowance payments are treated as salary in that withholding taxes and social security payments are deducted when paychecks are issued.

Those salaries and allowances are the same today, except for an addition $2,400 car allowance for the judge that was granted in 1988.

The 1990 proposal would increase the judge's salary to $29,663, the sheriff's to $27,304 and others (again excluding commissioners) to $26,794.

Another question is, "how does that compare to other counties with comparable population?"

According to figures prepared by the Texas Association of Counties for 1988, the latest available salary statistics, this chart gives salary schedules.

Carson County commissioners currently receive $21,857 in salary and a $2,400 annual car allowance.

Carson County commissioners are not in total agreement with the proposal. In their August 14th session, when the motion was made to put the salary increases into the budget, Lee Lockridge of White Deer and Mike Britten of Groom opposed the increases as stated, while Jerry Strawn and Choc Smith of Panhandle voted for them. The motion carried on Judge Roselius' vote.

These officials are elected to represent county residents; therefore, when disagreements arise, it is time for citizens to voice their opinions. This is the purpose of Monday's public hearing. Citizen comments will be accepted in writing or may be presented orally.

Board Approves Proposed Budget At Public Hearing

The Board of Trustees of Groom Independent School District met in special session on August 17 at 8:00 p.m. in their usual meeting place in the school administrative offices. A quarter page advertisement in the Groom News announced this date and time for the adoption of the 1989-90 budget and for the adoption of a resolution setting the 1989 tax rate. Members present for the meeting were; Charles D. Fields, Dennis Babcock, Adela Kotara, Don Lyles, Janice Weinheimer, Gary Friemel and Ken Burger.

Superintendent Kenneth Sweatt, Principal Judy Babcock, and Business Manager Joyce Hutsell were in attendance along with Jack West, Betty West, A.A. Crowell and Margaret Crowell.

The board reviewed bids solicited for bulk fuel and dairy products. The board concluded after not receiving a firm bid for bus maintenance products of gasoline in bulk and by the tank, lube products, oil and filter, that the superintendent obtain the best price consistent with the quality desired at such time as supplies be needed. Plains Creamery, Inc. was awarded the bid for milk products, being the only bid received.

Having read the letter of engagement from Billy M. Baker, C.P.A., accepting the district's offer to employ the firm to conduct the independent audit of the district's finances for the 1988-89

Football Booster Sponsors Needed

The News Staff requests your support with the Football page this year. The football contest is being revived, running in conjunction with the football scoreboard page. Contest participants will name their choices from a mixture of high school, college and professional games, published the previous week on the football page. First and second place winners will receive cash awards, $10.00 and $5.00, respectively.

However, in order to accomplish such a task, the staff must ask for participation of local supporters-- fellow businesses and subscribers. Cost of the promotion will run $10.00 per week, for the entire football season.

The contest is planned to kickoff in the September 7 edition of The Groom News, the day preceding the season opener with McLean.

Call 248-7333 or come by the NEWS office during business hours to get your name on the list of "Tiger Supporters."

Texas School Districts Increasing Taxes To Fund Larger Budgets

School budgets have been increased by 50 percent since the school reform HB 72 was enacted five years ago. A total of $13.5 billion was approved by school trustees in 1,055 Texas school districts last year. To pay for it, officials levied local property taxes totaling $5.6 billion. The state provided $4.9 billion. The remained came from school lunch and other fees, federal aid, bond sales, interest and other revenue.

The figures come from the latest issue of Bench Marks 1988-89 School District Budgets in Texas, an annual publication of the Texas Research League, an Austin-based, educational corpora-

ALCOHOL
We spend more than $30 billion a year on beer. More than 30 billion gallons of beer is consumed annually in the U.S.-it is estimated that 20 percent of the drinkers consume 80 percent of the beer. Non-Alcoholic means that it cannot contain more than 0.5 percent alcohol and must say so on the label.

Alcohol-Free means it must show no trace of the intoxicating substance. Of all of the major league teams in the country-baseball, football, basketball and hockey, Anheuser Busch sponsors about 2/3 of the franchises. The average viewer will see 3,000 drinking episodes a year in television programming. Forty percent of the prime-time programs feature heavy drinking and an additional 18 percent depict chronic drinkers. They are generally the good, steady, likeable characters.

Certificates Available For Grandparent's Day

September 10

Grandparents are more important today than ever before. Recent social trends have obliged many grandparents to raise their grandchildren as well as their children, often delaying their retirement as a result. And, as always, their wisdom, experience and work ethic make them the unacknowledged backbone of the state.

The Texas Department of Aging, in honor of the vital role grandparents play in society, will sponsor Texas' observance of the National Grandparents Day, September 10, 1989. As in the past three years, TDoA will offer free certificates for presentation to outstanding grandparents.

These certificates are suitable for framing. They are printed in color on parchment paper and are signed by Governor William P. Clements and Department on Aging Executive Director O.P. Bobbitt. A space is provided for inscribing the name of the recipient.

Last year, TDoA distributed more than 100,000 Outstanding Grandparents certificates to individuals, school, nursing homes, churches and civic groups, many schools and other organizations sponsored local Grandparents Day celebrations which included presentation of certificates.

The Department on Aging urges people who are ordering certificates to place requests as soon as possible to assure that the orders will be filled in time for Grandparents Day.

Requests should include the number of certificates required (orders of any size can be filled) and a complete return address for the individual who is presenting the certificates.

Submit orders in writing only to: Grandparents Certificates, c/o Texas Department on Aging, P.O. Box 12786, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

McLean Tigers will welcome home fans to their opening game on Friday, September 8, at the home field. Groom Tigers will play this first match of wills with McLean at 7:30 p.m.

The McLean News would like to help spark enthusiasm with the upcoming season by bringing back the football contest. The contest will appear in conjunction with the Football Scoreboard page. Contest participants will name their choices from a mixture of high school, college and professional games, published the previous week on the football page. First and second place winners will receive cash awards, $10.00 and $5.00, respectively.

However, in order to accomplish such a task, the staff must ask for participation of local supporters, fellow businesses and subscribers. Cost of the promotion will run $10.00 per week, for the entire football season.

We plan to begin with the September 7 edition of the day preceding the season opener here in McLean. Call McLean News at 779-2141 during office hours to get your name on the list of "Tiger Boosters."

McLean ISD Spends $396.79 Per Student

School budgets have been increased by 50 percent since the school reform HB 72 was enacted five years ago. A total of $13.5 billion was approved by school trustees in 1,055 Texas school districts last year. To pay for it, officials levied local property taxes totaling $5.6 billion. The state provided $4.9 billion. The remainder came from school lunch and other fees, federal aid, bond sales, interest and other revenue.

The figures come from the latest issue of Bench Marks 1988-89 School District Budgets in Texas, an annual publication of the Texas Research League, an Austin-based, educational corporation engaged in governmental research.

An average of $3,384 per student for current operations was budgeted last year plus $288 for repayment of debt and $464 per student for capital outlay.

McLean ISD's budget provided $396.79 per student for current operations, $0 for debt service, and $86.78 per student for capital outlay based on the 242 students enrolled in the fall semester of 1988.

The average salary for classroom teachers paid by McLean ISD in 1987-88 was $22,809 plus supplements for the career ladder.

In McLean ISD the average salary for administrators was $35,165.

Four dollars in five were spent for salaries. Statewide payroll expense average $2,757 per student, as compared to $3,928.07 in McLean ISD. Payroll expense is a combination of salary levels and staffing patterns.

Taxpayers provided one teacher for 11.1 students in McLean ISD while the statewide pupil-teacher ratio was 17.1 to one. Because of the existence of small classes, especially at the high-school level, and abbreviated teaching schedules, many other classes have more than the average number of students.

To fund higher school budgets with a declining tax base, school trustees in most districts have raised tax rates. The average school district imposed a property tax at the rate of 91.2 cents per $100.00 of appraised value, which value averaged 96.5 percent of market value (selling price). The "true tax rate" was 88.1 cents (91.2 times 96.52 percent) statewide. Locally, the McLean ISD imposed a rate of $1.080 while property was appraised at 100 percent of its market value making the true rate $1.080 per $100 of market value (selling price).

The report points out that the calculation of a true tax rate based on market value rather than on appraised value enables a valid comparison of tax levels with other schools. In 1988, the true tax rate exceeded $1 in 336 school districts in Texas.

The tax on a house that would sell for $80,000 in McLean ISD would have been $834.00. If the homeowner were eligible for homestead exemptions, the tax would have been $780, and if owned by a person 65 years or older, the tax on an $80,000 house in this district would have averaged $672, or less if subject to a tax freeze. That compares with statewide average tax bills of $723, $638 and $544 respectively for an $80,000 house.

Last year McLean ISD's revenue from the property tax increased by 1.9 percent for 1988-89 as compared to a 6.8 percent increase statewide.

Local property taxes plus state aid was $4,209.00 per student in McLean ISD as compared to $3,221 statewide. The primary purpose of state aid is to equalize state and local tax resources among school. In 1988-89 tax resources ranged from less than $2,500 per student in 12 districts to more than $10,000 in five districts.

Alanreed School District spends on administration costs, $5046.54 per student on instruction and 778.18 on each pupil. Transportation costs per student is $595.00 and maintenance costs $928.57.

Election Judges Appointed

Gray County Commissioners this past week accepted the appointment of election judges and agreed to consolidate a number of the city's precincts for the constitutional amendment election in November.

Precincts 2, 3 and 10 were consolidated to Lovett Memorial Library in Pampa. Precincts 7 and 12 are to vote at Horace Mann Elementary School. Laketon's Precinct 6 will join Precincts 11 and 14 in voting at M.K. Brown Auditorium and Precincts 8 and 9 will go to Austin Elementary School.

By combining the precincts for the constitutional amendment election, Carter said the county saves on election expenses. Having a box at each of the precincts is generally not necessary when there is not a general election, she said.

Following are the election judges accepted by the commission Tuesday:

Precinct 1- Lefors Community Center-Phondia Sierman, presiding judge, and Mike Shedeck, assistant.

Precinct 3- Grandview-Hopkins school-Linda Babcock, presiding judge, and Sue Wills, assistant.

Precinct 4- Alanreed School-Jeannie Adams, presiding judge, and Lena Carter assistant.

Precinct 5- Lovett Library McLean-Bill Graham Jr., presiding judge, and Rush

(RJ) Turner, assistant.

Two Teachers Hired

McLean Independent School District Board of Trustees met in regular session on August 14, 1989, at 7:00 p.m. in the business office.

Mr. Peoples recommended to the board that the following six abbreviated attendance days for 1989-90 be set as follows; September 15 and 29, October 13 and 27, November 22 and December 20. The board approved.

Career ladder recipients approved by the board are: Francis Adamson, Jacquelyn Riley, Betty Skipper, Virginia Holwick, Maudene Rutherford, Barbara Stalls, Evelyn Sanders and Cynthia E. Ewing.

Board members voted to make a policy that all McLean ISD teachers be required to attain six semester hours or ninety advanced academic training hours every five years.

Donnie Johnson was offered employment by the board to serve as a science teacher for 1989-90 at the state schedule salary of $17,000 plus $950 increment. Kathy Slayton was hired as a business teacher for the 1989-90 school year at a state schedule salary of $17,000 plus $700 local increment.

The employment of a teacher/coach was discussed. It was reported that a satisfactory person had not been found for this position, therefore, some realignment of the present staff has been

On August 11 the school's "Goal Committee" met and agreed upon one single goal for the school. After reviewing test scores and hearing comments from parents, the goal selected was to improve writing skills throughout the system. The same goal was officially approved by the school board on August 14.

This does not mean we will shun other areas of the curriculum. This means that our main focus will be consecrated in writing. Writing spans all areas of the curriculum and the teachers, principals, and myself will see that it is closely monitored in all areas.

Have you ever received a thank you note from a recent high school graduate that you could hardly read or comprehend--I have? Many graduates are leaving school without mastering simple writing skills. The state is continually raising the standards for writing mastery for students to pass from one grade to another and to graduate.

How can you as parents join in with us as a team player? Have your children write at every opportunity. Has your child written their grandparents lately? Letters can be read, re-read and saved. Telephone calls can not.

With you parents working with us as a team player, I'm positive that we will be seeing our scores improve.

Glen Studebaker

Topic Of Feature Article

When Glen Studebaker gets his cattle checked and his hay put up, he relaxes by just fiddlin' around - that is, by building and playing homemade fiddles.

Studebaker, 75, has a little place nestled between the north and south McClellan Creeks, just north of this tiny Gray County community where he raises Simmental cattle and puts up alfalfa hay.

He's been at the ranching business since 1951. Before that, he owned a welding shop in Pampa for 20 years.

But there's always been another true love in his life. He's been creating and crafting fiddles since 1948, building 49 fiddles since that time. His love for the instrument goes even further back than that.

"My dad was a fiddler and I guess I just took after him," Studebaker said. "I started fiddling when I was 9 and I played for my first dance at age 11."

A Minco, Oklahoma native, Studebaker moved to Grandview at age 17 when he married his wife, Laura. They joined up with several local residents and formed a band to play at area gatherings.

Studebaker said he started making fiddles after he took his into a shop one day and wasn't satisfied with what was offered. He got an address to get the wood required to make a fiddle and that launched his hobby.

It's only a hobby, he said, because he can't bear to part with his fiddles.

"I don't really care about selling them. I can only build so many and right now I only have about 12 to 14 of those left," Studebaker said. "I kind of like them. I think a bunch of them and I really don't want to part with them."

The other fiddles he's crafted have been given away or sold to family and friends.

Studebaker estimates it takes him between 300 to 400 hours to build a fiddle, but he admits there are others who can build them twice that fast. He said he takes extra time to get the sound he wants.

He uses a Dolphin Stradivarius pattern and buys 90 percent of the wood he uses from Germany by way of a store in Vermont. He uses curly maple for the necks and sides, curly maple and birdseye maple for the backs and all silver spruce for the tops.

Studebaker estimated there's at least $300.00 worth of material in each fiddle he makes. And while it's a hobby, when he sells one he won't let it go for less than the $550.00. They generally average around $800.00 to $900.00.

He keeps accurate records of each fiddle, the wood that went into it, along with the varnish used on it and where it went. They are all different, although they're made from the same pattern and same wood.

"There's no two fiddles that sound exactly alike, regardless of who makes them. They just won't play the same."

Each one has a unique sound, he says so he does have a favorite. It's the one that has the fit and sound that suits him best and he says there's no dollar amount that would buy it.

An average of $3,384 per student for current operations was budgeted last year plus $288 for repayment of debt and $464 per student for capital outlay.

Groom's ISD's budget provided $302.39 per student for current operations, $0.00 for debt service, and $102.61 per student for capital outlay based on the 213 students enrolled in the fall semester of 1988.

The average salary for classroom teachers paid by Groom ISD in 1987-88 was $22,229.00 plus supplements for the career ladder.

The average salary for administrators paid by Groom ISD in 1987-88 was $35,362.

Four dollars in five were spent for salaries. Statewide payroll expense averaged $2,757 per student, as compared to $3,662.90 in Groom ISD. Payroll expense is a combination of salary levels and staffing patterns.

Taxpayers provided one teacher for 10.5 students in Groom ISD while the statewide pupil-teacher ratio was 17.1 to one. Because of the existence of small classes, especially at the high-school level, and abbreviated teaching schedules, many other classes have more than the average number of students.

To fund higher school budgets with a declining tax base, school trustees in most districts have raised tax rates. The average school district imposed a property tax at the rate of 91.2 cents per $100 of appraised value, which value averaged 96.5 percent of market value (selling price). The "true tax rate" was 88.1 cents (91.2 times 96.52 percent) statewide. Locally, the Groom ISD imposed a rate of .989 while property was appraised at 97.3 percent of its market value making the true rate $962 per $100 of market value (selling price).

The report points out that the calculation of a true tax rate based on market value rather than on appraised value enables a valid com-

Miss Jill Genece Lamberson and Mr. Michael Anthony Vasquez were united in marriage on Saturday, August 12, 1989 at 6:00 p.m. in the evening at the First United Methodist Church in Pflugerville. The Reverend Jim Cloninger officiated. A reception followed at the Chariot Inn with music by the River City Rounders.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Edmondson and Mr. Larry Lamberson of Pflugerville and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barker, Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Lamberson and great granddaughter of Mrs. Ruth Knight and Mr. Earnest Adcox, all of Groom, Texas.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Vasquez of Austin and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mayo.

The matron of honor was Misti English of Abilene, Texas. Bridesmaids were Julie Vasquez, Diane Doyle and Kim Elbright. The flower girls were Kaki Little of Amarillo, Texas and Randi Atwood of Gruver, Texas. The best man was John Vasquez, groomsmen were Mark Martinez, Lance Lamberson and Edward Cruz-Aedo. The ring bearer was Kevin Torres and ushers were J.P. Cantu and Felix Cardenas.

After a trip to the Grand revenue from the property tax increased by 4.8 percent for 1988-89 as compared to 6.8 percent increase statewide. Local property taxes plus state aid was $4,175 per student in Groom ISD as compared to $3,221 statewide. The primary purpose of state aid is to equalize state and local tax resources among schools. In 1988-89 tax resources ranged from less than $2,500 per student in 12 districts to more than $10,00 in five districts. Grandview-Hopkins spends $4,173.08 per student on Administration, $6,469.23 on instruction and $657.69 on each pupil. Transportation costs for each student is $1,200.00, maintenance costs $1,407.69.

What's Yellow & Black And Has 144 Feet?

What's yellow and black and has 144 feet? A loaded school bus. Summer Vacation is almost over and children across the state will be returning to school, many aboard big yellow and black school buses. One of the most common sights on our roadways during the school year, these buses can carry from 71 to 83 seated students on any given trip each day.

"Yet as common as they are, every year there seems to be an unfortunate rash of accidents caused by drivers who fail to follow safe driving practices for a stopped school bus," stated Major Vernon Cawthon, Regional Commander for the Texas Department of Public Safety.

State law required drivers on the same roadway, as a school bus that is stopped to load or unload children, to also stop until the bus driver has turned off the flashing red lights. This rule applies unless the vehicle is separated from the bus by a divided highway with a median strip.

The first few weeks of school are the most dangerous, according to Major Cawthon. "This time of year presents safety problems for both the school children and the driver," he explained. "Many youngsters are attending school for the first time and others might be going to a different school, where they are unfamiliar with local traffic conditions. Our problem seems to be that during the summer recess, some drivers have gotten out of the habit of being alert for both school zones and school buses."

Public Safety Officials are asking Texas drivers to begin thinking now about the safety of our school children, as the beginning of a new school year starts up. By observing the speed limits in school zones, being alert for increased pedestrian traffic, and watching for school bus activity, we can make this a safe school year for all.

SUBSTITUTE TEACHER LISTS UPDATED

Groom School Principal Judy Babcock is in the process of updating the district's substitute teacher lists for the 1989-90 school year. According to Mrs. Babcock, the personnel files for substitute teachers are required by school policy to contain the same information required for regular professional teachers.

Persons who are currently on the substitute teacher roster should check with Business Manager Joyce Hutsell to verify that their 1989-90 file contains the following: teacher certification, where applicable; a complete teacher-application; a notarized Oath of Office required for State of Texas teachers; and a copy of the high school diploma or latest college transcript showing completed hours of college credit.

School district policy requires that substitute positions are to be filled by the person most qualified to do so. The updated files will assist district officials with compliance in the matters of school policy and state laws and regulations.

"Since the district traditionally requires the services of substitute teachers to check in as soon as possible. If there are any persons who would like to assist the district when substitutes are needed, we would appreciate having applications on file," continues Babcock.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL

PREKINDERGARTEN EDUCATION SURVEY

"In accordance with Texas Education Agency guidelines," states Kenneth Sweatt, Superintendent of Groom Schools, "the Groom School District is making every effort to identify those pre-kindergarten aged children in the District who may be in need of classes prior to beginning kindergarten."

The criteria for determining these students are family income, which falls into a category qualifying the family for free and reduced meals on the school lunch program or is non-English speaking, or both. The child should be age 4 by September 1, 1989.

Any parent within the Groom School District who feels that a four-year old within the family would qualify for a prekindergarten program under the guidelines should notify the school. Please call 248-7557 or 248-7251. Joyce Hutsell, Business Manager or Superintendent Sweatt welcome any assistance with compiling this list for the district.

Joyce Hutsell can be reached at 248-7251 or interested applicants could come by the business office at the west end of the school building at 304 West Third Street in Groom.

IMMUNIZE BEFORE SCHOOL

With the new school year just around the corner, it is time for parents to check the immunization records of their children.

"Although outbreaks and epidemics of killer diseases like polio and diphtheria do not pose the threat they once did, infectious diseases can still spread among us," said Dr. Karen Holman, head of the Department of Family Medicine at the Amarillo campus of Texas Tech University School of Medicine.

The doctor reminded parents that children are not born with built in protection from infectious diseases, but must be immunized against them. "More than any other preventive health-care practice, immunizations begun in childhood and kept up to date save money, misery and lives," she said.

In Texas, proof of vaccination for six communicable diseases--polio, tetanus, measles, rubella (German measles), mumps, and diphtheria--is required by law for all children registering for day care of public school. In addition, pertussis, or whooping cough, vaccine is required for children younger than five year old in day care and public school. Dr. Holman recommends the pertussis vaccine be extended for children through the age of six.

Because of vaccinations, only two cases of diphtheria and one fatal case of polio have been reported in Texas in the past 10 years, according to the Texas Medical Association. Some preventable diseases persist, however, because parents allow the original vaccination to expire without getting the necessary follow-up booster shots. In 1988, the Texas Department of Health recorded outbreaks of measles, mumps, rubella, pertussis and tetanus. About 3,000 cases of measles were reported during an epidemic in Texas in late 1988 and early 1989. Most victims of these diseases were unimmunized children.

Parents should follow their physician's advice in scheduling the necessary vaccinations and boosters and in keeping accurate records for each child, Dr. Holman said. Parents who are not sure if their children's vaccinations are current should update their records now, to be ready for the upcoming school year.

Students enrolling in Groom School are now required to have their Social Security Number. Parents who have not applied for these numbers for their children should do so at once. Forms are available at the school secretary's office.
