Booster Club Organized

The business men of McLean met at the Mission Theatre Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock and organized a Booster Club which step The News has been advocating for several weeks past. A little talking was done by most everybody present, and the chief thing that concerned most of them was whether a commercial organization would live, there having been two failures in the history of the town. All agreed, however, that all it took was a little determination, co-operation, and a disposition among the members for every man to do his part.

It is understood that the primary object in organizing is trade development in the wide territory from which people should come to McLean.

The following officers were elected:

President—R. L. Pyle.
Vice President—S. R. Jones.
Secretary—M. L. Moody.
C. L. Cook was appointed a committee to draft by laws.

Several names were suggested and discussed, and a motion carried to call it the McLean Booster Club.

The Club plans to meet regularly every Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

It is hoped that those who were unable to be there Wednesday afternoon will make it a point to come out next Tuesday, and that all will get in line and pull for the McLean Booster Club, and it will not go the way of previous attempts, but will live and result in much permanent benefit to the town.

Becomes Sole Owner of Garage

A deal was closed Tuesday whereby M. D. Bentley bought R. L. Grigsby's interest in the Bentley & Grigsby Garage and Ford agency, and will operate hereafter under the firm name of M. D. Bentley.

Mr. Bentley has been in the automobile and gasoline business here for several years, and is well and favorably known to the trade.

We have been unable to learn what Mr. Grigsby's plans are.

D. N. Massay went to Greenville on Wednesday of last week. He returned Sunday, accompanied by his wife, who has been there for medical treatment for some time.

S. O. Cook and wife left Thursday for their home in Dallas.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hindman Saturday night, a boy.

Panhandle Day at Dallas Fair

It has definitely been decided that there will be an all Panhandle exhibit at the Dallas State Fair in October of the present year. It is designed that the Panhandle Plains Chamber of Commerce will group all of its exhibits, in county units, under one cover or one enclosure, thus preserving the identity of the county and at the same time representative of the unity which is desired to be expressed by this organization.

The management of the Fair has been applied to for the designation of some certain day as "Panhandle Day." On that day it is being arranged to operate special trains out of Amarillo, collecting the passengers from all over the Panhandle Plains territory and all going in one great body. Some of the towns have already volunteered to take bands and other agencies of pleasure and comfort. This special train will, in all probability move over the Ft. Worth & Denver, enroute to Dallas and will probably return over the T. P. via Sweetwater where breakfast will be served and a day-light trip over the South Plains.

The final details will be worked out in plenty of time, so make your arrangements to bury your troubles for a couple of days and have the time of your life.

A New Correspondent

The News has secured a correspondent from the Union community, out north of the river, between Northfork and Mobeetle. This correspondent says, "I will send in a few notes this week, and will try to do better next week." The Union litter was written the next day after "Brownie" received the stationery the paper furnishes. If this letter contains what the correspondent found out in only one day, when she writes all she learns in a week, the Union letter will be a crackerjack.

Mrs. Nannie Trawick, who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Stockton, was joined by her husband and they left last week for Ford City, where they will visit before returning to their home at Waurika, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gray of Olusta, Okla., spent the week end with Scott Johnston and family.

Mrs. Tom McKinzie of Dumas came in Monday night for a visit in the Haynes home.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cousins Sunday, a girl.

The Methodist Revival

The revival is still in progress, and is growing in interest. Rev. Neal is an experienced evangelist, and a master of the platform. He stays by the Bible in placing the standard of Christian living high. He makes no difference in sinners, in the church and out of it; they are all lost if they do not repent.

Bro. Huckabee is doing splendid singing. He has proven himself to be a master of song. His solos are uplifting.

The fellowship of the different churches is beautiful. It is delightful to see such hearty co-operation of the entire community, both town and country. The business men have shown an unusual interest in the services by closing and attending.

Sunday promises to be a high day. Everybody is invited to attend. The revival will close at the morning service Sunday.
B. J. Osborn.

P. D. Fondron left last week Weatherford for an operation on his eyes. His family was notified Wednesday that the operation was successful and he was doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Persons and small son, Amos, came in Saturday and visited in the Moody home until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Pyle visited at Quanah and Crowell last week returning Sunday.

J. F. Eustace of Tipton, Okla. is visiting with friends.

County W. S. S. Organization Perfected

Gray County has been divided into two sections, North Side and South Side, for the purpose of making an organized effort for prompting thrift stamps and W. S. S. sales.

The following officers have been named for the South Side.

Chairman—L. O. Floyd.
Vice chairman—W. T. Wilson.
Chm. Women's section—Mrs. Genie E. Cameron.

Director of sales—C. L. Cook.
Director saving societies—C. R. Teague

Director publicity—M. L. Moody.

Director speaking bureau—T. J. Coffey.

Director W. S. S. $1000 savings club—Clay E. Thompson.

A large crew of workmen are busy on the new building for the Western Lumber Company. The framework is finished, and the carpenters are well along with the work of building the walls. This is to be a 25 x 80 foot stucco building, and the plans call for quite a handsome structure.

H. M. Massay of Greenville came Sunday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Massay and W. D. Pyle and family.

Mrs. Hanson and daughter of Ashola, is visiting in the W. D. Sims home.

Buck Cooke went to White Deer Monday.

Did You Read ALL the News in Last Week's Paper?

In spite of the fact that there were few columns of reading matter in The News last week, it contained quite a lot of interesting news. This news was not all carried in the news columns of the paper. Part of it was advertising.

For instance, there is a sugar shortage on. It will be several weeks before the new cane crop can be made into sugar to relieve the scarcity. The Haynes Grocery Company announced that they had a large quantity in transit and enough on hand to keep everybody sweet pending the arrival of a car. That ought to be news to you.

Mrs. W. T. Wilson announced the arrival of the new fall millinery. That is news that ought to interest the ladies.

Bentley & Grigsby told you about the new Ford car with the electric starter, battery lights, demountable rims, and other trimmings. Everybody is interested in automobiles, and this was big news to those who have been wishing they could buy a flivver they wouldn't have to wind up—a nice gentle one that won't kick. And there are lots of folks who have been wishing for just that sort of a Ford.

Then, too, there was the announcement of the townsite opening at Perryton, Ochiltree county, on the new line of the Santa Fe railway.

C. S. Rice told about getting in a shipment of wagons, and warns against a coming advance in price. A. Chapman announces his Oakland and Oldsmobile automobile agency.

All these things are news—news that you missed if you failed to read the advertisements in The News. And if you failed to read the ads and let them guide you in your buying, you may be loser by several dollars. These days one can no more buy intelligently without reading the advertisements than he can select exactly what he wants from a catalog, and if you have patronized mail order houses, you know how hard that is to do.

Somebody will, or has already been, benefitted enough from reading the ads in last week's paper to the price of a year's subscription. Possibly more.

Now that the public spirited business men of McLean have gotten together and organized a Booster Club, it is up to them, collectively and individually, to make a go of it. Two previous efforts along this line have failed, and some have expressed their misgivings as to its future. At the organization meeting those present indicated a willingness to do their parts by a standing vote when the club adjourned. We take it that they meant what they said. The best way to kill this tender young thing is to knock it. If any member of the Booster Club can't get on the band wagon and boost, he will be doing a patriotic duty to get out of the club and say nothing. If a man knocks, he is a hinderance. If he does nothing in the organization he is in the way. If he will get out and keep his mouth shut he will be neither.

When the News man's cousin, Ray Persons of Quitaque, was visiting him the other day, the two of them got in a flivver and drove out a few miles from town, it being the editor's desire to interest his kinsman in a farm somewhere near McLean. We told him about how wonderfully sure the crops were, what fine stuff could be raised, etc. He said his part of Briscoe county had this skinned a mile, that they could raise more and better stuff out there, and the McLean country didn't interest him. Quitaque is thirty-five miles from the nearest railroad point, and fifty miles to one that is easy to get to with a heavily loaded wagon. They may raise better crops around Quitaque, but who wants to live that far out in the country?

Did You Get a Sample Copy This Week?

If you live over about Mobeetie somewhere and get a sample copy of the McLean News this week, it is a pretty good sign the Rawleigh Medicine man, Harry Malone, will call on you before another issue of the paper comes out. He will try to sell you some of his dope, and will try also to get you to subscribe for the best little oil' paper in the Panhandle.

There may not be much in the paper to interest you this week, but we will try our best to fix it so it will interest you, and that p. d. q.

The News wants you Mobeetie folks to get better acquainted with McLean, our merchants, bankers, mechanics, an' everybody. McLean wants your trade and will do her best to make it worth your while to come here. Maybe in a few months she will build a bridge across the Northfork so it will be easy for you to get to town. You have a mighty fine country out there, and need a railroad point and market easier to get to than you now have. McLean is the logical place, and all that is needed is a bridge and a slight improvement in the roads.

M. D. Bentley tells us that new Ford cars have been purchased recently by J. R. Phillips, Evan Sitter, I. C. Moseley of Alanreed, and Anson Lee of Gracey.

Mrs. Henson and daughters, Misses Mabel and Cloe returned Sunday to their home in Clarendon after visiting in the W. D. Sims home.

Miss Elizabeth Patterson of Levors is visiting in the Arthur Erwin home.

Sid Denson of White Deer is visiting in our city this week.

Mrs. Genie Cameron motored to Pampa Monday.

Our New Subscription Solicitor

The News has secured the services of Mr. Harry D. Malone, perhaps better known to the people of the McLean country as the Rawleigh man, as subscription solicitor.

After this week Mr. Malone will carry a list of the delinquents, of whom, we are sorry to say, we have quite a number, and when he calls on you, if your subscription is in arrears he may gently and kindly remind you of a certain hungry editor who only occasionally gets a square meal when some kindhearted neighbor invites him out to dinner.

If you are not a regular reader of the Moral Weekly, you should become one, and Mr. Malone is expected to use all the arts of good salesmanship and moral persuasion to induce you to jar loose from the necessary muzzma to secure for you 52 doses of Truth.

We are mailing samples of the paper to those on whom Mr. Malone will call next week as he goes about peddlin' Rawleigh remedies, soaps, toilet articles, stock dip, and tooth paste, and we hope these good people will keep about a dollar and a half handy for him, and not neglect any longer this important part of McLean country home life. Prepare to kick in, folks; you need the paper, and the paper needs you on its book of live ones.

Dr. J. L. Dodson, optometrist, of Amarillo will be in McLean on Monday and Tuesday, August 22nd and 23rd. He will examine your eyes thoroughly and guarantee satisfactory glasses. He can suit the most difficult cases. Dr. Dodson uses the most modern methods in fitting the eye, and will make regular trips in the future. Itc

Raymond Glass came in Monday wearing a discharge chevron. He has been in the army for the past eighteen months

Roy Campbell returned from a visit in Crowell Friday.

The Ford You Have Been Waiting For

—equipped with electric starter and lighting system

The new Ford is just the same dependable economical car it has always been, and it has an electric starting and lighting system added, with a few minor changes.

It has 30x3 1-2 tires all around, Timken roller bearings on the front wheels, demountable rims, spare rim and spare rim carrier.

The new Ford lights from storage batteries, and you have the same strong light where the going is rough as on the level turnpike when you pull 'er open.

This is the Ford you have been wanting all the time, and we are glad to announce that we can take your order for one now. The factory is not turning out many of these as yet, and if you want one we advise you to let us know at once. In fact, you should place your order as soon as possible for any model Ford. They're hard to get right now, and the scarcity is growing.

Cumberland Singers

GRAND OPENING CONCERT FIRST DAY OF CHAUTAUQUA

Something that brings back old and pleasant memories is always welcome. There is something about the old familiar songs, particularly, that both the young and older people enjoy.

The Cumberland Singers in the first place are all good singers. Their voices blend beautifully and each member is also a soloist of much ability. Their program has been carefully chosen. The old familiar tunes predominate, yet a goodly number of the stirring, thrilling, patriotic songs are included. Their program ranges from selections from Faust, Maunder's "Oliver to Calvary," to the up-to-date musical comedies; from such old favorites as "My Maryland," the "Auld Plaid Shawl," "Seeing Nellie Home," and "Grandfather's Clock," to the modern patriotic numbers like "The Americans Come" and the "Tri-Color." EVERY ONE WANTS MONEY'S WORTH

Natural Desire Is Not to Get the Worst of Any Business Transaction.

CHEAPEST NOT ALWAYS BEST

Person Who Buys From Catalogue House Sees Only the Price and Forgets That Value Is Thing That Counts.

(Copyright.)
When you spend your money you naturally want to get all you can in return. No one can criticize you for having that desire. Only those who are commonly referred to as having "more money than sense" throw their money away. All others are careful to see that they do not get the worst of any bargain. But one has to be able to look farther than the end of his nose if he is to be sure that he is getting the most that he can get for his money.

That is the defense of the man who buys from the mail order house instead of patronizing the merchants in his own town. He says he can get more for his money when he buys from the mail order man than when he spends his money at home. But in arriving at that conclusion he certainly has not been able to look further than the end of his nose.

In most cases the man who buys goods from a mail order house does so because he thinks he is getting the goods for less money than he would have to pay for them at the store in his own town. He thinks he is looking out for No. 1 and he says it is not his fault if the merchant in his town cannot make any money and is forced to go out of business. He overlooks the fact that he is likely to be as hard hit as anyone else when that merchant closes his doors but, leaving that probability out of consideration, the chances are about 10 to 1 that the buyer has really lost money on his deal with the mail order man.

Price Not Only Consideration.

If buying an article of any kind, whether it be a house and lot or a paper of pins, the price is not the only thing to be considered by any means. You are not in the habit of going into a store when you want to buy a suit of clothes and saying to the storekeeper: "Give me the cheapest suit of clothes you have in the house." You want the best suit of clothes you can get for the price you pay for it, but you don't usually want the cheapest thing you can find.

A man may delude himself into believing that when he buys a suit of clothes from a mail order house for $10 he is saving money, but what is there to justify him in such a belief? The mere fact that he is getting a suit for $10 does not mean that he is saving money. The chances are that if he should go to the man who runs the clothing store in his own town and ask for it he could get a suit of clothes for $10 and the chances are also that it would be just as good if not a better bargain than the suit which he could get from the mail order house for the same sum. It is not the price he pays that shows whether he is getting a bargain or not. It is the quality of goods that he gets for his money that counts.

Can Undersell Mail Order House.

The home merchant can sell as cheaply as the mail order man if he sells as cheap goods as the mail order man sells. His expenses are not as heavy as those of the mail order man. He pays less rent in proportion to the business he does, his taxes are less in proportion to the capital invested. His advertising bills are less than those of the mail order man in proportion to the volume of his sales. He can undersell the mail order man any day in the year if he wishes to sell only goods of the same quality and style of those sold by the mail order man, but he doesn't do this because he knows that the majority of the people in his town do not want that quality and style of goods. Therefore he keeps in stock goods of all qualities and all prices. He has the $10 suit for the man who thinks that he can get more for his money by buying a suit at that price than he can by buying a better one for $20, but he tells the customer just what he is buying.

The next time you think about buying something from a mail order house, if you ever do think of such a thing, go first to your home merchant and ask to see the article which you are thinking of buying.

Ready to Compare Prices.

Your home merchant is a business man. He gets the best values he can for his money when he buys goods, and he does not expect his customers to do anything else. All that he asks, in return for the favors he does his customers and the things he does for the good of his community is that he be given an opportunity to meet the insidious competition of the mail order house. He is perfectly willing to have his prices and his values compared to those of the mail order house, but he has a just complaint when he is not given a chance to make this comparison.

If all buyers would take the value as well as the price of the article they are buying into consideration, the mail order houses would all go out of business tomorrow.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR "ASK ANY SOLDIER"

If you were a soldier in the A. E. F., you probably remember that when you saw the Colonel drive by, he invariably rode in a Dodge. And the old boy usually got there too, when getting there depended upon the reliability of his car. We contend that a car good enough to stand the wear and tear—mostly tear—over shell-torn roads, a car that so high and important an officer as a Colonel can depend on under campaign conditions, is good enough for anybody who wants a reliable car that looks good and is comfortable to ride in.

If you want a Dodge, you had better place your order now, for the demand exceeds the supply. People are finding out this car, and we expect them to be still harder to get later.

WHY LITTLE DUDLEY LOVES NELS DARLING

Until Dudley Anderson, son of J. P. Anderson of Blackwell, Ok., was six years old he could not remember a night when he did not dread to hear his mother tell him it was bed time. He knew he would lie awake fighting the impulse to scratch, scratch the terrible Eczema which covered his little body and arms. One day his daddy brought home good news. He had read in the paper of an eczema remedy called ZENSAL. Noting that Nels Darling, whom he knows by reputation, is president of the company, he felt sure he could trust it to be an honest remedy. He purchased a jar and that night, for the first time in his life, little Dudley fell asleep as soon as his head touched the pillow. The Eczema is gone. Little Dudley is well. This is why little Dudley loves Nels Darling. ZENSAL is the prescription of the late Dr. N. S. Darling, specialist. It is sold by and live druggists everywhere. Liberal jar for 75 cents.
