ANNIVERSARY OF SOCIAL SECURITY BRINGS PROPOSALS FOR ADDITIONS TO PROGRAM'S PRESENT COVERAGE

By J. HASSLER STRICKLAND Soc. Sec. Board Mgr.

Just eight years ago yesterday the Social Security Act, passed by both houses of congress by an overwhelming majority, was signed by President Roosevelt and became law.

Few people, at the time of the passage of the act, could visualize its future. Yet, as of June, 1943, there were 676,302 beneficiaries of the program, with payments aggregating $12,198,618 monthly.

The very first thing that was necessary when the social security law became operative back in 1935 was to devise a system by which the Board could set up a permanent wage record whereby it could identify at all times a worker's old-age insurance account.

It actually represents the largest bookkeeping system ever set up in the world. Based upon these wage records, benefits are being paid to workers who have retired after age 65 and to survivors of workers who have died before attaining 65.

Now the board makes other proposals in its seventh annual report.

The board's opinion is that there should be developed a unified comprehensive system of contributory social insurance which would cover all of the major economic hazards to which workers are subjected—old age, disability, hospitalization, unemployment and death.

The board believes social security protection should be extended to agricultural workers, to employees of non-profit institutions, and to self-employed persons in business or professions. Public employees should be likewise protected, the board believes, and a unified, nation-wide system of unemployment insurance should be set up.

Dibrell Gets Grid Pointers

John Dibrell, who leans to the T formation and who shortly will be faced with the job of building up a 1943 Steer football team, has just completed cramming his head with coaching fine points during the past week.

The Big Spring high school athletic director and grid coach has been attending the annual high school football coaching school at Waco.

Ralph Jones, Lake Forest (Ill.) coach, who uses the T altogether and is considered the chief authority in the nation on the formation, has been one of the chief instructors at the school. In addition, he is coach of the south all-star team.

During the week, said Dibrell in a letter to The Herald, he and other coaches took in lectures and then got field demonstrations in the afternoon and motion pictures at night. In between, mentors just talked shop and swapped ideas.

From district 3-AA are the Odessa, Lamesa, Midland, Abilene and Big Spring coaches. Dibrell expects to return to Big Spring within another week. The coach said he had letters from several of his players and felt that "most of them will be in good shape and ready to go."

Prospects for an outstanding team are not so bright in this quarter, but in spite of the fact that only five lettermen will be returning, Dibrell will have a fairly well balanced team with inexperience his greatest handicap.

Alsab 4th At Narragansett

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Aug. 14 (AP)—A. S. Hewitt's Some Chance, which raced indifferently last season after a good two-year-old record in 1941, took the measure of the famed Alsab today in the $5,000 added King Philip Handicap at Narragansett Park.

Alsab, top-weighted at 126 pounds and heavily favored in the wagering, gave away from 14 to 22 pounds to the rest of the field and his customary late charge could bring him up to no better than fourth.

Allen T. Simmons' Eire finished second, while John L. Sullivan's Air Master lasted long enough to capture third from the surging Alsab in the mile and one-sixteenth stake. Some Chance negotiated the distance in 1:46 4-5.

The victory was worth $4,800 to Hewitt and Some Chance paid $10, $4.80 and $3.80 in the mutuels. Eire returned $23.60 and $10.60 while the show price on Air Master was $7.

Committee Urges Continued Precautions Against Polio

Recommendations that every precaution be continued against any outbreak of infantile paralysis here came Saturday from the Howard county President's Birthday Committee, a group which has been active through the years in directing the raising of money to combat this dread disease.

The group, in a special meeting called by Chairman G. C. Dunham, urged the public to cooperate in the city's sanitation program by cleaning up property and observing garbage disposal ordinances.

It also asked the city commission to abide by the health officer's recommendations with regard to operation of the municipal swimming pool and other recreational activities. The health officer, Dr. J. E. Hogan, recommended some weeks ago that the pool be closed to children under the age of 18, and this ban remains in effect. While the threat of poliomyelitis may be lessened in some quarters, leading some people to request the reopening of the pool here, it was the unanimous vote of the committee, Dunham said, to urge that the health officer's recommendation be followed to the letter.

"Our committee has worked with several cases of infantile paralysis," said Dunham, "and we realize the full seriousness of this threat. We think that our citizenship cannot be too careful in safeguarding themselves and their children against any outbreak of the disease here."

The committee approved further financial help for one boy who was sent to Dallas in June as an infantile paralysis victim. There have been no local cases since the wave of polio swept over the state.

The group also authorized the chairman to act with necessary financial help in case of any polio emergency. Funds are available to needy polio sufferers because of the contributions made through the President's Birthday Balls of the last ten years.

Present at the committee meeting were Dunham, L. L. Speer, Ira Thurman, C. S. Blomsheld, R. W. Whipkey, B. J. McDaniel, V. A. Merrick, Walker Bailey and J. H. Greene.

Finns See Ray Of Peace Hope

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 14, (AP) — The Finns are beginning to see a ray of hope for peace for Finland.

The strict Finnish censorship, which has been seeking to soft pedal any peace talk, permitted the Helsinki newspaper Sosial-Demokratti to say that while "one dare not hope for peace in the near future we seem to hear an echo of coming peace."

The paper is the official organ of the social democrat party, Finland is "awaiting great events," the paper added.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14, (AP) — Reba Warner of Camden, N. J., dislikes cats.

But she forgot all about cats and executed a flying tackle—to nab a burglar crawling out of the window with a pocketbook belonging to one of her daughters.

World Affairs Effect Changes

HOLLYWOOD — There is no more leisurely writing out a story in Hollywood, then shooting it into a picture and being done.

Nowadays swift developments in world events make nearly all topical pictures rapidly-changing affairs. No one on the set knows exactly how the story is going to end until the final scene is shot.

One director who runs into these problems every time he picks up a newspaper is Fritz Lang, who is currently at Paramount making "Ministry of Fear."

Lang's picture has a British background. The story opens with a brief interlude in World War I and then hops to the present day.

Lang thought he had his story all finished before he started rolling the cameras. Then things started happening.

One was the invasion of Sicily. Lang's characters were English officers in North Africa, and the dialogue had references in it to the "coming invasion of Sicily."

Lang called in his writers and then reshot the sequences to say that the Allies already were on Sicilian soil.

Another scene had Winston Churchill and other high officers of the British command discussing the pro and con of a proposal to bomb Rome. The scene ended without a decision.

So a few days later Lang had to call back his Churchill and other players to reenact the scene. This time the conference ends quite differently. The high commands decide to bomb Rome without damaging religious shrines.

Then Lang turned on his favorite newscaster the other Sunday and learned that Premier Benito Mussolini's resignation had been accepted by the King of Italy.

Lang hurried to a telephone and again called his writers and actors. This time the story line had to be changed to include Mussolini's ousting.

The director is now keeping a close watch on news headlines.

Cards Beaten In Second Tilt With Giants

NEW YORK, Aug. 14 (AP)—After taking an 11 to 1 pasting from the first place St. Louis Cardinals in the first game the Giants turned around today and shut out the Cards, 8 to 0, in the second game of a doubleheader.

Southpay Cliff Melton applied the whitewash brush in the night-cap in winning his sixth game against seven defeats. He gave up eight hits and two bases on balls, but except for the fourth and fifth innings was never in trouble.

Meantime the Giants sparked by Mickey Witke, who banged out seven straight hits in the two games, hammered Murry Dickson from the box with a five-run outburst in the seventh climaxed by Gus Mancuso's first homer of the year.

George Munger had an easy time winning his fifth game for the Cards in the opener as Whitey Kurowski and Stan Musial connected for homers.

PHILS WHIPPED TWICE
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14 (AP)—The seven-game victory string of the Philadelphia Phillies was halted abruptly today as the Pittsburgh Pirates took both ends of a swing shift doubleheader, 8-2 and 2-1.

DODGERS LOSE FAIR
BROOKLYN, Aug. 14 (AP)—A second game ninth inning rally in which the Dodgers filled the bases with none out fell one run short today and Cincinnati won, 4 to 3, for a sweep of a doubleheader.

BOSTON EDGES CUBS
BOSTON, Aug. 14 (AP)—The Boston Braves made it four in a row today by beating the Chicago Cubs 3 to 2 as Manny Salvo held the visitors to six hits, including Bill Nicholson's 17th homer of the season.

Yanks Best The Browns For 9th Straight Win
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 14 (AP)—Bill Zuber's two-hit pitching and Nick Etten's hitting gave the league-leading New York Yankees a 2 to 1 victory over the Browns today, a triumph that marked the ninth straight series the Yanks have won.

In chalking up his fourth straight victory Zuber was touched for singles by Verne Stephens and Don Gutteridge in the second and third innings and would have hurled a shutout, but for errors by Ken Sears and Frank Crossett. Zuber hurled no-hit ball in the last six innings, although he issued five bases on balls.

Etten's 11th homer of the season and his 13th consecutive extra base clout put the Yanks ahead in the third on Gutteridge's single, Sears' wild throw as Gutteridge stole second and Crossett's maff of Harland Clift's grounder.

Bob Muncie pitched on even terms with Zuber for the next three innings, but in the seventh he walked Etten. Sears followed with a single to right, Etten stopping at second. Joe Gordon sacrificed both runners along and Etten scored the winning run on Johnny Lindell's infield out.

SEAS BEAT TIGERS
DETROIT, Aug. 14 (AP)—The Washington Senators scored three runs in the ninth inning today to beat the Detroit Tigers, 7 to 4, for an even break in their four-game series. Early Wynn gained his 13th mound victory in a relief role and Jake Powell drove in four runs for the Nats.

LEE BLANKS SOX
CHICAGO, Aug. 14 (AP)—Southpaw Thornton Lee shut out the Boston Red Sox 2 to 0 today as the Chicago White Sox made it four victories in six games in the series. Luke Appling doubled in both Chicago runs off Yank Terry in the third inning.

U.S. TIRES

The sign of a local, independent business—built on experience, knowledge, skilled service and products of quality.

SURE WE CAN FIX THAT BREAK IN YOUR TIRE!

1. WE PREPARE THE TIRE... First we thoroughly examine the injury inside and out for hidden trouble. Then we ream out the break and cut away any broken cords much like a dentist cleans a tooth for filling.

2. THEN WE VULCANIZE IT... Rubber is cemented into the hole outside; a "section repair" is built up inside replacing the broken cords. The repair is then welded into the tire under heat and pressure.

3. IT'LL STAND UP... Our tire men are so skilled in scientific vulcanizing that we know our repairs will last for thousands of miles—under today's conditions of slow driving.

YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE to buy a Grade I tire. If so, your certificate entitles you to the best—

An all negro choir from the Mount Bethel Baptist church, under the direction of E. M. Watson, will present a concert at the Big Spring soldier center Monday evening during open house for local townspeople.

The variety program will include baritone and soprano solos, and all townspeople interested in such a program are invited to attend.

Service Men's Wives are invited to use the sewing machine at the USO for their personal sewing. Officials announced Saturday that several of the wives were taking advantage of the service and that the machine was available at all times.

The ballroom dancing class is growing steadily but the students have hit a snag . . . they're lacking dancing partners and the boys admit that they can't really learn too many steps while dancing with a fellow GI. Girls who have served as junior hostesses at the club are urged to attend the classes on Friday evening to help with instructions in dancing.

Club Entertains With Luncheon At Settles

Enlisted Men's Wives entertained with a luncheon in the Settles coffee shop Thursday at 12 o'clock.

Following the luncheon the group went to the Big Spring USO club for craft class and later visited various service men's wives over town.

Notes

MARY WHALEY

Straight from New York comes a fashion forecast, exclusively ours, about what the well dressed woman will wear. It will be simple, tailored, and dark, so the release goes on and we must have about seventeen different types to stay in the social swim.

We will be strictly practical at an enormous price for day-t-i-m-e but at night we must glide.

The fashion experts apparently demand it of us. We will wear dressy blouses with a suit for cocktails but at home we are allowed to wear the same blouse with our tailored slacks for economy's sake. The fashion forecasters speak with such authority that we hate to think how we are going to let them down by not being dressed correctly for each occasion.

We will wear unusual costume jewelry for "color and interest" and whether it looks nice on us or not, we simply must have a color (seems that's a hat) on which we will snap bands of fur, jeweled fabric, and clips.

It's all very well, of course, to sit in an office in New York and tell us gals what to wear this fall but the smarties don't even give a hint about how to pay for them.

They ignore facts like, withholding taxes making deep dents in what we laughingly call our salary. Bet the gal up there are talking this year with their tongue in their cheeks.

First Military Wedding Held In Oran, Africa

Lieut. and Mrs. John Eul of Big Spring received a letter and clipping recently telling them of the marriage of Lieut. Eul's sister, Lieut. Marguerite Eul, United States army nurse, to Lieut. Daniel E. Bowen in Oran, North Africa. The military ceremony was the first ever to be performed for Americans in Africa.

The Oran newspaper carried a detailed account of the ceremony which caused a great deal of excitement among the natives of the town. Participants in the ceremony, numbering around 40 persons, were all in uniform and represented nearly every section of the United States and Canada. Old World customs were intertwined with American ones.

Following is an account (in part) of the wedding which was featured in the Oran newspaper. A large number of people witnessed the ceremony with uniforms of all branches of the service predominating. There were many civilians present eager to get their first glimpse of an American military wedding.

Following the ceremony, the ushers formed a guard of honor on the steps of St. Jeanne d'Arc Cathedral and saluted as the bridal couple, arm in arm descended preceded by the bridesmaids.

Adding a final touch to the occasion was the coach drawn by four cream-white horses, presided over by the coachman attired in full-length black coat with ornate silver buttons, white vest, tie and breeches, and black boots. White bunting decorated the carriage in which the newlyweds rode away.

A reception and dinner was held at a nearby station hospital, following which the newlyweds departed on a brief honeymoon trip "Somewhere in Africa."

Homemaking Classes Close With Display Tea At The School

Homemaking summer classes at the Big Spring high school closed this week with a display tea in the homemaking room. Mothers, friends and other guests attended the informal affair and different projects which have been completed by students were on display.

The girls have been carrying on the home projects throughout the summer to gain 1-2 to 1 credit which was offered. Projects in the different phases of the course included child care and entertainment, meal preparation, victory gardening, canning and preserve making, clothing, (repairing and remodeling) home improvement, marketing, personal improvement and home recreation.

The course was carefully planned through individual conferences and home visits during June. The course was under the direction of Lillian Jordan and Fern Smith. Miss Jordan returned this week from El Paso where she attended a homemaking teachers' conference. Miss Smith leaves Wednesday for Lubbock to attend a conference there. These special meetings are planned to assist the teachers in making the 1943 school program meet the needs of the times.

Miss Florence McAllister, supervisor for the area three, was in charge of the Conference which was held at El Paso.

Students who took the summer course were Bonnie Tubb, Barbara Snyder, Mozelle Newman, Ramona Weaver, Ladell Lee, Audie Marie Lynn, Maudie Mae Wilson, Marion Elmore, MarLou Williams, Wanda Bradford, Billie Chelf, Mildred Boggs, Patsy Holcombe, Mealdine Tippie and Adelphene Covington.

Cosden Chatter-

By SUE McCORMICK

A skeet shoot was held at the skeet range of the army air base Friday afternoon, between officers representing the Big Spring Bombardier School and officials of Cosden Petroleum Corp. On our team were R. L. Tollett, A. V. Karcher, Luke LeBlou, Henry and Jack Smith, competing against Lt. Col. Wade, Lieutenants Aulman, Cartwright, Hendrix and McKenzie. Col Wade was "high man" on his team, with a score of 22 out of a possible 25. Tollett and Smith tied for high on our team, with a score of 15 each. Our officials have decided that hereafter they'll stick to producing gasoline and let the Army handle the shooting!

Mr. L. O. Bell of Fort Worth was a visitor at the Cosden office last week. Also visiting us over the weekend were Lee Harris and family.

W. E. Gibson of the sales department, has returned from Dallas where he attended the funeral of George Bowers, who was the Dallas bulk plant agent. The death of Mr. Bowers was a loss to both Cosden and the oil industry in Texas. He had been in failing health for more than a year. Before his employment by Cosden, he had been sales manager for other marketing companies in Texas. W. E. Gibson works for George Bowers in the old Pierce Oil Company.

George Bowers was sales manager of Panhandle Refining Company when R. L. Tollett was a stenographer in his department, back in the early twenties.

R. L. Tollett returned Thursday from a trip to Chicago where he attended meeting of Individual Branded Petroleum Product Jobbers Association. On his motion and following his speech, a resolution was unanimously passed to request immediate increase of thirty-five cents per barrel in posted price of all crude oil produced in the United States.

Mrs. Otto Peters, Sr., underwent an operation at Cowper Clinic Saturday morning at eight o'clock. The operation was a success and Mrs. Peters is doing nicely.

We hope Freda Bond will read the column this week as we want to wish her a speedy recovery from her emergency appendectomy. She is in Hogan & Malone Clinic-Hospital.

Charline Davis is a new employee in the tax & insurance department. Another new addition is Joyce Daniel, who is working as mail clerk.

We also have several new employees in the refinery and garage. Marshall Minchew, Everett Bailey, and Claude Tankersley are our new transport truck drivers. In the refinery are Jack Hendrix, Emmett Griffith, Billy Wells, Warner Huggins, Elvis Cox, Daniel Minchew, Guy Horn, Henry Binshoffer and Paul Witt.

Warning Of Post-War Crime Thought-Provoking

Observations by Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, in an address presented as a part of a panel discussion on the "Effects of War on Social Standards," should stir people everywhere to thought. Let us quote Col. Garrison:

"We of the police profession believe that our nation is headed for a crime wave far bloodier and costlier than that of the Capone-Collier era... Crime will be only a part of this Twentieth Century American Revolution... We shall see something more startling than companionate marriage, the quick and easy divorce laws, the hip flask, knee-length skirts, and high-speed automobiles which grew out of the last war."

into constructive channels." It is, Col. Garrison correctly observed, not a job for the jurist, the sociologist, the policeman alone... but the job of every last one of us who has been taught to love the things which are fine and decent."

Washington Daybook - 'Father' Of AMGOT Has Been Dead For Ten Years

(During Jack Stinnett's vacation, his column is being conducted by members of the Washington staff of The Associated Press. Today's column is by William Frye.)

By WILLIAM FRYE WASHINGTON - The man chiefly responsible for AMGOT never lived to see the fruit of his labors. AMGOT—Allied Military Government of Occupied Territories—is operating in Sicily, marking the first time that the United States, which has established many military governments, has ever been prepared for the job. Credit for this preparation—the careful decisions on policy, the determination of possibilities and limitations, the choice of methods, the intensive schooling of officers for AMGOT and nothing else—is shared by many men, but most of it goes to the late Col. Irvin Leland Hunt.

Assistant Secretary of War John J. McCloy was one of the planners, as was Brig. Gen. E. S. Greenbaum, Patterson's executive officer. And the practical advice of Harold H. Neff, his years of personal experience with foreign peoples and affairs, contributed heavily to the formulation of aims and policies. Neff, an assistant to the under secretary, is a former professor of international law at the University of Virginia.

Americans In Wartime Yank Victory Gardener Is 'Miracle Man' Of 1943

By ROBERT E. GEIGER AF Features Writer Amazed agricultural experts, uncrossing their fingers, are calling the American Victory Gardener, with his billion dollar crop, the "miracle man" of 1943. Through flood, drought and international law at the University of Virginia.

As for timeliness, the crop reached many tables in the nick of time. "If it weren't for the Victory Gardeners you wouldn't be able to buy an adequate supply of vegetables at any price," says John Brucato, chairman of the victory garden council in war-busy San Francisco. "Many people are eating produce exclusively from their gardens."

As for quality, the experts have been amazed at what an amateur can do with seed and a little ground. "We have thousands of almost perfect gardens in Denver," says C. M. Drage, the special agricultural agent appointed to advise that city's Victory Gardeners. "The amateurs have stayed on the job like professionals and all summer long have watered, cultivated gardens and battled the insect pests. Very little insect, disease or climatic damage is apparent."

Hollywood - Robert Alda's Story Seems Unbelievable

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD - The story of Robert Alda, who is playing the late George Gershwin in "Rhapsody in Blue," is enough to send Hollywood's few superstitious actors rushing to soothsayers, seers, and numerologists. It couldn't have "just happened." It had to be written in the stars, or at least in some special corner of the world's vast scroll of coincidence. This Robert Alda, who had never been able to "afford" a stab at Hollywood before, arrived just in time to be the answer to a producer's prayer.

MURDER IN TIN

By CARL A. PETERSON

Chapter 24 It was about six in the morning when I got back to the Hotel Famoso. I don't feel like going up to my room. The city was still asleep or almost asleep. I entered a little American-styled restaurant on San Juan de Letran and ordered cafe con leche. "Pan dulce?" the waitress said. Pan dulce, sweet bread or breakfast cakes. Her thin face reminded me of Lila's and I wondered where Lila was. And what was the smart thing to do now? Personally, I could do little. The only hope was that our dual government apparatus would finally start moving.

that all there was to my heroics? Ten to one, Johnson and his crowd weren't in any coma now. Even Chevalle had been able to make decisions. The damned crew, I thought: Johnson, Chevalle, Mirtilo, Hernandez, Loomis! Clerks were pushing up the iron shutters. The sun shone on the plate-glass windows. The morning was on its way. The morning papers would soon be out with the scarehead headlines: 'Lila Taggard, American Girl, Kidnapped by Gestapo.' The Gestapo... They would be damned in hell before this war ended. For their hatred of human values they would be damned! If Lila Taggard was one of them, I wanted no more of her.

The Thrill That Comes Once In A Lifetime

He is standing on the sidewalk of a New York street inside the studio. Irving Rapper, the director, is rehearsing a crowd scene around a big open truck. On the truck are four men and a piano—three of them singing and holding out sheet music for sale to the crowd, the fourth at the keyboard. They're plugging a new tune—in an old Tin Pan Alley manner of the days when sheet music sales gauged a song's popularity. The new tune is "Smiles." That dates the scene—1916. Robert Alda, wearing a straw-cady with a four-color band, a two-color bow tie, a tight suit and buttoned brown shoes, will take his stand-in place at the keyboard when the camera turns.

Alda, dark-haired, dark-eyed, 39, bears a fair resemblance to the late composer he is enacting. But that was not why he was brought to Hollywood. He came as just another prospect. In New York his agent had told him a friend of his, Steve Trilling of Warner Bros. was in town and it might be a good idea to look him up. Trilling sent him west. A month later, he was before the camera as Gershwin, a plum role handed to an unknown because they wanted interest to center on Gershwin rather than on a star.

Mirtlos a. l. Chevalles.

The fight for human dignity and human brotherhood was no easy one, but it was the greatest fight a man could engage in. Hell, I thought: What did these lofty sentiments have to do with my present problem? The answer came to me simple and plain and satisfying and the answer satisfied me. I was going to help wreck the Gestapo if I could.

Three days of newspaper columns ended early on the fourth morning in a fist knocking at the door of my room at the Hotel Famoso.

"Who is it?" I called.

An impatient voice replied "Open up!"

I rushed to the door and flung it open. Out in the corridor, a small middle-aged man nodded at me. He had brown eyes and a thin face and he could have been the double of the corpse I had seen. He could have been Lathrop from the looks of him.

"What did you say your name was?" I asked.

"Sam Taggard. Don't stand there like a dummy, let me in. There's no time to loose."

Customers Fail To Appreciate Cut In Food Price Levels

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14, (AP)—That labor department report of a decline in food prices in cities sounded as pleasant as a shower in drought-time but, an unofficial survey showed, it didn't soak in with a lot of customers.

Many people in different parts of the country said they had not discerned any 2 per cent decrease, as the department reported for the mid-June-Mid July period. It may have been because their areas were not affected by the reported decline, or because they haven't been buying the items said to have lessened in cost.

But a Memphis housewife suggested that the labor department was mistaken. She said "I think they'd better check their statistics again prices just keep getting higher and higher."

Comments on Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins' announcement of a decline in food prices included the following from key cities:

NEW ORLEANS — President Lloyd Keller of the City's Retail Grocers Association said that while meat prices dropped 5.8 per cent in the period covered, fresh fruits and vegetables gained 12.7 per cent. "Outside of cabbage, everything else in the grocery line has had a stiff advance," he said.

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) said he had talked with hundreds of consumers and distributors "and haven't heard any expression to bear out those figures." He said they were "a complete surprise to me" as "the trend here is toward rising costs."

PITTSBURGH — "Yes," said a cooperative broker, "there might have been a decrease. Look how the cost of potatoes has dropped."

RICHMOND, Va. — Frank W. Whitlock, manager of an association of independent grocers—"I haven't seen any cutback in prices. I wish they'd prove to me that prices are dropping."

LOS ANGELES — Sam White, executive secretary of the Southern California Retail Grocers Association, 1,400 stores, and that "except for vegetables, which

Officer's Memory For Faces Bad Luck For Suspect

A liquor board inspector's good memory landed J. W. Ivy of Lamesa in jail here Saturday where he is being held for return to Lamesa to face charges of "hot checking."

J. T. Morgan, liquor control board inspector, had picked up Ivy several months ago on a charge of transporting liquor and he was subsequently filed on in Dawson county court for the charge. This week he pleaded guilty and asked to pay his fine by check.

His bank reported he had sufficient money, but Ivy drew out his funds before the check was cleared through the bank and then headed out of town with a woman companion. Saturday morning Morgan saw him in Big Spring sitting in a travel bureau car, recognized him and turned him over to the sheriff's department.

"Come in."

"That's better." He strode into the room, dropped his body into a chair and said.

"Sit down for God's sake. And shut the door."
