IN AN EFFORT to "cut down expenses," the Austin office friend, for the cat keeps away of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission has mice, etc. The third spoke up ordered the Pampa office to discontinue taking claims and said he believed that the from veterans and other civilians in McLean.

What does this mean? It means that in the future those wanted to know why. "Well," said people who filed for unemployment claims in McLean Will the third man, "when the female nave to go to Shamrock to place their claims. The News alligator lays eggs, she lays 1,000 has no figures on the number of people who ordinarily flit at a time. The male alligator for the claims, but it is probably in the neighborhood of them proceeds to eat 999 of those about 50 at a time.

In the past, the Pampa representative stopped here, and hatched. Therefore I believe that accepted the various claims, and those people who lived the male alligator is man's best either in town or close to town did not have far to go. Now they will have to go to Shamrock to file their claims.

It is agreed that Shamrock isn't far away. But it should also be noted that the Pampa representative will, in all likelinood, pass through McLean on his way to Shamrock to accept claims from people in McLean. What we don't understand is where the expenses are going to be cut down to any extent. But we can easily figure out that those people who live here and go to Shamrock are going about. That is the case with me to be out money for the trip, even though it isn't far.

Another feature we don't like about it is that we know her write a brief essay on the full well some of the people who go to Shamrock will be word "column." doing a bit of shopping while there. And that shopping It so happens that we have one would probably be done here—if those people hadn't found of those large dictionaries in the it necessary to make the Shamrock trip any way.

In other words, it's not only costing the people who file the "laims, but also the McLean merchants. That's putting it frankly, and that's the way ... meant it.

Now what's to be done about it? That is up to all of us. We realize that actually the change in the commission's policy isn't going to hurt any of us very badly. But we also realize it's another step towards losing some business and some prestige. The stopping point to this loss has got to come fairly soon, and it seems that now is the pest time in the world to apply the brakes.

These are merely words. Action speaks much louder.

Revival Closes At Methodist

The ten-day revival meeting at the First Methodist Church in McLean closed last Sunday night with much success reported by the pastor, Rev. H. A. Longino.

The services were conducted by Dr. Frank L. Turner of Fort Worth. Rev. Longino issued the following statement concerning the

"When a meeting has closed, e pastor finds himself realizing anew just how much of the work of the church is dependent on the membership. Many of the members have shown themselves untiring workers for God's Kingdom through their church. We are grateful for the fine spirit of cooperation that prevails.

"Dr. Turner was well liked before the meeting began and he is better liked now, having heard his rich and most helpful messages through this series. He is very happy over the results and the fine work done on the part of the congregation. Nineteen persons oined by letter of transfer, pro-'essin, and otherwise; a total of 38 new members since conference ast November. Others are conemplating placing their membership with us later. Dr. Turner expressed himself very graciously for the fine expression of appreclation thrugh the offering. I am indebted to this congregation for your fine spirit, deep spiritual cooperation, and your financial support of the meeting. The church has been greatly renewed and we thall look forward to greater days "Now that Baster is soon to come, may we count on you for egular attendance and assistance
