

McLean Golf Club to Operate This Summer

In an attempt to forget the war years when most types of recreation were set aside in an effort to aid in the war program, members of the McLean Golf Club are making plans to operate the golf course again this year.

The announcement that the club is planning to operate this summer was made by M. D. Bentley, president, this week.

A few memberships will be sold, Bentley said, and may be applied for through the secretary of the group, W. E. Bogan.

"Someone has wisely said, 'All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy,' and I think this applies both mentally and physically," the president said.

"The McLean Golf Club, along with many other civic clubs during the late World War, ceased to function, and trained all its energies on aid to our country.

"But now it seems that we might soon be able to enjoy a little wholesome recreation, such as golf provides. And I know of no field that offers a higher type of recreation sport than golf offers.

"Golf is not only recreational but very interesting to anyone who has a pleasant slant on life, and the other kind need it much more.

"The club is now making plans to operate this season, and we have a few memberships for sale. If you are interested, see the secretary, W. E. Bogan," Bentley concluded.

Smallwood and Pittman Buy Modern Market

Sale of the Modern Market, McLean grocery, by C. O. Ward of Pampa to Lafa Smallwood and M. L. Pittman was announced this week. The store will be known in the future as the McLean Food Store.

Smallwood, who has been managing the store for the past five months, and Pittman, who has been making his home at Brice, took over management of the store Monday morning.

The new managers closed the store Tuesday, Wednesday, today and Friday for remodeling and repainting, and will have their grand opening Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Smallwood came to McLean November 1, when he took over the management of the store from Buddy Francis. Smallwood came to McLean from Amarillo where he had been connected with Carlton-Florey, wholesale grocers, for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Pittman moved this week from Brice, where he had been engaged in farming since 1915. He has sold his farm there, and is now looking for a place to live in McLean. Moving to McLean with them is Mrs. R. L. Smallwood, mother of Lafa Smallwood and Mrs. Pittman.

The new owners of the store stated this week that during the days they are closed, they plan to remodel the store completely.

Simultaneous Revivals Gain Momentum

The Baptist simultaneous revival movement in Texas is gaining momentum as it goes along, Rev. Oliver D. Riley, chairman of a committee on publicity for the North Fork Baptist Association, declared this week.

McLEAN SERVICES

In connection with the revivals throughout the Panhandle, the McLean First Baptist Church will hold a revival beginning Sunday, April 6, Rev. W. R. Lawrence, pastor, announced this week.

The revival will be conducted by Rev. John Ray Stephens of Iola, and song services will be in charge of William D. Kidd of Clarendon.

The meeting will commence Sunday morning, April 6, and continue for two weeks through Sunday, April 20, Rev. Lawrence said.

"Reports coming in from the various associations where revivals have already been held state that there have been almost as many additions to the churches during the two weeks simultaneous revival as there were all last year.

Some of the individual churches are reporting more additions than they had all last year," Rev. Riley said.

"Thus we see that there is advantage in the concerted and simultaneous revival efforts," the committee chairman declared.

Plans and preparations are being rushed to completion for the simultaneous campaign in the North Fork Association April 6-29. Approximately 29 of the 25 churches in the association are going to participate. Three other associations in the Panhandle are going to conduct their simultaneous campaigns at the same time.

Baptist churches from King County on the south to the Oklahoma Panhandle on the north will be having evangelistic meetings at the same time.

C. of C. Survey Begins; Outcome Still Unknown

A survey to determine whether the McLean chamber of commerce can finance a program to include a full-time paid manager was begun last week-end, but has not yet been completed.

No definite statement concerning the outcome of the survey was made this week by Ruel Smith, newly-elected president of the organization, since all committeemen making the survey had not completed their work.

Directors of the chamber of commerce decided to make the survey following a meeting last week. A number of business men and individuals have already been contacted, with a few dissenting, but with most of them regarding the idea with favor.

The committeemen are not asking for any definite amount from any business men or other individuals, but are asking that whatever is pledged be pledged for at least six months in order to give the paid manager project a chance to prove its worth.

A number of the business men contacted have made pledges already, and have agreed to make their payments monthly for at least six months. Should it be found at the end of that time that the project is not feasible, then the monthly collections will cease, the directors explained.

If the survey reveals that sufficient money can be raised to finance a paid manager, the first collections will be made as soon possible, the directors said.

Springtime Continues to Reign in Area

Balmy, spring weather continued Sunday in the McLean area this week, despite predictions of old-timers that Easter will bring on another siege of winter.

The hottest day of the week came Sunday, when the thermometer neared the 80-degree mark. Coats came off during the day, but early Monday morning found the temperature down to the chilly mark.

But for the first time in several months, a week passed without sign of frost or freezing weather.

There was no precipitation, either, although farmers were asking for moisture for seasoning the ground before cotton-planting time rolls around.

Rev. Ernst, who addressed the congregation here several weeks ago, was given unanimous approval by the members. He will be here for the Easter services, and if he accepts the call he will probably take over the pastorate some time in June.

Rev. S. R. Jones will deliver the morning sermon next Sunday, it was announced.

A ticket committee composed of Jack Mercer, chairman, Lester Dysart, W. E. Bogan, and Odell Mantooth has been appointed by Lions President Cleo Meharg to work with members of the McLean Garden Club in selling tickets to the show.

All proceeds from the minstrel show will go to the Garden Club's tennis court fund.

Rites Held at Alanreed for Mrs. Sherrod

Funeral services for Mrs. J. W. Sherrod, mother of Roy Sherrod of Alanreed, were held at the Alanreed Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, with Rev. Hal Upchurch of Clarendon, assisted by Rev. Harris Ray of Alanreed, conducting the rites.

Mrs. Sherrod, 80 years of age, died at Norman, Okla., Saturday morning. She had been making her home with a daughter, Mrs. J. C. Todd of Norman. Interment was in the Alanreed cemetery under the direction of the Womack Funeral Home of McLean.

Mrs. Sherrod was born February 10, 1867, in Alabama, and came to this area from Bonham with her husband in 1889. They settled on a farm east of Norman, and lived there until 1911 when they moved to Gray County.

Following her husband's death in 1919, Mrs. Sherrod continued to live in Gray County until a few years ago when she moved to Norman to make her home with Mrs. Todd. She was a member of the Baptist church.

Survivors include two sons, Roy Sherrod of Alanreed and Pearson Sherrod of Plainview; four daughters, Mrs. Todd, Mrs. C. E. Greenwood of Wichita Falls, Mrs. L. F. Wilkins and Mrs. Alta Steger of Las Angeles, Calif.; 20 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren; a brother, John Pearson of Wellston, Okla.; and two sisters, Mrs. Sam Christian of Wellston, and Mrs. Sally Clessent of Independence, Mo.

Funeral services were held at the Womack Funeral Home of McLean.

Call Extended To Rev. Ernst

A call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church in McLean has been extended to Rev. Karl Ernst, who is now attending school in Princeton, N. J., it was announced by officials of the church.

Rev. Ernst, who addressed the congregation here several weeks ago, was given unanimous approval by the members. He will be here for the Easter services, and if he accepts the call he will probably take over the pastorate some time in June.

Rev. S. R. Jones will deliver the morning sermon next Sunday, it was announced.

Mrs. Stephens, Former Local Resident, Dies

Mrs. Pernela J. Stephens, mother of Mrs. Frank P. Wilson of McLean, died Friday of last week in Dallas, where she had been making her home for the past month and a half.

Mrs. Stephens, wife of the late W. C. Stephens, made her home in McLean for a number of years. Mr. Stephens was buried here following his death several years ago.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday afternoon at the Methodist Church in McLean, with Rev. H. A. Longino, pastor, conducting. Interment was in Hillcrest cemetery under the direction of the Womack Funeral Home of McLean.

Mrs. Stephens, 88 years, 5 months, and 21 days of age, was born September 30, 1858, in Arkansas, and came to Texas during the Civil War. She first moved with her family to Clifton, and on January 5, 1874, was united in marriage to W. C. Stephens in McClellan County.

They settled near Dumas in 1896, and were among the first to settle in that area. Their home was known as the headquarters of that community. Stephens, a well-known rancher of the Panhandle, preceded her in death about 24 years ago.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Wilson of McLean, Mrs. R. D. Stratton of Atascosa, Mrs. Eva Jeter of Houston, and Mrs. Vern Gerecy of Reed Springs, Mo.

Funeral services were held at the Womack Funeral Home of McLean.

1946 Cotton Crop Light When Only 965 Bales Ginned

That the cotton crop last fall was not what it should have been was in evidence this week when the official report was made that Gray County gins handled only 965 bales of cotton, from the 1946 crop.

The report, made by R. H. Wilson, special agent for the bureau of the census of the department of commerce, compared with 1,282 bales ginned by Gray County gins from the crop of 1945.

Wilson's report was the final report of the year, since the three gins, two here and one at Alanreed, have ceased operating for the season.

Eleven Seeking Five Vacancies In City Offices

The city political situation tightened last week-end to a near breaking point when one of the candidates for mayor, E. J. Lander, withdrew from the race, but early this week indications were that the leveling-off point had been reached as interest gained its peak and seemingly remained at a high point.

The election, which has caused more "talk" than any race in a number of years, will be held Tuesday, April 1, when qualified voters will cast their ballots and choose from a field of 11 candidates five men to serve them for the coming two years.

To be elected are a mayor, two aldermen, a city marshal, and a city secretary—and each office is being sought by two or more candidates.

The official ballot lists Boyd Meador, incumbent, and Harris King as mayoral candidates. Lander, whose name was filed about two weeks ago, withdrew from the race last week-end. Lander gave no definite reason for his withdrawal, but has issued a formal statement in a paid space in this week's issue of The News.

Candidates for the two vacancies in the city council are Charles E. Cooke, now a member of the council, Roger Powers, O. L. Barr, and R. T. Dickinson. The two men receiving the highest number of votes will be elected.

In the city secretary's race are two men, W. E. Bogan, present city secretary, and D. A. Davis' name was filed for the office on Friday, the final date for filing.

For city marshal are three candidates. They are J. A. Sparks, incumbent, F. J. Mooring, and Lester Carter.

The races got off to a somewhat slow start when five men filed for the five offices. Then the sparks began to fly and 12 candidates had filed by the deadline. Only 11 were left on the ballot, however, when Lander announced his withdrawal last week-end. He was the last of the three to file for the office of mayor.

The polls will open at 8 o'clock and close at 6 o'clock. Erecy Cubine has been named as election judge, it has been announced.

Lions to Honor Senior Class

Nationwide Strike of Phone Workers on April 7 May Affect Only Toll Service of Office Here

As far as is known now, the nation-wide strike on the Bell Telephone System called for April 7 will not affect local telephone service, but will have a direct effect on toll service, Mrs. Velma Betchan, manager of the McLean office of the Southwestern Associated Telephone company, said this week.

Operators in the local office have been informed that the strike has been called against the Bell system, Mrs. Betchan said, but have not yet been called upon to ballot on the strike question. The policy committee of the National Federation of Telephone Workers voted Monday to call the strike on the Bell system at 8 o'clock on the morning of April 7.

The strike would involve 287,000 members of the 39 unions, and would tie up service to users throughout the nation. Should the local operators vote to join the strike, it is possible that only emergency calls—similar to long distance—might be handled.

In Amarillo, operators voted 9 to 1 for the walkout, and joining them will be the Amarillo telephone plant workers. The plant workers voted unanimously to join the operators. Amarillo operators have as their chief issue the desire for a $12 per week raise. The plant workers there stated that their demands concern working conditions as well as pay.

Joseph A. Biene, president of the national federation, has been instructed to contact executives of the American Telephone and Telegraph company not later than April 1 for negotiations. The negotiations sought by the union would cover the $12 weekly wage increase and nine other bargaining items at issue between the union and the employers.

Pfc. Kenneth Simpson returned Monday to Alamogordo, N. M., after a visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Simpson and other relatives.

An Open Letter

To the People of McLean

There is a great deal of talk being spread around town, that I should not be allowed to stay in the race for mayor as I had not bothered to even buy a poll tax! There has been a slight misrepresentation of facts concerning this issue. Each year my poll tax has been taken care of at the time the other taxes are paid. As usual this year I designated a certain portion of the money for poll taxes, but due to an error in the tax office my taxes were miscalculated and the poll tax money was applied on the difference. I did not know until a few days ago, that my poll tax was not in good order. Never before have I been without a paid poll tax receipt, and if anyone is interested, my past record can be checked. This has been a regrettable incident, but I do not feel that the guilt should be laid on any one person.

I am still in the race for mayor with only one objective in mind and that is to do everything in my power to help improve McLean. I have no desire to create ill feelings, or to cause a general upheaval in the City's politics. I do feel, however, that if the people of McLean desire a change they should be allowed the privilege of voting for one. If I am elected, I would like to take the office peaceably and with the good will of all the people.

It is your duty as voters to go to the polls and cast your vote April 1st. This is your town and you should use your vote to help govern it. I urge you to vote regardless of whether you vote for me or my opponent.

If I am elected, let me assure you again, that I will try to fill the office with only the best interests of the town in mind.

I will appreciate your vote.

Harris King,
Candidate for Mayor

Grow Perennial Flowers From Seed

You can save considerable garden money and add new zest to your gardening by growing your own perennial flowers from seed. The best quality seeds cost only a few cents a packet and with simple care will produce scores of plants to bring color and beauty to the garden for years to come. Most perennials grown from seed bloom the second year after sowing.

Seed should be started at about the same time as that of the annuals, such as zinnias and marigolds. The secret of success is to get the seedlings to transplanting size early enough so that when set in their permanent places in garden or border, they will get a good root-hold before cold weather comes on. A specially prepared seed bed or seed box is best for starting perennial seeds. A seed bed can be easily prepared by knocking the bottom out of a good-sized shallow wooden box and sinking the sides into the ground. The top should be about two or three inches above the surface. Use finely prepared, crumbly garden loam containing plenty of humus. It is important to locate the seed bed where it will be sheltered from strong winds and from sunlight during the hottest part of the day. A seed box or flat may also be used, with holes bored in the bottom for drainage. This has the advantage of being movable to sheltered locations when necessary.

Some perennial seeds are very small. Mix them with sand so that they will not be sown too quickly in the row and merely press them into the soil instead of covering them. Larger seeds need a shallow covering of soil. Firm the soil down on them so that they will make immediate contact with the moisture and plant food. Keep the soil moist but not wet until the seeds sprout. Some gardeners spread damp burlap over the surface to furnish needed moisture, removing it at the first sign of sprouting.

Here are a number of perennials that beginners can start from seed with almost sure success: Columbine, gaillardia, coreopsis, hollyhock, painted daisy, sweet william, hardy pinks, hardy alyssum, and the violas.

Perennial seeds usually take somewhat longer to germinate than those of annual flowers. Don't be discouraged if the tiny sprouts do not show themselves for two or three weeks after the seed is sown.

Mrs. J. H. Kisner of Amarillo visited last week-end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Appling.

Mrs. R. T. Dickinson and daughters visited Friday and Saturday in Amarillo.

Three Factors To Influence Cotton Prices

J. D. Campbell, agricultural economist at the Oklahoma Experiment station, lists three factors affecting future cotton prices in the current issue of "Current Farm Economics."

The factors listed are: Large current supplies of unfinished goods in manufacturers' inventories, probable increase in foreign cotton production, and possible shifts in consumer buying from soft to durable goods.

Campbell states that although foreign production may increase, accumulated foreign demands are still very large. Prospects indicate the continuation or an increase in exports for the next few years if foreign nations can make their demands effective through loans or other means.

Private sources predict a cotton acreage of between 19 and 20 million acres for 1947, three million acres less than the goal suggested by the Department of Agr. Culture.

Reasons for the expected low acreage are resultants of high livestock, continued scarcity of prices of alternative crops and farm machinery supplies and labor shortages. The economist states that labor for hand harvesting cotton may continue to be scarce and that therefore a production increase will not be great.

Egg Demand May Continue

Strong egg demands are expected to continue through the first part of 1947 according to K. C. Davis in an article in the current issue of "Current Farm Economics."

Based on an annual per capita consumption, the agricultural economist stated that the demand is likely to decline during the second period of the year.

Government support price policies are likely to hold United States producers out of the foreign market. Foreign demands are expected to be effective, but comparative prices of the United States, Denmark, Canada, Argentina and Australia will determine the extent of exports from the United States.

Davis said that if the prices of farmer purchases continue to increase and his income decrease then the support price at 90 per cent of parity would shove egg prices so high that producers would be "out of the world market."

The 1947 egg supply will probably be from five to 10 per cent lower than the 1946 production. The decrease will result primarily from a reduction in the number of potential layers on American farms.

ARE WE TO STAY IN THE REAR RANKS?

TWENTY-FIVE years ago, residents of McLean were unaware of the importance of highways, including U. S. Highway 66. Little thought was given to highways, and the automobile was still in its infancy—only a few people had them at that time.

Twenty-five years from now there will probably be something else which won't seem so important at the time. What it will be, no one knows for sure.

But today—and not ten years from now—the airplane is coming into its own, just as the auto was 25 or 30 years ago.

And McLean has no airport. It might be pointed out that surrounding towns do have airports—Shamrock, Clarendon, Wellington, and of course, Pampa. But McLean has none.

Aren't we getting behind in letting our plans for an airport drag? Perhaps you don't think so, but perhaps you hadn't given the idea much thought.

Already one resident of McLean is the owner of an airplane, yet he has no place to land it and is being forced to construct a make-shift landing. About ten days ago, a son of one couple living in McLean flew here from Plainview to spend the day, and had to land on the rough land near the depot. This happens frequently.

Many officials of the Warren Oil Corporation and the American Petroleum Corporation fly in their business trips. Why seldom visit the McLean office. Why? Because there is no suitable place to land, and the time required for them to ride from the Shamrock or Pampa airports is almost as long as a plane ride from Tulsa to Pampa.

Yes, there are many reasons why we should have an airport. And it wouldn't be hard to get one. We ask again—aren't we getting behind in letting our plans for an airport drag?

Tentative date for the Lions Club minstrel show has been set for April 24, and, if the show is funny—and silly—as some of the early rehearsals have been, you can depend on a full evening's entertainment. So far the colored folks will consist of Larry Sanders, Dr. R. C. McNett, Emory Crockett, C. W. Bogan, D. A. Davis, John Cooper, Clee Meharg, and E. L. Price, and, believe it or not, they make pretty good Negroes. There will be others all backed up, with specialty numbers, and the high school chorus will be on the stage to furnish a colorful and musical background. The proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Garden Club, and that organization will use it to aid in the construction of two concrete tennis courts in the city park. As a member of the Lions Club, and as one who would like very much to see the tennis courts constructed, I am urging you, even this early, to make your plans to attend the minstrel show. I honestly believe you'll get your money's worth in good old "belly laughs." But if you don't think you get your money's worth, please don't ask for a refund!

Events leading up to the city election, to be held here next Tuesday, have been quite interesting and warm, and have also been very confusing to me. Since I don't know much about the background of the town, or the citizens, I am sorta lost, kinda like the mouse in a maze. The one good thing about a hot election, either city, county, state, or national, is that the citizens begin thinking about their government. They delve into things which they would not otherwise pay much attention to, and sometimes vote accordingly. Of course, there are many who do no research of their own, but merely take the word of others, which is also quite confusing sometimes. Both of these cases have been happening here, on both sides of the political races. The News would like to urge all citizens who are voters to turn out next Tuesday and vote. We don't care how you vote—just vote. Only in that way can the people's choices for the various offices be chosen.

To Mrs. B. L. Webb, the writer of the very interesting article, I want to say thanks again. Mrs. Webb probably has more readers of her article than any other story or stories in the paper. Nearly everyone I see who mentions the paper at all, mentions Mrs. Webb and her articles. They are good, and I'm of the opinion that the "hoss tradin'" story of last week was one of the best I've never done any "hoss tradin'", but I know for sure that I wouldn't want to start in on such a career with either "Pa" or Ed Howard. I'd probably wind up with a horse blind in both eyes.

Not long ago, I attended the annual dinner of the chamber of commerce in Taylor, where I went to school, away back in the fifth grade. Got a Cold? Here's Reason

What causes colds? Colds are caused by germs too small to be seen under a powerful microscope, they are known as "Filterable Virus." They are present in discharges from nose and throat. They are spread from person to person by sneezing, coughing, spitting, or on any freshly contaminated article, as a drinking glass, which will pass on the infected saliva. A cold is not likely to be passed on during the first 24 hours.

If we could each live like a hermit, apart from others, we would probably never "catch cold." People living in Greenland and Labrador, we are told, do not have colds in winter even when exposed to the most severe weather.

The busy person in everyday life cannot avoid exposure to colds. We expect to be sprayed by careless coughers and sneezers. Young children, elderly people and invalids who suffer most from the effects of a cold should certainly be protected from those who have colds. Children with colds should be kept home from schools, and if rest and light food do not help the cold to disappear shortly, the family physician should be called. This may not be a cold but even more serious, as most of the communicable diseases start with some of the symptoms of a cold.

What can we do to avoid colds that cause more loss of time from industry and schools than all the other diseases combined? Have your own cup and glass at home and elsewhere; dress for the weather; eat a balanced diet; get plenty of rest; keep away from persons with colds.

Colds are costly. Prevent them if possible.

Take Care of Your Garden

The time to kill weeds in your garden is before they begin to grow! Hoeing the surface soil in vegetable or flower garden not only destroys sprouting weed seeds; it actually prevents their germination. As soon as the seedlings break through in the garden rows so that they can easily be seen, it is time to begin stirring the soil between rows and as close to the plants as possible without disturbing them. Either a hand hoe or a wheel hoe is an excellent tool.

If it rains a few days after the first cultivation, stir the surface soil again as soon as it is dry enough, but do not wait longer than a week before cultivating a second time, rain or no rain, unless the ground is too wet to work.

Weeds within the row will probably have to be removed by hand while the plants are small. Some gardeners find an old kitchen knife a handy helper. Or, a hand weeder is a convenient tool. As plants grow larger, they usually dominate so that weeds in the row do not prove troublesome. Onions are one exception; the spear-like leaves do not shade the ground enough to keep down the husky weeds.

For the good of the vegetables and flowers and for the sake of a garden's appearance, it is important to cultivate all through the gardening season. Besides keeping ahead of the weeds, tilling the surface soil lightly forms a mulch to prevent evaporation of moisture. It is particularly essential to stir the soil around plants as soon as soil and plants are dry enough after every rain. Care should be taken, however, not to dig so deeply near the plants as to injure the roots.

Another reason for cultivating the garden all summer is that stirring the soil allows air to enter. Next to moisture, ventilation is one of the most valuable means of releasing soil food to growing plants.

Artificial Breeding Best Way to Raise U. S. Milk Quality

Artificial insemination offers the best means yet discovered for establishing a high genetic value for milk and butterfat production in our national dairy herd, says E. R. Berousek, Oklahoma A. and M. College dairyman.

The first dairy cattle artificial insemination association in America was organized in May, 1933, at Clinton, N. J. By January 1, 1946, there were 73,293 herds consisting of 379,477 cows enrolled in artificial insemination associations.

Economically, the association is a means of increasing profits and raising the standard of living," Berousek says. This is due largely to the educational program of the association which stresses feeding and management, which are equally as important as breeding.

Thus the breeder becomes quality-conscious and looks to the purebred for seed stock.

Advantages of artificial insemination as listed by Berousek show that the usefulness of superior sires may be increased many times. Small breeders may dispense with keeping a bull and through artificial insemination may participate in use of a bull of outstanding merit.

It also offers the opportunity to prove young bulls quickly at minimum risk to breeders and the danger of spreading certain genital diseases is materially reduced. Infertile bulls are likely to be detected earlier than in natural breeding.

To the Tax Payers:

Twenty years ago your City was bankrupt. Taxation and evaluation at that time was almost equal to what it is today. TODAY your City is in one of the best financial conditions of any City or TOWN within the State of Texas.

TAXATION is a revenue derived directly from a levy placed against your property and for which your property must guarantee this tax. The tax rate of McLean is below the average tax rate in similar towns within the State of Texas.

The City Council and your Mayors have given time and thought without compensation, except for a small salary to the Mayor, to bring about the present financial condition of your City. Economy has more or less been the watchword. Improvements have been made where they were justified, but not unnecessarily. Our net worth has more than been doubled. Our bonds and warrants have been steadily reduced. Very, very little money has been spent which was not lawfully authorized. The Council or Mayor cannot legally spend or appropriate money which is not authorized by law. It is very well for your City officials to be civic minded, but legal limitations are placed upon them so far as promotion schemes by the City governing body are concerned. This must be handled by them as individuals, and their own personal monies used. The money of the tax payer, or the citizenship, which includes money derived from all sources, cannot be and must not be used as mentioned above for promotions or personal gains.

Criticism has been heaped against your present administration and prior administrations for failure to keep the citizenship properly informed. Meetings and records are public property. Audits by competent Auditors are on file. It seems to me like a person properly interested at times other than election dates would take a little of his time, the same as the council gives free, and attend some of these meetings to see what was going on or at least peruse records before becoming agitated and walking the streets spreading information which he knows nothing about.

Your CITY has a sizeable cash fund built up. Considerable pressure has been put on the City to build a swimming pool, etc. This pool would cost complete with bath houses around FIFTEEN thousand, which your present administration thinks is far too much. We have decided to assist in a tennis court at a nominal figure. Other recreational projects might be undertaken when costs are reduced. No clear thinking tax payer would consent to such an expenditure for the benefit of a few.

OUR INTENTIONS on the fund we have saved and created is to retire the tail end of your long time bonds which will afford a BIG saving to the tax payer. We arranged our bond issue so we could pay off the tail end bonds to make these savings. The first bonds and warrants due are being paid as they mature.

Plans are under way to create a yearly saving to all our citizenship, not through reduction of taxes, but from other sources. Reduction of taxes would not affect our entire citizenship.

The City Officials welcome your presence at our meetings. We also solicit constructive criticism. Our records are yours and open to inspection. Let's all work together and what we do, try to do right and legally for the best interest of our City.

I have decided to withdraw from the present Mayor's race for reasons which I think are to my best interest.

Thank you,

E. J. Lander

GOOD SEED IS LIKE A GOOD FRIEND—IT GROWS ON YOU

Been thinkin' that my COTTON CROP ain't a-goin' to be no better than the SEED I PLANT. Cindy . . . My Woman! declares that a Cotton Farmer that knowin'ly plants a poor seed ought to have to live on a CRACKER A DAY.

She's axidin' o'course . . . but it IS somethin' to pause on . . . plantin' POOR SEED . . . and . . . eatin' them crackers. It makes sense . . . don't it?

Like I done told ya . . . seems to be plenty of all farm crops 'ceptin' COTTON and with them new Machine Gadgets for Choppin' and Pickin' about ready . . . Cotton Is Gonna Be My Crop.

Went down to see about gettin' pure plantin' seed. You know a good seed is like a good friend . . . it just grows on ya. Shore was surprised in the price. Last year, seed I had for sale, doubled in price . . . but pure plantin' seed air up only about one-fourth . . . that ain't bad . . . makes our seed about as cheap as them crackers of Cindy's.

Say . . . go visit them Elk Cottonoil boys . . . they air shore plumb Friendly and Helpful . . . might pay ya . . . That's where I got my good seed.

Sincerely,
Cotton Ed.

To the Voters of the City of McLean

In announcing for the position of City Secretary I have two main reasons for doing so.

First, that you might have the choice of more than one candidate.

Second, that my experience as an accountant and my dealings with the public qualifies me for the position.

I will show no favoritism but will administer the duties as your Secretary in accordance to the laws and ordinances passed by your City Council and Mayor. I believe as tax payers you should have the right to know how and for what your money is being spent and that city improvements should be fairly and equally distributed.

Any errors in your water, gas or taxes will be gladly corrected if it is in my power to do so. Otherwise it will be reported to your City Council for proper adjustments.

I am one of your citizens, I own my home in McLean and am for anything that will help make our town more progressive and prosperous. If elected I pledge you my full support and cooperation with the City Council, your Mayor, and the entire citizenship of McLean.

Your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated.

Yours to serve,

D. A. Davis

PEPPARD'S FUNK-G HYBRID

The Great Corn for TEXAS

Texas Farmers themselves proved the superiority of Peppard's Funk-G Hybrids to their own and their neighbors' satisfaction. More than a thousand Texas Farmers planted research plots of Peppard's Hybrids in every Texas corn region before a bushel was offered for sale. Now Peppard's Hybrids are Deeply A Part of Texas. Peppard's are hard put to produce enough seed to supply the skyrocketing demand—Don't wait until planting time . . .

To the Voters of McLean

I have never asked for the office of Mayor and am not making any campaign in this election.

In my opinion, the honor to serve in this capacity is subject, always, to the will of the qualified voters in the City of McLean.

If re-elected, I will continue to devote my best efforts in behalf of all of the people.
