YMCA Building Fund Nearing Half Way Mark

With the YMCA building campaign fund pressing the half way mark, Cliff Wiley, general chairman, was hopeful Friday that the permanent home project was swinging into full stride.

Estimates at noon were that there was approximately $19,000 raised and pledged toward the $40,000 program. A number of prospect cards were still unreported, said the chairman, and he appealed to workers to complete contacts as rapidly as possible.

Two days of effort had increased the YMCA fund from $12,000 subscribed informally in previous effort, by approximately $7,000, according to reports from campaign headquarters. Women workers have shown a substantial edge over the men representatives thus far.

HEAVY DAMAGE REPORTED

Hailstorms Strike West Texas Towns

Jolting hail storms struck several West Texas communities last night and early today.

Hardest hit were Kermit and Big Lake. In each case, the hail, rain and wind were the worst in local history.

The hailstorms took the weather spotlight from Victoria and in South Texas, where the swollen Guadalupe river was climbing to dangerous heights.

Every roof in Big Lake was damaged and all west windows knocked out. Big Lake is 68 miles west of San Angelo.

Big Lake's new elementary school and gymnasium were severely damaged by water. Broken windows allowed the soaking 3.25-inch rain to pour into the building.

The usually-dry Big Lake, near the town of Big Lake, was full of water for the first time in more than ten years.

Meanwhile Kermit in West Texas counted damage in the thousands of dollars after the city's worst hail, rain and wind storm in history.

The storm struck Kermit late last night. New houses escaped without broken window panes. Hundreds of house tops were damaged.

A 35-minute blitz of wind, dust, hail and then rain struck Odessa last night, disrupting power for several hours, smashing windows, but causing only light damage.

Funerals were held yesterday at Los Garzas, little farming community five miles west of Rio Grande City, for two brothers drowned Tuesday night in the swollen Rio Grande. The boys, Noe Perez, 10, and Gilberto, 12, slipped into a hole while swimming after school.

Midland, also in West Texas, had 1.15 inches of rain but it was welcomed in the cattle country. Midland and its ranch territory have had 6.44 inches of rain so far this year.

The Guadalupe was rising slowly but relentlessly at Victoria. By 8:30 a. m. the high water had reached a stage of 25.75. Sometime this afternoon a crest of up to 28 feet—seven feet out of the banks—was expected.

There was no danger of Victoria itself being flooded, and other smaller towns along the river also are built on high ground.

But lowlands around Victoria and near Bloomington south of Victoria were being inundated. Farmers already had evacuated their stock.

Young corn and cotton crops in the bottomlands were almost certain to be flooded.

Over the state, thunderstorms continued. Heaviest rain for the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a. m. were at San Angelo, 1.23 inches, and Mineral Wells 1.02 inches. Childress reported .86 of an inch.

While points west and south were being buffeted by violent storms, Big Spring and area soaked in showers ranging from a quarter to an inch Wednesday night.

The U. S. weather bureau reported .23 of an inch and the U. S. experiment farm measured .20.

Ackerly estimated half a inch. Stanton about a quarter of an inch with Central Martin county getting upwards of an inch. Telephone communications to Forsan and Garden City were disrupted by the rain and booming electrical displays and no reports on rainfall in that sector were available.

Coahoma had two brisk showers at 10 p. m. and 2 a. m., leaving water-standing Thursday. No communications had been received from the Chalk and Vincent areas, but Vincent had a hard shower at 10 a. m. Wednesday that left terraces brimming with water.

Planting over the area was halted after several days of intense effort.

Talks With Reds Reach Stage Of Final Decision

Russians Expected To Reply Soon To Western Questions

WASHINGTON, April 28. (AP) President Truman said today he believes the Russians are acting in good faith in their new moves toward lifting of the Berlin blockade.

The President told a news conference that if he didn't think the Russian feelers were advanced in good faith, the United States would not be continuing conversations on the matter.

These conversations have now reached the stage of final decision with Russia controlling the next move.

The Soviets were expected to reply soon to the questions raised by the Western Powers on whether their only condition for ending the blockade is western agreement to a meeting of the council of foreign ministers.

The Western Powers already made known their willingness to join such a meeting, once Berlin conditions are restored to normal.

What they are trying to nail down now is the point that Russia does not insist on suspending the organization on non-Communist Western Germany pending the session.

The British - American-French note is reported to have asked the Soviet government to declare officially whether it stands firmly on the blockade lifting proposal released by the Tass news agency in a Moscow dispatch Tuesday.

This proposal represented Russia as being willing to abolish the restrictions on service transportation between Berlin and the western zones of Germany. In exchange, the Russians were said to want a meeting of the big four foreign ministers council to discuss all outstanding German issues involving the four powers.

American authorities appear to be generally convinced.

1. That the Berlin blockade is now hurting Russia more than it ever harmed the West; that the men in the Kremlin must have realized that the success of the air lift in supplying Berlin has become a symbol of western power all over Germany. The Russians therefore are believed to have decided to end the blockade.

2. In thus trying to close out the losing deal the Russians are nevertheless anxious to salvage some advantage for themselves.

Hester Insists He Submitted To Unnatural Acts With Lord

CLEBURNE, April 28. (AP) — Arthur Clayton Hester maintained today that he killed his elderly guardian, Dr. John Lord, as the result of a broken promise.

At his murder trial, Hester said the 70-year-old graduate school dean of Texas Christian University promised to let him use his car if he would submit to an unnatural sex act.

He submitted to such an act, he said, at 6:30 a. m. on March 8, the day the educator was slain.

But when Lord returned from Fort Worth to his lonely farm home near Burleson, Texas, at noon on March 8, he refused to let Hester have the automobile, the youth testified.

According to Hester's testimony, there was an argument outside the house. Then Lord walked into the living room and Hester followed him. Hester struck Lord with a metal rod, then followed him into the bedroom and struck him several more times.

"Did Dr. Lord have any unnatural sex acts with you after you got out of the Navy?" "Yes, four times."

Two hours before the trial was resumed at 9 o'clock today, the courtroom was crowded. Spectators stood in the windows and lined the walls to hear the youth's testimony.

Hester testified in his own behalf last night, saying that "I hit him (Dr. Lord) because I was mad."

He reiterated from the stand today that he entered into an unnatural sex act with the TCU graduate school dean about 6:30 a. m. on March 8. After that, Hester said, he prepared breakfast for himself and Lord.

CLEBURNE, April 28. (AP) — Arthur Clayton Hester stuck to his story on cross examination here today that he submitted to unnatural sex acts with the man he admittedly killed, Dr. John Lord, a dean of Texas Christian University.

Fidgeting nervously in his chair while Dist. Atty. John A. James, Jr., relentlessly fired questions, the 18-year-old youth said he entered into an unnatural sex act with the 70-year-old educator on March 8, the day Lord was killed.

The state charges that Hester bludgeoned his guardian to death about noon on March 8 at Lord's secluded farm home near Burleson. The body was discovered two days later and on March 12 Hester was arrested in Los Angeles.

James drew from the defendant the testimony that out of 23 months and three days in the Navy, he was absent over liberty for four months and 28 days and had spent 13 months and 17 days serving sentences. Hester was dishonorably discharged from the Navy in December, 1948, at Norfolk, Va.

"Since you got out of the Navy, Hester, what are the dates any unnatural sex acts occurred?" the district attorney asked.

"I don't recall the dates exactly," said Hester.

"Did Dr. Lord have any unnatural sex acts with you after you got out of the Navy?"

"Yes, four times."

Two hours before the trial was resumed at 9 o'clock today, the courtroom was crowded. Spectators stood in the windows and lined the walls to hear the youth's testimony.

'Voice From Grave' Backs Up Claimant To Fields Estate

LOS ANGELES, April 28. (AP)—A Follies girl's "voice from the grave" today accented a man's claim that he is the son of the late W. C. Fields and entitled to a share of the comedian's $171,428 estate.

On file in superior court are a deathbed letter written by the showgirl and also letters allegedly written by Fields.

The letters are part of a deposition filed in probate court yesterday.

By in behalf of William Rexford Fields Morris, who claims to be the comedian's son. His whereabouts and occupation were not disclosed.

He is represented by a Boston law firm and by Louis Thomsen, Los Angeles attorney.

A petition accompanying the deposition said statements in its were made April 16 at Onset, Mass., by Bessie Adelaide Witherell, mother of the Follies girl, Bessie Chatterton Poole.

she first learned of the child's existence in a deathbed letter from her daughter which read:

"Darling mother: Well, I am just going to the hospital for an operation and if anything should happen, why I want you and Gram to know I love you. And I have something to tell you.

"I have a son 10 years old who lives with Mrs. Rose Holden, which I want you to take care of and bring up. W. C. Fields is his father. He is named William Rexford Fields Morris. He was born here in New York and I fully believe that Bill will take care of him but in case he does not, why, make him..."

If the son was 10 years old when his mother died in 1928, he now would be 31.

Two letters purportedly written by Fields to the Follies girl in 1925 and 1926 and enclosing money, also were filed. The letters made no reference to a son.

Also filed was a postal card said to have been written by Fields to Mrs. Rose Holden on July 20, 1928. It read in part: "Will you please let me know your new address, also how far in arrears she (Bessie) is and I will keep payments up until she returns."

A receipt dated Nov. 14, 1927, was filed. It reads: "I have received from Mrs. W. C. Fields $38 for taking care of William Fields Holden, signed, Rose Holden."

Austin Says UN To Benefit From Treaty

WASHINGTON, April 28. (AP)—America's chief delegate to the United Nations told senators today the North Atlantic Pact will strengthen the UN and "increase its ability to remove causes of war."

Warren R. Austin made the statement before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in urging approval of the treaty as a step towards peace.

He firmly denied the 12-nation alliance would destroy the United Nations or weaken its efforts toward international unity.

Austin, a former senator himself, followed Secretary of State Acheson in pleading for approval of the pact.

Some senators, however, said that part of Acheson's testimony well may have cost the treaty vital Senate support.

They referred to Acheson's statement that to vote for the pact would be to endorse the administration position "that the United States can and should provide military assistance to the other pact countries."

Sen. Taft of Ohio, chairman of the GOP Policy Committee, told a reporter he regards Acheson's testimony as having linked the 12-nation pact "inseparably" to the proposed $1,450,000,000 foreign arms program.

"I'm against furnishing arms now," Taft said. "I want to support the pact, but Acheson has linked it inseparably to the military program. I don't know what my final decision on the pact will be."

United States ratification of the treaty requires the approval of two thirds of the voting senators.

FREED FROM LIVING TOMB—Paul Mahshak, bearded, tattered and shoeless, sits in a Brooklyn police station following his release from a tomb-like cubicle in a Brooklyn home in which his mother sealed him when World War II broke out. The 33-year-old former college student told police "I'd like to go back." (AP Wirephoto).

WANTS TO SEE LAWYER

Brooklyn Hermit Under Observation

NEW YORK, April 28. (AP)—Brooklyn's bearded hermit, who sat out World War II in a tiny sealed cubbyhole, wants to see a lawyer before he discusses his draft status with federal agents.

U. S. Atty. J. Vincent Keogh said he sent two FBI men to Kings County Hospital yesterday to talk to 33-year-old Paul Makushak, who is under mental observation after 10 years' voluntary entombment.

The FBI agents sought to question the fugitive from the world about apparent failure to register for military service, Keogh said, but Makushak refused to talk "until I speak to my lawyer."

Keogh said no further effort to question the patient would be made until after psychiatrists report on his condition.

Makushak still wants to go back to the tiny cell in his mother's tenement where police found him Tuesday night, filthy, shoeless and in rags.

"If he is ever found sane and released," Brooklyn District Attorney Miles F. McDonald said, "it's a pretty good guess he'll go back in there of his own volition." The 185-pound recluse says he has no use for the outside world, and the district attorney says it was no crime for him to live in the cell.

Makushak's 58-year-old mother, Anna, who passed food to him and guarded his secret for 10 years, was reported in serious condition at Greenpoint Hospital. Her illness led to discovery of the son.

Her estranged husband, Peter, 52, who declares he never knew the son was sealed in the cubbyhole upstairs, said the mother "seemed to go all to pieces" after a younger son, George, died of blood poisoning 16 years ago. She doted on Paul, worrying constantly that she might lose him, too, the father said. The father said he had thought Paul was in Canada the past 10 years.

A next-door neighbor, Mrs. Elsie Kowalski, 23, related yesterday the circumstances leading to discovery of the hermit. Her story was:

Mrs. Makushak, in great pain, went to her late Saturday night and said: "I'm sick. I've got to go to a hospital soon. Now I need your help to give food to my son."

The mother took the young woman to her home, and up a ladder, and through piles of junk to the hermit's cell. There she showed her how to lower food with a rope through a chimney into the enclosure.

"I was very frightened, but I promised to do it," the young neighbor said.

Mrs. Kowalski fed this recluse daily until Mrs. Makushak was taken to the hospital in an ambulance Tuesday. Every time Mrs. Kowalski went to the cell she argued with the hermit to come out, but he refused.

After the mother was taken away, Mrs. Kowalski and her husband notified police.

Seven Eligibles For Derby Run At Keeneland

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 28. (AP)—Keeneland's Blue Grass Stakes has sent only two of its winners on to victory in the Kentucky Derby but today's 24th renewal figured to give Derby bettors a solid second choice in the mutuels if not a victor.

Seven Derby eligibles were ready for the race before scratch time today and they included the well-liked Johns Joy, owned by Arkansas planter J. A. Kinard, Jr., and old Rockport, the Santa Anita Derby winner owned by Clifford Mooers, Texas oil man and Kentucky farmer.

The two horses share second place to Olympia in most Derby guessing, and a victory for either today was figured to establish the real second favorite.

A victory for either would have to be well-earned, however, because their competition came from such other Derby dandies as Greentree Stable's Wine List, Mrs. Royce G. Martin's Hal, Arthur P. Cotter's Petey Cotter, Hal Price Hendley's Shakame and William E. Schmidt's Pancho Supreme.

Old Rockport and Johns Joy were assigned Derby impostes of 126 pounds, Petey Cotter got in with 123 and the others were given 121 each.

Pancho Supreme ran yesterday in a sprint at Keeneland, but there was a chance he would come back today for the mile and one-eighth Blue Grass, which is just a furlong short of the Derby distance.

The big test for every horse in the field was one of distance. Most of the entries had shown they have Derby speed.

Post time for the Blue Grass was 4:30 p. m., Central Standard Time.

Convention, So Quiet Few Knew It Was Here, Nevertheless Good

Closing out a four-day convention here today is the West Texas District Council of the Assemblies of God Churches. Approximately 400 delegates have registered for the 19th annual convocation at the city auditorium.

Because of the nature of the convention, not too many Big Spring people have been aware of it, for there were no parades, no pranking, no fanfare associated with the ordinary convention.

Yet it is the sort of gathering that Big Spring and any community should be proud to have. In a sense it has embodied today of the spirit of the old time camp meetings. The whole core of the thing is spiritual revitalization and moral uplift.

It is therefore with pride and appreciation that Big Spring takes note that it has been honored with the presence of these delegates. Not only will we be better for it, but the good that has been accomplished will radiate out from here over most of the great West Texas area through messengers who are not given to restraints in spreading the good news.

At Least One Lesson Is Clear In Today's Tragedy Of China

It is difficult to assess the role of Chiang Kai-Shek in China and contemporary history. Whether he is a Cincinnatus, called from self-imposed seclusion by a sense of duty, or a Napoleonic character never content to operate from behind the scenes is perhaps less a topic for debate as the significance of his return to lead the fight against the onrush of the Chinese communists.

Chiang emerged from his ancestral retreat voicing a line most calculated to give him an ear in these quarters. The collapse of China, he said, would most surely lead to a third world war. Similarly, William G. Bullitt, former ambassador to Russia, told the Texas legislature that by allowing Russia (the Chinese communists) to conquer China, "We are making certain the coming of a third world war."

This may be true, but it is late in the day to retrieve anything out of the fire, let alone turn the tide. It is apparent now, as it has been for months, nothing short of a miracle can prevent China from being over-run by the Reds. True, they are Chinese Reds, but in political ideology, red is red and red is Russian.

The tragedy has been that China's leadership never rose to the challenge after a heroic and unforgettable stand against the Japanese. The United States found it most difficult if not impossible to deal successfully with Chiang. It might have been cheaper to have smarted at tribute to internal corruption than to face the current consequences. But there was no assurance that it could or would have changed the complexion.

Whatever else we learn from this historic struggle we ought to see clearly what can happen to a nation when too many in power are more concerned about their own skins than the preservation of the nation.

Soviet Blockade Move Is Tacit Recognition Of West's Strength

WASHINGTON, D.C.—IT'S LIKE AN INTERNATIONAL game of tit-for-tat. The cold war, it's been called.

The Russians haven't been winning it. They started strong. Now the West is strong. So it's time for a Russian move.

That's why their talk of calling off the Berlin blockade is no surprise. You can almost chart their moves by the timetable of events.

When the war ended the United States, Britain, France and Russia divided Germany into four zones, each occupying one. And, although Berlin was in the Russian zone, they agreed that each of the four nations would occupy one sector of Berlin. To supply their troops and the Germans in their sectors of Berlin, the western powers had to send the supplies through the Russian zone.

The idea behind the four-power occupation was that someday they'd let the Germans set up their own, new government.

BUT NOW THE TIMETABLE STARTS. By the end of 1947, after several big meetings, it became clear the four wartime Allies couldn't agree on the kind of government they wanted for Germany.

The Russians wanted, generally, a centralized government. The other three nations wanted one that was fairly decentralized.

In the decentralized kind a new Hitler or a revolutionary group like Communists would have a tougher time grabbing control.

So early in 1948 the three western powers began talking of setting up a separate German government in their zones of Germany. The Russians didn't want that.

The Communists grabbed control in Czechoslovakia in February, 1948. On March 1, 1948, the western European countries announced plans to set up a military alliance to defend themselves against attack.

They signed the alliance on March 17. On March 20 a meeting between the representatives of the U. S., Britain, France and Russia broke down at Berlin. The Russians walked out.

Meanwhile, the Marshall Plan was ready. Communists all over Europe denounced it.

IT STARTED APRIL 3 BUT ON APRIL 1 the Russians threw a blockade on Berlin. It wasn't a complete blockade. But it made it a little tougher for the U. S., Britain and France to send supplies into their sectors of Berlin.

On June 7, 1948, the three big western powers agreed on setting up a provisional German government in western Germany. This angered the Russians more. In the meantime, the three western powers and Russia had argued about the kind of money to be used in Berlin.

It must have been a blow to the Russians when on June 11, 1948, the Senate passed a resolution which in effect said the U. S. ought to take part in a military alliance with western Europe.

On June 18, 1948, the three western powers announced they'd reform the money in their zones. And on June 19 the Russians slapped a real blockade on Berlin. Since then the western powers have had to supply their sectors of Berlin with an airlift.

In the months that followed, this country, Canada and the western European countries huddled over the military alliance they'd set up for protection against Russia. The Atlantic Pact, it's called now.

THIS MADE IT CLEAR THE RUSSIANS weren't winning the cold war. And in February a representative of this country and a representative of Russia began talking about the Berlin blockade.

On March 18 the western powers announced they were ready to sign the Atlantic Pact. Three days before that, with the world full of news of the pact, the Russian representative in the UN talked again with the U. S. delegate about the Berlin problem.

On Monday it was announced the Germans had cleared the decks for setting up a new government in the western zones. And this week Russia began talking publicly of lifting the Berlin blockade.

They may think by this they'll block setting up the new government but the western powers say they'll go ahead with the government anyhow.

Footlight Fan Resents New York Talk About 'Dying Of Theater'

NEW YORK—A Broadway theater enthusiast named Arthur William Row became indignant the other day. So he wrote a letter to the editor of "The New York Times," a natural course which many indignant New Yorkers follow.

Mr. Row was sore because of the many New Yorkers who gather in discussions to bemoan "the dying of the theater." Mr. Row correctly pointed out that the theater has been an "invalid" for more than 500 years, but keeps surviving, because a few hardy souls persist in the belief that it will always survive.

He quoted as an example the fabulous Helen Westley, once a director of the New York Theater Guild and also a brilliant character actress both in Broadway and Hollywood productions.

Mr. Row said that the beginning of the Washington Square Players which later blossomed into the New York Guild was a result of Miss Westley getting indignant one day when she and a group of actors, playwrights and scenic artists were discussing the state of the falling theater.

Mr. Row said: "It took the scintillating Helen Westley to bring them up sharp. She characteristically pounded the table and said, 'Here we are, a lot of disgruntled actors out of a job—so what? What are we doing about it? Precisely nothing, as usual, so let's step on it—and begin right now!'"

That was the beginning of a great theater group, and it is heartwarming to see Mr. Row's tribute to Miss Westley as the indignant instigator of such an artistic movement. Miss Westley was a brilliant actress and her offstage personality was as colorful as any of the hundreds of characters she played.

Vandenberg Sets Pace In Grilling Of Men Who Are To Implement West Pact

WASHINGTON — Terse, urgent questions affecting our hopes for peace came boiling to the top the other day behind the closed doors of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Answering them, the men who must implement the North Atlantic Pact were kept under steady fire for 4½ hours.

Big, bull-voiced Sen. Vandenberg set the pace, but each senator got a load of questions off his chest. They combed the pact's fine print for pitfalls and loopholes, and searched for hidden meanings between the lines. As a result, many tough problems were plowed up.

The chief targets in this verbal shooting gallery were Secretary of State Acheson, Secretary of Defense Johnson and ECA Administrator Harriman. They talked brilliantly, but not quite enough, to please the senators.

"I can't be offhand and free about information that involves other countries," Acheson retorted impatiently, when pressed for details.

Johnson also buttoned up during a barrage of questions on atomic energy from Sen. McMahon of Connecticut. The queries were based on secret information which McMahon had learned at the Pentagon, and Johnson objected to going into detail in front of committee clerks. This caused McMahon to declare that he wouldn't support the pact if he couldn't get the information he wanted.

"If the price of the senator's vote," bristled Johnson, "is my violation of what I consider the security of the nation, then we may have to forego the senator's vote."

STAIRS TOO STEEP

To add to the turmoil, the meeting was interrupted 13 times by rollcall votes on the Senate floor. This kept the senators straggling up and down stairs to the Senate floor until 71-year-old Sen. George of Georgia finally snorted in disgust:

"By God, I can't go up and down those stairs any more!"

And he quit the meeting.

Another problem was how much to tell the press. Vandenberg was against issuing any release until the Secretary of State formally presented the military program to Congress. The Michigan Republican warned, however, that "Drew Pearson has a dictaphone hidden in here."

Later, Chairman Tom Connally stamped angrily into the meeting after a trip upstairs to vote. "Somebody has already leaked the amount of the proposed military aid," he thundered. "Some newspaperman told me the figure and asked if that was correct."

Following this incident, it was agreed to release an outline of the $1,120,000,000 plan to help rearm the North Atlantic Treaty nations. Here are other highlights of the meeting.

Sen. Vandenberg wanted to clarify the important question of whether the pact was just another old-fashioned military alliance or a genuine instrument of collective security. He pointed out that the U.N. charter recognizes the right of nations to "collective self-defense" in case of attack.

The charter, however, adds in article 51: "Measures taken by members (of the U.N.) in the exercise of this right of self-defense shall be immediately reported to the Security Council." Does this mean, Vandenberg asked, that the treaty nations must report their secret defense plans to the Security Council — where Russia has easy access? This was something none of them wanted to do, but Sen. Pepper of Florida warned that the pact, itself, promised to abide by the U.N. charter.

Secretary Acheson explained, however, that the only "measures" we are obliged to report to the Security Council are whatever measures must be taken jointly after an armed attack occurs.

ONLY ARMS TO EUROPE? "What I want to know," chimed in Utah's scholarly Sen. Elbert Thomas, "is what do you mean by the rearmament of Europe? One thing Europe knows how to do is arm. The idea of supplying arms seems archaic unless we give them our best bombs and techniques. But if we do that, I am against the whole program."

"The aim of the Atlantic Pact is to bring about an atmosphere to make arms unnecessary. If we are not going to teach the processes of peace, we may as well quit now, because the world knows all the processes of war." Thomas also warned against building up a "United States Army of Europe." Sen. Fulbright of Arkansas, on the other hand, argued that composite army would be more effective than several miniature armies.

Another question, raised by several senators, was whether to furnish Europe with American-made arms or help the treaty nations manufacture their own arms. If the United States tries to produce all the armament needed for the Allied world, the production and logistic problem, it was argued, would be terrific. But, on the other hand, plants built in Europe would be easy prey to the Russians and might be turned against us. No one had a ready answer for this.

Before Sen. George walked out, he was in a negative mood toward anything that cost more money and warned that every move we made in Europe only implicated us deeper. Many senators were also angry with the administration for pushing the arms program before the treaty is even ratified.

Acheson's reply was that the arms program was the only logical way of implementing the pact. Averell Harriman reported that the Marshall Plan had saved Italy from disintegration and had stiffened the upper lip of other western nations. All they needed now was the arms, he declared, to make a strong stand against any aggressor.

Claudette's Bangs Are Conspicuous By Absence

HOLLYWOOD — Another Hollywood landmark has bitten the dust, figuratively speaking. This time it's Claudette Colbert's bangs. She has abandoned them for her role as a Japanese prison camp inmate in "Three Came Back." It will be the first time in 17 years she has appeared without them on the screen.

The film town seemed to be getting more self-conscious. Of the 23 bigtime pictures shooting here, three were about Hollywood.

Charlie Chaplin and Mary Pickford, who have lived the film business these many years with their stormy control of United Artists, almost sold out. But they reneged at the last moment and more lively years for US are assured.

Another edict of full production ahead came out of reactivated Warner Brothers, and two horse operas were put into the works there. At least one star, Alexis Smith, was on suspension.

Some of Selznick studio's property was on the auction block this week, and David O. was soon to be off to Europe to see his potential bride, Jennifer Jones.

Having raised $301,000 for its own needy, big-hearted Hollywood now pledged $448,000 for Jewish relief.

One of the biggest stories of the month involved nothing scandalous, but the fact that a former child star (Shirley Temple) was now eligible to vote.

Reappearance Of 'Flying Disks' Again Touches Off Speculation

It was interesting to learn from an Associated Press dispatch Monday that our old friends, the "flying disks," are back again with us. They were seen at San Diego by no fewer than twelve persons, and it is a foregone conclusion that they will be reported at various other points in the country within the next fortnight.

As when the disks first were sighted two years ago, speculation once more is running rife as to their nature. The theory of mass hypnosis, advanced by some psychological wisecracks at that time, is pretty generally discredited today. According to this theory, people bedeviled by the strains and stresses of modern life, with the threat of atomic war forever hanging over their heads like the sword of Damocles, began to see non-existent things and to communicate their visions to their neighbors. This, of course, was only a polite way of calling a large segment of the American population insane. The theory collapsed when discs eventually were reported by unimpeachable witnesses—scientists, airplane pilots, high-ranking Army officers and other qualified observers.

Although the Army repeatedly has denied that it possesses any weapon remotely like the flying disc, it has made a careful study of the phenomena, and is satisfied that the odd objects are not hallucinations. In other words, those who have reported seeing a flying disc really saw something—what, the Army is not prepared to say. However, Army men are reasonably certain that no foreign power—Russia, for example—has stolen a march upon us.

Considerable attention has been devoted to the hypothesis that the discs are reflections from mirrors manipulated by mischievous boys, or from airplanes, or ground vehicles travelling at great speeds. This undoubtedly at first thought is the most likely explanation, but it falls to pieces when subjected to close scrutiny. The discs have been seen many times under circumstances which entirely ruled out the possibility of reflections, while the uniformity of their appearance, the apparent purposefulness of their flight, and the fact that they are seen only at comparatively rare intervals, all point to the existence of something very solid and substantial.

One group of diehards continues to maintain that the flying discs actually are spaceships, bearing visitors from another planet. If this is true, it would seem that the aliens had plenty of time in which to make up their minds whether they wish to make contact with us. A more sinister possibility is that they may have established a base in some unknown part of the world and merely are awaiting reinforcements from home before they set out to conquer this planet.

It even has been said that spaceships have been visiting the earth for untold thousands of years, but that their highly intelligent occupants have not bothered to make themselves known to mankind, for the simple reason that they do not think it worth the trouble. This supposition certainly is far-fetched; yet we really know so little of the universe in which we live that it might well prove to be the correct one. After all, when we consider the record of mankind on this planet, it is easy to see why our hypothetical visitors from across space would regard us as a race of ignorant, bloody barbarians. — R. G. MACREADY.

West Cautiously Optimistic Over Soviet Offer To Lift Blockade

THE WESTERN ALLIES ARE MOVING cautiously (though hopefully) to make sure they are seeing a real oasis and not a mirage in the startling Soviet offer to lift the German blockade.

The Russians have stated their willingness to abandon the blockade if the democracies in turn will end their counter-blockade and agree to a meeting of the council of foreign ministers to consider the whole German question. It was the Muscovites who ended the foreign ministers council some 16 months ago by walking out on it.

The western powers—America, Britain and France—are prepared to agree, provided the Russians have no further conditions up their sleeve. This caution is inspired by the fact that, by striking coincidence, the Soviet offer comes as the other three allies conclude the agreement for the establishment of a new German republic out of the three western zones, with Russia holding out its eastern zone.

THE WESTERN ALLIES ARE ASKING themselves: "Can Moscow's offer be a trick to disrupt the formation of the German government so that Russia can get complete control of a unified German regime which would include the Soviet zone?" Both Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. military governor in Germany, and U. S. Ambassador Robert D. Murphy, yesterday expressed wariness over the Soviet offer lest there be any doubt regarding it. They have made it crystal clear that they are going ahead with the creation of the new anti-Communist German republic. Gen. Clay declared that even if the Russians lift the blockade "it will have no effect whatever on the West German government."

"We are going ahead with our plans," he said. A tremendous strike toward the rehabilitation of western Europe would seem to have been made in the agreement to establish this government. The date for its inauguration has been set for July 15. The accord naturally ignores Russia, which occupies close to one-third of the old Reich.

Here it should be well noted that the western German leaders aim at a united Germany eventually. They hope a prosperous west German republic will be so attractive to their countrymen in the Soviet zone that a union of the two will be brought about. That could well be, for the Germans are a determined people.

IN ANY EVENT, THE CREATION OF the republic not only will go far towards restoring the morale of the beaten Germans, but will also give a big boost to the ailing economic situation in western Europe. As this column has emphasized so often, prewar Germany was the keystone of European economy. She can approach that mark, and perhaps equal it again, especially if the eastern zone can be added to the republic.

It must not be overlooked that the great industrial Ruhr lies within the new German state—one of the richest industrial areas in the world. The Ruhr remains under international control but eventually will revert to Germany.

Will this encourage the growth of a new militarism in Germany? The Allies have created safeguards against that. While the military governments will end when the republic is inaugurated, the three western powers will appoint civilian high commissioners who will exercise control over western Germany's foreign affairs, foreign trade and various other fields.

Of course there's another way of looking at the Russian offer to lift the blockade. It could be that the Soviet finds she is being hurt more than she is hurting the western Allies by continuing the blockade. It won't be long before that point is cleared up.

Mars' President Finds Jarring Note In Music Of The Spheres

NEW YORK — IN A VAST MANSION on Mars the president of that planet sat listening to the music of the spheres—the melody made by the stars in their courses.

But into the universal symphony came a jarring sound.

"Again that discordant note!" he exclaimed. "This time I'm going to do something about it. It's been ruining my concerts for the last 10,000 years."

So he called his wise men together. They reported:

"Sire, the jarring noise comes from an obscure planet known as the earth, our neighbor in this constellation."

THE PRESIDENT HAD HIS LEADING explorer, Rado, brought to him.

"Rado," said the vexed chieftain, "trot down to earth and see why that flyspeck in the sky is out of tune."

Exactly a year and a day later Rado returned to Mars.

"Well, what is the earth like?" asked the president.

"It is a beautiful globe, washed by soft seas," said Rado. "It is capped at both ends by mountains and wide fields covered with a cool white substance known as snow. And between the caps are green fields and towering cities full of living things."

"Why is it out of tune then?" said the president crossly.

"I think it is the people."

"What in the name of the milky way, are people?"

"There are two forms of life that move about," said the explorer. "One kind is people. The other kind is animals. The people have enslaved some animals and driven the rest into the wilderness."

"How savage!" cried the president. "That explains the discordant note."

$192,000 Damage Suit Filed In Death Of Child
LAMESA, April 28 (AP)—A $192,000 damage suit has been filed in 108th district court here as an outgrowth of the accidental death of Betty Lee Kee, 12.
The child's father, J. D. Kee, filed the suit yesterday against George W. Tucker, a contractor, and the West Texas Gas Company. The child was killed Nov. 19, 1948. The petition charges negligence in allowing a cleaning block belt used to clean a gas line to shoot from the open end of a pipe and strike the child playing in the yard of her home some distance away, forced through the line by air pressure. Betty Lee died several hours after the accident.

Looking 'Em Over

by Tommy Hart

Freddy (Trompoloco) Rodriguez of the Big Spring Broncs, perhaps the Longhorn league's most popular pitcher, from the standpoint of gate appeal, says the competition at Dallas was rough, mighty rough. Roddy had to try and stick with a club that had nothing but veterans and was farming out hurlers right and left.

He wasn't given much chance of showing his stuff and, rather than gamble on him and ante up $3,000 to Big Spring, Bobby Goff of the Dallas club returned him to the Broncs.

The nine innings he worked against Roswell the other night was the first time he had gone the route since last baseball season, but he was stronger in the late innings than when he started. From the fifth inning on, he had all the Roswells, including Manager Bob Cruse, taking half cuts.

Rod weighs about 20 pounds more now than he did at the end of last season. Obviously he is set for a big year.

Freddy was delighted at the news that Big Spring was to get Al Valdez, a veteran catcher from the Havana club. Rod says Valdez boasts a good throwing arm and knows how to handle pitchers, the two big requirements of a catcher.

Pat Stasey, the local straw boss, was expecting Bert Hernandez, the rookies second baseman, to hit his stride along about June 1 and develop into the top keystone in the league. Nek Hernandez is out of the lineup and will be favoring that injured digit for some time. Stasey can only hope it isn't the beginning of a cycle.

BASEBALL SEASON TO RUN ON AND ON

Most every one should know by now that a post season playoff will take place between the champions of the Longhorn and Rio Grande Valley leagues. From all indications, baseball will continue in these parts until the third week in September.

There are many who still think the Longhorn circuit could have done better by arranging a series with the titlists in the Sooner State league.

Eddie Jacome, the ace of the Vernon pitching staff last year is now doing business in the Class B, Southeastern league.

Johnny Jones, the Ballinger right fielder, attended TCU last year. He's a Fort Worth boy, signed by Manager Charles English, himself.

Lou Dawson, the Cats' third sacker, hails from Waxahachie, Paul Richards' home town.

Ted Squillante, the New Yorker playing center field for Ballinger, stands at the plate in a manner suggestive of Joe DiMaggio. Wears his cap like Gulepski, too.

OLD COAHOMA DIAMOND A HAZARD FOR LEFT FIELDER

Coahoma's Bulldogs have moved their diamond in that East Howard county town from the old site near Highway 80 to a spot north of the tracks.

In the old location the left fielder was always in danger of getting run down by a car when he went back for a fly ball.

D. L. Raven, the Knott manager, says the Shaw triplets, Franklin, Delano and Roosevelt who are now 11 years old, are going to make good ball players some day. All three of them make the Knott workouts day in and day out and never miss a game.

COACHING APPLICANT OWNS LAND NEAR HERE

Ed Cherry, the personable Richmond man who applied for the local coaching job (and almost got it), owns considerable land immediately south of here along with his brother, John Cherry, of Big Spring.

Ed wanted to move back to West Texas for a number of reasons. For one thing, he did not think the climate in South Texas is conducive to his wife's health.

Littlefield Discovered High Jumper In U Of T Intra-Mural Track Event

AUSTIN, April 28. — The keen eyes of Texas Track Coach Clyde Littlefield are responsible for the discovery of Bob Walters, Texas high jumper who broke the record at the Kansas Relays last week.

Walters leap of 6 feet 8 3/16 inches at Kansas was the best of the outdoor season.

The double-jointed 6-footer was working out for the school's intra-mural track meet in 1947, his freshman year when Littlefield spotted him.

"He was running around the track in a pair of tennis shoes," Littlefield said. "The tremendous spring in his legs attracted me and I took him over to the high jump pit to see what he could do. I knew nothing of his background, but he seemed to handle himself well."

Actually Walters' high-jumping started in his senior year at Jeff Davis High School in Houston, where he was drafted out of a physical training class for the track team. He took up high jumping with only mediocre success.

Walters worked out only a few weeks in 1947 but reported at the start of the 1948 season. His top jump that year was 6 feet 5 inches.

This year, Walter has won high jump in four of the six meets he has participated in and tied with Olympian Vern McGrew of Rice in two others.

Littlefield attributed Walters' success this year to learning how to train, how to compete, and how to relax.

"He also has developed form and his timing is better. Bob has also learned to get his back leg out of the way when he is coming down," Littlefield said Walters uses the "stomach" roll form of jumping.

Part of the local surprise at Walters' meteoric leap at Kansas may be accounted for by his participating only in the high jump. Walters is also a good pole vaulter and has cleared 13 feet 1 1/4 inches this year.

However, running back and forth between the events tires him out and also keeps him from undiverted

Ramos Stops Vernon, 6-0, In Abbreviated Contest

Wee Julio Ramos fashioned a four-hit shutout as Big Spring turned back the Vernon Dusters, 6-0, here in the Longhorn baseball league's opening game Wednesday night. The contest was limited to 4 1/2 innings because of rain and wet grounds.

Ramos was in hot water in two of the five heats he labored but on each occasion he settled to throw three strikes past the last two batters to face him.

Lloyd Trip, classy Vernon flinger, pitched well enough to win an ordinary game despite the 11 hits he gave up in 'he abbreviated contest. However, what breaks there were favored Big Spring.

The threat of rain and a cold wind from the northeast held the crowd to 1,200. All were holding tightly onto their rain check when it began to look as if the two clubs were going to have to stop as early as the third. A light drizzle began to fall and some of the patrons decided they had enough then and there.

Not until Felix Gomez, who had fanned three times, hit a prodigious home run as the leadoff man in the sixth did umpire Tony DeFate call a halt to the proceedings. And Gomez's round tripper had to be wiped off the books. It came off Hosesa Blanco, who had spelled Trip in the fourth.

Little Carlos (Potato) Pascual hit one out of the lot that did go in to the records, however. He connected with one of Trip's speed balls in the fourth that sailed over the wall in left center.

Pascual, who had a single in addition to his four-master, divided hitting honors with Ace Mendez and Ramos, himself in a hitting mood.

The Hosesas jumped into the lead in the first round with a four-run outburst, aided no little by the obvious nervousness of rookie Charles Maness' field. Maness can get the job done, as he proved later, but he was too jumpy at the beginning and let two hoppers get away from him.

DIAMOND DUST—Among the visitors at the game were Hal Saylor, president of the Longhorn league, and Lou Baker of Clyde, who helped organize the local club. The Ve-son relief tosser was Hosesa Blanco and not John Blanco, the Bronc ex. Carlos Pascual turned in the fielding gem of the night when he went in front of Cookie Vasquez at short to field Lou Ehlinger's ground ball and sizzled a throw to first. The rubber-legged Justo Arpiazu had to

Pitchers Shine As Dallas, Ships Ring Up Texas League Victories

Associated Press Staff

A couple of pitchers stood out in the Texas League last night in the role of batters.

Pitching pitcher Roy Sanner doubled home two runs to give Dallas a 4-3 decision over Tulsa and pitcher Gale Pringle broke San Antonio's seven game winning streak with a single that gave Beaumont a 1-0 win over the Missions.

San Antonio had stretched its string to seven by downing the Exporters, 6-4, in the first game of the twin bill in the nightcap. Pringle went all the way, gave up only eight hits and in the tenth inning singled Marold Danielson home with the only run of the game.

Shreveport won again last night, defeating Houston, 5-2. Fort Worth and Oklahoma City were rained out.

The same teams meet again tonight, with Fort Worth and Oklahoma City playing a double header.

Sanner's double in the eighth gave Dallas its 13th victory in 14 starts. Tulsa took a two run lead in the first inning and the Oilers led, 3-2 going into the eighth. That's the inning the pinchhitting pitcher came through. Charlie Grant's two-run homer circuit clout paced San Antonio's victory in the first game of its twin bill.

Three unearned runs in the first inning gave Shreveport a lead it held all the way.

New Champs Will Grab Off Drake Relays Crowns

DES MOINES, April 28. — An entire new set of champions will parade to the victory stand in the university section of the Drake relays.

Only the speedy Texas A&M mile team will be back to defend a university relays title tomorrow and Saturday. And the Aggies may be dethroned.

The University of Texas, its squad riddled by injuries, isn't able to try for repeat championships in the 440, 800, the distance medley and the four mile relays.

The Aggies won last year in 3:15.2 and have done 3:17.1 this year. But Missouri won the mile at the Kansas games in 3:16.5. Burl Thompson, Minnesota sophomore, and George Kadera of Texas A&M are rated top contenders in the discus. Thompson has a mark of 169 feet, 2 5/8 inches and Kadera has done 168-2. Stylic, leading money winning horse and now at stud, receives fan mail at Middleburg, Va.

Steers To Run This Weekend

RODRIGUEZ DUE FOR HILL WORK

Big S... is set to lead with its ace, Fernando (Trompoloco) Rodriguez, if the weather permits them to face Vernon in the second game of their Longhorn baseball league series at Steer park tonight.

Rodriguez spent spring training with the Dallas Eagles. He won ten games after joining the Hoses in mid-season last year. On one occasion, he went 18 innings against Vernon in 1948. In his initial 1948 appearance against the Dusters, he shut them out. Bob Huntley, the Vernon manager, may counter with Carl Carter, a 1948 veteran, tonight. Kickoff time for the contest is 8:15 p. m.

Wayne Bonner, Big Spring high school track and field coach, is planning to take his entire squad to the Abilene invitational meet, which takes place this weekend.

The Abilene show will be the last meet before the State meet in Austin, which occurs the first weekend in next month.

Four members of the local team are eligible to compete in the Austin show. They are Cleonne Russell, who won regional honors in the 880-yard run, and members of the mile relay team, which finished third in that event at Abilene last week. Russell runs anchor on that team.

ROTARY HOE Controls Weeds in the row

REDUCES HAND HOEING

Quoting Mr. D. L. Jones, superintendent, Texas A & M Experiment Station, Lubbock: "At present, this is practically the only tool that will control weeds in the drill row before close sweep cultivation is possible."

- Here are some advantages of the rotary hoe:
1. Uproots weed seedlings in the row; allows topsoil to dry, preventing further weed growth.
  2. Works best at high tractor speeds, without damage to cotton or corn plants—up to 60 acres per day.
  3. Definitely stimulates young crops.
  4. Breaks soil crust, helping crops to come up.

Allis-Chalmers rotary hoes are front-mounted, where you can watch them easily without turning your head. You can keep the teeth exactly on the row, getting rid of the weeds that cause the most trouble.

See us right away about an Allis-Chalmers Rotary Hoe for your farm.

Prosecution Gets Coplon Documents In Espionage Trial

WASHINGTON, April 28. (U.P.)—Federal Judge Albert L. Reeves denied today a defense motion to prevent the prosecution from using papers taken from Judith Coplon in her trial on espionage charges. Judge Reeves also denied a defense motion for a mistrial, and another to expunge from the record an FBI statement telling what was in Miss Coplon's purse when she was arrested March 4 in New York with Valentine A. Gubitchev, a Russian.

The FBI agent who made the arrest said the purse contained:
1. A statement telling of efforts to obtain a top secret FBI report.
2. Background statements concerning espionage service.
3. More than 30 sheets of paper known as data slips containing extracts from FBI reports on internal security matters and suspected espionage agents in this country.

The agent, Robert R. Granville, filed a sworn statement yesterday in justification of the March 4 arrest of Miss Coplon and Gubitchev without a warrant.

It was part of the government's reply to a defense motion to bar the prosecution from using the seized papers in Miss Coplon's trial here on espionage charges. She and Gubitchev, a suspended Russian employe of the United Nations also are under indictment in New York on espionage conspiracy charges.

CRMWA Prospects Reported Bright

J. H. Greene, Big Spring chamber of commerce manager who returned Wednesday from Austin, said this morning that he is encouraged over prospects for passage of legislation affecting the Colorado River Municipal Water district.

Due to some unforeseen delays, action must be taken in a short time to be cleared in this session of the legislature. However, Greene said all legislators whose districts are in the area are working energetically, and they are confident that action will come before the session ends.

Greene went to Austin Tuesday where he joined City Attorney Malvern McDonald and City Manager John Wilson of Odessa to confer with legislators.

The Chilton moved to the mouth of the Yangtze northeast of Shanghai. (AP Wirephoto via radio from Shanghai).

Southern Soft Coal Owners To Bargain With Lewis Alone

WASHINGTON, April 28. (U.P.)—Southern soft coal operators today broke away from the rest of the industry and prepared to negotiate a separate contract with John L. Lewis if necessary.

The board of directors of the Southern Coal Producers Assn. voted to remain away from further operator meetings—at least for the time being. Southern president Joseph E. Moody said his directors believed they had formulated a definite policy for negotiating with Lewis and the United Mine Workers this time. The other operators, meeting here yesterday and today, have not yet reached that stage, he said.

Moody already has asked Lewis to begin negotiations for a contract to replace the one expiring June 30. Lewis has not yet replied.

The other operators, meantime, scheduled a meeting later today to consider Lewis' new contract strategy—a gentle plea for a settlement without a strike this summer.

Ezra Van Horn, temporary chairman, said, "No conclusions were reached," at yesterday's meeting.

Wounded War Vet's Farm Is Rebuilt

GENE AUTRY, Okla., April 28. (U.P.)—An Oklahoma World War II veteran, who lost a leg in combat, today had an 80-acre model farm—one that was rebuilt by 450 men in a day.

The men, with 75 pieces of machinery, arrived at James Cross' farm near here yesterday. That was before daybreak. By nightfall, they had rebuilt his house and barns, fenced the acreage, planted a new orchard, constructed a pound, and made other improvements.

Cross, who is married and the father of three, acquired the farm after selling his automobile the government gave him. He hopes to start a dairy herd.

Veterans groups, the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce, machinery firms and agricultural companies and agencies co-operated in the work.

Park Funeral Rites Set Friday Here

Body of Joe L. Park, Alpine, was en route here Thursday for final rites Friday at 5 p. m. at the Nalley chapel.

Park, who was born in Big Spring had been express agent at Alpine since February. He had been ill, but not seriously, before a heart attack claimed his life Wednesday.

He was on the Santa Fe Presidio express run for a number of years and was stationed at Weslaco before coming to Alpine approximately three months ago.

No word concerning survivors was available immediately. The Masonic lodge was due to be in charge of the services.

Legion Attacked By DRT On Flag Issue

FORT WORTH, April 28. (U.P.)—Daughters of the Republic of Texas leveled their historical guns at the American Legion today and fired a broadside of bitter words for suggesting that captured Mexican battleflags be returned to Mexico.

Fort Worth's Van Zandt Chapter DRT, called the Legion's executive committee action in Austin last Sunday "interference in a period of history that is not its concern."

Motion To Quash Indictment Against Slusser Overruled

A motion presented by the defense this morning to quash the 70th district court indictment against Philip C. Slusser, charged with sodomy, was overruled by Judge Paul Moss and testimony was to be started at 1:30 p. m. Jury was selected at noon.

Attorneys for Slusser had contended that technical defects had been found in the indictment, stating that allegations against Slusser were vague and indefinite to such a degree that said accusations failed to appraise the defendant of the nature of the offense for which he was charged.

The defense also contended that the allegations failed to allege the manner and means used by the defendant in committing the alleged offenses and emphasized that improper wording was used in the document, along with several misspelled words.

Slusser is accused of molesting three minors, ranging in age from 15 to ten years of age. Only one of them was in court this morning. Authorities said they had been unable to locate the other two.

In sworn statements, the youths said Slusser made improper advance to them both at his home and in his car on lonely country roads.

Six Texas Counties Removed From Pink Bollworm Regulation

Senate Votes Big Increases In Funds For Heart, Cancer Work

WASHINGTON, April 28. (AP)—The Senate yesterday voted sharp increases in funds for heart and cancer research.

It resumed work on its first money bill of the session today with a demand for a 5 per cent cut in funds for the Labor Department and the Federal Security Agency still to be acted on.

The cut was urged by Sens. Bridges (R-NH) and Ferguson (R-Mich.).

As recommended by the Senate Appropriations Committee, the bill provided $2,396,337,265 to finance the two government units in the 12 months starting July 1.

But yesterday the Senate added to the total to step up research against cancer and heart disease.

For the two programs, the Senate voted a total of $66,267,000, or more than three times the $22,630,000 recommended in the budget estimates submitted by President Truman.

As rewritten on the floor, the bill now carries $21,650,000 in cash and $15,500,000 in contract authority for the National Cancer Institute. The budget estimate was $16,100,000 in cash and $900,000 in contract authority.

For the national heart institute the bill now contains $16,302,000 in cash and $12,725,000 in contract authority. The budget estimate was $4,000,000 in cash and $630,000 in contract authority.

Funds are used by both institutes to aid in financing research fellowship, teaching and construction projects throughout the nation.

Radar Cooking For Farm Wives Is Recommended

WASHINGTON, April 28. (AP)—Congress has been asked to do something about making "radar cooking" available to farmers' wives.

The suggestion came from Clark T. McWhorter, president of the National Rural Electric Co-operative Assn., who testified yesterday before a Senate subcommittee.

Urging a bigger appropriation for farm electrification research, Mr. McWhorter said:

"There are many new fields that ought to be explored at once. For instance, there is radar cooking."

"What could be more important to the farm wife than to be able to cook meat in one minute, her beans in less than two minutes, the whole meal in five or 10 minutes?"

McWhorter said the idea is more than just "a possibility." He said "it is being done in some of the hotels and restaurants, but nothing has been done toward adapting it for farm use."

Margaret Whiting, Radio Singer, Will Divorce Husband

HOLLYWOOD, April 28. (AP)—Margaret Whiting, radio singer and daughter of Richard Whiting, popular song writer of a generation ago, plans to divorce Hubbell Robinson, vice president of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Miss Whiting's representative, Robert Weiss, said last night the couple have amicably agreed to part. Their careers conflict with domestic life, Weiss explained.

He added that Miss Whiting, 24, has recording contracts here, while Robinson, 45, has offices in New York.

Weiss said the singer will file for divorce either here or at Las Vegas, Nev., depending on her booking schedule.

The couple married in Las Vegas last Dec. 29. It was her first marriage and Robinson's second.

Reunion Of Former Bell Residents Is Slated For May 15

Sixth annual reunion of former Bell county residents has been slated for May 15 at the Buffalo Gap encampment grounds.

The late Judge James P. Stinson, Abilene, was the moving spirit in launching the reunion originally back in 1940. There are no dues for membership and the only requirements are that participants formerly lived in Bell county and now reside in West Texas.

The program calls for arrival around 10 a. m. with a basket picnic dinner at noon. An informal program is planned along with reminiscences of early days in Bell county.

Fifteen years must elapse after a horse's death before its name can be reused.

ACCEPTS KING AS SYMBOL

India Will Remain In Commonwealth

LONDON, April 28. (AP)—India has decided to remain in a revamped commonwealth of eight free nations headed by Britain's King George VI.

She will do so, a commonwealth announcement said today, even after she becomes an independent sovereign republic under a constitution expected to take effect next August.

India will continue as a full member of the 62-year-old commonwealth. She accepts the king as the "symbol of the free association" it embodies and as its head, but George VI will not be monarch of India. An elected president will take the place of the king's governor-general in that Asiatic sub-continent of 393 million people.

The other members — Britain, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Pakistan and Ceylon — continue as constitutional monarchies owing allegiance to the king.

All are defined as "free and equal members of the commonwealth of nations freely co-operating in pursuit of peace, liberty and progress," in the declaration.

It drops the word "dominion" for "independent member nations."

This new definition of the commonwealth was drawn up at a conference here of prime ministers of all member nations except Canada, who sent her minister of external affairs.

Meanwhile, Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru is scheduled to fly to Dublin to visit Prime Minister John A. Costello of the Republic of Ireland which pulled out of the Commonwealth Easter Monday.

Costello would not comment on the Commonwealth declaration, but a London newspaper said the declaration lent the way open for Ireland to apply for re-entry.

The Liberal News-Chronicle said "something of this nature" may lie behind Costello's invitation to Commonwealth prime ministers to visit Dublin.

However, it noted that the Commonwealth could scarcely be expected to take the Irish Republic back so long as she maintains her claim to northern Ireland. Northern Ireland is part of the British United Kingdom—a commonwealth member.

India, although a republic, will still be entitled to preferential empire tariffs. Her citizens will enjoy full rights in Britain—even to vote if they register as residents.

Louisiana Planning Gasoline Tax Day

NEW ORLEANS, April 28. (AP)—Louisiana's service stations plan a day of "mourning" for motorists because they pay the highest gasoline tax in the nation.

This was announced here yesterday by W. S. Milton, chairman of the Louisiana Petroleum Industries Committee.

He said the state's entire oil and gasoline industry is backing the new campaign to bring home to the public the fact it pays a nine-cent state gasoline tax on each gallon.

Milton said efforts will be made to have all gasoline stations draped in black crepe June 7, the first anniversary of the higher gas tax. Motorists will be handed cards of "sympathy" pointing out that they pay a total tax of $1.05 for every 10 gallons of gas. Milton said. The federal tax is one and half cents a gallon.

PUBLISHERS TOLD ITU NO LONGER CAN SHUT DOWN NEWSPAPER PLANTS

NEW YORK, April 28. (AP)—News-papers no longer can be forced to suspend publication by printers' Publishers Assn, was told today by its special committee on labor problems. The committee reported that on March 31 the International Typographical Union (ITU) was pursuing 32 strikes against 51 papers but that all of these dailies were going to press regularly with circulations aggregating nearly 5 million.

"A long-accepted belief that a daily newspaper had to suspend publication when ITU composing room workers struck is now a myth," said the report of the committee, headed by George N. Dale of the ANPA staff.

The report said leaders of all the mechanical unions except the ITU had co-operated "in our effort to preserve local bargaining" and to keep struck papers publishing.

Most of the ITU strikes stemmed from the "no-contract" policy adopted by the union after the Taft-Hartley Law forbade the closed shop which the union formerly held in most newspaper plants, the committee said.

It reported 27 new strikes against newspapers in 1948, a total of 20 of them called by the ITU. Nine ITU walkouts were settled in the year, leaving 32 still going on. Some of these are four years old.

Among the cities in which ITU strikes remain unsettled are Chicago, Miami, Fla., Springfield, Mass., Allentown, Pa., Trenton, W. Va., and Colorado Springs, Colo.

RELAXATIONS CREATE LITTLE INTEREST

Local Business Men See No Big Hike In Credit Buying

Several Big Spring business heads agree that extension of maximum length of payment periods and reduction of down payment minimum on durable goods may increase buying, but will not cause a landslide.

Fundamentally, most businesses have followed credit policies which took into account a customer's ability regardless of federal credit regulations. Relaxations, therefore will not create any major changes in policies.

C. M. Deal, Montgomery Ward store manager, said, "The standard of living today would not be nearly as high without controlled installment buying. Although a small percent will abuse their credit and overspend, the majority are capable of recognizing their own limitations for paying and will not over-obligate themselves."

Mrs. Ches E. Anderson, assistant manager of Sears and Roebuck and Company order office, said: "Due to the fact that cash is plentiful today as it was two years ago I think the decreased restrictions of Regulation W on initial deposits and length of time extended to pay balances will readily be accepted by the public and increase the volume of business."

Another business man was of the opinion that the increased laxity of credit buying controls would have very little effect on business either way because most business houses would not allow their merchandise to be sold on such small down payment due to the fact that the good purchased would be worn out and worthless before being paid for.

There are many different and widely varying opinions on the subject. Of course a certain amount of credit is necessary. Without the use of credit many people could never have many household and personal items considered necessary, such as refrigerators, furniture, automobiles, etc. But just how far can the use of credit extend and yet remain a blessing?

According to the economists the primary risk involved with the expansion of consumer's credit is the chance that, through some unforeseen circumstance, production will fall off with resultant unemployment. Consequently the consumer is unable to continue installments, and his purchase is repossessed by the seller.

While expanded consumer credit involves a degree of risk, it has a commendable effect under some circumstances. In periods of depression, the extension of such credit stimulates buying, which ultimately stimulates production. With the return of production the business cycle turns upward.

In September, 1941, the first restrictions on installment credit were imposed because the income of the consumer had swelled greatly while the number of commodities available for purchase dwindled. (Industry was producing war materials.) It was intended to curtail inflation.

Figures accurately measure the effects. At the time of our entry into the war, the amount of consumer credit outstanding was $5.5 billion. The total consumer credit outstanding at the close of the war was $5.5 billion, 42.3 per cent less than at the time of our entry into the war. In May, 1946, after the restrictions were relaxed, consumer credit had expanded to $7.5 billion and in December, 1947, had expanded to over $13 billion.

One economist, Willford I. King, holds that the existence of a freely expandable credit system and an inflexible price system combined with a mass movement from pessimism to optimism brings about depression. But credit plays an equal part in stimulating prosperity.

Support of the United Jewish Appeal will be made soon, it was indicated Thursday on the basis of a letter from Henry Morgenthau, Jr. former Secretary of Treasury and chairman of the national campaign for Israel aid.

In his letter to local Jewish leaders, Morgenthau pointed out that "Israel cannot possibly absorb 105,000 Jews within a period of 3 1/2 months without the entire economic structure of a country with limited resources and strained financial conditions being shaken to its foundations."

His communication went on to report that from April 1 to April 18, a total of 23,757 Jews entered Israel. The total for the first three months is 105,000.

"It is possible that in another two months we shall not have the money with which to provide food to the people in the camps," Morgenthau quoted Dr. Israel Golstein.

Morgenthau asked that American Jews advise by May 4 what their communities can add to reports to be made on that date when Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of the State of Israel, is honored at a dinner in New York.

MUCH WORK YET TO BE DONE

Campaign Continues To Find Curb To High Blood Pressure

CLEVELAND—What causes high blood pressure, hardening of the arteries and their allied heart diseases?

That's the multi-million-dollar question which faces the American Foundation for High Blood Pressure. At a recent conference of the Foundation's medical advisory board, 29 specialists in hypertension (high blood pressure) and cardiovascular diseases met, swapped notes, shook their heads and departed. They were generally agreed that the problem would require another million dollars this year, with still no promise of any cures.

But the medical brain-trust did furnish a few leads into the diseases which kill more than 600,000 Americans each year.

Most striking of the new developments was a new technique of photographing the living heart, and its surrounding arteries, without disturbing its normal function. This had never been done before.

The process, described by Dr. Meyer Friedman of San Francisco, has been used successfully on animals in the past year. Through the use of convict volunteers, Dr. Friedman, Dr. Felix Perle and their associates hope to perfect the technique in another year for use on humans as a conclusive test for coronary disease.

"Its value lies chiefly in diagnosis," said Dr. Friedman. "Today, 50 per cent of coronary disease can be diagnosed only by the case history of the patient."

Far from announcing a cure for hypertension, several of the doctors tended to minimize the advantages of one highly-publicized treatment—the low-salt and rice diet.

Dr. William Golding of New York and his associates reported that patients on this diet for as long as 90 days showed no significant change in blood pressure level, and some suffered adverse effects on the function of the kidneys.

Dr. Henry A. Schroeder of the Washington University School of Medicine concentrated on the "psychosomatic" factor in hypertension the relation of mental stress to high blood pressure. He said that two types of personalities are particularly prone to hypertension: The subnormal-assertive personality, of which the "timid soul" might be termed representative.

and the obsessive-compulsive type—the man with an "inner drive." He outlined a theory in which mental disturbance is a key to hypertension. Briefly, mental or emotional stresses result in bodily tensions, which in turn produce a reduced blood flow through the kidneys—a condition known as "ischemia."

The kidneys then develop a chemical substance which increases the blood pressure, strains the heart, speeds up hardening of the arteries, and contributes to kidney disease. Although the presence of this substance has been recognized, it is in such minute quantities that efforts to isolate and study it have failed.

Dr. Schroeder pointed out in defense of the psychosomatic theory that hypertension is a "civilized" ailment—African Zulus and Australian Bushmen don't get it. Yet among American business men and executives, it is almost an occupational disease.

Despite the obvious psychological implications, Dr. Schroeder doesn't think that any widespread use of psychotherapy in the treatment of hypertension is in the offing, at least in advanced cases. He believes the defects in personality are too fundamental to be remedied on the psychoanalyst's couch.

The doctors have returned to their laboratories for more testing, probing and compiling. But high blood pressure and accompanying diseases continue to take their toll, which predictions say will reach a million a year in the U. S. by 1960.

UAW Executive Board Takes Hand In Ford 'Speed-Up' Row

DETROIT, April 28. (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers executive board stepped into the "speed-up" dispute at the Ford Motor Co. today.

The board met to act on requests for strike sanction for 65,000 workers at the key Ford Rouge and Lincoln-Mercury plants.

It was one of two major undertakings in the UAW's high councils today.

At another site the UAW's 100-man National Ford Council was putting finishing touches to a campaign that will spearhead the union's industry-wide 1949 drive for $100-a-month pension along with medical care plans and wage increases.

The council represents some 110,000 Ford workers in nearly 50 plants across the nation.

Local union leaders at Rouge and Lincoln, backed by membership votes, have asked the board for permission to call a walkout at the two plants.

But since such a shutdown would affect virtually every Ford factory, it was felt that the board would do something at least to delay a strike until the big bargaining drive gets underway at Ford May 15.

To accomplish this without refusing the local leaders strike permission, some observers thought this could be done.

Kenneth Bannon, the union's national Ford director, could be given power to call a strike at the two plants at his discretion. At the same time he could be instructed to seek further conferences with the company to settle the dispute peacefully.

Such a meeting proved fruitless yesterday.

Ford denied the union charges that assembly lines in the two plants move so fast that the health and safety of workers is endangered. Until the union proves its charges, said the company, Ford would regard any strike as a "direct violation" of the contract.

The Ford council opened its session yesterday by re-electing Gene Prato of Detroit chairman of the union's Ford top bargaining committee. David Harmon of Hamilton, Ohio, was named secretary.

Some 8,000 Packard Motor Car Co. workers meanwhile faced an indefinite layoff starting tonight.

Packard said a shortage of brakes produced by the strike-bound Bendix Corp. in South Bend, Ind., forced the shutdown of all production.

Ted Kleinhans, ex-major league pitcher, is coaching Syracuse University's nine for the third season.

Jap Orphan Saves 11 Kids From Fire

TOKYO, April 28. (AP)—Hiroshi Nakamura, 16, an orphan, today saved 11 small children from death in a fire that destroyed an orphanage.

The tots, ranging in age from four to six, were trapped on the floor from which most of the 47 occupants had reached safety.

Nakamura rushed to the second floor and wrapped bed clothing around each child. He dropped nine of them to the ground and jumped with the last two in his arms.

None of the children was hurt seriously.

Nakamura suffered a broken leg in the jump. He was burned on the hand.

After he was orphaned by 1945 bombings which killed his parents in Yokohama, Nakamura became a waif until he was placed in the orphanage.

Clarence Picou will ride on the New York tracks this season for the C. V. Whitney establishment.

HOUSE GROUP FAVORABLE Social Security Plan Gets Backing

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—The administration plan for a vast expansion of social security has picked up strong support on the House Ways and Means Committee spot survey showed today.

As the committee started writing a new bill after two months of hearings, a check of members indicated that the measure they have in mind would give President Truman a large part—although not all of the broadened Social Security program he proposed to Congress. It may include a boost in old

This Family Gets Waited On In Style

LOS ANGELES, April 28 (AP)—The "Casserole" Caterers opened a new branch on the upbeat with a willing led named Rudy Vallee as delivery boy.

The crooner had eaten many meals prepared by Proprietor Bob Leberman and promised he would deliver the first order when the new shop opened at Suburban Westwood.

The place opened for business last night and Rudy kept his promise. Attired in white coat, he delivered a fried chicken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thomas.

Mrs. Thomas was startled, to say the least, when she opened the door to be confronted with a husky delivery boy who immediately started singing "I am a vagabond lover."

Rudy insisted on entering the home and serving Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and their daughter, Edith, three. The chicken—and a bottle of champagne—were on the Caterers.

Preparations For Protecting Roses, Lawns Recommended

Two preparations may be helpful to gardeners in protecting roses and lawns, County Agent Durward Lewter reminded Thursday.

An equal mixture of dusting sulphur and rotenone is effective in controlling rust and preventing attack by lice on rose bushes, he said. Roses also can stand an occasional dosage, in the soil, of copper (iron sulphate).

A fairly new product, chlorodane, is effective for use in spraying lawns afflicted with grubs, explained Lewter. Patches that turn brown without apparent reason are evidence that the grub worms may be at work, said Lewter. Directions should be followed closely in using the preparations, said the agent, for normally a couple of teaspoons to a gallon of water is sufficient.

This year's Gulfstream Park thoroughbred racing season will be run from March 4 through April 19.

Postman's Feet Resting In Jail

LOS ANGELES, April 28 (AP)—Postman William E. Lilley, Jr., is recovering today from the mailman's traditional sore feet—but in jail.

Postal inspectors said they found nearly 5,000 unopened—and undelivered—letters in Lilley's apartment.

Arrested yesterday before U. S. Commissioner Howard V. Calverly on a charge of delaying and detention of mail, Lilley, 46, explained he suffered from aching arches and added:

"I would just get tired and take some of the letters home. I never opened any and I fully intended to deliver them—in the due course of time."

Lilley said he started taking mail home in December, 1947. He has been in the postal service 20 years.

Each of the seven teams in the Southwest Conference offered a place-kicking specialist during the 1948 grid season. One man did the exclusive kicking for each team.

Home Demonstration Meeting Set Today

EASTLAND, April 28 (AP)—Delegates to the annual convention of District 8 of the Texas Home Demonstration Assn. will elect officers here today.

Women from 13 West Texas counties are attending.

Gets 25-Year Term

BRADY, April 28 (AP)—Earl Mcnefield, 18, Negro yard boy, last night was sentenced to 25 years in prison on conviction of a charge of attempt and assault to rape a six-year-old white girl.

I think we must agree to perfect the program we have or later run into something like the Townsend Pension Plan."

Rep. Mills (D-Ark), another committee member, proposed a new tax plan to enable farm hands and household workers to get old age and survivors insurance coverage.

Mills said he will suggest that such workers get full coverage by paying the tax as any other employee—but without any payment being required of their employer.

Moreover, Mills said that under his plan, farm operators would be fully covered by paying the same tax rate that an employee in industry pays. Other self-employed may be required to anti-up a slightly higher tax rate because of their status as both employe and employer.

HELD—Army port of embarkation officials at San Francisco, state, Pvt. Bobby J. McBride, 16, (above) will be prosecuted on charges that he was responsible for the million dollar fire which swept an Oakland, Calif., army pier March 15. The army said the young soldier from Dixuba, Calif., was a sentry in the pier shed when the fire started, and that he admitted in a signed statement that he lighted a burlap wrapping on the pier. ## Teague Urges Okay On Rural Road Aid

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—Rep. Teague of Texas has urged a Senate public works subcommittee to approve a bill which would provide $100 million to $150 million federal aid for rural roads.

The Texas Congressmen gave the sub-group yesterday a statement expressing his views and those of the Texas Rural Roads Assn.

Magic Cottage Cheese Dressing Adds To Vegetable Salad Appeal

Not least among the requirements of a good salad is a good dressing. You can whisk one up in a few minutes—a dressing that adds deliciousness to both vegetable and fruit salads—if you use sweetened condensed milk, with plenty of seasonings and a good allowance of cottage cheese. This dressing is always magically smooth and creamy. And it is just no trouble at all to make.

Perhaps most important requirement for a good salad is a supply of well washed, dried and crisp greens. Wash them in running cold water, if possible, shake them a bit and then spread them out on a dish towel. Then return them to the refrigerator until time to set up the salad. And that should be at the very last minute before the meal, so that everything will be fresh, crisp and green.

Method: Rinse apricots in hot water; put in a saucepan, cover with cold water and add lemon slices. Bring to a boil, cover saucepan, and simmer for 20 minutes. Add sugar, stir well and simmer 5 minutes longer. Remove lemon and put apricots through a sieve or food mill. Cool. Whip cream, add vanilla and fold in apricot puree. Split lady fingers and place on bottom and sides of mold. Spread one-half of whipped cream on bottom of mold; top with lady fingers. Method: Remove shells from eggs. Cut a slice from both ends, cutting the slice at the rounded end deep enough to expose (barely) top of yolk. Cut deep gashes into the egg white around the rounded end to give a sawtooth edge. Press gently at the bottom force out the yolk. Press yolk and egg white that was cut off through a fine sieve or strainer. Add remaining ingredients and beat until smooth. Refill shells. Garnish tops as desired and serve on shredded salad greens. UN Meeting On Plan To Guard Peace Missions

NEW YORK, April 28. (AP) — The United Nations Assembly meets today to take final action on a plan for an 800-man force to guard UN peace missions abroad.

The plan was originated by UN Secy-Gen Trygve Lie. It was approved by the assembly's special political committee over Soviet opposition. There appeared to be little doubt that the full assembly would ratify the committee's action.

The assembly is scheduled to continue its plenary meetings at Flushing Meadow Park, in New York, through today and tomorrow.

The delegates are expected to act finally some time tomorrow on the imprisonment of churchmen in Hungary and Bulgaria.

The special political committee already has approved an American-supported plan to hold up UN action until efforts have been made under peace treaty guarantees to free Josef Cardinal Mindszenty imprisoned in Hungary, and 15 Protestant clergymen in Bulgaria.

The assembly is expected to approve the committee's recommendation.

State Witnesses Testify That McGee Is Sane

LUBBOCK, April 28. (AP) — The state presented twenty-six rebuttal witnesses yesterday who testified in their opinion Richard W. McGee is sane.

McGee is being tried for murder in the fatal shooting of R. L. Allston, Lubbock grocery executive.

The defense has called a number of witnesses, including doctors, who said they believed McGee insane. McGee entered a plea of innocent because of insanity to the charge of murder.

William O. Linn, Lubbock, a brother-in-law of the slain man, was asked by Defense Atty. E. A. Simpson:

"You would like to see this jury give Richard McGee the electric chair wouldn't you?"

Linn replied, "Yes sir, I would."

Mrs. O. W. Allston, Pampa, sister-in-law of the slain man, said "If I were a man on the jury I probably would give him (McGee) the electric chair."

Dist. Atty. Lloys Croslin objected to questioning along this line. The court sustained the objection.

Wichita Falls City Council To Meet On Bus Line Change

WICHITA FALLS, April 28. (AP) — The city council was to meet here today to approve a transfer of the city bus franchise that is expected to end the strike of city bus drivers.

Mayor Harold Jones said last night he is "hopeful" city bus service will be restored by tonight.

The Biloxi-Gulfport City Lines of Mississippi will be the new owners of the bus franchise. J. S. Perusse, president of the Mississippi concern, will head the new ownership.

Perusse was in Dallas last night negotiating with owners of the Wichita Transit Co. for a day-to-day lease of operating facilities. This plan would operate until the new company can obtain a Texas charter.

Plans call for the upping of bus fares within 45 days under a city ordinance. The new owners, apparently have adjusted wage difficulties with the striking bus drivers.

Radar Screen Plans Reported Complete

PHILADELPHIA, April 28. (AP) — Plans for a radar screen to protect this country against air attacks have been completed by the armed forces, says Maj. Gen. Francis L. Ankenbrandt, air force director of communications.

Gen. Ankenbrandt, disclosing that the Army, Navy and Air Force are conducting actual experiments for development of full integration among themselves, said yesterday that approximately half the material needed for construction of the huge screen is available in supplies left over from World War III.

His disclosures were made at a press conference after he and Maj. Gen. Spencer B. Aiken, chief signal officer, U. S. Army, and Rear Adm. Earl E. Stone, chief of naval communications, made an inspection tour of the Radio Corp. of America plant at Camden, N. J.

Seminov Quoted As Saying Blockade Of Berlin Has Failed

BERLIN, April 28. (AP) — The anti-Communist newspaper Sozialdemokrat quoted Soviet Ambassador V. S. Semionov today as saying the Russian blockade of Berlin has failed with "great loss of prestige" to his country and German Communists.

There was no confirmation of the report from any other source.

The British-licensed newspaper said it learned from "well informed sources connected with the Socialist Unity (German Communist) Party" that Semionov had made the statements.

"Western Powers," the newspaper quoted him as saying, "have succeeded in supplying Berlin with all needed goods despite the blockade. It was a miscalculation to assume the blockade would force the Western Powers to leave Berlin.

"This means a great loss of prestige for both the Russians and the Socialist Unity Party."

The newspaper asserted Semionov has told some German Communists that Russia has "no other choice" than to lift the blockade, and that he expects instructions very soon to lift it.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How We Licked The Parking Problem

For a while it looked like we'd have to put up parking meters. Folks working in towns—including some of the store owners—were taking up all of the space along Main Street.

Farmers coming in to shop never found a place to park, and sometimes had to lug stuff a half mile or so. Some started to do their buying in other towns. Finally, store owners and farmers had a get-together—with the result that the empty field near the depot was fixed up for all-day parkers.

New farmers got their shopping done comfortably, and the merchants have a better place to park than they had before. Just took a little friendly co-operation to make everybody happy.

From where I sit, most differences can be ironed out by just talking things over—maybe with a cup of coffee or glass of beer—and seeing the other person's side of it. Next time you have a problem or a little difference to settle, why not try just that?

Furr Store Has Been Serving Big Spring Since May Of 1946

Although it covers a relatively brief period, a little less than three years, the history of Furr's Food Store of Big Spring has been characterized by progressive merchandising.

Furr's came here in May of 1946, purchasing the former Sanitary Food Market at the corner of Gregg and 4th streets, and the Furr's organization immediately staged a formal opening event that attracted attention throughout the city.

In September of 1948, Furr's invited the public in to help celebrate another special occasion, the completion of a major remodeling project. However, the Furr's organization is outshining the previous events with its anniversary celebration, and the Big Spring store doing its part.

Furr's store in Big Spring is operated by no less than 21 persons, headed by Gene Stobaugh, manager, who came here only a few months after the local unit was opened.

Largest number of personnel, of course, are associated with the grocery department. The staff there is composed of Bruce Rich, assistant manager; Carroll Hinds, Holly Bird, Gene Madry and Gladys Anderson, checkers; Lo Lo Cruz, warehouse foreman; Wayne Burleson, Jimmy Fite, Carol Cannon, Guy Knowles, Homer Logan, Randolph Bird, Billy Wood and Donald Love, stock boys.

Lloyd Roubough is manager of the market department, while his assistant is Georgie Spires. Others employed in the market are Joe Wright, counter man; and Oneta Rode and Zella Abbie in the self service department.

Horace Williams is manager and Roy Shannon is assistant manager of the produce department.

Food Club Line

The brand Food Club, is one well known to Furr's shoppers. It is to be found exclusively at Furr's for Furr's is one of the few members of Food Cooperative, Inc. of Chicago, which has advantage of this great buying organization. It packs the best in 11 products, and is priced for the buyer.

Toys, Table Mats

Does the baby need a "squeaker" toy or does mother need a set of beautiful table mats? Swift and Co. is offering one of each for each six cans of Swift's Meats for babies sold. These can be had at Furr's during the Food Fair.

Biggest Cheese, Biggest Salami To Be Shown

The world's largest salami sausage, a 14-foot creature, and the world's largest cheddar cheese for the largest state in the Union, Texas—that's what Furr's Super Markets will parade as one of the features of the Food Fair, April 29 through May 7.

Built by a major manufacturer, the salami and cheese will be in Big Spring, at the Furr's store between the hours of 8:30 and 10:30 a. m. on Wednesday, May 4.

Visitors will guess at the weight of the sausage and the cheese (it is about 5 feet across the base and comes from Wisconsin). The winner over all the Furr's stores in 14 towns, will win a year's supply of cheese for the skill in estimating. A year's supply is a pound a month, the winner to get a certificate book allowing this free item each week.

The huge salami was packed in Fort Worth and shipped to Lubbock. There it will be placed in refrigerated truck and sent on a schedule which will include Big Spring on May 4.

One-Stop Shopping Stressed At These Super-Markets

One-stop shopping is the by-word for Furr's Super Markets. That means that a shopper can buy total needs when shopping at Furr's, in the grocery department, the meats, the fruits and vegetables, the drugs, frozen foods and bakery goods and tobaccos.

Furr's features nationally-known merchandise throughout its grocery department, priced low every day. Its fruits and vegetables come from the gardens and fields of the nation, trucked fresh daily. The meats, of all grades, is largely bought on the hoof, killed and packed in Lubbock or otherwise bought from large packers.

The drug departments, in a good many of the Furr's 26 stores, are features which have attracted many a shopper. They, too, are priced low for selling. The tobaccos, bakery goods and frozen foods are other departments which have well-known and priced low, good quality merchandise.

'Food Fair' Marks Furr Anniversary

Furr's Super Markets in West Texas and eastern New Mexico will spring wide its doors Friday to a gigantic eight-day Food Fair, celebrating its 45th anniversary.

Prizes reaching to $50,000 which include three 1949 Kaiser Deluxe automobiles and $10,000 in food alone, will feature the event which has been scheduled as Furr's way "to say thanks."

The world's largest salami sausage, a 14-foot creature; the world's largest Wisconsin cheddar cheese; drawings each day at the Furr's stores at 3 p. m.; guessing contests for prizes; these are just some of the attractions to be staged for Furr's customers.

"As we of Furr's celebrate this 45th year of business with the good people of West Texas and eastern New Mexico, our thoughts turn in appreciation to our friends, old and new, who have stood by us loyally, realizing full well that it has been the confidence and support of these good friends which has made possible the growth and expansion of the Furr's organization," said Roy Furr. "Throughout the years to come, as in the past, we of Furr's pledge ourselves to carry on the business in such a manner that will continue to merit this confidence and good will. On this anniversary, we feel that the Furr's organization, as an institution, is an integral part of this great section of our country and that personnel of the entire organization contributes both in loyalty and service to its progress."

Tickets have gone free at all stores since Monday, April 18. These have been dropped in drawing boxes. There they stay through the Food Fair, April 29-May 7, good for every drawing. As many tickets as the person likes, may be deposited. Stubs must be filled out. The winners need not be on hand for the drawings.

Stores have been decorated, "air-cus-tred" to the final degree. A Courtesy campaign has been instituted and personnel have donned red aprons, yellow neckerchiefs and white caps for the event.

Magazine Makes Furr 'Cover Man'

"Cover man" for May's Super Market Merchandising magazine, published in New York and with a circulation all over the United States, going largely to super market operators, was Roy Furr, president and general manager of Furr's, Inc.

Small Kirkland Store Forerunner Of System

Furr's Super Markets of 1949 are a far cry from the small but influential Kirkland Mercantile Co. of Kirkland, Texas, near Chilroy attended elementary school and high school at Kirkland, then spent two years at Clarendon college and three semesters at the University of Oklahoma. He taught school for four years, before joining his father in the business. He was married in 1923 and today has a married son, Don, in business in Lubbock with his father; daughter, Shelly, in Texas Tech and Roy Jr., in J. T. Hutchinson school.

When C. W. Furr first moved to Kirkland the rear of the mercantile company building, a 20 by 30 foot establishment, was used as a home for almost a year. As the country about Kirkland built up, C. W. Furr added to his holdings, erecting several brick buildings and organizing several business firms.

"Daddy" to the Furr's supers of today was C. W. Today, Roy, who operates the Lubbock division of 26 stores, has spread his string into eastern New Mexico and all over West Texas. Brother Key, of the 20 stores out of Amarillo, is in that sector, including Oklahoma and Kansas.

GETS INCOME FROM TUITIONS, SERVICES

Houston University Is Not Supported By Tax Revenue

HOUSTON, April 28 (AP)—University of Houston officials will tell your tax money is not essential to operation of the state's second largest school.

Dr. E. E. Oberholzer, president of the University, offers this evidence:

Enrollment this spring totals 11,874, exceeded in the state only by the University of Texas.

Since the school was opened in 1926 as a junior college no tax revenue has been utilized for its support although a local tax of up to 20 cents on each $100 property valuation is authorized.

The University has no debts and has never had a deficit.

Capital assets have grown from $250,000 in 1929 to $7,500,000 at present and long range plans are under way for completion of a physical plant exceeding $20,000,000.

"It is the largest municipal University in Texas and perhaps the only University of its size in the nation operated without tax funds," Oberholzer explains.

All of its income is derived from tuitions or services performed.

This month the University observes its fifteenth anniversary as a four-year college. Fifteen years ago its enrollment was 1110. In 1927 it had climbed to 1813. In 1945 to 3391, in 1946 to 10,541, and to 11,038 in 1948.

The long range building program calls for facilities to accommodate 15,000 students.

Tied closely with this remarkable growth is the philanthropy of a Houston oilman, Hugh Roy Cullen, chairman of the University's board of regents.

Cullen has made the University something of a hobby and has said he plans to continue his interests in the institution until it becomes the world's greatest University.

The gifts Cullen and his wife have made to the school are numerous and amount to millions of dollars. The time Cullen has given to mapping the University's future is inestimable.

Only last month the Cullens saw the cornerstone laid for the University's $5,000,000 Ezekiel W. Cullen administration-auditorium building, a structure given in memory of the oilman's grandfather.

Another gift, the Roy Gustav Cullen classroom building, was one of the first permanent buildings constructed on the 250-acre campus in Southeast Houston. The Cullens gave this building in memory of their only son who was killed in an oil field accident.

In the years to come, the University will benefit from the most fabulous of all the Cullens' philanthropic projects. The University has been named one of the principal beneficiaries of a $160,000,000 foundation the Cullens established two years ago.

It will take several years for all of the University's housing problems to be solved. Oberholzer and other administrative officials face tremendous problems in finding adequate space for classrooms.

Shortages of facilities, however, have not slowed expansion of the University's curriculum.

There has been some criticism of the University for the comparatively light requirements of students in some courses. University officials, however, defend the plan vigorously and take pride in the fact that almost any desired course is available, whether the prospective student be a man well advanced in years or a youngster just out of high school.

Oberholzer explains it this way:

"The philosophy of the University is one of service to the community. Under this philosophy the University has been developing a program for students who want pre-professional training, a four-year-senior college program, terminal, vocational and technical training, adult educational courses or graduate work."

The faculty includes 300 full-time teachers and 150 part-time teachers. Classes are in session six days a week from 8 a. m. until 9:30 p. m.

The history of the University traces back to 1826 when the board of education of the Houston Independent School district authorized a junior college. Only 332 students enrolled the first year.

In 1934 the state legislature authorized two additional years of study and the University was established. Classes until 1939 were held in frame buildings on a high school campus and in a nearby church.

The present campus was made available in 1939 with the donation of 110 acres of land to the University by Houston residents. In recent years the Anderson foundation added 90 acres, and Cullen donated another 50 bringing the campus to a total of 250 acres.

Until 1943 the University operated directly under the Houston School Board but in that year the board created an advisory board of 15 members to assist in operating the rapidly expanding branch.

On March 12, 1945, the Legislature authorized the Houston school authorities to invest power of operating the University under a separate board of regents.

The next day the present board of regents was credited and Oberholzer, then superintendent of Houston schools, was given a five-year contract, at $15,000 a year as the University's first president.

The regents have exclusive jurisdiction over the University's operations. The job has been difficult but the results impressive.

In 1934 the University spent $71,000. Last year's income totaled $2,706,755, expenditures $2,450,904. This year's budget approximates $3,000,000.

Tuition fees vary as to courses taken but a student working on a four-year University degree pays an average of $150 per semester.

History Is Made By Horses' Tails

TENSLEEP, Wyo. (AP)—Mike Bennett had no idea of making history back in the fall of 1883. All Mike wanted to make at that time was a horsehair check-rein for a wild horse. He was short of material and, being a resourceful man, he chopped the tails off five Indian ponies.

It developed that removal of the tails was a serious breach of conduct, as the only time an Indian bobs his pony's tail is when he's mourning the death of someone. There was no death to mourn. The Indians decided the only way to bring the thing to a balanced conclusion, was to kill Mike.

This lively bit of Americana stems from the Tensleep Creek sector near here. It is one of scores of readable incidents included in the U. S. Forest Service's history of the Bighorn National Forest. In the past three decades the service has compiled millions of words on the backgrounds of its 19 forest preserves in the Rocky Mountain area.

Rangers annually gather additional information from the old settlers in the various districts. The data includes notes on old Indian trails, camps, hunting grounds, fights, explore, military posts and expeditions against the Indians, old boundaries, and miscellaneous items such as the one about Mike Bennett.

John Spencer, regional forester.

establishing dates of land-ownership, settling boundary disputes, says the histories are of value in establishing dates of land ownership, settling boundary, disputes, and studying the cyclic damage of pests like the bark beetle. Spencer says the histories of the forests also provide the only available histories of dozens of communities in the areas involved.

P. S.—The Indians weren't able to catch Mike.

He was killed several years later, however, by a posse of ranchers. The ranchers accused him of stealing a horse. Not just the tail. A whole horse.

SHOVEL and HOE

A Garden Column by Virginia Scott. Presented by the Big Spring Garden Club.

Beaded Iris should be divided every three or four years. A good time to do this is soon after it blooms. Tops should be cut back to about half way and the feeding roots clipped about an inch, if they are very long.

Hardly any plants gives so much for so little as does the Iris. It is hardy anywhere, easy to grow and bears beauty on every stalk. Most colorful in the garden picture.

There are so many varieties of Iris that anybody can be confused. Happily, most of them are good. The American Iris Society has been helpful in publishing a list of the best one hundred varieties. Their top three are—Ola Kala, Great Lakes and Chivalry.

Less expensive, but splendid, varieties are—Shining Waters, Garden Magic, Spun Gold, Wabash William Mohr, and Tiffany. Try to see these plants in bloom.

FOR OUTDOOR LIVING

If you are planning to build a terrace, do have it wide enough to sit upon. Narrow terraces are nothing more than passage ways. Full enjoyment of the garden or outdoor living room comes from being able to see it from an elevated position.

There should be room on a terrace for pots and boxes of flowers. If planting space is left next to the house, more plants can be had, than when the paving runs up and joins the house foundation.

Paved areas are the only answer to the problem of the place where nothing will grow, then potted plants can be used for color. Nearly every average sized property has such a space under large trees, or where the soil is too poor to improve.

When growing conditions are good pockets of soil should be left around the sides for plants. Flagstones make good paving for a terrace. Sometimes they are left open for grass to grow between, but are easier to keep when cemented. Also, high heels don't get caught when the paving is solid.

Any kind of terrace is better than none at all. Plain dirt with no paving will do, if the surroundings are not too imposing.

RHOODENDRON HYBRIDS

The hybrids are not quite so hardy as Rhododendron maximum, but more colorful. Some of the best varieties are—H. W. Sargent, red; Abraham Lincoln, pink; Album Elegans, white. These plants prefer partial shade, moisture and acid soil. Should not be exposed to strong winds. Can be protected by burlap screens or evergreen boughs during the windy spring seasons. Cannot endure lime in any form.

Lusitania Lifeboat Will Be Moved

BROADSTAIRS, England (AP)—The village council has decided to move its principal monument, a lifeboat from the ill-fated liner

Lusitania, brought to this southeastern England resort years ago as a memento of the tragic sinking of the liner, the lifeboat is to be shifted to "a more suitable spot." These are the reasons given by the councilors: "Visitors who arrive in a festive spirit do not want to see the town decorated with dead men's rafts. It is nearly 35 years since this sad tragedy of the sea occurred and there have been even worse horrors in the late war. It is a menace and a danger to the children who play in it."

HAPPY EATING WHOLE KERNEL CORN

FORERUNNER OF FURR SYSTEM—The original Furr's store, the Kirkland Mercantile Co., of Kirkland, near Childress, is shown here as it appeared in 1904. Here the late C. W. Furr, father of Roy Furr, founded the company which now serves a broad West Texas-New Mexico area.

Polish Industry Reported Booming

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—The Polish government claims all basic industries still are exceeding monthly production targets, but apparently all is not well behind the scenes. Trials of factory directors and managers for "economic sabotage" are becoming more frequent. Communist newspapers are criticizing those workers who lag in filling their production "norms" or targets. Government officials are demanding an end to "wasteful" industrial practices. At a national savings conference in Warsaw, 1,000 directors of industries and trade unions officials, were told they must save $287,500,000 on production costs this year. Such incidents as these have become almost a daily occurrence somewhere in Poland. A military tribunal at Katowice recently sentenced five industrial plant managers to four to 20 years imprisonment for selling coal to private enterprises. Another tribunal announced it would shortly try six high officials of a state brick factories combine on charges of sabotage. The government recently ordered a 10 per cent general boost in wages. But throughout the country, many workers complain wages have failed to keep pace with increased living costs.

Trials Delayed

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Persons who go to jail in Poland usually stay there a long time before they face a trial court. The security police take their time in their investigations of persons whom they arrest. Thus, it's not uncommon for accused to be imprisoned a year or more before they are tried. Most of the arrests now being made by security police are based on "anti-state activities" or alleged membership in underground bands which seek to overthrow the government by force.

May Move Doctors

PRAGUE (AP)—Czechoslovak doctors have been warned that they can expect to get moved around the country. Alois Plojhar, minister of health, said that there is one doctor to every 554 inhabitants in some parts of Prague, the country's capital. But some country areas have only one doctor for every 6,000 inhabitants. So doctors, who are controlled by the nationalized health service, can expect re-employment orders, he said.

Luke Appling of the Chicago White Sox did not hit a single homer in 1948. He had a three-year stretch, 1938-40, in which he also failed to clear the wall.

Departmental Chiefs Direct Furr Activities

Around Roy Furr, head man of Furr's, Inc. are a group of men who have been selected for talents in many fields, his top executives. No. 1 purchasing agent is John A. Milligan who was with Furr's in Amarillo more than 10 years ago, and brought to Lubbock by Furr. He handles all grocery buying for the company, plus having charge of the warehouse, creamery, bakery, trucking and packaging. Jack O. Stone, personnel and public relations, is in charge of the newspaper and radio advertising, and personnel publications and training.

Ray Johnson is the Lubbock Packing Co. head of that organization, handling distribution to the Furr's stores as well as other retail outlets. Raynes B. Sparks, drugs supervisor, is the buyer of those commodities and in direct charge of all drug departments. George Nagle is a recent addition to the Furr's staff, handling produce supervision in the stores. J. Garth Close is the new maintenance engineer of the Furr's organization while Don Furr, son of Roy Furr, spends half a day in the general office with personnel problems and the other half in a Lubbock store.

Prizes Offered Best Guessers of Popcorn Kernels

Would you like to win a $39.50 Ever-Hot pressure cooker or a year's supply of 3-Minute Popcorn? Here's how: Just step into any Furr's store during the Furr's Food Fair, April 29 through May 7, and make your guess in these two contests: Pillsbury Mills is giving the cooker in each of Furr's stores to the person guessing closest to the number of kernels in a vial. The nearest to the number wins of course, but the early entry wins in case of ties. The winner in each store in the Popcorn guessing contest will win the year's supply of popcorn, and this winner will be named on the same dates as stated above.

One Bullet, Two Pigs

LUENEBURG, Germany (AP)—Two wild pigs with one bullet—that is the hunting claim of farmer Heinrich Winkelmann, of Leitzingen. He borrowed a rifle from military government to go after wild boar which were destroying his crops. He spotted a sow and fired at her. The bullet passed through the sow and hit a boar which had just come up behind her, says Winkelmann.

PRIZES

(Continued from Page One) Odessa for the finals. In each case, a prominent citizen, will do the drawing and telephoning. Other big prizes include a Proctor Never-Lift Iron and Cordminder, Woodland Charcoal Grill, Sil x Electric Coffee-Maker, Universal Pressure Cooker and Household Institute Silverware set for eight, and silverplated serving tray. Food prizes include: Comstock pie apples, Gebhardt Tamales, Heinz Fresh Cucumber Pickles, Fi De, French's Mustard, Whitson Pork & Beans, American Beauty Hot Roll Mix, Holsum Peanut Butter Crunch, Brooks Catsup, Rolling West Peas, April Shower Peas, Gebhardt Chili Powder, Skinner's Macaroni, Kremel, American Beauty Cookie Mix, W & W Sweet Dill Chip Pickles, Durkees Assortment of Condiments, Moist Coconut, Durkees Famous Dressing, Worcester-shire Sauce, Bread, Canada Dry Soda Water, Kremel, American Beauty All Purpose Mix, Durkees Margarine, O'Brien Crystal Nuggets.

Division Heads Have Come Up From Ranks

Experienced personnel head the three divisions of Furr's operations in West Texas and New Mexico. These retail store managers and supervisors have come up through the ranks. At the helm is C. B. Boverie, vice president in charge of sales, a veteran with Roy Furr since the early days in Lubbock. He started as manager of No. 2 store.

Secretary and Treasurer is C. H. Cummings, another long-time associate of Furr's. Under Boverie's direction are Cloyce Knowles and Burl Ham of the eastern division (Lubbock, Childress, Plainview and Levelland). Heading the western division are Donovan Stafford and Ray Hunter.

C. H. CUMMINGS

This division includes Brownfield, Lamesa, Big Spring, Midland, Odessa, Monahans, Carlsbad and Roswell. In El Paso A. R. "Chick" Arnold is branch manager. He has R. R. Reed as supervisor. The responsibility of these men is with the 28 stores themselves, working directly with the store managers. They are in these units weekly, to supervise constant adequate stocking of wanted merchandise.

FIRST STORE

including furniture, drygoods and groceries. In 1906 he helped organize the Kirkland State Bank and in 1915 was elected its president. During these years he kept accumulating farms and business property in that country.

In 1925 he stepped into Potter county, Amarillo where he bought the M-System franchise in several counties in the Panhandle.

Roy went with his father to Amarillo as a business aide. He saw a fertile field in Lubbock and vicinity and in 1929 he moved here. During that year six stores of the M-System were purchased and in 1934, when there were three stores in Lubbock and six in neighboring cities, they became known as Furr Food Stores.

In the intervening years the program of units has expanded. Furr's now operates stores in 14 towns other than Lubbock; has its own creamery, bakery, warehouse and packing plant in Lubbock; the El Paso Wholesale Co. and seven retail stores in El Paso and single markets in Plainview, Childress, Levelland, Lamesa, Big Spring, Midland Odessa and Monahans in Texas and Carlsbad, Roswell and Hobbs, in New Mexico. Seven stores are operated in Lubbock.

Two of the latest stores built were in El Paso, opened in November, before 40,000 persons in two nights.

Push Farm Vacations

NEW YORK (AP)—An unusual plan for the coming summer months which will increase farm incomes and broaden understandings has been urban and rural people has been presented by Grange organizations to members in 12 states from Maine to Virginia.

The plan encourages farmers who have two or more spare rooms to take in city vacationers on a paying basis, and thus develop a new type of resort business in rural areas.

The project was originated by William P. Wolfe, New York representative.

Wants Publicity In Juvenile Crime

SWANSEA, Wales (AP)—Swansea's chief police officer recommended a new approach to juvenile delinquency: let newspapers print the names of children in court cases.

"It is a well known fact," chief constable D. V. Turner said in his annual report, "that offenders, whether adolescent or adults, are usually more perturbed about publicity in the press than about penalties inflicted in court." Present laws ban the publication of names and addresses of children dealt with by juvenile panels.

Stammerers Need Not Stutter, Says Couple

WINTER PARK, Fla., April 23 (AP)—A woman with 60 years of stammering in her family has teamed with her husband to devote their finances and the latter years of their lives to correcting the stuttering of others.

She is 54-year-old Eleanor Weston Emery; he Theodore, 60. They have been helping children and adults since 1935.

Mrs. Emery's eldest brother was a stammerer. She herself stammered so badly she could obtain no formal education and had to do with private tutors and several years abroad. Her first son, now 28, still stammers a little. Two other sons never stuttered.

Her first son was growing up when she finally realized no one could cure her—that she had to help herself and her son. She now speaks clearly. Her husband has a mal speech, and eventually they gained sufficient control and coordination to achieve it.

"Mental control which the stammerer gains by completing tedious tasks is very beneficial. This can be used with children or adults. However, you must never mention speech or stammering to a child. Parent and school teacher must help children be more orderly in everything they do. If the child stammers, pay no attention. If he speaks correctly, notice him. But he must never be conscious that he is being aided.

"With adults, the approach is direct. Adults must have a will to help themselves."

Emery said stammering could be as disastrous as cancer because it could be so confusing, terrorizing and humiliating it might ruin a person's physical and emotional makeup.

"I have seen children fall on the floor in utter helplessness trying to say something," he said.

"There are four male stammerers to every female. I don't know why this is unless the woman usually wants to talk so much she can't be bothered with stammering."

Said Mr. Emery: "Stammerers are found among the types that produce geniuses, never among the plodders who have been developing habits of control since babyhood. The stammerer's mind is quick and his interest keen. But he has a dislike for sustained effort or routine. He will not stick to a subject long enough to master it."

The cause of stuttering, both say, is fear—perhaps a fear of doing or saying something wrong "but basically just plain fear."

Emery said a child could normally be cured in less than a year; an adult in six to eight correspondence courses. (A charge is made for adults who can pay; no charge is made for children's work.)

The system was instituted in Orange county schools five years ago when "there were 104 stutterers in 10,000 children. Now the percentage is 24 to 12,000."

Emery said a child's health and grades rise with speech correction; that the juvenile court of Orlando, of which Winter Park is a suburb, has reported several delinquency cases corrected after stammering cures.

Boy Learns Speech As Parents Learn About U.S.

WICHITA, Kansas (AP)—"Hi!"

Not a lengthy conversation—but a real achievement for the 7-year-old Australian boy who six months ago couldn't speak—couldn't even comprehend that the sounds people made around him had meaning.

And the cheery greeting young John Reid gives his clinic teacher in the morning is an assurance to his parents—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. (Jock) Reid of Brisbane—that their trip to America is paying dividends.

Nearly six years ago John was stricken by Encephalitis Lethargica. Brain damage resulted. An arm and a leg were affected by paralysis. When the Reids brought their family of three youngsters to Wichita and the Institute of Logopedics last September, John was a beehive of activity without direction or understanding. As the father puts it:

"Dr. Martin F. Palmer, director of the Institute, told me the illness had so affected John's brain that it could not discriminate in the constant rain of stimuli that reached it—sounds, light, heat and all the things that reach us, too—but which we can ignore if we choose. John reacted to all of them. He darted here and there—had no comprehension of space. One room was the same as any other. His reflexes drove him to constant movement, with no chance to comprehend the things about him.

"Today—six months later—we have a rested, relaxed child. He sleeps restfully. He tries to speak simple words. He shows speech recognition—obeys simple commands to sit still, close the window, and so on. He plays catch, plays with toys—each one chosen carefully to help in his development. The Institute had to reorganize John's brain—to teach other parts to take over the work of the parts damaged. When John came to the Institute, he had about the same

Reds Black Out Weather Reports

SHANGHAI (AP)—The Communist "bamboo curtain" around North China extends to the stratosphere. It not only confines the news, but weather reports as well.

Much of Asia's weather is born in the high pressure areas of Siberia. It often undergoes great change as it crosses Manchuria and North China into the low-pressure areas of the south.

For this reason, accurate forecasting requires regular reports from the north, but for the past several months the Communists have blacked them out.

Forecasters no longer can depend on the data which once came regularly from Mukden, Tientsin, Peiping and other northern centers. Except for a very rare report from safe pilot flying over Red territory, the weatherman these days makes up his forecast largely on a basis of past experience.

Their flying trip to the United States also opened a new world to the 36-year-old parents and to their other children, Mrs. Reid says.

"We like it very much. It really isn't the country—it's the people."

"There's a point that appeals to both the wife and me—and that the wonderful kindness of people here," her husband put in. "I'm still trying to answer the letters we've received—and the gifts and candy and cards sent to John from all over."

The father—former sportswriter and reporter for the Brisbane Daily Telegraph, "down under"—puts in his daily stint at the Wichita Eagle. That's the job that backed up the Reid's application for a visa.

"Jock" Reid was hired by Marsh Murdock, associate publisher of the Eagle—morning and evening daily—which thus is cooperating, fully in obtaining for the son speech training at the Institute of Logopedics.

Wichitans read with interest "Jock's" bylined feature in the Eagle—giving the Australian slant on things observed here.
