An Explanation—

THESE DERBIES

LAST WEEK YOU probably noticed quite a number of the men downtown blossoming out in derbies—black derbies—of a style which many of the old-timers can easily recall. There is an explanation and a reason for the donning of the derbies.

A few months ago an idea was born in the mind of Howard Horne, manager of the Southwestern Public Service company. He brought that idea before members of the McLean Junior Chamber of Commerce.

In bringing out his thoughts, Horne explained that when you think of Las Vegas, Nev., you think of the gambling houses there, or vice versa. When you think of big hats and cowboy boots, you think of Texas. Etc., etc.

So the idea dawned on Horne that if everyone in McLean, or at least a large number of local citizens, wore derbies—not just for a short-time fad, but from now on—the derby would become the identification mark for someone from McLean, regardless of where that person might be.

Ordinarily, when a tourist passes through the Panhandle of Texas, he expects to see cowboys, riding big horses and carrying six-shooters. He is disappointed when the only cowboys he sees are riding down the highway in pick-ups. But that same tourist would be startled to see hundreds of men and women wearing derbies in a western town. And so the idea of derbies, though ridiculous it may be, was born.

The tourist industry, nationally, is about the third largest. Each day hundreds of tourists pass through McLean, and less than one per cent of them stop—for they have no reason to stop. It is estimated that each tourist going through Texas averages spending $7.58; if he doesn't stop in McLean, he doesn't spend any of that here.

The entire idea is to give McLean something different, something that will cause tourists to stop and ask questions. Then, perhaps, when they do stop, they will spend a little money. If more money is spent in the businesses here which deal directly with tourists, then those business owners will have more to spend at home, and everyone will be benefitted—either directly or indirectly.

That's the simple explanation for the derbies, but local citizens are urged to think of the derbies not as a fad, but as a permanent fixture to our town. The wearing of the derbies has unending possibilities, and can be developed into a profitable thing for McLean.

As for your explanation to tourists for the derbies, ideas along that line are being developed, and will be worked out by the Jaycees. And more hats are on the way. Thirty-six were received in the initial shipment, 74 more have been ordered, and others will be ordered as Horne receives the money for them.

Let's make McLean the Derby City.

Local Chapter Of Red Cross Gives Much Aid

Chilly weather early this week delayed the beginning of the annual drive for funds of the American Red Cross, but workers are expected to get started in full swing this week-end. J. W. Meacham, drive chairman, stated.

The goal for the McLean area is $981. National goal is $85,000,000 Meacham said.

The local chapter, principally through the home service chairman, J. Lester Dysart, has cared for numerous cases during the past year. This work is maintained through contributions to the fund annually, since a portion of the funds remains in the chapter fund, and the remainder is used by the Red Cross on a national scale.

During the past year, food was bought for a total of 32 children and their parents. Most of the children involved were very young, the home service chairman said.

Gasoline and oil were bought for 19 destitute families who were stranded in McLean. Repair jobs on four cars, operated by families who were unable to travel further without car repair, were paid for by the chapter.

Three needy families in the area received aid in the form of clothing bought for them.

Most of the money spent was expended on service men and their families, or ex-service men and their families, Dysart said. In addition, 26 telegrams for service men were sent by the chapter, and 12 long distance telephone calls were made.

"No cash was given to anyone," Dysart said. "All expenditures were made for actual needs. As home service chairman of the Red Cross, I have tried to help those who needed help. Some few were refused aid, because it was believed they were trying to 'use' the Red Cross and did not deserve aid."

Fog, Showers Bring .24-Inch Moisture Here

Winter weather continued to hang over the Panhandle area during the past week as a little more moisture fell and the temperatures ranged near freezing most of the time.

A total of .24 of an inch in moisture fell during the week-end, with .05 coming Saturday night, .15 Sunday, and .04 Monday. The moisture brought the year's total to 1.48 inches. Pete Fulbright, local weather observer, said.

Most undesirable of the week's weather came Saturday night, when a heavy fog enveloped the area. No serious accidents were reported, although several minor crashes of autos occurred. The fog had lifted by Sunday morning, and most of that day was fair and warm.

However, a cold front moved in late Sunday, and the temperatures remained either below freezing or near freezing through Wednesday.

The moisture was desired by the grass lands and by the young wheat crop. Sunday night and Monday morning, some of the moisture turned into very small snow flakes, although not enough snow fell to ever make headway in covering the ground.

Smith Called As Missionary

Rev. Wm. Albert Smith, who recently resigned as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in McLean, has been called to the Presbyterian church on the Indian Reservation near Livingston, to do missionary work.

Rev. Smith left this week to assume his duties, and will be back here once or twice a week for some time. Mrs. Smith, who is teaching in the McLean Grade School, will continue her duties there until the end of the school term.

The church to which Rev. Smith has been called has been on the reservation since 1870. The reservation, Texas' only Indian reservation, is located at Livingston, in Polk County, and has some 300 Coushatta and Alabama Indians living on it.

The reservation contains 1,280 acres of state-purchased land and 3,017 acres of federal-owned land. The forebears of the Indians there came to Texas and settled in their present location shortly after the Louisiana Purchase. They rendered valuable assistance to the early Texas pioneers in their struggle for independence from Mexico, and also aided the confederacy during the Civil War.

The reservation is under general supervision of the State Board of Control.

No Shaving Permit? First Trials to Be Saturday Afternoon

Shaving permits for those who do not care to grow beards to publicize the coming American Legion Rodeo and Pioneer's Homecoming, went on sale this week. The celebration will be held in April.

Several Legionnaires are handling the sale of the permits.

Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the first offenders will be brought to trial, and at least two of these offenders have been served with summons to appear before the court.

The trial will be held downtown, and everybody is invited to drop around and watch the proceedings.

The shaving permits are $2 each, and may be bought from Ed Lander, Hickman Brown, Lester Dysart, Luke Henley, George Terry, or J. W. Meacham.

Local Girl Cagers To Battle Canyon In Initial Game

Here's the line-up for the first-round play in the Region 1A-AA and 1-B basketball tournament for girls, to be played at Canyon today, Friday, and Saturday:

1:30 p. m.—Stinnett vs. Flower Grove; 2:50—Bovina vs. Claude; 4:10—Mobeetie vs. Mergel; 6:30—Dalhart vs. Aberrath; 8—McLean vs. Canyon.

Friday's games will open at 9 in the morning. Other Friday sessions will be at 10:20 a. m., 3 p. m., 4:20 p. m., 7 p. m., and 8:30 p. m.

If the McLean girls win the game from Canyon, they will meet the Wellington team at about 4:20 Friday afternoon.

More Questions Necessary for Town Meetin'

Several questions have been received, but more are needed to put before the City Council members when the American Legion sponsored Town Hall Meetin' is held in the Municipal Building Friday night, March 14.

The public is invited to attend the meeting, Howard Horne, Legion commander, and Haydn Bodenhamer, chairman of the Legion Americanism committee, said.

At the meeting, the questions sent in advance will be answered by the council to the best of their ability, as well as other questions which may be asked orally during the session.

All councilmen—Mayor E. J. Lander, Guy Hibler, Jess Kemp, J. C. Claborn, Ruel Smith, and C. P. Callahan—will be on hand at the meeting, as will City Secretary D. A. Davis and Utilities Superintendent Pete Fulbright.

Another form for sending in questions is included in this issue of The News. The question to which an answer is desired may be written on the form and mailed to Box V, McLean.

"The response to the idea of having a Town Meetin', wherein you can find out more about the way your city government is being conducted, has been disappointing," Horne stated. "We want lots of questions in advance, for many of them will require some forethought and research to be answered correctly. In other words, if not enough people are interested in the meeting, then the Legion will have to call it off. So please send in your questions now, to assure us of having a good, informative meeting."

The three branches of government in the U. S. are the Legislative, Executive, and Judicial.

Public Schools—

MANY VISITATIONS

Visiting the local schools was the principal portion of the observance of Public Schools Week in McLean this week, although two addresses were given by out-of-town speakers.

Rev. James Todd, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Shamrock, delivered an inspiring address before an assembly of high school students Tuesday morning, and Aaron Sturgeon, Pampa attorney, spoke before members of the Lions Club Tuesday noon.

The week's observance, proclaimed by Governor Allan Shivers, is being held throughout the state. It is designed primarily to interest citizens in their public schools, and all citizens are being urged to visit the schools at least two hours during the week.

The programs in McLean were worked out by the Masonic Lodge, the Lions Club, and the American Legion.

The assembly program, sponsored by the Legion, opened with

'Miss Ruby Cook To Be in Race For Alderman

Five candidates—including one woman—filed for the three positions on the City Council before the deadline of March 1—but Monday one of the five withdrew from the race.

The woman candidate for the council is Miss Ruby Cook. Others filing were Jess Kemp, Guy Hibler, S. A. Cousins, and Odell Mantooth. Cousins, however, withdrew from the race Monday. Deadline for withdrawing from the race is 20 days prior to the election, or March 11.

The city election, in which three aldermen will be chosen, will be held on the first Tuesday of April, which falls on April 1. Aldermen whose terms expire include Kemp and Hibler. The third alderman whose term runs out is J. C. Claborn, who did not seek re-election since he is a candidate for justice of the peace in the Democratic primaries next summer.

Kemp was the first to file for the office. Two days before the deadline of last Saturday, he was the lone candidate, and then the other four filed Friday and Saturday.

Miss Cook's entry in the race came as a surprise to many local residents, since it is the first time that a woman has sought one of the aldermen's jobs. She is well known to most residents. She made her home here for many years, and then moved to Chicago. She returned to McLean two or three years ago to resume her residence here.

The school board election will be held Saturday, April 5, at which time two board members will be chosen. The terms of J. D. Coleman and John Cooper—who has moved to Tucumcari, N. M.—expire this year. As of Wednesday, no candidates for the school board had filed with Chas. Cousins, business manager. However, candidates for these offices have until ten days prior to the election, or March 26, to file.

Prospects Dim For Fixing Dam

Prospects of the federal government making repairs to the spillway at Lake McChesnut in the near future are dim, E. O. Wedgeworth, Pampa C. of C. manager, and Bill Stubbs of Alameda, who returned last week from Washington, D. C. reported.

Wedgeworth and Stubbs returned Friday after appearing before a sub-committee hearing Thursday to present matters pertaining to appropriations for the agriculture committee. Rep. Walter (Continued on back page)

COACH DON LEACH'S District 1-A girls' basketball champions will compete for regional honors this week-end at Canyon. The local girls open defense of their regional title tonight when they meet the Canyon girls at 8 o'clock. Should they win the opener, the Tigerettes will play the winner of the Wellington-Paducah game Friday night, and a victory there would place them in the finals. The local girls, along with the powerful Dalhart sextet, will be favorites in the tourney, but either team could easily be upset along the way to the finals. Student boosters of the team will be furnished transportation to the game tonight, and numerous fans plan to make the trip. Pictured above is the entire squad of girls. They are: front row, left to right, Texetta McCurley, Dortha Chase, LaJune Chilton, Mary Graham, Joyce Bruner, Bonita Bailey, Christine Hunt, Sue Lively; middle row, left to right, Pat Patterson, Betty Jo Patterson, Sadie Smith, Annette Smith, Gene Havens, Lorrain Medley, Jo Ann Stevens, Bethie Mantooth, Mavis Medley; back row, left to right, Dixie Wardlow, Joyce Nicholas, Peggy Duncan, Jo Ann Guthrie, Patsy Herndon, Dixie Turpen, Evelyn Lee, and Coach Leach.

G O S S I P (More or Less) Friday, February 29, the Day of Prayer was observed at the First Presbyterian Church. The theme for the program was "Christ Our Hope," led by Rev. Don Alexander. Mae Beth Allen, Cpl. Eugene Bynum Are Wed in Pampa Marriage vows for Mae Beth Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Allen of Pampa, formerly of McLean, and Cpl. Eugene Bynum, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Bynum of Wilcox lease, Pampa, were read Sunday, March 2, at 3:30 o'clock in the Central Baptist Church in Pampa.

Rev. Hal Upchurch, pastor, read the double-ring ceremony against a background of double candelabra, flanked with palms and baskets of white gladioli. The sanctuary was marked with white satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white ballerina length dress of chantilly lace over satin with white nylon mist yoke with pearl seed lace, and long pointed sleeves. She wore a white Juliet hat entwined with seed pearls, a shoulder length veil, white satin slippers, and a strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. For something old, she wore her mother's engagement ring. She carried a single white orchid on a white ribbon, with a shower of love knots of white satin ribbon and carnations.

Peggy Allen, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Matrons-of-honor were the bride's sisters, Mrs. Bob Dorris of Pampa and Mrs. W. C. Simpson of McLean. Miss Allen wore a pink taffeta ballerina gown with pink net overskirt. Mrs. Dorris and Mrs. Simpson wore identical ballerina dresses of aqua blue taffeta, and carried colonial bouquets.

Flower girl was Norma Gay Dorris, niece of the bride. Elmer Bynum, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Philip Bynum of Dumas, brother of the groom, and Dewaine Johnson of Amarillo. Candle lighters were George Allen Dorris, nephew of the bride, and Ralph Bynum, brother of the groom.

Freda Worley played the wedding march. Winifred Walker sang "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "Wedding Prayer."

Following the ceremony, a reception was given for the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents.

The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with a two-tiered wedding cake and miniature bride and groom. The punch bowl was surrounded by gladioli.

Mrs. Bynum attended schools in McLean and Pampa, and has been employed by H. W. Waters insurance agency in Pampa.

Cpl. Bynum attended schools in Pampa, and is now in the army, located at Fort Sill, Okla.

For a short honeymoon trip to Oklahoma City, the bride chose a gray faille suit with pink and navy accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Fire Necessary, But Dangerous

Your habits change a great deal when the cold winds put a damper on lots of the outdoor activities. And even such outdoor fun as you do seek is quite a bit different from that of the balmy fall days.

Fires, outdoors and indoors, are the biggest change in living habits during the winter, and fires can also be one of the biggest threats to life. A fire is one example of the idea that a little bit of a good thing in the proper place is a blessing, whereas too much of a good thing in the wrong place is a great danger.

From infancy to old age, playing with fire is one of life's most dangerous habits, whether the fire be in a cooking stove, heater, camp fire, or just on the end of a match. There are few accidents that leave deeper scars than those caused by fire, affecting not only the person burned, but also those who love him.

Burns are classified medically as first, second, and third degree burns. First degree burns are those in which the skin is reddened. They are painful but there is slight danger of scar or infection since only the top layer of skin is burned. Butter or some bland salve applied gently to the burn will usually relieve the pain and a loose bandage over the burn will cut down any possible infection.

Second degree burns are the kind where blisters form, and third degree burns are those that have destroyed several layers of skin. Since the skin, which forms a protective layer for the body, is destroyed to some extent in these two kinds of burns, it is easy for the germs to grow there and cause infection.

Second and third degree burns that cover 10 per cent or more of the body are considered major injuries and should receive medical attention as soon as possible. If medical attention is not immediately available, wet packs may be applied to the burned area. You mix three tablespoons of baking soda or Epsom salts with a quart of warm tap water and dip clean strips of cloth into the liquid; place that over the burns and cover the whole area with dry, clean towels.

Burns that cover a large portion of the body are called massive burns, and the person should be wrapped in a large clean sheet, covered with as much other wrapping as the weather demands, and taken to a hospital as quickly as possible. If the person is conscious, your doctor may advise you to give him a glass of salt water en route to the hospital.

There is a state of shock which accompanies bad burns that cover a lot of the body. The body loses a lot of plasma, that yellowish, salty part of the blood, when burns scar the skin, and salt water, if your doctor advises it, may help replace some of the plasma until real blood plasma can be given at the hospital.

In minor burns, the greatest danger lies in infection. In major burns, there is always danger of infection and also danger to the person in a state of shock.

Fire is essential to life, but all precautions must be observed to keep fire in its place. Just like the family car, life is much easier with an automobile, but if that car isn't handled properly it can be a robber of life. Added to the year-round hazards of an automobile are the winter risks involved in starting the car in a closed garage and riding in the car with all windows up.

That air coming out of the exhaust pipe of your car contains carbon monoxide gas, a deadly poison. In an open place it is quickly thinned out in the air and is made harmless. In a closed place, however, it accumulates and when breathed into the lungs it causes suffocation. If all the windows of the car are up and no air is coming into the car, that carbon monoxide gas may accumulate in the car without your knowledge. It takes just a little circulation of air to make the odorless gas become harmless.

Suffocation by carbon monoxide poisoning is one kind of asphyxiation and the automobile is not the only source of the poisonous cause enough carbon monoxide to be pushed back into a tightly closed room to be a danger.

So you want adequate ventilation without draftiness to ward off the threat of asphyxiation, whether you're at home or in the car during the cold winter months. It's as simple as that.

The flag of Denmark is the oldest one in use today.

MAN OF DISTINCTION

If Top Brass in business can do it, you can, too! An important executive in a large company has learned something pretty special about laundering. This makes his frequent field trips a truly white-shirt affair, cuts to a minimum the problem of carrying a dozen shirts and equal amounts of underwear and saves, on shirts alone, $1.50 a week on laundry bills. And since he follows his wonderful technique even on vacations—his wife blesses him for his consideration in not bringing home a suitcase of soiled laundry!

He is so pleased with his "secret" that he wants to share it with others who travel a lot. The man-made fiber materials—nylon, dacron, orlon—are his choice for shirts, always white, of course. A package of bead bluing in his suitcase is his answer to keeping the shirts sparkling white and fresh... as simple as that! He makes a good suds of the bead bluing in hot water, squeezes the suds through and through the garments, then with hotel-supplied soap, rubs the extra soiled places on cuffs and collar. A good rinsing and the shirt is ready to hang to dry. Since there's no ironing necessary with these new fabrics, and they all dry so quickly, our imaginative executive sleeps tranquilly, with complete assurance that he'll have a beautifully clean, white shirt for the next day. Frequent washing of the man-made fiber fabrics in this manner has kept his shirts just as white as they were the day of purchase... Vive La France!

control the spread of this debilitating childhood disease. There were 1273 cases reported during the first 5 weeks of this year.

"Whooping cough can only be contracted by direct exposure to the disease, and isolation of cases must be universally practiced if the incidence is to be controlled," Dr. Cox stated.

"The infectious agent or germ of whooping cough is transmitted by droplets expelled in coughing, sneezing, or speaking," Dr. Cox said. "The discharges from the nose and throat are dangerous to susceptible persons; the need for early recognition and careful isolation of whooping cough is obvious. Your family physician should be called at the first sign."

"The first symptom of this disease is usually a dry cough, which persists day and night and tends to become increasingly severe. The disease is fully developed when vomiting of food and whooping accompany the paroxysm of cough. Dr. Cox stressed the fact that children who have whooping cough should not attend school or come in contact with other children until three weeks after the appearance of typical signs of the disease."

"Prevention and control of whooping cough, especially among infants and small children, may be accomplished through use of approved vaccine and convalescent serum," Dr. Cox asserted, "and it is important that such measures be taken to protect them. Neglecting to do so, and allowing the young child to suffer an attack of this disease, may seriously impair his future health."

Whether civilization is on the way out or not depends on whether we do, or do not, take the religious way again.—Dr. Arnold J. Toynbee.

STEP BY STEP

IF THERE IS ANY ONE THING which we are against with the greatest degree of opposition, it surely must be socialized medicine.

When we speak of socialized medicine, we mean, of course, the act of placing the medical care of all of us in the hands of medical men who get their pay straight from the federal government, and not from individuals. Britain, for example, has a form of socialized medicine.

Already we have allowed the federal government to take over some of our greater industries to some extent. Already we find the government in the power business, in the insurance business, in the manufacturing business, etc., etc.

Now there are those "pink" individuals who would place our bodies in the hands of the federal government. Judging from the way the government conducts its various businesses with inefficiency, greed, and graft, we can assume that, should our bodies be placed in the care of the federal government, we would not be long for this world.

The latest proposal for socialized medicine has come from Rep. John F. Kennedy, a Massachusetts Democrat, who has introduced a bill in the House which would give the federal government complete control and earmark all tidelands revenues for hospitals, medical services, and doctor training—actually a miniature socialized medicine program.

When the federal government, through a completely unjust decision of the U. S. Supreme Court, took over the tidelands—and their revenue—the funds were first to be used for national defense. Facts proved, however, that more oil was produced—and consequently more revenue—when the lands were under state operation, and so that argument, the national defense one, was dropped.

Next the federal grabbers wanted to divide up the swag among the schools of the nation, but they soon found they were robbing state school funds—those of Texas when the tidelands were taken over by the federal government—so they had to drop that argument.

And now Rep. Kennedy comes up with the wise (?) idea that the money can be used to start the socialists' dreams of socialized medicine.

What, oh, what, will some of the social dreamers in Congress think of next?

Prices are going up Up Up!

Take telephone wire, for example. It now costs 96% more than it did in 1940. Cable has gone up 100%. Poles, 119%. Trucks, 140%. Buildings, over 100%. And so with almost every item.

Any way you look at it, the cost of providing telephone service has gone up and up. In spite of all this, we've continued to expand, and we've been able to provide good, low-cost telephone service that keeps on growing in value, day by day.

Telephone service could cost more than it does and still, in comparison with other things, be a big, big bargain.

LES TALK

By LESTER

If you've been around McLean for very long, then you know who Moulton is. He is Moulton King. Moulton came to the Panhandle late in the 19th century, and he loves to tell the story of how he got off the train over in Hall County—or maybe it was Donley County—and settled down there as one of the early-day pioneers. I don't know just how long Moulton has been around these parts, but it's been quite a spell. He lived near Alanreed when I first came here, and then after visiting in other parts of Texas for a while, he returned here and is now living in McLean. Moulton enjoys fair weather, for that gives him a chance to sit on the corner and talk with others who are sitting around on the corner. He can nearly always be found—in the daytime—either on the bank corner or across the street. If there is a basketball game, you can find him at that at night. But he doesn't go in for football, doesn't like it, and can't understand why I do. Moulton's trademark is his cane, which, in his later years, he has been forced to carry. When he came in to have his picture taken, he wanted the cane to show, too, but the photographer couldn't get it in.

You sure ought to know this feller Moulton—he's quite a guy.

Here's a quotation from Charles F. Kettering worth thinking about: "I don't want men of experience working for me. The experienced man is always telling me why something can't be done. He is smart; he is intelligent; he thinks he knows the answers. The fellow who has not had any experience is so dumb he doesn't know a thing can't be done—and he goes ahead and does it."

Not long ago, Dusty Rhodes was reading The McLean News, and he says to Mrs. Dusty that he notices where McLean has a new railroad agent—and that the man is named D. A. Davis, and he wonders if that's old D. A. down at the City Hall. "Let me see that paper," says Mrs. Dusty. And so she looks at it a minute, and says, "Why, Dusty, you're reading the '40 Years Ago' column in the paper."

The derby hats do look rather nice, don't they? And unusual, too.

Don't forget the Town Hall Meetin', to be held in the Municipal Building Friday night, March 14. And don't forget to send in your questions which you want the city council to answer. The Legionnaires have received some questions, good ones by the way.

but not enough to make the meetin' real interesting. So send in your questions now.

Saturday is Dollar-Stretcher Day in McLean. There'll be many bargains again. Take advantage of them, and you'll save money.

Middle age is the time of life when a man stops wondering if he can escape temptation and begins to wonder if he's missing any.

Greatly agitated, a mother dashed into a drug store carrying her infant child. The druggist hurried to ascertain the cause of her distress.

"My baby swallowed a .22 calibre bullet!" she cried. "What shall I do?"

"Give him the contents of this bottle of castor oil," said the druggist, "but don't point him at anyone."

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO: A. J. CATES, GREETING:

You are commanded to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock a. m. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 7th day of April, A. D. 1952, at or before 10 o'clock a. m., before the Honorable District Court of Gray County, at the Court House in Pampa, Texas.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 6th day of November, 1951.

The file number of said suit being No. 10183.

The names of the parties in said suit are: LAUDENE STEWART CATES as Plaintiff, and A. J. CATES as Defendant.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit: That plaintiff and defendant were married November 2, 1951, and separated without fault on the part of plaintiff November 3, 1951. That plaintiff has been an actual, continuous and bona fide resident and inhabitant of the State of Texas for more than twelve months and of Gray County for more than six months immediately next preceding the filing of this petition. That the residence of the defendant is unknown to the plaintiff. That there are no children of this marriage of any age. That there is no community property. That the defendant has been guilty of physical cruelty which constitutes excesses, cruel and inhuman treatment and outrages of such a nature as renders their further living together insupportable, by reason of the fact that he struck the plaintiff with his fists, and inflicted other indignities upon her. Wherefore plaintiff prays that the defendant be cited to answer this petition and that upon hearing hereof that she be granted a divorce from the defendant, and that she have restored the name of Laudine Stewart, and that she have her costs and such other and further relief as to the court may seem proper.

If this Citation is not served within 90 days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

Issued this the 19th day of February, A. D. 1952.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Pampa, Texas, this the 19th day of February, A. D. 1952.

Patterns, Materials Discussed at Meet Of Local H. D. Club

The McLean Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday, February 27, for their regular meeting in the American Legion Hall, with Mrs. Margaret Grogan, president, in charge.

Mrs. Evelyn Stubblefield was hostess to the group, and Miss Helen Dunlap, demonstration agent, presented a demonstration on "Selecting Patterns and Materials." She spoke on five points to consider before selecting patterns or materials. Miss Dunlap also reminded members of the dress review to be held at Pampa in June and urged each member to make a cotton dress.

Mrs. Grogan was elected THDA delegate to the district meeting on May 8. Members voted to repair the northwest corner room of the Legion Hall to be used as their club room.

Answering roll call with the name of new materials on the market were Mesdames Odie Claborn, Eleanor Kritzer, Georgia Beasley, Martha Campbell, Ruth Kemp, Kathleen Dysart, Margaret Grogan, Maybelle Nash, Mary Powell, Alice Stubbs, Dorris Windom, Winnifred Rice, Pauline Horne, and Evelyn Stubblefield; and Miss Dunlap and two visitors, Mrs. Grace Powell and Mrs. J. S. Fuqua, THDA chairman from the Wayside Club.

The next meeting will be on March 12, when Mrs. Beryl Halbert, representing the Singer Sewing Machine Home of Pampa, will demonstrate the uses of the sewing machine attachments and show the correct way to put in zippers.

Baptist S. S. Class Has Monthly Party At Harlan Home

The Willing Workers Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church met for its regular monthly party Thursday, February 28, at the home of Mrs. Joy Harlan.

Donley County—SOIL NEWS

Bill Edens was the first to use the manure loader and spreader recently purchased by the Donley County Soil Conservation District.

The district supervisors, in making this equipment available to local farmers, were of the opinion that this loader and spreader will fill a great need in the district.

Most farmers feel they cannot afford to own this equipment for the amount of manure they produce on their farm. Now for only a nominal expenditure, any farmer may clean his lots and spread the valuable manure on his land.

Bill Edens reports that both the loader and spreader operate very nicely.

The hydraulically operated front end loader is mounted on the district-owned VAC model Case tractor. The rental for tractor and loader is $4.00 per day for each spreader used. Also the farmer furnishes the gas and oil for the tractor.

The manure spreader is a No. 200 McCormick-Deering 65 bushel capacity machine. The rental rate is $4.00 per day.

The following farmers are waiting their turn to use this equipment: Harold Graham, Doyce Graham, S. J. Ranch, Coleman Shields, and Otis Ivey.

Other farmers desiring to use this equipment should contact one of the district supervisors or leave word at the Soil Conservation Service.

Prospects—

Rogers led the delegation and presented witnesses.

Although members of the subcommittee seemed interested and sympathetic toward the proposal, Wedgeworth said they made no definite commitment as to what to expect. The group indicated that economic trends in the government will make the repair to the dam difficult. The item is included in the supplementary bill for the agriculture department.

Wedgeworth pointed out that the results of the hearing will not be known for several weeks and that meanwhile other plans to arrive at a solution will be studied. The $450,000 amount asked was arrived at through estimates made by the Soil Conservation Service.

Wedgeworth and Stubbs presented as their main arguments the danger to the people living below the dam, as well as danger to their livestock, land, and homes, should the spillway go out again.

Grass Seeding In Gray Shows Great Increase

Farmers and ranchers cooperating with the Gray County Soil Conservation District have started what appears to be a record-breaking grass seeding program. Celanese Corporation has seeded 300 acres of land to blue grama and buffalo grass at their plant near Kingsmill.

George M. Quible seeded 30 acres of grass on the farm he operates west of Pampa. Quible seeded a mixture of blue grama, buffalo, and western wheat grass. Noah Kite has seeded some crested wheat on his farm northwest of Pampa.

Guy Bidwell has seeded 20 acres of sand love grass and sweet clover on his farm northwest of McLean.

W. F. Taylor, who ranches five miles north of Pampa, just recently completed seeding 20 acres of blue grama and buffalo grass. Frank Thomas of Laketon seeded 50 acres of sand love grass on his farm.

Frank Howard of McLean is seeding alfalfa and about 50 acres of sand love grass. He plans to seed 100 acres of weeping love grass next month.

Grass seeding notes: Sand love grass and sweet clovers will give better results if seeded before freezes are over. Freezing softens the hard seed, which gives better germination. Cool season grasses, such as crested wheat and western wheat, give best results if seeded in the fall. Good results can be obtained by seeding in winter, but should not be seeded later than March 15. Warm season grasses, such as blue grama, buffalo, bluestems, Indian grass, side-oats grama, and switch grasses can be seeded with good results from February through May. Weeping love grass gives best results if seeded from the middle of March through May.

The following farmers and ranchers have recently become co-operators of the Gray County Soil Conservation District: J. J. Railsback, McLean; Marvin C. Webster, D. W. Swain, and A. J. Bell, Pampa; Myrtle Knopp and Ray G. Burger, Groom.

Mrs. H. E. Franks spent the week-end in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bill Stokstill and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wharton of Tulsa, Okla., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hindman.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Preston and daughter Kathy of Amarillo spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Preston and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert James Barnett of Lefors spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dwyer.
