

PLAIN TALK

By BILL PERKINS

No. It isn't Thursday. We didn't get our days mixed up. We just had so much good news this week we couldn't wait to tell you all about it.

Mr. Calvin Fraser has made what was a dream to most of us last week a reality this week. A factory will be operating in McLean within six months.

This is an EXTRA edition of THE NEWS and the regular edition for this week will be out Thursday as usual.

In our rush to get this extra edition out we are sure that many mistakes will slip by us and we hope you will understand.

The news of the factory seems almost too good to us to be true. Maybe after we see it in print it will seem more real to all of us.

Don't forget, your regular Thursday edition with all the grocery ads and local news will be out at the regular time.

GRAINGER McILHANY, representative of the 87th Legislative District, was re-elected to that office for another two years Saturday. MR. FRASER'S STATEMENT

By CALVIN FRASER
Form O Uth Owner

The Form O Uth Brassiere Company plans to start operations in McLean during the month of January or February.

In the interim, the company will be making preparations. Some alterations will be done to the building. Machinery must be brought in and installed. Key personnel must have preliminary training either in McLean or Gardena. And other work is involved to set up a modern garment factory.

Much is heard today of automation and work simplification. By mid 1957 the citizens of McLean will see these operating in their own city. The plant will be completely set up for proper flow and modern production methods by outstanding industrial engineers.

Initially the training of operators will be done by a cadre from Gardena. As soon as possible the plans are to train some McLean girls for supervisory work. Eventually the entire personnel will be local except for a production man and it is hoped to obtain this man from West Texas.

The personnel will consist principally of sewing machine operators. There will also be personnel for cutting, shipping, trimming, pressing, boxing, and clerical help.

The bulk of the personnel, needed must have a high degree of dexterity, so a careful selection will be made and tests given, in order that jobs can be spread among as many applicants as possible.

The plans are to train 50 or 60 people as soon as possible after operations are started. Then a gradual increase will be made in the working force. There is every hope that within two or three years there will be 100 local employees.

The building will be modernized so that all the girls will have the finest working conditions. Special emphasis will be directed to the comfort and benefit of the machine operators.

The garments will be shipped throughout the southwest area. Initially it will be confined to the retail outlets of the largest and finest firm in the country. Eventually the plan is to add production for distribution to department and specialty stores throughout the mid-west.

Unlike other garment factories the work will be constant. There will be no seasonal shut-downs. The girls are assured of constant employment throughout the year.

There will be news later on the subject, but the company is extremely happy with the attitude of the people of McLean and confident of developing from McLean girls, a factory as efficient as any in the country; a factory in which the citizens of McLean and the company can both be justly proud.

Mrs. J. H. Taylor of Nocona visited her niece, Mrs. T. E. Crisp, and family over the week-end.

Definite selection of McLean as the location for a new manufacturing plant that would employ 50 to 60 local women initially, with a potential payroll to over 100 persons weekly was announced this week.

The Form O Uth Brassiere Company plans to start operations in McLean in January or February, Calvin Fraser, owner of the company, said. Mr. Fraser was in McLean Monday and Tuesday to sign contracts and make all necessary arrangements with city officials.

The final signing of the contract this week which assures this city of the new manufacturing plant is the outcome of several months of negotiations between Mr. Fraser and the city of McLean. Negotiations began early in March.

Fraser Will Notify Local Applicants When Hiring Begins

Mr. Fraser, or his representative, will make all the interviews and decisions as to the hiring of personnel for the Form O Uth factory which will locate in McLean, Amos Page and Larry Fuller said Tuesday.

Page and Fuller stated that some local persons were under the impression that they were the ones to see for employment, but this is not the case.

The applications for employment and a dexterity test were given by Fuller and Page, but all this information was turned over to Mr. Fraser. Fraser will thoroughly study the information and tests obtained for him and will notify those who applied for employment when the hiring will be done and when the training will begin.

Both Fuller and Page emphasized the fact that they have no authority to promise employment to anyone. They explained that the entire matter of employment is up to Mr. Fraser and that they feel certain that he will give careful consideration to all who have applied.

Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Nachlinger and family of Pampa and Miss Patsy Teague of Canadian visited with Mrs. Martha Aldridge over the week-end.

McLean Park and Hospitality

MAKE HIT WITH TOURISTS

At least three families of vacationers from Ohio will always remember McLean as one of the friendliest spots in the friendly southwest, thanks to J. Boyd Smith and the accommodations of the city park.

Back in June the Jack D. Bennetts and two other families from Wooster, Ohio, were passing through McLean on two-weeks vacation trip that carried them to the Grand Canyon and other points of interest in the southwest. The tourists received permission to set up their tents and camp out for one night at the McLean city park.

Smith, who lives near the park, went over and introduced himself to the Ohioans and explained the fire whistle signal for a severe weather warning and assured them that they were welcome to use his cellar if unfavorable weather developed.

Smith said that the tourists were some of the friendliest folks he had ever met and after further discussion they said that the area around Wooster was similar to that around here in that most of the residents derived their livelihood from oil and agriculture.

Recently Smith received a letter from Ohio that said, in part: "We want to thank you for the hospitality you offered us that night at McLean. Wish you would convey our 'thanks' to the officials who were kind enough to let us camp in your swell little city park. Hope we may be able to return it all some time. We just got part of our pictures back yesterday and have been re-lying our trip. We sure enjoy looking at them."

Sincerely,
Jack D. Bennett."

NEW BOSS

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bunch are the parents of a daughter, Anita Carol, born at 12:30 p. m. Friday in Highland General Hospital. The new arrival weighed 7 pounds, 10 ounces. Anita has two sisters, Vicky Gail and Diana Jean.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Boyd visited in Dumas Sunday with his brother who was injured in the explosion.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Price and son of Abilene visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Price, the first of the week.

Immediately after learning that Mr. Fraser was planning to locate an additional plant in Texas, the city council called a meeting of all McLean business men to determine if most of the people here were in favor of trying to secure the factory here. It was decided by the group that a manufacturing plant of this type, hiring local labor, would be most beneficial to the town.

Given the green light to take steps necessary to encourage Mr. Fraser to locate his plant here, the mayor and council contacted Fraser immediately to arrange an interview. The interview granted, Boyd Meador and Larry Fuller flew to Gardena, Calif., to talk to Fraser and urge that he give McLean every consideration before making his final decision on the new location.

Since that time the city has kept in constant contact with Mr. Fraser, by telephone, telegraph and mail, supplying him with all information that he might need pertaining to the local situation.

Some two weeks ago Fraser flew to the Panhandle to personally inspect several towns in this area including Clarendon, Memphis, Childress, Wellington, and Canadian. Mr. Fraser indicated that he was favorably impressed with most of the towns he visited.

The efforts and enthusiasm of McLeans representatives were rewarded Monday when Mr. Fraser stated that he had definitely decided on this city as his new plant location and signed a contract to that effect.

The factory will be located in the building formerly occupied by the Hibler Implement Company on the north lane of Highway 66 near the First Baptist Church. Renovation of the building is planned as soon as Mr. Fraser's engineers lay out the plans for the interior. Painting and some work on the floor is planned immediately.

Editorial

CODE OF CONDUCT

The American soldier has weak loyalties to his family, his community, his country, his religion, and to his fellow soldier.

That was written in 1951 by the chief of intelligence of Red China's army in North Korea.

The authority is Major William E. Mayer. A former Navy officer who saw service in Korea with the Marines, he has been an Army medical officer in later years.

At the beginning, Major Mayer says, the team had the usual preconceived ideas as to what brainwashing, Chinese style, consisted of—torture, degradation, and brutalities of every kind.

The Americans chosen for this process went to schools. A long lecture was followed by a thorough discussion period. This went on each and every day, in accordance with the Chinese proverb that tells how the constant drip of water will wear away the hardest stone.

This, he goes on, was partly, but only partly, the fault of military training. "The prisoners caved in because of defects in the training in the homes, the schools and the churches."

What is the answer? The military services are taking steps, as in the President's new "Code of Conduct" for American prisoners of war.

WHEN YOU BUY GASOLINE

On July 1, the price of gasoline went up. The reason was a one-cent-a-gallon increase in the federal gasoline tax, raising it from two to three cents, as provided for in the new highway construction bill.

A sales executive of a leading oil company* had something important to say about this development: "We certainly agree that good highways are highly desirable. But we do feel that motorists should realize that the new tax rate on gasoline is the highest in the nation on any essential commodity."

The total gasoline tax paid by motorists has now risen to 40% of the retail price of gasoline. The combined national average state and federal taxes have climbed to 8.8 cents on every gallon of gasoline.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Two-Headed Freak

products. "A motorist should look on these taxes as an investment in building better highways for his own use.

The average motorist, who uses about 750 gallons of gasoline a year, pays about $66 a year in state and federal taxes on it."

There has been, and will continue to be, much debate as to how the huge federal road program should be financed. There are many who believe the higher gas tax is not the right way.

One of the very charming events of the week was the reception given for the members of the Embroidery Club and their friends Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. T. M. Wolfe, president of the club, and in honor of her guest, Mrs. Mary Robertson, and Mrs. Emma LeFors of Pampa, former president of the club.

After an informal hour spent in social conversation, contests were introduced, the most interesting being "Sweethearts of Famous Men." Among famous men listed was the name of the sweetheart of one of the young ladies present, which caused much guessing and surmising.

It is stated that this consolidation became necessary because the two run separately did not pay interest on the investment.

No one can dispute the fact that a good hotel is the best asset any town can possibly have, and in this respect there is no town west of Oklahoma City that is so favorably situated as is McLean.

Mr. Hindman has already acquired some ranch property near Endee, N. M., and it is likely he will move with his family there.

Are We Counting on the Other Fellow to Take Care of Our Future...

when he may not be working at the job

This is a good way to arrange for an unsatisfactory future . . . physical or economic.

For instance . . . some of us depend on our good neighbors to spend THEIR money in the home community to keep it going so we can make a living in it . . . while we do OUR buying somewhere else.

But . . . sort of like when a couple of fellows in a car each thinks the other one is driving . . . the habit of "Letting George Do It" can darken the future if George happens to be letting YOU do it.

And, anyhow, even if we DO have lots of good neighbors trading at home to support US, and our schools and churches and other community activities . . . THINK how much BETTER all of these would be supported if ALL OF US were buying everything we could at home.

Trading with home merchants is just good practical business sense anyhow . . . because we automatically get more for our money from them than out-of-town stores can give us . . . the EXTRA PREMIUM of community prosperity that only home business establishments can throw in for free with the goods we buy.

Of All the Business Establishments in the World— ONLY those in McLEAN are sincerely interested in McLean and in the future of YOU who live here . . .

Bob Dwight Resigns Newspaper Position To Take Up Farming

Robert E. (Bob) Dwight, a former McLean resident, has resigned his position as farm editor of the Post Herald and Register of Beckley, W. Va., a job he has held for five years.

Dwight is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dwight and a brother of Clyde, Jr., and David Dwight of McLean. Dwight will devote most of his time to expanding farming interests on his El Dorado farm near Beckley.

In his final column which appeared in a recent Sunday issue of the Beckley newspapers, Dwight said, in part:

"During the past five years it has been my pleasure to report the events of El Dorado to tell the farm experiences of the other farm families in this area. In this period we have been growing El Dorado as a full-time business enterprise for the Dwight family. We believe that we have nearly arrived at that goal. Anyway El Dorado has become more than a part-time enterprise.

"Over 2,000 laying hens in cages and several acres of commercial vegetable crops have proven more than a part-time job. Especially since our egg production is to be mainly devoted to direct consumption sales. We expect to be able to supply approximately 800 dozen eggs per week of top West Virginia grade AA eggs for the consumers in Beckley within a few weeks.

"That's about it, except that we realize that until our farm enterprises are fully developed we will have a rough row to hoe. But good management demanded that we devote more time to our farm. Some part-time off-farm employment no doubt will be sought during our next year or so to tide us through the thin months ahead. However, decency demands also that we not make a part-time job of writing this column which we feel is important to agriculture in southern West Virginia."

Antelope Hunting Permits Available

Formal applications for the fall antelope hunts are ready, announced the chief clerk of the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

Persons interested in the hunts should write him at commission headquarters in Austin. Blanks and instructions for formally applying will be forwarded promptly. Deadline for mailing requests for the applications is midnight August 31, which means they must be postmarked before midnight of that date.

E. A. Walker, director of wildlife restoration, estimated upwards of 1,000 head of pronghorn antelope will be available west of the Pecos, where both bucks and antlerless antelope will be taken. The remainder will be in the Panhandle.

Should more persons apply for the special permits than there are antelope available, the customary public drawing will be held in the commission's Austin headquarters.

The hunt west of the Pecos will be in two sections. The first will be October 1 through October 3, and the second October 5 through October 7. The Panhandle shoot will be in three periods, comprising October 11-13, October 14-16, and October 17-19.

The chief clerk admonished persons writing in for the application forms to indicate whether they prefer to hunt west of the Pecos or in the Panhandle. He said groups will be permitted to apply so that they may be permitted to hunt in the same party.

Hunting Licenses To Be Mailed Soon

The new hunting and fishing licenses for the state's fiscal year beginning September 1 will be mailed from Austin August 21, according to the chief license clerk for the Game and Fish Commission.

Approximately 350,000 fishing and 350,000 hunting licenses in all will be shipped to the state's 2,500 licensed agents in 254 counties.

Old licenses will be void after midnight August 31. Resident hunting licenses cost $2.15 and include two tags for deer hunting. Resident fishing licenses cost $1.65.

The consignments will include the special non-resident license for migratory bird hunting, such as ducks, geese and doves. These cost $5. A special five-day non-resident fishing license costs $1.65.

Miss Joyce Bruner And Gordon Keetch Are Married

Miss Joyce Bruner became the bride of Gordon Keetch of Amarillo on July 21 at 2:30 p. m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Stephens of Pampa. Rev. L. E. Barrett officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bruner of McLean and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Keetch of 1310 N. Polk, Amarillo.

The bridal party entered down a long stairway decorated with pink and blue carnations, the bride's chosen colors.

Baskets of white gladioli and pink and blue carnations flanked by pink tapers decorated the room.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Robert Bruner of Pampa. She wore an ice blue embroidered nylon organdy street length dress fashioned with a fitted bodice and tiny covered buttons and cap sleeves. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a net cap encrusted with blue seed pearls and white flowers. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid with white streamers.

The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a china bride and groom surrounded by net and pink roses.

Mrs. B. V. Maples of Littlefield, sister of the bridegroom, served the cake. Miss Helen Bruner, sister of the bride, served the punch.

Miss Sandra Stephens, niece of the bride, registered the guests. Thirty-five relatives and friends attended the wedding.
