Baptist Circles Meet Tuesday

Members of the Baptist WMS met Tuesday afternoon in circles. Mrs. Abbott's circle met in the home of Mrs. E. L. Day, with Mrs. Lonnie Day conducting the mission study.

The hostess served coffee and doughnuts to Mesdames Frank Payne, George Coibank, Bill Pettit, Homer Abbott, Bunia Kunkel, T. A. Langham, Leo Gibson and Lonnie Day; and two children.

The Helen McCullough circle met in the home of Mrs. Onie Vineyard.

The opening prayer was given by Mrs. Vineyard. Mrs. Mary Howard was in charge of the mission study. Mrs. Louie James led the closing prayer.

Refreshments of pound cake and punch were served.

Those present in addition to Mrs. Vineyard were Mesdames Joann Miller, Mary Howard, Katie Price, W. N. Pharis, Elizabeth Kunkel, Lillie Mae Williams, Louie James and Lahoma Herron; and two children, Dana Miller and Sue Kunkel.

The Oleta Snell circle met with Mrs. Joe Simpson for mission study.

Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served to Mesdames Clarice Voyles, Irene Williams, Oscar Tibbets, Geneva Mann, Mildred Giesler, Bernice Nicholson, and the hostess.

The Lena Lair circle met in the home of Mrs. Luther Petty.

Mrs. Joe Taylor, circle chairman, was in charge of the meeting, with Mrs. R. L. McDonald bringing the mission lesson from "Japan Advances."

Refreshments of cherry pie, cookies and coffee were served to Mesdames F. E. Stewart, J. M. Stevens, E. E. Wyatt, Bill Boyd, Taylor, McDonald, and Petty; and little Lynn Ellen Taylor.

The next meeting for this circle will be March 12 at the home of Mrs. Taylor.

Tuesday, February 26, will be visitation day, with all circles meeting at the church.

Friendship Class Has Luncheon

The Friendship Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church met recently for a luncheon in the home of Mrs. Fannie Allsup.

The fellowship was enjoyed by Mesdames Leroy Williams, Joe Simpson, J. L. Mann, Boyd B. Smith, L. F. Giesler, L. F. McDonald, Betty Allsup, and the hostess.

There has never yet been a man in our history who led a life of ease whose name is worth remembering—Theodore Roosevelt.

WSCS Meets Tuesday on Paul's Letters

The WSCS met at the McLean Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon for the last lesson on "Paul's Letters to the Churches." Every member was present.

The session opened with the song, "The Holy Spirit." Mrs. Ruth Ellen Riley reviewed the last lesson.

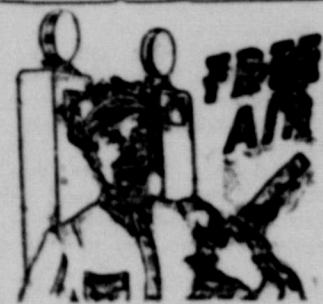

The subject for the meeting was the letters to the churches at Philippi and Thessalonica, by Mrs. C. M. Carpenter. Mrs. J. L. Andrews and Mrs. J. E. Kirby. Mrs. H. A. Longino read a letter from Paul to the McLean church. Mrs. Longino also had charge of the worship service, reading "The Cross of Jesus" to music played by Mrs. J. L. Hess.

In the candlelighting service, Mrs. Carpenter portrayed "Love"; Mrs. Kirby, "Hope"; Mrs. Rhodes, "Grace"; Mrs. Peabody, "Faith"; Mrs. Day, "Peace"; and Mrs. Page, "Joy."

For study-in-action, the society voted to buy a book, "The Tent Makers," for the library; to sponsor the film, "John Wesley," to be shown in the church next fall; and to give a dramatic worship service some time later.

Everyone attending the study on Paul's letters felt they had derived much from it.

A man managed to board a street car the other day, after a hot chase.

On regaining his breath, he said, jokingly, to the conductor: "Suppose I'd slipped and lost a leg—what then?"

"Oh," answered the conductor, with unwanted politeness, "you wouldn't have to do any more running then; we always stop for a man with a crutch."

'Cadillac' Narrated By George Burns

George Burns, whose activities for the past several years have been devoted to the Burns and Allen television show, returns to motion pictures as narrator for Columbia Pictures' "The Solid Gold Cadillac," to be shown at the Avalon Theatre Sunday and Monday. Burns' deadpan comments on the daily doings in Wall Street open and close the comedy in which Judy Holliday plays a blonde chick who gives big business the business, while Paul Douglas is seen as the tycoon with Wall Street to Wall Street carpeting.

Also in the featured cast are Fred Clark, John Williams, Hiram Sherman, Neva Patterson, Ray Collins and Arthur O'Connell.

Frankie Laine Stars In 'He Laughed Last'

Columbia Pictures' "He Laughed Last," starring Frankie Laine and Lucy Marlow and co-stars Anthony Dexter and Dick Van Dyke, will be at the Avalon Wednesday and Thursday.

The new Columbia Technicolor comedy is said to be a hilarious record of what happens when a circus girl inherits a gangland's toughest mob and Frankie Laine as her singing body guard. The comedy was penned for the screen by Blake Edwards, who also wrote the story with Richard Quine.

Mrs. Lena Furber returned home Tuesday from Clovis, N. M., where she had been called by the illness of her mother, who died Sunday, February 17.

Personals

Mrs. Brown Hopkins and daughter, Bobbie, of Norman, Okla., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Boyd.

Mrs. Raymond Glass and Mrs. Harris made a trip to Pampa, Okla., Sunday.

W. L. C. M. Carpenter and John Hess attended the Top of Texas show in Pampa Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Windom have returned from a four month visit in California.

Mrs. Roy Barker and W. M. Rhodes were in Pampa Tuesday on business and

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Pickett and children of Amarillo visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Petty, Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Lena Jones is visiting in Stumett with her daughter, Mrs. Vernis Immel, and family. Mrs. Immel was released Monday from Highland General Hospital in Pampa after undergoing surgery last week.

Kephart, professor of psychology at Purdue University, speak as psychologist, educator and authority in the field of perception. Dr. Kephart's subject dealt with the building of visual achievement through the related fields of optometry, psychology and education, and the recognition of the integration of three scientific disciplines centering in optometry.

Also heard were Dr. Harold Wiener, extern of Gossell Institute of Child Development and prominent optometrist of North Arlington, N. J., who talked on modern lens application and visual training; Dr. Victor S. Glover of Roswell, N. M., who discussed "Developmental Vision in Children"; Dr. A. M. Skeffington, director of education for the optometric extension program, who talked on "The Importance of Vision in Our World Today"; and Dr. Edmund F. Richardson, a past president of the American Optometric Association and now director of study groups for the optometric extension program, whose subject was "Optometry's Responsibility in Building Visual Achievement."

The congress, a graduate level meeting, was attended by more than 300 optometrists and their wives from all states throughout the Southwest area. Also registered were a number from California, Missouri, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Florida.

Wood-Hunter Team Featured in 'The Burning Hills'

"The Burning Hills," a new outdoor action drama presented by Warner Bros. in CinemaScope and WarnerColor, opens Friday and Saturday at the Avalon Theatre. Co-starred in the leading roles are a new pair of young screen lovers, Tab Hunter and Natalie Wood.

Hunter, recipient of the first Audience Award as "Outstanding New Personality for 1955," has apparently borne out the confidence placed in him in his first film, "Island of Desire," in which he was teamed with Linda Darnell, by following it with such solid successes as "Track of the Cat" and "Battle Cry."

Natalie Wood, long considered one of Hollywood's most promising young stars, seems to have outgrown her child-star status and developed into a full-fledged actress of considerable stature.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to express my sincere thanks to McLean friends for the remembrances of cards and visits to my daughter, Mrs. Marie Immel, while she was in the hospital.

Mrs. Lona Jones

Most recently, she was co-starred with the late James Dean in "Rebel Without a Cause," for which she received an Academy Award nomination for the best supporting actress.

prevents the "knock you cannot hear!"

Engineers call it "trace knock," and only the trained ear can hear it.

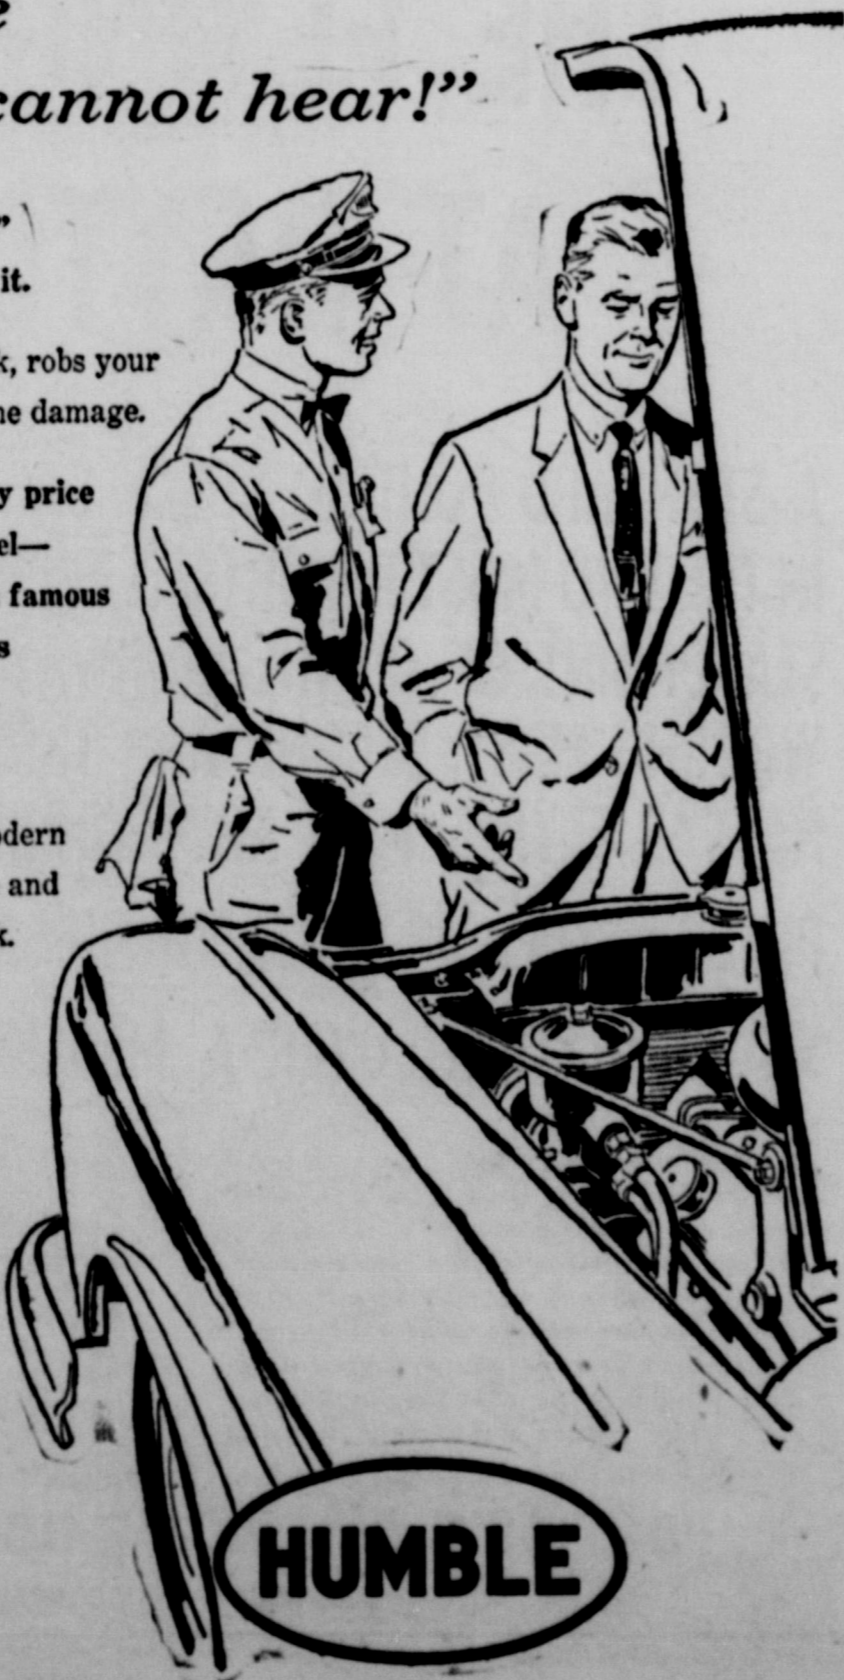

But trace knock, like any knock, robs your engine of its power, forecasts engine damage.

If yours is a modern car in any price class—especially if it's a 1957 model—prevent trace knock with Humble's famous Esso Extra, the gasoline that gives you extra anti-knock performance.

And that's not all! Esso Extra delivers full power output from modern engines. It gives maximum mileage and extra protection against vapor lock. It gives easy starting and warm-up.

WHERE THE BLAME DOESN'T BELONG

A U. S. News & World Report feature article bears the provocative and disturbing title "Is a Buyers' Strike Coming?"

The article says a real strike of that kind is not believed to be imminent—but that sales of some kinds of goods are slowing, and that there is more grumbling over prices among consumers.

Human nature being what it is, this is probably inevitable. When consumer resentment over inflation flared shortly after World War II, merchants bore the brunt of the attack...

Merchants are not responsible for higher prices, now or in the past, and the profit figures prove it. The food chains, for instance, often earn only a cent of profit on each dollar of sales...

Narcotics, Liquor, Women, Gambling: They're All Part of the Duval Story

By-FREDERICK HODGSON SAN DIEGO, TEX.—No self-respecting boss-run barony is complete without its quota of syndicated sin. And Duval County, Texas, is no exception. For the moment "the heat is on" and the gambling wheels are stilled, night sin-spots like El Ranchito are closed, most of the women of easy virtue are in exile and traffic in illegal liquor and narcotics is very much under wraps.

sales dollar. All the rest goes to buy supplies, pay wages, rents and taxes, and to meet other unavoidable overhead expense. Wages have been going up, in some cases sharply, and so have other costs borne by business on both the manufacturing and retailing levels.

WARNING FROM THE TOP

Directly after the President presented his proposed $71.5 billion budget to Congress, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey held an unusual press conference. He said that the budget is "the best we can possibly do at present."

The secretary and the other officials concerned with this problem must have real public support—which means, above all, that we must approve and accept economy measures that affect us, and not just the fellow next door.

40 Years Ago— IT HAPPENED HERE

Taken From the Files of The McLean News, 1917

Alaheed Culture Club The Ladies Culture Club of Alaheed was very charmingly entertained on Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. J. Ball.

Delicious refreshments consisting of brick ice cream with chocolate and angel food cake were served to Mesdames J. M. Blackwell, C. C. Slavin, J. W. Kolb, S. L. Ball, J. T. Blakney and E. B. Reeves.

Mrs. Kolb will be hostess to the club on Wednesday.

Buy Fine Herefords J. S. Stephens, who owns a splendid ranch south of McLean on Skillet Creek, has recently purchased a fine two year-old bull from C. M. Carpenter at a price which shows that the trend of quality in beef breeding in this section is directly upward.

This animal which will be two years old in March is an Anxiety bull and was christened Beau Mere 17. His sire was Beau Mere, a son of the famous Beau Brummel, and his dam was a direct descendant of Lamplighter, another famous Hereford sire.

We are glad to note this trend in beef breeding as it bespeaks an advancement in the industry that will eventually put this section in the van with the most progressive and prosperous stock farming sections of the United States.

Last Friday Mr. Carpenter received from a breeder in Clark, Mo., another fine calf which is also from the Anxiety strain. This animal is a splendid individual and gives promise of development into the blue ribbon class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foster are entertaining a little son at their home.

Miss McCurdy attended a lyceum number at Shamrock Friday night.

It is urged that the city council take some action in the near future toward furnishing water for the town, as with present

Jones, who is nothing if not frank, admits without any quibbles that his client is no saint. He depicts George B. Parr as a man who gets what he wants when he wants it and who isn't overly squeamish about methods.

The well-dressed little lawyer, who presumably knows what is going on inside the Parr machine, has some interesting ideas about the future of Duval.

Should George B. Parr lose his battle, even be sent to prison, this does not mean the end of the Parr dynasty. Another Parr, the Duke's nephew, Archer Parr II, is ready to take over.

Should this switche happen, Duval history would be repeating itself. George Parr deposed his father just twenty years ago.

Archer Parr is a personable young man, 35, a Marine veteran, a family man, educated, and well schooled in the rough and tumble of Duval politics. He has served as sheriff under his uncle.

George B. Parr "did time" in Federal prison, in El Reno, Oklahoma, back in 1936. The charge was cheating on his income tax.

When he got back home to San Diego he was greeted as a hero, as a man who had suffered persecution for the sake of his people. He was met by a brass band and by dancing in the streets.

But he returned to find that wire cutters had been at work on the Parr political fences, that his father, Senator Archie Parr, the then reigning Duke of Duval, was unable to ride the range as of old.

George took over the power in Duval. His father went into exile, to live at the Nueces Hotel in Corpus Christi until his death.

Again George Parr is under indictment for income tax cheating, and again his followers say he is being persecuted for their sake. Should he again be convicted, on the tax charge or any one of a number of other Federal or State charges now pending against him, including a charge of using the mails to defraud, anything can happen in the county of Duval.

However, Luther Jones to the contrary, there is a vast difference between the Duval of 1936 and the Duval of 1956. (As a matter of fact, there is a vast difference between the Duval of 1954 and 1956, which will be the subject of the two final articles in this series.)

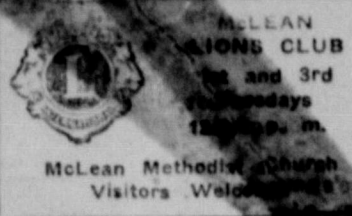

Twenty years ago the Parr power was solid as the Rocky Mountains, and seemingly as permanent. Men in Austin and Washington fawned upon the Duke, courted his favors, jumped when he crooked his little finger.

Parr could, and did, deliver 100 to 1 majorities in any election. He could loftily ignore the mundane doings of ordinary politics. He was the puissant prince, after the fashion of the Middle Ages.

But Parr has been projected, head over heels, into the unsympathetic new world of the mid-Twentieth Century. The alchemy of his time has changed his county. George B. Parr was born just 600 years too late.

Actually, it was more than alchemy that changed Parr's county. The last two articles of this series will deal with what radical changes can be made in a boss-ridden county when one Attorney General gets it into his head that feudalism has got to go.
