Pioneer Study Club Meets Thursday With Loree Brown

The Pioneer Study Club met Thursday for their regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Hickman Brown.

Guests were served in lovely tea room atmosphere in keeping with an interesting program on "The Bible" by Mrs. June Woods. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Elmo Whaley.

Those attending the meeting were Mesdames Clyde Magee, Guy Hester, Forrest Hupp, Elmo Whaley, Bill Reeves, Harold Bunch, Earl Stubbsfield, June Woods, Hickman Brown, Jack Riley, David Fultz, Jim Back, Freeman Melton, Jr., Sinclair Armstrong, Jim Hathaway, Creed Lamb, Jesse Coleman and W. E. Bogan; and Miss Billie Brown.

Baptist Circles Meet Tuesday

The WMS of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday with the circle chairmen for organization.

Rowden Circle
Twelve women met in the home of Mrs. Oscar Tibbets and chose the name of Rowden for their circle. The name was chosen in honor of Paul and Marjorie Rowden, missionaries in Nazareth and Haifa, Israel, but are returning to the states because of Mr. Rowden's health.

Officers for the circle were elected as follows: Mrs. Luther Petty, secretary and publicity chairman; Mrs. George Colebank, Bible study; Mrs. Joe Taylor, stewardship; Mrs. Frank Howard, mission study; Mrs. Elmer Day, community; Mrs. Bill Pettit, enrollment; Mrs. Frank Simpson, prayer; Mrs. Elbert Lisman, young people. Others present were Mrs. Homer Abbott, WMS president; Mrs. Joe Willis, Mrs. W. N. Pharis, and Lynn Elynn Taylor.

The devotional was brought by the chairman, with prayer by Mrs. Pharis. Mrs. Colebank directed the Bible study.

Refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Peterson, followed the group with prayer.

The meeting next week will be in the home of Mrs. Colebank at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon for mission study.

Hancock Circle
The Hancock circle met in the home of Mrs. R. L. McDonald. Mrs. McDonald was in charge of the Bible study.

A business meeting was conducted and officers were elected. Those attending were Mesdames Leo Gibson, Bunia Kunkel, Creed Lamb, L. F. McDonald, Leroy Williams, Joe Suderman, Jim Stevens, and Tobe Ramey. Children present were Rachel and Laura Suderman.

Doris Knight Circle
The Doris Knight circle met Tuesday night at the church with Mrs. Hazel Smith as chairman. The officers for the coming year were appointed. They are: mission study, Mildred Giesler; Bible study, Edna Herron; Royal Society, Beth Kunkel; enrollment, Edna Graham; stewardship, Darlene Thompson; community missions, Rae Simpson; prayer chairman, Marjorie Fowler; publicity, Jean Bohlar.

Refreshments were served to Rae Simpson, Edna Graham, Jean Bohlar, Marjorie Fowler and Mildred Giesler.

The group will meet at the church next week with Jean Bohlar as hostess.

Fulbrights Entertain Young People Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Fulbright entertained a group of McLean young people in their home Friday evening immediately following the game.

Several games were played and refreshments of sandwiches, punch and cookies were served. Those attending were Martha Cardwell, Charlene Hall, Linda Grimsley, Fern Grimsley, Flo Nell Crockett, Weldon McCurley, Troy Butrum, Melvin Butrum, Clarence Smith, Billy Crockett, David Crockett, Paul Baker, and Mrs. David Fultz, and Mrs. David Fultz, and Mrs. David Fultz.

McLean Young Folks Enjoy Outing in Pampa Saturday

McLean youth enjoyed a skating and theatre party in Pampa Saturday evening, October 5. After skating, the group ate at a cafe and attended a Pampa theatre.

Those attending were Fern Grimsley, Linda Grimsley, Flo Nell Crockett, Charlene Hall, Martha Cardwell, Darla Jane Hill, Marsha Andrews, Frankie Yearwood, Jim Allison, David Woods, Fred Smith, Johnny Anders, Jack Back, Clarence Pierce, Weldon McCurley, Bob Weaver, Melvin Butrum, Gary Back, Billy Crockett, Douglas Crockett, David Crockett and Jackie Don Bailey. Also attending the skating and theatre party were Verlene Tinkler of Kellerville, Janice Holland, Dan Wilt and Steve Garner of Groom.

Sponsors of the group were Mr. and Mrs. John D. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dwyer and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McClellan.

ATTENDS REUNION

Mrs. C. E. Matthews returned to her home Tuesday after a two-weeks vacation with her brother and sister at Stephenville and Cleburne. While at Stephenville she attended a reunion of the family of her father, the late L. W. Cartwright. Mrs. Matthews met several relatives whom she had never seen and many she had not seen since childhood.

Returning to McLean with Mrs. Matthews were her sister, Mrs. Lucille Martin, and daughter, Tina, former McLean residents; her sister-in-law, Mrs. Otis Cartwright; her niece, Mrs. Harry Jones, and friend, Maggie Bouldin, all of California. Mrs. Matthews plans to accompany them to California and visit her daughter, Mrs. Debb Smith, and other relatives.

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

Some folks may think we ought to leave the folks alone who move off and forget to tell the Internal Revenue Service where to mail their refund checks. The Dallas district has accumulated about 40,000 such checks over the years. There are several thousand for this year in the miles now in spite of one newspaper printing all the names and helping to clear out thousands of them. The tax refund lady gets old clippings from our comments on the checks.

If you have a refund coming and have moved from your old address or forgot to put your address on your tax return and you were not notified that your return was selected for a pre-refund audit, you ought to look at your copy of your 1956 return and see if you did have a refund coming. If you were due a refund and are sure you haven't received it, you should write to Tax Refund Lady, Internal Revenue Service, 2101 Pacific Avenue, Dallas, Texas. Be sure and give full details.

RIP IN JAIL

Austin.—A cemetery isn't always the best place to rest in peace, a 51-year-old Oklahoma City man found out.

He was kicked out of an Austin burial park by police after an attendant found him snoozing between some graves. Police explained that to rest there you had to be dead—not just dead drunk.

He was given a new resting place at city jail where he was booked for vagrancy.

A knowledge of the science of being develops the latent abilities and possibilities of man.—Mary Baker Eddy.

STATE OF HEALTH CAN BE FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE AGAINST ILLNESS

Austin.—Your general state of health can be a first line of defense against illness, particularly now that the season of infectious diseases is here. Resistance to complication of colds, flu, and other illnesses is influenced by how you eat, sleep, exercise and relax before you get sick.

Food means different things to different people, but the net effect is the same: food not only supplies energy to the human machine but also provides building materials to renew body tissue.

Good nutrition is largely a matter of getting enough of the right foods. And since this is true, it is a good idea to take a look at your eating habits. Your regular diet should be built around:

"A daily serving of meat or fish, about four eggs a week, some cheese, at least two glasses of milk daily, two servings of raw or slightly cooked green or yellow vegetables, two servings of fruit, and some potatoes, bread or other grain products.

Desserts, candy, and beverages such as soft drinks and coffee are not essentials, but they are sometimes pleasant additions.

Other items in your diet can be as extensive or limited as you wish, provided you watch for "spoon-in-mouth diseases," leading to overweight.

One fact about food that cannot be overemphasized is the value of a good breakfast. And a coffee break isn't breakfast! Many people find the demands of their job in the home or office take so much out of them they feel all used up at the end of the day. This is apt to be literally true, especially if breakfast has been by-passed.

Many times an "all gone" feeling in the late morning comes about like this: When you get up in the morning you've been without food for a good many hours. Yet you may not experience a feeling of hunger. You seem to get along for a few hours on a sub-standard breakfast, but around 11 o'clock you can't wait for lunch. Errors in your work are most apt to happen at this time.

To forestall fatigue, to reduce errors, to assure yourself of a steady level of health, fortify yourself with a sure combination —a good night of sleep and a really basic breakfast, such as fruit, toast, eggs, cereal and milk. If you can eat breakfast through lack of appetite, start now to cultivate the habit of a good morning meal and soon you'll find you can't do without it.

Remember, too, as you review your eating habits to take a look at your ways of eating as well. The relaxed, pleasant meal . . . tempting, colorful dishes . . . quiet conversation are all tools for better health.

From a PASTOR'S STUDY

By Gerald L. Hill

(ED. NOTE: This is the first of a series of articles to be written by members of the McLean Ministerial Alliance. Participating ministers will rotate in the preparation of this column each month. Columnist for the month of October will be the Rev. Gerald Hill, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.)

You have noticed recently certain articles which have appeared in this paper concerning the McLean Ministerial Alliance. We sincerely believe that this organization will serve the community's needs better through this concerted effort, for it is our purpose to "provide the means whereby the churches of the community . . . may witness to their common loyalty to the Lord Jesus Christ."

Jansen once said that "the way a man faces his life, there are different religious approaches." Recognizing our different approaches is quite elementary. What we all must do is center our thoughts more on the One who said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life," through our common loyalty and devotion. Our salvation does not lie in our approach. It rests solely in Him.

As Augustine, who lived in the fourth century, put it, "Walk by Him the man and thou comest to God. By Him thou goest; to Him thou goest. Look not for any way except Himself by which to come to Him. For if He had not vouchsafed to be the way, we should all have gone astray. I do not say to thee, seek the way. The way itself is come to thee: arise and walk."

Let us pledge ourselves to follow more closely that One who is the way.

A prayer: Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who hast comest in the form of a man, to walk the paths of earth with men, grant unto us that same humility and steadfastness of purpose to show God to the world, that we may be caught up from all our own desires, seeking not ourselves, but Him only, who is Christ Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

Christmas Mailing Dates Suggested For Servicemen

The following dates of mailing have been suggested by the Post Office Department to effect delivery of Christmas parcels to members of the armed forces overseas by Christmas Day.

Surface mail—November 1-20.
Air mail—December 1-10.

Size and weight restrictions:
Air mail—2 pounds maximum weight, 30 inches length and girth combined.
Surface mail—maximum weight varies from 50 to 70 pounds, 100 inches length and girth combined, except to certain APO's.

Since the regulations vary, depending on the APO to which the parcel is sent, it would be wise for those who intend to mail parcels to army and navy post offices to come by the local post office and secure the necessary information they will need to prepare their parcels for mailing.

The daddy-long-legs lives on small insects and is entirely harmless to man.

By Hugh Williamson

Now that the dove season is open in the South Zone, more Texans are brightening their shooting eyes.

Hunters know the mourning dove is like a good halfback. He's shifty and he has a deceptive change of pace.

He's not as fast as some birds, but if you can hit a dove you can hit any bird that flies.

Here is a shooting stance recommended by expert shooters.

First be sure both feet are solid on the ground, unimpeded by brush. The left knee should be slightly bent.

Now Do This

When the bird comes along, swing the gun along his line of flight. Shift your weight from right to left foot, and squeeze the trigger as you pass him, leading the bird just enough.

What do I mean by just enough? I mean that you don't zig when he zags. Also that you don't speed up when he slows down, or vice versa.

Seems simple, doesn't it? Why not try it sometime?

But try it with a lighter gun than your father or grandfather used.

There are two big reasons for a lighter gun. One is that you can swing it more easily as you follow the bird in flight. The other is that those old 12-gauges get heavy along about the end of the day.

And nowadays you can do fine shooting with a "20" because of improved loads.

Note on Color
Hunters customarily have worn red to make themselves known to other hunters and thereby avoid being shot.

But now comes a color change because optometrists at two army posts have discovered that yellow can be distinguished more easily and quickly than any other hue.

Red was one of the worst colors for being readily seen, according to the tests. The ranking was this way: yellow, orange, green, red, blue.

All of which makes me wonder if yellow is a favorite color for fishing lures because the fish see it quickly, the same as we do.

A friend of mine, who had great fishing success on a South Texas lake, not long ago reported that it didn't make any difference what kind of lures he used, so long as they were yellow.

The other day a partner and I were fishing on Lake Austin, and the only bass caught were on a yellow Lucky-13.

Guessing Game
You might follow through on this and speculate that bluegills readily strike golden larvae because of their color. But you would doubtless run into complications. For example, I took a fine string of bluegills recently, using those coal black crickets that have been so plentiful.

Talking about bait is a good part of the fun—but there's one conclusion I have drawn: I'll always have a few yellow lures in my tackle box.

Another tip about lures is to use light ones when the day is bright; dark ones at dawn, dusk, or night. Trying to figure that one out (at first thought it seems the reverse ought to be true). I reason that in dark waters the night sky seems bright.

And in daylight the blue sky is darker than the sun-filled, reflection-bright water. In any event you should use a lure that is easily spotted because of contrasting shade.

Fishing Best Now
Fishing is going to be at its best for the next few months. There are several reasons why that is true.

Most of the vacationers have gone back to work. This cooler weather encourages the fish and discourages the water skiers. And many quondam fishermen have gone to the sunflower patches for doves, further reducing the angling population.

Fishing is good in the spring—before the heat and the tourists set in.

But why fishing is generally thought of as a summer sport, I'll never know.

For that matter, I'll never know why summer is the vacation time for most folks. Spring would be a better time. So would fall. Even winter. Who wouldn't enjoy a couple of weeks off around Christmas and New Year's Day?

It's Being Done
But no—we take vacations in the summer because people always have done it that way and we're too full of inertia to change.

For the same reason, I suppose, we wear a coat and tie in summer because our forebears in England did. England—where I took a nap on the afternoon of July 24 one year and missed the whole warm season.

Anyway, most anglers will agree that Texas fishing in the hot summer months is poor. A lot of anglers won't even try it. They hang up their rods until October comes.

A lot of us keep trying. I know a place where you can always catch gaspergou in July. I know another place where your chances are good to get a string of white and black bass in July and August. Sometimes the trotliners get catfish.

Then, there's always the coast where, if they don't actually bite every day, they do bite some days. And if you hit a good one you're in.

But fall's the time for the best and biggest fish.

Water containing only a small percentage of potassium cyanide will dissolve silver and gold.

In its earlier days Detroit was proclaimed as "the Constantinople of the western world."

NATIONAL PHARMACY WEEK—OCTOBER 6-12

This is National Pharmacy Week . . . during which the nation is paying its annual tribute to a man who . . . together with the doctor and the nurse . . . comprise our nation's health team . . . our front line of defense against

He is our neighborhood pharmacist . . . the behind the counter, so to speak. There are more than one hundred thousand pharmacists in this country . . . and about fifty-five thousand drug stores . . . all ready night and day to serve the public.

Yet, the heart of the drug store is still the prescription counter . . . the pharmacist who translates the doctor's symbols into medicines that help bring you back to good health.

The pharmacist is the only retail business man who is required by law to have a college degree . . . to pass a rigid examination. Aside from being a business man . . . and the "scientist behind the counter" . . . what is the pharmacist?

He is the doctor's colleague and trusted aide . . . he is the physician's "warehouse" of drugs for he must stock every drug that may be prescribed by your doctor. The pharmacist is a good neighbor . . . and a good citizen. But he is, first of all, a public servant, ready night and day to provide the drugs your doctor needs to treat your ills.

Without the pharmacist . . . his special knowledge and storehouse of drugs . . . the constant fight against disease would be difficult. The filling of a prescription may take but a few minutes . . . or it may take much longer . . . and in the end you have a product, competently compounded, that might save your life.

Because of the high sense of responsibility pharmacy demands, it draws only the highest caliber citizens to its ranks . . . the college course is tough . . . and the continuing job of education . . . keeping abreast of latest developments in the drug field . . . is demanding.

So let the citizens of our city show their appreciation for the fine service of pharmacy by dropping into their local drug store some time during this week for a friendly word with the pharmacist. You'll find that in addition to all else, he's a pretty regular fellow besides.

NATIONAL BIBLE WEEK

National Bible Week, the annual all-faiths observance sponsored by the Laymen's National Committee, Inc., will be observed from October 21 to 27 this year. Charles R. Hook, chairman of the Armco Steel Corporation, is national chairman and serving with him as his honorary vice chairmen (representing the three major faiths) are James A. Farley, chairman of the board of the Coca-Cola Export Corporation; Sidney Weinberg, partner of the investment house, Goldman, Sachs & Co.; and H. W. Prentiss, Jr., chairman of Armstrong Cork Co.

In today's world—a world confused, tense, and floundering—more and more of us find that the Bible provides the true solace and understanding of life and our fellow men. It is in the Bible that we find the fundamental laws that govern the right way of living and the pathway to everlasting peace. . . . The Bible is not just another book—it is, always has been, and always will be, the greatest Book of all. It is the Book we must acknowledge as being always a part of us—TODAY, TOMORROW, FOREVER.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

Blair, Wisc., Press: "Every government official or board that handles public money should publish at regular intervals an accounting of it, showing where and how each dollar was spent. We hold this to be a fundamental principle of democratic government."

Liberal, Kans., Daily Times: "Awareness of the lack of water supply in the U. S. today is in about everybody's mind. However, if you think we have troubles now, take a look on down the road, say two decades hence. It is estimated that by then America's water supply will have to be doubled."

IN HOMETOWN AMERICA

Fulton-Bailey

Walter Bailey of Heald and Miss Frieda Fulton of south of town surprised their friends on Wednesday last week when they went to Shamrock and got married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Patterson, the Methodist minister at Shamrock, at the parsonage.

They are now at home on the groom's farm in the Heald community. The News joins in extending congratulations.

Cattle Shipments

J. E. Cubine shipped two cars of cattle to Kansas City Friday. The same day Cox and Crabtree shipped one car of calves and one car of cows, which were sold in the Kansas City market.

Noel and Stanfield shipped four cars of cattle to Kansas City on Friday of last week.

School Honor Roll

The honor roll for the 6th and 7th grades is as follows: Jack Back, Victor Back, Harold Beeman, Raymond Alsop, Homer Cash, Ercy Cubine, Elmer Free, Ted Glass, James Jackson, Norman Johnston, Reginald Smith, Charlie Sims, Mildred Perry, Odessa Skidmore, Imogene Moreland, Gladys Holloway, Arlie Grigsby, Douglas Wilson, Ralph Hamilton, Harvey Hudgins, S. B. Morse, Claude Van Zant, Frank Glenn, Ruby Anderson, Myrtle Biggers, Estelle Cooper, Velma Lance, Thelma Morton, Inez Shaw, Velma Williams, Elsie Gracey.

See Soldiers Off

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Coffey, E. R. Eakins, Roy Richardson, T. J. Coffey, W. H. Smith, Misses Pearl Guill, Vida Montgomery, Alma and Leona Watkins, Ruby Cook, Hattie Thompson and Lettie Bogan were among the crowd from McLean that went to Alareed Monday night to see Gray County's drafted men take the train for Camp Travis, San Antonio, where they will go into training.

Personals

W. M. Farren was seen on the streets of McLean Wednesday.

J. J. Crisp of Alareed was a McLean visitor Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. R. F. Hamilton, J. A. Duncan, Reep Landers and Mrs. C. E. Minix returned Sunday from the fifth Sunday meeting of the Wheeler County Baptist Association which met at Kelton.

Jno. W. Kibler has just completed a large and nice looking garage.

Mrs. A. G. Richardson and son, Roy, leave in a few days for Channing, where A. G. is president of a bank and where they will make their home. The Richardsons leave many friends in McLean who regret their leaving very much, and they have made many friends among the newspaper fraternity of the Panhandle who regret their retirement from the profession.

W. M. Hinton and family came in this week from Andrews, and will make their home on the Noel ranch, moving into the house that has been occupied the past year by Mr. Swafford.

D. B. Veatch has sold his section of land four miles south of town to George P. Wilson and sons. This is one of the finest sections in the community, and is well improved; has a big orchard, hay meadow, etc.

Mrs. C. A. Watkins, Mrs. Price Rogers and daughter, Miss Thelma, and Mrs. Robinson composed a party that went to Amarillo Wednesday to take in the fair.

J. E. Cubine has bought the A. G. Richardson home in the west part of town and will move into same some time this week.

E. D. Langley has sold his 2-section ranch to Sam Morse.

The country correspondent who speaks of a "flying visit" will soon have ample authority to use the phrase. John Mertel has moved into the Tom Cooke house, south side, from the Roshinsky house east of the Citizens State Bank.

Charlie Carpenter and Price Rogers each shipped a car of registered Herefords to Amarillo this week to place on exhibition at the Panhandle State Fair.

UNFRUITFUL ACT

Victoria—A San Antonio fruit peddler was being held in county jail for investigation after his "partner" tried to steal money from the cash register at the Tango Club.

Spotted as he tried to grab the money from the register, the would-be holdup man was attacked by the club's employees. He threw the money to the floor and made his get-away in a pick-up truck, leaving his friend behind. Spectators agreed it was a first-class way to dissolve a partnership.

PROBLEM SOLVED

Houston—When Mrs. Nellie Harris, operator for Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., decided to take her lunch to work, her six-year-old son, Charles, was worried. How, he wondered, would she be able to tell her lunch from all the others?

Came the solution: Charles announced he would write her name on the sack.

Sure enough, at noon Mrs. Harris had no trouble finding her lunch. Scrawled all across the front was: "M-O-T-H-E-R."

OBVIOUS OMISSION

The sign in the window of the highway diner read: "$500 to the truck driver who orders something we can't furnish." A hungry driver sat down at a table and said to the waitress: "Bring me an elephant ear sandwich."

Hurrying to the kitchen, she said to the chef, "Better get ready to fork over 500 clams. There's a truck jockey outside who wants an elephant ear sandwich."

"What?" bellowed the chef. "You mean to tell me we're out of elephant ears?"

"No, we're not out of elephant ears," replied the waitress, "but we ain't got no more of them big buns."

We don't have every kind of accessory for your car but we do offer you the best gasoline and oil products and the friendliest service anywhere. We sell Atlas tires and batteries, too.

Rediscover America

COLUMBUS DAY - 1957

Yes, it's time to rediscover America—

the land of freedom, opportunity and progress. Time, too, to discover that freedom, opportunity and progress have many enemies—right here in our own country. Enemies who say the government should be in business, should provide our medical care, should control the education of our children. ### MAYBE IT'S NO JOKE

Seminole.—Bame this one on "Cousin" Hal Blymiller of Radio Seminole, KSML.

The last half of the Seminole-Hobbs football game was played during a driving rain, the likes of which Seminole doesn't often see.

The rain came in sheets and water splashed off the press box where Hal was broadcasting the game. When the press box door opened, rain poured in, wetting the announcer's equipment.

When a tackler dropped a ball carrier on the field, came the words: "The player was drowned on the 20-yard line. . ."

Oh, well, sometimes they all get their tangs tongued up.

Although men are accused of not knowing their own weakness, yet perhaps a few know their own strength. It is in man as in soils, where sometimes there is a vein of gold which the owner knows not of.—Jonathan Swift.

Bonnie Fabian told the story of "Majiro, the Man Who Discovered America." Helen Black discussed Shintoism and Buddhism, and Lois Page gave "Knight of a Mountain Vow." Mrs. Longino closed the meeting with "The Tokonoma." The Bible reading was from 1st Corinthians 13:13.

Still Little Market For Vet Land Bonds

Land Commissioner Earl Rudder noted Friday that the bond market seems to be growing more favorable for the sale of some part of $100,000,000 of Veterans' Land Bonds.

The bonds were offered for sale in May by the Veterans' Land Board. No bids were received. "The average interest rate on bonds of our type was 3.50% this week," Commissioner Rudder said. "The market has got to go down a long way yet," he added.

The average interest rate on the market was 3.57% per cent several weeks ago.

The State Constitution says the Veterans' Land Board can pay no more than 3% interest on its bonds.

"One of two things must happen before we can sell our bonds," Commissioner Rudder said: "1. The Constitution must be amended so that more interest can be paid, or

"2. Bond market interest rates must drop considerably."

Special Session
 Gov. Price Daniel apparently is going all out to get the balance of his 1957-58 program adopted into law.

Special legislative session begins October 14.

In recent speeches over the state Daniel has plugged for lobby control and a crime commission. More talks were scheduled—one on water conservation in San Antonio and another in Liberty.

In addition, the governor has made some outspoken statements on federal-state relationships. Excerpts from his survey read:

CRIME—Present criminal code, says the governor, "is so antiquated that it protects the convicted criminal more than it protects the public."

He asked for a state law enforcement study commission that would make recommendations to the next regular Legislature on how crime and highway accidents can be reduced.

Texas crime rate is rising faster than its population, 46% of it by juveniles, said Daniel. (A recent FBI survey showed that during the first half of 1957 Texas has had an increase, up to nearly 10% over 1956, in every type of major crime.)

LOBBY CONTROL—Opponents of this bill are trying "to picture it as a struggle between business and labor," said the governor. "This is ridiculous . . . the bill would require registration of those employed by both labor and industry to influence legislation."

"Vast majority of Austin lobbyists identify themselves and honestly perform their work. They have nothing to fear from this bill."

Opponents of the bill, said Daniel, are "modern-day carpet-baggers who hide their identity and improper expenditures."

FEDERAL SCHOOL AID—"Full responsibility for the operation and financing of public schools should be exercised by the states and their political subdivisions."

Once again, said Department Director William L. McGill, Texas holds the "dubious distinction of being first in the nation in major disasters."

TB in Texas
 Startling facts revealed about tuberculosis in Texas came from Dr. Patrick McShane, head of the state's TB hospitals.

In a twin-panel session composed of newsmen and doctors, Dr. McShane reported that 22,000 Texans have active tuberculosis. One out of three persons has TB germs in his body.

"Texas spends $6 per patient per day on its TB hospitals," Dr. McShane advised. "And we rank in the bottom fourth on what is spent in trying to get them well."

School Panel Named
 Way is clear for a new study into needs of the public school system. Six appointments by Gov. Price Daniel completed membership of a new commission created by the last legislature to do the job.

Daniel's appointees: Dr. J. W. Edgar, commissioner of education; Dana Williams, Gladewater superintendent and president of the Texas State Teachers Association; Ed Ray, executive editor of the San Antonio Express and Evening News; Mrs. L. E. Dudley, Abilene; H. K. Jackson, Gatesville; and Felix Tijerina, Houston.

Six appointments each were made earlier by the Speaker of the House, the Lieutenant Governor and the department of education.

Business Year Uncertain
 Despite its present high level, Texas business faces uncertainties in ending the year.

There is little evidence pointing to any substantial rise, observes Dr. John R. Stockton, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Causes for concern: softening of the building outlook, slackened expenditures by the federal government and business concerns. Bright hops: expanding expenditures by state and local governments, high level consumer spending, continuing population increases.

Short Snorts
 House Speaker Waggoner Carr is entitled to use capitol quarters for office space. Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has held in an opinion requested by the state comptroller. Salary for a secretary and expenses for stationery, supplies telephone and telegraph also were approved. . . . John H. Hargrove has been appointed chief of the staff services division of the State Insurance division of the State Insurance Department by Commissioner William A. Harrison. Hargrove was formerly with the Texas Research League.

"LEARNING BY STUDY MUST BE WON"

(Author's name below)

Physicians and pharmacists study for many years before receiving a license to practice. We must pass a state examination to prove that we have learned how to properly take care of your health.

We both have a particular duty to perform. Your physician's learning concentrates on the diagnosis and treatment of disease, and the preservation of your health. We pharmacists study how to compound, dispense, and protect medicines. We must know the proper dosage of every drug because it is our legal duty to make certain that every prescription we dispense contains a safe dose.
