Tigers Edged From 2-A Title

ELECTION RETURNS SHOW LIGHT VOTE IN PRECINCT

A report of votes cast during Tuesday's election in Precinct 5 reflected again a heavy margin for all Democratic candidates on the state level, with 355 votes being cast in McLean.

For Governor, Price Daniel polled 275 votes against 12 for Republican candidate Edwin S. May Jr. In the U. S. Governor's race Ben Ramsey had 322 votes against 2 for Philip Lee Kibbick.

In the race for U. S. Senator, Roy Whittenburg, Amarillo businessman, gained the heaviest vote for any Republican candidate, polling 71 against 284 for Ralph Yarborough.

Unopposed Democratic district and county candidates who will assume office are Walter Rogers, Congressman 18th District; Grainger Melhany, State Representative, 87th District; Louis M. Good-

WHITE DEER MAN DIES AT GAME HERE

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the White Deer Methodist Church for Levoid Alvin Puckett, 43, of White Deer. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery at Wevoka, Okla.

Mr. Puckett suffered a heart attack last Friday night at the ball game played here between the McLean Tigers and White Deer Bucks. He was pronounced dead on arrival at the McLean Hospital and Clinic.

He is survived by his wife, one son, one daughter, his mother, two brothers and two sisters.

WHITE DEER BUCKS TAKE CRUCIAL GAME BY 22-6

McLean's Tigers staged one of their more brilliant displays of football spirit and stamina Friday night at Duncan Field, but were downed by the powerful White Deer Bucks, 22-6. The contest virtually decided the championship of District 2-A.

Scoring first and claiming a 6-0 lead over the Bucks at halftime, the Tigers suffered mainly from their lack of depth, and went under to the heavier favored team in the final two quarters of the game. White Deer gained its first touchdown in the middle of the third period, and then surged to two final scores in the last quarter.

Both teams were undefeated going into the contest, the Tigers now standing with a 5-1 record. White Deer now has only to defeat Panhandle and Memphis to clinch the 2-A title. The Bucks are ranked as the top Class A team in the Panhandle and are rated second in the state.

During the first half of the crucial contest McLean controlled the game, roaring past the Bucks on the ground by gaining 177 yards rushing while stopping the White Deer attack for only 77 yards. At intermission the Tigers had tallied 13 first downs to 3 for White Deer.

McLean threatened twice in the opening quarter, driving once to the White Deer seven and later going to the 15. Then in the second period the Tigers broke into the scoring column, with fullback Billy Crockett going the final 8 yards of a sustained 51-yard drive. A pass play failed on the conversion try.

White Deer's initial score came in the third quarter through the passing arm of quarterback Jackie Burns, who connected with end Jeff Bearden on a 60-yard play.

Again in the final quarter Burns turned his aerial game to good use as he tossed to Ronnie Cade, good for 36 yards and another score. Hershel Powell ran conversion to give the Bucks a 16-6 edge. In the final play of the game White Deer scored its last touchdown when Powell drove through the line from one yard out. A kick for the conversion was blocked.

Contrary to pre-game opinion, the contest was one primarily of defense. McLean's line, outweighed almost 20 pounds per man, turned in an exceptional performance, quelling the highly-touted young game of the Bucks. Providing the strength in the Tiger forward wall were Benny Woods, Ray Hupp, Paul McCurley, Kent Wiggins, Frank Worsham, Bob Weaver and Don Cash. The outstanding defense of McLean accounted for holding the Bucks, a team considered to be one of the most powerful offensive units in the state, to a total of 191 yards gained rushing.

In McLean's offensive game, backs Billy and David Crockett and Jerry Biggers, along with quarterback Jim Rice, ripped 1-182 yards rushing against White Deer. The backs rode the power of the line throughout the first half in constantly moving against the Buck squad. Rice utilized his passing game for a total of 49 yards, completing two of five passes.

Following the game, Tiger head coach Jack Riley stated that he and the other coaches were extremely proud of the players, that "they all played a mighty fine game."

Cub Scouts Hold Monthly Meeting

The Cub Scouts met in the American Legion Hall Thursday, Oct. 30, for their regular monthly meeting.

Each den had costumes to fit the occasion. Special awards were given for the best costumes in the dens. Den 2 received the den award, and individual award was won by Gary Hester.

Awards were also given for perfect attendance. Each den gave a Halloween skit.

ROAD GAME TOMORROW WITH PIRATES

Tomorrow night McLean's Tigers will go on the road as they travel to Lefors to meet the Pirates in a District 2-A contest, scheduled to get underway at 7:30.

Although out of district running, the Pirates represent one of the top grid powers in the area. Pre-qualified to sweep the title, the Pirates were dethroned by White Deer in their final conference defeat. Until the loss to the Bucks, the Pirate squad had been ranked in the top ten of Class A teams in the state.

In weight, the Lefors unit will take the advantage, averaging per man 168 pounds in the line and 157 pounds in the backfield. This compares to McLean's average of 155 in the line and 150 in the backfield for McLean.

Constituting the main threat in the Pirate offense is Tommy Johnson, a 178-pound quarterback considered to be one of the top key men in the Class A loop. Last year as a junior Johnson gained honorable mention on the all-state squad. He not only serves as field general for the Pirates but at the present is the leading ground gainer for the squad.

Also well known with the Lefors team will be its brace of outstanding tacklers, Mark Braly and Calvin Stracener. Braly tips the scales at 210 and Stracener is listed at 187.

McLean regulars ready for the Pirate clash will be Billy Crockett at fullback; David Crockett and Jerry Biggers at halfbacks and Jim Rice at quarterback. With the combined power of Crockett's along with the broken-field ability of Biggers and the aggressiveness of Rice, the McLean unit has proven to be ranked as one of the best backfields in the district.

Probable starters in the Tiger line will be Frank Worsham and O. K. Lee at ends; Benny Woods and Ray Hupp at tackles; Paul McCurley and Kent Wiggins at guards; and Bobby Weaver at center.

Following the Lefors game, the season closer will be played in Duncan Field against Clarendon on Nov. 14.

Mrs. Burris Makes Winning Guess at Florist Convention

Mrs. Verna Burris, owner and operator of the McLean Flower Shop, won 250 tru-tint carnations and $15 worth of supplies by making a winning guess.

While attending the West Texas-New Mexico florist convention in Abilene recently she guessed at the number of carnations in a large display booth of the Denver Wholesale Florist Co. There were 234 flowers in the arrangement and Mrs. Burris guessed 235, and was the winner.

Mrs. Burris shared her good luck and the force at The News has enjoyed a beautiful arrangement of the carnations this week.

WAYLAND FLYING QUEENS TO BE IN McLEAN NOVEMBER 20

Wayland Baptist College's Flying Queens, one of the nation's foremost girls basketball teams, will be in McLean Nov. 20. The Queens will play Clarendon Junior College in the Municipal Building at 7:30 p.m.

The game is being sponsored by the McLean Lions Club. Proceeds will go toward the purchase of the Nativity scene, which has been ordered by the city and will be erected during the Christmas season.

Tickets for the game will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for school children. The tickets may be purchased from Lions Club members.

Community Service To Be Held for Thanksgiving

Announcement was made this week by the McLean Ministerial Alliance that a community thanksgiving service will be held at the McLean Methodist Church on Wednesday, Nov. 26, at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to make plans now to attend the service.

WITHOUT HOPE—Weariness etches the face of this miner who adjusts his lamp before continuing the search for comrades entombed in the Springhill, Nova Scotia mine. It is feared that deaths finally will total over 90. Some 51 miners escaped after a "bump"—an underground quake—collapsed portions of the mine.

Boy Scouts Hold Court of Honor

Local Boy Scout Troop 25 held a Court of Honor Monday night, Nov. 3. Those receiving awards are: Skip Willoughby, citizenship in the nation, citizenship in the home and citizenship in the community; Jimmy McCarty, citizenship in the nation, citizenship in the home, and citizenship in the community; Jackie Hess, citizenship in the nation and citizenship in the community; Gene Bench, art and home repairs; Eddy Windom, home repairs.

An election of officers was also held. New officers are Skip Willoughby, junior assistant scoutmaster; Jimmy McCarty, senior patrol leader; Larry Andrews, scribe; Gary Graham, quartermaster; Eddy Windom and Jake Hess, patrol leaders; Gene Bench, librarian; and Mike Johnson, bugler.

The scouts are now selling advance tickets to the PTA show to be held this week. The troop is now making plans to get their new charter the first of December.

Any boys who think they would like to join the troop may visit at any troop meeting. The meetings are held every Monday night at 7 at the scout hut in the city hall building. All boys age 11 to 14 are eligible to join.

Baptists Report Progress in Current Program

The Forward Program of Church Finance, in which the First Baptist Church is presently engaged, is progressing nicely, church leaders announced this week. Next Sunday, Nov. 9, has been designated as Victory Day, at which time it is hoped that the budget adopted by the church will have been subscribed.

Last Wednesday night, a Loyalty Dinner was held at the American Legion Hall. Present for the dinner and program were 210 persons, with an additional 47 attending the parties given elsewhere for children under junior age.

C. J. Humphrey, Amarillo attorney, was guest speaker for the evening. Dinner music was furnished by Mrs. Paul Miller, with group singing being led by Dr. Joe Suderman.

Jesse Leonard, pastor, introduced members of the campaign committees, and Bob Dowell of Amarillo and his staff who served the dinner. Joe Taylor, general chairman, served as master of ceremonies for the program.

Vocal selections were sung by Sharon Hicks, Bobby Jean Turner and Peggy Sharp. "Working Together" was the subject spoken to by Doyle Brown, and "Past Financial Fruit" was given by T. A. Landers. Scripture reading and prayer were by Vergal Smith, and the benediction by Boyd Reeves.

ERRONEOUS REPORT GIVEN IN COMMISSIONER'S RACE

An erroneous report concerning O. L. Tibbets as a write-in candidate for the office of Commissioner of Precinct 4 was given by news and radio agencies during Tuesday's election.

According to the report, Tibbets was conducting a write-in campaign on the Republican ticket, opposing John Dwyer, who was elected in the Democratic primary. The report was not true.

Tibbets, incumbent, was defeated by Dwyer in an August run-off election, and made no active move or even indicated a write-in campaign for Tuesday's election.

According to Miss Kate Tripp, regional editor for the Amarillo Daily News, the report was given to that paper by a correspondent not from McLean. The report today was corrected in the Daily News.

Tibbets stated he had enjoyed the commissioner's post and serving the people in that capacity, but that the matter of the race had been settled with him in the run-off election, and that he had no idea of write-in votes until he heard the radio report.

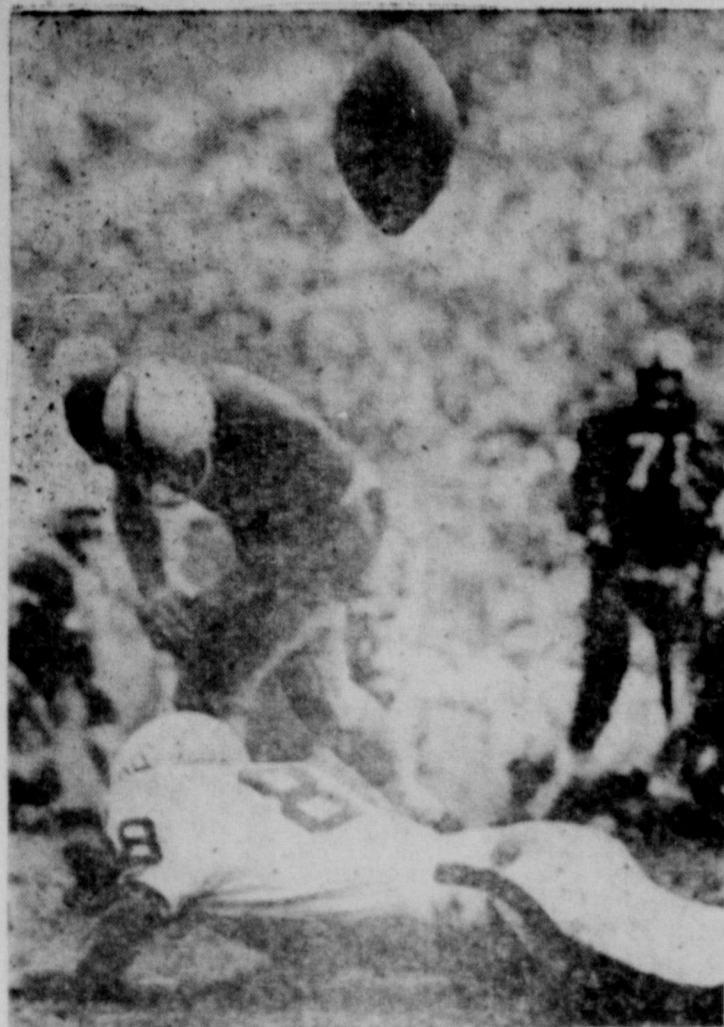

SPEAKER FOR LOYALTY DINNER—Pictured above with McLean Baptist Pastor Jesse Leonard, at right, is C. J. Humphrey, who served as main speaker for the Baptist banquet held last Wednesday night as a phase of a major budget increase. Humphrey is an Amarillo attorney and an outstanding layman speaker.

Hints Help You Cope With Sniffy Small Fry

BY EDNA MILES

Every mother has to cope with the sniffles at some time in the autumn. And small fry who must be kept in bed invariably become restless.

The best way to wear yourself out fast is by catering to each demand and showering the small patient with toys and attention. You'll be out on your feet by nightfall and the patient will be (relatively) fresh as a daisy. Far better to give the tot a few games and toys that are easy to handle. Simple puzzles, drawing paper and cutouts are ideal.

One method of saving steps is to hang a shopping bag over the bedpost or a nearby chair to serve as a catch-all for scissors, pencils and toys that otherwise would have to be picked up constantly.

GOOD TRICK

For meals in bed, cut a large, sturdy carton as a bed table. Round out the arches on the bottom of two sides to let the child's legs slip comfortably under it and cover carton with gaily-patterned paper.

Use melamine plastic dinnerware, since it's lightweight, nearly unbreakable and comes in many cheerful colors.

There's even a melamine tray with ridges to hold plate, cup and bowl securely in place.

It has been said that monotonous food is a blight to the spirit. That is especially true of food you're giving to an invalid, eating and thus inviting.

ONION NECKLACE

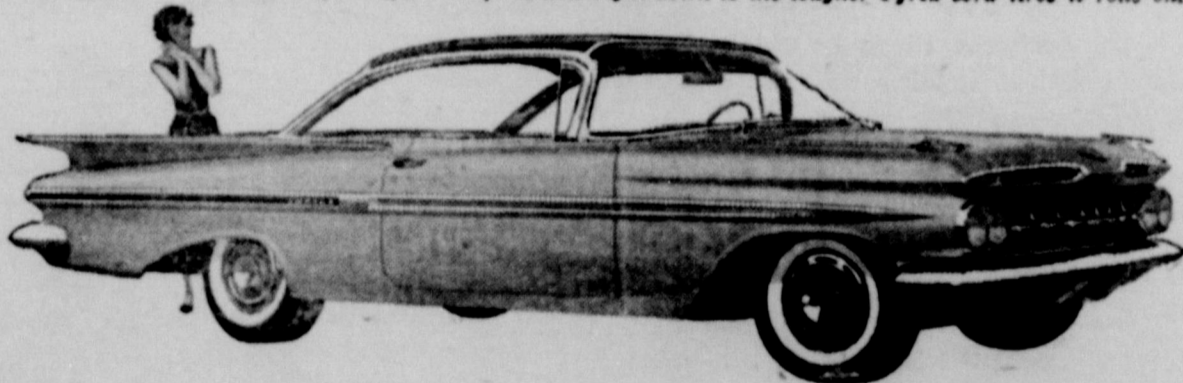

Wearing an onion around the neck used to be fashionable—at least for cold sufferers. It's easy to see why this old-time cold remedy has now been discarded. We can't cure colds, yet, but we can relieve their discomforts . . . and avoid more serious complications by using the effective medications available today. But don't use any medicines indiscriminately. When you're ill, be sensible. Let your physician do the diagnosing and prescribing. Then, if he recommends medication, see us for quality prescriptions.

Editorial

OIL'S BIGGEST BATTLE

The greatest battle currently facing the oil industry is to defend the percentage depletion provision of the oil and gas tax laws. That was said the other day by L. F. McCollum, president of Continental Oil Company.

He added: "Although the oil industry has frequently been guilty of squabbling over intra-industry differences, this is one important area where all segments of the industry are so vitally affected that we can and should present a united front if we expect public and Congressional acceptance of a case that can be sold strictly on its merits." It is anticipated that there will be a full-scale hearing on percentage depletion in the next Congress.

The big thing here is not the oil industry's stake in the depletion provision. It is the stake of the public—a public which looks to the industry to provide it with large quantities of top-quality oil products when and where they are wanted. Percentage depletion—which gives oil producers a credit against income tax—is based on the irrefutable fact that oil and gas wells wear out, become worthless, and must be replaced. Finding and developing new sources of supply is an enormously costly proposition today—and it is also a highly risky one. Only about one wildcat well out of nine drilled, for instance, actually proves to be a producer. Men must see incentive if they are to take the long risks involved—and the depletion provision helps provide that essential incentive.

Congress has re-approved the depletion provision in session after session—not out of undue regard for the oil industry, but because it is vital to a continued adequate oil supply to the American people, and it is more important today than ever.

A REASONABLE FEAR

Reasonable fear can be a very good thing. It often stops people from taking foolish chances. Fear moves people to act in their own defense when attacked. And the reaction to fear often has resulted in amazing accomplishments for the good of all mankind.

The polio vaccine was largely the result of public reaction to intelligent fears. Frightened by the terrible epidemics which spread across the nation each summer, millions of people from all walks of life joined forces through the March of Dimes to support the work of an organization dedicated to an all-out fight-to-the-finish with polio. Within 20 years that organization made possible the development of a safe and effective preventative against paralytic polio—the Salk vaccine.

Millions of Americans, protected by three inoculations of Salk vaccine, have reasonably lost their fear of polio. But almost as many millions, still unprotected by Salk shots, have forgotten their own reasonable fears. This is both unwise and dangerous. These people, through apathy, indifference, or sheer inertia, are still taking foolish chances. They are jeopardizing their own health futures and the welfare of their own families.

The epidemic in Detroit this year shocked a lot of people into awareness that vaccine must be given to children, their parents and older sisters and brothers, too, before it can yield its wonderful health-protecting benefits. It is tragic that, short of such stark and terrible reminders as an epidemic, people can so rapidly forget their own reasonable fears.

Let's jog our memories. Let's finish the business with polio by getting everyone vaccinated. Then let's move ahead with the National Foundation preparing now to launch its broader health programs against arthritis and birth defects while it continues essential aid to polio victims of the past.

If the Salk vaccine is fully used, there need be no polio victims of the future. Do your share. Get vaccinated. Make sure your friends and their families are vaccinated too.

Now, Let's Make Up and Get to Work

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

Traffic Law Knowledge

Saves Lives, Money

In the midst of the annual series of football week ends, the thoughts of many Texans are turned toward traffic safety. There can be no doubt but that a better acquaintance among drivers with the "rules of the road" and other traffic safety regulations could greatly reduce the death toll of our highways.

To obtain correct and authoritative information about driving is a simple matter. A letter or postcard to the Department of Public Safety, Driver's License Division, Austin, Texas, will bring an official publication, the Texas Driving Handbook, to anyone who requests it.

Aside from consideration of personal safety, proper driving habits and observance of traffic laws will help prevent financial loss. This is true in spite of the fact that most people now carry liability insurance as a protection under the Texas "Drivers Responsibility Act." Jury verdicts in personal injury cases tend to go higher and higher, and the likelihood of suffering an adverse judgment for an amount in excess of the limits of your liability policy is ever present.

Fault, or liability, is determined by applying the law to the particular facts of an accident. In Texas the law is in several forms—the statutes as enacted by the Legislature, the ordinances of each city and town, and the court decisions in cases similar to the one to be decided.

A negligent or intentional act is necessary in order to impose legal liability for damages. Where both parties to an accident are negligent, the court will very likely say that both are at fault, and that each must pay for his own damages.

Two of the most important legal rules pertaining to accidents are those having to do with "proper look-out" and "proper control." Driving in a lawful manner and complying with all ordinary traffic rules is not always sufficient. In addition, the driver is expected by law to be alert to all that is happening around him.

If an accident should occur and the driver has not been alert—he has failed to keep a proper look-out—he may be charged with "improper look-out" as a traffic violation and also held liable in damages to the other driver. The courts call a "proper look-out" such a look-out as a reasonably prudent driver would have kept under the same circumstances.

DON'T RUB — Name of that wicked-looking gadget under the plane's wing is the "Genie MB-1," and rubbing it the wrong way would be disastrous. It's the first of the air-to-air missiles with an atomic capability. Translation: it could carry an atomic warhead. Shown in place under the wing of a Scorpion F-89 jet at Tyndal Air Force Base, Fla., Genie currently is used in target practice against drone planes. Sans atomic warhead, of course.

or in heavy traffic, the reasonably prudent driver will know that he should reduce his speed considerably below the legal maximum.

Esso Extra Out-performs many gasolines selling for 1¢ more!

Esso Extra sells for premium—not super-premium—price, but it out-performs many gasolines selling for 1¢ to 2¢ more.

Out-performs them in clean-burning characteristics: it burns so clean that spark-plugs last up to 50% longer.

Out-performs them in anti-knock operation: its octane rating is high—higher, in fact, than the octane rating of many gasolines for which motorists pay a super-premium price.

Out-performs them in quick starting . . . in smooth, safe acceleration . . . in mileage.

Esso Extra is the No. 1 premium in Texas . . . first in premium sales . . . first in premium performance.

SAVE
 1¢ a gallon . . .
 20¢ a tankful . . .
 Dollars every month!

Use this great gasoline in your car. You'll prefer its performance, you'll like its mileage, and most of all, you'll be pleased with its economy.

Fill up under the Humble sign in your neighborhood. Every time!

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING CO.

HUMBLE

Golden Esso Extra
 in a quality class by itself

This superior gasoline stands out as the best gasoline to use in any car in any price class. It is the only gasoline that will give you all the performance you paid for when you bought your modern car. It has highest octane rating; it eliminates engine "bucking" as you start, engine "rumble" as you drive, and engine knock as you accelerate. A must for cars with air-conditioning, power brakes and power steering. It's the gasoline for the 1959 models.

Dependable Quality
 at Regular Price

If your car performs well on regular gasoline, Humble Motor Fuel is your gasoline. Every gallon is made to exacting quality specifications.

You get three distinct advantages: (1) continuous improvement; (2) uniform quality wherever you fill up; and (3) a patented solvent oil that keeps engines clean.

Among the regulars, Humble Motor Fuel is second to none.

FOR THE RING FINGER—New York importer Elliot Glasser examines one of three giant-size pieces of opal which made up a single 125-pound stone, believed to be the largest ever found. Discovered in an abandoned mine in Australia, the find is valued at about $175,000.

Bible Comment:

'Preparation' Keynotes Story Of Christianity

"Preparation" is written large over every aspect of the ministry of Jesus, the missionary labors of Saint Paul, and the whole story of the founding of Christianity.

John the Baptist, whom Jesus called the greatest of all men born of women, prepared the way, and called for preparation: "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make His paths straight."

But that was only the beginning of the Christian preparation.

We should never forget the long period of preparation in the life of Jesus, himself, the nearly 18 silent years in Nazareth before He began His public ministry.

Nor should we forget Paul's silent years, his going into the desert and the long preparation before he launched out on his missionary journeys.

Think of the boy Jesus in Nazareth, waiting patiently, preparing fully, obediently listening, before He began that ministry, which was to last so shortly in earthly years.

But that ministry was to be timeless and endless in its truth and blessing for mankind.

Nothing in God's providence is accomplished without discipline and preparation.

ATTEND CHURCH EACH SUNDAY

BUILDERS

By Jesse Leonard, Pastor
First Baptist Church

There is much building being done in McLean of which we as citizens are very proud. Material building is of the utmost importance, but spiritual building is far greater. Jesus, in the closing of the Sermon on the Mount, had some meaningful words concerning this matter.

As we study this passage, we find that all men are builders. Jesus says, if you hear these sayings of mine and do them, you are wise, and those who do them not are fools.

We also find that we must choose the foundation upon which we build. If we intend for our building to stand we must choose to build upon the solid rock which is Christ Jesus. We may choose cheaper foundations, that of sand or things of the world and build thereupon, but this building will fall.

Thirdly, we find that all buildings will be tested. There will be the test here on earth by the adversities of life and the final test which is eternal. The eternal test will be at the judgment bar of God.

I watched a group of men
In a well known town
Going about the job
Of tearing a building down.
With a he he ho, and a lusty yell
They swung the beam
And the side wall fell.
I asked the foreman,
"Are these men skilled,
The type you would hire
If you wanted to build?"
He laughed and said, "No, indeed!
Common labor is all I need.
I can tear down in a day or two
What it takes great builders years to do."
I thought of this as I went my way.
What kind of game am I trying to play?
Am I building my life by God's own plan,
Am I actually doing the best I can,
Or am I content with roaming the town
With only the job of tearing down?

PANHANDLE OUTDOOR LIFE

By STARKEY WHITEHORN

Five ducks is the daily bag limit this year. Not too many years back the limit was 25 per day and very few restrictions as to the method of taking. My guess is that it is more difficult to kill five now than it was 25 then.

In the twenties duck hunters kept live decoys the year round in order to use them during the season. These decoys were taken to the lake and placed near the duck blinds. The hunters simply waited until their decoys called a circling flock of wild ducks to the shooting area. Even in the twenties and early thirties hunters drove hundreds of miles for a few days of duck shooting. Then the sky would be filled with these migratory waterfowl. Now the picture has changed but the species is still around in great numbers to furnish sport for the hunters as well as a few choice duck dinners.

We haven't had excellent duck shooting on the high plains for a number of reasons in the past few years. One of the main reasons is due to nature in that most of the lakes have all been dry. Another reason is the fact that food wasn't plentiful and the ducks searched for more favorable winter quarters. Still another is the fact that the hunter simply failed to make any pre-season efforts about arranging for a place to hunt and arranging pits or blinds.

Live decoys are illegal but not so with the artificial ones.

If one or more hunters would locate a choice pond, make a deal with the pond owner and then construct blinds and arrange decoys the plastic type, their labor would be rewarded. The average hunter waits until the season opens, buys a box of shells, oils up his gun and sets off into the open spaces in search of ducks. This type of hunter will usually come home, after driving a hundred or so miles, with an empty game bag.

Driving out into the country in search of any kind of hunting and expecting a successful hunt is almost a thing of the past. Even 29 years ago duck and goose hunting wasn't a snap. In fact, Lex Board, youthful deputy sheriff, and I left Borger in the autumn of '29 and traveled down to near Panhandle and spent a morning of duck and goose hunting with the game bag filled with nothing as we traveled back to Borger in Mr. Board's '29 Ford. Mr. Board lives in Morse but it is my guess that he does very little duck hunting today, especially since the migratory game bird population isn't nearly so great as it was in '29.

With some floods or heavy trash-moving and gully-washing rains we could have ample high plains lakes, but if we don't have falling weather in abundance, the duck and goose shooting in the top part of the Panhandle will not be ideal; however, it should be from fair to good in certain specific localities.

Current Deer Seasons

Many high plains hunters are returning from Colorado deer-hunting excursions. The success seems to be somewhat better this fall than last. Also, the quality of the venison seems to be better. Nevertheless, many of the hunters are returning empty-handed. One party from Booker, a group of four, returned with three deer, all does, I believe. From the way the story comes to me it seems as if two of the hunters from Booker, Mike Whitehorn and friend, zeroed in on a doe and a fawn and both fired at the same time. When they walked to their quarry, there were other hunters who arrived at the kill and claimed both pieces of venison. The Booker pair didn't argue the point but very little, and surrendered their kill to the cheaters.

In my opinion, it wouldn't take but about one dose of this kind of medicine to cause an honest hunter to quit deer hunting for keeps. One of the twosome was a high school football player in his early teens.

Bird Dogs

October 31 to Nov. 2 marked the running of the 1958 fall field trials for the Panhandle Bird Dog Association near Canadian. Field trialing with pointing dogs isn't something new. It all started before the turn of the century. For more than 60 years, there have been staged contests by a recognized set of rules and regulations for the real type of bird-dog.

Of course, there are several objective stakes for dogs but the number one to me is the one for the gun or shooting dogs. Some scoff at the idea of a field trial dog to go bird hunting with but the strange thing about this is that the judges are looking for "a dog that they would like to shoot birds over" in the gun dog event.

Wade Cutchin was one of the judges. Mr. Cutchin has judged major trials throughout the southwest, east and southeast, as well as in Canada. This particular judge has been following bird dogs and the game longer than most of the handlers are old. A placement under this veteran should be considered cherished by any dog handler.

The Panhandle club conducts its trials strictly in the amateur bracket. All any dog owner needs to do to become a member of this club is plank down the two dollars for the membership fee. Any amateur can run his dog in this noted event if the entry fee is paid. All the difference between the bird-hunting crowd and field trial group is that some do not wish to compete under the eyes of a recognized field trial judge. I have some good dogs but I don't expect anyone to take my word for it. If my dogs win laurels in this event, then their trophies will speak for their ability.

Mr. and Mrs. Bazel Pettit and children, Gary and Sherry, spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. J. B. Pettit.

A large percentage of accidents occur in the kitchen, and the worst part is, husbands have to eat them and pretend they enjoy them.

Good service from your automobile is no accident, it takes proper and regular maintenance. For lubrication, washing or top quality gasoline, be sure to drop in and see us.

NOT TOO SMOOTH, BUT FAST—This bouncing baby car won't take any beauty prizes as it whips around a track at Brands, Hatch, England. It's a TG-500 Messerschmitt sports car, with a top speed of 90 m.p.h. and fuel consumption of 50 miles to the gallon. Has four wheels, too. (Other Messerschmitts have only three.)

Get all the best of all the new ideas all in one car!

EXCLUSIVELY YOURS—WIDE-TRACK WHEELS

The wheels moved out 5 inches for the widest, steadiest stance in America—better cooling for engine and brakes—lower center of gravity for better grip on the road, safer cornering, smoother ride. You get the most beautiful roadability you've ever known—in America's Number One Road Car!

You get the solid quality of Body by Fisher.

You name it—Pontiac has it... the year's most important advances in style, safety, handling and performance. And they're topped by a Pontiac exclusive... Wide-Track Wheels! Everything about this new kind of car was designed to give you driving as you've never known it: Air-Cooled True-Contour Brakes for precise, unvarying control in stop after stop after stop... spacious vista-lounge interiors with seats wider than a sofa and full circle visibility (the Vista-Panoramic windshield curves clear up into the roof).

And there are two great new engines to choose from—the Tempest 420 for the ultimate in V-8 action and response... and its money-saving companion, the Tempest 420E, a big muscular V-8 that uses regular gas and delivers better mileage than many smaller cars with so-called "economy engines". Styling?—the newest, lowest look on the road—protected by Magic-Mirror non-fade finish. There's much more—come see for yourself—all the wonderful new ideas in America's Number One Road Car!
