Conference Maps Plans To Hasten Full Victory Details Agreed On For Invasion Of The Continent

By JOHN F. CHESTER
CAIRO, Dec. 2 (AP)—Britain and the United States agreed on details for a new invasion of Europe and perhaps discussed a strike into the Balkans, it was reported on good authority today, at the epic tri-power conference where, with China, they pledged unremitting war to thrash Japan into unconditional surrender and tear away the whole empire she has won in 50 years of conquest.

Strategy Put On Complete Global Basis

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK
LONDON, Dec. 2 (AP)—President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill, while charting a plan with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek to beat down Japan, apparently have synchronized their global strategy to hasten the war on all fronts.

Drive On Europe May Come Before Spring

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP)—A supreme Allied drive to crush Germany before this winter's end stood out today as one of the most probable subjects for discussion by President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Marshal Stalin in their first three-way grand strategy conference of the war.

JOSEF V. STALIN

WINSTON CHURCHILL

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

The principal requirement of Russian strategy, as understood by American experts on the eastern front here, is the fact that while the Russians can mount major offensives in the winter and summer, they can not undertake large scale operations in the spring because of heavy mud.

The recent Moscow meeting of foreign ministers and some Allied military experts afforded the first occasion for a full exchange of information. But the powers of decision, as vested in the president, prime minister and marshal, are brought together for the first time in the conference now believed to be in progress, probably at Tehran.

That the long-discussed second front may be the prime topic was indicated in an Associated Press dispatch from Cairo announcing last night the results of the initial conference of the present historic series, which was held by Messrs. Roosevelt, Churchill and their advisers with Generalissimo Chiang

Great Losses Suffered As Line Broken

By NOLAN NORGAARD
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ALGIERS, Dec. 2 (AP)—The Germans are in full retreat from their ponderously fortified winter line in Italy near the Adriatic, leaving the battleground littered with dead, wounded and wrecked equipment, Allied headquarters announced today.

Spillside pilots reported heavy German demolitions were taking place at Cassino, approximately 12 miles northwest of the Allied front at Mignano, shortly after fighter-bombers, Warhawks and A-36 dive-bombers had pounded the German defenses along a 20-mile front for three hours.

SwEEPing over at 10-minute intervals waves of planes showered hundreds of fragmentation and high explosive bombs in their most devastating combination upon German gun emplacements, trenches and fortifications, leaving them a charred mass of ruin.

Reinforcements are being brought up by the Germans from northern Italy, the communiqué added, in an effort to halt the breakthrough.

The German communiqué broadcast from Berlin said Montgomery made four heavy tank attacks in one sector yesterday.

The town of Rocca San Giovanni, two miles inland from the Adriatic and more than four miles beyond the Sangro was overrun in Montgomery's "colossal crack" at the Nazis across battlefields littered with Nazi guns and great quantities of smashed equipment.

Out-of-Doors days of thousands of bales of cotton produced in the Big Spring area are limited as an expansion program for the West Texas Compress and Warehouse company here is rushed to completion. A good idea as to the vast expanse of cotton now held in a big cotton yard at the northern edge of town and directly south of the US Experiment Farm may be had from this panoramic view. R. F. Perkins, manager of the compress and warehouse unit, said that receipts for the season had amounted to 41,000 bales to date and that comparatively little of it had been moved into taxed warehouses. Farmers are concerned about the matter since they cannot complete government loans until the lint moves to approved storage, which is what Perkins believes will happen within 30 days for all of the cotton now in the yard. The warehouse space is being increased by one-third. (R. W. Miller Photo).

Sellers Critical From Shot Wound

DALLAS, Dec. 2 (AP)—Ray Sellers, who climaxed a long list of prison breaks with his escape last October from the Oklahoma penitentiary, was shot and critically wounded here last night under circumstances not yet explained.

Sellers, 28, a Dallas man whose police record shows several convictions for burglaries and automobile theft, staggered up to a dairy with a .45 caliber bullet wound in his chest, said Chief Deputy Sheriff Bill Decker. The deputy answered a call to the dairy and took Sellers to a hospital.

Decker said that during questioning Sellers denied being shot during a burglary or attempted burglary and that circumstances of the shooting had not been learned.

Sellers and three other convicts escaped from the Oklahoma penitentiary by dressing as spectators at a prison rodeo show, mingling with and leaving with the crowd. The other three convicts were captured.

Police records show Sellers to have escaped from the Texas penitentiary, the Leavenworth federal penitentiary, and twice from federal reformatories.

Chiangs Return From African Session

CHUNGKING, Dec. 2 (AP)—President and Mrs. Chiang Kai-shek have returned to Chungking from the North African conference, it was announced officially today.

Hollington Tong, vice-minister of information, announced their return and expressed jubilant approval of the three-power declaration to reduce Japan to her home islands. He said Chiang and other members of the Chinese delegation returned in a happy state of mind.

Tong, who also attended, declared the conference successful and said it would be "bad news for the Japanese."

Texas Counties Have Lower Population

DALLAS, Dec. 2 (AP)—Under war's pressure the population of Texas' 254 counties has gone up and down like an elevator, mostly down.

The major centers of population have uniformly increased in size, but around 80 per cent of all the counties have declined. The Federal Reserve bank here, speaking for the 311 counties in its district, reported that 67 of all these counties climbed in civilian population, some up to 50 per cent, while the remaining 244 dropped—70 of them losing 20 per cent or more. These figures were based on registrations for the No. 2 ration book last spring.

East Texas was hardest hit in population losses. In 1940 its population was figured at 1,089,000. On March 1 this year it had declined to 934,000. Other comparatives, 1940 and 1943: Panhandle 793,000 and 757,000; West Texas 411,000 and 401,000; North Central Texas 1,782,000 and 1,738,000; North Coastal Texas 961,000 and 1,097,000; South Central Texas 950,000 and 1,021,000; Southwest Texas 395,000 and 386,000.

These figures take in civilians only.

The population in the entire district, which takes in parts of Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Louisiana, and all of Texas, was likewise down from 7,693,000 in April, 1940, to 7,569,000 last March, which, however, was a smaller proportional decline than for the whole country.

Seven of the 13 counties of North Coastal Texas produced large gains, traceable to expansions in shipbuilding, chemical production and petroleum refining. Largest gains occurred around Houston, Galveston, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Orange and Freeport.

In South Central Texas the increases were in San Antonio and Corpus Christi, where large military installations exist. Other increases occurred in Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco, Brownwood, Mineral Wells, Gainesville, Temple, Texarkana, Dumas, Amarillo, El Paso, Abilene, Laredo and Eagle Pass.

The bank summarized: "Long-term population trends in the eleven district have been accelerated by the war. The metropolitan counties which have experienced the greatest growth since 1940 are those which expanded more rapidly during the preceding three decades. Concentration of population in the North Coastal and South Central areas, one of the outstanding features of the population shift of 1940-1943, also characterized the 1930-1940 period.

so that storage will be increased by approximately one-third, D. P. Perkins, manager, reported Thursday.

The company's battery of separate warehouses was so built to prevent a repetition of a disastrous fire in the spring of 1938 when the compress and warehouse were destroyed together.

In connecting the warehouses, however, Perkins said that walls would be left intact so that in reality the massive warehouse will be a series of integrated but cohesive storage spaces. Moreover, a loop system is being installed so that each unit will have a sprinkler system.

This improvement not only will greatly reduce the hazard of fire, said Perkins, but would bring about a more beneficial insurance rate as well.

Of greatest importance to farmers, however, is the indication that within 30 days the company will have moved in practically all of more than 35,000 bales stored outside today for lack of facilities. Receipts have totaled 41,000 bales for the season, said Perkins, and very little of it has been moved into storage.

Now, as cotton is qualified for the loan, it is being moved from yard on the northern slope of the city and immediately south of the US Experiment Farm into the compress warehouses where it will become eligible for the loan. Under regulations, farmers may not complete loans on cotton until it is in approved storage, which generally means a warehouse.

Only one other warehouse is operative in the city for cotton. It is the Farmer Gin Co. building and has around 600 bales in it today.

Fox Caught Trying To Break In Zoo

NEW YORK, (AP)—Bronx zoo officials, more than once troubled by escaping animals, scratched their heads in wonderment today.

A full-grown, brownish fox was nabbed by park attendants—trying to get into the zoo.

Where he came from, nobody knew, but Reynard now is a resident of one of the cages.

By O. P. GRIFFIN
County Farm Agent
I cannot refrain from saying something about farm prices and the farmer's income. From some of the talks we hear on the radio, one would think farmers have entered a period of great prosperity. Let's analyze the returns from the average bale of Howard county cotton produced by a tenant farmer.

This average bale of cotton and the seed out of it brought about $115. And that is what people are talking about when they say that the farmer is becoming prosperous. But let's enumerate some of the cash outlay necessary to produce that bale of cotton. Tractor and implements to make a bale of cotton cost the average farmer $13. He paid out $7 for hoeing, his part of the ginning and marketing expense was $6, and picking and hauling cost $31. He paid his landlord one fourth or $28.75. Now adding up these items of cash outlay we get $57.75 which leaves the farmer for his labor $29.25. The farmer who made 20 bales has $590 income from cotton. 40 bales would be $1180 and to give him the income of the average industrial worker he would have to make more than 75 bales of cotton. And cotton is our most important money crop.

Now perhaps you will say that the farmer paid out too much for labor. Well, for the most part farm labor has been paid 50 cents per hour as against 60 to $1.50 paid in other industries. It is a matter of common knowledge that people have been leaving the farm, and are still leaving the farm, because they can get more pay anywhere than on the farm. If farm labor is to be held down and men forced to stay on the farm is that not involuntary servitude?

The farmer's income is derived from his labor in the main. Why should this great class of American citizens to whom we must all look for food and raiment be treated different to other citizens, many of whom are not so essential to our welfare, and to the winning of the war?

There is but one answer to this question. Farmer's prices can be held down. Farmers do not go on strike. The harder his lot becomes, the harder he works. And farmers have never learned to organize and work together for the welfare of farmers as a class. Perhaps some day it will be different, but until that day comes, we should reflect on his lot when we sing "America the land of the free and home of the brave."

It's Not Too Late To Plant Small Grain Pasturage

By O. P. GRIFFIN,
County Farm Agent
Now since it has rained a little we are getting lots of inquiries about whether it is too late to plant small grain for pasture. That question is easily answered. It is not too late. The difficulty is not the lateness of the season so much as it is, whether the rains have been sufficient to furnish enough moisture to carry the grain thru.

But in this area farmers have to have a good deal of faith in the weather. If we waited until everything was certain, no doubt crops would always fail for there would be no time to plant. A few were brave enough to plant small grain pastures before it rained. I am sure that they are now glad they did.

Barley and rye planted now can be depended on for pasture in February, March and April when all other pastures will be short if indeed there is any grazing at all in them. Both of these grains will make some growth when temperatures are above freezing for a few days. As to which of the two is best, barley has been used more the past few years. However, several farmers of this county have had good success with rye for winter and early spring pasture, and rye may do better on scant rainfall.

The land should not be plowed for small grain planted at this time of the year. A seeder is all that is needed, or if one cannot be had a disc harrow or one way disc can be used to cover the seed. The grain is much less damaged by freezes if it is planted on a firm seedbed.

While we have this subject under consideration, let's not forget the chickens. Every poultryman knows the value of a green pasture for hens and pullets. A majority of the hens and pullets are not starting to lay until they get some green feed. From now until late in January eggs will bring a good price, in fact they are apt to continue to sell for a very high ceiling price. Oats could be planted on the chicken range now; and if they come up at all, will pay in increased egg production. For this purpose they should be sown at the rate of 4 or 5 bu. per acre and covered only enough to insure germination. If barley or rye is planted in the field nearby chickens will go to that, when they have destroyed the oats on the poultry yard. If there is no field grain nearby some should be planted. Green feed, not only results in more eggs, but also helps the chickens to keep healthy.

Labor Meeting Set For Americas

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 2 (AP)—A labor meeting of the Americas will be held early next year preliminary to the world labor congress in London June 5, says Vicente Lombardo Toledano, president of the Latin American Workers Federation.

Lombardo Toledano, addressing the annual council meeting of the Mexican Workers Federation Tuesday, also reported that plans are proceeding for observance of "Atlantic Charter Day" in the Americas on January 1. At the London labor meeting, he said, 16 Latin American countries, The United States, Russia, England, Australia, Canada and New Zealand already are among those listed to be represented. Post-war problems will be discussed.

Yanks Ready But Japs Won't Attack

WITH UNITED STATES FORCES IN BOUGAINVILLE, Nov. 28 (Delayed) (AP)—Maj. Gen. Roberts S. Beightler thinks the Japanese ought to give the American army forces on Bougainville a chance to show their fighting spirit. "Our lines are established and fortified and I wish the Jap would attack us—we're ready for him," the commander of the army division holding about half of the Empress Augusta Bay front, said today.

Tax Agents Here To Aid With Forms

Taxpayers who filed an estimate of income and victory tax liability for 1943 on September 15th are not required to file another such estimate on Dec. 15 unless circumstances have arisen since their Sept. 15th estimate which would materially change the estimate made at that time, according to H. W. Axe, deputy collector of internal revenue, who with J. Guy Harris, will be here until Saturday noon to assist taxpayers with returns.

They are stationed in room 17, postoffice basement. Persons who desire to change the estimate made on Sept. 15 should clearly mark their estimates "AMENDED" in order that it may not be confused in the internal revenue collector's office with original estimates now being filed by farmers and stockmen, said Axe.

Those who filed an estimate on Sept. 15 and paid one-half of the tax shown due will receive within the next few days a statement from the collector of internal revenue showing the amount of the balance due, said Axe. This statement should be attached to the remittance when sent to the collector's office in order that it may be properly identified.

A great amount of confusion exists in the collector's office due to the fact that taxpayers send in remittances without supporting statements showing the kind of tax being paid and the taxpayer to whose account the remittance should be credited. Therefore no remittance should ever be made for federal taxes without this information being shown. Any taxpayer who does not receive a statement of his account should attach a letter with his remittance giving the information necessary to the proper crediting of his account.

Roosevelt Confers With Steinhardt

ANKARA, Nov. 30 (Delayed) (AP)—The newspaper Aksham said today that President Roosevelt had conferred in Cairo with Lawrence A. Steinhardt, U. S. Ambassador to Turkey.

The U. S. embassy declined comment, but Steinhardt returned to Ankara last night after an absence of about a week. All Turkish papers carried stories to the effect that a momentous conference was being held by United Nations leaders.

MARRIAGES ARE SEDATE

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, Dec. 2 (AP)—Archbishop Victor M. Sanabria of Costa Rica has issued an edict prohibiting "spectacular" marriages. Forbidden are parades

Kate Smith swaps stories with Mrs. Sherwin of Shreveport, La.

NOW THAT WAR WORK is causing irregular mealtimes in homes from coast to coast, this letter ought to be a real help!

"My husband is the type that thinks he has to have biscuits at every meal," writes Mrs. Jess A. Sherwin, of Shreveport, La. "So I make up a nice big pan of biscuits in the afternoon and put them in the icebox until he comes in for supper. And, due to Calumet's double-action, I get grand results every time!"

"SO MANY WOMEN tell me that Calumet batters and doughs can wait!" Kate answers. "Of course, it's because Calumet always waits till it hits the oven before acting a second time. So for light, fluffy hot breads, you sure can count on Calumet—even when meals are irregular!"

"Here's a wartime cup cake recipe I thought you might like for your husband's lunches. It's so easy to make. Hope he likes them, too!"

Cakes And Candies Bring Bit Of Christmas From Home To Soldiers

HOME-MADE GOODIES will bring a bit of Christmas to your friends in uniform.

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE AP Food Editor

We know you will want to send some of your very best home-made treats to members of your family and friends in Army and Navy camps in this country. For the boys and girls in the

- Krispies Marshmallow Squares
1-3 cup margarine
1-2 pound marshmallows (2 1-2 dozen)
1-2 teaspoon vanilla (if desired)
1 cup oven-popped rice
- Melt butter and marshmallows in double boiler. Add vanilla; beat thoroughly to blend. Put oven-popped rice in large buttered bowl and pour on marshmallow mixture, stirring briskly. Press into shallow buttered pan. Cut into squares when cool. Yield: 16 2 1/4 inch squares (10 x 10 inch pan).

service who are unable to get home, an enticing array of the delicious goodies that spell family get-togethers is the finest kind of a Christmas gift.

HONEY NUGGETS are easy to pack and brimful of holiday cheer. Cream 1-2 cup shortening with a cup of sugar, add 1-2 cup strained honey, 1 teaspoon cinnamon and 1-4 teaspoon each cloves, mace and ginger and 1-2 teaspoon salt. Stir in 2-3 cup broken nuts, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, 3 1-2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon soda and 1-4 cup hot milk. Chill dough and flatten small portions — 3 apart, on greased baking sheets. Stick raisins on top each cookie and bake 12 minutes in moderate oven (350).

- Pep Filled Cookies
1 1-2 cups seeded raisins
1-4 cup sugar
1-3 cup water
1 tablespoon lemon juice

- 3-4 cup shortening
3-4 cup sugar
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
3 cups fortified whole wheat flakes
2 1-4 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1-2 teaspoon salt
1-2 cup milk

Grind raisins. Cook raisins, sugar, water and lemon juice over low heat until thick. Cool. Blend shortening and sugar together thoroughly; add orange rind. Crush fortified whole salt together; mix with crumbs. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together; mix with crumbs. Stir into shortening mixture alternately with milk; mix well and chill. Roll dough thin on floured board. Cut half with floured 2 1-2 inch cookie cutter and half with 2 3-4 inch floured doughnut cutter. Put teaspoon filling on plain rounds, top with those with hole in center, press edges together with fines of fork. Bake on lightly greased cookie sheet in moderately hot oven (425) 12 to 15 minutes. Yield: 2 1-2 dozen 3-inch cookies.

MOTHER'S SOUR CREAM COOKIES will have a strong appeal so you had better put in some. They too are good travelers. Cream 1-2 cup shortening until soft. Add a cup sugar and beat well. Stir in 2 eggs, 1-4 cup thick sour cream, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1-3 teaspoon salt, 1-3 teaspoon vanilla and 1-4 teaspoon grated lemon rind. Lightly mix in 3 1-2 cups flour, 1-2 teaspoon baking powder, 2-3 teaspoon soda and 1 cup chopped dates. Chill dough and then break off small bits and roll into half inch balls. Flatten on greased baking sheets. Top each cookie with a nut and bake 10 minutes in moderate oven. No box would be complete with-

Grapefruit Juice To Be Released

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP)—Because of increased supplies, canned grapefruit juice will be removed from rationing in December, it has been learned.

A recent war food administration order releasing approximately 2,400,000 cases of juice from government-held stocks, making it available for civilian use, was a contributing factor in the decision.

The point value on a large can of grapefruit juice at present is three points.

O'Daniel Seeks Hike In Crude Oil Price

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP)—In a letter to Economic Stabilization Director Vinson urging a 50-cent per barrel crude oil price increase, Senator W. Lee O'Daniel (D-Texas) asserted that in two years the denial of the price increase had cost Texas producers more than $724,750,000 and Texas taxpayers $30,000,000 in severance taxes.

These taxes, said the letter inserted in the Congressional Record, would have enabled the state to increase old-age pensions enough so recipients could meet the increased cost of living.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE ABOUT COFFEE Quality?

In these days of war-bred curtailment one of the little freedoms we must do without is the freedom to feast. But happily the war in no way has interfered, even under rationing, with the quality of coffee. Admiration is today, as it has been for the past quarter century, a blend of the choicest, most select, most expensive green coffees money can buy. We state that not as an opinion but as a matter of positive fact. A blend so rich and flavorful, so delightfully aromatic and fresh-tasting as Admiration, could not be achieved with lesser grades of coffee. It takes coffees of the finest quality to make a fine coffee!

FULLY PROTECTED BY TRIPLEX LAMOFILM

The various qualities purposefully blended into Admiration—winy flavor, richness, heavy aroma, and numerous others—are thoroughly safeguarded by a special package. It's called Triplex Lamofilm. This package is thrice sealed against loss by moisture, air, or deterioration of freshness. The rubberized inner liner is as airtight as the inner tube in an automobile tire.

Pennsylvania Draws Largest Grid Crowds

By TED MEIER
NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—Over the last six years the University of Pennsylvania has drawn more persons to its home football games than any other team in the country, an Associated Press survey disclosed today.

The survey, which showed a drop of 18.4 per cent in grid crowds during 1943, as compared to 1942, revealed that a total of 2,143,500 persons turned out to watch Penn play at Franklin Field in Philadelphia from 1938 to 1943, inclusive.

Taking second place in home attendance over this six year span is Ohio State at Columbus, O., with an aggregate of 1,859,277, a mere 2,000 more than the 1,851,269 certified the University of Southern California at Los Angeles.

Notre Dame plays most of its games to capacity crowds on the road and hence the fighting Irish are down in 12th place in this six-year home attendance tabulation with 980,000.

They are preceded by the University of California at Los Angeles in fourth place with 1,509,246; Michigan in fifth with 1,476,331; Minnesota in sixth with 1,378,954; California in seventh with 1,342,960; Northwestern in eighth with 1,307,424; Tulane in ninth with 1,223,962; Yale in tenth with 1,132,800; and Navy in 11th with 1,043,870.

Eight Schoolboy Teams Open Fire In Football Race

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The Texas schoolboy football field will be trimmed to quarterfinalists this week-end with more than 80,000 fans due to see the eight games opening the battle for the championship.

Six undefeated, untied records are on the line and at least one will go into the discard since two of these teams—San Angelo and Yeleta—meet each other.

Definite favorites are listed in four of the games but in the others there is a wide difference of opinion.

Here is the schedule: Friday—Pampa at Vernon, Highland Park (Dallas) at Sherman, Sunset (Dallas) at North Side (Fort Worth) (night), Breckenridge at Waco (night), Marshall at East-kin, Goose Creek at Jeff Davis (Houston) (night), McAllen at Jefferson (San Antonio) (night); Saturday—San Angelo vs. Yeleta at El Paso.

Highland Park, Lufkin, Goose Creek and San Angelo get the nod but the other games can be considered no more than toss-ups. Any possible edge would go to Vernon over Pampa, North Side over Sunset, Waco over Breckenridge and Jefferson over McAllen, mainly because these are the home teams.

The Vernon-Pampa game is a puzzler. Pampa's feat in beating Amarillo indicates the Harvesters have enough to go all the way, but on the other hand Vernon outplayed Amarillo—although losing to the Golden Sandies. Pampa, due to being in high tension for the Amarillo game, probably won't be "up" again this week. Schoolboy teams seldom are.

There is little to offer as a clue on the comparative strength of San Angelo and Yeleta. San Angelo appears to have the type team that plays just good enough to win—in other words it's a "money" team. Yeleta met only four Texas outfits. Only one offers anything like a comparison. Midland beat Austin (El Paso) 32-6. Yeleta beat Austin 13-7, while San Angelo beat Midland 27-0. That indicates San Angelo is much stronger but those games were early in the season.

Highland Park already holds a decision over Sherman but it was only by three points. However, Highland Park's squad was not as experienced as Sherman's and probably has shown the most improvement since that early season date.

It appears Sunset's chances depend on what it can do against one of the state's finest passing games. The Blsons were pretty vulnerable in the Dallas city race.

Breckenridge takes the year's high-scoring record to Waco. The Buckaroos rolled to 486 points in ten games. However, it did not play anything like the hard schedule of Waco. It lost to North Side, one of the few top-rated teams it met. Waco played such tough ones as Marshall, Breckenridge (San Antonio), Jefferson and Sherman. The Tigers were terrific coming down the stretch.

Lufkin beat Marshall by two touchdowns in October. There is little reason to believe Lufkin isn't still that much stronger—if not more.

Goose Creek defeated Jeff Davis by two touchdowns in September and has been climbing upward ever since. Jeff Davis, on the other hand, has shown no marked improvement.

The McAllen-Jefferson game should be the best in the state. It matches the two top scorers—Perry Samuels of Jefferson with 114 points and Milton Saxon of McAllen with 112—and it sends two teams together who look about even on the basis of comparative records. McAllen is undefeated and untied but Jefferson played a harder schedule.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—Coming up for the second round, it appears that baseball's insurgents had about as much chance against Judge Bramham as Kingfish Levinsky had against Joe Louis. . . . It was the same kind of slaughter except that ringside seats were free—and, like one of Joe's first-round kayos, it left observers wondering how they ever figured it would be a fight. . . . Before disappearing into a caucus at which the five out-voted league heads apparently were trying to figure out what they could save from the wreckage, Shag Shaughnessy came up with a big grin and remarked: "Well, I guess we gave 'em a show. I think its good for baseball to bring these things out in the open." . . . Crack of the day from the losing side: John (Buffalo) Stigliemier. "I want to compliment the president on the way he has conducted this meeting on behalf of his votes."

Not So Unusual
 Herb Pennock figures that his new post as boss of the Phillies gives his brand new grandson, Eddie Collins, 3rd., a unique position. "He's the only baby who has two general managers for grandparents," says Herb, totally ignoring the fact that almost all grandparents can qualify for that role where the younger members of the family are concerned.

Lobby Patrol
 One veteran minor leaguer refused to be impressed by yesterday's fuss. "I've seen it happen twice before," he commented, "and each time the result was the same. The men who were in the driver's seat stayed there." . . . Perhaps the most confused man in the place is Walter "Boom Boom" Beck, who used to pitch for the Phillies. Bill Cox named Beck as manager of the Utica, N. Y., club before completing arrangements for his release from Knoxville, Tenn. Now with new men running the Phils, Boom Boom doesn't know whether he's a manager, player or just a guy looking for a job. . . . Probable successor to Herb Pennock as head of the Red Sox farm system is Joe Reardon, of Scranton, Pa., who has been Pennock's assistant. . . . Branch Rickey says this most unusual baseball convention he ever attended, "because nobody is talking about winning the pennant."

Dream Team
 Turn back the clock the right number of years and you could get up quite a ball team right in the hotel lobby. . . . For a starter, how about Kiki Cuyler, Mel Ott, Leo Durocher, Charley Grimm, Joe Cronin, Jimmie Foxx, Herb Pennock and Fred Fitzsimmons.

Cleaning The Cuff
 Whether the Southern Association moves up to class AA may depend on whether leagues below that class are allowed to pay bonuses to sign free agents. Billy Evans points out that the South has a lot of good ball players who won't quit full-time jobs without a little extra inducement. Eddie Dyer picked up a third baseman for the Columbus, O., club just by dropping in to see the football Dodgers. Coach Pete Cawthon recalled that his halfback, Frank Martin, was a pretty good ball player at Alabama U. and Dyer sent him right over to sign with Prexy Al Banister.

Tunney Helps Keep Fighting Men Fit

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Dec. 2 (AP)—Physical requirements for fighting this war are more exacting than they were for World War I, Commander Gene Tunney of the navy said today, "and in this war, troops are incomparably better." The former world champion boxer, now director of navy physical fitness, told interviewers his physical program is functioning in almost every part of the world, land or sea, where the navy or marines are operating.

Tunney right now is interested in the physical condition of P-T boat and destroyer crews.

6-Man Grid Test Slated For Friday In Steer Stadium

Football fans will have an opportunity Friday evening to sample something a little different in their last taste of football locally this season when Van Horn and Forsan tangle at 8 p. m. under the lights at Steer stadium for the bi-district six-man grid crown.

Six-man football differs from the regular game in three principal respects: 1) size of the field, 2) number of players, and 3) scoring.

The field, instead of being the usual 100 x 50 yards, is 80 x 40 yards. While the over-all length has been reduced, the distance required for a first down is increased to 15 yards.

The placement of six men results in two ends and a center for the line and a quarterback, halfback and fullback in the backfield. Anyone is eligible for a forward pass, and such passes may be thrown directly by the back first receiving the ball from center. On running plays, however, the ball must be lateralled at least once before it is advanced.

Scoring differs from regular football only in that two points is credited for drop or place kicked goals. Those passed or run across count the usual one and all-touchdowns are six points.

All in all, the game is more elastic than the regular brand because it offers more maneuverability. Because of the lateral provisions, play may seem ragged because it is so apparent, but with five less men, it is next to impossible to completely shield a play. The game, however, offers tremendous passing and power possibilities.

Committee Makes Resolution For RR Wage Increase

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP)—The senate looked Wednesday to Fred M. Vinson, economic stabilization director, to make the next move as its interstate commerce committee brought in a resolution authorizing a flat increase of 8 cents an hour for 1,100,000 non-operating railroad employees.

Vinson thus far has stood pat on his rejection of the 8-cent boost agreed to by heads of 15 railroad brotherhoods and carrier managements last August, on the ground that it would crack the Little Steel wage formula and the anti-inflation line.

His counter proposal of a sliding scale of increases of from four to ten cents an hour was rejected by the unions and resulted in a strike vote, the results of which are to be announced shortly.

Grade crossing accidents took a toll of 1,772 lives in the U. S. in 1942.

Rebels Wait For 'Head's' Decision

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—The "rebels" who tried to blow Kenneth M. Landis part-way off his baseball throne kept their fingers crossed today in the last desperate hope the high commissioner, himself, might put some new life in their slightly-dead revolution.

And as they waited for the decision of "the head" on the appeal they took to him last night, after the rebellion was partially blown apart at the general meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the minors), the assembled delegates at the winter meeting finally found a bit of choice trade talk to chew on.

In the middle of this gossip around the ivory market place were the Washington Senators, and assorted rumors had them dickering with (a) the Cleveland Indians, (b) the New York Yankees and (c) the St. Louis Browns. One Bluege, the hurrying manager of the Mets, was about the busiest guy around the place as he went into a set of huddles with Lou Boudreau, the Tribe's boss; Luke Sewell, the Browns' pilot, and Joseph McCarthy of the Bombers.

Cotton Bowl Teams Prepare For Meet

DALLAS, Dec. 2 (AP)— Cotton Bowl fans will see little of the teams that play in the classic before game time Jan. 1.

They won't glimpse the Texas squad at all because the Longhorns will come here the night before and will have no work-outs in Dallas.

They'll get to see Randolph Field at least once.

The Ramblers will arrive in Dallas the afternoon of Dec. 30, Lieut. George L. Fersch, public relations officer, announced at San Antonio today. The team will travel by bus.

The Texas squad will practice until Dec. 22, then take Christmas holidays until Dec. 28.

The Randolph field squad will resume practice Dec. 14.

That the Wheels of War May Turn

'It is not yet good daylight and the farmer fumbles for the switch to start his tractor . . . It is mid-morning in the city. The tired shipyard welder comes in from his graveyard shift, sails his safety hat across the room and says to his wife, "Well, honey, we skidded another ship down the ways this morning." . . . It is midnight at a highway tavern. The truck driver says to the waitress, "Another stack of wheats and another cup of coffee. I've got a long drag ahead of me tonight."

THESE MEN are in the fight as are millions of fellow Americans—men, women and children. They win no medals but they are rewarded with the satisfaction of the necessary part they play in feeding, clothing and supplying the armed forces with the vital tools of war.

The Humble company is in the fight, too. With all possible speed it is converting Texas oil to war needs: Toluol for T. N. T., 100-octane aviation gasoline, fuels, greases, lubricants of all kinds. (See partial list below.)

Less spectacular but equally important is Humble's obligation to do its part toward keeping the wheels of industry and agriculture turning on the home front. The farmer's tractor must run, the wheels of transportation must turn, the multiple mechanisms of varied industry must not lag far want of a petroleum product.

13,000 Humble employees* have dedicated themselves to an all-out effort so that the wheels of war, both here and abroad, may turn—and keep turning till victory.

* Over 2,300 Humble men and women are in uniform at the fighting front.

Dreadful Facts About Our Lack Of Traffic Safety

Figures - cold, unchangeable figures - are often embarrassing to the most righteous. One cannot be glib or vague when tall-tale figures are put before us.

Here is a target for us on the home front to shoot at. That the figures are shameful nobody will deny. That something will be done about these needless deaths should be our New Year's resolve.

preservation become indelibly impressed on their sub-conscious minds. Ned H. Dearborn, executive vice-president of the National Safety Council, cites instances as to what concerted action by the citizenship can accomplish.

Worldwide Health Will Be A Major Post-War Project

By HOMER G. OLSEN Associated Press Staff Certainly not the least important of the post-war plans will be a worldwide health program, global conflict having scattered peoples everywhere and pointed up the increasingly difficult problems that lie ahead.

ease-producing organisms which are at present not found in sections of North America. Tropical countries will be opened to migration after the war by northern peoples who are not immune to the endemic diseases. We should begin to plan to meet the new public health programs as they may affect North America, and at the same time our humanitarian interests dictate that we contribute to a worldwide health program.

Washington Daybook - That Battle Of Subsidies

By JACK STINNETT WASHINGTON - Unless you are on the ground, it is difficult to understand the intensity of the battle over subsidies. I doubt if there has been present in Washington in recent years any larger or more active lobby than that fighting subsidies. One exhausted Congressman who had been in the thick of the subsidy scrap told me he believed there were "at least several hundred" anti-subsidy group representatives in the capital.

Whether they will do all these things, whether it is the most economical method of obtaining those ends, and whether those ends are really for the best interests of the country and the producers involved are the questions which have raised all the ruckus. For the most part, spokesmen insist that the farmers want no part of this control system. The administration insists that it is vitally necessary.

Mostly, they are speaking for farm organizations, dairy men and cattle raisers. From the outset, subsidy proponents in Congress admitted their defeat on passage of the bill which would end all Commodity Credit Corporation financed subsidies Dec. 31. Their objective is simply to marshal enough strength to sustain the President's veto of the bill, which also is considered a certainty. If that happens, Congress will merely be going over the same ground it did earlier in the year.

Administration leaders further point out that this government has been paying subsidies for years: (1) by direct payment to farmers on certain crops and (2) by the purchase of surpluses at parity or near parity price levels. Opponents declare that it's false economy to take out of the taxpayers' pockets the subsidy payment plus the cost of administering them and that it would be much cheaper in the long run to pay 50 cents for its pound of butter. They also claim that a subsidy program running into the hundreds of millions wouldn't reduce the cost of living one per cent.

Impartial observers here seem of one mind - that a little subsidy is a good and necessary thing and that Congress instead of trying to go whole hog in banning them should pass legislation especially controlling them.

FINAL ASSEMBLY By E. H. LEFTWICH

Chapter 10 Alf reached down to the floor and picked up a worn piece of steel wool. "I'm fed up with this dog-chasing," he told Pete. Slowly, he began rubbing an already over-polished section of tubing. "I imagine so," Pete agreed. "I've been here three weeks, tonight, and I'm sick of it, plenty."

"Over to the state Home for the Insane. I was engineer. Had to fire up the big steam boilers for the power plant. Not much pay, but I got my room and board and had plenty of time to fish. I got three hours off, afternoons, three days a week . . . and I always had something to do."

old man was serious. His eyes were clear and intelligent. Evidently, it was a problem . . . to quit this plant. At that moment, the lunch whistle blew. Pete hurried with the crowd who were making a mad rush toward the big cafeteria, but his eyes were fastened on the Paint Shop entrance. Kitty appeared with an inch long strip of adhesive under her chin and Pete rushed to her side, forcing his way through the stream of laughing, joking, jostling workers.

How To Torture Your Husband

"But, I wasn't licked, yet. A guy over in Hydraulics told me I could appeal the case to the night superintendent and just as soon as they get some new 'Appeal Forms' printed, the super says he will okay one for me . . ."

"Well, when will the forms be printed?" "Just as soon as 'Methods and Control' division makes up their minds on the size and they are approved by Personnel and the general manager."
