STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Top legislators have settled down to the budget-writing job which will decide whether lawmakers and the taxpayers will be confronted with a tax bill this year.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe said new taxation must be avoided for the second legislative session in 20 years and offered a budget which would require no new revenue.

Further, the Briscoe budget would leave $300 million in unobligated funds on the table to meet unforeseen court developments in the public school finance case and uncertainties of welfare spending requirements.

Briscoe's no-new-tax proposals met generally favorable reaction from legislative leaders and rank-and-file legislators, although some differed with him on specifics.

The Governor delivered to a joint session of the House and Senate a $9.6 billion biennial appropriation recommendation--$391.6 million above the present level of general revenue outlays and federal revenue-sharing income.

Even with the addition and the holding back of $300 million, Briscoe was $173.1 million under former Gov. Preston Smith's last budget draft for 1974-75, and $91.6 million below the Legislative Budget Board's recommendations.

He recommended $240.3 million more for education; an $111.3 million increase for the state departments and agencies; $29 million more for public health, hospitals, mental retardation and youth institutions and $11 million more for the court and legislature.

While governors' budget recommendations are generally ignored, Briscoe's were promised careful review, although House and Senate appropriations bill drafters had already concluded their hearings when he offered his set of figures.

EDITORS HERE FOR INTERVIEWS

Texas newspapers editors will converge on Austin Monday, March 19, to seek "editorial" and "column" material. Legislative Day for editors will feature meetings with governor Briscoe, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, Speaker Price Daniel Jr., Sec. of State Mark White and Atty. Gen. John Hill-- and hometown legislators.

Current issues of interest to Texas editors and publishers include revision of the Constitution, judicial reform, penal code reform, drug laws, elections laws and "reform legislative package" by Speaker Daniel. It includes revisions of the Open Meetings Law, Free Flow of Information Bill--newsman's privilege measure and Open Records Bill.

INFORMATION BILLS TO ADVANCE
Lieutenant Governor Hobby said he is optimistic that a strong press "Shield" law and a tougher open meetings bill will clear the senate soon.

The lieutenant governor said the shield law will not only protect newsmen from having to divulge sources of confidential information but also will grant privilege to all information they obtain in the course of their official duties.

HB 10--the House-passed shield bill--got a rough reception in the Senate Jurisprudence Committee last week, but Sen. Chet Brooks of Pasadena said that doesn't mean it is logjammed there.

"The hearing just provided an opportunity for some members of the Senate to vent their hostility against the press," said Brooks.

Sen. A.M. Aikin of Paris is the sponsor of the broader shield bill which provides that no newsman can be forced to disclose any information received or any source of information obtained in the course of news-related activities. The privilege would be no protection in actions for libel, slander, or invasion of privacy.

ETHICS CONFERENCE SET
Former state Sen. Jack Strong of Longview was designated by Hobby as chairman of a March 20-21 citizens on Conference on Ethics in Government here.

About 150 citizens have been invited to attend the Austin session and provide a "grass-roots input into the legislative process."

"To be meaningful," said Strong of the conference, "it must explore not only the ethics of legislators, but the ethics of the citizens as well, since the legislature is merely a reflection of the mores of our society."
COURTS SPEAK

The Supreme Court declined to overturn San Patricio County land claims involving thousands of acres and millions of dollars in spite of an attorney general's contention that the case may deprive the permanent school fund of all unsurveyed public school land.

In other recent rulings, the Court held: The Fort Worth Court of Civil Appeals was right in ordering uninsured motorist benefits paid to a man injured when his brother's car, on which he was working, was struck by an uninsured driver.

Lower courts should be reversed in holding that a Corsicana district judge is qualified to hold his office although he has not practiced law or been a judge for four years before election. The High Court itself refused to decide.

APPOINTMENTS
 Governor Briscoe named Frank G. Evans III of Houston associate justice of the First Court of Civil appeals, to succeed Tom F. Coleman to resigned. The Senate promptly confirmed Evans, who was a Briscoe campaign aide.

Briscoe reappointed Brig. Gen. Willie L. Scott of Austin and Col. Belisario D.J. Flores of San Antonio as assistant adjutants general for the army and Air National Guard, respectively. LEASE SALE NETS $7.4 MILLION
 An oil and gas lease sale on state-owned lands--largest since 1966--brought the state $7,451,278 in bonus payments for the permanent school fund.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong said renewed interest in oil and gas production on state lands is due largely to increase demands for energy fuels.

A total of 113,337 acres were leased at an average per acre price of $65.51.

For the first time in recent years, the highest bid was over one million dollars. Houston Oil and Minerals Corporation bid $1.5 million for 394 acres in a Galveston County submerged tract. CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION BEGINS

The 37-member State Constitutional Revision Commission held its first meeting Saturday after legislators failed to register enough protests to block appointments.

The Commission was bombarded with criticism because its ranks did not include more women, blacks, Mexican-Americans and youths. Several areas of the state also felt they were insufficiently represented on the blue ribbon body.

First task of the Commission will be selection of a staff, choosing quarters and dividing into subcommittees to split up work which must be completed by November. The Legislature will convene as a Constitutional Convention next January, and a 10-member Legislative committee has been authorized to plan that historic session. POLLUTION HEARINGS SET

Hearings are scheduled in Houston, Dallas and San Antonio April 4 to consider state controls on autos and trucks in the drive against air pollution. Texas Air Control board will conduct the hearings and weigh advisability of transportation controls to meet national ambient air standards. Further hearings may be held.

SHORT SNORTS
 Two few poor are receiving any benefits from million of dollars spent on welfare, a House interim committee reported.

Texas Water Rights commission reaffirmed its position that the plan for navigation of the Trinity river is feasible.

Justices of the peace and constables serve notice they plan to "zap" a proposed constitutional amendment to overhaul the court system and abolish their jobs.

Hunting and Fishing license fees would be increased under a bill given House committee approval. New state banks are being sought at Sierra Blanca and Irving.

GRAPE STUDY---The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station is launching a study on commercial grape production through a $5,000 grant by John Crutchfield of Corpus Christi and other interested businessmen. Research horticulturists list the major-grape production problems as vine disease, high summer temperatures and cold winter temperatures. Grape production is increasing in the U.S. due to increased wine consumption.

Mrs. E. M. Bailey was in Oklahoma City Monday and Tuesday to be with her father, Mr. R. O. Pound, who had surgery. While there she visited the J. O. Bransons and Mrs. Darrel Springfellow.

News From ALANREED

By Mrs. P. M. Gibson
Elmer Daniels and Don Ponders underwent surgery this past week in High Plains Hospital in Amarillo. Don Sanders came home Friday and is doing fine. Elmer has also returned home too.

On Friday open house was held at Alanreed School and some 100 people enjoyed looking at the handwork the children had done. The beautiful clothes the girls had made, the book cases, etc. that the boys had made and painted were very good. Pies, cakes and coffee and punch were served and just a lot of good visiting was done by all.

Visiting the P. M. Gibsons Sunday were the T. T. Griffins of McLean.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moreman Sunday were her brother, Ralph Palmer of Pampa, a cousin, Mrs. Gull of Pampa, another cousin Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Elms of Lubbock.

The Alanreed Home Demonstration members working at the stock show in Pampa Tuesday was May Moreman, Polly Harrison, Lucille Kelly, Lucy Goldston, Mary Davis, Gail Rohde, Sue Crisp, Anita Bruce and Lena Carter.

Preaching in First Baptist Church Sunday was Rev. Charles Stafford of Pampa. Mr. and Mrs. Olin Stapp and Mrs. Faye Oakley spent the weekend in Amarillo with the Paul Averitts.

Sue Crisp was on the sick list Sunday.

A surprise dinner was held for Mrs. Fidelle Stubbs of McLean and a former resident of Alanreed, was given Sunday by her daughter and son-in-law of Amarillo. A granddaughter and her husband of Dumas and Bob and Becky Stubbs of Alanreed. Her birthday was the 13th of March and she was 88 years old and as spry as a 16 year old.

The pruning of the trees around over Alanreed after the ice storm last fall sure makes everything look better. Robert Bruce and his son Bob are doing the work around the school.

Visiting Ruby Hill was her son and his wife, Robert Cecil, her grandson and his wife, Jerry Hill and children of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert McKee of Alanreed honored their mother, Mrs. L. L. Palmer with a dinner on her 92nd birthday March 11th. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Elms of Lubbock, Mrs. Willie B. Gull, Mrs. Irene Hessey and Mr. and Mrs. Luby Knowles of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Palmer, Mrs. Sam Samson, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Alford and Scott of Spearman; Mr. and Mrs. Billy McKee, Brenda and Linda of Groom.

Grace Windom went to Idalou Sunday to visit her daughter's family the Johnny Vineyards.

Students Have Outdoors Classroom

If you see students planting trees on a school campus or catching frogs from a miniature pond, don't panic.

They are probably studying nature in an outdoor classroom—a new concept in environmental education.

"At last county, we had helped plan and install some 343 outdoor learning areas in Texas," said Edward E. Thomas of Temple, state conservationist for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service. "And the number grows every week, especially in the larger cities."

Thomas said SCS assistance includes soil and plant adaptation guidelines, planning erosion control measure laying out nature trails, identifying plants, designing small water holding areas for aquatic studies, and other technical help.

A recent survey revealed that nearly 900 individual schools plus 48 school districts are using the 343 outdoor classrooms. Some 1,700 other groups—from Boy Scouts to adult organizations to convalescent hospital patients—also use the areas.

Learning features used in outdoor classrooms include soil and water conservation examples, plant and animal identification, historical studies, and aquatic life. Some areas also double as outdoor laboratories.

A total of 728 groups and organizations are helping schools install and maintain learning areas in Texas. These range from the American Association of University Women to parent-teacher organizations to a radio station.

Thomas said SCS first became involved in outdoor learning areas by helping school cure campus erosion problems. Then someone suggested that letting students help install some of the conservation measures or to attract wildlife. Eventually, the idea of installing complete outdoor environmental learning areas evolved.

Students enjoy planning and installing the classrooms themselves over a period of months or years, Thomas said. This also enhances the learning experience, helping students gain a deep appreciation of the inter-relationship between man,

To Have Water Control Hearing

McLean Cattle Company will apply to the Texas Water Quality Board, in a public hearing March 15, for a waste control order for a feedlot operation to be located 2.5 miles south of McLean on F.M. Road 273.

The hearing will be held in conference Room C of the municipal building in Amarillo beginning at 10 a. m.

If the application is approved, wastewaters from the 25,000 head feedlot operation will be retained in a holding pond and utilized for irrigation.

plants, soil, water, animals, and sunshine.

Uses of outdoor classrooms varies, depending upon the ingenuity of the teacher. Some biology classes study microscopic growth in tiny ponds built on the school campus; chemistry classes conduct soil and water related experiments; math classes compute slope and elevation or estimate tree heights; and language art classes write articles or poems based on outdoor sounds or observations.

For help in getting started on an outdoor learning area, SCS has a new publication entitled "Outdoor Classrooms on School Sites." To get a free copy, call the nearest SCS office, or write Soil Conservation Service, P.O. Box 648, Temple, Texas 76501.

TOP O' TEXAS JR. LIVE-STOCK SHOW

This year's show was the most outstanding ever held. Price of calves and pigs was a good ten dollars higher than last year. We hope all 4-H and FFA exhibitors will take the time to say thank you to the McLean contributors that supported the show and the purchasers of the calves and pigs. A list of both purchasers and contributors are included in a special article in this week's McLean News.

RAIN

There is a great deal of mixed emotion about the heavy rain we had last weekend. Most cattlemen had rather it had stayed on the drier side since sub soil moisture was rather abundant. Farmers having wheat, and no cattle were jubilant.

CATTLE LOSSES

Losses in both weight and by death continue to plague the cattlemen. It appears the over all death loss of fall and winter purchase cattle will equal or exceed ten percent. Bloat and shipping fever is now taking a second round of death loss-

Record Aoudad In Bandera Court

Records were made to broken. The Parks and Wildlife Department recently announced a record aoudad from Palo Duro Canyon immediately drew a challenger.

The word comes from Angelo that John G. Klau of that city killed an aoudad on his Bandera County ranch back in April, 1972, that was estimated to be 15 years old.

The ram's horns were measured by a San Antonio taxidermist and submitted to Roland Wards Record as a new world's record aoudad.

The ram's right horn measured 34 1/4 inches in length and the left 36 5/8 inches.

Last week's Texas record was 33 inches and the previous world's record was 35 5/8 inches.

es. Most of the cattle that have been shipped in are very thin and have little disease resistance. The extremely bad winter hat covered the mid and eastern section of the nation from north to south.

Doctor's Fee

Harold's wife died shortly after undergoing an operation. When a bill arrived from the surgeon, Harold decided not to pay. In due course, the matter wound up in court.
 "Obviously, the operation was a failure," Harold pointed out to the judge. "Why should I have to pay for services that were useless?"

However, the court ordered him to pay up. The court said a doctor's services are to be measured by the quality of his work, not merely by the results--and this doctor had performed the operation in a proper manner.
 "The marvelous skill of the greatest surgeons in the world," added the judge, "is sometimes futile."

This case states the general rule of law about medical fees. Furthermore, unless a specific sum has been agreed upon in advance, the doctor generally has considerable leeway--within reason--in deciding how high the fee will be.

May he take into account the patient's ability to pay? That is, may he charge a higher fee to a rich patient than to a poor one?
 Most courts say yes, sometimes on the theory that high-paying work will allow him to take on more low-paying work.

Nevertheless, the basic standard of due care remains constant, whether the fee is large or small--or even nonexistent. In one early case, a doctor was accused of neglecting a charity patient. In his defense, he insisted that he had less responsibility to be careful when he was working for nothing.

But the court disagreed, and held him liable on grounds of malpractice.

The judge commented:
 "Whether the patient be a pauper or a millionaire, whether he be treated gratuitously or for reward, the physician owes him precisely the same measure of duty and the same degree of skill and care."

 Feb. 23-24 along with 400

The young visitors from

Cotton Office Grades Sweet And Sour 13,580 Samples

The USDA Cotton Division Classing Office at Altus graded 13,580 samples for the week ending March 9, and the season total stood at 355,600 samples classed. Final completion of the harvest was further delayed by wet weather, according to C.E. Cox, officer in charge at Altus. Last year at this time, only 174,000 samples had been graded, and two years ago the harvest was complete with 193,700 samples classed.

Samples classed during the week from the Memphis classing territory totaled 7,400, and the total classed from that area stood at 230,000 samples, compared with only 146,800 last year at this date, and 101,000 two years ago.

Grades on Memphis territory cotton classed during the week were 18 percent White, 58 percent Light Spotted, and 24 percent Spot Spotted. Twenty-four percent was reduced in grade because of Bark or Grass.

The Agricultural Marketing Service reported that cotton marketing activity declined during the week. Demand was good, although prices continued to fluctuate and showed little over-all gain over the previous week. Prices on currently predominant qualities averaged 9.50 to 11.00 cents per pound above loan rates for the better grades, and 7.00 to 8.50 cents over loan on the lower grades.

Weather Serv. Change Storm Warning

According to the National Weather Service, "Small Craft Warnings" are now "Small Craft Advisories."

It's still a blow by any other name. The change in terminology was the result of objections from mariners about the vagueness and variability of the "warnings."

Advisories will inform boaters and let them decide for themselves if the observed or forecast conditions are a real threat to them.

The Weather Service has an ascending series of alerting messages for salt-water boaters.

The least hazardous weather condition is the small craft advisory--for winds of about 18 to 33 knots and dangerous sea conditions. Next in urgency is the gale warning with winds of 34 to 37 knots.

The storm warning forecasts winds of 38 to 63 knots and tops on the scale is the hurricane warning which expects winds in excess of 64 knots.

If while boating along the Texas Gulf Coast this spring and summer you spot the familiar red triangle flag flying, the National Weather Service advises that you tune into the latest marine weather forecast.

Then decide if you and your boat can handle the situation.

Mrs. Luther Petty has received a message of the surgery for brain tumor for a nephew, R. M. Francis, of near Waco who is in a hospital at Dallas, but reports are that he is recovering. Prayer is requested.

The Chinese had a great idea when they decided to combine the sweet taste of pineapple and tart flavor of vinegar.

Here's another great idea from Cindy Gray, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's home economist. Use the sweet and Sour Redfish is so good that she saves it for special occasions. It combines all the elements of a fine meal--it's colorful, delicious and quick to prepare.

Though Texas redfish is ideal for the recipe, any fresh fish fillets can be used. Or, for a fantastic substitute, try Gulf shrimp in the recipe. Anyway you serve it, you'll find this dish well received.

More interesting and delicious recipes are available from "Seafood," Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan Building, Austin, Texas 78701. SWEET AND SOUR REDFISH 2 pounds redfish or other fresh fish fillets

- 1 can (1 lb. 4 oz.) pineapple syrup and water
- 1/4 cup cider vinegar
- 1/4 cup brown sugar, packed
- 3 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
- 3 tablespoons cooking oil
- 1 can (6 oz.) water chestnuts drained and sliced
- 1 medium green pepper, cut in 1-inch squares
- 1 medium tomato, cut in thin wedges
- 6 servings hot, fluffy rice

Cut fish into 1-inch pieces. Drain pineapple chunks, reserve syrup. Add water to syrup to measure 1 1/4 cups liquid. Combine liquid, vinegar, brown sugar, cornstarch, soy sauce, and salts; blend well. Cook fish in oil in 12-inch fry pan or Chinese wok over moderate heat, turning pieces carefully until fish is firm. Add liquid mixture and cook, stirring carefully, until sauce is thick and clear. Add remaining ingredients, mix carefully. Cook just until vegetables are heated and fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Serve with rice. Makes six servings.

McLean Boys Advance In Competition At Tech

David Haynes upset Bill Rice 6-4 Thursday to advance to the third round of the Texas Tech singles intramural tennis competition for the spring semester. Haynes beat Larry Morgan 6-0 in the opening match last week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Haynes.

About 70 persons entered the competition, which is now down to the top 16. Haynes and Mike Darsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Darsey, reached the third round in tennis doubles in the fall semester, after winning two matches.
