McLean Wins Battle Of The Tigers

By Lisa Patman

The McLean Tigers charged into District 1A action Friday night determined to end the dry spell of district championships that has plagued McLean since 1966 and if Friday's action against Groom is any indication of things to come, the Tigers have a good chance of sewing up the 1980 title. McLean defeated Groom on its own turf in an exciting 20-6 victory. The Tigers had not won a game against Groom since 1973, when Joe Riley, now assistant coach for the team, was a senior McLean Tiger quarterback. In that game McLean slipped by Groom 18-16.

Friday's game did not start off with a bang where McLean was concerned as early in the action on McLean's first possession, Terry Todd fumbled the pigskin and Groom recovered. However, the undaunted McLean Tigers under the lead of hard-hitting Theron Stubbs soon squelched Groom's hopes of fast-scoring, and on a 35-yard run by James Matheny, McLean had its first touchdown of the night. Tim Smith's extra point kick was good, and only five minutes into the game, McLean led 7-0.

Later in the first quarter, with Theron Stubbs again leading McLean's defense, and Dudley Reynolds scrambling to tackle behind the line of scrimmage, McLean's Brock Crockett stymied an almost sure Groom touchdown attempt with a tackle on McLean's 10 yard line. McLean was unable to hold the Groom Tigers much longer though, and with 2:41 left in the first, Groom went over the line from the 2 and Dwain Weller became the only Groom player to see scoring territory during the game. With McLean's Bill Skipper ably stopping the extra point attempt, the score read McLean 7, Groom 6.

In second quarter action, James Matheny and Terry Todd spelled each other on carrying the ball, with Todd notable for carrying much of the Groom line with him on his advances, while Matheny specialized in slipping through and over the Groom line. But this time it was Todd's turn for the touchdown as he plunged over the line after a steady McLean advance brought the ball to the Groom 1. The score was 13-6 at 4:40 in the second quarter.

And although the remainder of the half remained scoreless, one of the most exciting plays came at this time, when a thrilled McLean crowd watched as the intimidated Groom quarterback was chased back to his own 15 before he was sacked by McLean's determined Theron Stubbs.

Matheny and Todd went on to chalk up 269 yards between them, with Matheny carrying for 138 on 23 carries, and Todd advancing 131 on 26. The Tigers advanced the ball 303 yards during the game. The duo's action brought them honorable mention in the Amarillo Globe-News Class 1A player of the week award. Also garnering honorable mention were Dudley Reynolds, for six solos and nine assists, and the McLean offensive line as a group. Coach Jack Dorsett commented "This is the first ballgame the offense has won. Our defense has been carrying us before, but the offense controlled the ball from end to end, and that was the key to the ball game."

Third quarter ended with no scoring, as Groom made a valiant attempt to recover its composure, while McLean was just as determined to shoot them out of the ball game.

Early in the fourth, after Todd and Matheny carried the ball again to the Groom 1, Bill Skipper was over for another score with a little over three minutes ticked off the clock. Tim Smith's extra point kick was good, and McLean wrapped up the game in a neat 20-6 package.

The remainder of the second half saw McLean keeping the Groom Tigers under control with Billy Kincannon hassling Groom's quarterback, Tim Kilham batting down a Groom pass, and Bill Kincannon and H.L. Mencken said "There are some politicians who, if their constituents were cannibals, would promise them missionaries for dinner." With the election just a few days away now, the politicians are trying their best to out promise opponents, and outlander the opposition.

This presidential campaign may be remembered as one of the nastiest campaigns in many years, but there is always someone with a sense a humor running around among politicians. Have you seen this bumper sticker? "Nixon in 80...Why not the worst?"

I owe a special apology to junior high coach Joe Riley. For the last two weeks, my subconscious mind has been asleep, and I have put the coach of the junior high as Jack instead of Joe. I have only known Coach Joe Riley since he was a first grader in McLean, so the mistake is really stupid. I do know two Jack Rileys, one a former Methodist preacher in McLean, and one the former superintendent of schools in McLean, and both of them are fine men.

If I were to get my name confused with anyone, I would rather it be someone like these two. But at any rate, Joe, I will try very hard to get your name right. The funny thing about this error is that the stories were proofread by three of us, and none of us caught the mistake!

I recently read a book called "Turning Points" by Ellen Goodman which deals with the effect of the women's movement on the lives of women in the 1970's. One of her statements was that many women are in the middle ground of the liberation movement and say, "I'm not a woman's libber, but..."

I realized when I read that paragraph that I have been guilty of saying the same thing, but I think what us middle grounders are doing is refusing to be identified with the radical weirdos who seem to have taken the spotlight in the women's liberation movement.

So let me say again, I am not one of those kinds of "libbers", but I definitely believe in equal pay for equal work, and equal rights under the law.

One part of the movement that I have objected to, is the emphasis on language. Many women's groups have insisted that the word "chairman" for example be changed to "chairperson". I think that is patently ridiculous and awkward, and I believe that has done more to alienate people from the liberation movement than almost anything else.

There is one aspect of language that I do resent, how-

Council Gives Permit To Block Street

The McLean City Council met with several individuals in a lengthy session last week at the city hall during the group's regular meeting.

School officials met with the council to ask permission to close a portion of Rowe Street for 30 minutes in the afternoon as school children are being loaded onto the buses. Superintendent Carl Dwyer, and principals Ron Cummings and Dorman Thomas met with the council as directed by the school board. The council approved the action by the school and agreed to help facilitate the closing.

Vickie Jacobs and Thomas Plumlee of Panhandle Regional Planning Commission and Ida Hess, a local real estate agent, met with the council to explain industrial revenue bonds and the advantages for the city in securing such bonds. Mrs. Hess said that a representative of the Texas Industrial Commission will conduct a one-day seminar on the subject for interested civic leaders on Nov. 20 in McLean.

Officers Investigate Six Wrecks On I-40

Six wrecks in the area last week kept law officers and emergency personnel busy, with three of the wrecks occurring in the same area of Interstate 40 on the same day.

The mishaps began Oct. 13 when Brian David Basham of Norman, Okla. ran off the road about 2.8 miles east of McLean on I-40 and hit a large tree. His 1976 red Chevrolet pickup spun around and hit another tree. Although the car was demolished, according to Texas Department of Public Safety trooper R.C. Parker, the driver escaped without injury.

On Oct. 15 at 4:50 p.m. a 1979 Ford van, driven by Jesse Dewey Gillam of Farmersville, Calif. apparently turned left out of the right hand lane on the east bound lane of I-40 near Gately's Cafe and hit the side of a 1980 truck driven by Ronald Van Atchley of Somerville, Ala. Two passengers in the van, Mrs. Jesse D. Gillam, and

Mrs. Jacobs said that the PRPC would like to use McLean as a type of pilot town and help the city make some pre-applications for federal grants to help obtain industry for the town.

The council also discussed acquiring the street rightaway and gas line easement from the McLean School District to connect Dial Street with an Interstate 40 service road.

The council discussed the night watchman's job and the prospect of hiring a city policeman. City secretary Stella Lee reported to the council on the number of responses to a recent straw vote mailed out with utility bills which concerned hiring a city policeman. "The response has been very small," Mrs. Lee said, "and the majority of those responding have been negative."

The group raised the service charge for reconnecting meters from $2 to $5 in town and $8 out of town. This charge would apply for reconnection when utilities have been turned off for repair or non-payment.

Minnie Parks of Springdale, Ark., were slightly injured and taken to the McLean Hospital.

On Oct. 16, in the area of I-40 west of Alanreed that was known as Death Alley before the two-lane traffic was opened into four lanes, three separate wrecks occurred. At 6:45 a.m. 11 miles west of Alanreed a 1980 White truck driven by Earl China of Oklahoma City, Okla. ran into the back of a dumptruck driven by Roy Franklin Grant of Amarillo. Both vehicles were going east. The driver of the large truck apparently did not see the dumptruck and when he swerved to pass, he hit the rear of the smaller truck. No injuries were reported in the incident.

At 8:45 a.m. the same day about four miles west of Alanreed on I-40 a 1979 Dodge driven by James B. Handson of Kanakee, Ill. ran off the road, spun around, and turned over in the median. The driver

Dr. Harold Fabian was reappointed as the city health officer for 1981.

City superintendent Bob Glenn reported to the council on the progress of the installation of the city gas lines. He said that the gas loss is already down from the previous years even though the lines are not complete.

Ray Fish appeared before the council to ask that his property be disannexed from the City, but the council took no action on the request pending investigation of the legal question by city attorney Don Lane. The land that Fish has requested to be disannexed was part of the original plat of the City, councilmen said.

escaped without serious injury.

At 12:30 p.m. the same day 4.3 miles west of Alanreed a 1980 Oldsmobile driven by Chester H. Hefley of Wagner, Okla. was hit from behind by a 1980 green GMC pickup driven by Bobby Barton of McLean. Barton is employed by Kent Nowlin Construction.

Apparently Hefley had slowed down to pass workmen in the right hand lane of the highway when his vehicle was rear-ended by the pickup.

Sunday morning about 11:15 a.m. an Albuquerque, N.M. woman miraculously lived through a wreck 3.4 miles west of Alanreed near the Johnson Ranch exit. The 1978 Ford driven by Mary Ann Navarrete ran off the road and hit the right guard rail and then tumbled down onto the lower road. The woman was taken to the McLean Hospital for treatment, and is still a patient at press time.

Tiger Band Goes To UIL Contest

The McLean Tiger Band will travel to Canyon Saturday for University Interscholastic League marching contest at West Texas State University.

According to director Frances Adamson, the band will perform the show it used at the Groom football game last Friday night. Songs included in the show are "Tijuana Taxi" and "Hang On."

The band is scheduled to march at 11:12 a.m. in Kimbrough Stadium if anyone wishes to watch the performance, Mrs. Adamson said.

The band received two Division III's under the direction of Debbie Reipma last year. In 1978, the band, under the direction of Mike Lee, scored a Division II.

Halloween Carnival Is Saturday Night At Alanreed School

The Alanreed Parent-Teachers Organization is sponsoring the annual Halloween Carnival Saturday night at the Alanreed School gymnasium. The booths will open at 6 p.m. The group will serve turkey and dressing and all the trimmings for $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for children. They will also serve pie and home made ice cream.

The carnival will feature a variety of booths, including the spook house, fortune tellings, a fish pond, and various games.

Advance tickets are on sale this week at the school or may be purchased from any Alanreed student.

JV Tigers Lose To Wellington

The McLean junior varsity Tigers travelled to Wellington Thursday night for a game with the Wellington Skyrocks. Coach Jerry Cook said that the JV Tigers played one of their best games, despite the 28-0 score in favor of Wellington.

"We are using the platoon system for our JV games," Coach Cook said, "so that we can give as many boys as possible as much experience as possible."

Cook said that 22 boys are starting each game and gaining

Vandals Wreck Front Entrance At School

Vandals caused more than $2,000 worth of damage to the front of McLean High School sometime late Sunday night or early Monday morning, according to superintendent of schools Carl Dwyer.

A pickup truck or other heavy type of vehicle was driven up on the lawn and driven into the plate glass doors at the front of the school, shattering the glass and bending the metal frame for the doors.

Dwyer said that neighbors in the area heard breaking glass during the night, and saw a pickup leave the scene. Dwyer would not say whether he had been given the license number of the vehicle.

Nothing was taken in the attempted break-in. Law officers investigating the crime found a perfect set of tire prints on the sidewalk by the school, and unofficial sources said that the prints could positively identify the culprits.

Department of Public Safety Trooper R.C. Parker, Constable J.D. Fish, and Gray County Deputy Jim Shelton were called in to investigate the incident. Dwyer said that the school has had several windows broken during the school year, and that vandals had hurled rocks and beer cans at the new aluminum siding near the grade school parking lot in earlier incidents.

The damage this week was the most extensive the school has suffered from vandalism, Dwyer said.

Assault Charges Filed Against Wellington Man

Assault charges have been filed against a Wellington man in connection with an attack on Jake Hess II of McLean, according to Donley County Sheriff Truett Behrens.

Ed Hale, 33, has been charged with assault in connection with an incident which occurred near the home of Hess, south of McLean, about 10:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hess were awakened when they heard shots near their house. According to Hess, he went outside to investigate and found a pickup parked south of his house. Hale's wife was seated in the pickup.

Hess said he asked the woman who was firing the shots, and then turned around and found Hale standing there. Hale allegedly threatened Hess who opened the door to his pickup, to leave the scene.

It was at that time, according to Hess, that Hale allegedly hit him in the face with a pistol.

Hess returned to his home and Gray County deputy Jimmy Shelton gave chase to Hale who was charged later in the incident.

Hess was taken to McLean hospital by Jim McDonald, and then was transferred to High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo where he was a patient for several days. He sustained a fractured cheekbone and injuries to his eye.

Study The Candidates And Vote

Voters in McLean and across the nation will go to the polls Nov. 4 to choose the next President of the United States and some very important national, state, and county officers.

The most hotly contested races in the McLean area, other than the Presidential race, will center around incumbent Democrat Jack Hightower and his opponent Ron Slover who are vying for the job of United States Representative, 13th District and incumbent Republican Bob Price and his opponent Bill Sarpalius who are running for the job of State Senator in the 31st district.

In these two races, several charges and countercharges have been hurled by both sides, and the concerned voter needs to carefully weed through some of the statements and choose the best man for the job.

When an incumbent is involved in a race, one easy way to choose the best man is to look at the past performance of the man in office. Jack Hightower has been one of the most effective representatives this area has had. He has tried to consistently vote for the best interests of this area, and he has been unusually responsive to the needs of McLean and the rest of his district.

Several years ago, McLean was about to lose its hospital because of a problem with certification. Hightower and Senator Lloyd Bentsen were both asked to help. Hightower had a representative here the next day, and the hospital was kept open, partially due to his efforts.

He has also responded immediately to other problems that the City of McLean has had in dealing with the state and federal government, and that is what a representative gets paid for.

Jack Hightower has been an honest, effective representative for the area. He should be returned to office to continue his good work.

State Senator Bob Price, on the other hand, has not been a particularly effective representative. He has seemed, at times, to be more concerned with national policies more than a state senator should be. In my opinion, he has not devoted the time and energy to his job that U.S. Representative Jack Hightower and state representative Foster Whaley have.

Bill Sarpalius, a conservative Democrat, promises to be an effective and hard-working representative for us, and he should be given a chance to prove himself.

As you look at all these candidates, and try to make a choice, keep in mind that the most important thing you can do is to make a choice. Don't stay home on election day because "one vote doesn't make any difference," or "because they're all a bunch of crooks, anyway."

You must not ignore your responsibilities as a citizen. Don't let 15 percent of the voters choose our leaders! GET OUT AND VOTE!

Tim Smith showing their tackling skills.

"It was not one of our best ball games," noted Dorsett. "We made most of our yardage up the middle though. Theron Stubbs is probably the best lineman McLean has had in a long time," he added. "Anytime we want to move the ball we can just follow Theron as he clears us a spot."

"We were sure happy to beat them, especially on their territory," said assistant coach Joe Riley.

McLean will face Claude Friday night.

"Claude runs a lot of different defenses. We'll sure have to be ready for them. They beat Silverton 6-0 in their first game of the year," said Dorsett. He concluded, "They're a young football team but they hit well. They won't be a pushover... none of our games will be pushovers."

McLean gained 303 yards against Groom's 211 in Friday night's action, lost two fumbles to the Groom Tigers, and garnered 8 penalties for a total of 70 yards to Groom's 2 penalties and 30 yards. Groom completed 11 passes for 88 yards, while McLean concentrated action on the ground.

Joe Riley commented after the game. "We were sure pleased with the fans that showed up for the game. It really makes the boys know they care, and I think they play better before a bigger crowd. If we can pack the stadium for our game I think all the Tiger fans would see some really exciting action."

The Tigers will play here Friday night as they see action against Claude. The game is to begin at 7:30.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

This letter should be unnecessary for those people who know me, but maybe it will quell some vicious and vindictive rumors. There is no way that I can put my feelings in one letter, but I do want to try to have the community understand my selfish motives in wanting to get out of administration.

First: This is not a sudden decision about getting out of administration. I have been thinking about it and talking to friends about it for ten years. Jim Allison and I had a lengthy discussion about it last spring.

Second: I keep hearing two vicious rumors about why I am quitting this year, that are simply not true.

Some say it is because of the bus incident. This is only the small tip of the iceberg. It hadn't even happened when my decision was made. I want to see it resolved with as little hurt as possible.

Some say I am resigning because my principals aren't doing their job, and since they are my friends, I don't have the guts to fire them. I just laughed at this one until I realized the seriousness of sowing the seeds of distrust. This is a disservice to me, my principals, and the person sowing the seeds. This could be said about any faculty member in the school. All anyone has to do to see the accomplishments of the last two years is open their eyes. Those accomplishments are due to the principals, the faculty and other school personnel, and the school board. Ninety five percent of those improvements would never have happened if my two principals had not pushed, pulled, and helped to get things moving.

Third: Why resign at this time? I haven't actually resigned yet, but I have told the board that I will not be their superintendent next year. I told them now so there would be plenty of time to select a replacement and make the transition as smooth as possible. I am as interested as anyone in having a great board system. I also told the board that, if we selected a replacement before the year is over, I would be happy to take a vacation the rest of the year. It would be the first one (without school worries on my mind) in about 16 years.

Fourth: Why am I resigning? I want someone else to do it for me.

I want someone else to make the decisions and be 'cussed' for those decisions.

I want someone else to fill out those state and federal reports on mandated programs that are too complicated for me to even understand, much less comply with.

I want someone else to spend their summers hunting teachers that are unavailable and then take the 'cussing' when they aren't perfect.

I want someone else to referee the fights, smooth the controversies, and be all things to all people.

I even want someone else to decide whether to have school on snowy days.

I am simply tired of the responsibility of being any kind of administrator.

I am not hunting for an administrative job elsewhere. At this point, I do not feel that I ever want back in administration. I do want to teach again sometime.

Finally, let me say thanks to all of you. The above statements are not pointed at McLean. They are the natural result of the superintendent, or other administrative position, in any community in the country. You have been nothing but good to me and I love you for it.

You have a great board, a fine school, and a community that I can't stay away from. Let's not let rumors, a gossip and vindictiveness, scar it.

Thank you again for everything.

Sincerely,
Carl A. Dwyer

TV And School Will Team Up To Teach

Television and classrooms will team up again in the Texas Panhandle during October and November, providing youths in fourth through sixth grades a two-pronged program to help them learn about nutrition while having fun.

For six weeks, the fast-paced color television production of "Mulligan Stew," produced by 4-H, will be broadcast each Saturday afternoon on KAMR-TV, Channel 4. Classroom projects the following week will emphasize key points about nutrition which were presented during the week's entertaining broadcast.

The program will be seen on Channel 4, at 12:30 p.m. each Saturday on October 25th, November 1, November 8, November 15, November 22, and November 29, said Martha Couch, Area 4-H and Youth Specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. 4-H is the youth program of the Extension Service.

Participating school districts will use supportive materials which are part of the program package to involve students in classroom discussions, reading and other projects to teach nutritional needs, food selection, menu planning, shopping, preparation and supply. Special workshops have been held for teachers to help them coordinate the broadcasts in classroom learning activities.

This is a cooperative effort between the school districts, the television station which is providing air time, and the 4-H and Extension programs. Although the programs are especially designed for young-ever. I like my name, and I like to be called by my name. I do not like to be referred to as "Mrs. Sam Haynes", but rather as "Mrs. Linda Haynes", or just "Linda Haynes".

I know many older women feel that they are honoring their husbands by using his first name instead of their own, and I think that is fine...for them. But for me, and for many women of my generation, I prefer to use the name I was given at birth. I do not intend that as any disrespect for my husband, but I would not expect him to want to be called "Mr. Linda Haynes," either.

In days gone by, etiquette books said that only divorced women used their own first names and their married last names, but that is a practice that should fall by the way side.

Women have been struggling for a long time to gain some sort of identity when they are not identified as somebody's wife or someone's mother, but just as a person who has worth in her own right.

George Terry and I have a standing joke about this subject.

Several years ago, George introduced me to someone and called me the "mayor's wife." I promptly told him that he would not introduce my husband (I was still teaching at the time), so I would prefer not to be introduced using my husband's accomplishments.

Well, of course, since that time, George has called me M.s. Mayor, but occasionally he breaks down and refers to me as Ms. Editor.

Now, if I can just be listed on the roll of my own church under my name, instead of my husbands, I will feel like a real person.

Methodists Elect Officers For 1981

The First United Methodist Church of McLean hosted its yearly conference Sunday morning with the Rev. W.A. Appling, district superintendent of the Pampa District, in charge of the services at both the McLean Church and the Heald congregation.

Included in the leadership roles for the church in the coming year are Ruth Magee, the first woman elected as lay leader of the local congregation. Also chosen were Bill Graham as chairman of the administrative board, Gerald Tate as vice-chairman, and Sam Haynes as chairman of the council on ministries.

Other officials of the church include Bill Graham as lay member to annual conference, Mrs. Eric Cubine as chairman of ecumenical affairs, Dixie Crockett as chairman of education, Jake Hess II as chairman of evangelism, Monta Jean Smitherman as chairman of higher education, Mary Dwyer as chairman of missions, Fern Boyd as chairman of social concerns, F.Jake Hess as chairman of stewardship, and Mrs. Harold Fabian as chairman of worship.

Local Bank Donates To Amarillo Cancer Center

American National Bank in McLean has made a memorial donation to the Don and Sybil Harrington Cancer Center, according to Marilyn Van Petten, director of development of the Amarillo foundation. The donation was made in memory of William Keith Irwin, Jr.

The bank's contribution brings total donations to over $650,000. Fund raisers are trying to raise enough money-matching funds to meet the $1 million dollar donation offered by the Harrington foundation.

The cancer center will serve the five state area of Texas, Oklahoma, eastern New Mexico, southern Colorado and Kansas. The center will be a not-for-profit tax exempt facility designed to treat and manage cancer in the Panhandle area. Included in the center will be radiation therapy rooms, medical oncology rooms for chemotherapy, administrative support areas, a pharmacy, a laboratory and additional service areas making up the "multidisciplinary" approach to cancer treatment.

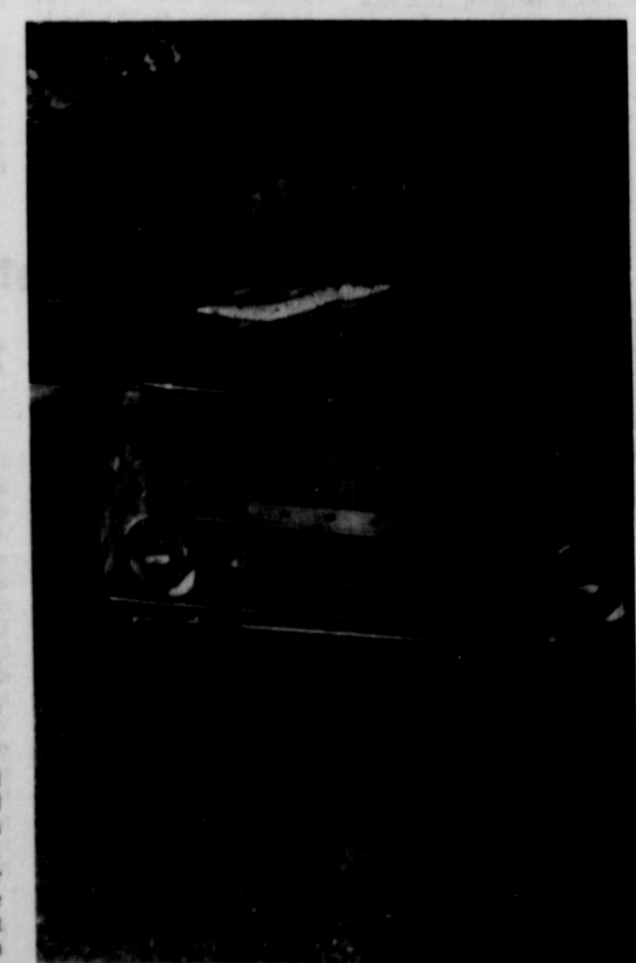

Groundbreaking ceremonies were held September 6, 1979. Completion of the project is scheduled for June 1981, and construction is on schedule.

The center will be self-supporting from patient revenue with approximately 85 percent in the form of third party reimbursement such as patient insurance and Medicare/Medicaid.

A total of $9 million is needed to provide for the construction, equipment and startup cost of the Harrington Cancer Center. To date, the Harrington Foundation has given three grants. The first grant was $3 million, then a grant of $1 million followed as a contingency or matching funds grant. The Amarillo Area Foundation deeded 3.73 acres of land for construction of the Harrington Cancer Center at the Amarillo Medical Center. In addition, in 1979 they provided $60,000 as interim money towards administrative and operating expenses. The general campaign for funds raised $3 million.

In April of 1980, the Harrington Foundation provided an additional $1 million grant which was designated as a challenge grant, in the hope that this grant would be matched by contributions from Panhandle area cities and communities in neighboring states.

Gone Fishin'
by Jeanette Fish

Your body is a marvelous machine. Within it are 100 trillion cells. The brain alone has 100 million. An area the size of a quarter contains a yard of blood vessels, four yards of nerves, twenty-five nerve ends, 100 sweat glands and more than 3 million cells.

The fluid within those cells accounts for 60 to 70 percent of the total body weight. Each of us is a bag of more or less solid materials dissolved in water. Think of it as numerous tiny drops of water floating in another type of fluid--the extracellular fluid (outside the cell). Fluid outside the cell accounts for 1/4 of the body fluid.

This fluid outside the cell or the extracellular fluid has two divisions.

1. Plasma which is the liquid portion of your blood.

2. Interstitial fluid which is the fluid within the tissues of your body.

If plasma and the fluid are both extracellular you might wonder what the difference is in them. The chief difference is that plasma contains a greater amount of proteinate, a substance which acts as a sponge to prevent excess plasma from seeping into that interstitial fluid.

The main function of body fluids is to maintain healthy living conditions for the body cells--the basic units of life. The cellular fluid normally contains all the nutrients the cells need. It serves as the supply source to replenish nutrients as they are used up. The cellular fluid must be cleared of wastes.

The Extracellular fluid performs this service by transporting substances to and from the cellular fluid.

You eat and drink a wide variety of materials not needed by your body. The digestive tract couldn't care less. It will take on anything offered to it. If it gets past the swallowing mechanism and the esophagus the old stomach will give it a try. The volume of fluids you drink would overwhelm you if there were no mechanism for maintaining fluid balance.

You have that mechanism. Its function is to keep the body in the same state. This mechanism uses every body system and every body organ with the possible exception of the reproductive system which of course has its own function. The lungs regulate your oxygen level and the carbon dioxide level of your blood.

The kidneys, known as the master chemists of the body, are completely dependent on the heart. The heart pumps 100 liters (that's like 1700 I.V. bottles) of blood to the kidneys each day for cleansing. One and 1/2 (I.V. bottles) pass out of the body as urine. The rest is reabsorbed. A marvel of engineering!

Water is the most essential nutrient to life. Humans can live a long time without other nutrients but only a few days without water. It possesses unique chemical and physical characteristics. There is no substitute for it in the living cycle.

These things are a simplified way of stating some information about a subject not very well understood even after many years of research and study. Take care of this machine, your body. Nothing in Detroit or Japan comes close to it.

"We put the heat pump in our home based on the recommendation from a builder. He said, 'by having a heat pump, you will save money over a long period of time on heating and cooling costs.' And, he was right! We are saving money with a heat pump. The heat pump really does do an efficient job of heating and cooling the home. If we were doing it all over, we would put a heat pump in again based on the results we've seen with lower electric bills. We are extremely pleased with the way the heat pump has performed."

Groom Cubs Slip Past Home Team 28-6

A powerful Groom offense pulled some razzle-dazzle plays in the second half to out last the McLean Junior High Cubs 28-6 in a junior high tilt at Duncan Field in McLean last Thursday night.

The host Cubs held Groom to one touchdown in the first half of the game, with Groom's only score in the initial period coming in the second quarter of play on an eight-yard run.

When the buzzer ended to signal the end of the first half, the McLean Cubs were within the one-yard line, but ran out of time without scoring.

Groom came back in the second half for three quick touchdowns to put the game out of reach for the McLean team.

Groom scored in the third quarter on a 40 yard run, and made 2 points in the extra-point attempt.

About two minutes later, Groom again scored on a long run and successfully ran for two points to make the score 22 to 0. In the fourth quarter, Groom scored on a two-yard run, but failed to make the extra point.

With the game almost over, McLean Cub Russell Littlefield broke through the line and ran 70 yards for the Cubs' only touchdown of the evening. McLean tried for two points but failed on the pass.

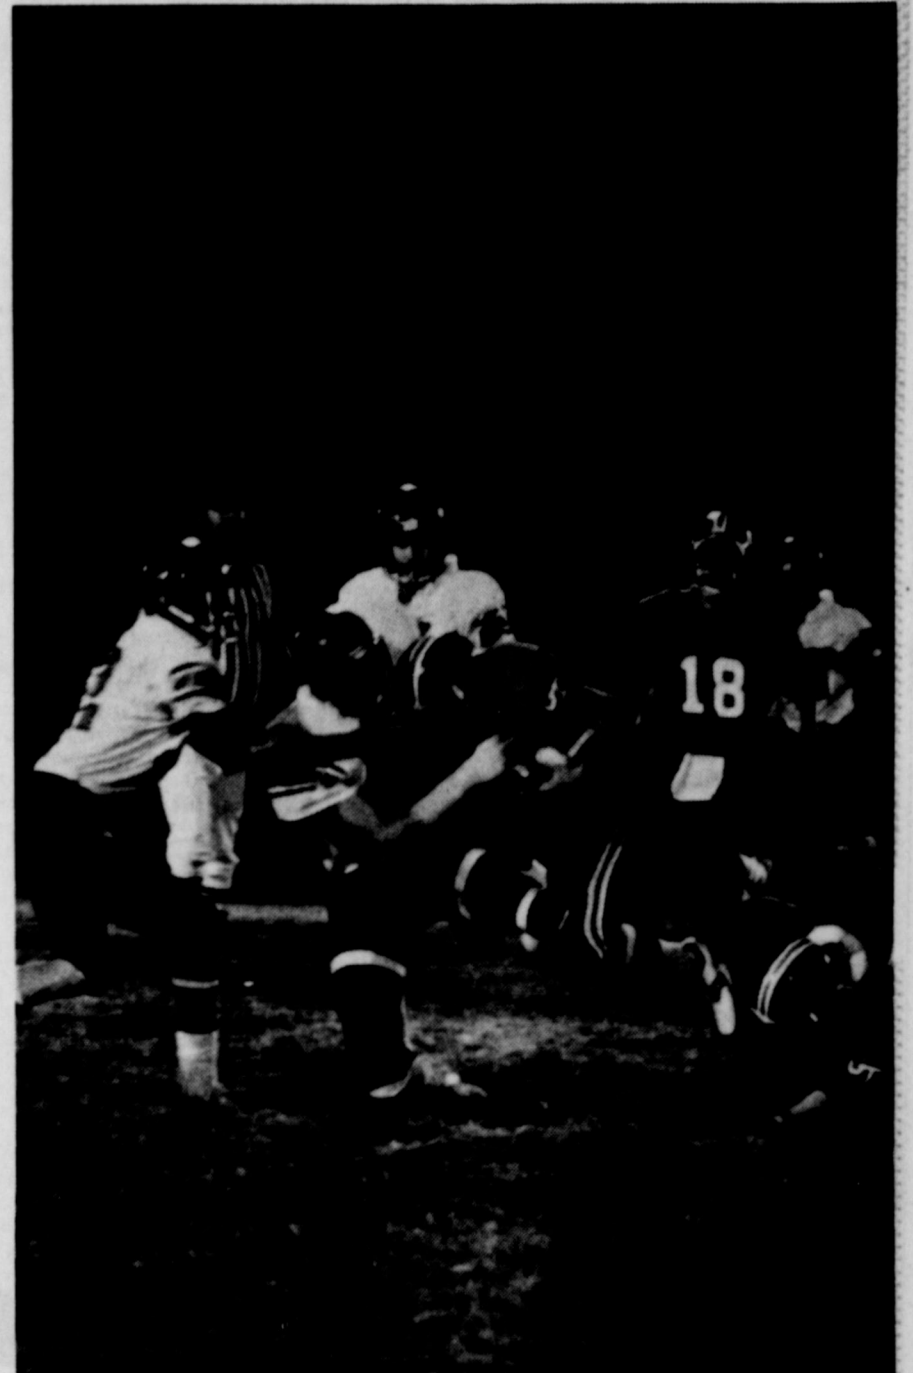

McLean tried an on-side kick which went about a yard, and Groom got the ball. McLean held the visitors, and got the ball one more time before the final buzzer. Littlefield broke through one more time on a long run, but was stopped short of the goal line and the game ended 28-6.

The McLean Cubs play at Miami Thursday night at 6:30 p.m., according to Coach Joe Riley.

Fortune knocks at every man's door once in a life, but in a good many cases the man is in a neighboring saloon and does not hear her.

RANGE-WILDLIFE TOUR: There will be a Range and Wildlife Tour on the Pickens Ranch in Roberts County on Thursday, October 23 with registration from 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

The tour concludes about 3 p.m.

The Pickens Ranch is located approximately 30 miles north of Pampa on Highway 70. Registration will be at the ranch headquarters just east of Highway 70 - just follow the signs. The ranch joins the rough breaks of the scenic Canadian River Valley.

Hosts for this occasion are Mr. and Mrs. T.B. Pickens, Jr. who have graciously offered the use of their ranch and facilities for this event and have also provided the noon meal. For advance free registration, write or call: Humberto Hernandez, Box 37, Miami, Texas 79059 - Telephone 868-3531 or call Vernon Cook at 868-3191 (Box 456, Miami, Texas 79059). Late registration fee is $5.

The program includes discussions by outstanding speakers on: Improving Grazing Systems, analyzing range nutrition, management of Dove and Quail resources, politics and current Legislation effects on Ranching, fish pond and water fowl management, improving upland wildlife habitat, soil fertility problems on river bottomland, ranch management systems, and range and wildlife management working together.

Speakers include personnel from the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, Texas Tech and Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

THE COMPOST PILE-THE ORIGINAL RECYCLING CENTER:

Gardeners can get-back-to-basics and save money too by developing an old stand-by--the compost pile. And with fall, plenty of leaves will soon be available for composting.

With transportation cost pushing the price of peat moss and other bulky types of organic matter higher, the backyard compost pile or compost bin is becoming more and more important.

With most Texas soils lacking in organic matter, composting is an excellent way to add humus to the soil while at the same time disposing of unwanted plant material from the yard and garden.

Leaves, straw, lawn clippings, sawdust, garden debris and even shredded newspapers can be converted into usable humus through the decomposing process. These composted materials will make both clay and sandy soils more suitable for growing vegetables and ornamentals.

It is usually best to have three compost bins--one being filled, one in the process of decomposing, and another ready for use. The most workable size for most gardeners is a four feet by 6 feet bin, with one side hinged or removable for easy access.
