Registration Of Motor Vehicles Total 760 Here

Delay Deadline On Registering Commercial Trucks

Crockett county motorists to the number of 760 beat the deadline on automobile and truck registration Tuesday, according to a tabulation of registration totals compiled by Claude Russell, deputy for Sheriff W. S. Willis.

Of the registration total, 529 were passenger cars, 14 trailers, 73 commercial trucks and 139 farm plates. Five dealer tags were also issued.

Passage of the 38,000 pound truck load limit by the Texas legislature resulted in a ruling by the State Highway Department extending the deadline for registration of commercial vehicles to April 15. This extension of time was granted so that the department would have time in which to adjust fees for registration under the new load limit.

The local collector's office received notice of the extension but the notice did not advise as to the new fees. It is presumed here that the new fees will be scaled down on the higher limit to keep the total fees in the higher bracket to a reasonable amount. It was pointed out that under the present rate, registration up to the 38,000 pound limit would be prohibitive.

Andy Nelson, long-time Crockett county resident, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is able to be out on the streets for brief walks this week.

Final Transfer Water Property Expected Soon

Water Dist. May Take Over Management As Of April 1

Final perfection of all necessary papers, approval and sale of the $75,000 bond issue to make funds available was awaited here this week by the board of directors of the newly created Crockett County Water Control and Improvement District before taking over for operation by purchase the properties of the Ozona Water Works.

Bonds have been prepared and signed and sent to Austin where they were expected to receive final approval without delay. It was considered a matter of but a few days before the final formalities would be completed and the money made available for assignment of the property of the present owners to the new district management.

Meanwhile, the board, headed by J. W. North as president, is making preparations for taking over management of the business. Office quarters have been rented in the room adjoining the lobby of the north at the Hotel Ozona and necessary office equipment has been purchased. The matter of employing a manager and other necessary employees was under consideration by the directors and will be settled by the time the transfer is completed.

Pending actual acquisition of the system, no definite rules or policies for its operation have been made by the board, the president said. However, it was indicated that the plant would be operated approximately on the same plan as at present at the outset.

Among the first improvement projects to be undertaken under the terms of the purchase is the sinking of a 10-inch well to necessary depth and installation of a modern pump with capacity sufficient to furnish a large volume of water for economical operation, provided water in such volume is found available. It is the board's plan to make necessary improvements at once and then to make additional improvements as funds become available.

Present facilities of the system are to be purchased by the district for $50,000, leaving $25,000 available for immediate improvements to the plant and distribution system.

Historical Society Meets Mon., Apr. 14

An interesting program has been arranged for the evening meeting, which will open at about 7:45. All members of the society and others interested are cordially invited to be present.

Parents Urged To Cooperate in School Census

Miss Dixie Davidson Supervising Enumeration Here

Cooperation of all parents of children of school age is urged to make the annual scholastic census, now being taken, as nearly 100 per cent complete as possible.

The annual census is being made by Miss Dixie Davidson and as the time is short for completion of the count, parents of children from six to 17 years of age, especially those families who live on ranches or whose names are not listed in the telephone book, are asked to cooperate by calling telephone No. 15 and listing the names and ages of their children.

It is important that every child of school age in the county be enumerated because the per capita apportionment of funds from the state is based on the number of scholastics enumerated. Thus, every child not enrolled costs the schools of the county around $22 of state support.

Parents of children who become six before September 1, 1941, should see that these children are enumerated. Likewise all scholastics who will be under 18 years old on September 1, 1941, should be enumerated.

Deadline For Registration of Trucks Extended

New Load Limit Will Cause Delay In Register Forms

AUSTIN, Texas, March 31—The State Highway Engineer today advised all Tax Assessors-Collectors that the Legislature has passed House Concurrent Resolution 83 which extends the time for registering of commercial motor vehicles without penalty through April 15, 1941.

This action by the Legislature was taken because the load limit has been raised to 38,000 pounds and the Legislature will be unable to revise the schedule or registration fees for commercial motor vehicles in time to register by midnight April 1, which is the deadline under existing motor vehicle registration laws. The effect of the passage of House Concurrent Resolution 83 is that commercial motor vehicles will be permitted to operate using 1940 plates through April 15. The State Highway Engineer stated that new schedule of license fees for registration of commercial motor vehicles would be furnished to all Tax Assessors-Collectors as soon as such information is available, pending passage by the Legislature.

Expect Over 300 Here For Rotary Charter Banquet

Plans For Launching New Club April 12 Perfected

An estimated 300 visiting Rotarians and their ladies are expected to be in Ozona the night of April 12 for the charter night banquet of the recently formed Ozona Rotary Club.

Plans for the huge gathering were discussed at a meeting of the officials and directors of the club held Tuesday afternoon. Visitors are expected in large numbers from Clubs at San Angelo, Del Rio, Fort Stockton, Menard and other points in this area and from San Antonio, Austin, Corpus Christi and other cities all over Texas, with a possibility of the meeting assuming an international complexion with representatives here from clubs in Mexico.

Datus E. Proper of San Antonio, past District Governor of Rotary, is to be the principal speaker of the evening. The address of welcome for the Ozona club is to be delivered by the Rev. Eugene Slater, with Hobart McDowell, president of the San Angelo club, sponsors of the local club, making the general welcoming address.

George Gilliam of Corpus Christi, District Governor for this Rotary district, will present the charter to the new club, which is to bear the number 5357. The response is to be made by Scott Peters, president of the Ozona Club.

Special music for the charter night occasion will be given by Jake Houston, San Angelo violinist, with Ralph Masterson of San Angelo accompanying.

THURSDAY, APRIL 3, 1941

It's Your Water Works!

The first of this month saw the people of Ozona launching a new experiment—public ownership of its water plant and distribution system. Creating itself into a Water Control and Improvement district, the area embracing the town of Ozona voted $75,000 in revenue bonds to purchase, improve and operate the water system.

We call it an experiment not in the sense that this is the first town that ever tried the plan, but rather from the standpoint of the town itself which has heretofore been served by private enterprise. The plan has been tried, and successfully, in many communities.

Judging the sentiment of the people of Ozona, it would seem that this move was made purely in the interest of community betterment. Sufficient inducement had not been offered a private concern to give the town the kind of water service to which it is entitled and the people, by their vote at the polls, approved the suggested plan to acquire ownership of the system and advance by bonds the necessary funds to put it in first class condition.

Success of the enterprise will depend upon the people themselves—the users of the system's service. A competent board of directors has been chosen to administer the concern and this board will be indirectly responsible for the successful operation of the system. But upon the attitude of the people will depend whether or not the system pays for itself and produces enough additional revenue to permit its expansion for betterment of the service.

The men who will be administering the affairs of this concern will be in a new field for a while. They will need sympathetic understanding from those whom they serve. The water business is now your business, and upon your attitude and cooperation will depend whether or not your town in time gets the kind of system to which it is entitled.

16 Million Farm Products Sold In Texas During Feb.

AUSTIN, Texas. — Texas farmers sold $16,326,000 worth of farm products during February, or more than 15 per cent more than in February a year ago, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Most of the income resulted from a rise in prices of livestock and livestock products, rather than an increase in marketings. Dr. F. A. Buechel, bureau statistician and associate director, pointed out. Predicting still further price boosts, he also anticipated a rising volume of marketings, with a consequent wider margin of income during 1941 over 1940, thus giving the state a substantially improved rural spending power.

Shipment of Texas Livestock Increase

AUSTIN, Texas. — The modern Texas cattle trail—the railroads—took 3,801 cars of livestock to markets at Fort Worth and in other states during February, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

These shipments—3.8 per cent larger than in February a year ago—included 2,110 cars of cattle, 691 cars of calves, 782 cars of hogs and 218 cars of sheep.

The cattle movement showed a 3.4 per cent increase over February, 1940, calves 9.9 per cent, hogs 32.1 per cent. Sheep shipments showed the only decline—from 400 to only 218 cars.

Texas sportsmen each year spend $25,000,000 for guns ammunition, fishing equipment, clothing, automobiles, gasoline, food, hotel accommodations, and other goods and services necessary to hunting and fishing trips.

Texas hunters shoot more shotgun shells than those of any other State—almost one-tenth of the total shot in the entire Nation.

Texas is among the first five Deer and Wild Turkey States of the Union. Last year approximately 30,000 bucks and thousands of Turkey Gobblers were killed, with no damage to the seed stock.

Texas has more landowners in the business of producing game for profit than any other State. Nearly 2,000 landowners operated licensed Shooting Preserves covering 6,815,509 acres during the last fiscal year. And this is only a fraction of the acreage devoted to the production of game each year.

Texas has a greater variety of climate and environment than any other State, and as a result has more species of birds and animal life. The song and ornamental birds of Texas are worth $40,000,000 annually to agriculture, because of their destruction of insects and other pests.

The Texas coast is 400 miles long as the Crow flies, but counting islands, bays and inlets it has a 2,000-mile shoreline—a wonderful feeding ground for fish and waterfowl.

Democracy's Need . . .

Chesterton used to protest against a certain type of sweet reasonableness which says that cherry pie is a fine dish if by cherry pie you mean a stew containing fish, clams, bits of pork, and vegetables. Or it argues that the elephant is much to be admitted if by elephant you understand an animal with wings, claws, and a beak, as depicted on the coinage of the United States. One meets a good many persons who are friends of democracy if by democracy you mean something they have thought up by themselves, and without the aid of Thomas Jefferson, Lincoln, Gladstone, Grover Cleveland, Theodore Roosevelt, or Henry Wallace. They are prepared to die for democracy if by democracy will begin by adopting half a dozen indispensable improvements, such as larger old-age pensions, or housing, or a popular referendum on war, or higher wages, or larger excess profits taxes, or something else. It does not follow that democracy is done for if we refuse to enact this or that legislation, or if we postpone a State office building, or pare the appropriations for dancing on the village green. It is actual disadvantage for democracy to have too many friends, if every one of them receive immediate attention or ordain its doom. Democracy's chief need today is to be championed for what it is.—Des Moines Register.

THIS BUSINESS OF Living
BY SUSAN THAYER

Mrs. Thomas could make the best light rolls of anyone in the church Society, while Mrs. Sanders was famous for her fried chicken and raised chickens on her little farm at the edge of town. Mrs. Andrews, on the other hand, runs the restaurant and has a ten-gallon freezer and plenty of pans for angel food cakes. So, when the Society decided to give a community dinner to raise money for the town hospital, naturally Mrs. Thomas was asked to make the rolls, Mrs. Andrews the ice cream and Mrs. Simmond's girls borrowed the pans for their wonderful angel food cakes.

It was always like this when the Society did something big. The members cooperated, under the direction of the Entertainment Committee, in the most efficient way possible, and each one did what she did best and had the equipment for, or loaned her equipment to some one else. "Common sense," the president of the society called it. "Just plain common sense."

And common sense it is behind what is called the Community Pooling Plan now being used by manufacturers all over America to help speed defense. According to this plan the equipment, space and facilities of every plant and factory, large and small in a certain district is listed in a central office for the benefit of all. Then, when the management of some company working on a defense order needs help, they go to the pooling plan bureau and look through the files. In a few minutes they find out who has the machinery or the facilities or the space needed to do the job on which they require help. Perhaps they'll find the needed assistance in some little plant they've never heard of, perhaps in some neglected corner of a larger organization which didn't realize some old machine might be useful. It doesn't matter where, as the manufacturers of the country share information and production ability for the sake of one great objective.

Through this Pooling Plan, so like the church society's entertainment committee, the work of defense is spread by sub-contracts through a great many organizations. Work is carried on by plants already established without transfer of workmen away from their homes to strange, congested cities, or the purchase of new machinery. Of course there must also be a great many new plants and hundreds of workmen shifted to the big industrial centers, but not nearly as many as would be moved if industry had not gone in for this gigantic pooling plan which is saving the country the amount of displacement of labor which some of us remember back in 1917 and 1918.

In dictator countries, manufacturers are forced to work together, whether their hearts are in it or not. Here, a great free industrial system has volunteered to cooperate as America moves forward on the biggest job any country has ever undertaken!

28.79 percent Of Draftees In Texas Physically Unfit

AUSTIN, Texas. — Data released by the Texas State Headquarters for Selective Service reveal that out of the first 9,506 Texas draftees, 28.79 per cent, nearly one out of every three, were temporarily or permanently rejected for active service because of health defects. These figures show a slightly lower percentage of rejects than during the draft period of World War I, when 31.2 per cent of the men examined by local draft boards were rejected.

"On the basis of these figures, we find evidence of the tremendous task that lies ahead of us if the degree of physical fitness required for an all-out national defense program is to be attained. The professions of medical science and public health are utilizing every weapon at their command to improve the state of the Nation's health, but they alone cannot win the battle. The support of each individual citizen and his cooperation are invaluable in raising the health levels of the Nation and the State." Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, stated.

Will Durant, Philosopher: "Only with a tightening of our spiritual belts can we face the hard choice of 1941, and play any effective part in the drama of our age—the conflict between individualism and communism, between Christianity and a militaristic paganism, between democracy and dictatorship, between suiciding Europe and the resurrected East."

Side Glances on Texas History

By Charles O. Hucker
University of Texas Library

THIS WAY TO GOLIAD: OR, A TALE OF '36

Among the least-remembered incidents of the War for Texas Independence are its "minor" battles and expeditions. San Jacinto, the Alamo and Goliad, of course, are familiar; but there were many more. One of those which popular history hasn't "done right by" was the daring Matamoros expedition, which never reached Matamoros.

Reuben H. Brown, who had been a member of the party and believed himself the only one still alive at the time, published an article in the Texas Almanac for 1859 in which he attempted to present an accurate first-hand record of the Matamoros adventure. That record is preserved in the University of Texas Library's Texas Collection. It was late in December, 1835, that the expedition, wholly unauthorized by the provisional government of Texas, set out from San Antonio. At its head was Col. Frank W. Johnson, who had been aide to old Ben Milam in the attack on San Antonio early in the month; and James M. Grant was lieutenant colonel. The force consisted of 400 volunteers.

ENTER HOUSTON AND FANNIN

As they planned to fall in with a thousand volunteers under Col. James Fannin who were expected momentarily on the coast, Johnson's men advanced first to Goliad and then to Refugio. There Gen. Sam Houston, who had joined them en route, spoke firmly against the expedition and led some 300 of the original force back into East Texas. The others, undaunted, went on to San Patricio.

Fannin, meanwhile, had been delayed at Matagorda Bay and now sent word that he would arrive soon and would need horses for his men if they were to hope for success. So, with half of the remaining command, Grant set out westward for a big round-up. Twice he captured large herds from Mexican troops, the second time traveling all the way to the Rio Grande to do it.

One morning on the return trip, Brown wrote in his article, "we were passing between two large motts (clumps of trees), when suddenly there came out from each of those motts several hundred Mexican dragoons, who quickly closed in, surrounding both the horses and our party. There were at least one thousand dragoons under the immediate command of Urrea himself. We then at once understood that Urrea had come in on the main road some distance below, or to the south of us—that he had been to San Patricio, and had probably slaughtered Johnson and his party."

URREA HAS A FIELD DAY

There was no hope for the handful of Texans, and after only a few minutes Brown and Col. Grant found themselves alone. Bolting through the ring of dragoons around them, they dashed away with the Mexicans in hot pursuit. Finally, surrounded again, they dismounted to make a last stand; and just then, out of the corner of his eye, Brown saw Grant go down pierced with several lances.

"A moment after," he wrote, "I found myself in a lasso that had been thrown over me, and by which I could do no more, and only regretted that I had not shared the fate of all the rest of my party." Later, imprisoned for life, he learned what had happened to Johnson's force—that Urrea had fallen on San Patricio suddenly in the night and wiped out the Texans almost to the last man. He learned also that then, having swept away the forces of both Johnson and Grant, the Mexicans had turned toward the ill-fated Fannin at Goliad.

Brown himself, late in the following December, escaped from prison and managed at last to make his way back to Texas, which in his absence had become a free and independent republic.

100 YEARS AGO IN TEXAS

"From all we can learn, Austin is the gayest, healthiest and happiest spot in Texas. We have more improvements, as much business, more strangers, more excitement, and finer, higher times here than anywhere else. All of those idle reports about Indian murders, and Mexican depredations, are mere stuff; and only serve to keep off the ennui."

"Capt. Lewis and his one hundred and fifty volunteers are rapid collecting, and will dash into the wild region of our red foes in a few days. He has the right sort of boys,—real buck-skin hawk eyed fellows, who would as soon sleep in a creek as not, if the shore should be a little rocky; and the way Indians will catch it, will be a caution."

"Col. Burleson's expedition on the Brushy proved a failure. This don't often happen to 'Old Ned.; the Indians, however, had sloped. 'But accidents will happen in the best of families.'"

"An address is to be delivered by Mr. T. Gale Forster, this evening, before the Lyceum, upon a subject on which he must be interesting. For eloquent must be the man indeed, who has love, matrimony, and the ladies for the inspiring subject of his discourse. Therefore, if everybody don't go this time, we will never say Lyceum to them again."—The Texas Sentinel (Austin), March 25, 1841.

Dr. and Mrs. Fussell And Son Injured In Auto Crash Sunday

Reports last night from the bedside of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Fussell, injured Sunday afternoon in an automobile crash about ten miles east on the Sonora highway, indicated that the Ozonans were not critically injured and that both are recovering satisfactorily.

Out for a Sunday afternoon drive, Dr. Fussell, with Mrs. Fussell and their son, John, had started to turn around in the highway when a car, driven by a Sonora negro, topped a hill and crashed into the side of the Fussell car. Investigating officers absolved the negro of blame in the crash.

Dr. Fussell suffered a fractured jaw bone and minor cuts and bruises. Mrs. Fussell suffered three deep scalp wounds and other injuries and John is carrying an arm in a sling as a result of a broken wrist bone. John has been returned to Ozona while Dr. and Mrs. Fussell continued under treatment in a San Angelo hospital.

why students SHOULD PLAY hockey

Gosh, I wonder when students are really going to get wise and play hookey every day from school! The only way to get anywhere in this old school of ours is to really play hookey and not be good and git in dutch with all the teachers and have them git mad at us and not git our old lessons and... and... and...
The students in The o. h. s. Should try to figure on entering the college in rome, Africa. This College is made up of Burly Berlians.

Yessire the college is a wonderful place. The women wear musashes and beads while the men stay in the house coking the meals, you cant even get a shave in this town that I am talking about unless your husband does it with a butcher knives.!!

I guess you had better not read any farther than this; In Fact I think I will let you're Imagination run away with you. I don't won't it to run away with me.

FLASH

RED HOT NEWS FROM ACROSS SEAS

Hitler took Austria yesterday, but promised that was all he would take.

A murder was attempted Wednesday, but the murderer was caught red-handed. He attacked Winston Churchill with a gun, but unfortunately missed. His name is Abraham Lincoln John Wilkes Booth, a direct descent of the latter part.

In case you haven't already heard of his name.

About it, the Japanese-Chinese war is about over. Who won? Russia.

Flash: W. Lee O'Daniel repealed the 7,000 truck load limit tomorrow.

The news is spreading like wildfire that the weather report was right one day last week. Anyone that believes it is an April fool.

Caruthers Voted Honorary President of United States

Cheers from the crowd, and mostly cheers from "Doc." He was elected by majority vote of 10,000,000,000,020,706,090 tol. The opponent received the largest number of votes, and "Doc" proceeded not to take office.

Mr. Caruthers left on an unny day, but had a terrible trip, because it rained all the way from the capitol to Honolulu. Of course you knew that he decided to take his vacation fist, and become president later.

Since Mr. Caruthers won the office ofdictator, he was made the governor by the head of the body. (of the people, of course).

On returning to his office, Mr. Caruthers was so overjoyed that he forgot to remember to hand out cigars. Although he didn't smoke them, Mr. Caruthers, handed himself one, instead, and broke his arm, patting himself on the back.

Of course, "Doc" was very modest about the election; he bragged to everyone he saw. Even to his own grandmother, who, of course, thought he was cute.

When asked when he expecter to take office, Mr. Caruthers answered, "Oh, anytime after old Franklin Delano get through. I'm in no real hurry, are you?"

Mr. Caruthers especially likes students who aren't interested in his work. Also, he favors those who write messy papers, and anyone in his class, who writes a neat paper, receives an "F." Of course, everyone tries to agitate Mr. Caruthers, so they do jut the opposite of what he doesn't like. They make "B's"

Sikes Seeks Hitler With Bow and Arrow

Maybe O. H. S. has gone crazy or maybe its the pupils, but anyway its affected the principal of the High School.

Some students spied Mr. Sikes creeping along looking back over his shoulder and walking strictly in the shadows. These students, being a bit balmy, too, decided to follow Mr. Sikes.

He walked along 1-2, 1-2, 1-2, oh well, he walked along. The students being very small, (Carl Thurman, Jess Hancock, and Harold Keeton) walked along also, 1-2, 1-2, 1-2.

When he crept into the manual training room and proceeded to make bows and arrows, they (the students) started asking questions. "Why?" they said.

"Well, you see, its this-a-way. One time, in my youth, Hitler crossed me up. Now he's trying to do it again, so I figured I'd better get him out of th eway, see?"

But by this time, he had no audience, since they completely fainted away. He started thinking about it and decided it was so unusual that he fainted himself.

Of course, all this was unnecessary because everyone knows that Mr. Sikes really means to kill Hitler with his little bow and arrow.

Greatest L. R. Staff Elected In All Times

The New staff for 1941, 1942, 1943 and 1944 was elected Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday of last week. They are as follows: Sponsor-Cyril Pingleton, President J. H. Chapman, Mildred Nethery, Marjorie Ross, Calvin Williams, Roy Coates and last but not least is—guess who—Herndon Baumann.

This is the greatest staff elected in years. The staff started 99 years ago next coming December in electingewhavetheprimary election, which (pardon please, but my space bar just broke), place the time (the Ozona High) assign it. In this we have secret vallad voting. Then we have the run-off, that is every year but this year, but we were so pleased with the primary election this year we just took them. Our staff is doing more now than it has since it started. We pla nto get a paper out once a year by these pupils splendid and cooperative work.

ATTENDS KINDERGARTEN

Tom Piner, futpre Crockett Co. rancher, is attending Ozona Kindergarten at Ozona, Texas.

His schude for the day is about as full of work and play as possible. School takes up at 9 o'clock in the morning. First comes the work. The students are building a stage for a play to be produced by the O. K. The play will be presented to the mothers of the students.

At 10 o'clock mid-morning lunch is served. This consists chiefly of good, rich, delicious milk and tasty graham crackers. After this excitement comes the rest period in which all students must rest after their strenuous exercise.

After this comes more work and play.

When the professor strikes a chord on the piano the children take their seat.

Some of the games they enjoy are "Cat and Mouse," "Drop the handkerchief and "football." Tom hopes to star in football.

When not in school Mr. Piner works on his father's ranch near Ozona. He has a horse named "cricket."

When he graduates from college Mr. Piner intends to get married. He says he has lots of girls friends to pick from.

On his recent birthday Tom received a bicycle which he is learning to ride.

Tom will probably contribute his success in the future to that milk and graham crackers that he is receiving.

Cowgirl Band Bores Ozona Pen Inmates

The Hradin-Simmons Cowgirl Band made up of boys played in Ozona last Tuesday morning at 3:00 p. m.

Their first number was a cornet solo played by three girls and a violin. The audience was dreadfully worried when one of the violins got left behind but by superhuman effort, the violinist leaped the intervening space and landed on the last bar with the rest of the sextet.

This was followed by a dreamy, Strauss waltz entitled "Beat Me Daddy, Eight to the Bar," on the Italian Juiceharp.

Yvonne, the boy wonder on the accordion, played the Ozona school anthem and seven people were fatally injured in the rush to rise.

Lucille Powers, Tyrone's ex-wife, enthralled the audience with her classical selections from opera "Carman" among which were "Whatcha know, Joe?" and "I Ain't Got Nobody."

The band, directed by Hebert M. Preston who is famous for his Robert Taylor profile played "Mendlesonn's Spring Song" which was composed by Wolfgang Motzort.

But a word about the great Maestro, Herbert M. Preston is a distant relative of Donald Duck (he has a large bill) and whose family tree includes Cyril Pingleton, the jazz king, who leads the famous orchestra, the "Colossal Cats of Jazz" of Ozona, Texas.

During the violin solo, the six girls made eyes at Georgia who immediately lost control of himself. Mary Elizabeth for the first time (we think) knew the pangs of jealousy as she struggled to hold Georgia in his seat. Susie, at the same time was having the same trouble with J. H. when she aught him making eyes at the damsel who played forst cornet. Oh! these fickle boys.

When the concert was finished, Mr. Caruthers, Mr. Sikes and Coach Patterson were found fainting in their seats. Isn't it awful when married men do such scandalous things?

The cowgirl band left minus their harpist (jew harpist) and also, O. H. S. was minus Bill Frog. Sounds serious but by now I guess they are living happily together. I guess.

Carl Thurman Wins Great Nobel Prize

Over the radio station X. Y. Z. yesterday came the exclusive news of another small town boy's making good. The Porky Pig Pork Chops' Quiz Parade was interrupted by Porky himself to announce that the winner of the nationally famous Noble Prize was none other than the honorary editor of the "Lions Roar," Mr. Carl Thurman, affectionately known to his closest friends as "Fat."

Ever since that eventful day in July in the year 1776, when the Declaration of Independence was signed, a Noble prize has been given for the most outstanding thing done that year. The first Noble Prize was awarded to John Hancock because of all the names his way the most outstanding of all those signed.

The contest was held in Snozzga, Siam, the center of something or other. The judges were the noted, well known Siamese Twins. Of Mr. Thurman's contribution they said quote "Zobga flathead bgries oone saxtfg labgova !!! unquote.

Mr. Thurman won the Noble Prize because of his enlightening and brilliant essay on "The Process of Facing Into the Contraptions Used to Sustain your Dwelling A Piece of Iron Without Suffering Your Consequences" or "How to Drive a Nail Into the Wall Without Busting Your Finger." After one man had read this brilliant display of literary knowlerge he said, "Gosh, I bet it would be good if I could just understand what it meant!" People all over the world are praying it by saying the very same thing or things similar to this about it. This essay definitely marks a new era in literature.

Mr. Thurman, however, is very modest about the whole thing. He says, quote, "I owe it all to my dear old mother. How am I doing Ma?"

MARRIED

Gives "A's" in Zoology

The announcement of Miss Allena North to Crawford Billingsworth from Chicago was made April 16, at the Biology Banquet. The couple returned next fall from their wedding trip to Harp and Corn Hop. They plan to make their home in Field House.

Miss North, former teacher in Ozona Latin-American school, came here from Mullins forty years ago. Mr. Green has been one of Hollywood's worst actors for the last sixty years.

Miss North announces that because of her marriage she will give A's" to all of her English students.

P. S. Any names similar to those of real people is merely coincidental.

Ozona Typists Win State Championship

"If at first you don't succeed, don't try again." This bit advice is the motto of Miss Mildred North and her typist. Its worth was proven when the group won the state championship by an overwhelming victory. The star typist (other than Miss North herself) was a visitor, Carl Hilton Fats Thurman. We hat eto shame the other schools by naming Mr. Thurman's (who has never taken typing) scare. Being rather proud we will. Hold your hats folks; it was 25 words per second. As the other who were in the final contest started to pound away "Flats" calmly asked for a juicy steak. When he was through he again calmly took hold of the typewriter and began at slow speed and gradually worked up to the pace which took first prize. The judges for this important event were President elect of the United States, Mr. L. B. T. Sikes and the Governor elect of Texas, Mr. Dan Patterson. These two checked and doubled checked Hilton's paper before the rest were through. As the award was to be given away Mr. Announcer said, and I quote "We are proud to give this to Mr. Carl Hitler, pardon me, Hilton "Fats" Thurman because we adore him. The only error he made was that we couldn't read his writing." The date that Miss North proudly showed her award of was Monday, April 33, 1952. This was two days after the great victory for O. H. S.

Seniors Make Up Their Minds On Pursuits In Life

Seniors this year will reverse their colorful career of making eyes at the girls and writing notes by being freshmen next year. You get what I mean. Yes, the bright students are rally graduates and diligent study. Some of the more intelligent and promising students have almost learned to read the hardest first grade book with the earnest help of Miss Terry. They have also polished up on their "Making eyes" and will probably do all right in college (preferable "Shorty"). Sybil, highlighting to be an explorer. She made a statement something like this: "I intend to be an explorer if I can find an explorer to devote his time to finding good looking girls and writing letters to "Sus" Claudia has made up her mind definitely to stay away from men. They are fickle," she says. "Ginny" is going to hunt up some more of her "old friends" and have a good time. Now Donalds going to the North Pole. He heard, through propapunks, that it blew down last the last storm. Georgie intends to be a chemist so he can invent lumber without any wood in it. He doesn't like splinters. Helen is going to be a player in opera in her later life. She had several very beautiful pieces picked out. They are as precedes: "Rag-Time Cowboy Joe," "Alexander is a Swamee" and "Rumboogie." Joe is going to have a hobby of losing weight. He is entirely too fat. He is also going to take as a sideline of making tennis rackets without any frames. He says they are in the way. Marjorie Frances has her heart set on being a trapeze acrobat in Barnum and Baily Circus. Bobby is going to be Mortimore Snurd's double, as he is naturally a dummy anyway. "Pee Wee" is going to climb to the heights of society so he can carry a ballade dancer. In the mean time he'll keep Margaret. Jess is going to be a snake charmer so he can attract attention. Ed looks forward to being a worker in a factory where they cut diamonds. Wonder why? Harold has made up his mind to be a deep sea diver. He hopes to find a mermaid. Marjorie dellegently planning on making a playwright in the world war.

All the seniors have something of this sort in mind and from the way it looks now they might graduate in 2,000 years, never can tell.

Friendly Visitors From Nippon

This friendly visit of a Japanese military delegation to the Reich-chancellery in Berlin to see Hitler may be symbolic of co-operative implications far beyond mere casualness, as Japan regarded the landing of Australian troops in Singapore as a "belligerent action." Standing beside Hitler is General Yamashita of Japan.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

By Mrs. Cora Wilson Lecturer

If egg yolks become stringy after being added to hot puddings, especially tapioca, use a beater, the lumps will adhere to the beater and leave the pudding smooth.
If soup has been over-salted, add a teaspoonful of sugar, or a few small pieces of raw turnips or potatoes, and simmer a little longer. This will neutralize the salt flavor.

countless other face rejuvenators, but what price beauty. Knowing that Ozona was such a healthy place in which to live, I was surprised to hear of complexion complaints among the fairer sex in these parts. So, I sought an answer from Miss Johnnie West, the clever little beautician owner of the hotel beauty parlor. Her answer simply amazed me. "It's the climate, semi-arid, you know... Beauty Takes A Holiday!"

Ficked up in passing... a few wise sayings... but not from Confucius... Many a woman who doesn't know her own mind, gives her husband a piece of it... Occasionally a woman spends a lot of time looking for a husband after she gets him... A man may be able to trade his reputation for money, but he can't trade back... A man has a heavy load to carry when his wife tries to share it by putting all his earnings on her back... Hmmm!

Last week I commented on the cooking ability of us men folks in the San Angelo Standard Times of last Saturday, there appeared a dispatch from its Washington correspondent, L. T. Easley, agent the Texas congressmen who consider themselves good chefs. The writer says that they claim some knowledge of domestic science but that those who are married hurry to explain that since their wives are excellent cooks there's really no need of their keeping in practice. But that if necessary they could prepare a tempting meal. Almost to a man they reflect in their preferred dishes the section of the country from which they hail... Mexican foods, steaks and fried chicken are tops, along with black-eyed peas, cornbread and buttermilk. Here is Representative Paul Kilday's, of San Antonio, recipe for chili: Take a two pound round steak and dice. Mix two table-spoons of chili powder, or chili made from large dried red peppers, with flour. Add one teaspoon of ground comino seed, a pungent spice. Roll meat in this mixture, fry in lard until meat gets brown. Then place in pot and fry diced onions, two or three generous size diced cloves of garlic, and five or six ounces of beef suet. Add two quarts of boiling water to all this and let simmer for at least an hour. A big pot of pinto beans should be boiling on the side, with a peeled but unsplit onion and a piece of ham thrown in for seasoning. Serve beans and chili as desired... Housewives please copy!

"Why not admit, right at the beginning, that your wife is right."

7 Arrested After Sat. Night Fight In Negro Section

Seven negroes, four men and three women, were rounded up about 2 a. m. Sunday by Sheriff W. S. Willis and charged in Justice W. M. Johnigan's court with drunkenness and fighting. One of the men involved in the evening's entertainment was unable to appear in court because of injuries received in the fight.

Fined $1 and cost in justice court were Arch Alexander, Richard Best, Edward Alexander, Jr., Garfield Wilson, Grace Mae Young, Bertha Wilson and Lucy Wilson.

Four Mexicans and one white man were also passed before the J. P. during the last week on drunk and fighting charges. Andres Borrego, charged with fighting, was fined a total of $14 and confined to jail to satisfy the judgment. Borrego was hailed before the court a week before and his name appears on the docket on several other pages on recent weeks. Pedro Mendez, Presiliano Gomez and Antonio Fausto were other charged. Rocky Armentrout was fined a dollar and costs as a result of an altercation with Earl Langford. Langford's case was dismissed by the court.

of the city will observe the week with cancer control talks and programs. Dr. G. L. Nearsta will address members of the Women's Club on the subject on Tuesday and Dr. H. B. Tandy will speak on cancer at the Rotary Club meeting Tuesday noon. The various church societies will be hostesses to a general public meeting at the high school auditorium Wednesday when an out-of-town cancer specialist is to be guest speaker, Mrs. Colwick said. At this meeting a film titled "Choose to Live," dealing with the cancer menace will be shown.

On Thursday the Junior Women's Club will observe the special week. A lecture will be given to high school students at some date to be determined later. In order to reach the Spanish speaking people, literature in Spanish will be distributed through the Latin-American Mothers Club during the week.

Enlistment in the cancer control movement is at $1 per person. Seventy per cent of the money thus collected is spent in Texas in cancer education work and 30 per cent goes to the office of the American Society for the Control of Cancer to help finance its projects. Lowell Littleton, cashier of the Ozona National Bank, has been named local finance chairman.

The working committee to direct the enlistment and education drive is composed of Mrs. Hubert Baker, Mrs. Rex Russell, Mrs. W. E. Friend, Jr., Mrs. George Bean, Mrs. B. B. Ingham, Mrs. Joe Oberkamp, Mrs. Hillery Phillips, Mrs. J. S. Whatley, Mrs. Alvin Harrell, Mrs. Stephen Perner, Mrs. Victor Pierce, Mrs. Johnnie Henderson, Mrs. Evert White and Mrs. Carl Colwick.

That cancer is curable if diagnosed and treated in its early stages has been established by the medical profession. Last year the disease, however, destroyed 163,000 men and women in this nation. Conservative medical authorities estimate that between one-third and one-half of those who die from cancer could and should be saved by early diagnosis and prompt, proper treatment.

It is in order to give the individual information necessary for his own protection and for the protection of all that a campaign of education and enlistment is being conducted all over the nation by the Women's Field Army. Its program is carefully planned by leading physicians and carried out by devoted volunteer women.

Crippled Children's Free Clinic To Be Held In San Angelo

Arrangements have been completed for the attendance of several Ozona children at the free clinic for crippled children to be held in San Angelo Friday of this week under the sponsorship of the Crippled Children's Division of the State Department of Education.

Some of the South's greatest bone specialists, plastic surgeons and other specialists are giving their time to the free examination and treatment of crippled children in this clinic. Among these surgeons to be at the clinic will be Dr. Carrell of Dallas, famous bone specialist, Dr. Eggers of Galveston, Dr. John T. Mills and Dr. Frank Hodges.

The clinic is to be held in the Sunday school rooms of the First Baptist Church in San Angelo. Mrs. Grace Roberts, case worker for this county, has asked that all crippled children in this county be taken to the clinic if possible. Any crippled person, regardless of financial condition, may attend the clinic.
