DIVIDUAL GROUPS SEEK CHARTER FOR NEW OZONA BANK

20,000 School Bond Issue Is Proposed To Meet Needs Of Growth

After months of study, planning, consulting with engineering and architectural firms and selection of probable sites for a growing community, the board of school trustees has taken final steps to bring about an election in the county for issuance of $320,000 in bonds for the purpose of enlarging classrooms and other facilities to the entire system to take care of the community's needs for the future.

Proposals asking for the bond issue are now being prepared and it is hoped that the necessary legal details can be cleared away so that the election might be held in March.

Enrollment in all schools in the city, with the possibility of the Junior High School, has taxed the capacity of the buildings with further projected growth in the immediate future, the trustees saw a serious hampering of the educational program as steps are taken now to relieve the congestion, along with this necessary expansion, the opportunity will be seized to make much needed improvements in housing, athletic fields, library and remodeling some of the existing buildings.

The board's expansion plan includes the addition of three classrooms and rooms facilities at the Elementary School, the addition of two classrooms to the Elementary.

Construction of a new library building which would contain two new classrooms for use of high school students is also in the plan. Removal of the library from the present high school building is fast becoming a necessity in a building which was constructed when high school enrollment was about 80 students, against the more than 200 present enrollment.

The proposed construction of a new library across the street east of the high school and between the administration building and the home economics building would provide the two extra classrooms in the new building and at the same time provide two more new classrooms in the old building, the area now occupied by the library.

In the field of teacher housing, the proposed bond issue would provide the system with a superintendent's residence and would expand four of the present teacher housing units in southwest Ozona to three-bedroom homes instead of two bedrooms.

The general improvement and expansion program would also include the modernization of rest room facilities in the Junior High School building, painting the high school outside trim and painting the memorial gym inside and outside.

At the Lions Stadium, the plan contemplates the construction of a new field house to supplement the present inadequately small field house, which was built for about 40 youngsters and (Continued on Last Page)

Preservation Of Fort Lancaster Talked At Meet

A first long step toward the preservation and possible eventual restoration of Fort Lancaster as a historic site and tourist attraction was taken at a meeting here Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. A. Harrell, chairman of the Crockett County Historical Survey Committee, with representatives of the owners of the Fort site, Claude and Henry Meadows of San Angelo, and representatives of the Ozona Chamber of Commerce and county government present.

The Meadows brothers, speaking for themselves and expressing confidence that other heirs and interests in the land would cooperate, expressed great interest in the objectives of the committee in preserving the fort ruins and a willingness to make the land available to the county or state to insure preservation of the ruins and its possible establishment as a state or national park site. State Bank Commission At Austin to Hear Pleas

Two groups of Ozona business men and ranchers have squared off for battle before the State Banking Commissioner in Austin seeking charter for the creation of a new bank in Ozona. One group filed application for the charter late last week and the other group plans to have their application before the Commissioner before the end of this week.

3700 Population Count Estimated By C of C Survey

Information gathered in the community-wide census, recently sponsored by the Ozona Chamber of Commerce, has been used to complete an industrial survey. By using water meter connections as a basis for figuring, an approximate population count of 3,700 was listed as the latest estimate.

Representatives from General Telephone Co. in San Angelo will be in Ozona Thursday to discuss any needed changes or additions that would be beneficial to Ozona. They have offered their help in printing up the survey, which will then be made available to industries that might be interested in locating in Ozona. Interested parties in Ozona will also have access to the statistics contained in the survey at the C of C office.

Mrs. D. W. Russell Nearly 99 Years Is Buried Here

Funeral services were held at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon from the Ozona Methodist Church for Mrs. Mahalia Texana Russell, mother of Claude Russell of Ozona and a former long time resident here, who died Saturday afternoon in Ballinger where she had made her home the last ten years with a daughter, Mrs. Melvin Evans.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Leonard Garrett, with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery under direction of James Funeral Home.

Mrs. Russell was born Feb. 20, 1866, at Utopia in Uvalde county. She lacked just 14 days of reaching the age of 99 years. Mrs. Russell was a survivor of what was possibly one of the last Indian raids in Texas. As a six months old child she hid under the bed in her family's home near Utopia while renegade Indians raided the home, killed a neighbor woman and shot her mother 11 times with arrows. The Indians were thought to be after money in the house kept there after the sale of wool.

Raised in Utopia, she married the late Doss W. Russell in 1888. The family lived in Ozona many years.

Surviving are two sons, Claude Russell of Ozona and Frank Russell of Odessa; one daughter, Mrs. Melvin Evans of Ballinger, 14 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren.

Injured Rancher Waits 7 Hours For Help; Both Legs, Arm Broken

The carefully nurtured bones were crushed and his legs crumpled. Mr. Hoover plunged head first over the next drop.

There was only one sotol plant on the ledge and Mr. Hoover had just one match. Despite his serious injuries, he managed to drag himself to within reach of the sotol stalk and bided his time for the next four hours — until darkness settled.

Knowing that family and ranch workers back at the ranch headquarters would not become worried about him until after dark, Mr. Hoover waited until the right moment and then lit the sotol stalk.

Mrs. Hoover, back at the ranch home, had in truth become worried and when Mr. and Mrs. Peery Holmsley, neighboring ranchers and relatives, came over for an after supper visit, the search was being organized when Mr. Holmsley spotted the blazing sotol.

Mrs. Hoover and the Holmsleys rushed to the spot but found they could not rescue the injured man without help and Mrs. Hoover rushed back to the ranch to call by short wave radio telephone for help.

The broadcast was picked up by W. O. Mills to the south and Mills called Armond Hoover, Jr., in Ozona. Young Hoover called Lawrence James for his ambulance and Mr. James picked up Dr. Edward Dyer and rushed to the ranch, followed by Armond, Jr., Foy Moody and W. H. Chandler, who assisted in the rescue.

Mr. James drove his ambulance over rugged terrain to within a short distance from the cliff and he and Dr. Dyer descended to the ledge where the injured man lay. While aid was on its way, ranch hands had descended and covered Hoover with blankets to minimize his exposure as far as possible.

It was nine o'clock before the injured man was finally rescued from his precarious perch on the narrow ledge, with another long drop under him.

After Mr. Hoover's broken limbs had been splinted by Dr. Dyer and Mr. James, he was bound to the ambulance stretcher and, with the help of all hands, was brought to the top of the cliff and rushed by ambulance (Continued on Last Page)

GREAT SOCIETY NOTE

Now that the Senate has passed the $1.09 billion Appalachia aid bill (we wonder what that extra $90 million is for), and since the expectation is that the House will follow its example, it may be time to re-study our geography.

Appalachia is presently defined as an area involving 11 states, as follows:

All of West Virginia and parts of Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. But spokesmen for other states give the impression that, properly speaking, Appalachia should cover a lot more territory and reach from New England to what was once called the Wild and Woolly West.

If the Federal largesse (as voted by the Senate) were to be whacked up evenly among the approximately 15 million residents of the 11-state area, it would amount to about $72.66¢ apiece. But the money is to be used, we are told, in a six-year program to rehabilitate the economy of the region — whatever that may mean. Statesmen from other sections have expressed the fear that it may mean additional, Federally-financed competition for their own pet industries, but the press has been told it will be used mostly on new roads.

While President Johnson has indicated that he doesn't want any amendments tacked onto this bill, it would seem, nevertheless, that provision should be made for a gasoline fund so that the destitute of Appalachia may be able to ride on their new roads while waiting for the new boom to envelop them.

ARE YOU READY?

There can be no harmony without you! Unless everyone joins in together, determined to make this performance on life's stage the best one possible, the result will always be sour and discordant.

Perhaps, when we take an honest look at ourselves, we discover such things as temper or prejudice, jealousy or despair standing in the way of our personal happiness. And when we are unhappy, we feel out of tune with the world.

How can these miseries be overcome? God Himself will help us, if we ask Him. It is His intention that His children live in harmony and contentment, and He will show us the way.

Bring your problem to church this Sunday, and offer it to Him in prayer. He loves you greatly, He understands you perfectly, and only He can help you to regain the song of joy that belongs in your heart.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Next Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 24 and 25, elections will be held for class representatives. Each class may enter four students. Eighth graders, next year's freshmen, are eligible to vote, but the seniors cannot vote at this election.

LOVE IS IN BLOOM?

By Cathy Miller

Love makes the world go round — or at least it helps keep things going. At OHS love is a big part of the social whirl. Would anyone think of going to a dance without that special someone?

In most high schools the freshmen would rather die than accept a date with a dashing senior, but in OHS, the seniors have to run away from the freshmen.

The sophomores idolize the senior girls who are looked upon as angels who can do no wrong. After all, senior girls are sophisticated and overflowing with worldly experience.

The juniors are having the times of their lives dating those handsome senior boys. Who can blame them? A senior "man" is the prize catch of the year!

The seniors are the big wheels. They know all and should be intelligent enough to get good examples, but they don't because with all their accumulated knowledge, they are too lazy to care. The senior girls are bored stiff, except on holidays and some exciting weekends when the "college joes" come home. Senior boys feel very important. Who wouldn't with every girl in school after that senior ring and football jacket? School for a senior boy is like beating off a pack of hungry dogs, each one trying some new female trick. There is never a dull moment!

Love, which blooms like a weed all during the nine months of school, makes life seem bearable for those who are lucky enough to be shot by Cupid's arrow. Although after graduation and a three month vacation, some will come back to the hallowed halls of OHS realizing that "it was only PUPPY LOVE"!!

AH! VALENTINE DAY

By Janis Walker

Muse, bid the morn awake,

Sad winter now declines,
Each bird doth choose a mate.

This day's St. Valentine's So it is! Do you know why we celebrate this day of dedicated to the little fellow with the bow and arrow? St. Valentine's Day is still properly honored, but few people probably realize how this holiday came to be.

Let us slip back into history, say back to the third century, amorous day originated.

In the 270th year, the most High Emperor Claudius issued a decree which forbid anyone from getting married.

A ghost at this announcement, St. Valentine secretly invited young lovers to come to him and he married, but when the Emperor learned of this, outraged, he had the good priest put into prison where he languished and died, February 14, 271.

Possibly from this tragedy in history has come the festival honoring the "lovers saint", Valentine's Day which is celebrated every fourteenth of February.

Forgetting your books in Biology class.

Seeing Tommie R. getting ready to scratch you.

Breaking Yvonne's "Andy Williams" albums.

Answering Mr. Moody's questions wrong.

Not hearing Mr. Pelto whistle bird calls (which indicates that he's angry.)

Forgetting to write your name on your test in Mr. Cleere's classes.

Telling Mr. Leath that the Army is the best!

Not being able to comprehend Joel Huff's vocabulary.

Being told that school will continue throughout the summer.

Being thumped by Mr. Dozier!

Having all the teachers smile at you.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

By Mary Jane Dunlap

Would you spend $5 on a box of candy for your favorite valentine?

Cathy M — No, I never spend that much on myself.

Carey P — Not as long as I can think of something else that I can spend $5 on.

Hughie C — I have to find a favorite valentine first.

Linda L. — No! O sure wouldn't.

Rick H. — I don't know about my favorite valentine, but I would give Linda Leath a box of candy as a public service. (She's wasting away.)

Sandra M — It all depends on how much he spends on me.

Yvonne P — Yes, if it's for my mother.

Jerry J — I don't know. She'll have to wait and find out.

Janis W — If I had a valentine I'd spend $10. (hint hint, hint.)

Moeb B — I wouldn't spend $5 on anyone.

Karen R. — I need the money for gasoline.

Diane C. — If I had $5 I'd probably spend it on myself.

CUPID MAKES JOKES

By L. Leath

Sunday is Valentines day so all the lovers and practical jokes are mailing out valentines by the dozen. With all due respect — all the world, you know, loves a lover — let's see what's been going on with the romantic set this semester.

He was a bit shy, and after she had thrown her arms around him kissed him for bringing her a bouquet of flowers, he arose and started to leave.

"I'm sorry if I offended you," she said.

"Oh, I'm not offended," he replied. I'm going after more flowers."

I courted Ida, and Ida raved, I'da won Ida.

If I'da shaved, Carmen: could you ever be happy with a girl like me?

Mike W.: perhaps, if she isn't too much like you.

Janis: am I the first girl you've kissed?

Derold: Now that you mention it, you do look familiar.

Say it with flowers; say it with eats; say it with kisses, say it with sweets. Say it with jewelry, say it with drink.

But always be careful not to say it with ink.

Do you think I love you?

Bet you like I do. Bet since you got that couple of blue.

The freshman shy and coy admires the senior boy, while the senior boy has his head in a all because of a junior.

The junior girl in sleek sedan, Bobby the senior man, so dashing wild. Secretly loves the man child.

NATIONAL ELECTRICAL WEEK
FEB. 7-13, 1965

Things you rarely have to think about: sunlight, air, breathing and electricity!

Whether at 3 A.M. or 4 P.M., whenever you flip the switch, you find electricity there ready to serve you. An essential ingredient of modern living, dependable electric service has come to be taken for granted.

We take pride in this attitude, since being taken for granted is the most complimentary reference that can be made to our service. We shall always strive to maintain this reliable service and to have ready a plentiful supply of electric power to meet the needs of all our customers at any time.

You'd think it was our car!

We baby your car. We carefully check every little detail to make sure it's in tip-top, A-1 condition. Why, you'd almost think your car belonged to us!

There's good reason for us to be so fussy and painstaking. We want to do a better job than the "other fellow" down the street—because it's a good way to compete for your business. It's the competition between independent businessmen like us—that benefits you—the motorist.

Mrs. Congressman Writes — Life Of West Texas Congressman Shares Some Family Experiences As Newcomers To Washington, DC

By Kathy White
Wife of Congressman
Richard C. White

It is hard on a west Texan to leave the wide open spaces, sunshine, and western hospitality and go anywhere — especially to a city known for its disagreeable weather, violence and inadequate educational facilities. I thought of this when we were accorded the honor of representing West Texas at our nation's capital. I am happy to report, however, that living in Washington, D.C. is a state of mind. If you come expecting the worst you will generally feel that is what you've gotten. If you come with an eager and appreciative attitude, the rest is easy.

Click, the boys, and I still think that West Texas is home — we've just brought a little West Texas flavor to the east. During the sessions of Congress we want to be the eyes and ears for everyone, for without the friendship of the people at home we would not be here. It is with this in mind that I would like to share a few experiences with you.

Washington is an international city, yet one small enough not to be overwhelming. Distance is not a great but the traffic patterns and circles make driving a challenge. Our sons, Richard, and Raymond attend the District of Columbia public schools which I believe are of the highest quality. Children of the Ambassadors to Nepal and Norway are in their dormitories, and this situation in itself is educational. We have found the weather surprisingly mild — probably because we expected to freeze to death. We have had three good snows since Jan. 1, and the boys have begun what they call "Texts Style" sledding, sitting and standing as the sled rumbles down the hill like a bucking bronco.

Informality is the keynote for the year, and this has been set by President and Mrs. Johnson in their down-to-earth approach to many situations. Much of the rigid protocol has gone out of the window as Texas hospitality has come in. For example, protocol dictates that no one leaves a party until the ranking guest leaves. Even at White House affairs this held — the President and First Lady always retired to the family quarters upstairs then the guests departed. But no more! President Johnson dances until the last guest leaves and Mrs. Johnson tells them goodbye at the door.

So we as newcomers to Washington are witnessing a transition, I would gather where the "in" thing is to be natural and gracious. This makes it easier for those of us who have a lot to learn.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS

From Your State Capitol

Austin, Texas — Gov. John Connally's alternate teacher pay proposal has drawn fire from the Texas State Teachers Association. And Connally has reciprocated!

Connally wants less of an immediate pay raise than the $45 a month the teachers ask. He wants to set up a 10-year program for steady and regular increases which in time would amount to greater rewards for more experienced teachers.

Redistricting Resolution Passed — Both houses of the Legislature overwhelmed ingly adopted a resolution calling for a federal constitutional convention to permit one legislative chamber to be apportioned on factors other than population.

Thirty-four states must adopt the identical proposal before Congress has to consider calling a convention on a specific amendment. Three-fourths of the states must ratify any amendment thus submitted.

At least half a dozen proposals for congressional redistricting have been filed so far, plus bills for Senate redistricting and House redistricting.

Bills To Governor — The Legislature acted fast on two emergency budget requests by Governor Connally.

One called for $702,785 in emergency appropriations to run some dollar-short agencies and programs. Included were $250,000 for carrying on the state's share of the screwworm eradication program for three months after April 1 and $290,000 for speeding up the Texas Water Commission's planning program.

Other bill set up procedures and a library plan by which cities can take advantage of a $2,500,000 library building appropriation voted by Congress for Texas.

Sale of State Lease — Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler reports $39,000,000 in high bids on 475 tracts were received by the State School Land Board. It was the biggest oil and gas lease sale in Texas history.

Highest single bid was Dow Chemical's $1,077,000 for a submerged Gulf tract in Matagorda County. Second high was from Will Odom of Austin — $1,066,000 for another Gulf submerged tract in Kenedy County.

18 Counties Now Included In New El Camino Girl Scouts Council; Neighborhood Assn. Formed Here

The Crockett County Neighborhood Association of Girl Scouts of America held its regular monthly meeting in the high school cafeteria Tuesday night, Feb. 9.

The association had previously arranged to have a community committee for Crockett County Girl Scouts present at the meeting. The organizations and churches of the community were contacted and asked to appoint two representatives from each to attend. The County Judge, president of the Chamber of Commerce and superintendent of the Crockett County Water Control District were also asked to attend.

Mrs. W. E. Bivens of San Angelo, executive director of the Girl Scout Council, and George Barnes of San Angelo, chairman of the council finance committee, were also asked to attend.

The purpose of the meeting was to inform the people of the community of the recent changes in the Girl Scout Council to which Crockett County belongs, of the number of girls and adult workers in scouting in Ozona, and of the activities of all troops and the needs of the neighborhood association.

Guests were presented with a mimeographed sheet of information by two members of each Brownie Scout troop as they entered, and coffee and cookies were served by two members from each Junior and Cadette Girl Scout troop in the community.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Lawrence Janes, Neighborhood Chairman, and was opened by the singing of Girl Scouts Together by Junior and Cadette troop representatives led by Mrs. Tommy Sanders, leader of Troop 160, and the singing of the Brownie Smile Song by representatives of Brownie troops led by Miss Dorothy Price, leader of Troop 19.

Mrs. Janes discussed the change to El Camino Council from Frontier Council, to which Crockett County Neighborhood has belonged for years. The Frontier Council, consisting of ten counties and Val Verde Council, consisting of eight counties, have merged to form the new El Camino Council, consisting of eighteen counties. A completely new set of by laws were adopted by this new council at a meeting at Ft. Clark Jan. 23. Officers were elected for the council at that time. Mrs. Charles Davidson, III, assistant leader of Troop 80, was elected to be a member of the nominating committee for the council. Districts have been established in the council. Crockett, Reagan, Irion, Schleicher, and Sutton Counties form one district with Mrs. O. L. Richardson of Sonora as District Chairman. She will represent these counties at council board meetings.

Each Neighborhood Association receives many services from the council office and must contribute to Council finances. Previously the Neighborhoods have been assessed a certain amount set by the population of the county. Under the new by-laws, there is no set amount for each community. Each neighborhood will send the contributions they are able to acquire.

Mr. Barnes and Mrs. Bivens each gave very enlightening talks on how the council operates and the needs of the council and the neighborhoods. Under the new by-laws, all money raised in the name of Girl Scouts must be turned in to the council in order to conform with government rules on tax exemptions for non-profit organizations. Regarding the needs of the neighborhoods, each neighborhood association is requested to make a budget of all needs including equipment for camp and other activities and for scout house expenses-upkeep and repairs and equipment, expenses for neighborhood activities, awards, postage and telephone, and any other items considered needed by the community. Camperships for deserving girls may also be taken care of through the council. All budgets are considered and recommended by council board of directors and sent on to the council to be passed on and approved. A local person will represent this group on the Finance Board of the Council.

All Neighborhood Chairmen are members of the council and should attend council meetings. Council headquarters are in San Angelo at 304 West Ave. A Mrs. Agnes Holland of San Angelo is president of the council. Officers of the local neighborhood, besides Neighborhood Chairman, are Mrs. Michael Miller, secretary; Mrs. Charles Davidson, III, treasurer; Mrs. L. B. Sands, public relations chairman, and Miss Dorothy Price, chairman of the Community Committee, consisting of two members from each organization and church as appointed.

Besides the council officers, Mr. Barnes and Mrs. Bivens; 16 organizations and churches were represented at the meeting by 26 members. Brock Jones, Co. Judge, and Troy Williams, Chamber of Commerce were present and 11 of the 14 leaders and 4 of the 10 troop helpers attended. The meeting was concluded by the showing of a film by Mrs. Bivens.

The interest of the community was greatly appreciated by the officers and leaders of the association and officers of the council. Any one in the community interested in learning more about Girl Scouts in Crockett County are urged to contact any of the officers of the Neighborhood Association.

Rev. Solis Quits Pastorate Here To Accept Odessa Post

Rev. Raul Solis, pastor of the Temple of Jerusalem Baptist Church in Ozona, has accepted the resignation to the church during the morning worship service Sunday, Feb. 7th. He has accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist Mission in Odessa. His resignation is to be effective March 1st.

Rev. Solis has been with the local church for nearly 10 years, and during this period of time the church has had twenty six baptisms. Other accomplishments in the program of activities has been successful under the leadership of Rev. Solis. An outstanding contribution of his ministry has been the construction of an educational annex building. This will help tremendously in the expansion of the church program. The building has a value of over $100,000, which brings a total value of the church property of over $60,000.

Besides his pastoral duties, Rev. Solis was the speaker in a fifteen-minute radio program in Spanish on a Sonora radio station. This program was three years old this week, and was sponsored by the brotherhood of the Ozona First Baptist Church.

Rev. Solis is a graduate of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, having received his B. A. degree, with a Music Major, and a Church Music minor. He also has two years of Seminary work at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth. At the present time, Mrs. Solis is working on her B. S. degree, also in Howard Payne college, majoring in Elementary Education, and minor-ing in Spanish. The Solises have expressed their deep regret in leaving Ozona, but are "confident that God's work must be done only under the spiritual and divine guidance of His Will."

FIDELIS CLASS

The Fidelis Class of the First Baptist Church met in regular business meeting Tuesday in the Fellowship Hall of the Church.

The meeting was called to order by the class president, Mrs. Edna Mayfield. Mrs. Jess Sweeten led in the opening prayer.

An interesting letter from class missionary, Miss Lola Mae Daniel, was read in which she thanked the class for their Christmas gift. Miss Daniel told of the pleasure the cash gift had brought to a number of her young pupils for she had spent it all for gifts for the little boys and girls.

After dismissal by Mrs. Clyde Bawson, the hostesses, served refreshments to seven members and one visitor.

Lions Wind Up Season Tonight Against Iraan

By Ernie Boyd

The Ozona Lions will travel to Iraan tonight to engage the Braves in the final game of the 1964-65 season, with the A game slated to begin about 8 p. m.

The game will be a crucial one for Iraan, since they are now in a tie for first place with Big Lake, and must win in order to maintain that tie.

The Lions, with a west zone record of 2 wins and 5 losses, will not have much at stake in the contest, except an improved record.

The Lions closed their home season here Tuesday night in a well played and exciting 62 to 51 loss to the tough Rankin Red Devils.

Even though the Lions ended up the contest 11 points behind, they had been in the contest all the way until the final minutes leading 27 to 25 at the half and gaining a 47 to 47 tie with just over three minutes remaining before the roof fell in.

Once again, a large measure of the credit for the Lions improved performance went to the juniors and sophomore on the squad who have been playing well for the last two weeks.

Win Saunders led the Ozona attack and did a fine job of rebounding for the Lions as he hit for 13 points. The defensive play of Pon Seahorn and George Cox, along with the added rebounding of David Childress, and some smooth first half shooting by senior Richard Vargas, were also key factors in the Lions strong game.

The Red Devils got a sensational performance from Robert Brummitt who led the visitors with 17 points, but also got scoring balance from James Miller and Ron Scarborough with 13 points each. David Childress, who did not have one of his better nights shooting, hit 10 for the Lions.

Last Friday night the Lions were smothered by a strong Big Lake team before the largest crowd for a regular season game in several years.

The Owls, led by strong rebounding and a balanced attack, pulled away from the cold Lions in the second quarter and were never in trouble after that, as they chalked up a 58 to 36 victory.

The Lions were hampered throughout the contest as Win Saunders picked up three early fouls and spent much of the contest on the bench, but of even more importance was the poor shooting the Lions experienced. Not a single Lion broke into double figures, though Big Lake is not notorious for being an effective defensive unit.

Bum McReavy, who was not a starter led the Owl attack with 16, followed by Johnny Howard who had 14.

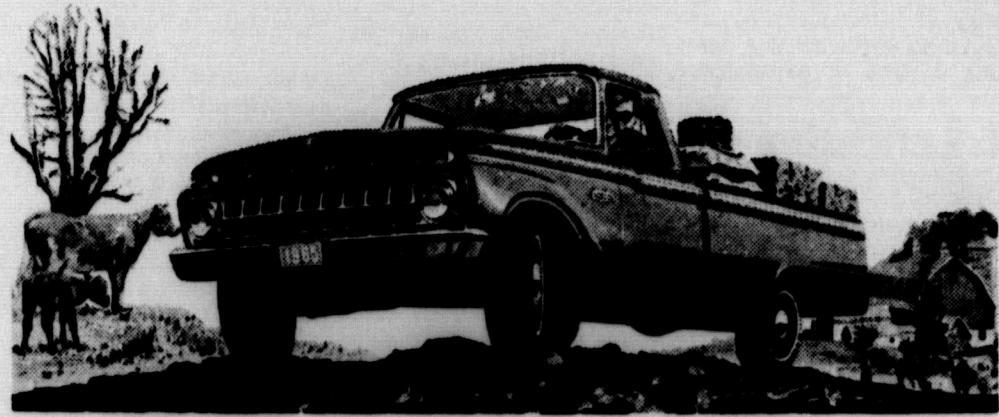

The Ozona B team broke even in the two games of the week, losing 63 to 38 to Big Lake and downing Rankin 43 to 29.

The Big Lake contest was a close one through the first half but the reserve Owls, getting great shooting from Gary Anderson, who hit for 19 points, pulled away sharply in the third quarter to turn the game into a rout. Rex Bland led the Ozona attack with 14 but did not get much help. The Ozona reserves bounced back Tuesday night to hand Rankin's reserves a 43 to 29 set back as Rex Bland led with 13 points. Sandy Stokes and David Lewis each added 8 points before giving way to subs who finished up the contest.

representatives, Troy Williams, president, and Mrs. Monroe Allen, secretary, agreed on the objective of preserving the fort ruins, and restoring as much of it as possible. Recent deprecations by persons who stop on the highway and walk to the fort site on Live Oak creek in west Crockett county, prompted discussion of means of preventing further damage. Souvenir hunters have dug up graves, turned over grave markers and carried off parts of the ruins. Fencing the site, restoration of at least one of the buildings for possible use as a museum, employment of a caretaker were among the suggestions in the long range planning.

Ozona Girls Rally But Fall Short Of Victory At Rankin

By Ernie Boyd

A strong rally in the third and fourth quarters by Ozona's High School girls basketball team fell short last Tuesday night and the locals dropped a 41 to 38 decision to Rankin.

The loss to Rankin dropped the Ozona team into a tie with Rankin for the west zone cellar with a only a game in Rankin tonight remaining on the schedule.

Mary Payne and Lynn Cox led the Ozona comeback which reduced a 13 point Rankin edge to 1 point in the fourth quarter before the visitors were able to sew up the game with a last minute scoring spree.

Actually, the loss of Cathy Miller on fouls in the last four minutes ended the home club's rally as they could not get the ball off the backboard without her rebounding efforts.

Rankin won the game in the early part of the third period when the Ozona girls suffered a defensive lapse and left the Rankin girls wide open under the basket for lay-up after lay-up. That lapse resulted in a sizeable Rankin lead before the Ozona forwards, led by Mary Payne and Lynn Cox, started to whittle at the Rankin lead as Cathy Miller dominated the defensive backboard.

Mike Womack

The following adult leaders are working with members of the club; Joe Couch, Jimmy Barbee, Boyd Baker, Norm Hooten, Duwain Vinson, Tom Everett, Perry Hubbard, Sam Fitzhugh, Napoleon Vitela, Carlos Lopez and H. O. Hoover.
