QUICK SOLUTION — Juveniles Figure In Burglary, Car Theft Incidents

A Saturday night burglary of a local business firm and theft of an automobile from an Ozona street were quickly solved by the Crockett County Sheriff's department and officers, all juveniles, were arrested and all stolen articles recovered, Sheriff Billy Mill reported.

The Saturday night break-in was at the South Texas Lumber Co., where a number of pocket knives, hunting knives, electric shavers, electric irons and a small amount of change were taken. Entry was gained by breaking a glass window.

It was so easy Saturday night that the burglars, a pair of local school boys, 10 and 12 years of age, returned Sunday afternoon for a return entry. But to their surprise, Jamie Knox, an employee of the firm, happened to be in the store and had just discovered the broken window. While Knox was staring at the broken window, one of the boys poked his head through and Knox recognized him.

"What are you doing here?" Knox asked the boys, but he and his companion didn't bother to answer — they took to their heels. They were later picked up at school and are awaiting hearing in juvenile court.

D. E. Jackson, San Angelo builder and motel operator, had driven to Ozona Saturday night. He had just reached town when his car (Continued on Last Page)

The cheerleaders, chosen by popular ballot of the 1967-68 student body are Helen King, head cheerleader; Jeri Lynn Morrison, Patricia Whitley, Peggy Hagelstein and Deborah Mills.

Shell Gas Plant Expands Personnel, Adds Compressor

To catch up with its expanding production load, the Shell Oil Co. gas plant two miles north of Ozona is adding the sixth compressor to the plant machinery and a third plant operator to its personnel, Dean Ripptoe, plant foreman, said this week.

Transferred here from Denver City to become a part of the plant's operating personnel is Charles Praddy, Mr. Ripptoe said. Mr. Praddy will be the third plant operator assigned to the Ozona plant. Others are Jack Tankersley and Raymond Adecock.

Addition of the new compressor will enable the plant machinery to nearly catch up with the present load. The plant presently is operating at 125 percent of capacity, processing 14 million cubic feet of gas daily in the plant designed for 10 million.

The plant extracts hydrocarbon liquids from gas gathered from gas producing areas around Ozona, sending dry gas into pipelines and marketing the liquids, butane, propane, etc. by truck transport.

Moore Oil Still On Top In Little League Standing

After four games, Moore Oil remains undefeated in the race for the first-half Little League championship, with Flying W and B & B tied for second and Ozona Oil yet to win one.

In Thursday night's double-header, B&B defeated Ozona Oil 17-15. Sammy Tambunga and Gary Whitley for B&B and Mike Williams for Ozona Oil led the hitting with 2 each. Melecio Martinez and Gerald Huff the loser. Moore Oil defeated Flying W in the second game 2-1 in a real cliff-hanger. Ned Stephens was the winning pitcher and Gerald Olson the loser. Both pitchers turned in sterling performances.

Monday night, Flying W downed Ozona Oil 5-2, with Jeff Stuart and Tim Evans leading the hitting with 2 each. Stuart was the winner and Pete Martinez took the loss for Ozona Oil. In the second game, B&B led Moore Oil all the way until the bottom of the sixth. The score was 9-3 and the Oilers scored 7 runs in the final inning to take the win 10-9. Stephens was again the winner and Gary Whitley the losing pitcher.

Members Shed a Tear, and Swell With Pride As Ozona Woman's Club Disbands After 57 Years Service

The Woman's Club met last Saturday with Mrs. Frank McMullan in her ranch home with a salad luncheon. This was the final meeting of the club which was organized in 1910, joined the State Federation in 1915 and the General Federation in 1927.

It was a sad but happy occasion, sad because of disbanding but happy because the beautiful grand piano which was placed in the Auditorium - Coliseum by the club and the Music Club has been paid for in full. The grand piano in the High School Auditorium was given by the Woman's Club some years ago. The club feels it has left a heritage to the younger generation.

BAN THE BOYCOTT

The building trades unions are making enormous efforts to destroy a man's fundamental freedom to do business with whomever he pleases. They are now asking Congress to pass legislation (HR 100 and S 1487) which would legalize secondary boycotts in the construction industry and enable the unions to force one company to stop doing business with another. This bill will give any union the legal right to completely shut down an entire construction project even though it has a grievance with only one of the many employers on the project. In some cases, disagreements between two unions could bring all work on the job to a stop.

Passage of the secondary boycott bill will give the building trades unions a monopoly over construction labor in most parts of the country. They could demand that certain contractors or subcontractors on projects be kept off the job; or that wages be increased out of all proportion to productivity. And the unions could close down entire construction sites until their demands were met.

In a recent precedent-setting decision which established the building trades unions' right to boycott prefabricated materials the Supreme Court said: "It may be that the time has come for re-evaluation of the basic content of collective bargaining as contemplated by Federal legislation. Congress might be of the opinion that greater stress should be put on eliminating more and more economic weapons from the unions' grasp but congressional policy has not yet moved to this point." Secondary boycott legislation is a move in the opposite direction.

The building trades in the past year have been able to get wage increases that averaged more than 6 percent (this is more than twice the average income rate of growth). Added strike power would, of course, result in more unreasonable demands. The secondary boycott bill could prove to be the inflationary straw that could break this country's economic back.

Ye Gods, Gremlins Again —

A Correction, An Apology . . .

Gremlins, so familiar around a print shop, got into the linotype at the Stockman office last week and played havoc with a couple of stories.

In composing a story about two Ozona girls, Kathy Lynn Russell, daughter of Mrs. George Russell, Jr., and Judy Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Barber, who played in the National Piano Guild auditions at San Angelo, a line was dropped out and the proof reader went blind momentarily, resulting in the article naming Miss Russell as daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barber and leaving Miss Barber's name out completely. They are pupils of Miss Cleona Quiett.

Then, to further compound confusion and add to Miss Quiett's end-of-school worries, the gremlins struck again and left out four names from the list of performers in Miss Quiett's recital announcement — Kathy Williams, Jennifer Nicholas, Jan Pelto and Gerald Olson.

With very red faces, we apologize to Miss Quiett and to everyone else concerned.

Red Cross Drive Falls Far Short Of County Quota

Hanson Clark, Crockett County Red Cross Fund Chairman, reported Tuesday afternoon that after residential sections had been solicited and most of the business section, a total of $838.68 had been collected in the 1967 Crockett County Red Cross Drive. This total is $361.32 shy of the goal set for the county this year, Mr. Clark said.

He has asked that anyone who wishes to make a donation to the Red Cross and was not contacted by a volunteer, please make contribution at the bank or the water district office.

Volunteers have covered the residential section, but due to the last minute rush of school activities, it is the feeling that many may have been missed. Clark also felt that many people who live on local ranches would like to help the county reach its goal by making their contributions at either of the places mentioned.

FAVORITE SPORT MEMOS

By A. R. Rutherford

Baseball has been called the All-American Game and is true for all America plays it, but it is not completely American in origin. The War for Independence from England may have been pretty much of a success in the field of politics, but our American baseball owes its existence to the British national game of cricket. This may be a bitter pill for patriots to swallow, but such is the case. In fact, so dependent on cricket was early baseball that the early players wore uniforms identical to those of the cricketers of Old Blighty.

Field Parties Near End Of U. S. Geological Survey Work, Mapping 100 Square Miles of West Texas

Field parties of the U. S. Geological Survey, who have been based in Sonora and are bringing to a close their field work in this area, announced this week that the parties have been in the field for six months in an area bounded by Sonora, Texas, and Sheffield, Texas, covering approximately 100 square miles. The new maps, when published in about two years, will be available to Federal and local officials and will be used in future planning. It is hoped that the maps will make use of the standard topographic maps of the United States. Mapping in other areas is continuing on the basis of the State of Texas and it is hoped that the survey will have all of its areas completely mapped in another 7-10 years. Members of this survey wish to express their appreciation to the local citizens for their help in giving access to lands in order to get the necessary work accomplished. Included in the crew working in Ozona, Ferrell L. Gregg, District Engineer, Thomas C. ... Project Supervisor, ...

Devitt, Charles F. Dickinson, Martin F. Spelich, Doyle E. Yeater, Tom W. Stovall, Charles R. Hughes, Lee Stone, James E. Greer, William N. Runnels, Kenneth S. McLean, Edwin G. Eskel. From Sonora, Kenneth D. Cox, Project Supervisor, Joe Palayyi, and Ralph G. Boshert. The primary purpose for mapping this area is to facilitate the study and development of water and conservation, the engineer explained. This includes such related subjects as drainage, flood control, potential stream yield, irrigation and surface water studies. Topographic maps serve as a basis for the study and solution of many problems relating to activities affected by the character and relief of the earth's surface. Therefore, these maps will also be used in the future as an aid in planning and developing our military requirements, road systems, industrial expansion, recreation facilities, and engineering construction of all types. The most modern engineering methods are employed in the preparation of these maps. The use of aerial photographs and precise photogrammetric instruments has greatly facilitated the work. However, considerable field work is still required in order to produce an accurate map, Mr. Gregg pointed out. The field work consists of establishing accurate geographic positions on numerous pre-selected points. This assures the map maker that all features shown on the map will be shown in the correct position. A dense pattern of elevations above sea level is also established, from which the shape and slope of the land is drawn. The field parties also check and determine which of the infinite number of features should be shown on the map. These will include features such as houses, barns, roads, fences, power lines, pipe lines, wells, windmills etc.

Thousands of topographic maps have been published by the Geological Survey, and millions are distributed annually. Available without cost are state index maps showing which areas have been mapped, and brochures describing topographic maps and the functions of the Geological Survey. Most of the published topographic maps are sold for 40 cents each and may be ordered from the Geological Survey, Topographic Division, Federal Center Bldg. 25, Denver, Colorado, 80225.

TIPS OUTDOORSMEN

Mitten Warner - In cold weather wear a finger glove on your trigger hand and a mitten on the other. Mitten allows fingers to touch and normally warm each other.

Handy "Ammo" - If you're right-handed, which most of us are, sew a couple of loops on the back of your left-hand glove for carrying two spare shotgun shells. This will permit fast reloading. It eliminates trouble getting another shell out of your pocket while wearing gloves in cold weather.

Of course, if you shoot from the left shoulder, sew the loops on the right-hand glove.

Removing Burrs - If you have a long-haired hunting dog and hunt in burr country, rub the dog's ears and tail with petroleum jelly. It makes combing burrs out very easy.

Foil Foils Soot - Eliminate cooking pots blackening from campfires by wrapping the outside of the pot with aluminum foil. The foil will transfer heat, but not the soot. Tires for Targets - An old tire makes a good archery target. Stuff rags or straw between pieces of cardboard fitted between the tire openings. Prop up the tire with a stick in the back, or if you want a moving target, let it roll down a slope.

Frees Frozen Ferrules - Here's an easy way to free stuck rod ferrules.

Heat the ferrules, then put on a few drops of penetrating rust solvent. Heat will create a vacuum that will cause the solvent to work its way between the frozen parts.

Then the ferrules can be pulled apart.

Beeswax Cleans Lead - If you cast your own bullets, be sure the lead is free of impurities.

You can be sure the lead is clean by putting a small piece of beeswax in with the metal. Melted wax will float the foreign matter to the surface of the pot.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garlitz of Midland and children, Wade, Christa and Clay, spent Mother's Day with Mrs. Garlitz's mother, Mrs. Clay Adams. Christa, who had been visiting Mrs. Adams for several days, returned to Midland with her family.

Mrs. John Augler, the former Pat Womack, met her husband in Midland last week, where he flew in from California after a year's tour of duty in Viet Nam.

AROUND THE WORLD. THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH. Today even kindergarten children study current events — they learn about faraway places and people. When they reach Martha's grade, children are extremely knowing about what's going on in other parts of the world. They soon discover that children in some countries have few clothing and toys—and even more important, food. Being human, our young Americans want to help. And they can! They can help clothe and feed the needy. In church, they will develop their natural generous impulses and will learn to grasp the values of selflessness and love. Children need special preparation for life in our jet world. This means being in tune with the new, but it also means reaffirming the old. Children need to be taught the basic truths of life, the real values, so that in chaotic moments they will still be able to keep their feet planted firmly on the path of faith. Martha is getting the kind of preparation she needs. Is your child equally lucky? Copyright 1967 Krister Advertising Service, Inc., Strasburg, Va. Sunday Deuteronomy 15:7-11. Monday Psalms 9:13-20. Will you pay the price of a Cadillac...and not get one?

Literally thousands of people are driving cars that cost as much as a Cadillac—yet provide far less in motoring satisfaction, distinction and lasting value. A few minutes with an authorized Cadillac dealer and a few miles at the wheel of a Cadillac can prevent you from making this unnecessary compromise. The fact is, if you're planning to buy in the medium-price range, an investigation could show that you are very close to a Cadillac in cost. And it is generally acknowledged that a Cadillac holds its value so well that it actually costs less to own than many lower priced cars. Right now, your authorized dealer has a fine selection of models and colors—with all the advanced engineering, superb performance and many safety features that make a Cadillac a Cadillac. Every year you wait is costing you its price in personal pleasure and satisfaction. Why not see your Cadillac dealer before the week is out?

Your Cadillac dealer has the answer.
