I must go along with the Decatur when he said in 1816, "Our country! intercourse with foreign may she always be in; but our country, right."

Little Leaguers In Final Battles Tonite

An exciting night is on hand for Little League fans tonight as the Ozona National Bankers go up against B & B Grocers for the second-half championship. Should the Grocers lose, it will wind up the season with the Bankers the undisputed champions of the season, having already won the first-half. However, a win by the Grocers would throw the second half into a tie between them and the Bankers, and the Bankers would be forced to play Ozona Oil in a make-up game tomorrow night.

Another highlight of the night will be the announcement of members of the all-star team. The team will begin workouts Monday and play Sonora there the night of July 20.

Thursday night Moore Oil won their first game of the second half by downing Ozona Oil 4-3. Mike Fay was the winning pitcher and Ronald Koerth the loser.

In the second game the Bankers took the lead, defeating the Grocers 12-2. David Garza was the winning pitcher and Vaden Aldridge the loser.

In a high-scoring thriller Monday night, Ozona National beat Moore Oil 18-11. Leading the hitting were Victor De La Garza for the winners, and Steve Pagan for the losers, both boys having three hits each. Cruz Garza was the winning pitcher and Richard Cardona the loser.

B & B beat Ozona Oil 11-3 in the second game. John Galvan was the winning pitcher and had a home run to his credit. Clyde Bailey was the losing pitcher. Bailey and Ronald Koerth had two hits each for the Oilers.

Standings are: Ozona National Bank, 5-1; B & B, 5-2; Ozona Oil 2-4; Moore Oil 1-6.

Sheep And Goat Raisers Meet In Del Rio July 18

Final touches are being put on the agenda of the 56th Annual convention of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, according to Louis L. Farr III of Austin, Association president. The yearly confab is set for July 18-21 in Del Rio. Activities for the meeting will be mainly at the Del Rio Civic Center, in walking distance of several major motels.

Featured speakers include: U. S. Senator John Tower, State Senator Wayne Connally, Texas' Lieutenant Governor Ben Barnes, Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' president Frank Lewis, and C. G. Scruggs, editor of the Progressive Farmer Magazine.

Committees will meet on Monday, July 19, from 2-4-30 p.m. General session will open Tuesday at 9-00 a.m. and end Wednesday, July 21, at noon.

Described as the international playground, Del Rio is going all out for the livestock group. A chamber of commerce sponsored fish fry on the shores of Amistad Lake is but one of the many sidelights of the four-day affair. Others include a golf tournament at the country club for those "cow pasture pool" enthusiasts or fishing and other water sports if desired. Also, Mexico is just across the Rio Grande for those who wish to add an international flair to their weekend.

THREE CHEERS FOR THE FOURTH!

America is the only leader the free world has. Our freedom did not come easy. Thousands of our founding fathers fought and died for it. Countless thousands more died for the Union in the Civil War. Other hundreds of thousands of our finest men died in defense of freedom in World War I and World War II. People who sit back smugly and say nothing was accomplished by these wars, or that we could have had freedom without fighting for it, are out of touch with reality and are bereft of a sense of history.

Eleven years ago, on July 4, 1961, Hawaii became the 50th star in our flag. The first star was added to the original 13 on December 7, 1787, when Delaware became the 14th State admitted to the Union.

The flag itself was designed, not by Betsy Ross as legend would have it, but by Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Lynch and Benjamin Harrison, who were appointed by the Continental Congress to come up with some ideas.

On June 14, 1777, Congress decided the flag should have 13 stripes, with 13 stars in the field of blue. The stars are five-pointed to represent the star of Bethlehem. The white, said the Continental Congress, stands for purity and innocence; the red stands for hardiness and valor; the blue represents justice, vigilance and perseverance. The colors were first used by the colonies in 1737.

The flag and the pledge of allegiance eloquently express the fact that we are one nation under God, that we are a Republic guaranteeing liberty and justice to everyone.

We must preserve our patriotism and our independence in a hostile world, if the free world itself is to keep its freedom. If we do keep our freedom, it will gradually spread behind the Iron Curtains of the non-free world.

THE TIMES VS NATIONAL INTEREST

U.S. District Judge Murray Gurfein ordered the New York Times to halt temporarily the publication of classified material from a secret Pentagon study of the Vietnam war. The judge's action inaugurates a case that could be most important in the history of relations between the government and the press.

Judge Gurfein affirmed that the temporary harm done to the Times by his order "is far outweighed by the irreparable harm that could be done to the interests of the United States" if more articles and documents in the Times series were published.

Does a newspaper have the right to publish material that will give aid to the enemy? Does the government have the same right as private parties to some privacy? Such conflicts of interest are inevitable in any free society. It is natural that the Times should wish to print a good story. It is equally natural that the Justice Department should wish to defend the national welfare. The conflict is between the right of the Times to publish a good story and the right of the U.S. government to protect its interests.

Is the Times saying it published the material because it decided the material contained nothing harmful to our country? Or is it saying it can publish anything it can beg, borrow or steal, whether it is seriously harmful to the nation or not?

It is the duty of the Justice Department to see that the law is obeyed, and to protect America from the irresponsibility of individuals and groups. If the Times maintains it is entitled to publish material that could seriously harm the national welfare, it is acting indefensibly. If the Times maintains it is the proper person to decide whether classified material should be classified or not, it is also acting indefensibly. Either way, such illegal conduct can lead to the destruction of that very national security which enables freedom of the press in the United States to exist.

THE FLAG AND THE FOURTH

Symbols play a very important part in our lives. The values we most esteem as Americans are symbolized by our flag. It is through symbols that man lives and loves. Those ages are the noblest which place the highest value on symbolic worth as a means of indicating real values.

Every day in most of the schools of America our nation's children recite their pledge of allegiance to our flag and to our country. Nowhere is the flag more honored than by our military forces throughout the world. It should be honored in every home in the United States. Freedom that is taken for granted will be taken away.

SEN. CURTIS' WELFARE REFORM

Washington, D.C. -- The revolutionary guaranteed annual wage plan devised by the Nixon administration and modified by the House Ways and Means Committee may be sidetracked in the days ahead. At any rate, U. S. Sen. Carl Curtis (R-Neb.) has proposed alternative legislation that eliminates many of the objectionable features of the misnamed "welfare reform" bill proposed by the White House and added to by Rep. Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark), chairman of the Ways and Means committee.

The administration-backed welfare plan provides a guaranteed annual income of $2,400 a year. This establishes a dangerous precedent--a federal pay for non-workers. It is inevitable that each session of Congress would produce a new round of demands for a higher guaranteed annual income. The Curtis bill, however, completely eliminates the guaranteed annual income concept.

The Nixon-Mills bill (H.R. 1) enlarges the Department of Health, Education and Welfare bureaucracy by federalizing all welfare programs in the nation. The Curtis bill dismantles the HEW bureaucracy by returning to the states the responsibility for determining the type of welfare programs they would have and by authorizing state-determined rules for administration of these programs.

The Nixon-Mills bill would double the number of people on welfare in the United States. Current estimates are that the welfare population would rise from 10 million to 20 million or higher. The Curtis bill envisions a marked reduction in the welfare population.

In introducing the legislation, Sen. Curtis charged that HEW has "simply blackmailed the states into ever-increasing caseloads and widening eligibility requirements." One of the coercive devices used, he said, is for HEW "to decide that welfare money was paid to a state for a period... the state was out of conformity and to so notify certain other U. S. authorities who in turn stop payments for an unrelated program in order to make a recovery." In this manner, a state can be brought to its knees. Aid for the blind, for example, can be withheld until a state bows to HEW edicts on general welfare.

The Curtis bill is an enormous improvement over the Nixon-Mills legislation. For instance, the administration-supported bill would eliminate residency requirements for welfare and similar limitations opposed by HEW. The Curtis bill would help states end welfare abuses, as Gov. Ronald Reagan has proposed in California. The Curtis bill strongly asserts congressional support for the use of residency requirements. It upholds investigations to confirm the eligibility of applicants for welfare. The bill also would insist on cooperation of welfare mothers in identifying the fathers of children receiving welfare assistance.

These and other provisions of the Curtis bill indicate that it is a constructive alternative to the Nixon-Mills family assistance plan. In all respects, it is vastly superior to the legislation that came out of the Ways and Means Committee.

Ingram Attends Yearbook Seminar

Don Ingram, Ozona High School junior, attended the 1971 Angelo State University Yearbook Seminar which was held in San Angelo last week. Ingram, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Huey Ingram, has been staff photographer for the high school yearbook the past two years, and will serve on the staff of the 1972 yearbook. Many of his photos have appeared in the pages of the Stockman.

The annual seminar is co-sponsored by the ASU Journalism Department and Newsfoto Yearbooks of San Angelo. The five-day meeting is designed in such a way that when the students complete the course, they will have their 1972 yearbooks completely designed and laid out.

There were over 90 students from 27 Texas cities and towns and other states attending the workshop on the ASU campus.

It is an important contribution to the effort of conservatives to halt the ballooning cost of welfare programs that threatens the security of working Americans. If these citizens want genuine reform of welfare laws, now is the time to speak up. Otherwise, they will get the Nixon-Mills welfare expansion plan as the law of the land.

Tips For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club By Mrs. Bailey Post

My, but how refreshing showers can change a picture of despair into one of hope that the rains will continue until every area is replenished with moisture. It takes such a short time after rain for the countryside to become green again.

Though July days are usually hot and dry, don't get too preoccupied with other projects and forget the watering of your garden, if the showers do not continue.

The first summer (1955) we spent in Ozona, July and August were almost perfect with showers when needed, and very moderate temperatures--maybe a repetition is in order after sixteen years.

Artemisia (Dusty Miller) is an old fashioned plant grown for its silvery-gray foliage. It gives a quick edging to flower beds and borders, and is an ideal contrast plant where brilliantly colored flowers bloom. If you can't find plants maybe your neighbor will root quickly in July. It should not be watered too liberally, and likes a spot in the sun.

If your spring-flowering bulbs haven't been dug and divided in the past three to five years, and clumps are thick and crowded, they'll benefit from dividing, now that the foliage is brown and dry, dig the clumps of bulbs and set them in a shady, dry spot. Leave soil on the clump. Fill in the holes with good soil. The bulbs may be too tightly joined to divide easily, but after the bulbs and soil have dried out thoroughly, they will separate easily without tearing the roots. Store bulbs in a cool dry place until planting time.

Three tips to help you get the most from your geraniums. The foremost requirement for profusely flowering geraniums is full sunshine. Second, they bloom better if kept somewhat on the dry side, over-watering causes dark spots on the foliage. Third, geraniums grow reasonably well in almost any good soil that is low in nitrogen. An excess of nitrogen in the soil causes rank foliage growth rather than developing flowers.

Watch your trees for bag-worms, for many trees over town are infested with them. Keep verbenas clipped to lengthen their blooming season. --0--

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

From Kitty's Kitchen

If you are tired of charcoaled steaks and hamburgers, try this recipe on your outdoor grill.

Luau Kabobs
1 (1-lb.) fully cooked ham steak

1 green pepper
1 can (15 1/2 oz.) pineapple chunks

3/4 cup brown sugar
6 Tbs. brown mustard
2 Tbs. soy sauce

Cut ham and green pepper in 3/4 inch squares. Drain pineapple. Alternate ham, green pepper, and pineapple chunks on skewers. Combine remaining ingredients; blend well. Brush ham kabobs thoroughly with the sauce. Cook on grill, several inches from the heat 15-20 minutes. Turn kabobs several times during cooking and baste with additional sauce. Makes 4 to 6 kabobs.

Serve on a bed of saffron rice with a tossed green salad and warm crusty bread. --0--

It's easy to become enamored of the "woods and templed hills" . . . to fall in love with the "rocks and rills" . . . to hear freedom ringing "from every mountainside." But look at the boy in our picture. See him not only silhouetted against a valley in the Great Smokies . . . see him in a Kansas cornfield . . . on a Brooklyn street. The day has long passed when America could believe that her mountains and prairies were fitting evidence of her greatness.

Even the pride of the historic Pilgrims has little impact on this atomic age. MEN—they make a nation great! And this boy is one of them . . . young . . . eager . . . ready for destiny. He's one of the free—yes! But one of the NOBLE free? That depends—on the truths we teach him . . . on the Faith we share with him . . . on the part that God, the Author of Liberty, is to have in his life.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

Last week the house approved the annual Defense Procurement bill, a $21.8 billion authorization for future research and development of defense weapons, and for guns, tanks, ships, planes, etc., needed to meet our national security needs.

IT INCLUDES $112 MILLION TO CONTINUE THE PRODUCTION OF F-111 FIGHTER-BOMBER AIRCRAFT AT THE GENERAL DYNAMICS PLANT IN FORT WORTH. THIS ITEM WAS INSERTED BY THE COMMITTEE AT MY INSTANCE, AND IS CONSIDERED HIGHLY ESSENTIAL.

DURING DEBATE I OFFERED ONE AMENDMENT, WHICH WAS ADOPTED. IT DENIES ANY FEDERAL FUNDS BEING EXPENDED AT SEATS OF HIGHER LEARNING WHERE MILITARY RECRUITERS ARE BARRED FROM COLLEGE CAMPUSES.

MUCH ADO HAS RESULTED FROM A NYTIMES PUBLICATION OF PORTIONS OF A STOLEN SECRET DEFENSE DEPARTMENT DOCUMENT, WHICH INCLUDED CLASSIFIED MATTER AND SECRET DISCUSSIONS WITH OUR ALLIES.

ALL AMERICANS AGREE THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD ALWAYS REVEAL LEGITIMATE INFORMATION WHEN IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST. AT THE SAME TIME IT IS THE OBLIGATION OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS TO CLASSIFY AND WITHHOLD ANYTHING WHICH MIGHT BE USEFUL TO OUR ENEMIES.

PROBABLY THE WORST EFFECT OF THE PUBLICATION BY THE TIMES IS THE AMMUNITION IT FEEDS TO OUR ENEMIES -- TO

distort, twist and magnify. It damages our image abroad and will probably cause foreign diplomats to be extremely reticent about secret discussions with American officials about anything in the future -- for fear it will later be published.

IN THIS INSTANCE, THE TIMES, KNOWING ITS MATERIAL WAS SECRET AND STOLEN, AND NOT BOTHERING TO CLEAR IT WITH RESPONSIBLE OFFICIALS BEFORE PUBLICATION, HAS UNDOUBTEDLY COMMITTED A GRAVE BREACH OF RESPONSIBILITY IT OWES TO THE PUBLIC INTEREST.

Officers To Keep Vigil To Cut Holiday Toll

Austin--Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today estimated that traffic accidents over the long July 4th holiday weekend will claim 48 lives in the Lone Star State.

In addition, Speir said it appears that between 6 p.m. Friday, July 2 and midnight Monday, July 5--the official holiday weekend--these same collisions could result in hundreds, perhaps a thousand or more injuries, and a monetary loss running into the millions of dollars.

The DPS director, in a special appeal, said, "We urge Texans to reduce the toll by obeying the laws of safety, driving defensively, avoiding fatigue while driving, and above all, by not drinking while driving. The ultimate solution to lessening the toll obviously lies in the hands of each driver."

Speir said as many DPS patrolmen would be on duty as possible, including some from uniformed services other than the Highway Patrol. He noted that many local law enforcement agencies will place similar special emphasis during the holiday period.

The Department of Public Safety will also conduct its "Operation Motorcade" program during the holiday which, in cooperation with local police agencies and the news media of Texas, attempts to focus public attention on accident hazards through the rapid compilation and release of information on fatal traffic mishaps during the period.

"We are hopeful," Speir said, "that all street and highway users will make the slogan 'Drive Friendly' a reality during the 4th weekend."

Crockett Fields Gain Producers

The Ozona multipay field of Crockett County gained its fourth Clearfork oil producer and a 1,200-foot southwest extension to that pay with completion of Monitor Natural Gas Co., Midland, No. 3-53 Clegg, 35 miles southwest of Ozona, for a daily flowing potential of 53 barrels of 34 gravity oil, plus four barrels of water, with gas-oil ratio of 600-1.

Production was through a 1-inch choke and perforations at 2,040-062 feet, which had been acidized with 1,000 gallons and fractured with 20,000 gallons and 51,000 pounds of sand.

Location is 2,200 feet from the north and 467 feet from the west lines of 53-Q2-D&SE.

Lower Canyon gas production was extended 1/2-mile south on the east side in the DePaul multipay field of Crockett County with completion southeast of Ozona, for a calculated absolute open flow of 540,000 cubic feet of gas per day.

Production was through perforations at 7,741-839 feet, which had been acidized with 2,000 gallons and fractured with 40,000 gallons and 152,000 pounds of sand.

Location is 1,655 feet from the south and 660 feet from the west lines of 22-KL-TCRR.
