My's Korner

by Montgomery

I watered my yard and a cloudburst. I had done it sooner. I thought about a month ago that I was fighting a battle trying to water without giving up and thought for grass again next week. It looked so bad. I turned the water on and left it on. Two little showers before the big one Saturday. When the power failed, I turned the water off. That it could rain. And it really did.

column is being done this week. Would be earlier, but the power was off for an hour after, and my typewriter was out of order.

Reason for being early was week off. By the way, I hope to be in some quiet place, no paper, no noise. Don't know where I'll find it. I'm concentrating effort.

After a week away from news would renew my spirit. I almost today when I heard attorney representing Davis (radical self-prominent and alleged) said that her case had so much publicity to it anywhere.

But Nixon's planned China is getting its publicity. I find this amusing too, when we have American boys in Vietnam by the name ammunition.

Don't read the sports about seeing big head at Cassius Clay or Al, or whatever it is. He lost the title, but he thumbed at his country for five years and the Supreme Court is in favor of the sports. How about that?

Abby even compared red, hippie types to recent article. I thousand wonders that why doesn't get a fishing get away from it all.

ellation of the Junior quite a blow to many youngsters in town. But circumstances, it is the only thing that is done. Maybe the kids in and have a fun time with Local Appreciation Week. Now of any event planned for kids, but it is late.

FIGHT ON VEE CONTINUES-- It was estimated this week that approximately 80 percent of the horses in this area had been vaccinated against Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis, the dread sleeping sickness that has almost decimated the horse population of South Texas and Northern Mexico. Crockett county horse owners have been trucking their animals to town to meet veterinarians as the vets are able to make the city in their rounds, and some are getting horses vaccinated on their own premises as the veterinarians are able to travel through the ranch country. Dr. Joe David Ross, Sonora veterinarian, is shown above vaccinating horses at the fair ground horse barn Saturday morning. It was Dr. Ross' second stand at the local fair park, and following the Saturday morning vaccinations here, he made a loop, visiting ranches in the south and southeast part of the county. He planned to be back in the area early in the week if more vaccine becomes available. He and his partner, Dr. Wayne Herrmann, have vaccinated thousands of horses in a five county area since the epidemic struck in South Texas.

LL Stars Dump Sonora, Drouth Denting Rains Meet Pecos Fri. Night Over Much of County

After pounding the Sonora All-Stars 14-4, in their first play-off game last week, the Ozona Little League All-Stars will be in Pecos tomorrow (Friday) night, trying for their second straight regional championship.

The Pecos all stars romped over Big Lake 29 to 2 in their district encounter in Big Lake Monday night.

In the 14-4 rout of Sonora, Ozona was never seriously threatened, although the Sonora Stars scored all their runs in the fourth inning.

Ozona scored one run in the first inning and eight in the second. Bobby Knox hit a 3-run homer to run up the score in the second, his first home run of the season. A three-run homer by John Galvan in the third accounted for three runs scored in that inning. The final two runs were scored in the fourth inning.

Vaden Aldridge went all the way at the mound for Ozona, allowing only two hits and striking out eight men. The starting line-up saw

Jim Tankersley relieved at second base, Steve Scott at third, David Garza, Cruz Garza and Richard Cordona in the field positions.

The winner of tomorrow night's game will represent this region of the state at the area play-offs in Lubbock next month.

Last year the Ozona Stars made it to the play-offs by virtue of wins over Sonora, Big Lake and Pecos, only to be knocked out of contention in the first game at Lubbock.

In a continuing money-raising effort, the youth group at the Ozona civic center staged Foot Man's Supper Tuesday night at the center. The fund-raising campaign is to finance a dance at the center.

Rains have followed rains in drouth-breaking fashion in Ozona and areas to the east, south and north during the past week-end and early this week. The summer showers which had teased Ozona Friday and Saturday, with 10 Friday morning, 12 Friday night, were climaxed with a torrential downpour Saturday afternoon, accompanied by heavy winds which knocked out electric power for more than an hour in parts of the town.

The Saturday afternoon downpour registered 1.68 inches at the water district office but private gauges in other parts of the city registered from 2 to 2 1/2 inches.

An almost exact repeat of the Saturday afternoon fall was a downpour Monday afternoon amounting to almost the same total fall, 1.6 inches. However, the fall was heavier north of the city than in the Saturday rain and both draws were running after the rains.

Sanching country south of Ozona received drouth-breaking rains in a heavy downpour which covered a wide range of country Sunday morning. Rainfall was reported all the way to Del Rio and east to past Sonora, on to Junction. The rains south were reported amounting to from two to three inches over most of the area. More rain fell in that area Monday afternoon, as well as over the section north and east of Ozona.

The dry area west of Ozona continued to be left out of the rains, only scattered light rainfall visiting that area, not enough to make a dent in the parched range situation.

Armistead Quits Youth Director Post At Center
Richard Armistead, youth director at the Ozona civic center announced his resignation from that position this week, to become effective August 1 or 15, depending on developing plans.

Mr. Armistead has been director of youth activities at the center for the past year and two months. Before that he was with the West Texas Utilities Company here.

Mr. Armistead has been elected to the faculty of the Lamesa Public Schools and will teach in that system beginning with the fall term. He plans to attend a special training class at East Texas State in Commerce next week. Mrs. Armistead will be in charge of activities at the center while he is away.

County & Medica Diversified Terminate Hospital Contract

The management contract with Medica Diversified to operate the hospital was terminated at a joint meeting of the Commissioners Court and Hospital Board Thursday morning at the county courthouse.

The Board's action came on a written motion presented by board member Frank McMullan, Jr., which read "I move that the management contract with Medica Diversified be terminated since the County Judge has initiated a contract termination arrangement with Medica Diversified." The motion was seconded by board member Sam Perner and carried with no dissenting votes. Judge Williams prefaced his explanation of the situation with the remark that he had "gone fishing and caught a bigger fish than he expected." He went to Eldorado, he said in a later interview, and asked Medica Diversified officials what it would cost to buy up the management contract.

At an unofficial meeting of the Commissioners Court with a representative of Medica Diversified a figure was agreed upon and in the final settlement Crockett County will pay the Eldorado based corporation a total of $8,300 in contract fees and penalties.

The Hospital Board was notified and met Wednesday night to discuss the action. After a lengthy meeting, they agreed to the termination of the contract under the above stated terms.

Although Crockett county voters had by a substantial margin approved leasing of the hospital in a referendum election last October, Judge Williams said he had initiated the move because of conflict between the local doctor and the corporation management. He said he had thanked Medica Diversified for a good job and for saving the hospital from closing, which was threatened, he said, when the contract was made.

Danny Barfield, an official of Medica Diversified, said that they accepted the termination proposal because "we faced an impossible situation wherein we could not do what we were being paid to do under the contract." Mr. Barfield praised the Hospital Board for its dedicated efforts on behalf of the hospital and wished them all good luck in their continuing efforts.

Fred Greer recently resigned as administrator of the hospital and Hospital Board Chairman Joe Couch said that negotiations are now under way with a view to finding a replacement. Couch said that every effort will be made to staff the hospital and maintain its operation in as efficient a manner as possible.

Announcements this week concerning the fall school term and pre-school activities point out the fact that students and parents must soon get back in the fall routine.

The first day of classes in all schools will begin Monday August 23. High School principal Foy Moody announced this week that registration for high school students will be held August 17, 18, and 19. The registration will include students entering high school for the first time through senior status. Specific details and times will be announced next week.

Band director Tommy Sanders announced that band practice will begin Monday August 16, at the band hall. Two a day sessions will be held until school starts the following Monday.

Aspiring Ozona High School football players are asked to be at the football field August 12, Thursday, for football physicals. The physicals will be given to all high school football players at 6:00 p.m. on this date.

Coach Rip Sewell announced that practice will begin Monday, August 16, at 7:00 a.m. Practice will be held twice daily, early morning and late afternoon, until school begins.

In spite of the fact that Coach Sewell's Lions are picked to win their district and 10th in the state in Class AA by the recently published Texas Football Magazine, he feels he will be saddled with a gigantic rebuilding program. The team lost 17 lettermen to graduation, but will have 9 returning lettermen around which to build the team.

The Lions will have two returning offensive starters, Ruben Tambunga, halfback, and Mike Jenkins, tackle. On defense there are four returning starters, Ricky Crawford, Bill Edgerton, David Sewell and Chuck Womack. Coach Sewell also has some promising material coming up from last year's junior varsity.

Sewell and assistant coaches John Richey, Jim Williams, and Bob Hinds will leave Sunday for the annual coaching school which will be held in Fort Worth this year. The school will end with the coaches all-star game Thursday night.

NEARLY READY FOR COMPANY is the new Crockett County Jail which is being constructed as an addition to the old jail. The picture above shows Sheriff Billy Mills standing in the doorway to the padded cell in the new jail complex. The steel work includes besides the padded cell for violent prisoners a drunk tank, quarters for female prisoners and the regular cell blocks for confining prisoners. The cell doors are controlled by a centrally operated electrical locking device. The old jail came to be quite 'leaky' for determined prisoners, and numerous breaks had occurred in recent months, but the steel lined interior of the new structure will no doubt foil the best of the potential jail breakers. MENTAL WARFARE ENGAGES US

When you use words to mean the opposite of what they normally stand for, your purpose must be to confuse, befuddle, frustrate or inhibit.

For example, "peace" means war. When a nation defends itself against Communist "liberators," it becomes an "aggressor."

Alas, it is not merely foreign Reds who pursue the line that any kind of attack is the best defense.

Mental warfare is the name for it. It is waged mentally and morally. It can maim as surely as bullets or shrapnel.

NATIONAL SECURITY VS. FREEDOM OF PRESS

The decision of the United States Supreme Court, 6 to 3, to permit The New York Times and the Washington Post (and thus all other papers) to print the classified Pentagon papers could be a blow to all classified documents in the Government's possession.

The Government's decision to try this case before the High Court on the grounds that peace and national security were involved, and that therefore the First Amendment of the Constitution, involving freedom of the press, should be set aside, was a fatal one.

We find it of interest that a recent opinion poll found that 47 percent of the people thought national security was more important than freedom of the press.

Jim Leech To Attend Workshop For VA Teachers

Activities and entertainment are also planned for the ladies who will accompany their husbands to the meeting.

Who's Constitutional Rights?

It is quite amazing that pundits on the air, and in public office, are keeping open a lively dialogue on the man arrested during the first Monday in May when a group announced it was going to close down the operations of the government by blocking access to the city.

Obviously, demonstrators were arrested without the formality of procedures designed to safeguard individual liberty.

There is also the thought that much of the work that goes on today in the national capital should perhaps be suspended for the welfare of the nation.

But there are also a lot of people who work in Washington in shops, in cafes, in garages, other occupations who would suffer with a loss of pay.

Now nowhere in the Constitution of these United States of America does it provide that minority groups have the right to block the free use of public thoroughfares.

There are, of course, other ways in which such a situation could be handled. Traffic moves into Washington over bridges. It would have been quite simple for the military to lead convoys across the bridges with high speed tanks which of course would either push aside or crush under the treads all who tried to stop others from

SENSING the NEWS

By Anthony Harrigan EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT Southern States Industrial Council

AN ASIAN MUNICH?

President Nixon's announcement that he will journey to Peking to meet with Red China's rulers has sent shock waves of dismay through the ranks of realists in the nation's capital.

The anger and astonishment voiced in realist circles stems from the conviction that the President's trip will do these things: 1) legitimize the aggressor regime in Peking; 2) enable the Chinese communists to forge new political and economic ties to weak Third World nations; and 3) result in the humiliation of the United States throughout the Orient.

Furthermore, if Mr. Nixon wanted to meet with the rulers of Red China, he could have offered to meet them on neutral territory -- in Geneva, Burma or elsewhere.

Realists also are dismayed that Mr. Nixon would handle such a momentous change of national policy in such a secretive manner, employing his controversial special assistant -- Dr. Henry Kissinger -- as a negotiator.

On Capitol Hill, specialists in communist affairs are wondering what secret understandings may have been reached between Dr. Kissinger and Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai.

It also is noted here that Mr. Nixon previously refused to allow Dr. Kissinger to be quizzed by congressional committees, claiming executive privilege.

Had Secretary of State William P. Rogers been sent to Peking, tradition would have required that he appear before the appropriate Senate committees to answer questions. The specialists also point out that the secret negotiations in Peking are contrary to American diplomatic tradition.

one secret meeting with a communist leader -- President Roosevelt's meeting with Dictator Stalin at Yalta -- led to betrayal of the peoples of Eastern Europe -- the peoples in the now captive nations.

Of special concern is the impact of the planned journey on the future of Japan. Only a few weeks ago, Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird urged Japan to expand its armed forces and assume a bigger share of the defense burden in Asia.

Tips For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club
By Mrs. Bailey Post

It seems that a constant reminder to water is in order during these hot weeks, though it does get rather monotonous.

Watering in summer involves more than simply keeping all plants wet. A gardener has to learn to treat each plant as the individual that it is, with its own special moisture requirements. Most plants need to dry out a bit between waterings, for this allows the air to get to the soil, but watering should never be delayed to the point that plants wilt. Also, since more water is required during the hot time of the year, this means that additional nutrients may have to be applied to replenish those leached away.

Don't crowd your plants, but planting fairly close helps with shade to protect the roots. The flower lover has to use self-restraint and grow only as many plants as can be cared for well. In the spring when planting time comes, most everyone looks forward to having beautiful blooms through the summer, without giving a thought to the usually hot, dry months.

Now is the time to check your plants and make a note of the one's that take the least care and still stay attractive. Should you decide you want a weeping willow tree in your landscape, it should be planted no closer than thirty feet to sewer lines. Their roots will enter the tiniest crevices to reach water. Large hedge plants and other trees may be troublesome also.

If your pyracantha's lose their green luster, turn bronze and drop leaves, this may be caused by tiny lace bugs. Spray thoroughly with a solution of 5% malathion emulsifiable concentrate at the rate of one tablespoon per gallon of water.

July's warm weather may cause webworms in your mimosa and other trees. Control these pests by spraying with Sevin by following directions on container.

If you want to prepare a spot for wild flowers, remember that in their native environment these plants have a mulch of leaves over their roots. They may suffer from our attempts to keep the rock and woodland gardens too clean. A few stones and other native material make a suitable habitat and picturesque setting for native plants, columbines, ferns, wild philox and others like cool soil.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

From Kitty's Kitchen

Cooking gets to be a chore around this time of year and quite often the cook is hard-pressed to think of a varied menu. The following variations of vegetable favorites might help in planning hum drum summer meals.

Green Bean Casserole
2 pkgs. frozen French style green beans
1 pkg. French-fried onion rings thawed
2 cans cream of mushroom soup

1 cup half and half
Cook beans in boiling salted water, not over 3 minutes after they come to a boil. Drain well. Alternate layers of beans and onions in a medium casserole, ending with onions on top. Stir the milk into the soup and pour over the casserole. Bake 25 minutes in a 350-degree oven. Serves 6.

Italian Green Beans
1 cup butter or margarine
1 (5 oz.) can water chestnuts, drained and sliced
2 packages frozen Italian green beans.

1 cup consommé
Melt butter in a heavy skillet, add water chestnuts and saute lightly, stirring constantly. Stir in the beans, mixing well, and keep stirring until the beans are well broken up. Add the consommé, bring to a boil, cover tightly, turn the heat low, and simmer about 5 minutes, or until the beans are tender but still crisp.

Baked New Potatoes

Scrub potatoes well with a vegetable brush, but do not peel them. Place about one pound in the center of an 18-inch square of heavy-duty foil. Add 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons of water, and one teaspoon of salt. Seal the packet well with double seams and bake one hour in a 325-degree oven. Add more melted butter before serving.

Baked Summer Squash

Peel 3 or 4 young summer

squash, slice thin, and arrange in layers in a casserole which has a tight cover (or make cover of foil). Salt and pepper each layer, dot with butter or margarine, sprinkle lightly with flour. Add 3 or 4 tablespoons of milk. Cover tightly and bake 1 hour at 350 degrees.

Taking a chance

That's a high fence for a young man to walk, but take a good look at his face, and you'll see that he's not only determined to do it, but confident that he can.

Chances are, with this attitude, he won't slip. At least, he'll have far less chance of slipping than if he approached "fence-walking" plagued by self-doubt.

Face up to your own "fence-walking." In the course of life, we all have to do quite a bit of it. Find the courage to start by listening to what your church has to say to you.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Forbidden Flowers
To the nature-loving judge, the prisoner's offense—picking flowers in a public park—was something horrendous. Counting each picked flower as a separate crime, the judge imposed a fine of $720 or six years in jail.

But when the prisoner appealed to a higher court, the sentence was thrown out. The court said it was so harsh that it violated the United States Constitution's ban on "cruel and unusual punishment."

As a rule, when we use the expression "cruel and unusual punishment," we think of physical chastisement like flogging or maiming.

However, a too-severe jail term may also be held unconstitutional on the same grounds. In recent years, courts have shown a growing concern for humanitarian considerations in the field of sentencing. As one judge put it:

"What constitutes cruel and unusual punishment is to be judged in the light of developing civilization, so that what might not have been cruel and unusual yesterday may well be so today."

Nevertheless, even the longest possible sentence—life imprisonment without possibility of parole—will be upheld where reasonably related to the crime that has been committed.

Thus, in the case of a brutal kidnapping, such a sentence was held not to violate the defendant's constitutional rights. Calling attention to the nature of the offense, the court said the sentence was "not so severe as to shock the moral sense of the community."

What about an open-end sentence, like "one to twelve years"? When that punishment was imposed on a convicted burglar, he complained that the very uncertainty was a kind of cruelty.

But the sentence was upheld on appeal, where the court pointed out that the flexibility might well work out to the prisoner's advantage by speeding his release. The court said it was merely a device, within reasonable limits, to put his fate in his own hands.

VINTAGE YEAR FOR PLYMOUTH SATELLITE

ONE OF OUR BEST YEARS.
It takes something special to come up with a Vintage Year. But that's what '71 has been for Chrysler-Plymouth. Everything—from drawing board to final assembly—has come together in great fashion. We like to think our slogan "Coming Through" had a lot to do with it, because it's more than a phrase. It's a pledge, a dedication to one purpose: To come through for you with the kind of automobiles you want, not only in style, size and price—but also in quality you can live with for years to come. A good example is Plymouth Satellite.

DESIGN IS RIGHT-ON.
Plymouth Satellite started out a new idea in intermediates, the only all-new intermediate for the year. The idea was that a 2-door and 4-door model should have different designs so that interior dimensions would not be compromised. The idea came across so well, Road Test Magazine voted it "U.S. Car of the Year."

NOW, A GREAT SELECTION COMING THROUGH FINAL CLEARANCE PRICED.
While some years are good car years, '71 has been a Vintage Year for Chrysler-Plymouth. Quality shines and shows in every line. A drive in a Plymouth or Chrysler will prove how our '71 models have come through. Check out our great selection. We think you'll find that a quality car at a final clearance price is what "Coming Through" is all about. Forus.Foryou.

Crockett Celebrates Its 80th Anniversary

Crockett County's 80th birthday will be celebrated next week with Local History Appreciation Week, sponsored by the Crockett County Historical Survey Committee.

Many activities have been planned to commemorate the county's 80th year. The livestock industry will be honored along with the oil industry. The story of ranching in the county is one of progress and development. Livestock was the industry on which the county was founded and it continues to grow. The discovery of oil in 1925 was a turning point for the easy-going ranching community, and steady production of oil and gas through the years has increased to its present all-time high.

Ozona's beautiful homes, fine public buildings and paved thoroughfares reflect benefits from the discovery of oil. The rancher has also benefited from oil money as it has helped through many dry years.

The entire week has been designated Local History Appreciation Week. There will be a display room in the shopping center for antiques and family relics. Mrs. Lindsey Hicks is in charge and will be at the building formerly occupied by Jim's Gent Shop at 8 a.m. to set up displays. Everyone is urged to contribute to the display of family treasures. Things will be carefully handled and will be returned at the end of the week exactly as they were. Mrs. Hicks will pick up and return any item anyone wishes to show which would have relevance to life in early Crockett County. The display room will be open each day from 2 p.m. until 6 p.m.

Sunday will get activities under way with churches giving some sort of history of their own during the day.

Wednesday will see a full day of old-fashioned sidewalk sales by the merchants and citizens in old-fashioned dress. An antique implement and buggy display will be held in the park.

The western jamboree, which was scheduled for Thursday night will be held Friday night, starting at 7 o'clock in the city park. Jamie Knox is in charge of the event and expects much local and area talent.

Everyone is invited to visit the museum during the week. The museum is open daily with the exception of Sunday and Monday from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m.

The week will be closed with the dedication of a historical marker for the first water well in the county, which was where the First Baptist Church now stands. The time and more details will be announced next week.
