Lions To Coleman Seeking Third Win After 63-8 Rout Of Eldorado

The Ozona Lions will travel to Coleman tomorrow, Friday, night, trying for their third straight win of the football season, after picking up a surprisingly easy win in Eldorado last Friday night. The score was 63-8 in the bench-clearing rout of the Eagles.

Coch Rip Sewell doesn't expect his fighting Lions to have it as easy tomorrow night as they did last week. The Bluecats are one of the toughest Class AA teams in the state, according to Sewell, and return most of last year's starters. The Coleman eleven won their first game with Class AAA Anson, but lost last week to a tough Brady team 13-6. They have a 199-pound fullback and Buddy Acala is back at quarterback. Acala is capable of the run or the pass.

The Lions shattered the Eldorado Eagles on the first play of the game when Gerald Huff ran the kick-off back 102 yards for paydirt. Sewell kicked the PAT and just seconds into the first quarter, the Lions led 7-0.

After exchanging punts, Mike Jenkins recovered an Eagle fumble on the punt return. The Lions drove from their own 48 yard line, but penalties kept them from the goal line and forced them to punt. Again the Eagles fumbled the punt return with Jenkins making the recovery. The Lions drove from their own 30 with Huff and Tambunga taking turns carrying the ball, and Tambunga ran it over for the second Lion score of the night. Sewell kicked the PAT.

Ozona would have scored again before the end of the quarter, but penalties interfered.

The second quarter saw more of the same. The Lions had the ball on the Eldorado 43 yard line and 2 situation, Tambunga tried for the first down but was stopped, giving Eldorado the ball on their own 43 yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, the Eagles fumbled again, Tambunga got loose for a long run, but was caught from behind before he crossed the goal line. On the next play Sewell sneaked it over for another Ozona score. The PAT was good and the Lions had a 21-0 lead.

On the kick-off it was the same song, second verse, the Eagles fumbled the ball and Ozona recovered on the Eagle 38 yard line. After a pass attempt which went awry, Tambunga carried four times in succession and scored only to have it called back on a penalty. However, he was not daunted, the next play

Burglars Enter Westerman Drug But Loss Small

Westerman Drug was broken into early Tuesday morning, but the intruder was evidently frightened off before his mission was accomplished, as the only missing item was a bottle of non-narcotic pills, according to Jimmie Lott, manager.

The break-in was reported by a driver of a wholesale grocery truck. He stopped at B & B Food Store early Tuesday morning and decided to walk down the street for a cup of coffee while waiting for the store to open.

He noticed the broken window at the back door of the store when he returned to his truck, and notified authorities. He said he felt sure the window was not broken when he first left his truck.

Nobody was inside the store when authorities arrived, and they decided that the intruder had been frightened away before he could burglarize the store. Lott said everything was in order except for the missing bottle of pills.

Lion Junior Varsity Hosts Junction Tonte

The Lion Junior Varsity will host the Junction J-V this afternoon at 7 o'clock at Lion Stadium. While the Junior High Club teams will be in Junction for a double header with the junior high there.

Last Thursday night the Cubs split a double header with Sonora here. The seventh graders lost 6-0 and the eighth graders won 12-8.

The Junior Varsity was defeated by the Sonora J-V in a game played there by a score of 22-6. Richard Gonzales scored for the Lions.

Crockett Taxpayers Will Pay Same Rate

Tax rates for the coming year were set and approved by the Commissioners Court when they met in regular session last week. The rates remain the same as last year, $3.11 on the $100 valuation. Broken down, the county tax rate is $1.25, school, $1.54, and state 32¢.

Most of the meeting was taken up in routine business, including monthly reports from boards and county departments. Jess Marley and Bill Black were appointed to secure an architect and draw up plans for an addition to the Civic Center building to enlarge the Youth Center.

Jack Wilkins was the successful bidder for the used air compressor the county had advertised for sale.

The court inspected the new addition to the jail, but because of some minor corrections which needed to be made, did not accept it at this time.

The budget for 1972 was adopted and approved.

Escapes, Burglars Apprehended In High Speed Chases Thru City

There were plenty of "cops and robbers" over the weekend in Ozona, involving local officers and two different groups of out-of-state juveniles.

The first incident came about Saturday night when

Elzie Watson To Retire After 17 Years With T-NM

Elzie L. R. Watson, who has completed 37 years of service with Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line Company, will retire October 1 at Ozona, it was announced by Mr. P. A. Lyons, Division Manager of Midland.

Mr. Watson, a native of Kaufman, attended school at Mingus. He joined Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line Co. at Jal, N. M., as a laborer.

Subsequently, he served as a pipe liner at Eunice; local engineer at Monument and Lynch, N. M.; and Wink, and District Gauger at Wink, Sundown and Imperial. He became district gauger at Ozona Dec. 19, 1960, and served in this assignment until retirement.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson have two sons and a daughter, Gary Watson of Crane, Elzie Watson of San Antonio and Mrs. Donna Pahl of Crane.

Highway Patrolman John Harris, patrolling Hwy 290 East of Ozona gave chase to a speeding car. After chasing the auto at speeds of up to 110 miles per hour, the officer let up thinking to pick up the offender as he slowed to go through Ozona. However, the car turned at the courthouse annex, sped north on Ave. D, literally flying over the hill, turned onto First Street, made another sharp turn at Ave. G and crashed into an embankment at 204 Ave. G. Two subjects, both male, jumped from the wrecked car and ran off on foot. The sheriff's department was notified and roadblocks were put up on all roads leading out of Ozona. A short time later the two were apprehended at one of the blocks driving a car stolen from Mrs. Billy Welch at 402 Ave. G.

Investigation revealed that the two, 16 and 17, were wanted in Gulfport, Miss. for car theft. They were also filed on for car theft here, but Sheriff Billy Mills said they would probably be turned over to Gulfport officers on the earlier charge.

Roadblocks were put out again Sunday morning when Hillery Phillips, Jr., drove up to his parents home at 1201 Ave. E and discovered four juveniles ransacking the place. One of the boys, spotting Phillips managed to get to their car and sound an alarm by honking the horn and the four got away. Phillips gave chase and after chasing the quartet as far as the Pandale Road at speeds in excess of 90 miles an hour, he came back to town and gave a description of the car and the boys to the sheriff's department.

They were picked up by the Rankin sheriff at a roadblock near that city. The four had escaped from a juvenile

General Rains Greet Season's First Norther

The first norther of the season slipped into the area late Friday night, setting off rain showers and dropping the temperatures to an uncomfortable low of 39 early Monday morning.

Ozonans awoke Saturday morning to find cool weather and rain had made an appearance during the night. Slow rain fell intermittently through the day and made an encore Sunday, leaving 1.18 inches of moisture in the city and up to 2 inches elsewhere in the county. Reports of up to 2 1/2 inches of rain came in from the extreme south and southwestern edges of the county.

Skies cleared during the night Sunday and Monday saw blue skies and sunshine as daylight arrived, with a warming trend during the day.

Oscar Kost Is Presented Award For Citizenship

Oscar Kost, local businessman, was honored Thursday at the regular noon meeting of the Ozona Lions Club.

Bill Watson, past president of the local club and Zone Chairman of Lions International, presented Kost with a bronze plaque inscribed with the following words: "In appreciation for his unlimited time and devoted services in Civic and Community Activities over the past years."

Listing a few of the many services given to the community by Mr. Kost, Watson mentioned the many years he has furnished the sound system for all public gatherings.

Mr. Kost was also cited for his many years of maintenance on the football scoreboard and for announcing the home games up until the past few years.

He was also active in forming the Chamber of Commerce in Ozona, is a charter member and was the first president.

Mr. Kost was chairman of the Highway Committee before the Chamber of Commerce was formed, and led in getting Farm to Market roads for the county and state highways built and in good repair all these years.

He was ramrod for most of the rodeos ever held in Ozona; is treasurer of the Roping Club and Horse Show and has been for many years, and has donated trophies and buckles for 4-H shows and similar events.

He was an organizer of the Christmas Decoration committee which was responsible for the new and modern decorations seen during the holidays in downtown Ozona.

TIME TO EXPOSE REFLEX LIBERALISM

Conditioned liberals, who react to the merest tinkle of Pavlov's bell, need exposure in the worst sort of way. Up to now they have had it nearly all their way.

If they uttered the word "patriot," their bearded and long-haired followers would laugh in ridicule. If they said "Communist," a great chorus of "McCarthyism!" would make the welkin ring. This would be followed by echoes: "Imperialist! Wormonger! Xenophobe! Reactionary! Fink! Redbaiter!"

Some of these intellectuals and pseudo-intellectuals are pushing the line that nationalism and patriotism are old hat. They seek a coalition with Communists, thereby suppressing the great differences between honest progressives and totalitarian gangsters. To make the coalition work they would expunge such words as "patriot" that make America great because such terms stand for strength, integrity, freedom, order under law, the right to own land and other property, and the duty to protect those rights.

The reflex liberals take a position above the battle. They advocate no-win wars, along with unilateral disarmament to the point of defenselessness. The trouble with such a doctrine is that the Soviets and the Red Chinese would simply wait until the United States was naked — like a plucked chicken ready for the knife. It is high time to expose the sophomoric and dangerous shallowness of the liberal approach to domestic and foreign affairs.

NEEDED: A CUTOFF

SENSING the NEWS

By Anthony Harrigan
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT
Southern States Industrial Council

The United States is fast becoming two nations. One nation consists of productive citizens, taxpayers, and workers. The "other America" is made up of non-productive types, welfare and food stamp recipients, consumers of goods and services paid for by other people. The tax laws of the nation, states and local communities are being re-written to supply the wants and meet the demand of the drone population. The process has to be changed, the political atmosphere has to be transformed, or the United States will be destroyed from within by the parasitic elements in the body politic.

judging by the actions of the Executive Branch, the Congress, state legislatures and local governments, the rights and interests of the producing majority of Americans receive scanty attention from office-holders. The majority of government officials at all levels increasingly cater to the wishes and the whims of the noisy, organized drones.

If a property-owner complains of a sharp increase in his assessment, he is likely to receive cool treatment at the hands of the local bureaucracy. Some officials even will manage to convey the notion to the property owner that owning more than one house and one lot is a social crime that will not be permitted in future.

On the other hand, food stamp recipients have only to complain that they have to stand in line for their handouts, and the politicians and welfare agency officials hasten to accommodate the drones, providing them with larger and more comfortable quarters and faster service -- all at taxpayer expense.

The Founding Fathers of America wouldn't have understood such a situation. They assumed that each man, each family, would stand on its own feet and practice self-reliance. They didn't envision the possibility of an arrogant proletariat that would dominate the political process. Even today, visitors to our shores from lands where hard work and self-reliance are a way of life are shocked and astounded by the influence and power-hunger of the dependent elements.

It is extremely unlikely that the United States can continue in this manner and retain its freedom and strength. One of the principal reasons the U. S. is in economic trouble today is that productive citizens are saddled with a huge welfare population.

New York City is a frightening example of what's happening in the country. This city of seven million now has one million people on the welfare rolls. Half of these people were enrolled during the liberal City Hall regime of John Lindsay, who now aspires to be President of the United States. It is no wonder, therefore, that productive middle class Americans have fled the metropolis and that many businesses are doing the same thing.

But flight from the giant, welfare-ridden cities isn't the answer to the overall problem. The welfare constituency is growing in every area. Laws enacted during the Johnson administration have conferred the vote on the drones and on anyone with the equivalent of a sixth grade education. The taxes become increasingly unjust. The burdens imposed on the property-owning, productive middle class are heavier and heavier.

Some productive citizens despair of a solution. They see a grim "wave of the future" in cities where minority-liberal coalitions capture city hall and conduct continuing tax raids on responsible, self-reliant citizens. They fear a new socio-economic reconstruction that will deprive skilled, white collar and blue-collar taxpaying Americans of the controlling voice in the affairs of their community.

Theologians regard despair as a sin. No doubt, in our constitutional system, despair is a prelude to social and economic collapse -- and thus must be avoided. The American middle class, I'm sure, can recover the authority they have lost to the drones in our society. But the issue must be very sharply defined for the majority of working, taxpaying citizens. They must establish their own counter-coalitions of responsible citizens that transcend partisan lines and overcome the radical coalitions dedicated to victimizing working people.

The people who maintain our society through hard work, self reliance and civic-mindedness can triumph politically over the drone elements and the politicians who use them. But effort and organization are needed now. The hour is late.

Mrs. E. C. Alford recently returned from a visit with her brother, Spot Friend, and his family, just out of Boerne.

Deer Herds By Game Dept.

Thousands of hunters are expected to tie up loose deer season on to land-able property, as Parks and Game Dept. officials say. The result is that deer herds will probably be in better shape than in years past. The Game Dept. will probably be in better shape than in years past. The Game Dept. will probably be in better shape than in years past.

allow 20 hunters on his land, charging $150 per gun. This netted him $3,000 per year. Then he decided to take a more business like approach. He inventoried his resources and found that he not only had deer, but also quail, squirrels, turkey and some wild hogs. He was also fortunate to have an air strip and a few adequate living quarters for those who might come to the ranch to hunt. He figured that he could harvest 57 deer per year, or 25 percent of his herd, without hurting the breeding potential. So he advertised in many of Texas' major daily newspapers for hunters, offering lodging, meals, guides, on-site transportation and the air strip, all for $200 per week. By the end of the next season, he had grossed $24,000 and netted $12,000. With a little imagination and hustle, other landowners can also take advantage of this renewable resource, wildlife, and everyone concerned including the wildlife will benefit, according to department officials.

Judge Bean's Law Enforcement Tools Made a Part Of Display At Langtry

Langtry -- Judge Roy Bean, the "Law West of the Pecos," was likely to handcuff prisoners to a handy tree till he could get around to a trial on his front porch. He reeled off decisions with the aid of a solitary law book, and backed 'em up with a six-shooter on the table beside him. Then to make it official, he made liberal use of his prized notary seal. The old judge is long gone, along with the frontier South-west he so colorfully represented. But his pistol, handcuffs, book and notary seal are now on display at the Texas Highway Department's Judge Roy Bean Visitor Center at Langtry. The historic items, in private hands since Bean's death, are feature additions at the site where a slice of the old West is preserved in authentic detail. The relics are on view in a special case protected by an electronic security system. Roy Bean wouldn't believe it. The weathered old "Jersey Lilly," his saloon-courtyard-billiard hall, is just like he left it. The State Legislature, in 1939, named it a historic site and directed the Highway Department to preserve it for tourists. Next door is the department's modern, air-conditioned Visitor Center. Inside the judge would find himself the star of half dozen dioramas, each with a special recorded program. With his eye for the ladies, he'd surely go for the pretty travel counselors who are always on duty, especially since their favorite subject is the same as his: Roy Bean. And there, rigged up like the crown jewels -- his pistol, handcuffs, law book, and notary seal. The cactus garden outside would surely perplex the old judge. Neat paths lead to hundreds of cacti, yucca, and other Southwestern plants, each with a label of names and facts. Why in tarnation such bother for those pesky, thorny things? But it's not likely that Judge Roy Bean's ghost will be roaming the Visitor Center. There's one thing about it he just couldn't abide. It's all free. Imagine folks dropping in every day of the week -- from all over Texas, California, and even Canada -- but not a nickel to be made. "Thunderation!" Course, he'd probably be pleased that some old friends remember him. They're heirs of W. H. Dodd, a compadre of Bean's from the old days, and they made the Bean relics available to the Highway Department. Among them are Mrs. Pearl Dodd Nicholson of Langtry; Cross Dodd and Mrs. Mary Hall Uzzell, both of Austin; Mrs. Dorothy Hall Frazee of Dixon, Ill.; and Mrs. Billie Hall Carey of La Crescenta, Calif. Roy Bean says thank'ee. -- 0 -- Pfc. Joe Bob Stephens left Wednesday for a year's tour of duty in Korea with the U. S. Army. His wife, Sandra, will remain here with her mother, Mrs. Billy Welch.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

By Congressman O. C. Fisher
President Nixon's second major speech to Congress this year was well received. While in the main it dealt in generalities, the President's address last week covered a good many of the problems which plague the nation. It was replete with inspiration and hope -- as all good State-of-the-Union messages are supposed to be. The response was rather overwhelming. The 60-day temporary wage-price freeze will not be extended; but other inflation control actions are to be imposed -- the details of which remain to be revealed, following a high-level conference of industry-labor-agriculture-government spokesmen. President Nixon's tax relief proposals, designed to stimulate plant expansions, business activity, and employment, appears likely to receive prompt approval by Congress. Mr. Nixon received the greatest and longest applause when he referred to American generosity abroad, including $150-billion in foreign aid, then added: "but the time has also come to give new attention to America's own interests." This would seem to mean less foreign aid and more restraint on excessive imports. The fact is that extremely high wage levels have priced many American commodities out of competition with low cost foreign production, and this has created something of a crisis. What is needed more than anything is a drastic cut in federal spending. The deficit may run as high as $30-billion this year, much of it due to mounting costs of Great Society welfare and other expensive programs. Thus far this Administration has done little to curb this spending trend. We all know that uncontrolled extravagance can wreck a business or a household, and it is dangerously close to wrecking the financial stability of the nation. Hokit said that mail previously routed to Barnhart, Big Lake, Texon and Best at 7 a.m. will now be dispatched at 4:30 p.m., making the same connections as it did previously if it is mailed by 4:15 p.m. Zip coded air mail can be delivered with 95% guarantee of delivery the following day within a 600 mile radius if mailed by local cut-off time. Zip coded first class mail to towns in five sectional centers in Texas are now being given next day delivery, according to Hokit. The towns are San Angelo, Brownwood, Stephenville, Abilene and

...nee Miss Nannette Bailey

Miss Nannette Bailey Bride Of David Scott

Miss Nannette Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bailey, became the bride of David Wyatt Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott of Coleman, in a ceremony Saturday afternoon, Sept. 12, in the Ozona United Methodist Church with Rev. John Berkley, pastor, officiating.

Grandparents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Bailey of San Angelo and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Grimmer of Winfield, Iowa. Her great grandmother is Mrs. John W. Bailey of Ozona. All were present at the wedding.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal Victorian gown of candlelight silk organza with a fitted bodice of Venice lace.

Appliques of the Venice lace formed the trim on the bishop sleeves and detachable train. She wore a long, tiered veil attached with a bandeau of the lace encrusted with pearls. Her petticoat was made from the flounce of her grandmother's, Mrs. Grimmer's, high school graduation dress. Her jewelry was pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom, and a blue star sapphire and diamond ring, belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Charles E. Davidson, Jr. She carried a handkerchief, a gift from her grandmother, Mrs. Bailey.

Silly Bailey served her sister as maid of honor and Mrs. Randy Upham, cousin of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Janet Brotherton of Comstock and Miss Brenda Priest of Mason.

The attendants wore formal empire gowns of emerald green velvet and carried colonial bouquets of bronze mums.

Ben Scott of Coleman served his brother as best man.

Groomsmen and ushers were Jim Bob Bailey, brother of the bride; Butch Moore of Canyon, Tommy Hogue of Brownfield, Mike Harper of Del Rio, and Gary Smith of San Angelo.

Flower girl was Shawnica Kells of Arlington, and candelights were Cliff McMullan and Terry Kells of Arlington. Mrs. L. B. Cox III, organist, furnished the wedding music.

Candelabra entwined with lemon leaves flanked the altar which held a bouquet of white mums. Brass urns, holding bouquets of large white mums, were used on either side of the altar.

A reception followed the wedding in the fellowship hall of the church.

After a brief wedding trip, the couple will be at home in San Angelo where they are students at Angelo State University.

The bride is a graduate of Ozona High School and her husband is a graduate of Coleman High School. Both are junior students at Angelo State.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Ozona Country Club Friday night.

Houseparty members were Mmes Charles Black, Jr., Lindsey Hicks, John Childress, Frank McMullan, Jr., Chas. E. Davidson III, John R. Hunnicutt, Roy Coates, Joe B. Logan, Tom Mitchell, Joe Bean, James Childress, Hillery Phillips, Jr., Pleas Childress, Jr., J. W. Lee Trevino

The Okinawa Chamber of Commerce championship (as a Marine in '59) wasn't Lee's biggest title, but it was his first. Since then, you count 'em: Golf Rookie of the Year, 1967; U. S. Open (twice); British, Canadian, Hawaiian, Texas (his home state) twice; and many others, including the 1969 World Cup Sportsman, citizen, and friend of the Newspaperboy.

"FOLLOW-THROUGH--"

says Lee Trevino--

"IS WHAT MAKES A BOY A GOOD NEWSPAPERBOY"

Lee Trevino thinks like a golfer. And why not? This year he made history by winning three national titles (U. S., Canadian, and British) within a span of three weeks. So when asked about Newspaperboy Day, he had this comment on what makes a newspaperboy tick:

"He follows through. He takes care of his customers. Never mind the season or the weather, your newspaperboy knows you count on him--so he's always there with your paper. Follow-through is what wins golf tournaments--and it's also what wins respect for these young men that serve us so well. I take off my cap to them."

Service, dependability, responsibility--these are all attributes of the successful newspaperboy. And you can add another word too: "thriftiness." Like their parents and many other Americans, thousands of newspaperboys save part of their earnings in U. S. Savings Bonds, in preparation for college or other financial needs of the future.

Buying Bonds is just another example of their all-round good citizenship, another reason for the nation to be proud of its newspaper carriers. Like Lee Trevino's cap, Uncle Sam's hat is off to these young businessmen on the occasion of their annual day in the spotlight--Newspaperboy Day 1971.

Cadillac '72

One great car after another.

Sedan deVille, more luxurious than ever. There's every reason to believe that Sedan deVille will continue to be the luxury car model enjoyed by more motorists than all others. It has the look of luxury--from its distinctive new grille to the new jewel-like interior metal surfaces. It has the feel of luxury--with even more comfortable seating. It has more of what adds up to lasting value. Like Cadillac's new bumper system for increased front-end protection. Sedan deVille--more than ever the popular choice.

Eldorado, even more distinctive for '72. There's the incomparable Eldorado Coupe and the stunning new Eldorado Convertible, the only luxury convertible built in America. They are even more elegant, even more exciting. Some things we don't count on. Such as the 8.2 litre V-8, the world's largest production passenger car engine. The precise handling of front-wheel drive and variable-ratio power steering. The Eldorados of 1972 are, more than ever, the world's most elegant products.

Out of a 70-year tradition of excellence come nine great Cadillacs for 1972. In addition to the models above, there are the magnificent Fleetwood Sixty Special Brougham... the youthful new Coupe deVille... the new Calais Sedan and Coupe... and the most aristocratic of automobiles, the new Fleetwood Seventy-Five nine-passenger Sedan. Finally, there's the Seventy-Five limousine, the only limousine built in America specifically designed as a limousine. Cadillac '72 is one great car after another. Because Cadillac does not reject the past, but builds on it carefully. With Fleetwood coachcraft by Fisher. With styling continuity and contemporary flair that tells you at a glance that this is Cadillac. See for yourself at your authorized Cadillac dealer. The Standard of the World still stands alone.

By Vern Sanford

Caddo Lake was created by an earthquake in 1811. For almost 160 years it lay practically unchanged under a blanket of water hyacinths. Today the entire area is an unspoiled wilderness. Its 50,000 water acres sprawl across the Texas-Louisiana boundary in a network of bays, ponds, and twisting sloughs. Formerly the home of the Caddo Indians, the Caddo area was a great swamp of stagnant pools and heavily wooded islands. It was explored by the early-day Spaniards on their westward push. However, they made little use of their find, and the swamp remained as it was for many years.

Then came the New Madrid earthquake! For days it shook the southern states in a series of violent tremors. Finally the floor of Caddo Swamp sank from sight.

When the roiling water finally settled, the present Caddo Lake was formed. It's a twin sister to Tennessee's Reelfoot Lake, born of the same tremors.

Thanks to modern improvements, travelers now can explore this mysterious swamp-land with little discomfort.

Caddo Lake is approached and partially surrounded by a number of fine highways. It's only 16 miles from Marshall and 27 miles from Shreveport. On the lake shore are more than 50 camps and motor courts capable of caring for at least a thousand guests. These places range from modest "rough-it" camps to comfortable motels.

With an average mean temperature of 66 degrees, Caddo Lake compares favorably with any vacation spot. Spring is the best season to visit Caddo. Then the water hyacinths cover the lake with a pale-violet blanket, and water lilies spread their petals between yard-wide pads.

Cypress trees, Spanish moss, and picturesque boat roads form a beautiful backdrop for the recreation you will find on this unusual lake. Almost from the moment your boat leaves camp the swamp closes in on you. Twisting through the acres of purple blooms, over winding boat roads, you pass under great cypress trees, gray with Spanish moss. As your boat slides through the narrow passes to reach quiet, bass-filled pools a big alligator occasionally may be seen, sunning himself on some remote mud bank, or cruising open water searching for food.

Here the vacationist will enjoy some of the best freshwater fishing in America. Chain pickerel are active from November to March; largemouth and white bass in the spring and early summer; and white crappie, bream, and catfish the year around. So, no matter what season of the year you visit Caddo, you will find good fishing of some sort.

Furthermore, there are no restrictive laws on game fish seasons in either Texas or Louisiana.

One of Caddo's most sought after fishing has been the alligator gar. This battling monster, often reaching 7 feet in length, has aptly been called the "freshwater tarpon." He is a real tackle-buster and will give even the rugged sportsmen a lively scrap.

Although easy to reach, and requiring no great physical exertion to explore, Caddo Lake is no place for a stranger to navigate without a competent guide. This because of its many sloughs and "passes."

For the most part Caddo guides are picturesque. Most of them were born to the traditions of the lake. They know where to find the best fishing and hunting spots. And they will take you there for a reasonable fee.

Fishing predominates but there is lots of hunting, in season, on and around Caddo. Since the lake is situated near the Mississippi, flyway sportsmen from all over the country arrive in the fall to enjoy Caddo duck hunting.

Government statistics show that Caddo Lake has one of the largest sustained duck populations of any body of water its size. Mallard, teal, and black ducks are plentiful, with many flights of the beautiful wood ducks.

Deer roam the swamp and there is an abundance of squirrels and coons. Quail too are found in the cultivated areas.

For anyone craving a quiet vacation, in a place not entirely spoiled by commercialism, yet offering comfortable accommodations, Caddo Lake is hard to beat.

Visiting Hours

MORNINGS - 11:00 Until 12:00
AFTERNOONS - 2:00 Until 3:00

It is a beautiful afternoon, and Ken and Monica might have gone for a ride in the country. But they've come to the hospital to visit a classmate.

It isn't always a "fun" thing to visit someone in the hospital, to call on an elderly aunt, or to take a gift to a shut-in. But usually you feel better when you do.

This is a "hurry up" world we're living in. We tell ourselves that there isn't time for the little kindnesses. There isn't time for a lot of things — like, maybe, going to church.

Who are we kidding? Ourselves, perhaps?

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Easy Baked Chicken
3 broiler-fryers, split
2 cups finely crushed pretzels (crush in blender)
1 teas. paprika
1/4 teas. pepper
1/2 teas. oregano leaves
1/2 teas. poultry seasoning
2/3 cup margarine, melted
Wash chickens and pat dry. Mix remaining ingredients except margarine. Line a shallow baking dish with foil and brush generously with margarine. Brush chicken on both sides with mixture and dip in crumb mixture. Place on baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350°) 1 hour or until chicken is tender. Makes six servings.

When I use this recipe, I leave the oregano out. We do not care for the flavor and the poultry seasoning gives enough spice to the dish. You may also decrease or increase the number of chickens you cook by making less or more of the crumb mixture and melted margarine.

Fisher Urges Excise Tax Cut Apply To Trucks

Wash., D.C. - Rep. O. C. Fisher has urged the House Committee on Ways and Means to apply 7% excise tax repeal to pickup trucks as well as automobiles.

The President's recommendation does not include pickups, which is treated as a commercial vehicle.

In a letter to Chairman Wilbur Mills, Congressman Fisher insisted that ordinary pickups are used for utility purposes, including passenger purposes as well as for farm and ranch use.

The House Ways and Means Committee is expected to act soon on President Nixon's tax proposals.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS AS HEARD BY HEARD

Who Protects the Consumer?

It is currently fashionable to get all worked up and in a lather over the plight of the consumer, which of course, is practically everybody.

It is said there are more than 500 bills in the Congressional hopper all with the intent and purpose, so it is claimed, of protecting the consumer.

While it is not the intent at this time to make a case for the premise that this concern for consumerism is a Trojan horse tactic to further increase the socialization of the American economy, there are some interesting facets.

Government permissiveness in permitting a handful of people to tie up the nation's transportation is a case in point.

Consumers depend on transportation to bring them the foods they need to eat, and the fuels to keep warm.

And of course, if the farmer is hit with a shutdown of transportation to move his crops to market as they ripen, he is faced with disaster.

There have been bills before the Congress to outlaw strikes that have such a heavy impact on the national economy. They have the support of the nation's independent business people voting through the National Federation of Independent Business.

Yet strangely enough, nothing has been accomplished along this line.

Pfc. Milton Ketchum, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Ketchum III, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Alford recently arrived in Saigon, Viet Nam, for a year's tour of duty.

Mrs. James Dockery returned to her home here Friday after being treated for a back ailment for two weeks in the Big Lake Hospital. She will be at home for several days before returning to work.

These paralyzing strikes go on until finally they are ended; usually with a settlement that increases costs substantially.

The labor leaders then proclaim they have won a great victory against the bosses.

What they really win is a victory against the consumers, who in the long run pay the additional costs.

It seems quite apparent that the consumers cannot rely on their elected representatives to protect their interests.

Thus, if the many consumer groups in the nation are sincere about their consumerism movement, they should perhaps insist that when labor bargaining goes on that will affect consumers, there should be represented the nation's consumers. This representation should not be by would-be bureaucrats, former TV performers, or similar.

Rather, such representation should be composed of those actively trying to feed, clothe and house a family. They are in a much better position to determine how much more they can pay for the necessities.

In addition, such a panel at the bargaining table would perhaps be much more articulate than mediators from the Department of Labor.

There is no doubt that hard-pressed housewives with a family to feed would rush in where politicians fear to tread.

Review Laws On Unemployment At Angelo Seminar

Heavy response has led to a new larger location for the San Angelo area seminar for employers, explaining the 1972 changes in the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act. Employers who work one or more employees for as much as 20 weeks in a calendar year become subject to the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act January 1, 1972. The seminar is being sponsored by the San Angelo Board of City Development for area employers.

It was originally to be held in the St. Angelus Room of the Central National Bank, but as more room was necessary, the site has been changed to the Wood Fellowship Hall of the First Presbyterian Church at the Corner of College and Irving Streets. The time remains the same, 9:00 a.m. Sept. 28.

For the convenience of Ozona employers who plan to attend the seminar, registration cards may be obtained from the Chamber of Commerce office.

1972 Chevrolet. Building a better way to see the U.S.A.

We want your new Chevrolet to be the best car you ever owned.

The best. No qualifications. No reservations. We want it to be the most beautiful, most trouble-free, most comfortable car you ever owned.

So we've given the 1972 Caprice (above) power steering, power front disc brakes, refined power ventilation and an improved front bumper to provide added front-end protection.

Plus a 400-cubic-inch V8 engine and Turbo Hydra-matic automatic transmission.

Altogether, a lot of diversity. So there's bound to be a Chevrolet just right for you, your family, your budget and your kind of driving.

Whatever your choice, we want your new Chevrolet to be the best car you ever owned. No less.

Tips For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club By Mrs. Bailey Post

The weekend rains were certainly welcome after the hot dry days of last week. They should do much to keep the hills green and the vegetation maturing until frost. Also, the atmosphere is greatly improved. The first norther along with rain seems to put everyone in a better mood. With a few more weekend rains, the fall outlook for rangelands and gardens should be better than ever.

more rain will fall soon to keep vegetation growing and maturing until frost comes.

House plants should now be prepared for winter. Examine those that have been indoors all summer and pick off all dead leaves. If the surface of the soil is packed and hard, scrape a little away and replace with a rich soil mixture. Sponge the leaves to remove grime and insects. Examine the plant's closely for scale, insects, mealy bugs and other pests. If any are present, take steps to eradicate them. It is helpful to wash the plants thoroughly with a forceful stream of water that reaches all parts, including the under surface of the leaves, provided care is taken not to break the foliage. Sponging with a good insecticide or spraying with one is also effective. Plants brought in from outdoors should be given the same treatment. Try to give each plant the condition of light and temperature best suited to its kind.

It isn't a day too early to begin preparing bulb beds. Daffodils, hyacinths and tulips like other bulbs, prefer to be set into soil that has been prepared well in advance. Try to situate your tulip bed in partial or full shade. The bulbs will perform better, the stems will be longer, the flowers larger, and the flowers will remain in bloom much longer than those planted in full sunlight.

Don't forget to feed your roses the last of the month or early September. Water well afterward and keep watered if it doesn't rain, to have fine fall roses.

Also keep mums watered while buds form.

Football—

The Eagles finally held on to the ball long enough to get their first first down of the game about midway into the second quarter, but to no avail. After quarterback Nixon ran for the first down, he was thrown for heavy losses by the Lions and was forced to punt from his own 48 yard line. Tambunga returned the ball to the Lion 15 yard line and the reserves took over.

Reserve quarterback Monty Pelto went to the air and hit Pete Maldonado for 35 yards and Eagle territory. Tim Evans picked up a first for the Lions on the Eldorado 15, but three plays and a 15 yard penalty later the Lions were faced with a fourth and 9 situation, so Sewell went back in and made good a 30-yard field goal.

Shortly after Eldorado got the ball, they gave it back to the Lions. Sewell intercepted a Nixon pass and in spite of a penalty against the Lions, they found themselves with a first and 10 on the Eagle 29 yard line. Pelto hit Steve Wilkins with the bomb in the end zone for the Lions' first airmail touchdown of the night. Sewell kicked the point and at halftime the Lions held a 38-0 lead.

The second half was almost a replay of the first. The Eagles received the ball and after three downs were forced to punt. Not to be outdone, Tambunga took the ball this time and raced 82 yards for the score. Sewell kicked the PAT.

The Eagles continued to fumble and got two more passes intercepted. The Lions made the most of it with three scores coming in the last quarter for the Lions and the Eagles managed to score, and a Nixon pass for the extra two points was good.

Scoring in the final period for Ozona was Cheo Vargas from 7 yards out, Over Payne on a pass from Pelto, and Tim Evans on a 22 yard run.

Statistics vary with the score keeper and space does not permit a complete rundown, but the Lions racked up close to 1,000 yards, counting plays from scrimmage, punt returns, kick returns, and passing. The Lion defense was too busy re-

They, also, are in Crockett County jail awaiting further action. Evidently they were interrupted just as they entered the house. The only item from the house found with the boys was a monogrammed towel and Mrs. Phillips found nothing missing after an inventory.
