Five Screwworm Cases Pop Up In County

Five cases of screwworms popped up in the county last week reports county agent Pete Jacoby. Only three cases had been reported earlier in the year prior to last week's outbreak.

Reporting two cases each were the Bill Savell Ranch south of Ozona and the Field's Ranch Co., northwest of Ozona, with one case located on the Jack Williams ranch west of Ozona.

While primarily confined to several counties in the lower Valley of Texas most of the summer, screwworm cases have been popping up all over the West Texas area the past two weeks.

Ranchmen should be on the alert and check their livestock closely for screwworm cases. All surgical work on livestock should be postponed until after cold weather sets in. All suspected cases should be collected and mailed to Mission.

OZONA FOOTBALL FANS ARE ON THEIR FEET as the Lions beat Big Lake Friday night 15-14 in one of the season's biggest upsets. Up until Friday, the Owls were untied and unbeaten in season play, and were ranked as high as second in state by some schoolboy football polls. Excitement reigned on the Ozona side as the Lions pulled ahead in the early moments of the game and held on for the victory. Although the stands were packed, there were vacant seats all over as fans stood throughout the game to cheer the Lions.

Miss Powell Speaks To Historical Society

Monday evening the Crockett County Historical Society met for its regular quarterly meeting in the Auditorium-CO-Hiseum. Mrs. Pleas Childress, president, greeted members and guests which included Mrs. George Bean, Mrs. H. B. Tandy and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Schwabe of Stanton, Texas. In a brief business meeting, Mrs. Ira Carson, Ozona Book Fund Chairman, presented a check for $1,072.66 to the Permanent Museum Fund to be placed in savings for future improvements. This check represents the final amount in the fund and Mrs. Carson stated that only thirty books remain to be sold at the Museum. She expressed appreciation to all who have cooperated in the project which began during the Ozona Diamond Jubilee Celebration, especially to Mr. John Held and the Hi-Way Cafe who sold a total of 304 books.

Mrs. Childress appointed a Nominating Committee composed of Mrs. C. O. Walker, Mrs. Brock Jones and Mrs. Eddie Friend Arnold which will report at the Annual Meeting in January, 1974.

Ted M. White, vice president, introduced Miss Leta Powell, Crockett County Clerk who gave a most informative program concerning Crockett County from 1929 to 1954. She also gave a brief history of her family who had migrated from North Carolina to Tennessee to Mississippi and finally to Texas. The family moved to Ozona in Jan. 1919. She gave many interesting facts taken from Court Records which told of civic progress in the county--paving, lighting, sewerage, water, property valuations, rationing, hospital, Cemetery Association, the Ozona Community Center--it was a story of many dedicated public servants who served for many years at small pittance in order to help make their community a better place for all who chose to live here. She expressed deep appreciation for Judge Davidson and George Russell and their contributions to the county. Miss Powell took office as County Clerk on January 1, 1955 following the death of George Russell in Ozona's tragic flood. Crockett County owes Miss Powell its gratitude for her many years of efficient and faithful service--she serves every citizen with equal consideration.

The program was recorded by W. D. Cooper and Mr. White. Because noise from the adjoining Youth Center interfered greatly with this meeting and its recording, Mrs. Childress appointed a committee composed of C. O. Walker, P. L. Childress and Rev. John (CONTINUED ON LAST PAGE)

Frank Rivera Victim Of Auto Crash

Frankie Rivera, 19, was killed late Wednesday afternoon in a one-vehicle roll-over 12.9 miles east of Ozona on the service road of IS 10. He was dead on arrival at Dr. Don Carlisle's office in Ozona at 6:40 p.m.

Rivera was driving the vehicle with four companions, all were uninjured. He apparently lost control as the car was traveling toward Ozona and went off the road on the right, veered back to the road and back off to the right, hitting a culvert abutment and overturning twice before coming to rest on its wheels. The wreck was investigated by Highway Patrolman Bobby Papan.

Funeral services for Rivera were held Saturday at 4 p.m. in the Church of Christ with burial in Lima Cemetery. He was born in Del Rio October 13, 1954 and attended Ozona schools.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Celia Rivera of Ozona; his father, Sam Rivera of San Angelo; three brothers, Sam Rivera, Jr., Ezekiel Rivera, and Darryl Rivera, all of Ozona; three sisters, Belia Rodriguez, Jeanie Rivera, Sally Ann Rivera and Mrs. Ponceno Rivera, all of Ozona; and his grandmother, Mrs. Tibulcia Ramirez of Ozona.

Lions Pull Off Upset Of Year, By Ripping Off Big Lake 15-14

The stout-hearted Ozona Lions pulled off the upset of the season Friday night by downing the highly touted Big Lake Owls 15-14 in a hard fought battle which saw the Lions outplaying the Owls throughout the game.

This week it will be the Lions looking toward the 7-AA district crown when they host the Coahoma Bulldogs. A win over the Bulldogs would surely place the Lions squarely in the driver's seat and well on their way to a district title.

The Lion defense has been strong all year and it came as no surprise to Ozona fans when they stifled the Owl's offensive attack throughout the game Friday night. However, the Lion offense was another thing, and they really came of age during the Lion-Owl battle, out-rushing the Owls 206 to 122 and racking up 13 first downs to the Owl's 6.

After holding the Owls on the opening set of downs, the Lions took the ball on their first possession and drove down-field for the opening score. Oliver Payne hit paydirt from three yards out to put the Lions on the scoreboard. Lesley Russell toed the ball through the uprights for the extra point and it was 7-0 in favor of the Lions. After an exchange of downs the Lions took advantage of an Owl fumble on their own 15-yard-line. Four plays later Romaldo Cervantez plunged over from the 4 for the Lion score. Pete Maldonado ran for the two points.

Graveside Rites Tuesday For Mrs. Pearl Young

Graveside services for Mrs. Pearl F. Young, 83, were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Young was found dead at her home here Sunday night. She apparently died of a heart attack.

She was born Oct. 2, 1890, in Cedar Valley, Texas. She had been a resident of Ozona for 44 years.

Survivors include two brothers, Clyde W. Young of Bertram, and Emmett W. Young of San Angelo, and three nieces.

Midway through the second quarter the Owls scored after taking over on downs at the Ozona 46-yard-line. The Owls drove for the score in nine plays capped by an eight-yard run by Ken Stout. The PAT failed, but Ozona's lead was cut to 15-6.

The Lions threatened to score again before the half, but a pass interception put an end to their hopes and they went to the dressing room with a 9-point lead.

After the halftime show, the Lions took the opening kick-off and marched to the Owl's 12-yard-line before the drive stalled and they had to turn the ball over to the Owls.

The Owl offense was held to little or no gain by the tough Lion defenders in the second half until a Lion fumble at the Owl 44 brought them to life. They managed to drive

LIONS HEAD FOR GOAL LINE IN OWL'S END OF FIELD--and that was the story all night long as the Ozona Lions out-played and out-scored the top ranked Reagan County Owls 15-14 on the home field Friday night. If the Lions get by Coahoma tomorrow night, they should have a straight shot at the District 7-AA title which they shared with the Owls last year.

The Wind From The North
Is Strong and Proud,
And He Pounds On My Door
In A Fashion Loud—
—Anne Lawler

November, ninth month of the old Roman calendar, is the birthday month of five U.S. Presidents and the month in which President John Kennedy was assassinated (the 22nd in 1963). It's also the month in which the Allies invaded North Africa (the 7th, 1942) in World War II and in which World War I ended in 1918 (November 11th).

The 2nd is the birthday anniversary of both James Polk, 11th President, and Warren Harding, 29th President. Harding, a relatively recent President, was born in Morrow County, Ohio, in 1866, the oldest of eight children. He was first a newspaper man, buying a Marion, Ohio, weekly for $300. At his death it was a daily and a valuable property.

He served in the state legislature and as Lieutenant Governor and was then defeated in a gubernatorial race. He nominated William Taft at the Republican convention in 1912 and two years later was elected to the U.S. Senate. In 1920 he was nominated by the Republicans and elected President. However, he failed to survive his term, dying after a trip to Alaska, which he had promised to make in his campaign, in 1923.

On the 6th, in 1789, the Pope appointed the first American Catholic bishop, John Carroll of Maryland. At that time there were no Catholic schools in the United States and Carroll was educated in France and consecrated bishop in England.

On the 15th, in 1777, a committee of the Continental Congress which had adopted the Declaration of Independence, reported out the draft of the Articles of Confederation—the first Constitution of the new nation; it provided for a perpetual union. This draft was changed, in 1787, and there was controversy until the Civil War whether or not States were in a perpetual union under terms of the 1787 Constitution.

James Abram Garfield, 20th President, was born in Cayuga County, Ohio, on the 19th in 1831, descended from Massachusetts ancestors. He was elected President as a Republican in 1880, and was assassinated in 1881.

Franklin Pierce (pronounced purse), 14th U.S. President, was born on the 23rd in 1804, at Hillsborough, N.H., and served his state in various capacities, resigning a U.S. Senate seat because the pay was insufficient. He was nominated and elected as a Democrat in 1852. He attempted to annex Cuba, tried to pacify North and South, but was not renominated by his party. He became very critical of Lincoln during the Civil War.

Zachary Taylor, 12th U.S. President, was born in Orange County, Virginia, on the 24th in 1784, preceded Pierce as President. He was a military hero in the Mexican war, son of a Revolutionary War officer of Virginia, grew up in Louisville, Kentucky (then Virginia), and won a great victory over the Seminole Indians in Florida, dying in office in 1850.

Thanksgiving, a truly American observance, falls on the 22nd this year.

Morton's Mouth

Rogers Morton, Secretary of the Interior, continues to go about the country uttering sensational statements about coming price increases. He recently repeated, unfortunately, his view that gasoline prices may eventually reach $1.50 a gallon.

Statements like this from high government officials add greatly to the psychology of inflation. They are especially regrettable because they may well be overly pessimistic, thus unnecessary. And since psychology plays a major role in the fueling of inflationary thinking and pricing, they actually generate inflation.

In this connection, chairman Herbert Stein of the Council of Economic Advisors also recently commented unwisely on the current inflationary trend. The day after the welcome news that wholesale prices dropped in September, he predicted, to the press, that prices would continue to rise sharply for the next six months—though not as sharply as in the past six.

Stein's timing and stress were bad, though he may well be right. Public officials, of course, should be candid in their statements; yet they should also take into account the damage pessimistic guesses about the economy by high government leaders have on the nation and inflationary thinking.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITAL

BY BILL BOYKIN
Texas Press Association

Future development of major Texas water projects will come to a halt unless new standards laid down by the National Water Resources Council are reversed, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby says.

Hobby, joined by State Sen. Max Sherman of Amarillo, and serving as spokesman for four Texas water advisory councils, urged President Nixon and Texas congressmen to alter the regulations.

"Unless this policy is reversed," said Hobby, "Texas stands to be harmed very substantially."

The new principles and standards for planning water and related land resources are effective October 25.

While acknowledging that they have merit, Hobby said, they would destroy "the long-established partnership between federal and state governments for development of water resources. . . . For all practical purposes, the thrust of 'principles and standards' wipes out the present-day mechanics for use and control of water, and falls short of practical substitutes."

A proposed "discount rate" feature, claimed Hobby, precludes federal participation in traditional development of water projects. The standards, he maintained, would further force impractical planning for projects on an instate basis.

In the last five years, more than $850 million have been invested by the local, state and federal governments in Texas water projects. About a fourth of that was federal money.

Refusal by the federal government to finance in the future "non-reimbursable features" such as fish and wildlife, recreational benefits and flood control provisions would ban parts of water projects that "tend to enhance the environment," said Hobby.

DOUBLE-HEADER CONVENTION PLANNED—Legislators are being polled on a proposal to split next year's constitutional convention into two sessions—one from January 8 to April 6 and the second after mid-June.

Sen. Bill Meier of Euless offered the suggestion, contending that the convention may be poorly attended just before May and June primary elections. Many legislators, who are delegates to the convention, will face opponents for re-election.

The recess, as proposed by Meier, would give legislators nearly a month to campaign before the May primary and another month before the June runoff.

Meanwhile, House Speaker Price Daniel, Jr. urged lawmakers to set a 90-day flexible and extendable timetable for the convention and try to finish the job of rewriting the constitution by early April. He said legislators can do it by making use of the research of the Constitutional Revision Commission as a beginning point. Daniel said taxpayers will be saved nearly $2 million if the convention winds up in 90 days rather than extending over the full 170 days allowed.

ALLOWABLE STILL AT 100 PER CENT—For the 20th straight month, the Texas Railroad Commission set the November statewide oil allowable

at 100 per cent. Uncertainty of supplies for winter months and possible cuts in imports from the Middle East were cited by Chairman Jim Langdon.

Exceptions again were made for the East Texas Field, Kelly-Snyder, Tom O'Connor and several others, where the allowable was retained at less than 90 per cent of potential.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS—Counties may use federal revenue sharing funds to contract with private non-profit corporations to construct recreational facilities for the aged, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded: -- There is no authority and no appropriation for paying state employees who resign or are dismissed (except in case of death) in lieu of accrued, unused vacation time.

-- A California non-profit dental service corporation is not providing dental service in Texas by entering a contract to pay for dental services of a Delaware corporation, including its Texas facility employees, where dentists are not chosen by employees.

Godless Parents

At first blush, the Wilsons—seeking to adopt a baby boy—seemed to be well suited for parenthood. They were a devoted, idealistic young couple, with high standards of morality.

But there was a problem. They did not believe in a Supreme Being. Was this grounds for disqualifying them as adoptive parents?

After a court hearing, the judge said it was not and granted the adoption. It would be unconstitutional, he said, for the state to require a belief in God in order to adopt a child.

"The First Amendment not only requires the state to be neutral between various religions," added the judge, "but between religion and non-religion as well."

Most courts would agree that a belief in God is not essential. Nevertheless, religious attitudes may carry at least some weight in the determination of parental fitness.

Thus, in another case, a court ruled in favor of adoptive par-

The Ozona Lions played Big Lake here Friday night and really put it to 'em. We won 15-14 and they were real lucky to even get 14 points on the board. It was our first district game and we got off to a good start. The Lions showed a lot of desire and the crowd helped push them.

The band will be attending Angelo's Homecoming parade Saturday. They are now working on their contest show which will be Saturday, Nov. 9. GOOD LUCK, BAND!

Many Ex's were home for the Big Lake vs. Ozona game, some that haven't been home in quite a while. It's always good to see you all here.

After winning the game Friday, the show was opened, Sat., to everyone. We would like to thank the Big "O" for this.

Sunday night, Ronald K. and Kirby K. were riding bikes. A car drove up and someone hollered to Ronald about moving their car and he trucked it and decided to turn down a road by Rutherford Motor Co. He wasn't watching where he was going and was stopped by a chain and flew off his bike head first. I bet that was a nice landing!

Last Saturday during the Freshman football game, Jim T. and Vaden A. both had their collar bones broken by the same guy. They beat Lake View 27-0. Good going!

ents (and against the child's own father) partly because of the religious atmosphere of their home. As one judge put it: "Religion and morality are inextricably interwoven in the lives of most people in this country, and belief in the tenets of a religion may be indicative of moral fitness in a particular case."

Furthermore, it usually helps if the would-be parents and the child have the same religion. Often, state laws call for this "matching up" of religious affiliations.

But again, this is not a hard-and-fast rule. Thus, courts have allowed non-matching adoptions when it would take considerable time to find adopting parents of the same faith.

Reason: the importance of promptness in arranging placements.

"In view of the emphasis placed by child care experts on a stable and wholesome environment in early infancy," said one court, "delay must be deemed detrimental."

Washington News Letter

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

The Arab oil combine, which recently announced a graduated cutback in their oil output by from 5 to 10 percent per month, will if carried out naturally aggravate our needs during the foreseeable future. It will require a new look at our policies related to the potential domestic supply.

While as of this time Middle East oil accounts for no more than six percent of our consumption, long-range plans to meet our ever-increasing demands call for an increase from Arab sources. For example, Saudi Arabia is now our third largest foreign source. Imports from that one country now amounts to nine million barrels per day, and the U. S. has counted on this amount more than doubling by the end of this decade.

Arab oil policies are obviously clouded by our policies toward Israel and our sale of armaments to the Israelis.

In view of the pending Arab cutback, this source of substantial future supply becomes more dubious, particularly so if the Arab-Israeli war is prolonged.

While oil is a factor, President Nixon has indicated our efforts to promote a lasting Arab-Israeli peace is on a basis of merit and not on the basis of oil shortages. We must not allow blackmail to dictate our decisions.

To meet this problem we must seek other alternatives and encourage stepped-up production from our own reserves. The Arabs are pursuing oil policies which may come back to plague them. After all, those countries with one-product economies must have customers for the oil they produce.

As our energy crisis becomes more serious, we have no alternative but to tighten our belts, stretch out our supply, and turn to other sources to meet our demands if the Middle East States choose to pursue their ill-conceived blackmail policy. For one thing, the Congress has wisely and belatedly approved the construction of the Alaska oil pipeline which will open up a vast source of additional oil.

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

Removing Kinks From Line

Every time you load your freshwater reel, either spinning or casting, there will be kinks in your line. This regardless of how careful you are in winding on a new spool of monofilament.

But, there's a quick cure. Climb aboard your favorite fletcher, crank up the powerhouse and spin out into the lake far enough from shore to permit release of the line slowly and completely down to the bare spool. Then, continuing to drive slowly, rewind until all of the line is back on the spool.

One point to remember is to trail only the line behind the boat—no lure on it, not even a swivel.

A 10 or 15 minute ride is sufficient to remove all kinks.

Follow the same procedure to remove line twists that result from trolling.

Watch What's Following

Want to know which lure interests the fish most? Okay, after each cast drag the lure alongside the boat, or dock, or wherever you're fishing—and on past you—before you lift it out of the water. While doing so, watch closely to see if fish are following the bait.

It does happen. In fact it's amazing how many fish follow the lure right up to the boat, then dart away when they see you.

Anyway, it's a good inkling as to what lure interests the fish.

Many a bass has hit a lure right alongside the boat, or just as the angler was about to bring the bait in for another cast. It's quite a surprise, too, because it's just not expected.

But, if you want an even greater thrill, let it happen in the darkness of night. That'll scare the living daylight out of you!

November, 1973

The Wind From The North Is Strong and Proud, And He Pounds On My Door In A Fashion Loud - Anne Lawler

November, ninth month of the old Roman calendar, is the birthday month of five U.S. Presidents and the month in which President John Kennedy was assassinated (the 22nd in 1963). It's also the month in which the Allies invaded North Africa (the 7th, 1942) in World War II and in which World War I ended in 1918 (November 11th).

The 2nd is the birthday anniversary of both James Polk, 11th President, and Warren Harding, 29th President. Harding, a relatively recent President, was born in Morrow County, Ohio, in 1865, the oldest of eight children. He was first a newspaper man, buying a Marion, Ohio, weekly for $300. At his death it was a daily and a valuable property.

He served in the state legislature and as Lieutenant Governor and was then defeated in a gubernatorial race. He nominated William Taft at the Republican convention in 1912 and two years later was elected to the U.S. Senate. In 1920 he was nominated by the Republicans and elected President. However, he failed to survive his term, dying after a trip to Alaska, which he had promised to make in his campaign, in 1923.

On the 6th, in 1789, the Pope appointed the first American Catholic bishop, John Carroll of Maryland. At that time there were no Catholic schools in the United States and Carroll was educated in France and consecrated bishop in England.

On the 15th, in 1777, a committee of the Continental Congress which had adopted the Declaration of Independence, reported out the draft of the Articles of Confederation—the first Constitution of the new nation; it provided for a perpetual union. This draft was changed, in 1787, and there was controversy until the Civil War whether or not States were in a perpetual union under terms of the 1787 Constitution.

James Abram Garfield, 20th President, was born in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, on the 19th in 1831, descended from Massachusetts ancestors. He was elected President as a Republican in 1880, and was assassinated in 1881.

Franklin Pierce (pronounced purse), 14th U.S. President, was born on the 23rd in 1804, at Hillsborough, N.H., and served his state in various capacities, resigning a U.S. Senate seat because the pay was insufficient. He was nominated and elected as a Democrat in 1852. He attempted to annex Cuba, tried to pacify North and South, but was not renominated by his party. He became very critical of Lincoln during the Civil War.

Zachary Taylor, 12th U.S. President, was born in Orange County, Virginia, on the 24th in 1784, preceded Pierce as President. He was a military hero in the Mexican war, son of a Revolutionary War officer of Virginia, grew up in Louisville, Kentucky (then Virginia), and won a great victory over the Seminole Indians in Florida, dying in office in 1850.

Thanksgiving, a truly American observance, falls on the 22nd this year.

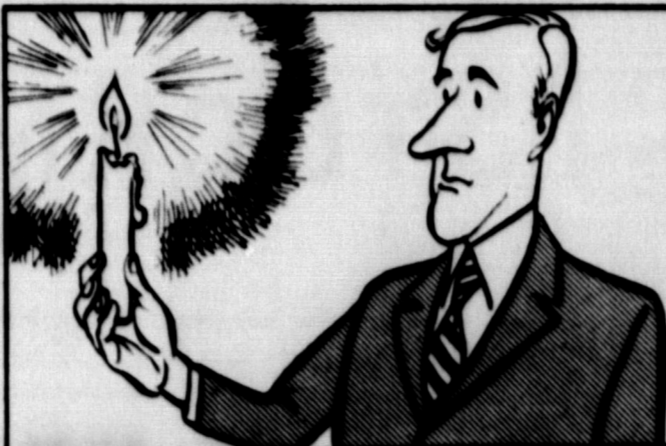

Morton's Mouth

Rogers Morton, Secretary of the Interior, continues to go about the country uttering sensational statements about coming price increases. He recently repeated, unfortunately, his view that gasoline prices may eventually reach $1.50 a gallon.

Statements like this from high government officials add greatly to the psychology of inflation. They are especially regrettable because they may well be overly pessimistic, thus unnecessary. And since psychology plays a major role in the fueling of inflationary thinking and pricing, they actually generate inflation.

In this connection, chairman Herbert Stein of the Council of Economic Advisors also recently commented unwisely on the current inflationary trend. The day after the welcome news that wholesale prices dropped in September, he predicted, to the press, that prices would continue to rise sharply for the next six months—though not as sharply as in the past six.

Stein's timing and stress were bad, though he may well be right. Public officials, of course, should be candid in their statements; yet they should also take into account the damage pessimistic guesses about the economy by high government leaders have on the nation and inflationary thinking.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITAL

BY BILL BOYKIN Texas Press Association

Future development of major Texas water projects will come to a halt unless new standards laid down by the National Water Resources Council are reversed, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby says.

Hobby, joined by State Sen. Max Sherman of Amarillo, and serving as spokesman for four Texas water advisory councils, urged President Nixon and Texas congressmen to alter the regulations.

"Unless this policy is reversed," said Hobby, "Texas stands to be harmed very substantially." The new principles and standards for planning water and related land resources are effective October 25.

While acknowledging that they have merit, Hobby said, they would destroy "the long-established partnership between federal and state governments for development of water resources. . . . For all practical purposes, the thrust of 'principles and standards' wipes out the present-day mechanics for use and control of water, and falls short of practical substitutes."

A proposed "discount rate" feature, claimed Hobby, precludes federal participation in traditional development of water projects. The standards, he maintained, would further force impractical planning for projects on an instate basis.

In the last five years, more than $850 million have been invested by the local, state and federal governments in Texas water projects. About a fourth of that was federal money.

Refusal by the federal government to finance in the future "non-reimbursable features" such as fish and wildlife, recreational benefits and flood control provisions would ban parts of water projects that "tend to enhance the environment," said Hobby.

DOUBLE-HEADER CONVENTION PLANNED--Legislators are being polled on a proposal to split next year's constitutional convention into two sessions--one from January 8 to April 6 and the second after mid-June.

Sen. Bill Meier of Eules offered the suggestion, contending that the convention may be poorly attended just before May and June primary elections. Many legislators, who are delegates to the convention, will face opponents for re-election.

The recess, as proposed by Meier, would give legislators nearly a month to campaign before the May primary and another month before the June runoff.

Meanwhile, House Speaker Price Daniel, Jr. urged lawmakers to set a 90-day flexible and extendable timetable for the convention and try to finish the job of rewriting the constitution by early April. He said legislators can do it by making use of the research of the Constitutional Revision Commission as a beginning point. Daniel said taxpayers will be saved nearly $2 million if the convention winds up in 90 days rather than extending over the full 170 days allowed.

ALLOWABLE STILL AT 100 PER CENT--For the 20th straight month, the Texas Railroad Commission set the November statewide oil allowable

at 100 per cent. Uncertainty of supplies for winter months and possible cuts in imports from the Middle East were cited by Chairman Jim Langdon.

Exceptions again were made for the East Texas Field, Kelly-Snyder, Tom O'Connor and several others, where the allowable was retained at less than 90 per cent of potential.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS--Counties may use federal revenue sharing funds to contract with private non-profit corporations to construct recreational facilities for the aged, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded: --There is no authority and no appropriation for paying state employees who resign or are dismissed (except in case of death) in lieu of accrued, unused vacation time.

--A California non-profit dental service corporation is not providing dental service in Texas by entering a contract to pay for dental services of a Delaware corporation, including its Texas facility employees, where dentists are not chosen by employees.

THE NEWS REEL

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of "THE OZONA STOCKMAN"

Hotel Ozona, built in 1927, is under new management. The hotel has been purchased by J. M. Berry and E. G. Kingsberry of Austin with Mr. and Mrs. Berry as managers.

29 years ago Baptist Missionary Society is collecting old clothing for the relief of civilians in European countries liberated by the Allies from German domination.

Godless Parents

At first blush, the Wilsons--seeking to adopt a baby boy--seemed to be well suited for parenthood. They were a devoted, idealistic young couple, with high standards of morality.

But there was a problem. They did not believe in a Supreme Being. Was this grounds for disqualifying them as adoptive parents?

After a court hearing, the judge said it was not granted the adoption. It would be unconstitutional, he said, for the state to require a belief in God in order to adopt a child.

"The First Amendment not only requires the state to be neutral between various religions," added the judge, "but between religion and non-religion as well."

Most courts would agree that a belief in God is not essential. Nevertheless, religious attitudes may carry at least some weight in the determination of parental fitness.

Thus, in another case, a court ruled in favor of adoptive par-

THE LION'S ROAR NEWS FROM OZONA HIGH SCHOOL BY TERESA SHAW

The Ozona Lions played Big Lake here Friday night and really put it to 'em. We won 15-14 and they were real lucky to even get 14 points on the board. It was our first district game and we got off to a good start. The Lions showed a lot of desire and the crowd helped push them.

--LR-- The band will be attending Angelo's Homecoming parade Saturday. They are now working on their contest show which will be Saturday, Nov. 9. GOOD LUCK, BAND!

--LR-- Many Ex's were home for the Big Lake vs. Ozona game, some that haven't been home in quite a while. It's always good to see you all here.

--LR-- After winning the game Friday, the show was opened, Sat., to everyone. We would like to thank the Big "O" for this.

--LR-- Sunday night, Ronald K. and Kirby K. were riding bikes. A car drove up and someone hollered to Ronald about moving their car and he trucked it and decided to turn down a road by Rutherford Motor Co. He wasn't watching where he was going and was stopped by a chain and flew off his bike head first. I bet that was a nice landing!

--LR-- Last Saturday during the Freshman football game, Jim T. and Vaden A. both had their collar bones broken by the same guy. They beat Lake View 27-0. Good going!

--LR-- Ozona Lions "B" team beat Junction 38-0. Way to go!

--LR-- Riddles: What is the difference between Debra C.'s megaphone and all the other cheerleaders? How do Mrs. Talliaferro's window blinds differ from other teachers'?

--LR-- We need to have people who mean something to us, people to whom we can turn knowing that being with them is coming home. Isn't that right, Ex's?

--LR-- (and against the child's own father) partly because of the religious atmosphere of their home. As one judge put it: "Religion and morality are inextricably interwoven in the lives of most people in this country, and belief in the tenets of a religion may be indicative of moral fitness in a particular case."

Furthermore, it usually helps if the would-be parents and the child have the same religion. Often, state laws call for this "matching up" of religious affiliations.

But again, this is not a hard-and-fast rule. Thus, courts have allowed non-matching adoptions when it would take considerable time to find adopting parents of the same faith.

Reason: the importance of promptness in arranging placements.

"In view of the emphasis placed by child care experts on a stable and wholesome environment in early infancy," said one court, "delay must be deemed detrimental."

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

Removing Kinks From Line

Every time you load your fresh-water reel, either spinning or casting, there will be kinks in your line. This regardless of how careful you are in winding on a new spool of monofilament.

But, there's a quick cure. Climb aboard your favorite floater, crank up the powerhouse and spin out into the lake far enough from shore to permit release of the line slowly and completely down to the bare spool. Then, continuing to drive slowly, rewind until all of the line is back on the spool.

One point to remember is to trail only the line behind the boat--no lure on it, not even a swivel. A 10 or 15 minute ride is sufficient to remove all kinks.

Follow the same procedure to remove line twists that result from trolling.

Watch What's Following

Want to know which lure interests the fish most?

Okay, after each cast drag the lure alongside the boat, or dock, or wherever you're fishing--and on past you--before you lift it out of the water. While doing so, watch closely to see if fish are following the bait.

It does happen. In fact it's amazing how many fish follow the lure right up to the boat, then dart away when they see you.

Anyway, it's a good inkling as to what lure interests the fish.

Many a bass has hit a lure right alongside the boat, or just as the angler was about to bring the bait in for another cast. It's quite a surprise, too, because it's just not expected. But, if you want an even greater thrill, let it happen in the darkness of night. That'll scare the living daylight out of you!

OHS Freshmen Win 'em All

Ozona's Freshman football team sports an enviable unbeaten and untied record for the season. They downed Lakeview Saturday 27-0 for their fifth straight win.

Johnny Castro took a pass from Vaden Aldridge and went 22 yards for the first touchdown. Gary Warren ran the 2 point conversion in to give Ozona an 8-0 lead.

Orlando DeHoyos then ran 60 yards with a Lakeview punt to give the Lions a 14-0 lead. Ronnie Schneider then ran 10 yards with a pass from Aldridge to give the young Lions a 20 point lead. John Galvan added the extra point for a 21-0 halftime edge.

To open the second half Orlando DeHoyos ran 79 yards with the kick-off. The extra point kick hit the upright and bounded away ending the scoring at 27-0.

It was an outstanding team effort that produced the Lion's fifth straight win. Although it was a costly one with the losses of quarterback Vaden Aldridge and halfback Jim Tankersley for the remainder of the season due to broken collar bones.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

After the recent fine showers to give plenty of moisture for garden preparation, planting and perk up fall blooming plants, it encourages everyone for next year planning. Your fall catalogues will help you choose plants.

Your mums still need care with regular attention. Feed lightly each week with one teaspoonful fertilizer per gallon of water and continue watering to produce steady growth and buds. Discontinue feeding when color shows.

Roses should be at peak bloom this month and unusually colorful after the good rains. This is a good time to make your selections for next year, so visit parks and nurseries when convenient. Many are being featured planted in containers to use on the patio and planted later in your garden.

Several have asked about the planting and chilling of tulip bulbs. Since the soil in our area stays warm until late, and they require chilling before a flower stalk will form, artificial chilling is being used. When your bulbs arrive place them in a refrigerator for 45-60 days. They should be planted the first week in December or when you take them out of the refrigerator. If bulbs are taken out and not planted immediately, you lose the chilling effect completely. Tulips give a more colorful show if planted in groups of the same color, spacing about four inches apart. Also, they make attractive planter bulbs for placement where needed. To naturalize an area with tulips gives another display in the spring--example is the Max Schneemann, Sr. home each year. They leave them to reseed, come up, and spread in nearby areas and the grass. These are in all different colors.

Another fall plant that is being used as a border, hedge or specimen is the blue hardy Aster or Michaelmas daisies that are in bloom now. They are a perennial, so need not be disturbed each year.

If you intended to plant sweet peas, do so soon. Plant in a trench, filling in as they grow.

Our area is fortunate to have had fine weather for several weeks to produce beautiful flowers for exhibiting in garden club fall flower shows.

Mrs. J. W. Howell and I helped judge a most interesting placement show in Big Lake last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Schneemann, Jr. The artistic division was staged in each room, the arrangements being assigned to members by drawing for the placement. Roses stole the show in the horticulture division, for they were of the best quality, form and color that I have seen in a show for several years. Mrs. Charles Williams and Mrs. Gene Lilly went over later at the guest hour.

PERFUME DELIGHT. ALL AMERICA ROSE SELECTION FOR 1974, as its name indicates, has an enchanting, spicy fragrance. In addition, the color is a rich, deep pink, and the four to five inch blooms, well supported on strong stems above a thick bushy plant, are all that could be desired in a rose destined to be among the greats.

Are you providing nutritious snacks for your football fans? These television-viewers and other family members can consume up to half a day's food in the form of snacks.

If they reach mainly for soda pop, potato chips and cookies they'll get plenty of calories but not many vitamins, minerals or protein. To simplify matters, set aside one shelf in the refrigerator and cabinet especially for snacks and quick meals. Let it be known that family members can come here first when hungry or thirsty.

Keep plenty of fruit juices, cold water and milk around. To keep milk costs down, use dry milk mixed with water. Add chocolate, vanilla or fruit flavors to make it "Special". Other favorite milk foods offer food value as well as good taste--such as ice cream, puddings, cheese and yogurt.

Fresh fruits and vegetables also provide good tasting and nutritious snacks. For convenience, fix raw vegetable strips and slices about once a week--and keep them in the refrigerator crispier. Include carrots, celery, turnips, green peppers, cucumbers, cauliflower, bananas, apples and oranges. They're simple-to-fix, easy-to-eat and high in food value. If sandwiches make up a part of your snack menu, keep bowls of egg and tuna salad handy in the refrigerator. Also keep peanut butter within easy reach. Cheese and crackers--as well as cheese sandwiches--provide nutrition-packed snacks for nibblers. Keep nutrition in mind when stocking

You can't help loving this little pup. Maybe it's because he seems so out of proportion. If he somehow were able to flap those ears he might fly away.

Perhaps there is a little fellow in your home who is "all ears" in another sense... a youngster who takes in everything that's said, including some things he isn't meant to hear.

Most children are eager to listen... hungry to learn. That is why the early years are so important in the molding of a child's character. The things he hears, whether right or wrong, make a deep impression on his mind. They are soon reflected in his actions and words.

Wise parents take advantage of the Church's program of religious education in implanting those early impressions. They know there is no surer builder of character than religious faith.

NOW... while your child is eager to hear and to learn, bring him to church... and support the Church in its great undertaking.

to the Lion 11, but again the Lion defenders held and they were forced to turn over the ball on downs.

Neither team managed much offense in the final period until the Lions took the ball on the Owl 47 and drove to the 10 in 12 plays. They were forced to give up the ball on downs, but they left the Owl offense in poor field position on their own 8 yard line. Unable to move on the ground, the Owls took to the air and scored their second touchdown on a 92-yard pass from Stout to Monte Barnes. Stout passed to Byrd for the two points and cut Ozona's lead to 1 point. As it happened that was as good as 50 points, as it won the game for the Lions.

With two minutes left in the game the Lions were forced to punt and got a break. The Owls were called for roughing the punter and the ball went back to Ozona with a first down. The Lions easily ran the clock out. Cervantez was the leading rusher with 80 yards on 21 carries.

Cubs Split Two Games With Junction Jr Hi

Ozona's junior high Cubs split another double-header last Thursday with Junction, the seventh grade losing 30-0 and the unbeaten eighth graders taking a 26-8 win. The seventh graders closed out the season with an 0-6 record, while the eighth grade Cubs, 4-0-1 on the season, will host Iraan this afternoon in Lion Stadium in their final game of the season.

Max Schroeder scored first for the Lions when he tackled an Eaglet in the end-zone to give the Cubs a 2-point safety.

The next Cub score came when Randy Allen ran the kick-off back 80 yards for the touchdown. Blake Mooly ran in for the extra two points.

The final score came when Moody ran 72 yards for a Cub score. He was the leading rusher with 119 to his credit for the game.
