

THE OZONA KICKER.

GREAT FAMILY WEEKLY

OSONA, CROCKETT COUNTY, TEXAS, TUESDAY, MAY 19, 1908.

NUMBER 23

SIXTEENTH YEAR.

SOME BASEBALL TALK FOR OLD AND YOUNG

In Which the Request is Made That the Citizens Assist in The Effort to Win.

The baseball season is far advanced and if Ozona is to be represented this year, it is high time that she be getting in line.

That town is dead indeed, whose citizenship takes no interest in the fate of her local ball team. It is not the size of the town, but the ability of its citizens, that makes it known either favorably or unfavorably.

A ball team, or any other athletic aggregation, represents a community in the same manner that the army represents a nation, and its defeat or success redounds to its credit, or brings down humiliation upon those they represent.

This year the boys are trying to get up a team that will be a credit to themselves and their town, and request that the people give them their hearty support and encouragement. The merchants can materially help the cause along by allowing the members of the team in their employ, an hour or so off in their evenings at stated intervals during the week for a short practice.

Ozona ball players expect to put up a strong team this year, but they earnestly request the endorsement and good will of the older citizens of this town.

S. E. Taylor.

S. E. Taylor is out as a candidate for the office of District Attorney and his name can be found in our announcement columns this week. Mr. Taylor has at a former time held this position and holds up his record made then as an endorsement as to his capability.

Mr. Taylor is practicing law in the city of San Angelo and feels himself fully capable of taking charge of the people's trust and executing their business in an able manner. He announces himself with the pledge that he will give to his constituents capable and impartial service.

The Man-less Town.

According to the Fort Worth Star, there is to be established, somewhere in Texas, a town called "Girlville." No man will be allowed to enter there and everything masculine will be tabooed.

A committee of three has arrived from Chicago, to locate the site for this wonderful city and they say that ere long Texas will have a colony of true Amazons that will put to shame the efforts of the Princess, of whom Tennyson sings. But we'll wager that some day there will come a prince from the North who will break down the barriers so defiantly raised and lead away, as his blushing bride, the fairest of all in this new town—"Girlville."

L. H. Brightman.

The name of L. H. Brightman appears in our announcement columns this week, as a request to the voters of this section that they support him for the office of District Attorney.

Mr. Brightman is at present the incumbent of this office and how well he has filled his trust, the records show.

In again asking for the place Mr. Brightman pledges himself to use every honest endeavor to bring the guilty parties to trial and secure their conviction. He will use every means in his power to serve the people with credit to themselves and to him.

When you think of indigestion thank of Kodol, for it is without doubt the only preparation that completely digests all classes of food and that is what you need when you have indigestion or stomach trouble—something that will act promptly but thoroughly some thing that will get right at the trouble and the very work itself for the stomach by digesting the food that you eat and that is Kodol, it is pleasant to take it is W. E. Smith.

STOCK NEWS FROM LOCAL EXCHANGES

Some Trading and Trafficking Done by Stockmen of This And Other Sections.

Some Angelo Sales.

Felix Mann sold for Springtown Bros., of Lipan Flat, to Tom Stribling, a stockman of Oklahoma, 300 two and three-year-old steers at $24 around, making a total of $7,200. Mr. Stribling will ship the steers, to Oklahoma Tuesday.

Shield & Martin sold for Jameyson Bros. of Christoval, to Tol Cawley four hundred cows at $15.50 a total of $6,200. The cows were shipped to Hominy, Okla., Sunday.

Jenks Blocker has purchased the Wash Tankersley yearlings at private terms.—San Angelo Standard.

To Store Wool.

Salt Lake, Utah.—In furtherance of the movement to defeat the alleged capacity of the middlemen, the leading wool growers of the state will meet and pool the 1908 clip. Through a committee they have arranged to borrow upon their wool stored in Boston warehouses 60 per cent of its market value. The sheepmen expect to sell directly to manufacturers and have a large percentage of profit which they claim has been absorbed by brokers and buyers.—San Angelo Standard.

Stock News.

Martin & Wardlaw the commission men report the following sales: For John Wyatt, of Sonora, to Lee Martin of Ruid, 250 one-year-old steers at pt. Far A. F. Clarkson of Sonora, to J. A. Whitten of Eldorado, 250 one-year-old steers at $15.

They reported also the sale to T. D. Newell, 950 muttons and ewes at pt.

Ed. Fowler of Sonora, sold to Bob and Will Evans of Eldorado, 100 cows and calves at $15.

Abe Mayer of Sonora, bought from R. A. Williamson of Crockett county, 75 head of yearling steers at $15.

Ed. Robbins bought yearling steers from the following parties: From Chris Wyatt and Berry Baker, 100 at $13; Ered Schwiening, 30 at $13; T. D. Rode, 12 at $3; J. T. Evans, 75 at $14; L. P. Valliant, 12 at $14.

Sol Mayer, of Sonora, sold to Wm. Bevans of Menardville, 400 two-year-old steers at $20, delivered at the Ogden pasture, near Middle Valley. They passed through Sonora Monday. They were the best bunch of 2's that passed here in a long time.—Devils River news.

Six thousand cattle in St. Louis Monday and 6000 in Fort Worth. This shows not so much a lack of good judgment on the part of the shipper as it shows the need of some sort of an arrangement whereby the market supply can be regulated. At least 3000 of the 6000 in Fort Worth went from South Texas, and no doubt shippers will regret that they could not have foreseen the result in time to hold back the shipments made Friday and Saturday. Chicago had 21,000 and Kansas City 9,000, and Chicago was quoted strong to 10c higher, but the report of sales will reveal the fact Chicago does not dictate the price at the other markets where they have about four times the number of cattle they need.

Nothing very encouraging in the way of news is reported from the wool market in the East. Curtailment continues in New England mills and manufacturers are refilling their bins at figures entirely too low to please the flockmasters. The best sale reported for last week was 100,000 pounds of good clothing territorial wool at 17 1/2c in the grease, with about half this amount of half-blood. Wyoming selling at 18c.—San Antonio Express.

TWO DEATHS.

TWO TRAGIC DEATHS OF THE PAST WEEK IN THE WEST TEXAS COUNTRY

HORSE CAUSE OF ONE

A Cowboy in Coke County Gets Tangled up With Pricking Horse and is Killed. An Unknown Young Man is Run Over by a Train.

The citizens of Robert Lee were horrified Wednesday about 3:30 o'clock to hear that Tom Yantis had been kicked and dragged to death by a wild horse in his pasture south of town at about 3 o'clock. The facts as near as we can get them are as follows—Mr. Yantis went out in the pasture to set a couple of horses one of them hadn't been worked much. He caught the horses and tied the wild one and it is thought in getting on the gentle horse the other became frightened and pulled Mr. Yantis from his horse pulling a loop in the rope which he thought to be stationary but which proved to be a slip knot around his right hand. The rope was a short one and Mr. Yantis was directly behind the horse. He was not only dragged a considerable distance but was kicked in the head his skull being broken. He was found in the pasture by his wife about half an hour after he was killed. Mrs. Yantis becoming uneasy went to look for him and found him tied to the horse and summoned help. The deceased leaving a loving wife and two children to mourn his loss he had other relatives and a great many friends. The remains were interred in the Robert Lee Cemetery this afternoon Rev. T. A. Moore conducting the burial services. The Observer extends condolence to the bereaved ones.—Observer.

A train bound for San Angelo last Wednesday evening ran over a young man on a culvert just the other side of the town of Bangs. The occurrence was at night. The engineer claims that he did not see the young man until too late to stop his engine, and that he was lying down when he saw him. The body was dragged some distance and the entire train passed over it and it was very badly mangled.

The victim was a young man of about seventeen years of age. He had a small sum of money in his pockets and a letter addressed to Jean Simpson, Brownwood, Texas. No other means of identification could be found, and it is supposed that the name on the letter was that of the young man. The body was carried to Bangs and placed in charge of the proper authorities.

One of the passengers who saw the body immediately after the accident and felt it on the foot and leg. He says that the body was quite cold to the touch. It is more than likely that the railroad will endeavor to establish in the courts that the man had been murdered and his body placed on the tract in an effort to cover up the crime.

A great many people imagine they have heart troubles when the fact is the whole trouble lies in the stomach. The pains in the side around the region of the heart are not necessarily heart troubles. We suggest that you start with the stomach and whenever you feel a oppression after eating whenever your food seems to nauseate take Kodol. It will not be very long until all these "heart pains" will disappear. Take Kodol now, as you will know you are right, again. There isn't any doubt about what it will do for you. Find the truth of the statement verified after you have used Kodol for a few weeks. It is sold here by W. E. Smith.

THINGS OF INTEREST TO WEST TEXAS PEOPLE

Some Things That are Transpiring in Different Parts of the Country.

The Yaqui Indians of the State of Sonora, Mex., have sued for peace.

Atlanta, Ga., has just passed through a second fire. No lives were lost.

Bailey has returned to Washington and was warmly greeted by his colleagues.

The report is abroad that Mme. Anna Gould and Prince de Sagan are soon to wed.

The Socialists had a warm time at their convention in Chicago recently. Nothing of importance was done.

President Roosevelt laid the corner stone at the dedication of the Peace Temple at Washington. The object of this building will be to knit closer the friendly feelings of the Republics of North and South America.

The Texas State Medical Association is in session at Corpus Christi.

A severe storm in Omaha has caused much damage and loss of a dozen or more lives.

The mines and other large industries are beginning to open for work. The commerce of the country seems to be taking on new life.

House of Commons, London, Eng., has passed the Irish Bill by a vote of 344 to 31. The establishment of two new Universities in Ireland is now certain.

All the American Republics sent greetings and congratulations to Washington May 11th, except the latter country is not represented in the governing board.

Three men attempted to shoot up the town of Hanna, Okla. One was killed, one wounded in the arm and one had both legs broken. Sheriff Albans did the work.

Much activity is apparent in the railroad industry. One road recently placed an order for 45 thousand tons of railroad steel. This is taken as a sure sign of returning prosperity.

English people are clamoring for a duty of ten per cent to be placed on American hops. America has a duty of $14. The president of the board of agriculture seems to think it is overproduction that is the matter and not "free trade."

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, is in favor of un instructed delegates to Denver. He says that if Roosevelt is nominated Bryan should not be, in as much as Bryan has endorsed Roosevelt's policies. Here the issue would only be over the third term. Other-wise he's for Bryan.

Rear Admiral Evans in a short speech at North Platte, Neb., said: "We will always have war as long as we have anything to fight over and the more battleships and the fewer statesmen we have, the longer we will have peace."

Arkansas is having a time with her governors. One is in Washington, and the one in his place in Arkansas has called an extra session—the one at Washington has countermanded the call. A new governor is soon to take the chair—and it will then be up to him.

Mr. John Riba of Vining, Ia., says, "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. There are a dozen people here who have used them and they give perfect satisfaction in every case. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by W. E. Smith.

THE OZONA WEEKLY KICKER

By TOM NOLEN, Associate Editor

Editor, FRANK B. TANNER

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION: One Year $2.00, Six Months 1.00, Three Months .50

Entered at the Ozona, Texas, Postoffice as Second Class.

TUESDAY, MAY 19, 1908.

In April our government revenues were $10,000,000 less than a year ago, $7,000,000 being the decrease in customs alone.

AIN't it the truth! If the Democratic party gets in power for the next administration, the trusts and grafters of the north will soon be hitting the high places for other cities.

The parcels post law is being held up by a small number of the "big rich and influential," whom it would hurt. There has perhaps been no measure before Congress for many years which would result to so much good to the largest amount of people.

Yes, Rachel, this is the City of Ozona. You know Ozona is but another name for pure air. We have other things however besides pure air.

Tom, more we look over the city of Ozona the more we like it. Still, there are some things lacking—aband for instance, a business club and some sort of use made of the park, other than as a thing of beauty.

Get ready for the Fourth Day of July. It's coming and we should be prepared. There is lots to be done before that date arrives and it is not too early to make preparations. Get busy.

The rains have come and gone and Prosperity Contentment and Thanksgiving lie in their wake

EDITORIAL PARAGRAPHS

By TOM NOLEN, Associate Editor

The governors of a number of the States are now confabbing with President Roosevelt in Washington in consideration of the conservation of our national resources.

All candidates for county offices will do well remember that if they wish their name on the official ballot at the July primary, they must file their written request with the county chairman, Dr. G. W. Holmsley, not later than June 15th.

We need a business men's Club, and need it bad. Every little town that is making any progress is doing so through the concerted action of its business men.

The expenses of primary elections are paid by the candidates and no county candidate can get his name upon the ballot until he has paid to the county chairman his proportionate part of such expenses, as is decided by the Executive Committee at its meeting on June 15th.

The authorities of La Porte, Ind., have unearthed a regular clearing house of murders. On the farm of Mrs. Bell Guinness, a comely widow, they have dug up ten bodies, a number of them being dismembered, indicating that they had been shipped in trunks from some other point; presumably Chicago.

The farmers of some of the eastern counties have been holding their union meetings and have again decided to hold their cotton for 15 cents. Wonder what they will do, and their merchants, too, when they get this second crop safely stored, and the third one in the ground? Bet they sell it for less than ten-cents a pound.

In East Texas and Louisiana and other eastern and northern states the number and destructiveness of cyclones in the last few weeks have been something terrible and unprecedented. The loss of life has been heavy, and the prosperity losses enormous.

The citizens of the town of Alpine are undoubtedly deserving the sympathy of the State Editor Will Easterling announces that there is to be produced in the Avalanche of that city a story by himself, which he candidly avows has been rejected by every magazine in North America.

What for, to determine whether or not the story shall be published? Not on your life. Will is not going to let his last chance of fame slip through his fingers just to please an unappreciative public. Let 'er go Bill.

Is our announcement column this week, you will find my name as a candidate for re-election to the office of District and County Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary. In offering myself before the people of Crockett county for re-election to the office which I now hold I do so with a clear conscience of having done my best to make you a good officer and to treat everybody right, and if I have failed it has not been due to a lack of proper appreciation of the responsibility of the office conferred upon me, or because I have not been anxious to prove to you that I do appreciate the office, and you. If I am favored with this office again this year, I shall continue to do my very best to give you the very best services in my power. I thank you for past favors and solicit your vote and staunch support in the present campaign.

W. D. Parker, Sheriff of this county, announces this week for re-election.

Mr. Parker has no opponent thus far and this in itself is a strong endorsement of his past service. If elected, Mr. Parker will continue the same fair, impartial execution of his duties, which has so marked his actions during the past term.

We feel it almost useless to laud Mr. Parker as a sheriff or as a man, for nothing could be said that would add to his popularity or cause him to be more esteemed. Therefore, we will simply announce him as candidate in the coming election, and will give to him their individual support at the coming election.

Party Last Monday.

Last Monday evening Miss Katie Harris gave a party to her friends at the home of her parents in honor of her twelfth birthday. Juvenile games of all sorts formed a pleasant means for passing away the evening hours.

A large number of boy and girl acquaintances were present to help her enjoy the occasion and partake of her bounteous hospitality. At the conventional hour the guests took their departure, expressing themselves as being well pleased with the evening's entertainment and wishing that their fair hostess might live to enjoy many more such days.

Misses Lillie Boerner, Montie Barker and Willie Spinks served refreshments for the guests and endeavored to help the merry makers to pass the evening in the most pleasant way. To say that their efforts were crowned with success but mildly expresses it.

Those present were: Messrs. Forest Dudley; Vernon Cox; Edgar Barker; Charlie Perner; Floyd Bosworth; Earl Berry; Bert Bosworth; Jake Smith; Howard Westfall; Albert Kincaid.

Misses, Olive Wiggelle; Pearl Smith; Mary Boerner; Annie Wiggelle; Phil Perner; Alpha Westfall; Francis Barker; Linora Dudley; Nannie Davidson; Edna Kincaid; Mary Davidson; Irene Kincaid.

One night when I was in my bed, I went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by W. E. Smith.

About a month ago I contracted a cold but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by W. E. Smith.

Serenaders.

A number of boys in town started out last night to give the denizens of this old burg a musical treat. Two hack loads composed the crowd and a good time was had. House after house was visited and selections given.

After this the party drove out to the Baggett ranch and played several selections. One of the boys there came out with a tempting array of fruit for our inspection. The platter was returned with thanks.

The serenade was called off at about 2 a. m. The members of the party wish to express their thanks for the nice cake received from so many homes.

The Dance. The lovers of the dance who live in this city and on ranches adjacent, met at the county court house on Friday night last, and whiled away the evening hours gliding over the floor in harmony with the sweet strains of music furnished by the local string band.

Quite a number of young people took part in the dance and one or two married couples were also there to join in the merriment while quite a few spectators were present.

The decorous manner with which those present conducted themselves spoke volumes for the people of this section, for it is at the dance that the real character is most expressed. The gathering Friday night reminded one more of a house party than anything else, and was certainly as select.

The merriment continued until a little past the mid hour of night, when the pleasure-seekers took their departure. Full of life, and fun, and innocent pleasure, are those devotees to the art of Terpsichore.

Death Angel Calls

As sad a death as the chronicles of history hold, occurred in this city near the hour of eight last Friday evening.

The little baby of Mr. and Mrs. John Stephens was lying ill and expected to die, and the mother was bowed down with grief. Friday evening Mrs. Stephens was called from the supper table and told that the little one was thought to be lying. One stifled cry, a low, sobbing moan—and the mother's soul passed into the Great Beyond—of such was the depth of her love.

The little one lingered an hour longer and then its infant spirit took its flight to join the mother-soul in the realms above.

The funeral took place from the Baptist church, Rev. Pledger, having charge, and the remains tenderly laid to rest in the City Cemetery. Tender hands administered the last sad rites, and loving hearts go out to the sorrowing husband and father in sympathy and consolation.

Mr. Stephens lives in the Pecos country and came here but a few days since with his wife and baby to seek medical treatment for the little one.

Sore indeed is his trial, but the Master, in His wisdom, has linked his soul with stronger bonds, to the courts above.

Moonlight Picnic

Saturday evening a number of Ozona's young people drove out to the hospitable home of Mrs. Baggett and there whiled away the time in merry making and music.

It was the original intention of the young people to go out to the live oak picnic grounds and have a regular moonlight picnic but just about the time to start, a rain cloud blew up and Jupiter Pluvius seemed to be trying his best to flood the earth, but if his intention was to dampen the ardor of the picnickers, his efforts were in vain, for no sooner had it become apparent that the cloudburst was over than preparations were made to start, and the only effect old Jup. had on the situation was that the original destination was changed from an open air frolic to a house party, and a better home could not have been selected than that of Mrs. Baggett's.

At the proper hour supper was announced and the members of the party proceeded in a gloe to the dining room where was ranged, in tempting style, rich viands of the feast, and the best part of it all, to the escorts, was the knowledge that the dainty delicacies were prepared by the pretty Misses who stood by their side. As a fitting opening to the feast, acknowledgments were rendered to Him on high and then—well then, each guest proceeded to show his appreciation of the good things of life in a manner which left no room for doubt as to his zeal.

After the repast the diners repaired to the parlors and indulged in small talk and pleasantries. At a seasonable hour the gathering broke up and left for home, carrying with them pleasant memories of the evening's good cheer.

As if ashamed of the frowning spirit she had shown in the early evening, dame Nature seemed to put forth every effort possible in an attempt at reparation. She tore away the veil that hid the moon and stars and their brilliant radiance turned to silver and gold every object that lay exposed and made a fairy-land of what had a short time before been subject to the rain god's wrath.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Mauldin acted as chaperones to the party.

Card of Thanks

To those young ladies whose basket was overlooked and left in town Saturday night, we render our most heartfelt thanks. The chicken was good, the salad fine and that pineapple and chocolate cake simply superb; to say nothing of the stuffed eggs, sandwiches daintily tied up in ribbons and the other good things too numerous to mention. If we have offended we humbly ask forgiveness but the temptation was greater than we could bear, and then—"stolen sweets are always best." Again we thank you.

Sabbath Observance and Social Morality.

The Boston Transcript in a recent number, commenting on the increase of suicide in the country, call upon the pulpits of the land to preach "God and immortality" as an antidote for this crime. In accord with this pastor of Lowell, Mass., in a powerful sermon on "The Consciousness of God," declares that morality cannot exist in a community—even though it may occasionally exist in an individual—without the public teaching of God. It has been tried in the past by nation, notably by France, during the Revolution, and indeed, before the Revolution, when the most brilliant intellects of that nation were employed in preparing text-books for the youth, intended to foster morality but carefully avoiding any allusion to God. Inside of ten years, such was the terrible state of society, it was necessary to bring back the public teaching of God to save morality.

Because this is true and because Sabbath observance and Christian teaching safeguard the morality of the community, this pastor, Asa R. Diltz, believes that the State should safeguard the Church and the Sabbath. Not that this gentleman indorses or would for a moment consider State control of the Church, but since the Church is the agency that above all others preserves social morality, the State should see that the Sabbath is not given over to public amusement, as the sacred concert—so-called—Sunday excursions, and the like.

Something in the same line is a recent movement in Rochester, New York. The Rochester Ministerial Association, composed of all the Protestant clergy of that city, drafted a set of resolutions to be presented to the common council, on the Sunday situation in the city.

and that actors and other persons engaged in amusing the people be given a day of rest, while the public is given an entertainment fitted to the day. Along such lines as this may eventually be developed a distinctive "American Sabbath."

Yesterday I went to call upon the matron of the boys' dormitory of the college, and she said to me, "Miss Fanny, there is a boy here who is anxious to see you, because you belong to the W. C. T. U."

I said, "Certainly, I want to know him. Where is he?" This is the story: It seems that some time ago this boy ran away from college, but when he was gone as far as Los Angeles, he began to long for home and mother, and for college, too, I suppose. He was a good boy, at heart, and he determined to find work and earn money to come back. In his search, he found a woman who wore the white ribbon, and she mothered him, and after much telegraphing and work and worry she succeeded in getting money from the boy's father and in sending him back to the Polytechnic College.

So yesterday I spent some pleasant moments in listening to the praises of the W. C. T. U. in general, and of that Los Angeles white ribboner in particular, even saints and angels fairly sink into insignificance when compared with Mrs. B., in this young man's opinion. He is studying and doing well, thanks to her timely aid.

"Every man, woman and child in America is affected by the liquor traffic. Every life is menaced by the saloon. Every artery of commerce feels the deadly effect of this blood poison of our national life. Such an issue as this must of necessity be, and by the very nature of the case, is the greatest issue known to American statesman-ship."

To live in the presence of great truths, to be dealing with eternal laws, to be lead by permanent ideals,—that is what keeps a man patient when the world ignores his, and calm and unspoiled when the world praises him.—Francis G. Peabody.

Convulsions, or Spasms and St. Vitus' Dance are Nervous Diseases. Most cases can be cured by strengthening and building up the nervous system. To do this a nerve medicine is needed. Dr. Miles' Nerveine will be found efficacious and satisfactory. It has cured many cases of these diseases and we believe it will cure you. We can give you names of many who have been cured through its use. Write for advice.

My son John had epilepsy for years, and after having him treated by several layers of this, specially prepared fabric on the inside of the vest, he was cured. I had almost given up in despair, but knowing the virtue of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Balm, I had a small quantity of it try the Nerveine. During June, 1906, I gave him a teaspoonful three times a day, then in July I gave it as directed, and I could see that he was improving, and he has not had a spell since August 20, 1906, and has taken no medicine since Jan.-97. I am writing this case just to let you know that it induces others to try it.
