PRESIDENT FACES WEST.
THE DINOSAUR PARTY.
STUDYING MUMMIES.
MEN WILL DIG.

President Coolidge will spend his vacation in the West, in response to many invitations. He should drive in a big automobile from Kansas City to Seattle down to San Diego, fishing here and there. He would see millions of Americans that like him.

The biggest wars are soon forgotten. Over a direct cable from the United States to Germany, opened last week, President Coolidge wired President Hindenburg his hope that "this additional means of communication will promote mutual understanding and good will between the two countries." An President Hindenburg replied most politely, Germany, rid of an expensive fleet, expensive standing army and extremely expensive Kaiser, attends to business and goes ahead more rapidly than any other country in Europe.

Mrs. Henry Fairfield Osborn entertained friends at the Museum of Natural History, in honor of the tyrannosaurus, in Dinosaur Hall. That monster is 47 feet long from his head to the end of his tail, 18 feet high at the hips, 21 feet around the waist, with bones that weigh more than two tons. He was a powerful animal, but couldn't last because he didn't have a brain big in proportion to the size of his body.

Civilization has developed a more powerful creature, which is the two-legged billionaire, able to control and command the work of 200,000,000 men for one day.

That billionaire will soon be numerous and the interesting question concerning him will be, "What about his brain?" Will it be big enough to keep him safe?

The learned Dr. Sack, of Heidelberg University, studying thousands of Egyptian mummies, finds that high living killed off rich Egyptians as it kills off rich Americans now.

Foolish eating, lack of exercise, especially lack of deep breathing, have through the centuries been skimming the scum off the boiling pot of civilization.

Mummies of the fifty dynasty show signs of tuberculosis, affecting the spine, and gout, swelling the joints.

The Supreme Court decides unambiguously that Texas' laws forbidding negroes to vote at Democratic primaries is unconstitutional. It is a most important decision, and not to the South only, since it may mean Federal control over local primaries.

Where money is, men will dig. It was proved in Italy, before architects had learned how to make great domes like that on St. Peter's hold themselves up as they rise in the air. One dome was built and filled with earth to support it, as it rose, until the sides met at the top. Putting in the earth would be much less expensive than taking it out. So they mixed the earth beneath the dome with small coins of a total value much less than the cost of removing the earth. When the dome was finished the population was told it could bear away the coin-bearing dirt. The great dome stood empty.

This country last year imported more than $8,000,000 worth of precious stones, $5,000,000 more than the year before. And these purchases were made without the assistance of the extinct race of barbers, to each of whom a large diamond was as necessary as a white apron.

M. Millet, French scientist, would tear down the honey bee's reputation built up by Maeterlinck, Lubbock and many others, back to its roots.

The bee is a dull, mechanical creature, says Millet; it does not know that it pollinizes flowers and blossoms, does not even know which flowers have honey, thinks only of getting sugar.

You can say the same of our human honey bees of industry. They build up civilization, make wealth, leisure and culture possible, but they don't know it, or don't care. They also are "only looking for sugar."

W. T. UTILITIES TO HAVE FINE BUILDING HERE

Lot Purchased From Homer Smith; Build Spanish Style

SERVICE JULY 1-15

Construction Crew To Start Building About June 1

The West Texas Utilities Company has purchased the lot across the street from the new Methodist church, from Homer Smith and will erect a modern office building and ice plant of Spanish architecture similar to the company's building in San Angelo.

Announcement to this effect was made here this week by George W. Fry, chief engineer of the Utilities company, who was here looking over the site and making final arrangements for the entrance of the company into this field.

Mr. Fry also announced that the company expected to have a high line through into this city to give local patrons light and power service about July 1 or 15.

A building crew is expected to be brought here about June 1 to start construction on the new building, Mr. Fry declared. A crew is now at work on a building in another town and will not be available this month.

Mr. Smith has purchased a lot from Joe North just south of the Hugh Childress home and will move his home from its present location to the new lot. This work will get under way in the next few weeks to have the Utilities lot cleared for the construction crew as soon as it is available.

The building to be erected here by the utilities concern will be almost exactly like the beautiful building of the company in San Angelo "except it will be a little fellow," Mr. Fry said. The building will have a 90-foot front and will extend back the depth of the lot. It will likely be built of stucco similar to the Hotel Ozona and the plant in San Angelo. It will house the local offices of the company and the ice plant, which will embrace a 7½ ton unit at first with a total capacity of 15 tons when necessary.

Company engineers have not yet worked out details in connection with the construction of the high line from Barnhart here, Mr. Fry said, but the matter is now under consideration and work on the line is expected to start soon. Company officials have estimated that it will be in readiness to offer service to local patrons about the first of July. Meanwhile service will be supplied from the Ozona Improvement Co. plant as usual.

HOSPITAL DRIVE COMING TO HEAD MONDAY EVENING

Ozona's hospital drive will come to a head next Monday night, when members of the women's soliciting committee, contributors to the hospital fund and every person interested in the project will meet at the Hotel Ozona, it was announced Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Laura Hoover, chairman of the committee and prime mover in the hospital campaign.

A final decision will be reached at this meeting on whether or not Ozona and Crockett County want a hospital and if so whether one in a new building or a temporary arrangement in the Kincaid building. The report of the Chamber of Commerce committee on cost of the project will be heard and the matter thoroughly discussed. Every person in Ozona is cordially invited to be present at this meeting, which will begin at 7:30 promptly Monday evening.

Joe Oberkamp was in San Angelo Saturday on business.

Cummings To Go As Road Foreman

Supt. Orders Machinery To Sutton Two Counties Combined

Effective April 15, Aaron Cummings, foreman of road work in Crockett County for the State Highway Department, will be relieved of his duties, Crockett County maintenance work combined with Sutton County and all road machinery now being used in this county transferred to Sutton County, according to instructions received recently by Mr. Cummings from Maintenance Superintendent Wynn of San Angelo.

H. L. Taylor, foreman in Sutton County, will have charge of roads in both counties under the new plan, according to advice received by Mr. Cummings.

It is understood that division heads are contemplating using teams for road work in Crockett County for a time at least. Whether or not other road maintenance machinery will be assigned to this county in the future is not known.

Economy in road maintenance work in this area was assigned as the reason for the change. It was pointed out by Mr. Wynn that it was too expensive to keep the machinery in operation in both counties and that the two were being combined under one foreman for greater efficiency.

Mr. Cummings' work in Crockett County has been highly satisfactory to the people judging from the action of the Chamber of Commerce recently in sending members of the Commissioners Court to Austin to petition the highway commission to re-assign him to supervision of maintenance work in this county. At that time, according to Judge Davidson's report, the commission assured the local delegation that its aim was to administer highway maintenance in an economical and satisfactory manner as possible and the wishes of the people would be taken into consideration in assigning maintenance workers.

Baptists Plan Roll Call Meet

Every Member Urged To Answer Roll At Sun. A. M. Hour

The Ozona Baptist Church will have an old-fashioned roll call meeting next Sunday morning, it was announced this week by Rev. M. M. Fulmer, pastor.

The name of every member of the church will be called at the morning worship hour and every member is expected to be present to answer roll call. The meeting will be turned into a sort of "home coming," Rev. Fulmer said. It is designed to get every member out at one time at this special service, to have a "big reunion" and to stir renewed interest in the activities of the church.

The roll call will be after the fashion of the old school days, the pastor declared. Every member not present will have an 'absent' mark beside his name and "it will take a good excuse to pass muster at the judgment bar of the church," Rev. Fulmer said.

"New friendships will be made and old ones renewed," the pastor declared. "We want every member out for this service." Following the roll call, the pastor will preach on the subject "The Church a Brotherhood." A cordial invitation is extended all denominations to be present at all services.

Ground is being broken this week for a 5 room frame cottage to be erected by Mr. and Mrs. Hurst Meinecke on their lot in the north part of the city. Rob Miller has also started work on a brick home to be erected on the same lot on which his old home stood. The frame house was recently sold to F. A. Gray, who moved it to his lots a few blocks north and divided it into two small rent houses.

SEEK CHARTER FOR HOSPITAL COMPANY HERE

Mrs. Hoover Asks Organization To Speed Up Completion

NAME COMMITTEE

C. C. Lends Aid In Securing Data On Cost And Organization

A committee to determine definitely the cost of purchasing the building and equipping it for a hospital and to arrange for incorporating the hospital company in order to push the project to final realization was appointed by President Couch at the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Monday night following a report of progress of the drive by Mrs. Laura Hoover, chairman of the women's committee.

Mrs. Hoover declared that her committee had done practically all it could and if possible would like to incorporate, call a meeting of stockholders and decide what further steps are to be taken.

The committee to aid in this work is composed of Dr. G. L. Coates, W. D. Barton and L. B. Adams. The committee will report its findings Monday to Mrs. Hoover and a stockholders meeting will likely be held the first of next week.

School bonds, road bonds, hospital bonds and a variety of other subjects were discussed at the Chamber meeting. A good crowd was on hand for the meet and a growing interest in projects being backed by the organization was manifest.

Aaron Cummings, highway foreman for this county and a member of the road bond committee, reported on the activities of that committee, declaring that he had secured estimates on the various types of surfacing materials suitable for the Ozona-Barnhart road. Estimates on road building cost were furnished Mr. Cummings by the district highway engineer at San Angelo, he said. A gravel road would cost in the neighborhood of $2500 a mile after grading had been completed, and exclusive of the cost of culverts, Mr. Cummings said. A crushed rock road would cost approximately $5,000 a mile, he said, and in addition maintenance on such a road would be much more expensive since patching material would have to be crushed.

Plans for entertaining the club women who will be in Ozona for the sixth district convention of the Federated Women's Clubs May 3, 4 and 5 were also discussed. The Chamber of Commerce plans to banquet the visiting ladies on one day and husbands of local club women will treat the visitors to a chuck wagon supper following a free rodeo at the fair grounds in the afternoon.

The secretary was instructed to write club officials and through the Federated News extend the hospitality of Ozona and the Chamber of Commerce to members who contemplate attending the convention here.

Taking care of visitors here for the Crockett County Fair, Rodeo and Race Meet July 3, 4 and 5 was another subject up for discussion at the Chamber meet. The question of whether one or more barbecue dinners should be given for visitors precipitated considerable discussion and a committee of business men headed by Chris Meinecke was named to work with rodeo officials in deciding the question and arranging other details for taking care of visitors during the celebration.

Wiley Dabbs of McCarney, a nephew of W. E. Smith of Ozona, was here the first of the week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Smith. He was accompanied by Mr. Reed, who is associated with him in the engineering department of the Humble Oil & Refining Co.

NEW $60,000 SCHOOL BUILDING IS PROPOSED PLANS SHOWN TO C.C.

Architects drawing of plans for a new high school building in Ozona, to cost approximately $60,000, to augment the present facilities and to take care of future needs of Ozona schools for many years to come, were submitted to the Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Monday night by the school bond committee appointed at a previous meeting.

The work of the committee in pushing the school building project was enthusiastically praised by the Chamber membership and it was voted to continue the committee and to urge them to get further data and to start work toward bringing about an election in the county for the required amount of bonds.

The school bond committee is composed of Judge Chas. E. Davidson, John R. Bailey, Jones Miller, W. R. Baggett and Tom Smith. C. C. Minatra, superintendent of schools, was added to the committee at the meeting Monday night.

The architect's drawing of plans for the proposed new building were explained to the membership by Mr. Minatra, the drawing being mounted on a board and placed before the body. One of the main features of the proposed building is that it contemplates a large auditorium. In fact, the plan is virtually to erect a school building around an auditorium, Mr. Minatra declared.

The total seating capacity of the auditorium would be 1200. The first main floor of the auditorium would seat 700, it was pointed out. From 250 to 300 others could be seated in the balcony. The stage for the auditorium would be constructed large enough to accommodate a small gymnasium and folding doors could be thrown back and an additional 150 or 200 seated in this room, and another 100 or so in a study room behind the balcony. Under this plan, the auditorium would comfortably seat 900 and in cases of emergency could be made to accommodate 1200. A main corridor would run the length of the building making it possible to shut off the auditorium from the rest of the building for use by the community while school is in session.

Flanking the auditorium on either side would be rooms for the vocational departments, three rooms for Vocational Domestic Economy a cooking laboratory, domestic room and cutting and fitting room. On the other side would be quarters for the manual training department and possible vocational animal husbandry class. Toilet and shower rooms would flank the gymnasium to the back.

The second floor of the building would really be the main floor, Mr. Minatra declared. Steps from the outside would lead into this floor, the first floor being approximately level with the ground. Grouped on this floor would be class rooms for required courses, courses in which the largest number of pupils are enrolled, thus shortening the time required for changing class rooms.

Small rooms for offices would flank the steps at the entrance. Grouped around would be the natural science rooms, academic recitation rooms, study hall, English rooms and Library. The entire plan calls for standard building requirements in accordance with the most modern and up-to-date school building architecture. It was declared. Many strictly modern features that are not to be found in the present building are embraced in plans for the proposed new building. In fact, Mr. Minatra said, the building, if erected, will be as modern and up-to-date as any to be found anywhere.

The only objectionable feature to plans as drawn up is the small gymnasium, Mr. Minatra pointed out. The proposed gym room would be only 40x60. The gymnasium was deliberately sacrificed by the committee, however, Mr. Minatra said, in order to provide a larger auditorium. He declared that from the standpoint of the school he was in favor of a smaller auditorium and a large gymnasium, but that he believed that the best interests of the community as a whole would be best served with a large auditorium. If it is necessary, the schools can get along with a comparatively small gymnasium, and it may be possible, he declared, that after the plans are studied a little more thoroughly that some plan can be worked out to provide a larger gymnasium without detracting from the auditorium.

"We believe such a building as this would take care of your school needs now and for a long time to come," Mr. Minatra said. "It is so arranged that it can be added to the extent of making its capacity almost double and if necessary in the distant future another building exactly like the one now proposed could be erected on the other side of the present building and retain the symmetry and beauty of the whole."

Dramatic Club Meeting Called

Those Interested To Be At Theater After Show Fri.

A meeting of all persons interested in the organization of a dramatic club in Ozona has been called for Friday night after the close of the regular picture show at the Ozona Theater.

This meeting has been called for the purpose of feeling out the sentiment here on the organization of such a club and if enough interest is manifested to go ahead with the organization work, according to leaders of the movement.

Recent plays and entertainments staged here have led to the belief that there is sufficient talent here to make up a live dramatic club and that in time such a body may be turned into a Little Theater organization.

If enough persons show an interest in the proposed organization, officers will be elected at the Friday night meeting and plans made for the first play. The movement here is expected to be put on a series of one two and three act plays through the summer months.

The meeting Friday night will be held immediately after the show in the theater building and everybody interested in the proposal is invited to attend.

Women Make Thoro Job Of Clean-Up

The results of a thorough clean-up drive, conducted under the direction of the Civic Department of the Ozona Women's Club is apparent this week in the downtown section. Trucks, furnished by the county, passed around over the town during the week and gathered up all rubbish and trash that had been placed in convenient places by residents and business men. By means of donations solicited from business men facing the square, the club women secured a crew of Mexicans to clean up the square around the park and streets. All weeds around the park fence were cut and raked up, rocks and trash were raked up in piles in the streets and after the weeds and grass are burned and the rocks hauled away the streets will be much more attractive.

THE OZONA STOCKMAN

Published Every Thursday Morning at Ozona, Texas, County Seat of Crockett County by

W. EVART WHITE EDITOR and PUBLISHER
Entered at the Post Office at Ozona, Texas, as Second Class Mail Matter under Act of Congress, March 3rd, 1879.

Ozona, Texas, Thursday, April 7, 1927.

The commissioners Court of Irion County has posted a reward of $25 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of dumping trash along any public highway in the county. It would be worth a lot more money than that to see some of these vandals made to atone for their crime.

Also the same reward might be offered for anyone dumping trash, cans and the like on private property, in pastures for instance. Cans and rubbish dumped in pastures are a menace to livestock as well as marring the landscape.

You'll find no better housekeepers in the world, young man, than right here in Ozona. The house-keeping prowess of Ozona women was demonstrated to the populace at large this week as a result of the clean-up campaign staged under the direction of the Women's Club.

"Men can't keep house," quoth the ladies, and forthwith they do it for him. The men, of course, furnished the dough and a crew of Mexicans was put to work making the downtown section the proverbial "spick and span". Anyway, the results will convince anybody that a woman was behind it.

The Observer recently reported an interview with Ozona Community Spirit in which he reported this much discussed and sometimes harassed mysterious lady as declaring that her plea for some outlet for her pent up energy had been answered too generously, with the result that she had to hie herself to the hills to prevent exhaustion from overwork.

'Tis true that Community Spirit has been having a lively time of it of late — what with the hotel, hospital, good roads, golf course clean ups, Chamber of Commerce, churches and other community enterprises all claiming her attention at once.

But we maintain its her own fault. She's been hiding so long that work has piled up and once she showed her face again things began to happen.

All of these jobs now claiming her attention are of vital importance Ozona had reached the point where she had to "snap into it" and get some rapid action. That she got in short order and altho there seems to be a multiplicity of interests just at present, the slate will be cleared soon and we will be in position to take 'em up one at a time and see 'em to a finish.

One hundred members of the Chamber of Commerce. This child has more than doubled its size at the age of two months and is still growing. It's strong enough to tackle almost anything now, and it's certainly trying its wings. About fifty more members and things will begin to hum in Ozona.

The gol. course has been cleared and arrangements are now being made to put in greens and tees and get things ready for play. Better send in your 25 beans if you want to get in on the first chapter and learn with the rest.

Drive out in the pastures, take a look at the lammies, count 'em up at $5 a head and figure out for yourself about how much money will be brought into Crockett County in the fall.

Ozona's new hotel is getting more and more publicity over the state. Among the latest was a picture and write up in "West Texas Today", official publication of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. The hotel was also written up with a picture, in the Federated News, publication of the Federated Women's Club of Texas. It can stand a lot of this.

Ozona Drops 1st Game Of Season

Big Lake Trounces Locals 10 to 1 Here Wednesday

The first diamond dust of the season Wednesday afternoon resulted disastrously for Ozona's team when a fast aggregation from Big Lake administered a 10 to 1 defeat on the fair ground diamond.

The game was featured by the usual flood of first-of-the season errors and powerful slugging by the visitors. Ozona batsmen were able to garner but one hit. Rex Russell's smashing triple to left in the ninth frame, which brought in Ozona's lonesome score. Big Lake hitters pounded local hurlers freely.

Big Lake scooped first in the second inning when Faught hit for three bases and scored on Kelly's single to the center. The sixth was disastrous for the locals, Big Lake piling up a total of seven runs in that frame with a succession of bingles interspersed liberally with miscues by the locals. Again in the eighth, Big Lake cashed in on Ozona's errors, running in two scores without the aid of a single hit.

Ozona threatened in the final frame when Roth struck out, C. Russell was safe on the third sack-er's error, and scored on R. Russell's triple to left. Augustine had fled out, however, and when Weaver struck out the game ended.

Batteries: Ozona, Cox and Childress. Big Lake: D. Boone and Doty.

The Store For Everybody

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE

It is 1868 and the Pacific Railroad has reached its newest "farthest west"—Benton, Wyoming, a town described as "roaring", as was Frank Beeson, a young man from Albany, New York, comes here because he is in search of health and Benton is considered "high and dry".

Edna Montoyo, a fellow passenger on the train from Omaha, impresses Beeson with the beauty of her blue eyes and the style of her apparel. Equally she astonished him by taking a smile of brandy before breakfast. A brakeman tells Beeson she has followed her man to Benton.

Jim a typical western ruffian, whom she knows apparently well insults her and is floored by Frank whose prowess impresses the passengers.

Col. Lundersen and Bill Brady volunteer to entertain young Beeson.

Frank avoids being caught by any of the numerous gambling games, but is robbed of all his money.

At the "Big Tent" Beeson again meets the Lady with the Blue Eyes. At "Monte" someone turns up the corner of the winning Queen of Hearts and Beeson, his whole $22 bet on it, turns the card which instead of being the Queen is the Eight of Clubs.

George Jenks, a teamster in a wagon train about to leave for Salt Lake City.

Capt. Adams, a Mormon, is in charge of the wagon train.

Rachael Adams, an attractive young woman, one of his wives, is in the train, as is

Daniel Adams, his loutish son. When Edna, who has shot but not killed the gambler, Montoyo, comes a fugitive in "britches" to join the train, Daniel tells his father that she is seeking Jenks and Beeson. Capt. Adams shout, "No hussy in men's garments shall go with the train."

INTO THE NIGHT

A meeting between My Lady and me brought on, not long after the expected crisis. As we talked, suddenly I saw Daniel nearing, striding rapidly, straight for us, a figure portentous in the fading glow, bring the storm with him.

She saw too. Her eyes widened, startled, surveying not him, but me.

"Please go. I'll keep him."

"It is too late now," I asserted, in a voice not mine. "I am here first and I'll go when I get ready."

"You mean to face him? I knew it. You will play the man! Watch him close! He'll give you little grace this time. But remember this: I'll never, never, never marry him. Rather than be bound to him I'll deal with him myself!"

"It won't be necessary, madam," said I—a catch in my throat; for while I was all iciness and clamminess, my hands cold and my tongue dry, I felt that I was going to kill him.

Daniel charged for us. I did not touch revolver butt; he did not. He barked first at her.

"Go whar yu belong, yu Jeezabel! Then I'll tend to this—" The rabid epithet hurled at me I shall not repeat.

"Be careful what you say, Daniel. No man on earth can speak to me like that."

All his face flushed livid with a sneer, merging together yellow freckles and tan skin.

"Can't, can't he? I kin and I do. Now yu git. I've stood yore fast-an-loose plenty. I mean business. Git! Whar yu'll be safe. I'll not hold off much longer."

"No more of that, you brute," I roared. "If you have something to say, say it to me."

He whirled.

"Yu! Why you little piece of nothin'—you shut up!" By sudden reach he gripped her arm; to her sharp, short scream he thrust her out.

"Git! I'm boss here." And at me that yu goin' to do? She's prom- to me. Git, yerself, or I'll rap on yu like on a louse."

Forgot instructions, I disre- every movement preliminary- the onset! Bullets were too slow and easy!

I did not see his revolver; I saw but the hulk of him, and that his flesh was ready to my fingers.

And quicker than his hand I was upon him, into him, clinching him, clinging to him, arm binding him, legs twining around his, each ounce of me greedy to crush him down and master him.

The shock drove him backward. We swayed and staggered, grappling hither and thither. I had his arms pinioned to bend him. He spat into my face; and shifting, set his teeth into my shoulder so that they champed like the teeth of a horse, through shirt and hide to the flesh.

We toppled together, came to the ground with a thump. Here we churned, while he flung me and still I stuck.

The acrid dust of the alkali enveloped us. Again he spat, fetid—sprawled upon him, smothering his flailing arms; gave him all my weight and strength; smelled the sweat of him, snarled into his snarling face close beneath mine.

Once he partially freed himself and buffeted me in the mouth with his fist, but I caught him—while struggling, tossed and upheaved, dimly saw that as by a miracle we were surrounded by a ring of people, men and women, their countenances pale alarmed, intent Voices sounded in a dull roar.

Presently I had him crucified: one outstretched arm under my knees, his other arm tethered by my two hands, my body across his chest, while his legs thrashed vainly.

I looked down into his bulging eyes.

"Nuf. Cry 'Nuf!' I commanded. "Nuf! Say 'Nuf,'" echoed the crowd.

He strained again, convulsive; and relaxed.

"Nuf!" he panted through bared teeth. "Lemme up, Mister."

"That settles it?"

"I said 'Nuf,'" he growled.

With a quick movement I sprang clear of him, to my feet. He lay for a moment, baleful, and slowly scrambled up.

On a sudden, as he faced me, his hand shot downward—I heard the surge and shout of men and women, to the stunning report of his revolver ducked aside, felt my left arm jerk and sting—felt my own gun explode in my hand (and how it came there I did not know) beheld him spin around and collapse an astonishing sight.

So there I stood, amidst silence, gaping foolishly, breathing hard, my revolver smoking in my fingers and my enemy in a shockingly prone posture at my feet, gradually reddening the white of the torn soil.

He was upon his face, his revolver hand outflung. He was harmless. The moment had arrived and passed. I was standing here alive. I had killed him.

Figures rushed in between. Hands grasped me, impelled me away, through a haze; voices spoke in my ear while I feebly resisted, a warm salty taste in my throat.

I killed him. I didn't want to kill him. He made me do it. He shot first."

"Yes, yes," they said soothingly gruffly. "Shore he did; shore you din't. It's all right. Come along, come along."

Then— "Pick Beeson up. He's bad hurt himself. See that blood? No, 'taint his arm is it? He's bleedin' internal. Whar's the hole? Wait—he's busted somethin'."

They would have carried me. "No," I cried, while their bearded faces swam. "He said 'Nuf'—he shot me afterward. Not bad, is it? I can walk."

As they hustled me onward the world had grown curiously darkened, and I dumbly wondered whether I was dying myself. Across a great distance we stumbled by the wagons and halted at a fire. "You're all right," Jenks had apparently looked me over and was ministering to me. "Swaller this."

The odor of whiskey fumed in my nostrils. I obediently swallowed. Hands were rumaging at my left arm; a bandage being wound about.

"Did I kill him?" I besought. "Not that! I didn't aim—I don't know how to shoot—but I had to,

Didn't I?"

"You did! He'll not bother you ag'n. She's yourn."

That hurt. "But it wasn't about her! He bullied me—dared me. We were man to man, boys. He made me fight him."

"Yes, shor," they agreed—and they were not believing. They still linked me with a woman, whereas she had figured only as a transient occasion. Then she herself, My Lady, appeared, running in breathless and appealing.

"Is Mr. Beeson hurt? Badly? Where is he? Let me help."

She knigt beside me, her hand grasped mine, she gazed wide eyed (Continued on page 5) and imploring.

 "No, he's all right, ma'am."
 "I'm all right, I assure you," I mumbled thickly, and helpless as a babe to the clinging of her cold fingers.
 The group about me dissolved. Jenks seated himself close beside us.

"Your arm wont trouble you," he said. "Just a flesh wound. You two can eat and rest a bit, and if you set out 'fore moon-up you can easy get cl'ar. We'll furnish horses and grub and everything else you need."

"Mounts!" I blurted. "Setout you say? You mean that—we—should run away? I'll not leave the train and neither shall she until the proper time. Or do I understand that you disown us?"

"Hold on," Jenks bade. "Tain't a question of disownin' you. But you've killed one o' the Mormons, the wagon boss's son; and when he comes in the mornin' demandin' of you for trial by his Mormons, what can we do? We'll take the chance on sneakin' you both away and facin' the old man."

"I think we'd best go," I agreed. "It's the only way."

And it was. We were twain in menace to the outfit, and to each other, but inseparable. We were yoked.

The fact appalled me. It gripped me coldly. I seemed to have bargained for her with fist and bullet, and won her; now I should appear to carry her off as my booty; a wife and a gambler's wife. Yet such must be!

"Moon'll be up in a couple of hours," Jenks said. "I'd advise you to take an hour's start of it, so as to get away easier. If you travel straight south'ard you'll strike the stage road in the mornin' When you reach a station you'll have ch'ice either way."

"I have money," she said and sat erect.

For the first half mile we rode without a word.

What her thoughts were I might not know, but they sat heavy upon her, closing her throat with the torture of vain self-reproach. That much I sensed. But I could not reassure her. My own thoughts were so grievous as to crush me with aching woe.

This, then, was I; somebody who had just killed a man, had broken from the opentrail and was riding he knew not where, through darkness worse than night, himself an outlaw with an outlawed woman—at the best a chance woman, an adventuring woman—now the spoil of killing!

Cooke To Install Barbecue Pits At Baptist Meeting

Rev. L. R. Millican of El Paso, missionary of the El Paso Baptist Association, was in Ozona the first of the week making arrangements with R. J. Cooke for the installation of three of Mr. Cooke's patented barbecue pits for use at the Paisano Baptist Encampment at Paisano Pass, between Alpine and Marfa, July 22 to 31.

Rev. Millican arranged for installation of three of the barbecue pits. The Paisano Encampment will furnish free eats to guests throughout the encampment. The following are a few of the high lights of the encampment program given by Rev. Millican.

Dr. I. E. Gates, pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Antonio, will preach every day at 11 a. m., and Dr. George Truett, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Dallas, every evening.

Dr. Tidwell, Bible Teacher at Baylor University, will give a Bible lecture every morning at 8 a. m.

Dr. Samuel J. Porter, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Washington, D. C., will lecture on the Hebrews every afternoon at 3 o'clock. There will be special Sunday School, B. Y. P. U. and Ladies divisions during the encampment.

Rev. Millican is one of the most picturesque figures in West Texas Baptist circles. He is 74 years old, still hale and hearty, and is "on the go" constantly in the missionary field. He is a Texas pioneer, former Indian fighter and frontiersman.

Mrs. N. W. Graham and daughter, Miss Rachel Graham went to San Angelo Saturday to do some shopping and to visit Mrs. Graham's mother.

School Contest Winners Picked

County Winners To Go To District Meet At San Angelo

Winners in literary events who will represent Crockett County schools in the district meet to be held in San Angelo late in April were selected at the county meet held here last Friday at the school building.

The local schools will not be represented in athletic events this year in the district meet, according to Supt. C. C. Minatra. The basketball team was eliminated early in the season and coaches have been unable to round up material for a try at honors on the cinder path. Strong contestants will represent the county in the literary events as the following results of the county contests will show.

THE OZONA MERCANTILE
 "Small Profits, Many Sales"

Dr. Frank Crane Says

The liquor business is like a deadly serpent.

It is about as easy to regulate or to make legal as it is to tame a hyena.

It is essentially a wild beast.

It is unfortunately aligned with conviviality. Many people seem to think that getting drunk is a joke and the consumption of alcohol amusing. They speak condoningly of the use of whiskey by the youth.

Many people, and especially those engaged in wet propaganda, do not realize the deadly end of this peril.

It is an own brother to murder, hold-ups, burglary, smuggling and thuggism.

A man engaged in the business of enforcing the law of prohibition takes his life in his hands, for those in the liquor business do not hesitate to kill when it is necessary. It embraces not only low brow thugs, but millionaires and social leaders.

While the common people have declared for the abolition of alcohol there are many who are determined to go on with their consumption of liquor.

The efforts of the convivially inclined and those who think that their personal liberty has been interfered with are influenced by one of the strongest passions in the human breast — greed.

It is difficult to enforce any law when the breaking of that law is backed up by human passions. The laws against arson, murder, adultery and theft are thousands of years old, yet they are constantly violated no matter what their evil effects.

The law against the use of liquor is aimed at the greatest curse and greatest cause of crime that humanity has ever known.

Those who see the vileness of its effects, the moral degradation of youth and the damage to business have lined up solidly for prohibition, while against the prohibitory law are those who are suitably influenced by the traditional tolerance of the human race to a habit that is supposed to be genial and pardonable.

The trouble with bootlegging is that it pays and pays big. Whoever will take the profit out of this unholy business will be doing a great service.

Another Good Mat Bout Sat.

Spanish Whirlwind To Meet Pacific Coast "Rough House"

Just another good wrestling match is on the card for Ozona fans at the Ozona Theater Saturday night April 9 according to announcement made this week by Sam W. Faust matchmaker.

Dan McGrew, the Pacific Coast "Rough House Kassler" from Los Angeles, Calif., will meet Andres Jimenez, the "Spanish" whirlwind from Barcelona, Spain, in a finish match at the local theater on that date. No time limit has been set for the bout which is to be under New York Commission rules, nothing barred but the strangle hold.

Both McGrew and Jimenez have a large following in San Angelo athletic circles and McGrew, who is a comparatively newcomer in West Texas, comes with very favorable press reports from the Pacific Coast. Jimenez is from the old school of wrestlers, using the old Grecian style of wrestling and his pet hold is a jack knife scissors which he applies either from a standing position or on the mat. He is said to use more freak holds than any wrestler ever to appear on the local mat.

McGrew the "biting, scratching, slugging" wrestler has been working in "rough house" motion picture scenes in Hollywood since his bout in San Angelo with Jack Gorman last summer, it is reported, and is prepared to give and take. His favorite holds are the aero plane and standing toe hold.

In the preliminaries there will be a series of boxing exhibitions between Curley "Shine" Daniels, local negro slugger, and Ricardo Manchura, Mexican, who "mixed it" two weeks ago. Curley has been working to strengthen his "wind" and expects to give the Mex a good battle.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Max Schaefer entertained her daughter Eda, with a birthday party on her ninth birthday Tuesday April 5. After gathering at the home, the guests were taken to Couch's well where an Easter egg hunt was staged, followed by a series of games. The guests then drew sticks of candy and found their partners by matching colors of paper wrappings on the candy.

Lunch was then served from Easter baskets, cutting of the birthday cake following. Lemonade was served with the cak. Those enjoying the party were Misses Helen Schauer, Eve Keene, Mona McKinney, Ernest Sparkman, Lorene Schauer Victor Lenore Pierce Esta Kate Pierce, Willie V. Odom, Imogene Baker, Dorothy Henderson, Gladine Coates, Maggie Seahorn, Catherine Coates, Willie V. Coose and Para Cobb.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mary B. Vaughn was surprised on her eleventh birthday Tuesday afternoon with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Vaughn. The guests enjoyed a number of games after which refreshments were served and the birthday cake cut. Little rabbit favors were used, carrying out the Easter motif. The little hostess received a number of pretty gifts. Those enjoying the affair of were Blanche Robinson, Hazel Robinson, Louetta Powell, Ada Melnecke Lois D. Adams Lucile Rogers, Melba Wilson, Margaret Deland, Bernice Bailey, Tommy Smith, Josephine Longley, Mammie Kirkpatrick Helen Henderson, Louise Henderson, Wayne Augustine, Jessie Ingham, Ellen Schauer, Ethel Word, Elizabeth Perner, Gladine Powell, Edith Bewley and H. P. Vaughn Jr.

FORTY TWO AND BRIDGE

Mrs. Lee Childress and Mrs. Victor Pierce were hostesses to two parties last Thursday at the home of the latter. In the afternoon they entertained the Thursday Forty Two Club and a number of guests. That evening they entertained the young set with bridge. The home was decorated beautifully and delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Hunter and if dead his heirs; and alleging in substance as follows:

Being an action and prayer for judgment against each of the defendants for the title to and possession and for quieting of the title of each and all of the land hereinafter described as follows:

All of those certain six sections or surveys of land patented to John T. Brackenridge, assignee of T. W. & N. G. R. R. Co., and more particularly described as follows:

Abstract No. 3394, Survey No. 5, Block "G", Certificate No. 0-215, T. W. & N. G. Ry. Co., 640 acres, Patent No. 14, Vol. 64, and situated in Crockett County, Texas.

Abstract No. 3392, Survey No. 7, Block "G", Certificate No. 0-205, T. W. & N. G. Ry. Co., 640 acres Patent No. 12, Vol. 64, situated in Crockett County, Texas.

Abstract No. 538, Survey No. 11, Block G, Certificate No. 0-183, T. W. & N. G. Ry. Co., 640 acres, Patent No. 9, Vol. 64, and situated in Upton County, Texas.

Abstract No. 539, Survey No. 13, Block "G", Certificate No. 0-192 T. W. & N. G. Ry. Co., 640 acres, Patent No. 8, Vol. 64, and situated in Upton County, Texas.

Survey No. 3, Block "G", Certificate No. 0-197 T. W. & N. G. Ry. Co., Patent No. 15, Vol. 64, 640 acres, 213 acres of which is situated in Upton County, Texas, and known as Abstract No. 540, and 427 acres of which is situated in Crockett County, Texas, and known as Abstract No. 4134.

Abstract No. 0-208 T. W. & N. G. Ry. Co., Patent No. 11, Vol. 64, 640 acres, 213 acres of which is situated in Upton County, Texas, and known as Abstract No. 541, and 427 acres of which is situated in Crockett County, Texas, and known as Abstract No. 4133.

Plaintiffs allege that they were in possession of all of the above described property on March 12, 1927, and long prior thereto and were entitled to such possession, and that the defendants afterwards on said date, unlawfully entered upon and dispossessed them of said property, and withhold from them the possession thereof.

Plaintiffs further allege that the said A. C. Hunter is the common source of title to said property, and that by deed dated August 8th 1890, he conveyed said property to said J. T. Crawford, and retained a vendor's contract lien in said deed on said property to secure the payment of a note for $1633.35 which note afterwards became the property of A. H. Esty and C. H. Esty, who foreclosed said note and vendor's lien in this court in cause No. 13,749, styled A. H. & C. H. Esty vs. J. T. Crawford, et al. wherein decree of foreclosure was rendered in their favor against said defendants on December 22nd 1898, on all of said property save and except said Survey No. 9, which through clerical error was not foreclosed on, and all of the remainder of said property was purchased under said foreclosure sales by said A. H. Esty and C. H. Esty and E. M. House as shown by the records of this court; that thereafter the said A. H. Esty and C. H. Esty, as the holders and owners of said note and vendor's lien rescinded said sale as to said Survey No. 9, and sold and conveyed said survey together with all of said other surveys to E. M. House, who sold and conveyed all of the same to Lora Sovereign, who is the same person as Lora Sovereign Bugbey; that the said A. C. Hunter and if he be dead his heirs hold whatever title they have to said property in trust for Plaintiffs who with their said grantors have been mortgagees in possession of said property from and since said foreclosure sales, and plaintiffs are entitled to have such title as remained in said A. C. Hunter and his heirs decreed by this Court to be vested in them, and they offer to do equity as may be decreed by the Court; that the plaintiffs are further claiming said land under the statute of limitation for a period of over five years; plaintiffs further pray for such order as they may be entitled to in connection with said old suit above mentioned and for general relief.

All of which more fully appears from Plaintiffs original petition on file in this office.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, but have you then and there before said Court this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

The Easter Parade

As the annual parade is seen promenading along the boulevard Easter morn it takes on a lighter step, as tho all the world's cares had been left behind. As every woman knows, a new frock or hat is most inspiring and the new Easter costumes doubtless go a long way toward putting that lighter step into the Easter promenade.

Seeing Easter from the Fashion Angle

—then, lies uppermost in the thoughts of the smart world at this time. Among the best dressed in the parade this year will walk those who have chosen their wardrobes from among Cox-Rushing-Greer Co.'s outstanding modes.

Special Showing of Easter Frocks

In a wide and fascinating assortment variously interpreting the newest and most flattering modes. With Easter inspiring all to new apparel, this special showing is most timely and convenient.

EASTER SALE OF COATS

Here are Coats for your Easter wearing, marked at special low prices, that are brand new and just fresh from their wrappings. Cashmere, kasha, satin and silk faille constitute their fabrics. In their smartly cut lines and chic use of trimmings you can see the extent of their cleverness. Baby fox, animal scarfs and the flat pelted furs are some of the fur trimmings employed, while smartly designed embroidery motifs hint of the Paris inspiration of these Coats.

CC Reaches Goal
Of 100 Members

Civic Club Roster Now Shows Total Of 101 Names

The goal of 100 members, set by President S. E. Couch, has been passed by the Ozona Chamber of Commerce. The membership roster of the organization now embraces a total of 101 names as a result of the activities of the membership committee, headed by Vic Pierce.

Starting out two months ago with approximately 40 charter members the Chamber of Commerce has enjoyed a steady growth. But to Vic Pierce goes credit for the recent phenomenal spurt in the membership total. After being appointed on the membership committee Mr. Pierce forgot about the office until 4 o'clock on the afternoon of the next meeting. Dashing out at that hour he rounded up 27 new members. Before the next meeting he had thirteen more and this week he secured two more, making a total of 42 new members.

Following is the complete membership of the Chamber: S. E. Couch, president, Scott Peters, treasurer, Please Childress, vice-president, W. E. White secretary, Fleet Coates, Tom Casbeer, H. Rodgers, Chas. E. Davidson, J. T. Keeton, Aaron Cummings, Cam Longley, Pon Seahorn, Joe Pierce Jr., Chris Meinecke, A. C. Hoover, B. B. Ingham, T. A. Kincaid, J. C. Montgomery, Lee Wilson, P. T. Former Ozona Man Writes Of Life In South America

A brief but interesting account of life in Bolivia is contained in a letter received this week by the local Masonic lodge from A. E. Black, drilling superintendent for the Standard Oil Company in Bolivia and Argentina in South America, who was formerly stationed in Ozona in connection with oil development in this section.

Mr. Black wrote the local lodge enclosing a check for his dues for this year and in connection with his letter gave some information about his work there that will be of interest to his friends in this section. Apart of the letter read as follows:

"I was in Columbia before going to the States and was transferred as drilling superintendent to this country to take the Standard of Argentina. My work carries me over 800 miles, about 400 miles of what at this time of year, which is the rainy season, is on a mule and over some pretty rough trails.

"It is very hard to get mail in or out of the country. So all mail is sent by messenger to Buenos Aires and from there back in the same way.

"I am stationed 1500 miles north of Buenos Aires. Mrs. Black is with me and is the only white woman in this part of the country. Will write you more when I hear from this letter—giving you a more detailed account of the two countries. Yours sincerely,

A. E. Black, c/o Standard Oil Co.

Buenos Aires, Argentina.
"P. S. With my being sent all over the country is there any chance of getting a life membership card, or if not could I pay my dues, say two years, ahead?

"Give my best regards to Dudley, Mr. Friend, Judge Davidson and all of my friends there. If Mr. Howard Cox is still there, please tell him that Mrs. Black and myself send our best regards." A.E.B.

John Riddle, for several years pastor of the Fort Stockton Baptist church, has resigned his post there and is going into the evangelistic field, according to information received here. So far as is known here, no pastor has been called by the congregation there.

QUALITY AT LOW COST

WE VERY OFTEN HEAR SOME ONE SAY THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE IN THE GRADES OF GASOLINE & OILS. THEY MIGHT AS WELL SAY THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE IN THE GRADES OF FLOUR. EVERY HOUSE WIFE KNOWS THERE IS A VAST DIFFERENCE IN THE QUALITY OF FLOURS. THE SAME THING IS TRUE OF GASOLINE & OILS.

WE RECOMMEND GOOD GULF GASOLINE & SUPREME MOTOR OIL. Has stood the test for almost quarter of a century.

Quality Used Cars

Owing to the big demand for the new 1927 Buick with the new motor "Vibrationless Beyond Belief" we have at all times some rare bargains in used cars. The other fellow has taken the big depreciation and you can get the big unused value. Below is a partial list of some bargains we have to offer:

Master Buick Brougham Sedan fully equipped driven less than 15000 miles for over $1100.00 less than a new one cost.

Dodge Deluxe 4-Door Sedan, Disc wheels, Bumpers, Leather upholstery, good rubber, and just repainted that will make some one a good family car for nearly $600.00 less than a new one cost.

1926 Model Chevrolet Roadster in good mechanical condition for less than half the price of a new one. Will make some one a real ranch car.

1926 Model Ford Roadster has original tires in good shape. Looks like new, runs like a top. Will sell cheap. Better see this one.

Dodge Touring 1925 Model, brand new tires all around, high pressures, for $600 less than new one cost.

1926 Model Ford 2-Door Sedan in good running order for less than half price.

1926 Model Standard Buick Coupe fully equipped for $625.00 less than new one cost. A bargain.

Buy one of these and get almost same service as new one and have plenty money left over to spend on vacation. Be sure and come to us before buying a car for we can save you money.
