PERMIAN FLAG CHASE STILL IN DEADLOCK

Giants and Oilers Divide Week-End Games To Balance 2 All

THRILLER SUNDAY

Weaver's Double Scoring Two Ozona's Big Moment in 4th

After two more games over the past week-end, the Texon Oilers and the Ozona Giants remained deadlocked in their play-off battle for the West Texas baseball crown. The Oilers taking Saturday's game, a ragged slug-fest by a 9 to 8 tally, and the Giants snatching a sensational 2-1 contest Sunday to put the two teams all even again.

The two teams let up from their airtight one and two-score games Saturday when both let loose a barrage of hits to give the customers plenty of action through the nine innings. Texon opened the fireworks in the first frame with two scores and the Giants in their half of the same inning pushed over five runs with three walks, one error and four bunched hits. The Oilers were hitting freely in succeeding frames for two runs in the second, one in the fifth and two in the sixth. In their half of the sixth, however, the Giants barged one ahead with three more runs, but the defending champions evened it in the seventh and pushed over the winning score in the eighth when Housewright singled, stole second, went to third on the throw to second and scored after two were out on Barbee's single.

Sunday's game, however, was

Giants' Stellar 2nd Sacker Still To Dampen Oiler Hopes Despite Their Efforts

Dogged by ill fortune, Fats Heatherly, second baseman on the Ozona Giants team, received severe cuts about the ankle in both Saturday's and Sunday's games with the Texon Oilers when runners slid into the Ozonan at second base on two occasions.

Cleats of the runners' shoes lacerated the area about the Giant player's ankle but the physician's report said that no leader was cut. Heatherly has been on crutches this week but the attending physician expected the second baseman to be in uniform Saturday and ready to contribute his stellar brand of baseball toward defeat of the Conleymen and a West Texas baseball championship for the Giants.

Interest High In Revival At Baptist Church

Rev. Buren Sparks Of Alpine Preaching; Rev. Garrison Singer

Considerable enthusiasm among the large audiences in daily attendance is being attained at the revival meeting this week at the Baptist Church, where the Rev. Buren Sparks, of Alpine, is addressing church members and visitors each morning and evening. The Rev. Ira Garrison, of Bangs, is directing the song services.

The meeting began Sunday evening and will continue through this week. Services are being held at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. Invitations to attend the services have been extended by church members.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES SLATED FOR WEEK-END

First Of Crucial Series To Be Here Saturday at 3:30; Second At Texon Sunday, 3 p. m.

With the series standing two-all, the Ozona Giants and the Texon Oilers, battling for the Permian Basin League championship, which represents the baseball crown of West Texas, will resume their evenly matched battle in a two-game series this week-end that could decide the issue.

The teams are slated for a four-out-of-seven game series. In the event either team succeeds in snatching off both games of this week's series the battle will be over and a new champion crowned.

The first game of the series will be played Saturday afternoon, starting at 3:30 o'clock, on the Ozona diamond, with the Sunday game scheduled for the Texon park at 3 p. m. In the event the two teams split the coming series, the location of the deciding game will be decided by a toss of the coin. Manager Slim Harris will likely start Saturday's game here, with Al Crostwaite in readiness to take up the cudgel should danger show. Crostwaite is slated for the heaving job at Texon Sunday.

New Operation On Leg Bone Prospect For B. B. Ingham

Further complications in the leg injury of B. B. Ingham were revealed after an examination last week by Dallas physicians. The leg bone, broken more than two years ago, was found to be perishing, and it was disclosed that new bone will have to be grafted into the area. Mr. Ingham returned here this week after taking his son, Dudley, to Dallas for treatment after the lad received a broken bone in a football tangle here last Friday.

Junior Woman's Club Initiates Year's Activity

Luncheon Opens Season Program; Government Next Study Topic

With Miss Wayne Augustine presiding as toastmaster, the Ozona Junior Woman's Club initiated its season's activities with a luncheon at the Hotel Ozona last Thursday afternoon. There were 26 members and guests present.

The president of the group, Miss Hester Bunker, in a talk on plans and ambitions of the club and its officers for the coming year, greeted the new sponsor of the junior organization, Mrs. W. R. Baggett, who was a special guest of the day. Musical entertainment was presented by Miss Elitabel Tillory on the violin, with Miss Wayne Chapman accompanying at the piano.

The organization will devote itself to a study of government at its next session, Thursday, September 26. Mrs. Massie West will be program leader. The relation of the citizen to his local, state, national and international governments will be discussed by various speakers during the afternoon. Miss Mildred North will speak on local government, Mrs. Ted White on state government, Mrs. Claude Denham on national government and Mrs. Arthur Phillips on international government.

The Junior club meets at 3:40 p. m. in the grammar school building.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Swearingen left Monday for their home in Lockhart. Mrs. Swearingen had been visiting her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Peters, and Mr. Swearingen drove here Sunday.

Interesting Program Arranged for Initial Meeting of Year

Parent-Teacher Association activity will get under way Monday afternoon when parents and teachers assemble in the Ozona High School auditorium for the initial session of the school year. Special invitation to mothers who have children in school this year for the first time has been extended. The new members are designated "special guests" at the opening meeting.

Leading the afternoon meeting will be Mrs. Lee Childress.

The following program has been arranged: Girls drum corps number, directed by Joe Haddon; special music, by Mrs. H. E. Tandy; prayer, Rev. R. A. Taylor; reading, by Mrs. Gerald Williams; "Advancement of the Public School," by Superintendent C. S. Denham; piano solo, by Miss Wayne Chapman; and "What's New in School," by Mrs. Welton Bunker.

The general theme of the parent-teacher program for the current year has been set forth as "Our Public Schools." The association has selected for a slogan, "The Modern Parent Knows The School." Mrs. Joe T. Davidson is the association president.

Miss Luetta Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Powell of Ozona, became the bride of Pink Beal in the home of the bride Sunday morning at 8:30, with members of the bride's family present.

The morning ritual was conducted by Rev. R. A. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist Church. Following the marriage ceremony, the couple went to San Angelo. They are to be at home in Texon, where Mr. Beal is manager of the Texon Barber Shop.

The bride is a graduate of the Ozona High School and for the past year has been employed in the office of N. W. Graham, in Ozona. Mr. Beal was formerly employed in a local barber shop.

HEART ATTACK

W. E. Crowder, employe at the Mike Couch Store, suffered a heart attack several days ago and has been confined to bed. The Ozonan suffered a like attack about two years ago.

Three Hurt In Season's First Grid Accidents

Dudley Ingham Suffers Broken Leg; Williams, Causey Hurt

First football injuries on the local field occurred last Friday afternoon when members of the present high school squad were engaged in scrimmage with former players on the practice field.

Most serious injury was suffered by Dudley Ingham, high school senior and son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Ingham. The youth suffered a broken leg. Examined by a local physician, the shin bone was found to have been broken. Later the family carried the injured boy to Dallas for treatment. An operation was performed there to tie the broken bones together. Mrs. Ingham remained with her son and Mr. Ingham returned here this week. He reported that the youth was doing well.

Leo Williams, sixth grade student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams, received a head injury in the tangle on the football field and was unconscious for several hours. He has been able to attend school. Yena Causey, senior in the high school and transfer from Crews, received a cut above the left eye in the gridiron engagement Thursday. His injury was not serious.

Mexican Cook Found Dead On Ira Carson Ranch Buried Here

The body of Vidal Garcia, 53, Mexican who was found dead yesterday morning beside a water trough at the Ira Carson ranch, where he was employed as cook, was buried in the local Mexican cemetery last night.

The Mexican was subject to heart attacks and it is believed that his death was due to such an attack. He had evidently gone to the water trough to bathe his face in an effort to recover from the attack. A wet handkerchief was clasped in his dead fingers, the body crumpled down beside the trough. Mr. Carson had hired the man the day before. A justice of the peace from Del Rio held the inquest over the dead body, that part of Mr. Carson's ranch being located in Val Verde County.

Lions Open Grid Schedule Against Iraan Saturday

First & Second Teams To Tangle In Practice Tilts There

Coach Ted White will take twenty-six players to Iraan Saturday and pit them against the protégés of Coach V. E. Gosch in two encounters for the opening of the autumn sport as far as the two football contingents are concerned. The tangle between the first string teams will begin at 3:30. Following the main affair, second string players will set to battle at 5 o'clock.

The games Saturday between the Braves, of District 8, and the Lions, of District 17, is a practice affair and coaches of the tangling teams will be able to see the wrinkles that yet need to be smoothed out before scheduled interscholastic play begins.

The aspect of the melee between the two first teams being an unofficial contest is offset by the interest of "first-game-of-the-year" enthusiasm. The Lions have little more than two weeks of training behind them but are reported in good shape to get into action. No report on the Iraan Braves has been received except that Coach Gosch's squad consists of ten let-

GRAND JURY SETS RECORD WITH 4 MINUTE SESSION

Investigators Find Nothing To Investigate So They Meet, Greet And Adjourn

The four minute session of the grand jury here Monday morning was something of a record. Judge Joe Montague, who is presiding over the court session here this week, said that he did not recall any session of grand jury meeting and dismissing in such record time since he has been on the bench. The speedy session was a record for Crockett County.

When the grand jury for the 112th District Court here had been impaneled Monday morning, the Crockett Sheriff, deputies, county attorney, nor justice of the peace had no matters to report for investigation. No member of the grand jury knew of any matter deserving investigation. So the grand jury for the fall term of court here adjourned, after being in session four minutes.

Crockett County's law abiding virtue has been complimented by Judge Montague repeatedly.

COURT TERM TO WIND UP WORK TODAY

Eleven Civil Actions Disposed Of In Brief Session

JURIES TRY TWO

Four Criminal Cases On Docket Go Over To Next Term

Jurors were dismissed yesterday afternoon by Judge Joe Montague and today cases not already passed upon by the court were to be completed and the current session was to be finished.

Juries were impaneled for but two of the eleven civil cases appearing on the docket and of the four criminal cases listed, one was to come before the court this morning, two were continued on applications of the defendants, and the other was passed up for the present term.

Cases heard before the jury were Edgar Hale vs Traders and General Insurance Company, suit for insurance to compensate injuries alleged to have been suffered by the plaintiff, and the suit of Mrs. Ruby Thompson, Jr., against Geo. Thompson, Sr., in which the plaintiff asked damages for alleged injuries suffered at the hands of the defendant.

Edgar Hale was awarded compensation from the insurance company for fifty per cent disability over a period of six weeks at $12 per week, which amounted to $36. Judgment was entered by the court dismissing the jury and fixing the award on motion of the defense. Notice of appeal was given yesterday.

No damages were granted to the plaintiff in the case of Mrs. Ruby Thompson, Jr., against George Thompson, Sr., the case being decided on an instructed verdict. The defendant failed to establish venue.

$3,000 RADIUM VIAL LOST
FOUND IN HOG'S STOMACH

Sioux Falls, S. D. Sept. 18—A $3,000 vial of radium, accidentally thrown away, was back at Moe Hospital Monday after an uncanny precise search by two University of Minnesota scientists who traced it to the stomach of a squealing hog.

When the loss of the tube was discovered Dr. A. J. Moe called in Dr. J. W. Bucht and Dr. W. H. Barber of the university. They devised a detector from gold leaf and started for the dump grounds.

For an hour the scientists quartered the grounds while 500 pigs wandered over the heaped refuse. Then their gauge jumped and they shooed nearby pigs away to dig. But the gauge returned to normal when the hogs moved off.

This meant the radium was inside one of the animals, now lost among the other 500. So the searchers divided the drove into five sections and by elimination reduced to three and finally to one as the probable culprit.

They called a butcher who opened the animal. The tube, measuring one-sixteenth of an inch in diameter and three-fourths of an inch in length, was in its stomach.

Johnny Hokit, who suffered a eye injury several weeks ago while at work with a well drilling machine, went to San Angelo yesterday for treatment. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Hokit, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Huffstetler and Mrs. Red Greer.

Making the trip from Ozona were Bryan McDonald, manager, and Leath c, Brown 1b, Casbeer lf, Johnigan cf, Burman p, Patrick ss, Williams rf, Moore 3b, Sapp 2b, Wattrous rs, and Busby utility.

O. Lusby and Dr. H. B. Tandy.

R. E. Simon, statistician of the Permian Basin League, has sent in the following all-star team and second choice:

"How can a league season end without some egg trying to figure out an all-star team from the apple knockers composing the various clubs? These teams never satisfy all the fans in all of the towns and possibly none of the fans in any of the towns. But, here is mine.

To find my teams I have added the batting and fielding and defensive strength of the player. How does that sound? I have done the above in each case but one. You tell me which.

"I believe the best club would have Joiner on short and Dorley on third, but as they did not play in those positions they were considered as catcher and first baseman, respectively.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

AUSTIN, Sept. 18—The legislature, with Gov. Allred's message recommending regulation of liquor traffic as the first major problem to be attacked, plunged this week, after brief organization routine, into this troublesome question. Members had for their consideration, upon the opening of the session, two bills, representing probably the two extremes of viewpoint. Neither will be adopted, of course, but the final measure will be a series of compromises. Current opinion is that the law adopted will eliminate the old fashioned custom of standing at the bar with one foot on the decorative brass rail. Constitutional ban on the "open saloon" will eliminate standup drinking. Probably liquor will be sold by the drink only in hotels, cafes and other bona fide food-serving establishments. A rather high license fee, designed to raise substantial revenue, while still not permitting bootleggers to thrive in competition, likely will be another provision.

Next for consideration will be a method of compensating fee officers, to vitalize the constitutional amendment abolishing the fee system. And third on the governor's program is the old age pension amendment. This matter contains more political possibilities, and likewise more legislative possibilities than all the others combined. To finance the pensions the whole question of state revenue and taxation will be opened up, and sales tax advocates are preparing to stage a vigorous drive to push thru their plan. They will meet opposition from Gov. Allred, who has said: "There are plenty of other ways to raise revenue." He will no doubt urge some of the 17 new sources of taxation he proposed at the regular session, practically all of which failed of passage. Legislators here report more interest among the home folks in old-age pensions than in any other subject before the solons.

President Roosevelt has given American business a "breathing spell" nationally, and following the same line of thought, Gov. Allred has virtually assured the state's billion-dollar oil industry a legislative breathing spell so far as the special session is concerned. Up to last Saturday, the governor declared he had received not a single request to submit oil legislation of any kind, and he plainly said he "was giving no consideration" to submitting new oil laws. His statement answered rumors and propaganda circulated by those with whom the wish is father to the thought. The governor takes the attitude that the railroad commission and the attorney general are doing a reasonably good job of controlling oil production, and East Texas oil men attending the last proration hearing here let it be known plainly they are tired of being made a political football every few months by those whose interests are served thru keeping a continual state of real or threatened chaos in the oil business.

The Oil States Compact, written by Allred and Col. E. O. Thompson, rail commission chairman, adopted by most oil producing states and ratified by congress, went into effect last week at the Oklahoma City meeting. It declares for "conservation of oil to prevent physical waste" and specifically declares against "stabilization, price-fixing or regimentation to promote monopoly." It marked virtually complete victory for Allred and Thompson in their long fight against federal bureaucratic control of Texas oil. The legislature, when it gets into the revenue question, may seek to increase oil taxes, but so far as the governor is concerned, he probably will send up no new oil legislation this session.

Texas are about to witness a substantial blow at depression that will put many thousands of workers on payrolls immediately, as the state highway department prepares to let highway improvement contracts on the largest scale ever recorded for a similar period of time. Nearly $38,000,000 of work is scheduled to be contracted between Sept. 24 and Dec. 15. Regulations call for completion of this great program by July 1 next year. It took from May, when the $38,000,000 state and federal funds was made available, until now to get the program started. Four months of the best construction weather have passed. But from now on it is promised Texas will see some real job-giving activity.

Gov. Allred, contrary to reports published thruout the state, is NOT a candidate for appointment to the federal judgeship of the Northern Texas district. His friends say he has endorsed another candidate. The governor himself told this correspondent "I am not in any sense an applicant for the post."

Atty. Gen. Bill McCraw will sponsor a service training project under the National Youth Administration. Eight hundred and fifty young men and women 16 to 25 will be placed in public offices thruout the state, paid small wages by the government. They will not replace regular workers. They will probably acquire a fair working knowledge of practical politics, and naturally be in close touch with those who run politics in the counties. And they will be grateful to McCraw, who expects to make future political races.

Ed Clark, No. 1 secretary to the governor, saved Sen. John Redditt of Lufkin, his senate seat last week. Redditt, president pro tem of the senate, became governor for a day when the governor and lieutenant governor both left the state. He was about to be sworn in as governor, by Chief Justice Sharp of the supreme court, when Clark suddenly recalled that taking the oath would vacate Redditt's other office.

The late Huey Long once got rid of a lieutenant governor he didn't like by tricking him into taking the oath as acting governor, but nobody remembered the incident but sharp-witted Clark. Redditt served his day out, but without taking any oath.

Texas Ranks Sixth In Accident Death Rate, Figures Show

According to the compilation of the 1935 edition of "Accident Facts" published by the National Safety Council, Inc., the State of Texas was outdone by only five other states in accidental deaths during the year of 1934.

Among persons of all ages only three diseases killed more persons than did accidents in 1933. These were heart disease, cancer, and cerebral hemorrhage, according to the council compilation.

The Safety Council's figures showed that more persons were killed in agricultural pursuits than in any other occupation during the past year. The estimate showed for agricultural pursuits, deaths totaling 27 per cent of all industries. Trade and service industries came next in "grim reaping," and construction followed.

Air transport and steam railway accidental deaths have dropped lower in the past six years, the report shows.

Alleged Polygamist Colony in Arizona

Down in Arizona a colony of alleged polygamists has been discovered at the village of Short Creek, which is shown in the illustration. Elmo Bollinger, a county attorney, heard of it and started prosecutions. The twenty-five or thirty families in the town belong to the "Brethren of the United Order" and were excommunicated by the Mormon church. They admit they believe in polygamy but deny that they practice it.

LINE OF TYPE COSTS TWO CENTS

Mowie (Ariz.) Tribune: The 12,000 weekly newspapers in the United States have figured out the actual cost in cash per line of every line of editorial, local and news matter that goes into a news paper, no matter how large or small the paper, and that cost varies from 1 1/2 cents to 2 1/2 cents per line.

So when you feel like cussing the editor for not publishing your spring poetry, just stop and think that it is going to cost him 2 cents per line in cash to put in in type make it up in the newspaper forms, run the papers through the press and distribute the article or poem back to the masses again. And it has happened many times that the author of the poem became quite peeved when the editor hesitated on handing out a dozen free copies of the paper.

This newspaper game is a great game—yet there are scads of both men and women (who were never in a printshop in their lives, and would not know a newspaper press when they saw it) who could—or think they could—run the newspaper better than they are being run.

EXPECT TO COMPLETE GRINDING OF HUGE LENZ FOR OBSERVATORY IN 1936

82-Inch Reflector, Weighing 2 1/2 Tons Now in Process of Shaping For Installation At Mount Locke

AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. 18—Grinding of the 82-inch lens for the new W. J. McDonald Observatory of The University of Texas which is being erected on Mount Locke, near Fort Davis, is well under way, according to information which has been received from Dr. Otto Struve, director of Yerkes Observatory at Williams Bay, Wis., and who also is director of the McDonald Observatory. The firm of Warner & Swasey of Cleveland, Ohio, hopes to have the two and one-half ton 82-inch disc finished in 1936, Dr. Struve wrote. Most of the rough grinding of the disc has been completed in the shops of the firm but it is not yet ready for tests, Dr. Struve said. The surface of the mirror is now a portion of a sphere, having a radius of approximately 54 feet. This means that approximately one and one-third inches of glass have been removed from the center of the disc, giving it a concave figure.

The next step will be the polishing of the mirror and the changing of its shape from a sphere to a paraboloid, which may take several months. The latter geometrical figure has the property of reflecting parallel beams of light in such a way that they are all concentrated in one point which is called the focus.

It was stated by Dr. Struve that "practically all of the astronomical work with the 82-inch reflector will be carried on by photography and the astronomers will rarely have an opportunity to see the stars," that through an eye-piece, they will expose photographic plates in the focus of the telescope and then examine the photographs under microscopes and measuring machines in the Observatory laboratory.

The Observatory building is completed and ready for the installation of the telescope.

will give you

Temperatures will be kept below 50 degrees inside the cabinet of your electric refrigerator, which is necessary for the proper preservation of food. If temperatures fall below this safety mark, molds, germs and bacteria immediately cause foods to decay.

Electric refrigeration gives you this necessary food protection and also many other added conveniences. There is a surplus of refrigeration power to quickly freeze ice and desserts for the family's needs.

The health and happiness of the home demands food protection the entire year—summer and winter. You can rest assured that foods will be properly preserved with dependable electric refrigeration.

Tyrannical Rule of Ferdinand Brought Misery To Subjects of Texas Province

Restored Spanish Ruler Created Crisis In New World Life

AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. 18—Upon ascending the throne of Spain Ferdinand gave his solemn promise to lead his people along the constitutional pathway. Nevertheless, immediately upon his restoration to the throne, he began to deprive them of the privileges granted them under the new regime. He even threw the liberal constitution of 1812 into the discard and dissolved all American provincial assemblies authorized thereby. Following this action, he issued a decree in which he declared that the flood of evils that threatened the overthrow of the government had demanded his attention from the moment he had, through the intervention of Divine Providence, reascended his throne. He announced that nature deliberation had led him to believe that the best means of restoring happiness and peace to his subjects was to reorganize the Council of the Indies which had proved its loyalty to the rulers and its usefulness to the people of America almost from the discovery of that continent. He, thereupon, reorganized the council on the basis upon which it had been formed in 1808; although, to soften the blow, he held out to them indefinite promises of future reforms and declared that he intended to use only the kindest measures in drawing his rebellious children in America back to their allegiance. In the Peninsula many bitterly resented his action, feeling, with Xavier Mina, who was later to aid the insurgents of Texas, that: "Notwithstanding the sacrifices the Spaniards had made for him, Ferdinand was oppressing Spain more cruelly than the French had when they invaded it; that the men who had most labored for the restoration of the liberty of the ungrateful wretch were loaded with chains in dungeons, or were flying from his cruelty; that serving such a king, one served the tyrant of the nation; and, that by aiding his agents in the New World, one degraded himself to the rank of executioner of the people, the innocent victims of a greater cruelty than that which the Spanish people suffered on account of the same principles at the most glorious epoch of their history."

Condition Deplorable

Conditions were equally or more deplorable in Texas. This is proved by the translation of a letter from the Bexar Archives in the library of The University of Texas written on May 22, 1814, by the Governor of Texas to the Commandant General, as follows: "The misery to which this province is now unfortunately reduced—and this state of affairs is well known to you from many sources and an analysis of its cause would be almost officious—forces me to delineate most hurriedly the calamitous situation which is injuriously affecting the unfortunate inhabitants of this province. They are hopelessly lost in their misery. They have been weakened by their past misfortunes. They are complaining most piteously over the lack of sustenance for themselves and their families. They are lamenting over the crisis and weeping bitterly over their fate—especially when they remember the terrible misery which lies before them. Their fields will yield but little more than they are compelled to have for their daily sustenance. Under these critical circumstances, the regiment under my charge is forced to live entirely on meat, with no possibility itself of even a tortilla. So their misery has reached its highest possible point. I, therefore, hope that you will be convinced that the small amount of supplies received from Alferes Aresmendi will suffice only for bare subsistence for the time already indicated to you in detail; and I trust that you will be forced to use the remedy of violence, a redress absolutely necessary under the circumstances for the preservation of so valuable a troop and one which is cruelly neglected. This is the fate we have suffered for some months and consequently, to relieve yourself entirely of the responsibility of dire consequences, you will take such steps as you deem necessary in this crisis."

The cup of misery of the people of Texas was not yet full, for Indian depredations continued to add to their horrors.

ADVERTISING DOLLARS!

You, Mr. Merchant, spend your advertising dollar to get results—to get your sales message before the people who are your customers. At least, you should do that. Granting that advertising is a necessary part of every successful business—and every successful business man will agree that it is—where, then, should the business man look for the medium that will reach the people he wants to reach?

Will he select some publication in a neighboring town—one that circulates in that town only? If he does, he had best give his money to charity, for it will do him more good. He can't reach the people who are his prospective customers that way. Will he select some publication of general circulation throughout a region, which includes his own community? He is wasting a large part of his expenditure if he does. Such a publication has a large "waste circulation"—circulation in sections where the local firm can not hope to interest prospective buyers. And circulation in his own community is usually restricted to a very small percentage of his prospective customers. He must pay for this "waste circulation" in a higher space rate—pay for something that can not possibly benefit him—and at the same time reach a very small part of the people in his own community.

What medium, then, is the most logical for him to adopt? His LOCAL NEWSPAPER, of course. Where can he find any other medium that reaches ALL his prospective customers at anything like as low "per contact" cost? It is the only medium through which he can reach all his prospects at a reasonable cost. To carry his sales message to each one personally would be out of the question. To broadcast printed circulars costs more than the same message in a newspaper ad and is less effective. Readers place a value on their newspaper and read it for its news and entertainment features—it has the added virtue of getting attention as well as more thorough circulation. To mail the message by the direct-mail method would cost several times as much as the message in the advertising columns of your local newspaper—the postage alone in most cases amounting to more than the cost of the newspaper ad, to say nothing of preparation of the mailing piece, envelopes and time—and the well known fact that most such matter finds its way to the waste basket promptly.

The turn in business affairs is at hand. People are ready to buy the things they have been wanting for years. The merchant who goes after this business, who places his sales message before his prospects, invites their patronage and makes it easier for them to purchase what they want, is the one who will reap the harvest. Mr. Merchant, select the logical medium, YOUR LOCAL NEWSPAPER, to get your sales message to your prospective customers and get your share of the Fall business.

another of those breathless struggles these two fighting machines put up behind the pitching of Al Crostwaite for the Giants and Flop Harris for the Oilers. The visitors made their lone tally in the opening frame when Housewright, first up, was safe on Heatherly's error. Gentry sacrificed him to second and Housewright scored on Gardner's single. Gardner went to second on a wild pitch and Barbee popped out to Heatherly. McMillan walked and Burton struck out to relieve the threat.

Weaver's Double Wins Ozona's big moment came in the fourth. In that inning, Cogdell, leading off, struck out. Heatherly waited Harris out for a walk and Dorley was safe on Leedy's error on a ground ball. Bob Weaver, Giant centerfielder, and hero of more than one ball game for Giant fans this season, again proved himself the fair haired lad of the home club boosters by rapping out a double to score Heatherly and Dorley, himself pulling up at third when the throw-in went untouched over the dug-out. On an attempted squeeze play, with Stuart laying down a bunt, Weaver was out at the plate.

With a one-run lead, the big fellow from Randolph went to work on the tough Oilers batmen. Thrice thereafter, the Conleymen threatened only to see their hopes of a tying run go glimmering as succeeding hitters popped out, rolled out or whiffed in order. In the sixth, with one out, Barbee, Texon catcher, smashed a double through the centerfield fence, but died on the second sack as McMillan flew out to left and Burton grounded out to first.

The second threat came in the seventh when Leedy, first up, walked, and went to second on Brown's sacrifice. But Pitcher Harris struck out and Housewright was out, Mangold to Dorley to retire the side. The Oilers advanced a runner to third base in the eighth frame as Gentry opened the inning with a single, went to second on a sacrifice and to third on Barbee's fly to right. McMillan was passed and Burton flew out to center.

The Giants threatened to widen their lead in the sixth when Cogdell singled to open the inning and advanced to third on successive sacrifices by Heatherly and Dorley. Bob Weaver was again in position to be the man of the hour, but his grounder was handled by Gentry for the put-out.

Miss Dorothy Henderson Bride of Joe Sellers Pierce, III, In Pretty Rites

Young Ozona Couple United At Home Wedding Here Saturday

Miss Dorothy Flora Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson, Jr., became the bride of Joe Sellers Pierce, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Pierce, Jr., at a pretty home wedding at the home of the bride's parents Saturday afternoon. Rev. R. A. Taylor, pastor of the Ozona Methodist Church, performed the nuptial rites at 3 o'clock in the presence of a group of friends and relatives of the young couple.

Before the ceremony, Miss Tommy Smith, cousin of the bride, sang "All For You," accompanied at the piano by Miss Bernice Bailey. Miss Smith wore a gown of sapphire blue and Miss Bailey's was delft blue. They wore shoulder corsages. Assisted by Joe Haddon on the violin, Miss Bailey played the wedding march for the entrance of the bridal party. During the ceremony she played the beautiful "All the World is Waiting for the Sunrise."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John Henderson, meeting the bridegroom and his best man, Phillip Lee Childress, at the altar improvised before the fireplace in the living room. Ferns and baskets of gladiola were placed at either side with candelabra holding white tapers. A background was formed of English ivy.

Mrs. James Baggett and Mrs. Miller Robison, matrons of honor, wore gowns of orchid satin and carried arm bouquets of cerise gladiola. Miss Esther Kate Pierce, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, wore a gown of white crepe, heavily embroidered in gold. Her bouquet was of orchid gladiola. Miss Vicky Pierce, in yellow taffeta, and Miss Louise Henderson, in peach satin, were bridesmaids. They carried arm bouquets of peach gladiola.

MRS. JOE SELLERS PIERCE, III

Reception Follows Ceremony

The bride's gown was of real lace over white satin. It was fashioned with long sleeves and was fitted to the knees, the flare forming a long train in the back. Her tulle veil was caught to a cap with a halo of orange blossoms and her bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home. Receiving with the bride and bridegroom were their parents and the bride's attendants. The bride's book, made of hand-decorated white satin, was presided over by Miss Carolyn Montgomery.

The table was laid with a cloth of linen fillet and the three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a white wedding bell, formed the centerpiece. White tapers in crystal holders burned at either end of the table. The cake was cut by

Ozona Athlete Called T.C.U.'s "Man Friday"

Vic Montgomery's Versatility Promises Him Much Action

In the "Fare for Fans" sport column, by LeRoy Menzing, in the Fort Worth Star Telegram Friday appeared the following complimentary paragraphs concerning Vic Montgomery, Ozona youth who has played at left field position during the past summer for the successful Giants club, and who is called T.C.U.'s "Man Friday" by the sports writer:

Vic Montgomery will be T.C.U.'s "Man Friday" this year.

The 180-pound lad from Ozona is so versatile that he probably will see action at each of the four backfield positions before the season has ended. A halfback in 1934, he already has been shifted to quarterback and it would not be surprising to see him learning the fullback assignments any day.

He's truly a "money player," one who is at his best in the tight spots, and such a husky, with the ability of Montgomery, is welcomed by any coach. He is a very capable player at any position at which Coach Dutch Meyer might wish to use him.

Montgomery's best bit of work last year came in the game with the Texas Aggies, when his hard running and a beautiful catch of a pass for the second touchdown helped the Frogs to victory. Not only was he outstanding on the offense, but also on the defense. He came up from his defensive halfback position to meet the Aggies on the line of scrimmage. His tackling was vicious.

Along with his hard running, Montgomery is one of several fine passers that the Frogs can toss against the opposition. He, Sam Baugh, Talbot, Manton, Jimmy Lawrence and Vernon Brown are five reasons why Coach Meyer plans to throw that pikskin around quite a bit this fall.

Montgomery's picture accompanied the write-up.

TO ATTEND GULF PARK

Miss Esther Kate Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pierce, Jr., left this week for Gulfport, Miss., where she is to enroll in Gulf Park school. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce took her as far as Del Rio, where she boarded a train.

Claude Pharr has been under medical care the past week but is improving from his illness.

Miss Ethel Childress and those assisting in serving the guests were Mrs. Scott Peters, Mrs. Geo. Montgomery, Mrs. Roy Henderson, and Mrs. Jack Fisher of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce left later in the afternoon for a motor trip to New Orleans, the bride traveling in a brown ensemble trimmed in nutria fur. Her accessories were also brown. Upon their return, they will be at home on their ranch, "Rancho Bonito," seven miles north of town.

The bride is a former student of C.I.A. at Denton, having graduated from the Ozona High School in '34. Mr. Pierce was graduated from the local high school in '32 and attended Texas Tech at Lubbock for two years.

ADDRESSES CHAPEL GROUP

At the weekly chapel exercises in the Ozona High School auditorium this afternoon at 3 o'clock, Mr. Camp, minister of the Church of Christ, will address the assembly.
