DIST. COURT IN SESSION DAY & HALF

Shortest Term In Many Months Ended Tuesday Afternoon

JURY NOT CALLED

Grand Jury Adjourns
In Few Hours With No Indictments

One of the briefest sessions of district court ever held here was completed in less than two days the first of this week when Judge Joe G. Montague convened the court for the regular September term on Monday morning and adjourned early Tuesday afternoon.

The grand jury was impaneled Monday morning and adjourned shortly after noon without finding any indictments. District Attorney Weaver Baker received a message shortly after the opening of court to the effect that his father was dangerously ill and left immediately for Junction. N. W. Graham was appointed by the court to act as district attorney in working with the grand jury.

Only non-jury matters were considered by the court. The petit jury had been called for Wednesday morning and when court adjourned Tuesday afternoon, members of the panel were notified that it would not be necessary for them to report.

Four divorce cases, and a number of suits or debts, notes, etc. were disposed of by the court in its brief session. Several cases were dismissed and others were continued until the next term.

A special session of the court was set for October 10 for trial of the case of H. A. Andrews against the Nordon Oil Corporation of Texas, a suit involving oil lands near the Stanolind deep test on the Todd ranch.

Joe Daniels was granted a divorce from Rosa Daniels. Edward Deland was granted a decree from Lucile Deland. Alice Baker was awarded a decree of divorce from Tom Harold Baker. The decree also awarded the plaintiff custody of their minor child, Boyd Boten Baker. The court's order declared that there was no community property for division. Dixie Rebecca Brown was granted a divorce from James Marshall Brown on the grounds of cruel treatment, according to the decree. In this case also, the court order set out there was no community property to be divided, but the order recited that all "wedding presents were the sole and separate property of the plaintiff."

Two other divorce cases were continued and one, a Mexican couple, was dismissed.

Holidays For School Named

Week For Christmas, 5
Other Days Allowed
By Board

Five holidays, and one week for Christmas holidays, is all that will be allowed in the Ozona Public Schools during the present session according to a decision reached by the school board at a recent meeting.

The first holiday of the present year will be allowed on November 11, Armistice Day, which this year comes on Friday. Two days, Thursday and Friday, will be allowed for the proper celebration of Thanksgiving, and Washington's Birthday, February 22, and San Jacinto Day, April 21, are the other two holidays to be enjoyed by school children.

Schools will close Friday, December 23, for the Christmas holidays, classes to meet again on Monday, January 2.

A big show October 8.

Commissioners Go On Salary Basis

Judge Gets $100 Month, And Per Diem; Commissioners $60

Hereafter members of the Crockett County Commissioners Court, with the exception of the county judge, will be on a straight salary of $60 a month instead of the per diem of $5 heretofore paid for the time in which they were in attendance at court sessions, according to an order passed by the court at its closing session last week.

The order sets the county judge's salary at $100 a month and $5 a day for each day's attendance upon sessions of the Commissioners Court and in addition a salary of $300 a year as ex-officio superintendent of schools.

"The court observes," the order read, "that this is neither raising nor lowering any order made during this biennium, but it appearing from experience that much labor and expense incurred by commissioners in road work have never been paid by the county, this order is made to simplify matters and it is agreed that all such unpaid expense and services occurring prior to September 1, 1932, be compromised, adjusted and settled by this order, and that this salary of $60 a month beginning in the future except such items as may be specifically ordered paid as expenses on order made and entered by this court on presentation of itemized bill duly filed."

Giants Beat Barnhart 5-3 In Last Game Of Season Here Sunday

Playing what probably was the last game of the season for the local team, the Ozona Giants defeated a team from Barnhart on the Powell Field diamond Sunday afternoon by a score of 5 to 3.

The Giants were decidedly off their "feed" from the standpoint of hitting and managed to scratch out only four hits during the game. Loose pitching and occasional field errors helped them over the grade to a win, however.

Bus Miller started in the box for the locals but proved unusually wild, walking two, allowing two hits for as many scores in the first inning. He gave way to Conley Cox, who finished the game, allowing but five hits for the rest of the fracas.

Tommy Smith Senior Prexy

27 Candidates For Diplomas In 1933; Officers Elected

Short one member in numerical strength but lacking none of the pep and enthusiasm of the record-breaking class of 1932, the graduating class of 1933 of the Ozona High School this week completed its class organization and launched into the spirit of the closing year of high school careers, determined to write their names into the tradition of Ozona High School with everlasting impression.

The Senior Class held its first meeting of the year Tuesday and elected officers.

Lineman Hurt In Fall From Pole

Ed Lockhart Suffers
Broken Ankle And Knee In Mishap

Ed Lockhart, lineman for the West Texas Utilities Company here, was seriously injured Saturday afternoon when he fell from a light pole here. He suffered a broken knee on one leg and a shattered ankle on the other. He also suffered minor cuts and bruises.

Mr. Lockhart was at work at the top of the pole, some 25 feet above the ground. He leaned out against his safety belt working with the wires and in some manner his climbing spurs slipped off of the wooden pole and with his safety belt still around the pole he slid to the ground down the pole, his feet striking the ground with such force that the knee and ankle bones were shattered.

Mr. Lockhart was taken in the Joe Oberkamp ambulance to San Angelo Monday where he was placed in a hospital. It is estimated that it will be three months before he is able to be out again.

Dr. F. T. McIntire Is Improving Following Appendix Operation

Dr. F. T. McIntire, who was seized with an attack of acute appendicitis Thursday night, was taken to San Angelo Friday and underwent an operation in the Shannon Hospital Saturday for removal of his appendix. Mr. and Mrs. Wren Jackson of Best took Dr. McIntire in their car to San Angelo, Mrs. McIntire accompanying him.

At last reports, Dr. McIntire was doing well.

Dr. A. L. Lewis, who is awaiting his equipment before locating in San Angelo for the practice of medicine and surgery, has taken over the practice of Dr. McIntire here during the latter's absence.

Dr. Lewis came from Kansas to San Angelo and comes here well recommended as a competent physician and surgeon. He is using the office quarters and equipment of Dr. McIntire.

Lions Play To Be Given Oct. 6

'Whole Town's Talking'
Is Hilarious Comedy,
Splendid Cast

"The Whole Town's Talking," a three-act comedy to be presented under a license of the Ozona Lions Club, will be given in the High School auditorium Thursday evening, October 6, it was announced this week.

The cast selected for presentation of this hilarious comedy has been at work for the past two weeks under the direction of Mrs. A. W. Jones. Committees from the club are arranging between-act specialties that will lend splendid variety and round out an evening of entertainment that will be worth while.

"The Whole Town's Talking" is an uproarious comedy of situations, wherein a small-town bookkeeper provides himself with a "past" only to be confronted with that "past" at a most embarrassing moment. The play is well cast, and under Mrs. Jones' able direction, a finished performance is predicted on the night the play is presented.

Members of the cast include Misses Alma Johnigan, Carolyn Montgomery, Wayne Augustine, Hester Bunker, Totsy Robison, Mrs. Evert White, Mrs. Hugh Childress, Jr., Glenn Rutledge, Hugh Childress, Jr., Richard Flowers, Royce Smith and Jake Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Welton Bunker are staying on the ranch this winter, sending their children to school at Pandale.

Miss America—1932

Woman's Club Has Luncheon

Colonial Days Depicted
In Setting For Washington Program

The Ozona Woman's Club took its part in the general Federation of Women's Clubs' observance of the George Washington bicentennial celebration Tuesday noon with a Colonial Luncheon served members in the D. E. Rooms of the new High School building.

The luncheon was served in old fashioned family style, and consisted of chicken and dumplings, baked ham, home-made bread, hominy, mustard pickles, slaw, two kinds of cake and pies, and coffee.

Old-fashioned pieces of silver, dishes, etc. were used in the service and the room was decorated with flowers.

"The Task Ahead," a summary of the proposed year's work of the club, was the title of an address delivered by the president, Mrs. W. J. Grimmer, Mrs. Scott Peters gave an address on "Washington After 200 Years."

Following the program, the club took up a discussion of city beautification plans, and it was suggested that the club co-operate with the Commissioners Court in getting the tall weeds cut from vacant lots and around public property.

The club voted to send flowers to Dr. F. T. McIntire, who is in a San Angelo hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. McIntire is a worker in the club. A vote of thanks was extended to the Ozona Hardware Company for use of dishes for the luncheon and to the school authorities for use of the D. E. rooms.

Members present for the occasion were Mrs. W. R. Baggett, Mrs. Ira Carson, Mrs. P. L. Childress, Miss Elizabeth Fussell, Mrs. N. W. Graham, Mrs. J. W. Henderson, Mrs. A. C. Hoover, Mrs. Bryan McDonald, Mrs. Joe Oberkamp, Mrs. Paul Fener, Mrs. Scott Peters, Mrs. W. E. Smith, Mrs. W. E. West, Mrs. Evert White and Mrs. G. D. Oldham.

PEAR TREE IN BLOOM

An abundance of rain followed by days of warm, spring-like weather in the last few weeks has fooled even old mother Nature.

A four-year-old pear tree on the lawn at the home of A. W. Jones here burst into full bloom this week. The tree did not bloom in the spring and has never borne fruit. It blossomed out last spring a year ago but a late freeze killed the buds and it did not bear. The tree is somewhat of a curiosity at this time of year with its branches loaded with fully formed white, fragrant blossoms.

CONTRACT LET ON 11 MILES WEST HI-WAY

Wade And Dozier Are Successful Bidders
On 2nd Section

TOTAL $112,087.26

Contractors Already On Jobs Here Get
New Work

Contracts for grading and drainage of an 11-mile stretch of the Old Spanish Trail, or Highway 27, from Bachelor Hill east to a point 9 miles west of Ozona, joining the contract work now being done by J. S. Wade and Son of Coleman on the first section out of Ozona, and for construction of bridges and small culverts on this section of the road, were awarded by the State Highway Commission in session at Austin Monday.

The total contract price for the two jobs to be done in Crockett County is $112,087.26. Both contractors who are doing the work of grading and construction of drainage structures on the first section of the west road were also awarded the contracts on the second or 11-mile section west in Monday's lettings. The Dozier Construction Company of Austin was awarded the contract for construction of bridges over Howard and Pike's Peak Draws and ten culverts along the course of the 11 miles of highway, the contract price being $62,381.80.

J. S. Wade and Son of Coleman drew the contract for grading and drainage of the 11 miles, at a contract price of $46,905.46. This contract was listed as "tentative" however.

The new contracts will be carried out under the emergency advance granted recently by the federal government in which efforts will be made to spread the work over as large a field as possible through utilization of men instead of machinery. Under the terms of the contracts, contractors must employ laborers at a minimum wage of 30 cents an hour with a maximum of 30 hours a week. Under this scale workers earn $36 a month and if they live in the construction camps they are charged $1 a day for board, leaving them a net of $6 a month.

The contracts also provide that local labor be employed wherever practicable. Interested local persons were engaged here this week in compiling a list of local laborers who might be available for work on the roads and this list will be turned over to contractors on the jobs.

Award of the contract on the second section of the road west of Ozona leaves but one section yet to be let between here and the Pecos River. This last section includes the big hill near old Fort Lancaster, which will be one of the most expensive sections to build along the entire route. An immense fill to make a two-mile-long grade dropping 600 feet in that distance is to be made down the big hill.

Dock Lee Awarded $150 Saddle Given Away By A. W. Jones

Dock Lee, son of Pat Lee, Crockett County rancher, was awarded the $150 hand-made saddle given away last Saturday afternoon by the Jones Saddlery Company here. An immense crowd gathered in front of the saddle shop shortly before the award was made and watched the proceedings.

Twelve other valuable prizes were also given away by the saddle and boot shop. These included bits, bridles, reins, belts, spur leathers, a gun scabbard, boot jack, quilt, knife, head stall and other gifts of leather. Among the winners of these were Mrs. Joe Pierce, Miss Tommy Smith, Buster Miller, J. C. Montgomery, Wes Berry, Jim Scott and others.

BACK TO NATURE

It seems that one of the beneficial results of this long period of depression and industrial unemployment has been to force upon large numbers of people, who had never realized it before, that there is no safety or security for most folks if they get too far away from the soil and the sea.

We were reminded of this by reading that the State of New York has decided to grant fishing licenses free to the unemployed, so that they may at least have the chance of catching part of their food from the rivers and lakes, bays and ponds of the state.

Then we read about the various places all over the country where thousands of unemployed are being encouraged to pan out gold from the soil. There is gold almost everywhere in the United States.

Hundreds of communities gave help and encouragement during the past summer to the unemployed who were willing and able to work small garden patches and so help to feed themselves and their families.

All such projects are, of course, merely temporary expedients, but out of them it is reasonable to expect that a great many Americans, who have been so brought up that they did not know how to take care of themselves unless they were attached to a payroll, will have learned that it is possible for a man to make a living without much equipment beyond his two hands, if he will stick close enough to nature's sources of wealth, and seize them for himself instead of buying them through a chain of middlemen.

KINDNESS TO OYSTERS

One of the latest triumphs of Washington bureaucracy is a movement to relieve the sufferings of the lowly oyster. Its leader is Dr. Vera Koehring of the United States Bureau of Fisheries whose heart has been wrenched by the cruelty involved in opening the oyster's shell.

This opens up a field of humanitarianism practically without limit. If one bureaucrat springs to the defense of the oyster, surely there is another capable of anguish at the spectacle of the tomato ripped ruthlessly from the mother plant, the horse radish exposed to the medieval torture of the grater, the grapefruit transported from the sunny South to end its career ignominiously on Northern breakfast tables.

And what about the Government's ruthless persecution of such creatures as the boll weevil, the corn borer and the Mediterranean fruit fly, whose only fault is to exercise the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness?

Cattlemen To Have Conference During Marfa Highland Fair

The conference of cattlemen which will be held at Marfa, Texas, on October 6th and 7th, during the Marfa Highland Fair, promises to be an exceedingly interesting meeting.

Some of the subjects to be discussed are: Bovine tuberculosis eradication on the range, meat and vertising campaigns, traffic matters, oleomargarine legislation, other legislation, finances, and many others affecting the business in general.

The leadership of the cattle business in the western part of the United States will be present at this gathering. The meeting will be open and all stockmen and others interested in the cattle business have been invited to attend and enter into the discussion of the subjects which will be considered.

An Awful Load for the Old Bus

BRUCE BARTON

Writes of "THE MASTER EXECUTIVE"

A LEADER OF MEN

In any crowd and under any circumstances the leader stands out. By the power of his faith in himself he commands, and men instinctively obey.

This blazing conviction was the first and greatest element in the success of Jesus. The second was his wonderful power to pick men and to recognize hidden capacities in them. It must have amazed Nicodemus when he learned the names of the twelve whom the young teacher had chosen to be his associates.

Nowhere is there such a startling example of executive success as the way in which that organization was brought together. Take the tax collector, Matthew, as the most striking instance.

The crowd was stunned. Some of the bolder spirits took it upon themselves to tell Jesus of his social blunder. He couldn't afford to make the mistake of visiting Zacchaeus, they said. Their protests were without avail.

Amazing. No argument; no pleading. A smaller leader would have been compelled to set up the advantages of the opportunity.

Jesus had the born leader's gift for seeing powers in men of which they themselves were often almost unconscious. One day as he was coming into a certain town a tremendous crowd pressed around him.

Today I intend to eat at your house. The crowd was stunned. Some of the bolder spirits took it upon themselves to tell Jesus of his so-

You Don't Deserve Any Credit For Being HONEST!

You Owe that to Yourself, to your Neighbor and to your God!

Your neighbor has a right to expect honesty from you. Until you prove yourself dishonest, your friends and associates universally go on the assumption that you are honest—just as in the courts you are assumed to be innocent until you are proven guilty.

Honest people are in the big majority among people of the world. Of course, the frequent displays of dishonesty as revealed in the day's news make us doubt the truth of this sometimes, but it is true nevertheless. Check the daily dealings of your friends, count the number whom you even suspect of being dishonest and you will find them decidedly in the minority, if, indeed, you can think of any at all.

Honesty, then, is to be expected of most people. It is dishonesty rather than honesty that attracts attention.

The credit system in retail business is built upon this theory. If man were not considered in the main honest, the credit system would never have been devised. The merchant who sells you merchandise on credit, on your promise to pay at a specified time, is assuming that you are honest and that you intend to pay him at that specified time. He is also assuming that you are not creating more obligations than you can meet, and, therefore, you will be able to meet the obligation to him when it is due.

Therefore, when you pay him promptly he is not surprised, for had he not considered you honest he would not have sold you the merchandise on those terms. It is only when you fail to pay him promptly as you had promised that he is surprised. Perhaps you have through many years dealing with him and with other merchants whom he knows, established such a reputation for yourself that he is not worried over the final outcome; he knows that your nature could not change as readily as the chameleon changes his color, and that you have possibly met temporary reverses that you had not anticipated when you made your purchases of him. He is still confident that you will either pay him or make satisfactory explanations of your delay in doing so.

But even with your reputation, is it not reasonable to suppose that the merchant's confidence is somewhat shaken when you go on week after week, saying nothing to him about the obligation you owe, making no apparent effort to pay it nor any explanation of why you have not? Certainly, the merchant is not worried over the final outcome. He is infinitely confident that he will finally get his money.

Both you and he know that the obligation is outstanding. Perhaps you have just forgotten for the moment and the merchant reminds you that the account is still unpaid. You should be obliged to him for so reminding you, rather than having your dignity ruffled by being "dunned." He expects you to take the reminder in the spirit in which it is given—on the assumption that you are honest and intend to pay him, but have overlooked the due date temporarily. The surprise comes to him when you DO get ruffled at the reminder.

You gave your word when you made your purchases, either spoken or understood, that you would pay at a certain time, thirty days usually, and the man who trusted you has a right to expect honesty from you. All he asks is fairness from you. If you cannot pay him at the specified time, he has a right to expect you to be enough concerned about your obligation to go to him and explain the delay. He will be glad to give you more time if you are making an honest effort to pay him, but you owe it to him to at least see him when the account is due, either to pay the amount or offer satisfactory arrangements for its payment.

10 Percent Increase In August Sales Of 96 Retail Stores

Austin, Texas, Sept. 21—An increase of 10 per cent was noted in August sales of 96 retail stores reporting to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. These sales totaled $2,618,644, as compared with $2,371,733 in July. The usual seasonal increase is only 3 per cent. This notable increase is attributed partly to cool August weather which naturally interested customers in fall merchandise, and partly to improved business sentiment generally. These 96 stores include department stores, dry goods and clothing stores, women's specialty shops, and men's ware shops.

"As confidence among the buying public is restored and as customers begin to take advantage of the undoubtedly good values being offered, the lag in dollar value of sales as compared with a year ago may be greatly reduced before the end of the year," the Bureau's report said.

The best showing as compared with July was made in El Paso stores, where sales during August exceeded those of the previous month by 27 per cent. San Angelo made a gain of 24 per cent and Dallas sales increased 23.2 per cent as compared with July.

Sul Ross College Opens Sept. 21st

Sul Ross State Teachers College will begin its thirteenth annual Session on September 21. An increase of at least 25 per cent in student enrollment, according to Dr. H. W. Morelock, is expected for the Fall Term. One of the most encouraging features is the large number of honor graduates applying for admission from the best high schools in West Texas.

A large number of candidates for the Lobo Squad have reported for training, and Coach B. C. Graves is predicting that he will have the best team in the history of the institution. Sixteen letter men and a large number of new men will begin hard training next Wednesday. Graves is making a bid for the T. I. A. A. championship this fall.

FUNDAMENTALS for families

I met an old friend the other day in a little New England village. The last time I had seen him he was earning $15,000 a year—and spending it—in Chicago. The slump broke him; he lost his job, his home, everything but what little he could raise as a loan on his life insurance.

"I've bought a little farm up here," he told me. "I'm the luckiest man in the world, because my wife has sound common sense. It was her idea for us to get back to the soil and live on next to nothing until things get better."

"We're raising a lot of our food, wearing out our old clothes working from sunup to dark—and the funny part of it is that we like it. The children think it's wonderful. Our health is better than ever, we don't owe a cent, and while we're not laying up anything yet, and haven't any luxuries, we've got all the fundamentals of comfortable existence. And what else does anybody need?"

That man has the world by the tail.

BOOKS good friends

A publisher friend sent me the other day, twelve books. "I'm getting these out to sell for fifteen cents a copy" he wrote. "I've got an idea that millions of people have never had a chance to read the great works of the great writers, and I'm going to try to supply them."

Whether he makes a business success or not, he is doing a valuable service. He has shown good judgment in selecting the books to reprint. "The Way of All Flesh" is, I think, the greatest novel ever written in the English language. And the list includes many others which are as interesting the second or the tenth time of reading.

such as "Green Mansions," "Alice in Wonderland," "Tom Sawyer," "Under the Greenwood Tree," "Treasure Island" and the New Testament, to name but a few.

Good books were never cheaper nor more widely available than they are today. And there is no better companion, no sounder source of culture, no keener stimulus to the imagination than a great book.

Individualists who think nobody should be restrained for any cause sometimes protest against isolation of "Typhoid Mary." She objected, at first, but now is reconciled to living the rest of her days in comfort at public expense. Her case illustrates the fact that the good of the whole social organization is more important than the liberty of the individual.

It is all very well to talk about getting rid of undesirable public officials and putting good men in office but the rank and file of the voting population has to be reckoned with, and the rank and file is never greatly interested in the reform government.

With Modern Electric Refrigeration You Know Your Foods Are Safe

Proper food preservation, doctors say, is a vital prerequisite to health. Defined by these authorities, the proper preservation of foods means keeping perishables at a constant temperature of less than fifty degrees.

Modern Electric Refrigeration will give you this necessary low temperature... automatically... It has been tried and tested over a period of years, in actual, everyday use... its assurance of food safety for your family is a proven fact. Isn't this security against the dire effects of food-spoilage worth the small cost of a dependable Electric Refrigerator?

—But Electric Refrigeration is not an expense at all! Actually, Electric Refrigeration pays for itself! In food savings... in time savings... in labor savings... in permitting you to purchase in quantities at bargain prices—safely... and in exceptionally low operating cost!

Ask a Trained Representative to tell you the interesting story of Electric Refrigeration. There's no obligation, of course... and you are sure to enjoy the demonstration. Call in at our Merchandise Showroom, or see your Electrical Dealer... TODAY!

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

Lions Make Up For Inexperience With Fight, Says Coach

The Ozona Lions have opened the season's practice with the winning light in their eyes, according to Coach Ted White. In spite of the fact that almost the entire team will be made up of inexperienced men and the schedule for the year will be hard, the warriors are anticipating victory for each Saturday from October 1 till Thanksgiving.

The first game will be played on the home field October 1 at 3 o'clock, Sherwood offering the opposition. Although the Sherwood team will come here doped to give trouble, it is the hope of the club that every Lion in suit will have an opportunity to show his metal. Since there will be only about four games in Ozona this season, everyone is urged to attend the opening game. "Give the boys a cheer."

"PEP SQUAD"

By Tommy Smith
Ozona High School girls are showing much athletic spirit and interest by their daily practice in the high school study hall from 12:40-1:00 o'clock. Wednesday the squad began field practice on the local gridiron. The first football game is scheduled for October 1, in Ozona. The pep leaders state the slogan this year is: "Every girl a pep squad member and every girl in perfect form for every football game."

GRAMMAR GRADES PROGRESS

By Mary Williams
Since the opening of the Ozona Public Schools September 12, the work of the pupils has been progressing unusually well. The enrollment has increased by eight during the past week. General appreciation of the pupils for school seems to have been increased by the light polished floors and clean walls. The fourth grade has fixed a very interesting project of Indian life with walls and sandtable decorated.

Junior High School pupils have started their gymnasium work which is proving even more interesting to them than last year. The sixth grade is trying to cultivate good speech and have organized Good English Club.

PEPPY SOPHS

By Max Eppler
After a hotly contested election by the Sophomores Tuesday the following officers were elected for the current year: Esther Kate Pierce, president; Vicky Pierce, vice president; Lorene Schauer, secretary and treasurer; Batts Friend, sergeant-at-arms; Walter Dudley, critic; and Max Eppler, news reporter.

After the election it was decided that the Sophomore Class was peppiest class in school. If any one doesn't believe that we have lots of pep just come and investigate for yourself. Another proof that we have lots of pep is that we were assigned two sponsors. Well, just the same the sponsors have lots of pep along the same line with the peppy Sophomore Class. Miss Lucille Williamson and Ted White were chosen sponsors.

Something is going to happen October 8? Wait for it.

Diet Didn't Do This!

HAPPY little girl, just bursting with pep, and she has never tasted a "tonic!"

Every child's stomach, liver, and bowels need stimulating at times, but give children something you know all about.

Follow the advice of that famous family physician who gave the world Syrup Pepsin. Stimulate the body's vital organs. Dr. Caldwell's prescription of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh herbs is a mild stimulant that keeps the system from getting sluggish.

If your youngsters don't do well at school, don't play as hard or eat as well as other children do, begin the evening with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This gentle stimulant will soon right things! The bowels will move with better regularity and thoroughness. There won't be so many sick spells or colds. You'll find it just as wonderful for adults, too, in larger spoonfuls!

Get some Syrup Pepsin; protect your household from those bilious days, frequent headaches, and that sluggish state of half-health that means the bowels need stimulating. Keep this preparation in the home to use instead of harsh cathartics that cause chronic constipation if taken too often. You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store; they have it all ready in big bottles.

Texas Wool Industry

By W. E. TALBOT

Editor's Note—This is the second of a series of articles dealing with the possibilities of the wool industry in Texas. Colonel Talbot, managing director of the Southwest Industrial Development Bureau, is an acknowledged authority on the subject of industrialization for Texas.

Copyright, 1932, Southland Life Insurance Co.

The question naturally arises: "Why hasn't Texas developed the wool and mohair industry as it should be?"

There are numerous reasons which I shall try to set out fairly and without prejudice. Most of them involve exploitation by those who wish their own advantage.

We have been told by those of the East that the water of Texas is not suited to the proper washing of wool, that chemical treatment would involve an excessive cost. Yet, experiments have shown that the water of Texas is just as favorable and that the cost of treating is very small. In other words, to be brutally frank, we have been paying 12½¢ a pound to have our wool washed in the East, and it has been shown that it can be properly washed in Texas for 2½¢ a pound, for instance, by James McDowell of New Braunfels.

Now just imagine, if you can, how utterly foolish it is for us each year to ship to New England around 50,000,000 pounds of wool in its raw state, paying the freight on dirt and grease that is extracted from the wool. When you consider that approximately 40 per cent of all wool shipped is dirt and grease, there is freight being paid on a commodity that is a useless waste and excessive expense to our people.

Then consider this fact also:

That if this wool were washed here in Texas, we would retain this dirt and grease, which would give us the ingredients for soap and a cheap fertilizer that contains a high percentage of phosphorus and is badly needed for depleted soils in some sections of Texas. Then, also, by shipping this wool to be handled in the East the price of our product is placed in the hands of outsiders. As a matter of fact, our wool prices today are placed by Boston and based on the Liverpool market, with which we neither export nor import. Wool is not a surplus crop. There is only raised in the United States about half the amount needed for our consumption under normal conditions.

We have never had a proper adjustment of freight rates and the help we should have had, simply because we have not asked for it nor made any effort to develop this industry. The railroads of Texas today would be benefited more by the distribution of the finished product originating in Texas than they will be from the shipment of the raw wool to other points for treatment. To give you an idea of the gigantic loss suffered by the Texas people, the $12,000,000 that we received last year had a value of $187,000,000 in New England when it went to the mills to be made into cloth, and before they had even started the manufacture of the finished product, according to James McDowell of New Braunfels.

Next Week: Texas as a wool Center. Probable Locations.

Mass Meeting To Be Held In Dallas Sat. To Fight Ferguson

Invitations to a statewide mass meeting of Anti-Ferguson Democrats to be held in the City Hall at Dallas at 10 o'clock next Saturday morning have been received here by local citizens who are opposed to a return of proxy government to the helm of Texas. The invitations are being sent out in the form of a circular letter by Carr P. Collins, head of a big insurance company in Dallas.

"If your house was on fire, you would help to put it out, wouldn't you?" the letter reads in part "The threat of another two years of Fergusonism in Texas is indeed something that should challenge every good citizen of Texas. What are we going to do about it? Sit down and hold our hands and give up the fight? Or, shall we dedicate ourselves to this fight until Fergusonism is exterminated from the earth?"

"This menace of Fergusonism is your fight—you cannot be silent and expect others to do the fighting for you. This is the time when all must go forth to meet a common enemy."

ADELIA WILLIS STILL SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

Adelia Willis, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. W. S. Willis, was reported still slowly improving this week. McIntire is in a San Angelo hospital recovering from an appendicitis operation.

Another operation was performed Wednesday by Dr. Lewis to drain the injured knee. A noticeable improvement resulted from this treatment and it is now believed that the child is on the road to recovery.
