TODD DEEP WELL PLUGS BACK 295 FEET

Ordovician Cements To Shut Off Flow Of Sulphur Water

NO. 2 PRODUCER

Stanolind No. 2 Todd Good For 200 To 300 Barrels Day

Stanolind and others No. 1 J. S. Todd, Crockett County deep test on the J. S. Todd ranch near Ozona, is awaiting the setting of cement this week after it was plugged back 295 feet to shut off a heavy flow of sulphur water encountered near the bottom of the hole, now standing a total depth of 8,041 feet.

While setting of the cement is awaited, operators are testing cores to determine whether shows encountered in the well are to be shot or the acid treatment applied in an effort to develop production.

Swabbing of the Ordovician test was started last week but operators were unable to swab below 1500 feet because of the sulphur water flow. Sixty-five sacks of cement were used in plugging back the hole to shut off the water.

Possibilities of the development of a second shallow pool for this county were seen with production obtained late last week in the Stanolind and others' No. 2 Todd on the same block as the deep test. This well started flowing from a total depth of 1,463 feet, one foot in the pay sand. It was estimated good for 200 to 300 barrels a day. Production in this well validates leases on about 4,000 acres of land held by Stanolind and associates, including that on which the deep test was sunk.

Another small producer has been added in this county recently with production in R. C. Chambers and others' No. 1 Hoover, on the A. C. Hoover ranch, 12½ miles west and 2 miles south of the deep Todd test. The well has been shot twice and is estimated good for five barrels a day.

A gas show from 1,960-65 feet in the Texas Company's No. 1 Ingham on the B. B. Ingham ranch on the Crockett County side of the Pecos River, was reported this week. The well was underreaming 8½ inch casing this week. Its total depth is 2,071 feet.

'Howling Success' Here February 23

P.T.A. And Missionary Society Present Comedy Burlesque

The Ozona Parent-Teacher Association and the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church have combined forces for a joint presentation of the burlesque comedy, "A Howling Success," which has been enthusiastically received by audiences all over the United States. It is a burlesque Baby Clinic and is said to be a howl from start to finish.

Drs. I. Saw Bones, I. C. Tonsils and I. B. Sillee with their nurses, Misses O So Cuttie, Addie Noid and Ima Nutt are all ready for the opening of the clinic, with V. Vanzandt, Bryan McDonald and the other yet to be selected in the role of these famous surgeons. The charming Mrs. Doodad (Guinn Carruthers) has already enrolled her twins, Rosy and Josye, 6-years old, (Lowell Littleton and J. H. McClure) and it is rumored that old Aunt Easter (Charley Davidson) will be there with her Heavenly Twins, Liza Fertiliza, (Frank Russell and Ted White) and Knock Kneed Sallie is scheduled to get her knees straightened and Giggly Jennie her "tickle box" removed.

And then there will be the famous characters Andy Gump (Pon Seahorn) and Pop Eye (Hugh Childress, Jr.) and Min (I. G. Rape) to be on hand for the clinic. Houston Smith as the mother of Knock Kneed Sallie will have that misshapen individual in tow when the clinic opens.

Around 30 men of Ozona will have part in the production, which is to be staged at the High School Auditorium next Thursday evening, February 23. Admission prices will be 25 and 50 cents.

Home-Talent Cast Scores Triumph In Comedy Mon. Night

A delightful comedy drama, "Norah Mixes In," was presented before a fairly large crowd in the High School auditorium Monday evening by a home talent cast, under auspices of the Athletic Department of the High School. The cast, under the direction of Mrs. A. W. Jones, showed the effects of careful training and each member turned in a splendid performance.

Miss Totsy Robison in the title role of Norah the cook gave a finished performance as did Mrs. Tom Hunter in the role of Miss Bettina Bridges, a native of the village, and Helen Adams as Sophronia Hedges, an intruder who sought to establish her claim to the house. A group of college girls on vacation in the country were effectively portrayed by Misses Vicky Pierce, Esther Kate Pierce, Eda Schneemann, Tommy Smith and Carolyn Montgomery. Florence Adams and Dorothy Hannah as village youngsters, Mrs. Elton Smith as Mandy Parker, a widow, and Mrs. Ted White as the mother of one of the college girls, all gave creditable interpretations of their roles. Members of Mrs. Jones' expression class represented neighbors and villagers.

The crowd was entertained between the acts with songs and dances by Mickey Couch, these numbers being especially enjoyed by the audience.

SISTER OF OZONAN DIES

Miss Eva Cox of Ballinger is here for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. V. Vanzandt.

ASSASSIN FIRES AT ROOSEVELT IN MIAMI MEETING

President-Elect Uninjured, Mayor Cermak Of Chicago Killed, 4 Others Hurt

President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt was the target of an assassin's gun in Miami, Florida, last night, according to radio reports this morning. The president-elect escaped uninjured, but Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago, who was on the speaker's platform while Mr. Roosevelt addressed a crowd estimated at 25,000, died of a bullet wound from the assassin's gun, and four other persons were wounded by flying bullets from the madman's weapon.

Mr. Roosevelt had just closed his address, reports indicated, and the people were rushing to the platform to shake his hand when the assassin jerked out an automatic pistol and fired six shots at the president-elect. One of the bullets struck Mayor Cermak in the chest as he stepped between the president and the assassin and the other bullets struck persons in the crowd, one a boy, one a woman and two other men. The assassin was overpowered immediately.

Girl Cagers In Tournament Here

Four-Game Series To Be Played On Local Court Saturday

A four-game basketball tournament between girls' teams from nearby towns will be staged on the court in the new Gymnasium here Saturday of this week. It was announced by athletic department heads yesterday.

The Ozona High girls team has issued invitations to teams in Mertzon, Eldorado and Comstock to take part in the tourney. Preliminaries will be played during the morning, with finals to come in the afternoon. Morning games will be called at 9 o'clock and the afternoon session will begin at 2 o'clock.

The winners of the two morning contests will do battle in the afternoon for top honors and the losers in the morning preliminaries will match it for second honors. Two small trophies will be awarded winners in each of these classes.

This tournament will wind up the basketball season for the local girls team. The boys team will play in Rankin this week-end and then will go to San Angelo next Friday and Saturday for the district interscholastic league tournament, which will wind up their schedule.

Ozona Girl Chosen "Most Popular" At San Antonio School

Miss Bernice Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey of Ozona, has been chosen the "most popular girl" at Westmoorland College in San Antonio, according to news account appearing in San Antonio newspapers. Miss Bailey's picture appeared in the Wednesday issue of the San Antonio Light under the heading "Bernice Gets The Cake." She was awarded a large cake as the prize.

The Ozona girl, who in her senior year in Ozona High School, was awarded the $10 cash prize offered by the Ozona Woman's Club for highest attainments in scholarship, extra-curricular activities and school spirit, was chosen the most popular girl at Westmoorland over a field of four other contenders. She is a freshman in that institution and at the opening of the school year was elected yell leader, the position she held in her last year in high school here.

Rankin Cage Squad Sweeps Series Here By Narrow Margins

The Rankin Red Devils, flashy Rankin High School cage squad, nosed out the Ozona Lions by a single point in one of the most thrilling basketball games ever seen on a local court at the High School gymnasium here Saturday night in the closing contest of a two-game series between the two teams. The Rankin aggregation took the first game Friday night by a three point margin, 28 to 25, and Saturday night eked out a 25 to 24 victory.

Both of these games were thrillers from start to finish. The two teams were about as evenly matched as the fans could hope for and the score was deadlocked throughout most of the melees, the final game going to the invaders on a lucky field shot in the closing seconds of the game, meaning the difference between a one-point defeat and a one-point victory. The Lions are scheduled to meet the Devils in their own fair for a return series there Friday and Saturday evenings of this week.

The Ozona High girls team also met disaster over the week-end, the McCamey High crew administering them a crushing 32 to 16 defeat on the local court Friday afternoon. The Meeks fought bravely but were outclassed in passing and goal shooting.

CROCKETT COUNTY RODEO RACE MEET, STOCK SHOW TO BE HELD JULY 3-4-5

The Seventh Annual Crockett County Rodeo, Race Meet and Stock Show will be doing business in the same old stand, in a bigger and better way, next summer, July 3, 4 and 5, to be exact, and despite economic conditions, the 1933 show is going to rival all others of past years in extravagant entertainment for the visitors.

Decision to stage the show again this year, after the first interruption last year since organization of the association, was reached at a meeting of stockholders and directors and friends of the association at the Hotel Ozona Saturday night. Approximately 30 men were present for the fair meeting and the vote on the question of having a fair this year was unanimously in favor of the project. Those present also voted unanimously to lend their wholehearted co-operation toward making the 1933 show a success and pledged themselves to work toward that end.

Wayne West was elected president of the association to succeed Joe Pierce, who has served as its head since organization in 1926, and who has worked untiringly for the success of the annual show. Mr. West has also been identified with the association since its organization and has worked in various capacities in preparation for each year's show.

Paul Perner was re-elected vice president of the organization, and Scott Peters was re-elected secretary-treasurer. The new president announced that all standing committees and department heads would be re-named to their posts for this year's show and he urged that preparations get under way at once for the seventh annual rodeo, race meet and stock show.

The present economic stress was responsible for the decision to abandon last year's annual entertainment, which draws huge crowds each year from all parts of West Texas. Stockholders and directors, as well as several others not identified with the organization, were enthusiastic about prospects for this year's show and predictions were made that the entertainment this year will surpass anything ever attempted before and larger crowds were forecast.

Many inquiries are already reaching the association about plans for the 1933 show, department heads reported, and the stock show and sale are expected to be more successful than ever this year.

The free barbecue each day at noon, which has been a feature of the local entertainment every year, will again be given this year it was decided. More elaborate rodeo features, the best horse racing card that can be assembled dances each evening and other features to make a full three-day entertainment are to be provided.

Evangelist Busby To Open Spring Revival Here Friday Evening

Evangelist Horace W. Busby will arrive tomorrow to open the annual ten-day revival meeting at the Ozona Church of Christ, which begins Friday evening, February 17, at 7:45 o'clock.

Rev. Busby will conduct services twice daily at the church, 10 o'clock in the morning and 7:45 in the evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all to hear these inspiring messages.

Mrs. Ben Lemmons returned Sunday from Dallas where she spent the week with Mr. Lemmons on a buying tour. Mr. Lemmons went from Dallas to St. Louis where he will complete the purchase of Spring and Summer merchandise for the Lemmons Dry Goods Company here. He is expected to return the end of this week.

Historic Dress To Be Worn In Play

Jane Cowell's Original Costume Secured For "Smilin' Thru"

The identical costume, a wedding gown and veil, worn by Jane Cowell, famous stage actress, in the original showing of the play "Smilin' Thru," written especially for her, in New York City, will be worn by Mrs. Tom Hunter, who takes the part played by Miss Cowell, in the local presentation of the play here this spring. It was announced this week by the director, Mrs. A. W. Jones.

The historic costume was secured by Mrs. Jones from the stage manager of the New York theater for use in the home-talent production here. The dress will be sent a week before the play is presented and will be displayed here.

Rehearsals have already been started on this play, which has been one of the most popular of stage and screen since its premiere in New York about ten years ago with Jane Cowell in the leading role. The play is to be presented here sometime in April, probably, under auspices of the athletic department of the Ozona High School.

Progress Made In Street Work

Around 20 Blocks Of Streets Graveled With RFC Funds

From eighteen to twenty men are finding daily employment at a living wage and badly needed street improvement work is being accomplished through administration of the local funds received from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Around 20 blocks of streets have been surfaced with this money to date.

Work on the north and south streets two blocks west of Powell Avenue, which will likely be used as a detour while the main street is being paved, has been completed except for a little finishing work here and there. Drainage has been cared for under the supervision of Exline Martin, resident engineer for the state Highway Department, and it is believed the streets will now be passable even in the worst weather.

Surfacing has also about been completed on the side street from the W. E. West corner south to the draw and the street north of the base ball park. The next street to be repaired will be that from the point where the new highway turns off Broadway west of the draw to the Joe North corner. Surfacing of this stretch of road, the committee decided, will give persons living across the draw a passable road to town in wet weather. Other work will be undertaken if funds are still available from the present allotment when this work is completed.

Applications have gone in for another allotment for March and April and a decision on whether to hold additional money will be available to this county is expected in the next few days.

LOAFING—A MORAL NECESSITY

There is another fallacy, ripe
for the plucking, which has long been held over men's heads to prevent their enjoyment of the simple pleasures of life in order to develop a more ascetic, more scholarly mode of living. We refer to the time honored philosophy which has come with the mass-movement toward higher education in the twentieth century,
the substance of which is this:
Spend all your time in studying and reading. Keep a book at your elbow for every spare minute. Be another Abraham Lincoln.

The major premise on which the philosophy depends is that reading is a guaranteed, never-fail method of getting an education. The more you read, the more you learn; therefore, read more.
But that major premise is fallacious,
for too much reading, like too much bathing, is too much of a good thing. Loafing on one's spare time has been consistently discouraged; yet loafing has a definite place in the routine of life, the most important of which is to defeat that routine. It affords a distinct pleasure to be able to thumb one's nose at that which one knows he should do and must do eventually.

Let us enunciate the doctrine of the intellectual and moral necessity of loafing. First, let us define loafing. Perhaps you are one of the simple many who think there is only one kind of loafing?
There are at least three kinds.
First there is that type of loafing which is entered into from sheer inertia, motivated by a desire to escape mental or physical labor.
Another type is loafing of necessity because there is nothing to do.

But the third and most vitally important type of loafing is what we shall term loafing with a purpose. It is entered deliberately, from a sense of duty or obligation to one's self, and for the high inspiration received from loafing.
There is a moral necessity for such loafing.

The people who can do this type of loafing most effectively are "full of the milk of human kindness." They never seem to lose their touch with mankind,
they smack always of genial, comfortable humanity. They do not sit inopportunities by, living in books, while hustling, bustling, adventurous life walks past their doorstep.

Too much reading tends to isolate a person. People were originally intended to be gregarious
lot, and exceptions to this general rule are too often perversions. No man liveth or dieth to himself, not even the scholar. Sitting and thinking is one of the most recent and least exploited acquisitions of the human race. It is an art more esthetic than simple reading for it involves mental creation
while reading involves only reflection.

sincere appreciation for the heart-

my modest little place bigger and

The people of the United States have a reputation for initiative
and enterprise.
They start things and they fin-

They have a chance now to demonstrate their ability as never

Everyone is waiting for "busiwon't pick up of its own accord.

It will pick up when the desire and the determination to do something rises again in our national consciousness.
There are about 25 or 30 million families in the United States.
This means that there are some 30 million men who are actual producers.
Payrolls depend on construction activity—the building and upkeep of homes, factories and enterprises which consume every imaginable product.
Building has been going down
steadily for the past several years until it has become almost stagnant. Thousands of structures are deteriorating because of lack of repairs, paint, rotting foundations, leaky plumbing, worn out heating plants, crumbling chimneys and a thousand and one other things which have been let go.
Never in years could repair
work or new construction be done
as cheaply as today.

Get Rid of That SORE THROAT!

Any little soreness in the throat grows rapidly worse if neglected. Crush some tablets of genuine Bayer Aspirin in some water, and gargle at once. This gives you instant relief, and reduces danger from infection. One good gargle and you can feel safe. If all soreness is not gone promptly, repeat. There's usually a cold with the sore throat, so before gargling take two tablets to throw off your cold, headache, stiffness or other cold symptoms. Bayer Aspirin relieves neuralgia, neuritis, too. You may use it freely, it does not hurt the heart.

Junior Music Club Observes Washington Birthday In Program

The third meeting of the Ozona Junior Music Club was held this morning, the program commemorating the birthday of George Washington. The first number of the program was the story of George Washington by C. S. Denham. "Father of the Land We Love" was sung by the Junior and Senior classes assisted by Miss Helen Hampton and Ernest Vandant. Facts from George Washington's life illustrating his musical ability were recounted by Joe Raje. Dorothy Henderson played Allegro and Ben Williams, Carolyn Montgomery, Tommy Smith, and Joe Friend sang, "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes," assisted by Mrs. Bryan McDonald. Minuet—Third grade assisted by Miss Norene Allison.

The history of the song, "Star Spangled Banner" and of its growing acceptance by the American people was discussed by Carolyn Montgomery. The curtain was raised revealing "Old Glory" brilliantly lighted in the center of the stage. Everyone stood at attention and joined in the last verse of the "Star Spangled Banner." A business session was held following the program.

PROGRESS AND POWER

Present-day industrial progress of small communities is based in a large measure on ample and economical power facilities which deliver a practically unlimited power supply at once—when and where needed.

Small local plants, serving single communities, generally lack these facilities—lack the variety of volume and demand which is necessary if the road to industrial growth is not to be blocked.

The transmission system, which has resulted from a group of towns pooling their power requirements and resources, can deliver this power easily, economically, at any time or place.

Progress and Power go hand in hand in the small city—and the West Texas Utilities Company is aiding this desired progress in 125 alert cities and towns in West Texas, the "Land of Opportunity."

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

HONESTLY?

Well, Hardly!

Some merchants would like to make this a one-store town where competition would not interfere with price fixing and prices could be boosted to as high levels as the store keeper might choose. Do you care to encourage a man in this idea? Do you want to be at the mercy of one competition-free store? Certainly, you do not. Clean competition is the life of trade and the customer's insurance against unfair treatment.

Since my opinion has been asked, I will endeavor to express it so that the public may know and that the man with this idea can understand it—and I am sure he will know for, although he does not support our home town paper, as you may see for yourself, but as soon as the paper is off the press he gets a copy, looks over the ads and then marks his goods down to meet the prices quoted and further than that, clips out the printed list, what the other fellow has paid for, and pastes it up as HIS OWN SPECIALS.

But the point is: This fellow is like the farmer who sowed his fields in feeds, harvested a bumper crop, filled his crib to overflowing and decided upon a plan. "Me and my boys and my imported help," he decided, "will give our feed away until the feed stores get disgusted and quit, and then we'll tell the people that the price of feed has gone up, and our purse will fatten, for we'll have the business all to ourselves." Everything went lovely until the price advance was announced — and then MIKE COUCH ADVERTISED a FULL LINE OF FEEDS and he didn't get away with it. A fair example of his idea and plan—figured this "bunch of hicks down in Ozona" were easy—he'd just pull the wool over their eyes and then gently "soak" it to 'em.
