OIL PROGRAM SPEEDS UP AS AGENT NAMED

J. Vanzandt Takes Post To Direct Project In County

OVER 70 SIGNERS More Than 700,000 Acres Offered For Improvement

The government soil and range conservation program, which has been lagging in this county in recent weeks because of absence of county agent to direct the work, took a new spurt forward the past week with appointment of C. J. Vanzandt of Tullia, Texas, to the post of county agent for Crockett county.

The county committee, which will be in charge of supervision of conservation work in this county, appointed at a recent meeting interested ranchmen, met with the new county agent Saturday and organized for launching the program. T. A. Kincaid was named president of the committee, and Max Baggett vice president. Max Baggett is also a member of the committee and W. R. Baggett, secretary.

Bright Baggett and W. E. Friend were appointed by the committee as range inspectors for this county. The duty of the inspectors will be to visit ranches of applicants and make recommendations to the county committee as to the grazing capacity of land. On their recommendation, the committee will determine grazing capacity, which capacity will govern allotment of funds for carrying out certain phases of the range conservation program.

T. A. Kincaid, Bright Baggett and Mr. Vanzandt are at the Agricultural Experiment Station near Sonora, this week where they are attending a school of instruction in operation of the conservation program. Upon their return, they will be ready to launch work in this county.

Early this week more than seventy Crockett County ranch operators, representing more than 200,000 acres of ranch land, had filed applications for determination of grazing capacity of their lands, the first step in taking advantage of the government offer of assistance in controlling various range pests and improving such land. Inspection of lands of applicants will get under way at once and report of findings turned over to the committee for determination.

Range practices upon which government aid is offered under the soil conservation program include reseeded by deferred grazing; rescuing range lands from brushy pear, mesquite, cedar, and cholla; construction of earth tanks and spreader dams; contour listing; fencing for carrying out other phases of the program, and extermination of rodents.

Special Appeal By Red Cross For School Disaster

No special appeal will be made by the American Red Cross for relief funds for use in the New London, Texas, community as a result of the tragic explosion last week which cost the lives of 455 students and teachers, according to a letter received early this week by local chapter officials from Wm. M. Baxter, manager of the St. Louis office of the relief agency.

Members of the national disaster relief staff of the Red Cross were dispatched immediately to the scene, and Red Cross funds were used in meeting relief needs.

Mrs. S. E. Couch, former Ozona resident, who has been seriously injured in a San Angelo hospital, is reported out of danger and improving rapidly.

Jones Celebrates 10th Anniversary In Business Here

Saddle And Boot Firm Under His Management Since 1927

A. W. (Al) Jones, proprietor of Jones Saddlery, celebrated the tenth birthday of his business in Ozona last week. The tenth anniversary of his purchase of the business from the estate of the late L. A. McLemore fell on March 17 and a birthday cake and coffee, furnished by employees, provided refreshments for the management and force and a few invited guests on the occasion.

On June 27, Mr. Jones will have completed thirty-three years at the leather trade. He served his apprenticeship, starting on June 27, 1904, with the E. C. Alexander Co. in San Angelo, predecessors of the late R. J. Andrews. He worked at the trade fourteen years in Uvalde, was at various places in later years and at Del Rio three years prior to coming to Ozona.

The firm here now employs four workmen, and although the ten-year period of the business in Ozona embraced the depression and drouth, the business has grown steadily until today it boasts the largest stock of leather goods in its history.

Kenneth Eugene Phillips, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Babe Phillips, underwent a double operation in a San Angelo hospital early this week. The child is reported doing well following the operation.

New Equipment To Make Ozona Theatre Modern

New Sound System Ordered, Building To Be Renovated

A complete renovation of the Ozona Theatre, Ozona's original show house, was assured during the past week with the signing of contracts for purchase of complete new equipment and extensive remodeling of the building to make it a modern theatre in every respect, it was announced this week by J. R. Kersey, owner of both Ozona's show houses.

Mr. Kersey announced contracts for purchase of a complete new R. C. A. Sound System, the newest available type as used in all the larger theatres, a new screen, new carpeting for aisles and other new equipment had been closed.

The theatre interior is to be completely refinished and the front and lobby are to be modernized. The postoffice, now occupying space in the front of the theatre lobby, is to be moved to the corner building of the Kersey group, and the entire space converted into the lobby, ladies lounge, etc.

NARROW ESCAPE!

Rancher Barely Averts Driving Car Squarely Under Falling Truck

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Millsbaugh, Jr., narrowly escaped what might have been an unusual as well as tragic accident Friday afternoon while on their way to Ozona from the Millsbaugh ranch.

A truck of the dump type, in use on highway construction projects west of Ozona, had just passed Mr. and Mrs. Millsbaugh and in doing so the truck tires picked up a big rock and hurled it back, narrowly missing the passenger car. The truck driver glanced back as he heard the noise of the rock flung by his tire, and the next instant crashed into a concrete culvert.

The truck seemed to rise high into the air in a somersault, Mr. Millsbaugh said, and so close behind the crashing vehicle was his car that it seemed also certain that he would run squarely under the falling truck. By applying his brake at full force, however, Mr. Millsbaugh averted what promised to be a freakish and very likely a tragic accident. The narrow escape the young ranch couple had is attested by the fact that their car bumped lightly into the truck as the latter came to earth. The Millsbaugh car was only slightly damaged.

The driver of the truck escaped without injury, riding the catapulting machine to a halt as it wheeled through the air in a complete flip. The rear double wheel of the truck was broken off by the impact.

Niece Of Ozonan Victim Of School Building Tragedy

Relative Of N. W. Graham Dead; Niece Of Tom Smith Escapes

Two relatives of Ozonans figured in the tragic explosion in the rural school building at New London last week which cost the lives of 455 pupils and teachers. One lost her life and the other missed by a matter of minutes being in the building as it went skyward under the force of the terrific blast.

Mrs. J. W. Gore, a teacher in the school, was a niece of N. W. Graham of Ozona. She was killed in the explosion. Mrs. Gore was a daughter of Horace Graham of Cameron, a brother of the Ozona attorney.

Miss Mozelle Turney, a niece of Tom Smith of Ozona, and a former student in Ozona High School was a teacher of home economics in the ill-fated school. She had been doing some special work in the main building, center of the explosion, and had left it but a few minutes, on her way to a Parent-Teacher Association meeting in progress in a wing of the building, when the explosion occurred. She was not injured.

3-DAY RODEO PLANNED HERE FOR JULY 1-3

Citizens, Fair Officials Enthusiastic On Show Plans

REELECT OFFICERS

Greater Race Meet, Rodeo, Show And Sale Plan Of Heads

Under the most favorable circumstances in the last six years, plans were launched by a group of enthusiastic citizens and fair officials at a meeting Saturday afternoon for Ozona's tenth annual Rodeo, Race Meet, Stock Show and Sale.

The 1937 show and celebration is to be held this year on July 1, 2 and 3, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, it was decided by the group in its session at the Hotel Ozona. With the livestock industry riding a wave of prosperity and West Texas on the comeback strong, the citizen planners at the Saturday mass meeting here looked to this year's show as giving every promise of being one of the most successful in the history of the undertaking.

All officers and directors of the Crockett County Fair Association, moving force behind the annual celebration, were re-elected at the Saturday meeting.

Wayne West steps into the job of heading the fair association as its president for the fifth consecutive year. Mr. West is the second president to serve the organization, Joe Pierce being its first president, elected in 1926 and re-elected each year until 1932 when he gave up the job and retired to the ranks, where he remains an active worker in the interest of the annual celebration.

Other officers re-elected were Paul Perner, vice president, and Scott Peters, secretary-treasurer. Directors include Roy Henderson, John R. Bailey, Joe T. Davidson, Joe Pierce and Tom Smith. Committees will remain the same with the exception of a few additions to be made to the various working groups, according to president West.

Free barbecue each day at noon on the three days, a feature of the local show since its inception, no doubt will be included in this year's program. The finance committee was on the job this week soliciting the barbecue fund, and officials were confident that citizens of Ozona would again put up the necessary funds to include this distinctive feature of the annual celebration. Inquiries are already being received from growers who expect to enter stock in the show and sale and this department of the show is expected to exceed past years.

D. M. Grice, Former Ozonan, Killed In Crash Of Trucks

Grice, salesman for the G. & G. Sales Co., auto parts concern, had visited Ozona trade Tuesday morning, leaving here in the afternoon for Comstock and Sanderson.

Large Clean-Up As Health Measure

Austin, March 24—The accumulation of winter's debris represents a distinct menace to the health of adults and particularly of the little children, according to Dr. W. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who urges everyone to clean their houses and yards at this time. It is not only good housekeeping, but primary sanitary principles indicate the necessity of prompt removal of all waste matter in and around the neighborhood of yards and homes, but the definite lessening of the spread of diseases, especially those effecting infants, is vitally connected with this procedure.

Flies help spread typhoid fever, dysentery, diarrhea, tuberculosis, diphtheria, and cholera. They breed in filth and feed in it. To prevent their increase all refuse should be disposed of at once, garbage kept in covered containers, privies made sanitary, and houses screened. Every neighborhood raises its index to the sanitary conditions. Mosquitoes are responsible for the spread of malaria, dengue, and yellow fever. Malaria is spread by the bite of the Anopheles or malaria mosquito. Dengue fever and yellow fever are transmitted by the Aedes Aegypti or Tiger mosquito. The best way to prevent these diseases is to destroy the breeding places of the mosquito. They breed in standing water, therefore, one should drain, ditch, or fill such places, spray oil on water each week, or stock the water with surface minnows as they will eat the wiggletails.

they will eat the wiggletails. Houses should be well screened to protect against these insects. After the spring cleaning is finished, it should be kept in this condition at all times.

Q. What Texas town was once noted for its "Sunday Houses," and just what were these places?

A. Frederickburg, one of the first German settlements. Before the days of automobiles, many Germans living in the country built and maintained cottages in the town to which they went to spend week-ends and attend church on Sundays, these weekend homes becoming known as "Sunday Houses."

Q. Where is the "Balanced Rock?"

A. It is a 60-ton boulder, nicely balanced above ground on Bear Mountain, four miles north of Fredericksburg, and it is visited by thousands annually, being one of nature's great curiosities. All who see it wonder that it does not topple over, so nicely does the huge stone appear to be balanced.

Q. For what was Olmito, Cameron County, named?

Illini Gun Molls Show Prowess

Two expert marksmen are these University of Illinois coeds, Miss Mary Margaret Smith (left), of Waukegan, Ill., and Miss Marjorie Lynn of Paris, France. Each fired a "perfect," scoring 100 of a possible 100, in a postal match with the girls' rifle team of the Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa. Only two other girls and a comparatively few men have scored "perfects" in the many years of rifle team competition at the university.

A. The word is Spanish, and means "little elms", and was given for the many small elms found there.

Q. For what is Uvalde most noted?

A. Uvalde, on the Southern Pacific Railroad, about 100 miles west of San Antonio, is noted as one of the largest honey-production sections of the world, for its extensive asphalt fields, and as the home of Vice President John Nance Garner.

Q. To what are most of the forest fires of Texas attributed?

A. Statistics for 1936, which are a fair average for all years, show that careless smokers cause 25 per cent of forest fires; incendiarism 50 per cent; debris burning, 14 per cent; the remaining 11 per cent being attributed to campers, railroads, lumbering operations, lightning, and miscellaneous causes.

Q. What are the heights of perpendicular walls of the Rio Grande River in the proposed Big Bend International Park?

A. In places these river canyon walls reach a height of 2,000 feet with the river at the bottom in exactly the same position as the Colorado in the cradle of Grand Canyon.

Q. What probably would be the most distinguishing characteristics of the Big Bend International Park as compared with other National Parks in the United States?

A. The fact that it would be in two nations, that it would have varied scenery of kinds not to be found in other parks of this country, and that the mild weather would render it attractive to visitors at all seasons of the year.

Q. Where is the largest rice package plant in the world?

A. At Beaumont, Texas.

Q. Were elections ever held on Sunday in Texas?

A. Prior to independence all elections in Texas were held on Sundays.

Electric Cookery Praised By Experts On Home Economics

West Texas Utilities Free Cooking School Here April 1 and 2

"Since the beginning of time, it has been the duty of women to prepare the food—peek into the kettles, ovens—stirring, watching. The job of mothering the family's food has progressed through many stages—always before with fire that blackened cooking utensils, burned her hands, blistered her face and besmirched the walls and ceiling of her kitchen," says Mrs. Bonnie McDaniel, home ec teacher at the West Texas Utilities Co. free cooking school at the Methodist Church here Thursday and Friday April 1 and 2.

"Electricity has removed this cloak of drudgery," Mrs. McDaniel adds emphatically. "The modern electric range is provided with a 'chef's brain' in that it works automatically. It watches over the oven, turning it on and off without attention from the homemaker. It keeps temperatures accurate and enables even inexperienced cooks to get good results. While electric cookery is relatively new, it is already widely used in many thousands of homes and promises to be outstanding influence on home economic instruction in 1937 inasmuch as housewives regard it as the answer to their long-felt needs."

Mrs. McDaniel said that girls, as well as their mothers, will find the school interesting and informative. The school and new recipes are free.

Years In Ozona!

A. W. (AL) JONES

Last week marked the TENTH ANNIVERSARY of establishment of JONES SADDLERY in Ozona. We are proud of the growth and progress this firm has made in this decade in the service of the people of Crockett and surrounding counties. We are proud, also, of the friendships we have made and the patronage we have enjoyed in that time.

Although the decade embraced the worst depression and drought in the history of the nation, it is with no little pride that we are able to announce that we have weathered the trying period and come out now with the largest and most complete stock of leather and leather goods in our history—thanks to the loyalty of our patrons and friends.

EXPERT WORKMANSHIP

THIRTY-THREE years experience in the manufacture of leather goods has taught us the value of expert mechanics in the production of saddles, boots and other leather supplies. We employ only expert mechanics—no apprentices. If you have not tried our work, we invite you to take advantage of our facilities. Expert workmanship plus top-quality materials produce leather goods that wear longer, look better and feel better; and there's an unqualified guarantee on every job.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin—Out of the pall of grief which fell over Texas and the nation in the wake of the New London school disaster, claiming the lives of 455 children and teachers, doubtless come legislation designed to prevent a repetition of the disaster. A joint committee of the East Texas senate and house members, named promptly, was studying the cause of the catastrophe, which early reports indicated was the result of accumulated gas in the basement or hollow tile walls. Whether this was from leaking gas connections with the building or from drifting from near-by oil wells had not been determined at this writing. Sentiment among the legislators indicated very positively that possibly laws requiring a malodorous inspection of school buildings generally and other indicated legislative measures will come out of the unparalleled tragedy.

ALLRED PROGRAM SUNK
Two additional major planks in a program of Gov. Allred fell the wayside during the week when action by the senate state affairs committee virtually killed this session the two pending public utility regulation bills. The utility interests saw their fight virtually won for them by outsiders when the Texas League of Municipalities spokesmen vigorously opposed turning regulation over to a state commission, provided in Olan Van Zandt's measure. Mayors and managers of

Yes, You Are Seeing Double

You might think this was done with mirrors, but you're wrong. It's the De Sutter twins, two of Chicago's leading feminine basketball players, looking at each other through an empty picture frame. Left to right, they are, Marion and Mercedes. In the event you still believe this clever piece of photography was done with a mirror, look below the frame where you can see two sets of legs.

many Texas cities joined in opposition. Final passage of the Tenyson's house bill, extending the right of utility regulation to small incorporated cities and towns, appeared to be the only victory in sight for those seeking stronger utility control at this session. The other Allred-sponsored measure was the Herman Jones franchise tax bill, a highly controversial bill. The house literally riddled it with amendments that would reduce its probable revenue raising power from $12,000,000 to less than $3,000,000 annually, and almost killed it by a motion for indefinite delay. The governor had strongly urged higher franchise taxes, devoting a large section of his original message to the subject.

PAROLE BOARD CREATED
Texas acquired a legal system of pardon and parole, carrying out the terms of the constitutional amendment adopted last year, when the long deadlock between house and senate on where the board's headquarters should be located was broken by a compromise, with Austin designated as headquarters, but stipulating that the board must spend at least 15 days each month at either Huntsville or the prison farms. The new law removes much of the load of responsibility from the governor and prevents forever, it is believed, a repetition of "pardon peddling" by making it impossible for the governor to grant any pardon not first recommended by the board.

LABOR TROUBLE LOOMS
Possibility of a re-enactment in the Texas oil fields of the bitter labor warfare and sitdown strikes staged in Detroit was seen by some observers here as the date neared for the April drive of John L. Lewis' organization to enlist oil field workers under the banner of his committee for industrial organization. Seeking apparently to head off this drive, some major oil companies announced wage increases and others forecast such a step. The International Association of Oil and Gas Well Workers already well entrenched in the Texas fields, is an affiliate of Lewis' union and provides a substantial nucleus for the drive, which will be launched by Lewis in person with speeches in several strategic oil centers in Texas next month.

OIL CUT ANTICIPATED
Meanwhile, a reduction of allowable oil production was announced after the statement by Rail Commission Chairman C. V. Terrell, pointing out the ample stocks of refined gasoline on hand the decline in winter consumption of fuel oil and recent additions to crude stocks in storage. Continued drilling of new wells in Texas has brought the differential between marginal and flush wells to about three barrels, and many operators feel that some step, such as enactment of the pending Clint Small bill to prorate marginal wells below the present 20-barrel minimum, must be taken soon if the commission is to continue to maintain the differential in favor of flush wells required by the federal courts to uphold the legality of the proration orders.

NEWS AND NAMES
Hearings on the race betting repeal bill before the senate committee on criminal jurisprudence, set for March 25, will move the race betting repeal fight a step nearer final decision, with repealists battling for an early report by the committee that will force the senate to a record vote. Proponents of repeal are confident of victory if they can get the bill out on the senate floor. . . . Pat Moreland, poet, preacher, union carpenter and late secretary to the governor, stepped into the vacant post on the unemployment compensation commission which the senate refused to Wallace Kelly, Dallas labor representative, and was promptly confirmed. . . . It is a two-year job at $5000 a year. . . . Sam Houston Allred, third son of the governor and Mrs. Allred, born on St. Patrick's day in Sam Houston's bed at the mansion, begins life with an illustrious name and $20 in the savings bank. The $20 came from Rail Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson as the nest-egg of his educational fund. The senate state affairs committee postponed until March 30 hearing on the house's 6-cent oil tax bill, waiting to see if any other revenue-raising legislation will come over from the house.

PUBLIC INTEREST DEMANDS FAIR PLAY!

Texas now has good state laws for the regulation—in the public interest—of all transportation. These laws are helping to stabilize transportation, and all business and industry that has to use transportation. These laws are helping to reduce the terrible accident toll on your highways. They are helping to conserve your investment in your highways.

without any resulting benefit to the people of Texas.

Texas railroads obey the rules of the game,—those imposed by the agencies of government and those taken on voluntarily in the interest of public safety.

Texas railroads are spending this year, large sums of money for new and modern equipment—locomotives, freight and passenger cars, improved rail and roadbed facilities, and are expediting freight and passenger schedules to meet growing public demands. All of this is being done in the interest of improved service to the public and at the lowest rates in twenty years.

Regulation of transportation in the United States has been developed over a period of fifty years. Reasonable regulation is admitted to be both advisable and necessary in the public interest.

Strict regulation of one form of transportation and the lessening of regulation of any other form is unfair and un-American, and can only result in crippling that part of your transportation facilities which is handicapped—

All the railroads of Texas are asking—have ever asked—is a FAIR DEAL in a fair field.

Rev. Forest Dudley, Former Ozonan, To Attend Religious Conference In India On Five-Months Tour Of Orient, Europe

Dallas Pastor Invited By Famed Missionary To Indian Meet

Rev. Forest E. Dudley, pastor of Ervay Street Methodist Church in Dallas, a former Ozonan and brother of J. M. and R. R. Dudley and Mrs. B. B. Ingham of this city, will sail Saturday from Seattle, Wash., on a five-month trip which will take him through Japan, China, India, Egypt, Palestine, Italy, Switzerland, France and England.

Rev. Dudley's primary objective is to attend a conference of religious representatives in India as guest of Dr. Stanley Jones, Methodist missionary to India and one of the world's leading religious figures. Dr. Jones holds annually an extended conference of leaders of the Christian, Mohammedan and Hindu religions and has invited Rev. Dudley to participate in that conference.

In a recent letter to his sister here, Rev. Dudley gave the itinerary of his trip as follows:

"I will leave Seattle March 27 on the S. S. President Jefferson, and will land in Yokohama, Japan, April 11. From there I will go to Tokyo for a day, and then overland to Kobe, around the base of the Holy Mountain, Fujiyama, where I will pick up my boat again.

Visit Shanghai

"From Kobe, I will go across the inland sea of Shanghai, thence to Soochow by motor car, and then back to Shanghai. You see I have some friends in both Kobe and Shanghai, so I will have a great time with them the three or four days that I will get to spend there. I will touch Manila and Singapore and then land at Bombay. I will take the train there to go up into northern India to spend the two months in the Himalaya mountains with Dr. Jones.

"Sailing from Bombay again about July 1 I will return through the Red Sea and the Suez Canal to Port Said. At Port Said I will leave the boat for 16 days in Egypt and Palestine — three days around Cairo, and thirteen days in Palestine. I will pick up my boat, at least another one, at Port Said and disembark again in Brendizi, Italy. There I will take a train up to Rome for three or four days; from Rome to Venice, Milan, Florence, etc. for three or four days and then into Switzerland for two days.

"My trip across France will be hurried, so as to reach England for the World Conference on Faith and Order, to be held in Edinburgh, Scotland, the first two weeks in August. Then home."

The World Conference on Faith and Order, to be held in Edinburgh, meets every ten years, the last session being held in Laus.

There's the beautiful love of a wonderful maid, and the love of a staunch true man; And the love of a baby that's unafraid, and all have existed since time began. But the most beautiful love, the love of loves, even greater than that of a mother, is the passionate, tender, infinite love of one good drunk for another.
