Tom Smith Again Knocks at Door of 'Odditorium'

Gunless Constable Now Has Vision In Eye Blind For Fifty-Two Years

Again! Attention, Mr. Ripley! Tom Smith again seeking admittance.

Ozona's famous gun-less constable, who a few years ago gained a place in Ripley's nationally distributed "Believe It Or Not" cartoon on his record of 23 years in the constable's office without ever having carried a gun or made an arrest, again is a candidate for Mr. Ripley's attention with an even greater oddity.

After 52 years of almost total blindness in one eye, Mr. Smith is now enjoying almost normal vision in the eye without an operation, treatment or any effort of his own.

It happened while he was asleep. He was awakened by a peculiar twitching or throbbing sensation in the eyeball. He rubbed the eye and the twitching sensation ceased. The next morning he found he could see out of the eye.

An examination of the regenerated member disclosed that a clouded condition that had obscured the pupil for a half century had disintegrated to an extent so that part of the pupil is now visible. Mr. Smith believes that if he had not rubbed the eye, the cloud would have cleared away completely.

Through disuse and possibly as a result of a fringe of slight vision on the outer edge, the disabled eye had for many years been pulled out of focus toward the outside. Now that vision has returned, Mr. Smith finds the ability to see in two directions at once a bit confusing.

"It will be great for a two-ring circus, though," is his philosophical view of the unexpected development.

Many eye specialists have examined the eye during his lifetime, Mr. Smith said, and none gave him hope of ever regaining the vision. An operation was not termed impossible but doctors advised against it as long as the other eye was good for the reason that the condition was so deep in the eyeball that tampering with it would be dangerous.

Station Team Splits Series With Gulfers

Champs Bowled Over On Home Lot In Sunday Game

After absorbing a 16-9 beating on the home lot Saturday afternoon in a ragged game, the Ozona-Sonora Station A Pumpers went one up on the defending champion Crane Gulfers in the Gulfers' own backyard Sunday afternoon by a count of 9 to 8. By virtue of being two games up on the champs, the locals stand ahead of the Gulfers in the percentage column.

Lefty White, who started Saturday's game but was mercilessly bombarded by the slugging Cranes, was in fair fettle for Sunday and went the whole route, with winning results.

The twin-city team had the champions by a count of 9 to 4 in the eighth, but a rally put one across in that frame and three more in the ninth. A dust storm blowing over near the end of the game resulted in under par baseball from the last two chukkers.

Another test of the Station A power will come this week-end when Texon comes to Sonora Saturday afternoon for the first meeting of the Oilers and the twin-city team of the season. Sunday's meeting of the two clubs will be at Texon.

Proposed Clinic-Hospital For Ozona

Above is the architect's drawing of the proposed Moore Clinic-Hospital, plans for which have been perfected by Dr. Sellers

Moore to be erected on the site of Dr. Moore's present office and residence here. Plans and specifications for the 21-bed hospital and clinic, to be built of brick on modernistic design, are now in the hands of contractors for bids and construction is expected to start within the next three or four weeks, Dr. Moore said.

Saturday Is Deadline For Signing Up To Share In Range Conservation Plan; Million And Half Acres Signed Here

New Rulings On Operation Of Program Announced

Saturday, May 15, is the deadline for the signing of applications to share in the range conservation program of the government for the year 1937. County Agent C. J. Van Zandt announced this week. Applications must be in the hands of the county committee by that date for ranchers to participate in the program this year.

More than a million and a half Crockett County acres have been signed for benefits of the range conservation program, the county agent reports. Ridding ranges of prickly pear is the range practice being followed by most participants in this county, with some few attacking lechuguilla, cedar and some building dirt tanks.

Recent information from the state office has clarified the classification of degree of infestation for pear and other species of cactus plants. Pear under 2 percent density is too light for classification. From 2 to 10 percent is classified as light infestation, 10 to 20 percent as medium and over 20 percent as heavy. Density refers to the total spread of the plants over land. Allowances of 50 cents for light infestation, 75 cents for medium and $1 per acre for heavy infestation are granted.

Per-acre allowances for the various ranch improvement practices approved is the sum that will be allowed for that particular practice from the total ranch allotment, which is based on the number of animal units carrying capacity of the range, which is determined by range inspectors now at work. Range inspectors in this county are W. E. Friend, Jr., and T. A. Kincaid, Jr., with Dan Willis a reserve inspector.

In measuring and calculating acreage of infestation with pear, cedar and lechuguilla, the total acreage actually infested and not the total numbers of acres in a given pasture will be counted in determining the extermination schedule, Mr. Van Zandt pointed out.

Definite assurance has been received by the local committee, the agent said, that payment will be made at the rate of $1.50 per animal unit regardless of the number. (Continued On Last Page.)

HOSPITAL FOR OZONA IS PLAN OF DR. MOORE

21 Beds, Clinic, Full Equipment For Medical Center

START WORK SOON

Structure To Be Of Brick, Modernistic Design

Plans have been completed and specifications are now in the hands of contractors for a modern 21-bed hospital and clinic, complete in every detail, for Ozona, and a long cherished dream of this community may soon become a reality with successful conclusion of this project.

The hospital and clinic, to be known as the Moore Clinic-Hospital, is the plan of Dr. I. Sellers Moore, practicing physician and surgeon here. Architect's drawing and plans and specifications of the structure have been completed and specifications are now in the hands of contractors for bids, Dr. Moore announced this week.

The structure is to be built on the site of Dr. Moore's present office and residence, the residence to be moved to the back of the lot and used as a residence by Dr. Moore and as nurses' quarters. The street on the east side of the lot, Powell Avenue, is already paved, and an order was passed by the Commissioners Court in session this week to pave a block of the street on the north side of the building site in cooperation with other property owners.

Provide Dental Office

The unit is so planned that it combines a complete clinic and hospital, both separate and yet combined. The clinic will face on Powell Avenue and the hospital will face north on the side street, with both ambulance drive and entrance to the hospital on the north side.

The clinic provides consulting room for Dr. Moore, X-Ray room, operating room, treatment rooms, physio-therapy, and laboratory on the south side and on the north side dental offices, with additional treatment rooms and laboratory. Dr. Kirkpatrick, for several years head of the dental department of the State Sanatorium at Carlsbad, is to occupy the dental quarters in the new clinic for practice here, Dr. Moore announced.

The east entrance opens on the clinic reception room, while the hospital entrance on the north opens on the hospital lobby. In the hospital private rooms line the south and west side and on the north are private, semi-private, ward and nursery rooms, as well as kitchen, dining room and storage quarters. Know Texas

News Bureau
Texas State College for Women

Denton, May 14—Little do care-takers of Texas fishermen realize the forethought and preparation which makes it possible for them to "haul 'em in." The energies of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission are combined with those of the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries to protect and better conditions both for commercial and sporting purposes.

Experimentation in the hatcheries, made necessary by a national fish shortage which began about 1884, is one of the most important phases of the commissions work at present. Shad, herring and California salmon were first tried, but did not thrive in Texas waters. Then German carp were tried, but this fish was soon discarded for lack of food value.

Now the nine hatcheries, which are located to serve all sections of the state except southeast Texas, concentrate on white perch, black crappies, catfishes, bream, rock bass and green perch. A total of 3,137,357 small fish were distributed over the state from these hatcheries in the fall of 1935. The commission is also working on the propagation of minnows and smaller fish, since their sale for commercial bait has caused a food scarcity for game fish.

Precautions have to be taken that game fish are not crowded out by buffalo, carp, suckers, and other menaces are predatory birds and snakes.

A floating laboratory has been established by the commission on the coast at Rockport. Little is known about the habits and banks of coastal fish, but authorities say that if the Gulf banks were as well marked out as those of Newfoundland, fishing interests would have a tremendous boom.

Many Die in Zeppelin Hindenburg Explosion

This remarkable picture was made just as the giant German dirigible Hindenburg burst into flames and exploded as it was preparing to land at Lakehurst, N. J., following a flight from Germany. Ninety-eight persons aboard were plunged to earth in the flaming wreckage. Thirty-four died almost instantly and of the 64 rescued, many were horribly injured. An explosion of a gas cell in the stern was blamed for the disaster.

Q. When and where was the Texas State Historical Association organized and who were among its noted members?

A. It was organized at Austin March 2, 1897. Among the organizers were Gov. O. M. Roberts, Gov. Francis R. Lubbock, Col. John S. (Rip) Ford, Dr. Geo. P. Garrison, Judge Z. T. Fulmore, and Judge R. L. Q. When and how did the San Antonio Fiesta de San Jacinto originate?

A. When Pres. Benjamin Harrison visited San Antonio on San Jacinto day, 1891, the citizens arranged an elaborate program of entertainment, including features that have been perpetuated to this time, such as the military and civic parade, visit to the Alamo, battle of flowers and grand ball. The event was such a splendid success that it became an annual affair extending over the week that includes San Jacinto day.

Q. To what extent has the growing and shipping of Bermuda onion plants developed in the Laredo section of Texas?

Q. What is the largest natural fresh water lake in Texas?

A. Caddo Lake, lying partly in Texas and partly in Louisiana, near Marshall and Jefferson, with a water area of 25,000 acres in Texas, is the largest fresh water lake in Texas. The lake, with some adjacent land, is the property of the state, and has been converted into a state park and resort.

COMMANDED ZEPPELIN

The dirigible Hindenburg's 1937 maiden voyage which ended in flaming disaster when the airship exploded just before landing at Lakehurst, N. J., marked the first time that Capt. Max Pruss commanded the sky liner on a flight from Germany to the United States. Last year he was a subordinate officer when Capt. Ernst A. Lehmann and Dr. Hugo Eckener, the veteran Zeppelin expert, handled the ship on her regular passenger schedule. Schooled in Zeppelin work for a quarter of a century, he took over command this spring. Gravely injured in the tragedy, he had more than a million miles of airship travel to his credit.

steady growth of prosperity in commerce and industry throughout the state.

Q. Who was "Three Legged Willie" Williamson?

A. Judge R. M. Williamson, native of Georgia who came to Texas in 1827, and practiced law. In early life, a white swelling so stiffened one of his legs that he wore a wooden leg, from which he received the sobriquet; was an alcalde in 1834 and commanded an Indian campaign in 1835; was district judge at Bastrop; member of Texas Congress from Washington County from 1840 until annexation and then in state senate. Severe illness in 1857 weakened his body and mind until his death in Wharton County, Dec. 22, 1859. Able lawyer, popular judge, brilliant orator, he was lovingly called "The Patrick Henry of the Texas Revolution."

The Willingness of a Bank to Loan —is limited only by the fundamental rules of good banking practice.

IN making loans a bank uses primarily the money of others—its depositors. As custodian of this money it is obligated to obtain adequate assurance that its borrowers are responsible and its loans are safe. Furthermore, a large part of a bank's deposits are subject to withdrawal on demand and it must always have ample cash available.

For this reason preference is given to commercial loans for current business activities, because their cash proceeds are sufficient, within a specified period, to repay the loan. These repayments, together with new deposits, enable the bank to meet the requirements of depositors and to make fresh loans.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin—Veto by Gov. Allred of the commercial carrier bill, written by the legislature in an effort to permit private business concerns to deliver their products in their own trucks without qualifying as common carriers, and a revival of the oft-repeated rumor that Gov. Allred will receive appointment as a federal judge and resign the governorship, were the outstanding developments of the week in Austin.

The federal judgeship rumor, which has been bruited about for more than a year, appeared this week to be backed by significant circumstantial evidence. Although Gov. Allred has maintained discreet silence, his close friends say he is exceedingly anxious for the job. There is before the house judiciary committee in Washington a bill creating an additional judgeship in the South Texas (Houston) district. Inside information from the national capital indicates it probably will be passed at this session of congress.

Agreement Reported
Best information here is that Senators Sheppard and Connally will endorse different candidates, neither naming Allred. That would put the decision up to Vice-President Garner, who has always been Allred's close political friend. Garner is known to be willing to go a long way to prevent Allred becoming a candidate against Connally in the future, and the current story here is that he has definitely decided to back Allred for the judgeship. In that event, Allred would resign. Lt. Gov. Walter Woodul automatically becoming governor for the remainder of Allred's term.

Journey's End for World's Greatest Airship

Wreckage of the huge dirigible Hindenburg, after the explosion at Lakehurst, N. J., when the great ship was preparing to land. Costing the lives of more than 34, the disaster was one of the worst in history.

son and Atty. Gen. William McCraw, who will both seek the governorship in 1939, are said to have used their influence to prevent this program working out in the past, because they feared that Woodul would feel obligated to seek election as governor, thus complicating the situation next year for their favorites. But close friends of Woodul have recently declared the lieutenant governor would far rather be attorney general of Texas—an ambition to which he has been pointing his whole political career for years—and that even if he served out Allred's unexpired term, Woodul probably would then continue with his present campaign for attorney general next year. Upon this assurance, friends of the other two candidates apparently have waived their opposition to Allred's appointment, and the thing appears more likely to be worked out on this basis now than at any time since the rumor originally started. Allred Visits Roosevelt

Two visits by Gov. Allred—one official, to welcome the president to Texas, and the other with an apparent effort at secrecy this week—lend some credence to the reports. The governor's mysterious "trip to the country" to "take a rest" is reported here to have been an unheralded visit to the president at Galveston.

Knowledge of this situation is credited by many here with the policy of the group of senators who have blocked action of many important legislative measures supported by Allred, including the race repeal bill. Nobody knows when the Allred appointment will go through—if it does—but Sept. 1 is the date most frequently heard here in discussion of the subject.

Eighth Veto Angers House

Veto by the governor of the bill adopted to permit privately owned trucks to cruise the highways at will drew fire in the house which quickly passed the measure over the veto, with many Allred stalwarts favoring the bill. In the senate, anti-Allred leaders, such as Frank Rawlings of Fort Worth and Clint Small of Amarillo, rallied to support the veto, and the bill failed of enactment over the veto by the narrow margin of two votes. The governor explained in his message that the bill was so poorly drafted it virtually threw the highways open to trucks without regulation, and raised serious legal questions as to the validity of the whole common carrier truck laws now in effect. The governor took the position that the strict regulation, and that the present good system of regulation for common carriers should not be jeopardized or impaired. Senate action probably killed further commercial truck regulation for this season.

Bascomb Cox, John Bailey and Joe Oberkamp were in the party making the trip to Sonora.

Pupils Of Speech Class In Recital

Pupils of the speech arts classes of Mrs. A. W. Jones were presented in recital last night in the High School auditorium. Three one-act plays, "Trapped," "An Unprepared Test," and "All On Account of Baths," were presented. A playlet, "Bobby Shaftoe," to have been given by a group of younger children, was cancelled when measles took out most of the cast.

Members of the casts presented the one-act plays included Doris Bunker, Haskell Leath, Ele Bright Baggett, Max Schneemann, Crystelle Carson, Eloise Carson, Philip Schneemann, Noma V. Miller, Jesse Hancock, Maurice Lemmons, Mildred North, and James Black. Billy Hannah, a pupil of Joe Haddon, played a violin number. What is the "Low-price Field"?

YOU hear a lot about "the low-price field" these days. A good many cars claim to be in it. So whenever the low-price field is mentioned, remember:

Until Ford came, no average American could own a car.

Today all Ford prices are still low — with the prices of the 60-horsepower Ford V-8 $30 to $60 lower than those of any other car of comparable size.

But with Ford, "low price" doesn't merely mean low figures on the price tag. It means much more than that. It means low prices and low costs all the car's long life. Low prices for service — for parts — and, above all, for operation.

Both Ford V-8 engine sizes are economical to operate. The 85 horsepower gives greater gasoline mileage this year than ever, and the "60" delivers the highest mileage in Ford history.

Private owners, cab companies, fleet operators all report that the "60" averages from 22 to 27 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Check and see how much Ford saves you.
