Giants' Backs to Wall as Strong Crane Sluggers Make Clean Sweep of Opening Series Here By Count Of 9-7 And 6-3

Each Inning Spurt Each Day Nets 3 Runs And Victory

Their backs to the wall as a result of the clean sweep by the opening Crane Gulfers of the opening series in the Permian Basin championship play-off here Saturday and Sunday, the Ozona Giants charge the Gulfers on their own makeshift sandlot at Crane next Monday and Sunday in what may be the finale of the 1936 baseball season in these parts. The Gulfers took both games of the opening series here, 9-7 and 6-3.

To stay in the running, the Giants must turn the tables and win both games of the impending series from Bob Osborn's pitcher. One more win for the Giants will decide the issue, since the championship is to be decided on the first three games out of a possible five.

The Giants literally kicked away their chances in Saturday's game. Six errors, two hit batsmen and a couple of walks contributed to Crane's nine runs, only one earned run being chalked up for the Gulfers. The second-half slumps scored first in the second inning when Colvard, first up for the Cranes, singled, went to second on Galloway's sacrifice and scored on Preslar's hit. Myers making a perfect throw from left field to cut off the run at the plate, but Stuart let the ball get away. Preslar scored a moment later on Watson's fly to right.

The Cranes added another in the third when West walked and scored when Myers dropped Moos' fly to left field. The Giants evened the count in the third when Crosswhite singled, and Lenz doubled, both scoring on Cox's triple to center. Cox scored on Heatherly's sacrifice fly to left. Three more were added by the Cranes in the sixth with Smith getting a single. Anderson hit by a pitched ball trying to bunt and Galloway drawing a walk to fill the bags after two were out, Moos popping out to Watson's fly to right.

New Chevrolet To Be Given Away Sunday At Ball Game In Crane

Indications were that the new Chevrolet sedan, to be given away by the Ozona Baseball Club, will be awarded as a feature of the final game of the two-game series in the Permian Basin championship play-off at Crane next Sunday, it was announced this week by George Russell, club president.

The contest is being conducted by Beeler Brown, and those who want to compete in the award should see him before the end of this week.

Lions Open Grid Season Saturday Against Braves

Iraan To Be Scene Of First Conflict; 2nd Strings Matched

Coach Ted White will take his Ozona Lions to Iraan next Saturday to officially open the 1936 gridiron season and to see what he has in the bag for the district contenders.

Two games are slated for the afternoon's bill in the Pecos oil town. After the main bout of the afternoon, the second string men of the two teams will be thrown into the arena to test the relative strength of the reserves and to give these youngsters a taste of real conflict to toughen them for work as the season progresses.

The first game will be called at 3:30 Saturday afternoon. The second stringers will go it immediately after the first game is concluded.

Coach White is expecting plenty of tough competition from the Iraan Braves. The team has lost considerable of its 1935 strength through graduation but is understood to have a fast eleven built around a nucleus of last year's veterans. Coach White has six veterans and some extremely promising new material and is looking forward to the Iraan game to bring out the strong points in his material. He will likely use most of the squad in this initial workout.

A. M. Buck, Former Ozona Rancher, Is Critically Ill

A. M. Buck, father of Mrs. Roger Dudley of Ozona, is critically ill at the Dudley home here. Mr. Buck has been in a coma for several days and little hope is held for his recovery. Mr. Buck is a pioneer rancher of Crockett County, operating what is known as the Buck Place, now part of the P. L. Childress ranches, and also operated a hotel in Ozona for a time. In recent years he has been ranching in the Sanderson area.

Miss Betty Lasley, pianist, scheduled for a concert here tonight, notified Music Club heads this morning she will be unable to be here for the engagement. She will appear here Monday night, it was agreed. Tickets sold will be good for the new date.

FLOODS MENACE AT SAN ANGELO

Telephone reports here this morning indicated the city of San Angelo is isolated by high waters occasioned by more torrential rains that fell there and on the watershed of the Concho Rivers last night.

Radio reports here at noon described immense damage being done by rising waters. The twelve-mile bridge, on the road from Mertzon to San Angelo, had washed out and the Beaugard bridge was going out, the report said.

With a considerable part of the town already under water, another three-foot wall of water was reported on the way down at noon. West Texas Utilities officials notified local offices the plant was in danger of going out.

Mails Delayed, Traffic Turned, Result Floods

Only Half Inch Here, But Ozona Feels Flood Effects

Although Ozona received but a half inch of rain in the general floods and near floods of the early part of the week, the effects of the downpours in other area were felt here in delayed mail service and detoured traffic.

A washed out bridge on the Santa Fe railroad this side of San Angelo on the line to Barnhart prevented delivery of any mail here Tuesday. Slow movement of rail traffic yesterday delayed delivery of the regular noon mail until around 7 o'clock last night.

A representative of the highway department was on duty here yesterday afternoon and night turning back through east-bound traffic at Ozona on account of damaged bridges between here and Junction. Approaches to one bridge between here and Sonora were damaged and a bridge between Roosevelt and Junction was reported washed out.

A Friend In Need

Neighbor Frees Hillery Phillips Sheep, Trapped In Path Of Flood Waters

Being a good neighbor is more or less a habit in these parts, but occasionally an outstanding example is unheeded.

Such an example was brought to light by the torrential rains falling to the east and south of Ozona the first of this week.

Hillery Phillips, who ranches in the southeast section of the county, had 1600 head of sheep in a trap about a mile and a quarter from the ranch headquarters. Two draws between the house and the trap reached flood stage Tuesday as a result of the heavy rains in that area Monday night. The sheep were in overflow territory and the draws were rising steadily.

Mr. Phillips attempted to swim his horse across the draws but failed. He drove to Sonora and attempted to reach the doomed animals by crossing the draws there but high water in every direction blocked his path. He thought of another route around the mountains, a distance of 75 miles, and attempted it, but again was blocked.

In Sonora the distraught rancher phoned a neighbor, Wilkerson, who got word to the Sim Glasscock ranch. Mr. Glasscock drove his car to the trap where the sheep were in danger and, opening the gates, drove them to higher ground and safety. On his return trip to the ranch, Mr. Glasscock's car was mired, and he trudged five miles back home through the mud. All in a day's work of being a good neighbor.

Roy Henderson, Jr., is back in school after an illness of a week.

Half Inch Rain Falls In Ozona In Ten Minutes

Sample Of Torrential Falls Of Area Is Given City

Ozona was given a sample of the torrential rains that fell in the San Angelo and Christoval sections Monday night and Tuesday in a ten-minute downpour here late Tuesday afternoon that amounted to nearly a half inch of moisture, according to readings of the gauge at Joe Oberkamp's.

The brief but heavy downpour here was the first appreciable rainfall here since the rains have started over other sections of West Texas and other parts of the state. Scattered sections of the county, however, have received good rains in the past few weeks.

The rains this week have covered a wide range of territory in this area, heavy falls being reported to the south of Ozona after the shower here Tuesday. Draws in that section were high in some places from heavy rains to the east. Sonora reported a five-inch rain Monday night and this fall extended to within eight miles of Ozona. Skies remained heavy with a promise of further moisture.

Cal R. Word, Jr., Former Ozonan, Shot To Death

R. B. Norwood Held After Young Rancher Slain At Burnet

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon in San Angelo for Cal R. Word, Jr., 26, former resident of Ozona, who was shot to death in front of the postoffice in Burnet, Texas, last Thursday afternoon.

R. B. Norwood, Burnet County ranchman, surrendered to the sheriff in Austin following the shooting and is charged with murder in a Burnet Court. His bond is understood to have been set at $10,000.

The shooting is reported to have resulted from an argument over goats. Young Word, who was ranching with his father near Burnet, had just stepped out of his car in front of the postoffice when Norwood drove up behind the parked car and called to Word. The latter, according to press dispatches, refused to go out to talk with Norwood and Norwood pulled a rifle and fired one shot, the bullet piercing Word's heart and killing him instantly.

In the car with Word was H. O. Word, also a former Ozonan, and uncle of the dead man. The elder Word got out of the car on the opposite side from his nephew and witnessed the shooting.

Cal Word, Jr., is survived by his wife and 3-year-old son, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cal R. Word, who formerly ranged 35 miles south of Ozona, and a sister, Mrs. R. A. Winton of Washington, D. C. He was born in Ozona and graduated from Ozona High School, later attending A. & M. College. The family moved from here to Burnet County about five years ago.

THE SAN ANGELO TELEPHONE COMPANY

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS HISTORY

(By T. S. College for Women)

WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 13

1832—On September 14, the first and second alcaldes of the jurisdiction of Austin issued a call to all Texans to elect a convention from their districts to assemble at San Felipe de Austin on October 1.

1835—On September 19, Austin sent a call to arms to the colonists. He said, "War is our only resource."

1842—Following the serious attacks on San Antonio, the Governor and heads of departments temporarily moved their offices from Austin to Washington September 20.

1844—Members of the Mier expedition were released September 16 by Santa Anna. Seventeen out of 159 were executed earlier in the year.

1883—The inauguration of the University of Texas took place September 15 in the west wing of the building on College Hill. Ashbel Smith was president of the board of regents.

Physical Check-Up Needed Every Year

AUSTIN, Sept. 16—Great strides have been made in mass control of public health in the past twenty-five years by public health officials and the use of scientific methods in the control of disease. The job of the individual in getting fit and remaining in good health, however, is a personal rather than a public matter, according to Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

"While the ravages of diphtheria, smallpox, typhoid fever, and other devastating diseases have been definitely checked by public health measures," he said, "there are left many health enemies whose onslaught is stealthy, and whose approach is definitely individual. Heart disease, cerebral hemorrhage, nephritis, and cancer continue to stand high in the list of major killers.

"As these degenerating diseases cannot be controlled by quarantine and immunization, each individual should see to his own protection against these diseases if they exist, while they are in a state where control may be effective. The annual physical health examination is the major defensive weapon against such diseases.

"The annual physical examination has two definite objectives in the life of an individual; namely, to establish the fact that there is or is not present a disease which calls for prompt control measures, and to determine the margins of safety in health habits. When the family physician has established the facts brought to light in a physical examination, he is in a position to advise the individual as to procedures which must be adhered to in order that a proper balance may be maintained.

"Go to your family physician and give him a chance to tell you whether you are giving your body the treatment it needs."

EX-ARMY SERGEANT HAS BABY

LONDON—Shocking doctors in a Warsaw maternity home almost out of their wits, a former army sergeant walked in, clad in men's clothes, calmly told them "he" was going to have a baby—and proceeded to do so!

That, at any rate, is the story supplied the London Daily Mirror today by its Warsaw correspondent, who explains that the mother, Noehmen Tenenbaum, 25, changed sex last year.

Although there are many authentic cases of sex-changes on record, this is believed to be the first time in the history of medical science that the metamorphosis was so complete that reproduction was possible, commented the correspondent.

JUST HUMANS

By GENE CARR

"There Goes Ya Boy Friend, Mrs. McTuff!"

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the State and its people. As evidence of good faith inquiries must give their names and addresses, but only their initials will be printed. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. Who led the ticket in number of votes received in the Texas July primary? T. O., Navasota.

A. Judge O. S. Lattimore, of Austin, who received approximately 1,975,000 votes in an unopposed race for Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Q. Why was the town of Santa Anna named for Texas' most noted enemy? E. T., Bangs.

A. The people there asked that the place be named for a friendly Indian chief, Santanta, but Washington authorities, not knowing the chief, construed the request as being to have the post office called Santa Anna.

Q. What was the first county seat of Comanche county? S. D., Sipe Springs.

A. Troy, also called Cora, about 14 miles from the present town of Comanche, was the county seat, when the county was organized in 1856. There had been a town of the same name, sometimes called Pine Bluff, established about 1847, in Freestone county, near the west line of Anderson county, which was once a chief town of that section. There is now a prosperous town of that name in Bell county.

Q. Where was the first white man's settlement in Williamson county? R. T., Liberty Hill.

A. Between the present towns of Leander and Cedar Park, settled in 1835, a small fort being erected there by the Provisional Government of Texas. The place is near the Leander-Round Rock road and is known locally as the Block House Springs.

Q. What is the largest tributary of the Brazos River? E. F. B., Waco

A. Little River, which is formed by the Leon and Lampasas, is the largest and most dangerous of the many streams flowing into the Brazos.

Q. Where was Fort Mason and when was it occupied? T. H., Meridian.

A. It was erected about 1856 by the Federal Government at Mason, about one half mile from the courthouse, and for a time was commanded by Gen. Robert E. Lee. No battles were fought there and it was abandoned in 1868, only a few stones remaining to show its location.

Q. For what purpose is the monument to be erected near La-Grange? R. W., Gorman.

A. To commemorate the decimation of the Mier expedition victims and the Dawson massacre, the Texas Centennial Commission is erecting a tall shaft to cost $10,000 at the spot where the bones of the victims lie buried in a stone-lined vault. The monument will overlook for miles the part of the Colorado valley where the victims had lived.

Q. Why do treasure hunters persist in their efforts to find buried gold around San Saba? G. J., Brownwood.

A. Following building of the San Saba Mission near the present town of Menard, in 1756, rumors and legends persisted as to Spaniards having buried vast stores of gold and silver somewhere along the San Saba River near and below Menard and of occasional discoveries by mining explorers. These stories retold bring many new adventurers.

Q. Who was the most outstanding native Texan who took part in the struggle for Texas independence? G. F., Weimar.

A. Jose Antonio Navarro, who was born in San Antonio, February 27, 1795; educated in Spain; land commissioner for DeWitt's colony in 1831; for the District of Bexar in 1834-35; member of the 1936 constitutional convention; member of Texas Congress in 1838. When serving as commissioner on the Santa Fe expedition in 1840, he was captured and sentenced to life imprisonment at Juan de Allosa castle, but was freed in 1845 by Herrera. Returning to Texas, he helped frame the State constitution, served in the State senate and died in 1870. Navarro county was named for him.

Q. What were David G. Burnet's first military experiences? J., Bertram.

A. He was a lieutenant in Burnet's expedition against Venezuela in 1806, enlisting from New York, where he was a counting house clerk. Although the Burnet venture proved a failure, Burnet joined him again in his attack on Caracas, in 1808. He engaged in business at Natchitoches, La., in 1817, but his health failed in about a year, he joined Comanche Indian tribe in West Texas, with whom he, for the years, had all the experience Comanche wandering warfare.

University Land Survey Will Be Completed Soon

Frank Friend Directs Immense Job Started In 1929

AUSTIN, Texas, Sept. 16—Surveying crews will this month complete all of the field work connected with the survey of the two million acres of land owned by The University of Texas, with the possible exception of a tract of 11,520 acres in El Paso County. It has not yet been determined by the Board of Regents whether the El Paso lands shall be embraced in the present survey, due to the fact that during the last few years there has been no demand for them for grazing purposes.

This resurvey, as it should probably be designated, is the largest undertaking of its kind since the solid body of 3,000,000 acres of land in Northwest Texas, originally granted the Capitol Syndicate of Chicago in exchange for the construction of the State Capitol at Austin, was resurveyed some years ago. The Capitol Syndicate land resurvey resulted in the discovery of an excess of 80,000 acres which reverted to the State.

Two Million Acres

The original survey of the 2,000,000 acres of endowment lands of the University was necessarily roughly made due to the remoteness of the several tracts and the inadequacies of field equipment. It will not be determined for several months, perhaps, whether or not there were excesses or deficiencies in the original surveys. These will be shown when the field notes and other data of the survey have been worked out under the direction of the land department of the University.

The resurvey of these lands was started in 1929. In some respects it has been a stupendous job, due in some instances to the rough region in which some of the tracts were situated. The work is in charge of Frank Friend, special surveyor of the University, with headquarters at San Angelo. The erection of boundary monuments on more than 2,000 square miles of University lands in Schleicher, Irion, Reagan, Crockett, Upton, Terrell and Pecos counties was recently completed. These permanent markers are constructed of concrete and have a length of four feet. Embedded in the top of each monument is a brass plate representing four sections of land, each of 640 acres, with the numbers of the blocks and sections stenciled thereon.

575 Producing Wells

At this time there are producing oil fields upon University blocks of land in Reagan, Pecos, Crane, Ector and Ward counties, with a total of approximately 575 wells.

The discovery well upon University land was completed in May, 1923, in what is now the Big Lake field in Reagan County. Since that time wells upon the institution's lands in that and other fields have produced a total of approximately 150,000,000 barrels of oil, of which the University has received as its share, including lease bonuses and rentals, more than $22,000,000, all of which has been placed to the credit of its permanent fund, shared by Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College.

In addition to the 2,000,000 acres which it owns in West Texas, the University has title to 4,130 acres in Galveston county, 200 acres near Fort Davis, which is the site of the W. J. McDonald Observatory, and a considerable acreage in Austin, including the campus of the Main University.

Mrs. Mike Friend is making her home in San Angelo where her young son is attending school.

Alpine Baptists Extend Call To Rev. M. M. Fulmer

Former Ozona Pastor Will Preach At Alpine Next Sunday's Services

Mrs. D. K. McMullan and infant son, Austin Leslie, are at the home of Mrs. McMullan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Friend, here.

The congregation of the First Baptist church in conference Sunday extended a call to Rev. M. M. Fulmer of Jackson, Tenn., to become their pastor.

Mr. E. R. Cox, in behalf of the membership, notified him this week of the action of the church, and Rev. Fulmer will preach here September 20th and at that time will give an answer to the church as to whether or not he will accept the pastorate.

The church feels hopeful that he will accept the leadership of the church, as he is well qualified for the place, having served seven years as pastor at Ozona, where he built a very attractive church building, and a well organized church membership.

Rev. Fulmer is acquainted with the problems and ways of the West and is also a sympathetic leader of students, being a graduate of Baylor University and the Southwestern Seminary at Fort Worth. Mrs. Fulmer is likewise a graduate of Baylor University and a very efficient musician and church worker. Should these young people come to Alpine they will be valuable helpers in community and religious activities.—Alpine Avalanche.

Rev. R. A. Taylor is spending the week in San Antonio attending a series of faculty conferences at Westmoorland College in preparation for the opening of school on September 24. Rev. Taylor is to become a member of the faculty of Westmoorland with the opening of the 1936-37 term.

Mrs. Walter Childress is in a San Angelo hospital undergoing preliminary treatment for an operation to be performed next week. Mr. Childress, and a daughter, Mrs. Bob Weaver, are with her.

Ozonan Treasures Ancient Cards, One Printed In San Angelo In 1884, And Other In London, Over 200 Years Ago

Mementos Of Youth Among Souvenirs Of Nick Wigzell

A business card more than a half century old, with statistical information that gives some first hand data on the cowtown of San Angelo in the roaring eighties, is the treasured possession of "Uncle Nick" Wigzell, one of the old-time cowhands who has a deal of first hand knowledge of the days when the six-gun was "law west of the Pecos" and for a good many miles east of it.

The card bears the name of Joe Layton, "Deputy U. S. Marshal for Third District, San Angelo, Texas." On the other side of the card is a table of "Distances From the 'White Elephant Saloon'" where "Pure Kentucky Whiskies and Imported Cigars" were announced for sale.

Starting with Fort Concho, distance one mile, the table showed miles distant to Crows Nest, Head of Spring Creek, Brady City, Menardville, Fort McKavitt, Kickapoo Springs and a number of other towns, some still thriving, others with altered names now.

250,000 Sheep In County Below the table of distances is some statistical data on the city of San Angelo and the county of Tom Green. Population of the county in 1884 was given as 8,000 and of the town 3,000. There were 1,300 votes cast in the November election of 1884, the card attests. Sheep in the county numbered 250,000 at that time and there were 400,000 cattle and 12,000 horses.

The area of the county then was 12,579 square miles, according to information on the card. Several counties have since been carved out of this immense domain.

The rainfall during the year 1884 was given as 41.91 inches and the mean temperature during the year was 63 degrees.

Continuing, the condensed resume of industrial development of the pioneer cowtown points out that "The town contains three schools, four hotels, three banks with capital of $367,500, public hall, theatre, ice factory, water works, a $67,000 courthouse, $22,500 jail, and direct telegraph line to San Antonio."

Uncle Nick in his youth was employed by Tom Sloan, one of the big early-day ranchers of the San Saba and San Angelo country. The Ozonan worked for Sloan for twenty years. In addition to his ranch in San Saba county, Sloan had about 5,000 head of cattle on a place at Kickapoo and it was while Uncle Nick was stationed on Kickapoo that he became well acquainted with the growing capital of the cow country—San Angelo.

Not To Mention Saloons

The "White Elephant" saloon mentioned on the card was next door to the "Gray Mule" saloon, according to the old time puncher. The card lists the business institutions of the town of a half century ago, but left out the business most numerously represented—the liquor business. "There were more saloons than anything else," says Uncle Nick.

The $67,000 courthouse was built on the site of the Lee, Childress and Harris salt grounds, the Ozonan said. This trio, Phil Lee, father of John Lee, William Childress, father of the Childress brothers of Ozona, and L. B. Harris, father of Ralph and Frank Harris of San Angelo, ranged thousands of head of cattle over a vast cattle empire in the area. The courthouse was built on the spot used as a salt ground for the cattle.

Uncle Nick has another and more ancient card, estimated over 200 years old, which he treasures even more highly than the one given him by the early-day "Law" in San Angelo. It is a card, printed in England, and given him when he was eight years old by his oldest brother, George Wigzell. It contained a prayer on one side and on the reverse side of a group of quotations from the Scriptures.

Given Him In London

The card was given the Ozonan at London on the eve of his departure with his family for America. The older brother, George, was a conductor on a train between Liverpool and London. He never came to the United States.

At the bottom of the card is the signature, in small type, of the publishers, "The Religious Tract Society," and the address, "56 Paternoster Row, 65, St. Paul's Churchyard and 164, Picadilly." The commas are as written. The prayer is titled "The Prayer of a Soul in Earnest To Be Saved." At the top, written in ink now faded to a light brown color, is the name "George Wigzell."

It was approximately 65 years ago that the young Englishman, embarking with his parents on the greatest adventure of his life—to America and a new life—was given the card by his older brother. The prayer and the Scriptures have long been his guiding star, and he is about as well versed in the Good Book as many a minister who has made it a life study.

Giants Backs—

Stuart and Colvard striking out. Preslar then stepped into one of Crostwaite's pitches to force a run in and two more crossed when Lenz let Watson's easy roller get through him.

The Giants again evened the score by counting two in the sixth with Stuart's walk and Myers' home run and another in the seventh when, with the bases full, Myers was safe when the catcher missed the third strike and the ball caromed off the plate and into the cars on the sideline. Weaver struck out to end the big chance to get ahead. The locals did get ahead in the eighth when Lynam singled, went to second on Crostwaite's sacrifice and scored on Cox's hit.

But came the fatal ninth and the visitors pushed over three runs on a brace of hits and three costly errors. The final tally was 9-7.

That Ninth Again

That three-run rally in the ninth was repeated Sunday after the Giants had come through in the sixth to tie the count at three-all. The visitors had scored one in the second on Galloway's home run, two more in the third on a walk and a couple of hits. Pitcher Bryan started the local rally in the sixth with a single. Lenz followed with another single and Bryan scored on the catcher's error. Carl Dorley, who was denied home runs on at least two long drives to left field Saturday on account of the high wind, smashed one over the left center fence for a homer, scoring Lenz ahead of him. Stuart doubled but Myers was unable to connect and the Giants' scoring ended.

With the score still tied, the Gulfers came up in the ninth and Crittenden, first up, doubled. Osborn was out to center and West connected with a single to score Crittenden, West going to second on the throw-in. Smith singled to score West. Manny struck out for the second out and Moos hit one to Heatherly who threw home to cut off Smith, who had circled third. Smith, in a hot box, scored when Lenz hit him in the back with the ball on an attempted throw to Robertson. Colvard was out to left to retire the side.

The Giants threatened in their half of the ninth but lacked the punch necessary for a tally. Myers went out on a fly to short. Crostwaite, pinch hitting for Weaver, singled, and Catcher Robertson, followed suit. Lynam, who had relieved Bryan in the ninth, forced Robertson at second, Crostwaite going to third. Lenz forced Lynam, short to second, to end the ball game.
