Punch Board Gyp Men Fleece Cafe Operator Of $20

Officers Check On Gang Working 'Follow-Up' On 'Fixed' Board

One of the many rackets by which the American public is being fleeced of millions of dollars each year was worked here last week with the result that a local cafe operator was out $20 in cash. A man entered the Green Lantern cafe and offered a novel punch board for sale. The board was one which played odds on a group of names of cities supporting big league baseball teams, New York paying 20 to 1, Chicago 10 to 1, Boston 5 to 1 and so on to Philadelphia, which was a loser.

An hour or so later, two men and two women entered the cafe, ate dinner and the men lingered behind, while the women entered the car parked in front. Quite "accidentally" one of them discovered the punch board. He seemed fascinated with the game and played several nickles, but lost each time. He finally "discovered" also that he might "double-up" on his bets, and played a half dollar, but lost again. He played a dollar and lost. Then he put $2 on the New York spot and lost again. Still doubling, he put $4 on the 10 to 1 chance and plucked a "New York" slip from the board, a win of $80.

The house had only $20 in cash besides about $6 the man had spent on the board and this was given him. Well satisfied, he hastened out and the party drove away. Suspecting a racket, the cafe operator, N. E. Rendall, took down the car number and turned it over to officers. Sheriff Willis and his deputies made a trip to Barnhart, the car leaving the downtown square in that direction, but a check-up showed the party had been through there earlier in the day but had sold no punch boards. Word has been sent out to officers over the state and a check is being made to see if the same crew has worked the rackets in other towns.

Street Work To Be Resumed Here Friday Morning

WPA Project Suspended Last Week To Comply With Hour Rules

Grading and gravel surfacing of Ozona streets under a WPA project allotment will be resumed Friday morning of this week, it was announced yesterday. The work had been suspended late last week to comply with WPA maximum hour rules.

The work was started November 12, with the street at the West Texas Utilities corner south to the ball park being graded down and prepared for clay and gravel surfacing. When the allotted working hours of the crew employed had been reached, the work was suspended.

It is thought that with resumption of the work, a schedule of working hours will be worked out whereby the project can go forward without further interruptions.

Eldorado Eagles Loosen Touchdown Avalanche To Bury Ozona Lions In 1936 Season Finale For Both Teams

Runners-Up In District Race Trounce Locals 27-0 Saturday

Ozona High School's gridiron gladiators finished their 1936 season with a crushing defeat at the hands of the powerful Eldorado Eagles, runners-up for the district championship, in a one-sided contest on the local field Saturday afternoon. The score was 27 to 0, with the Eagles apparently able to score almost at will throughout the hour's play.

In the first few minutes of play with Ozona in possession of the ball on their own 20 as a result of a punt over the goal line, Williams, Eldorado half, recovered an Ozona fumble on the 25. The next play saw the Lions smear Clement, Eagle quarter, for a five yard loss, but Clement came back on the next play to charge through the line to the 17. Then Clement faded back to the 35 and shot a long pass over the goal to Hext, captain and halfback, for the initial touchdown. Clement kicked goal for the point.

The visitors repeated soon after opening of the second period. Taking an Ozona punt on their own 40, the Eagles uncorked an attack that had the Lions dizzy. Clement faded and shot a pass to Hext that was good for a first down on the Ozona 42. Again it was Clement to Hext, for about an equal aerial advance, but Hext shook off a full half dozen Lion tacklers as he carved down the sideline to the three-yard line, where he was finally pushed out of bounds. From the three, Williams, halfback, crashed through the line for the second touchdown. Again the kick was good and the score stood Eldorado 14, Ozona 0.

Half Ends Lion Threat

The Lions got their first break in the last seconds of the first half, only to see their chance go glimmering with the whistle ending the half. Casbeer recovered an Eldorado fumble on the enemy 20, but the signal ending the half sounded before the locals had an opportunity to run a play.

In the opening of the third period, the Lions opened up with a passing attack that seemed destined to show results. Taking the ball on their own 40, the Lions uncorked their greatest ground-gaining display of the game, with Leath flinging passes to Fred Parker for sizeable gains. The first put the locals with a first down on the Eldorado 42. Childress tried it around end but lost 15 yards. Then Leath shot another

Blacktail Monarch Of Pecos Hills, After Successfully Eluding Hunters For Nearly A Decade, At Last Reaches End Of Reign

Majestic Buck Tosses Dog High In Air, But Last Gesture Of Defiance Costs Life

A patriarch of the hills has fallen. He was a grizzled veteran of an estimated nine or ten hunting seasons, carried a crop in each ear about the size of a rifle bullet and a lump at the base of the neck where nature had walled off a bullet that on a forgotten occasion crashed into his tough hide only to be stopped by a bone and to be carried the rest of his life as a memento of his escape.

A giant blacktail he was, with ten points on his set of majestic antlers. A monarch in his life as he roamed the wilds of the land west of the Pecos, he died like he had lived, fighting to the last breath. A bullet had crashed into his lower jaw, shattering it. Another had ploughed a furrow along his backbone. A pack of five hounds had him at bay. The menacing antlers were lowered and swooped upward with the speed of light. A dog was tossed high into the nearby brush, an ugly wound in his side where a needle-pointed horn had dug in.

Dogs were swarming over him but he held them at even odds, cutting and slashing in knightly fashion with the weapon that had made him king of the brush country, those needle sharp antlers, the pride of the Pecos. He threw his head high in defiance of the yapping pack, a gesture to the world that King Blacktail was still king and unafraid.

That gesture of defiance was his last, for a well placed bullet broke his proud neck and his Majesty had at last reached the end of his reign.

Kay Black, whose deadly aim brought down this prize of the hunt, will have the antlers mounted. The big buck was es-

This West Texas Atmosphere Gets 'Em

It has often been boasted by West Texas folk that once you breathe the air of West Texas you will spend the rest of your life longing to get back to it, or else satisfy the longing by doing so.

From far away New Jersey comes verification of the claim in a letter from a man who spent just one night in Ozona in October and was so impressed that he wants to come here to make his home.

The man is Edward Hurd, whose home is in Dover, N. J. In a letter addressed to the Ozona Chamber of Commerce, and delivered to The Stockman for lack of such an organization, Mr. Hurd says:

"This is an unusual and hard letter for me to write, but last October I spent one night in your town with my family and was so impressed with the people and the atmosphere that I would like to work there. Do you know of anyone that could use an extra hand who would be willing to work for whatever I may be worth? I would like to work on a ranch, but confess I know little if anything about working on one. My best qualifications would be that I handle a car very well, having been a mailtruck driver in this town for five years.

"Am single, thirty-four years old, 5 feet 10 inches, weigh 142 pounds, religion, Presbyterian, out of work at present."

His address is 54 Randolph Ave., Dover, N. J.

6th Annual Cage Tourny Slated Here Jan. 15-16

Invitations To Teams In Area; Lions Open Season Next Week

Invitations went out this week to a score or more basketball teams in West Texas high schools to Ozona's sixth annual basketball tournament announced for January 15 and 16. In his letter of invitation, Coach Ted M. White of the Ozona Lions, announced a "finer array of trophies than ever before." The regular schedule of games will be played as in previous years, the letter of invitation also announced.

With the football season ending last Saturday, Coach White gave his charges this week to rest and recuperate from the gridiron grind, but has announced that the initial workout for the basketball squad will be held next Monday afternoon, with an expected 35 or more aspirants on the court.

The Lions will get their first baptism of fire in the new season Thursday afternoon of next week at 3:30 against the Eldorado Eagles. A return match with the Eagles will be played in Eldorado the following Friday night. The Eagles will return for a third game on the Ozona court Friday night, Dec. 11.

"Our powerhouse skyscrapers in the persons of the veteran crew of Brown, Parker, Freeman and Everett are gone," Coach White groans. "We are looking now for some diamonds in the rough—and we are hoping the diamonds will take to smoothing down a little more readily than they did at football."

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Pierce and son, Miles, will spend Thanksgiving in New Orleans, where they will be met by a daughter, Miss Vicky Pierce, who is a student in Gulf Park College at Gulf Port, Miss.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Tandy will spend Thanksgiving in Abilene visiting relatives and witnessing the San Angelo - Abilene high school football classic there Tuesday afternoon.

Football, Turkey Dinners Attract Ozona Residents

Union Church Service To Open Day's Observance At 8 a. m.

The usual Thanksgiving Day fare will face Ozonans on the annual holiday—gridiron classics in one place or another, a big family turkey dinner at home, a deer hunt or leisure and rest to be able to bear the turkey dinner are among the schedules of Ozona folk as the day dawns.

The true spirit of Thanksgiving, however, will be caught by those who attend union Thanksgiving services to be held at 8 a. m. Thanksgiving morning at the Methodist Church. Rev. Ira V. Garrison, pastor of the Ozona Baptist Church, will preach the special sermon. Special hymns have been selected for the song service and a helpful program arranged. A cordial invitation has been extended by the Methodist pastor, Rev. Eugene Slater, to the entire community to join in this service.

Chief among the football classics to attract local residents will be the annual Texas University - A & M clash in Austin and the championship deciding game between San Angelo and Abilene high school teams to be played in Abilene Thanksgiving afternoon. Another sparkling high school game in these parts will be the play-off of a tie for district honors between the Ballinger and Winters teams in Winters.

The annual Turkey Day classic as Austin is expected to draw record crowds in spite of the fact that, aside from the jinx that always follows Aggie teams on University ground and Texas teams in Aggieland, the Farmers are top heavy favorites to win the contest in a walk.

Deer and turkey lurking in the West Texas wilds will be an attraction for many on the holiday. Practically all business houses in the city will be closed for the day. Schools will close with the dismissal of classes Wednesday afternoon to resume Monday morning.

QUOTA OF RED CROSS DRIVE IS EXCEEDED

Chapter Goes 'Over The Top' In First Three Days Canvass

DRIVE STILL OPEN

Those Not Approached Still Have Opportunity To Join

With the drive already "over the top" in the matter of reaching the assigned quota of the local chapter, leaders of the annual Red Cross Roll Call Drive, which started here the end of last week, are keeping the drive open until the last minute to allow everybody an opportunity to subscribe, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. Scott Peters, Roll Call chairman.

Committees made a whirlwind drive over the week-end and emerged the first of this week with more than a hundred $1 memberships. A large number of persons had not been seen at that time and the committees were still at work all through this week.

The annual Roll Call drive is scheduled to come to an end on Thanksgiving Day. However, two or three more days will be required to prepare reports and get them in the mail to national headquarters and anyone who has not had opportunity to subscribe may do so after the closing date.

Half of the total membership receipts will remain in the treasury of the local chapter to be administered by a committee from the chapter, the other half being forwarded to the national chapter for general relief and rehabilitation work.

The Crockett chapter has expended all but a few dollars of its funds derived from last year's Roll Call. This money was spent in both local and transient relief work, in cases where established governmental relief agencies could not be used. An accounting and record of the year's activities may be seen in chapter records.

For the coming year, the chapter is planning a program of permanent rehabilitation work among several local indigent families, to raise their standards of living and promote better health and comfort. This program will be launched after it is perfected at a chapter meeting in the near future.

An invitation will be extended members of the Junior Woman's Club to be special guests of the senior club at its next meeting, December 8, when Miss Ethel Foster of Sterling City, Sixth District president, will be a special guest of the club, it was decided at the regular meeting of the Ozona Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. G. Rape.

The December 8 meeting, which will be the last of the calendar year, 1936, will be devoted to the club's annual Christmas program, with Miss Foster as guest speaker to complete the program. The group will meet on that occasion at the home of Mrs. Ira Carson.

A government program was followed at Tuesday's meeting, with Mrs. George Bean, president, describing the city of Washington, Mrs. Madden Read, the government buildings in Washington and Mrs. Jack Holt recounting highlights of her visit to the capital. Mrs. A. C. Hoover gave a report of the state convention and Miss Eloise Carson entertained with a reading. The English lesson for

Chevrolet Thanks American People For Record Year

Company Depends On Newspaper Advertising For Record

The Chevrolet Motor Company today offered its thanks to the American people for having given the company the greatest year in its history by buying 1,130,000 new Chevrolets.

In display advertisements printed in newspapers throughout the country, Chevrolet expressed its appreciation for the warm friendship of the American people, which enabled the company to break all previous marks for domestic production and sales.

The Thanksgiving offering is considered unique in industrial advertising, but Chevrolet has done it in the past. The company has depended largely on the newspapers of the country in establishing its all-time records in selling not only an unprecedented number of new passenger cars and trucks during 1936, but also in moving two million used cars at the same time.

The advertisement, appearing today, declared, in part: "The builders of Chevrolet are thankful for many things, but most of all for the warm friendship of the American people."

"All we can say is, 'Thanks a million' for more than a million cars in 1936; and all we can do is offer you still finer Chevrolet of 1937 in return for the finest friendship ever bestowed upon any motor car manufacturer."

Dr. Hall has offered this course in "Marriage and Christian Home-making," or "The Family as a Moral and Religious Agency in Relations Education," for the past four years. Enrollment has increased each year, last year more than one hundred students enrolling during the fall and spring semesters. Dr. Hall's fame as a lecturer in this subject has spread throughout the State until he is frequently called to other cities to deliver series of addresses to young people on how to choose their life companions, when should marriage take place, and other related topics.

By approaching these delicate topics from the religious standpoint, the students in Dr. Hall's university class are enabled to discuss frankly and without embarrassment the elements that go into the making of a happy marriage, and the means of banishing these difficulties.

El Paso Teacher Is Believed Texas' Only Woman Football Coach

El Paso, Nov. 25—Miss Edith Schell, recent graduate of the College of Mines and Metallurgy here a branch of the University of Texas, is believed to be the only woman football coach in the state. Miss Schell trained herself to teach English, and, upon graduation, obtained a job in Bailey elementary school here.

"But, out of a clear sky, I was told that if I didn't take over the football and playground work at Bailey, the boys would have no team this year, and, in fact, no football at all," she explained. "So, of course, I couldn't let them down, and I said 'yes,' and hoped for the best."

So now she spends one-fourth of the school day teaching English health and spelling, and the remainder of her time supervising playground work and coaching football.

Little Damage Done By Grass Fire Sun.

But little damage resulted from a grass fire which flared up on the Fleet Coates ranch north of Ozona. The fire, believed to have started from a camp fire in the lane, was brought under control quickly and very little acreage was burned off.

The county's new fire engine made a run to the scene of the blaze, with a number of cars of local volunteer fighters following, but the fire had been extinguished when the equipment and fighters arrived.

Rev. James F. Black and family will spend the Thanksgiving holiday in San Benito, visiting relatives, Norman Rendall, Jr., accompanied them for a visit with his mother and brother, living there.

Dr. Sellers Moore and his parents have as their guests this week his sister, Mrs. C. M. Blackwell and children from Dilley, Texas. Mr. Blackwell is expected to be here to spend the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Davidson, Joe Thomas Davidson and Haskell Leath will witness the Texas-A. & M. game in Austin Thanksgiving day, and on to Ft. Worth for the T. C. U.-S. M. U. game Saturday.

"THANKS A MILLION" FOR MORE THAN A MILLION

America has bought 1,130,000 Chevrolets during the past twelve months, thereby giving Chevrolet the greatest year in its history and the greatest measure of buyer preference it has ever enjoyed.

CHEVROLET The builders of Chevrolet are thankful for many things, but most of all for the warm friendship of the American people.

And so again at this Thanksgiving season we say, "Thank you, America," for you have given Chevrolet a measure of good-will without parallel in the annals of modern industry.

Consider, for a moment, all that you have done to inspire Chevrolet's appreciation during the past twelve months:

You have purchased 1,130,000 Chevrolets; you have made Chevrolet your favorite car for the seventh time in the past ten years; you have given Chevrolet strong preference in every section of the country; you have conferred this same high honor upon Chevrolet trucks by purchasing more than 205,000 commercial units; you have made 1936 the most successful year in all Chevrolet history.

And now, to climax these expressions of friendship, you are displaying even more marked preference for the new Chevrolet for 1937.

It is difficult to express adequate appreciation for gifts so great and so generous as these.

DOG OUTLAWS

Nobody loves a good dog more than this writer. The faithful devotion of a dog for his master is proverbial, and one who has the love of a dog has something more enduring, more devoted than the human mind is capable of understanding.

But among dogs as among humans, there are outlaws and creatures of habits that put them outside the pale of respect and consideration. And dog or man, an outlaw must be treated as such and dealt with in measures necessary for the protection of society.

It is natural for a dog to chase a cat or rabbit, but dog has been the companion of man so long, he is so far removed from his original primitive state that in most cases he will live in perfect peace and harmony with man's servants, the domestic animals. Sometimes, however, the primitive gets the upper hand and the dog turns killer, and once he tastes the blood of such animals he is beyond salvation in most cases.

In a sheep raising section, a sheep killing dog is a terror to ranchmen. One such killer can destroy hundreds of dollars worth of sheep in a single night, and the longer he runs at large, the more vicious and destructive he becomes. When a dog turns killer, he has become an outlaw and has lost his right to human protection, love and respect. His speedy execution is in order.

Ranchmen operating near Ozona have experienced in recent weeks another epidemic of damage from sheep killing dogs. It is reported, and several have suffered heavy losses. The killers in most instances are town dogs that steal out at night and roam the pastures, slaying sheep for the joy of killing.

Owners of dogs that are allowed to run at large, and that have a habit of straying off to parts unknown to the owner, should make an investigation to find out what

When There's a Boy in the Family.

The Boy who brings home a Report Card with a long letter of explanation from the Teacher, utilizes a little spare time.

the dog is doing. No right thinking dog owner would knowingly shelter an animal that was inflicting serious damage to the property of a friend and neighbor, no matter how attached he might be to the pet. He might regret it bitterly, as one would to see a good friend turned outlaw, but he would lose no time in assisting in such a dog's destruction.

Dog owners should assume the responsibility of keeping the animals within the town's boundaries. And if a killer is reported invading surrounding ranches, every dog owner should be willing to lend his aid in running down and destroying the outlaw.

MODERN SAVAGERY

Denison Herald: In 1810 Francisco Goya, famous Spanish painter, reproduced on canvas the horrors of war which was raging in Spain at that time. These paintings have recently been brought to light and contrasted with news photos taken during the present struggle in Spain. The parallels are striking. In four graphic paintings Goya depicted the horrors of the Napoleonic campaign, showing a military execution, a woman firing a cannon, a rebel dying from his wound, and a child abandoned to die after its parents had been slain. Four Associated Press photographs, selected at random, depict identical scenes: a rebel facing a firing squad, Communist woman firing a pistol, a litter of corpses left by a Communist firing squad, a "war orphan" starving in a side street.

Artist Goya was a prophet, none the less for being an artist. Also none the less for living before the invention of poison gas, air bombers, rolling fortresses and the death of chivalry. The sheer cruelty of the besiegers at Madrid, in which gallantry has been superseded by mechanical murder, brings to the consciousness of the world the innate wickedness of modern war. Certainly war has always been wicked, but in very ancient war there were episodes reflecting credit upon the chivalric quality of the war makers. Poets have sung of such episodes throughout the ages, but what poet would have the audacity to sing of the slaughter of women and children, old men and cripples, in a battle with noncombatants? The knights of King Charlemagne did not disdain mercy to a fallen foe. They made no war upon women. They killed no children. Yet we look upon them as semibarbarians, living in a godless age. Of course, it may be answered that the besieging army at the Spanish capital could not separate the non-combatants from their armed foes, that the airplane's bomb could know no brother, no sister. It could even be urged that victory was essential to the peace and prosperity of Spain. Yet it remains to be doubted if the wounds delivered to the Spanish people, regardless of political sentiment, will be healed within a century.

BRAZENING IT OUT

Baltimore Sun: The amazing admission or boast by Marshal De Bono that Italy was forced to begin the war against Ethiopia because Haile Selassie would not attack is supported by Mussolini, who, in an introduction to the book of another field marshal, Bagdolio, declares that the war can "rightfully be called Fascist because it was conducted and won with the temperament of Fascism; rapidity, decisiveness, spirit of sacrifice, courage and resistance surpassing human limitations." In official circles it is declared that Mussolini wants the Ethiopian war known as a product of Facism and not merely of the army.

Such it undoubtedly was, and, in view of the frankness of Mussolini and his military leaders as to the responsibility for the assault on Ethiopia, the world will be spared the researches of future historians eager to conclude that there is much to be said on both sides. But what is all this about "spirit of sacrifice, courage and resistance surpassing human intelligence"? The Italian Army, equipped with the latest wrinkles in planes, tanks, chemicals, high explosives and engineering skill, attacked an enemy which had nothing to throw at the invader but spears and arrows. There was never any doubt of the result unless heat, thirst and insects intervened. It was a brutal and indefensible attack upon a peaceful people who had offended only in stimulating her covetousness.

All of which is to say, of course, that Mussolini is perfectly right. The Ethiopian war was conducted and won "in the spirit of Fascism."

Studies Music Transitional Period, Meet December 3

Members of Ozona Music Club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ira Carson, with Alice Baker, Mrs. Bright and Mrs. Neal Hannah as guests. The program, led by Morris Dudley, was devoted to study of the "Transitional Period."

The classic period was represented by Haydn's "Oxen Minuet" and by Miss Dixie Davidson at the piano, and Mozart's "Aria" on the violin.

Magic Flute played by a violinist. The romantic period was illustrated by Schumann's "Romance" played by Posey and Mendelssohn's "Concerto" played by Lillian Baggett. Mrs. Madden Read also presented a selection from Chopin's "The Absolute" was illustrated with the "Valse in A Flat" by Mrs. Neal Hannah and Miss Carolyn Montgomery as a piano duet. A parliamentary drill in the form of a play directed by Mrs. Lee Childress was the program.

The club will meet next on December 3, that meeting designated as "Junior Day." The life and compositions of the composer, MacDowell, will be featured on the day's program. This meeting will be held in the High School auditorium. As the club will not meet again until January, the December 3 session will also feature the Christmas theme in melodies and songs.

Gov. Allred Endorses Christmas Seal Sale Starting Thanksgiving

Texas' first citizen, Governor James V. Allred, endorsed the 30th annual Christmas Seal Sale to fight tuberculosis in a statement to all Texas citizens today as Christmas Seals go on sale throughout the nation.

Governor Allred said, "The declining death rate from tuberculosis is ample demonstration that the state and national tuberculosis associations are accomplishing their purpose. Texas has been generous in contributing to the Texas Tuberculosis Association by the purchase of Christmas Seals each year. The thirtieth such sale in the nation presents a challenge to good citizens everywhere. As your governor, I earnestly hope that the citizens of Texas will contribute to this cause this year to the limit that their means will permit."

Texas who purchase Christmas Seals this year will assist their state and local tuberculosis associations in a concerted drive planned for 1937 to reach more people between the ages of 15 and 45, where tuberculosis is still the leading cause of death, with those methods of diagnosis, prevention and cure which have reduced the death rate from tuberculosis more than two-thirds in the past thirty years.

QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING

"What are the advantages of a checking account?"

THIS question was asked us recently by a man who came in to cash his pay check. When we suggested that he ought to have a checking account he replied, "What are the advantages?" This is what we told him:

"Your money in a checking account is kept in a safe place. It saves time and steps in paying bills. You can write a check when you wish—during or outside of business hours. You can send your check anywhere, safely, conveniently and economically. You have a legal receipt for your files in the form of an endorsed check. You get an accurate statement of your account from the bank."

A checking account in this bank adds to the speed, safety and accuracy of the transactions making up the business life of this community. If you do not have a checking account now, we invite you to open one at this bank.

Dishes Quickly Prepared Now Favored By Housewives For Thanksgiving Feast

Practical Cooking Hints From Home Economics Dept., Texas State College For Women

DENTON, Nov. 24—When our Puritan forefathers set aside the last Thursday in November as a day for Thanksgiving, housewives and servants spent days and even weeks in preparation for the feast. But today in this age of ready prepared foods and rush in everything we must strive for menus that can be prepared in much less time.

CIDER ICE: 1 qt. sweet cider, 1/4 to 1/2 c. lemon juice, 1/2 c. orange juice, 1-1/2 c. sugar. Mix well without heating and strain. Freeze, using 3 parts ice to 1 part salt. Turn the crank slowly at first, but always steadily, to insure a smooth and fine-grained mixture. After 5 minutes turn more rapidly until done. The mixture is frozen when the crank turns hard. Approximate times for freezing in a good well-packed freezer 12 to 14 minutes. Serve in a sherbet dish with the turkey.

FRUIT COCKTAIL: 2 grapefruit, 3 oranges, 1/2 c. pineapple, 1 can sliced pineapple, green mints, 3 T lemon juice. The arrangement of a cocktail may be very decorative, with the fruit so cut and garnished as to make flowers, stars and the like, but this is not necessary. However, the pieces of fruit should be so arranged that there is no effect of mussiness. Remove the pulp of grapefruit and orange, keeping sections together as well as possible. Dice pineapple and arrange in cocktail glasses. Sprinkling green mints and lemon juice as the fruit goes in. Chill about one hour. At serving, pour over juice of pineapple.

THOUSAND ISLAND DRESSING: 4 t. chili sauce, 1 t. chopped green pepper, 1 t. tarragon vinegar, 1 t. olives, 1 t. chopped red pepper, 1 t. paprika, 1 c. mayonnaise dressing. Chop materials and blend with mayonnaise.

BRED STUFFING: 3 c. bread cubes, 2 T chopped onions, 1 c. celery, chestnuts, etc., 1/4 c. melted fat, about 1/2 c. stock or milk, salt, pepper, paprika, sage or poultry seasoning to taste. Have stale bread cut in three-eighth inch cubes. Cubes give lightness to the stuffing since they do not pack into a soggy mass as crumbs do. To give color use the crusts or brown a third of the cubes left over in the oven or in the fat used in the stuffing. Left over toast may be used instead of bread.

Cook onion in the fat until lightly browned, and add to the bread.

Add the ingredient chosen to give individuality to the stuffing. It may be cooked chopped celery, sauteed mushrooms, chopped olives, cooked chestnuts with skins removed, chopped cooked giblets, hard cooked eggs, oysters cooked in milk, or a combination of two or more of these ingredients.

Add liquid to moisten. The exact amount will depend on the dryness of the bread. It is best to allow the mixture to stand for half an hour or longer so that the bread will have a chance to absorb the liquid and be moistened throughout. Add seasonings to taste.

Some variations of these recipes would be to add 2 cups tart apples, finely chopped, or to add one-third cup seeded raisins.

Welton Bunger, Jr., is confined to his bed suffering from a knee injury.

Martin Harvick, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Harvick, a student at Westmoorland College in San Antonio, will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents here.

November Pension Checks Are Mailed; Probes Under Way

AUSTIN, Nov. 25—Employees of the Texas Old Age Assistance Commission were busy Friday and Saturday stamping 87,756 envelopes, containing assistance checks for November, and rushing 30,000 of them to the Austin post office each eight hours, Acting Director Orville S. Carpenter said today.

November checks now being released by the Commission total $1,365,289. The $840,000 federal grant was received Thursday.

Investigators were busy this week throughout the 254 Texas counties re-investigating present old age assistance recipients granted aid under the old pension law.

"No one will be removed from the rolls until a thorough re-investigation of his case has been made," he declared.

Last week Carpenter explained that there would be no arbitrary or mechanical cut in the rolls but that each case would be studied and re-investigated upon its own merits before any action was taken. Rumor that 35,000 aged would automatically be dropped from the assistance lists was declared unfounded.

Health Safeguards Cause For Thanks

Austin, Nov. 25—,"A high standard of community health is the best asset that a state can possess," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, in speaking of the progress made in public health education since the first Thanksgiving Day was observed by our forefathers.

"The State of Texas has much to be thankful for in this Centennial year," he said, "in the steadily increasing interest and cooperation of the people of the state in matters pertaining to sanitation and control of communicable diseases."

"The control of water and milk supplies, sewage disposal, vaccination against smallpox, immunization against diphtheria, food inspection, housing regulations, and many other measures have been spectacularly successful in reducing the killing power of a number of maladies that formerly took a terrific annual toll.

"Responsibility for success and advancement of a public health program lies not with the health department primarily, but with the people who support and encourage the community effort put forth and who apply in their own individual lives the knowledge which they have acquired.

"It follows that the individual citizen, to reap the benefits of public health administration, must be more concerned about his well-being than he is today. His program should involve a conscientious effort to abide by the living rules prescribed by nature, as well as a clearer conception of the value of a physician's services from a disease prevention standpoint.

"In short, when the private citizen fully appreciates the benefit of public health administration and shows that appreciation by a reasonable personal concern for his own welfare, medicine, surgery, and science generally will be able to do their work with utmost efficiency."

Small Boy: "What is college bred, pop?"

Pop (with son in college): "They make college bread, my boy, from the flour of youth and the dough of old age."

He: "Why does a woman say she has been shopping when she hasn't bought a thing?"

She: "Why does a man say he's been fishing when he hasn't caught a thing?"

John: "My brother thinks a foot ball coach has four wheels."

Albert: "Ha! Ha! And how many wheels has the bally thing?"

entirely new Oldsmobiles 1937, each distinctly different original in body styling, and many important advances in mechanical design, are given their first public showing by Oldsmobile dealers throughout the country.

Announcement of the new cars—Oldsmobile Six and the Oldsmobile Eight—culminates the latest development period in the decades of Oldsmobile progress. The first of the new model Oldsmobiles, a four-door Eight, released by North Motor Co., local distributor, was sold immediately to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Davidson. The cars are longer, lower, and more comfortable than those which made Oldsmobile history in 1936. The motors have greater reserves of power with lower engine speeds, with corresponding improvements in performance and operating economy. The Six now develops 95 horsepower, against 90 horsepower in the 1936 model; while the Eight develops 110 horsepower, an increase of 10 horsepower over the 1936 model. Wheelbases of the Six and Eight have been increased to 117 inches and 124 inches, respectively.

The two cars are entirely new interpretations of radiator grille design. The new treatment employs eight die-cast horizontal louvers, deeply recessed and finished in chrome. Hood louvers consist of a triple horizontal bar design which harmonizes with the radiator grille. Headlamps are gracefully streamlined.

Equally definite individuality has been designed into the front end of the Oldsmobile Eight. On this series, the engineers have employed a die-cast grille of square mesh design, plated in chrome and outlined by a chrome trim moulding.

Deeply balanced front and rear fenders, massive chrome-plated bumpers and bumper guards, running boards covered with heavily-ribbed moulded rubber, and steel wheels with massive hubs of polished chrome, add further distinction to the smoothly contoured all-steel bodies of both Six and Eight.

Complete individuality has been preserved also in the rear body treatment of the two cars. Both offer an innovation in the placing of combination tail and stop lights high on the rear sides of the bodies at the termination of the chrome body moulding. However, the lights are totally different in style: those of the Six are sharply streamlined, almost reverse miniatures of the front headlamps; those of the Eight have been given a more square, modernistic design with both rear and side panels of red glass, the latter serving as a warning light against cross traffic.

In addition, both cars provide a license plate bracket at the center of the rear compartment, equipped with a license light. These units are of totally different design on the two series. Thus both of the new Oldsmobiles carry three rear lamps and so provide an added factor of safety in night driving.

Seven body choices are offered in each series. They include the Two Door Sedan; Two Door Touring Sedan with trunk; Four Door Sedan; Four Door Touring Sedan with trunk; Business Coupe; Convertible Coupe; and a newcomer designated as the Club Coupe which replaces the Sport Coupe of former years. The Club Coupe, a five window model, provides within the body compartment a pair of interior auxiliary seats behind the driver's seat for the convenience of occasional passengers. When not in use, the auxiliary seats may be folded into rear body recesses to afford an additional 22 cubic feet of luggage space.

A new Oldsmobile development in propeller shaft design has permitted the car floors to be lowered without imposing the inconvenience of a "tunnel" in the front and rear compartment floors, with out reducing road clearance. The new "stabilized" Oldsmobile propeller shaft employs three universal joints instead of the conventional two. The front section of the propeller shaft is locked in and supported by the massive I-beam X-members of the heavy frame. Head and leg room have been added without increasing overall height. A considerably lower center of gravity also results, with corresponding improvements in car stability, a factor increased still further by the employment of new dual ride stabilizers, front and rear.

The instrument panel, of new and modernistic design, carries two large dials on either side of a centrally-located, louvered panel which is specially designed to accommodate a radio speaker. For the convenience of those who desire radio installation, aerials are molded integrally in the rubber surface of the running boards of all cars.

Despite the increased power of the 1937 engines, an appreciable improvement in fuel economy has been achieved, largely through lowered engine speeds and improvements in the carburetion and manifold systems. In the new engines, automatic control is exercised over the operation of the choke, the spark advance, idling speed, engine temperatures and the fuel mixture.

Blacktail Monarch

Estimated to weigh approximately 250 pounds. With silver-tipped hair, long and wiry, his face broad and the expression wicked, each hoof the size of a yearling calf's, this giant of the Pecos hills is the prize trophy of the present hunting season to be brought here. Tot Grimmer, Mr. Black's hunting companion, had a head on the big fellow while dogs and deer were entangled, but Black picked a vital spot above the yapping pack as the majestic head went up in defiance.

Eldorado Eagles

pass to Parker for a gain of 30 yards. Leath took the ball through tackle for a first down on the Eagle 20.

There the advance was stymied. Two line plays and two passes, the fourth try a pass over the goal line, Leath to Perner, failed to connect and the Eagles took it there. A freak kick which went out of bounds on the Eldorado 26 gave the Lions another chance. But after advancing to the Eldorado 10, a fumble which an alert Eagle covered gave the visitors the ball. But still again, the cards seemed stacked for a Lion touchdown when the locals recovered a fumble on the 21. But three yards was all that could be negotiated in four tries and the ball went over on the 18.

Eagles Take Wing
From there, the Eagles started out to do damage again. Clement shot a long pass to an end for a 36 yard gain, making it first down on the Ozona 46. The same combination netted 15 more. Then Casbeer dumped Hext for a 5-yard loss and Eldorado kicked out on the Ozona 4. On the first play, Leath muffed a low pass from center to give the visitors the ball on about the three. On the third try from there, Clement fell over for the third touchdown. Williams failed to convert.

The fourth and last marker came in short order. Ozona received the Eldorado kick-off, and failed to gain. Leath kicked out on his own 31. The Eagles returned the favor by kicking out on the Ozona 12. Hereanother fumble on the pass back from center and an Eldorado recovery and consequent touchdown, Clement again crashing through after a 5-yard penalty for too much time in huddle had set them back. Meador kicked the extra point for a final total of 27 to 0.

Leath, Fred Parker, Pete Perner and Casbeer showed to advantage in the Lion offensive drives, while Leath, Montgomery, Childress, Perner and Casbeer offered determined opposition to the Eagle advances. Clement, Hext, Williams, Meador and Fries were outstanding for the Eagles. Coach Ted White ran in a half dozen of his second-string mites for a taste of the big show stuff in the fourth, leaving each one for about two plays.
