Series Programs In Observance Of Natl. Music Week

Musical Feast In Store As Ozona Music Lovers Observe Week

A series of musical programs throughout next week, during which music lovers of Ozona are scheduled to enjoy a feast of melody, will mark this community's observance of National Music Week, starting May 1. The local observance is being carried out under the direction of the Ozona Music Club.

The nationwide observance will begin here with special musical programs in all the churches at the Sunday morning hour.

Monday evening, a group of artists from the University of San Antonio, under the direction of Jaroslav Siskovsky, dean of music at that institution, will be presented in concert at the High School auditorium under auspices of the Music Club. A violinist, two vocalists and a pianist, besides Mr. Siskovsky, who is also a violinist, will appear on the Monday evening program starting at 8 o'clock.

A twilight organ concert will be presented Tuesday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock at the Methodist Church by Mrs. Bryan McDonald. Thursday afternoon, a musical program will be given at the chapel hour in the High School auditorium by the Ozona Music Club, the program to include chorus numbers and featured soloists.

Another twilight organ concert will be given Thursday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock at the Methodist Church by Miss Nancy Dawes.

Friday evening, Miss Marjorie Bland of Abilene, a sister of Mrs. H. B. Tandy of Ozona, will be presented in piano concert in the High School auditorium. Mrs. Tandy will assist in the evening's program. The public is invited to these programs.

Saturday, at an hour to be announced next week, Miss Nancy Dawes and Mrs. H. B. Tandy will be heard in several piano and vocal numbers to be broadcast over radio station KGKL in San Angelo.

Mrs. Tandy, president of the Ozona Music Club, has announced a meeting of the executive board of the club Tuesday noon at the home of Mrs. Lee Childress.

Competing in the sextette division of the contest will be the following: Miles Pierce, first trumpet; Crystelle Carson, second trumpet; Doris Bunker, French horn; Buren Arnn, baritone; Clifford Taliaferro, trombone; Ernest Brownrigg, bass.

Softball Warm-Up Games Continue As League Flounders

Lighting Plan Apparently Stymied, Announced Teams Fail To Organize For Play

With "League" affairs still in a muddled condition, local softball enthusiasts are not letting the absence of organization deter them from play each afternoon, and "choose-up" teams may be seen in action nearly any afternoon at the ball park.

Although league officials had announced the season opener in the twilight league for Monday afternoon, only one of the scheduled teams was on hand and it was in more or less abbreviated form. Players from all avowed teams were on hand and the result was a choose-up game that lasted until dusk.

Efforts toward securing a lighted field having apparently hit a snag, it is probable that three or four of the seven announced teams will fold up, and a smaller league be formed, made up of players who will be able to play before the setting of the sun.

Ozona Pastor To Preach At Meet Paisano Workers

Plans For Encampment In August To Be Discussed

Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor of Ozona Baptist Church, will deliver the sermon at the closing session of an area wide conference of Baptist workers set for Tuesday, May 3, at the site of the annual Paisano Encampment near Alpine in the Davis Mountains.

The conference is being called for the purpose of discussing plans for the 1938 Encampment at Paisano in August. The call was issued by the Rev. M. M. Fulmer, former Ozona pastor, now pastor at Alpine, who is vice president of the Paisano Baptist Encampment.

The meeting will open at 11 a. m. with Dr. I. S. Yearly, pastor of the First Baptist Church in El Paso, preaching the morning sermon. A business session will be held in the afternoon starting at 1 o'clock, closing with a sermon by the Rev. Childers.

An invitation to the membership of the Ozona church was extended in a letter from Rev. Fulmer and a representative group is expected to accompany the pastor.

Crockett Wool Crop, Now Being Sheared, Destined To Storage

With shearing in full swing over most of Crockett County, warehouses in the area or storage space on the ranches, are destined to receive most of the clip for the present, at least until more favorable prices appear for the staple.

This is the opinion of leading ranchers, warehousemen and bankers here in close touch with the sentiment. Buyers have been hot on the trail for the clips of individual ranchers of the county, but so far as can be learned none has as yet made a purchase here of the new clip.

Livestock Auction Sale Set For June 11 By Sonora Lions

Change in the date for the first annual Livestock Auction Sale, to be held in Sonora this summer under sponsorship of the Sonora Lions Club, has been changed from June 16-17 to June 11, it was announced recently by the board of directors of the Sonora group.

The change in dates was made after the organization learned of plans of Rocksprings for its annual celebration June 16-17-18, to avoid a conflict with that event. The 4-H Club Wool Show will be held on the same date.

Committees Being Formed As Plans For Fair Shaped

Workers Go Into Huddle In Behalf Of 1938 Show

Organization of committees in whose hands will rest the job of making plans for each department in the eleventh annual Crockett County Rodeo, Race Meet, Stock Show and Sale, is under way and a series of meetings of committee members to launch the work of preparing for the show will be held in the next few days, according to announcement from Wayne West, president of the Fair Association.

Committee heads have been named by the president and these chairmen are expected to select their own workers to assist them in planning the show. The committee chairmen are: Sheep—V. I. Pierce and J. W. Owens; horses—Rob Miller; Wool—Jones Miller; Riding—C. E. Davidson, Jr.; Roping—Dock Lee; Races—Paul Perner; Music—Joe Oberkamp. Other committees and fair workers will be announced with an official list soon to be released by President West.

Many inquiries from sheep breeders from all over the nation who want to enter sheep in the local show and sale are already being received, according to V. I. Pierce of the sheep committee. A capacity entry in both the show and sale is expected in this department.

Meanwhile, the association president is throwing out lines in a steady stream of effort in behalf of the coming show lining up various new features for the three-day program. Dates for the 1938 celebration have been set for June 23, 24 and 25.

Traditional Fete Staged By Junior Class For Seniors

Annual Banquet Highlight Of School Activities Here

A highlight of the school year for members of both the Junior and Senior classes was the annual Junior-Senior banquet held Tuesday evening in the Hotel Ozona ballroom.

The evening was designated "A Melody of Fun" with the programs printed to represent a sheet of popular music with that theme as its title, "Popular Hits" on the second page of the program were items on the menu, and the program proper, "set to music" on a printed staff, occupied the third page.

Phillip Schneemann, Junior class president, was master of ceremonies. The first number presented was a song and dance entitled "The Cross-Eyed Cowboy on the Cross-Eyed Horse," by Gemella Dudley. Miss Norine Allison was at the piano. The Senior class will be presented as a skit by Catherine Childress, Senior class president; Betty Dudley, vice president; Jack Baggett, secretary; Maurice Lemmons, treasurer; and Lurine Townsend and John Coates.

The next number was a violin solo, "Amaryllis" played by Billy Hannah. Mrs. W. N. Hannah accompanying. The class prophecy was presented by Ora Louise Cox, Crystelle Carson, Adelia Willis, and Doris Bunker. The program closed with singing of the school song, "On Ozona High School."

Dinner music was furnished by Miss Norine Allison. Brightly colored confetti and serpentine offered amusement for the guests. The ballroom was decorated in the class colors with pink and lavender larkspur and sweetpeas, and candles of the same color were on the table.

Crockett Gets Share Of Rains Tuesday Night

1.4 Inches Recorded Locally; Lighter Fall To South

Long neglected by falls which soaked other areas of the West Texas section, portions of Crockett County received its share of moisture in bountiful falls which came on the heels of a stiff wind Tuesday night.

The precipitation, which fell in a short time early Wednesday morning, amounted to 1.4 inches in Ozona, according to readings on the gauge at the Joe Oberkamp store. The fall was general over a large portion of the county, according to available reports, but reports from ranchers living south of Ozona indicated the fall was lightest in that section.

Heavy downpours were reported in Merton, Barnhart, Big Lake, Sonora, Juno, and other points. A strong wind lashed the area preceding the moisture.

WOMAN'S CLUB PLANS ANNUAL CLEANUP DRIVE

Seek Cooperation Commissioners For City-Wide Clean-Up

DATE NOT YET SET

Effort To Be Made To Launch Drive Before Schools Close

Members of the Ozona Woman's Club, in session Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joe Oberkamp, voted to sponsor the annual city-wide clean-up campaign, engineered each year by this organization, again this Spring.

The club will follow the customary course in asking for the cooperation of the Commissioners Court in accomplishing the clean-up drive. The county has heretofore cooperated in this undertaking by meeting the expense of hiring trucks and men to haul off accumulated trash.

Dates for the campaign have not been definitely decided, but it was the sentiment of the group that it should be held before the close of schools if possible, so that a thorough clean-up could be attained and the town put in good order for the eleventh annual Rodeo, Race Meet Stock Show and Sale June 23, 24 and 25.

Miss Elizabeth Fussell, president of the club, reported on the Sixth District Convention which she attended in Eastland recently. Mrs. A. C. Hoover also attended the convention. Miss Fussell plans to attend the Triennial Convention of Federated Clubs to be held in Kansas City beginning May 16.

CHILD HEALTH DAY

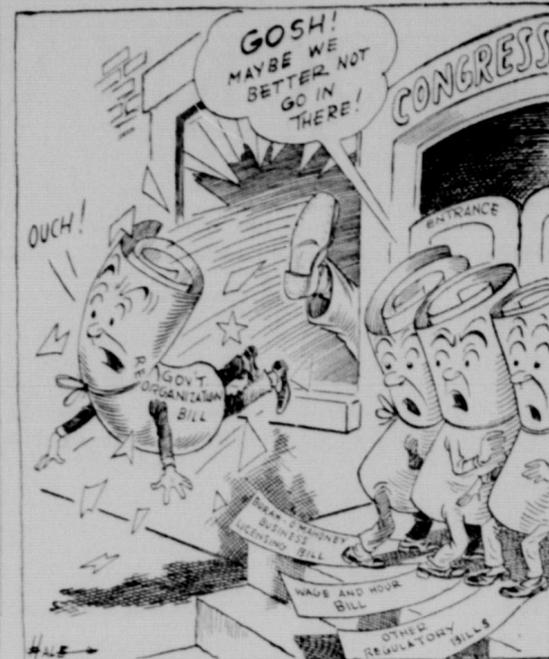

On which, would you put the highest value, that baby smiling up from his crib, or that rose-bush blooming in the back yard? The answer, of course, is easy, and yet — Commenting on child welfare, Luther Burbank, the botanical genius, once said: "If we had paid no more attention to our plants than we have to our children, we would now be living in a jungle of weeds."

A jungle of weeds! In what way have we failed our children? However one may answer that question, there is one thing on which we can all agree. We can mobilize the forces of medicine to give our children, rich and poor, the best possible physical equipment with which to wage the battle of life.

It is just such a program as this which symbolized in Child Health Day, officially on the calendar for May 1. Child health, of course, is not a one day problem, but thru a concentration of interest in a one day celebration, the U. S. Public Health Service hopes to make the other 364 days on the calendar Child Health Days as well.

In this era of medical miracles, there is no reason why any child should enter adulthood with preventable handicaps. Disease may be controlled, maladjustments corrected, and handicaps lessened. The result? Children prepared not only physically, but mentally and spiritually as well, to take their place in the pattern of tomorrow's living.

Child Health Day! That's one celebration we all can cheer for!

WHO SAID RECESSION? It's an old saying, if you want to know the truth about business, ask a salesman! Last week, with business off as much as 26 per cent in some parts of the United States, salesmen were phoning their head offices to report: "In Texas they don't even know a depression exists!"

That pleasant fact was given confirmation in a national trade chart recently published by Dun and Bradstreet. Showing its darkest colors in Illinois, Michigan, and New England, the whitest spot on the map was Texas. With less than a 1 per cent drop in trade levels, Texas chalked up by far the best recovery record of any section of the country.

The reasons? A bumper nine cent cotton crop, improved foreign trade conditions, comparative prosperity in the oil industry, and that old Texas spirit that won't be downed. With the rest of the country wallowing in the swamps of bewilderment and uncertainty, Texas has put her nineteenth century pioneer spirit into twentieth-century practice, and come out with colors flying.

"In Texas they don't even know a depression exists!" That's the best advertisement yet for the Texas spirit!

HOW TO MAKE FACTS STICK We wonder what those pioneer Texans, Sam Houston and Stephen Austin, would say if they returned and read the disturbing report which Texas' teachers and parents are so warmly discussing today — the survey just released by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

For to those leaders of early Texas, education was decidedly important. No sooner had they won freedom for the Lone Star state than they began the development of a school system to spread the knowledge that makes for freedom.

In the years since, Texas' school system has grown into a structure of more than seven thousand school districts and over a million and a half students. But size is not the concern of the present Carnegie report. To put it bluntly, it wants to know why facts and knowledge simply do not stick in the heads of our students.

In this ten-year survey, for which 45,000 Pennsylvania high school and college students played the role of guinea pigs, researchers found that in tests over 28 per cent of college seniors scored lower than the average sophomore and that one fourth of the would-be teachers among college seniors scored lower than 22 per cent of the high school students they intended to teach.

The Foundation's conclusion? Overhaul our educational system, train teachers as counselors, not drill masters, and banish too rigid courses. If those practical, hard-driving pioneers, Houston and Austin, read this report, we suspect they would be surprised. But frankly, the report is our gain. Texas' school system, already of high repute has everything to gain from a study of conditions in other states.

THE SPENDING SPREE

"To spend or not to spend, that is the question!" With Hamlet-like poses and a flow of words the symptoms of the season—in Congress and out—America is settling down to the serious business of deciding whether or not to spend her way out of the depression of 1938.

The President has his say—and repeats his call for four and a half billion pump-priming dollars to start the flow of domestic trade.

The Congress has its say—and with one eye on the charm of billions of new dollars, debates the pros and cons of spending and saving.

The people have their say—and in the usually accurate American Institution of Public Opinion poll, vote only 21 per cent for an increase in federal appropriations. Asked to record their opinion as to whether reduced taxes or boosted expenditures would be the best shot-in-the-arm for business, a cross-section of America went on record eight to two against new spending.

To spend or not to spend! Will further pump-priming produce a permanent flow or will the pump again dry up when the priming stops? Will a four and a half billion shove give business a push towards permanent good, or sink it deeper into the trough of permanent ill after a momentary boost? Those are the questions which America ponders today. The answers may decide the future of our nation.

COURTS AND CARDS

The courts of law are having a lot of fun with the card players! First came the Board of Tax Appeals with a ruling that you can charge up some card losses on your income tax, if—and the if is a big one—you play with the assurance that you are going to win.

Next came a legal decision that a card game isn't a game of chance but a game of skill. And now the California State Supreme Court has just ruled that a card player who calls for a new deal with a gun in his hands, isn't a robber, but well within his rights.

In the case in question, a certain Dave Rosen found himself broke at the end of a card game. With gun cocked, he demanded his money back, and got it. That, said the court, was a perfectly legal action.

When next you step out for that evening of bridge, don't forget to take your law books along. With things as they are, you never can tell!

TAKE A TIP FROM MOHAMMED

Said Mohammed to the mountain: "Come unto me and hear my sales talk." Mohammed soon discovered that the mountain would not budge an inch, so he wisely changed his tactics and went to the mountain.

Today there are many executives who have cut their advertising appropriations to the bone, called in many of their salesmen, and now sit with long faces waiting for business to come to them.

In good times they went after the business — and got it. Now, in these times with business harder to get, they sit waiting for it to come to them. And it just doesn't come.

On the other hand, when, in spite of hell and high water, we see business men making successes today, we can rest assured that they have taken a tip from Mohammed.

THE AMERICAN LANGUAGE

"I'll look it up in the dictionary!" That decision, a favorite when the American language is in question, has been possible for just a little over a century. Just 110 years ago this week, the first edition of Noah Webster's dictionary rolled from the presses.

With 12,000 new words and 40,000 new meanings, the two-volume American Dictionary gave the official stamp of acceptance to the American language. After Noah Webster's compilation appeared on the book shelves, American, as a separate language, came into existence.

Today, 110 years later, the American language goes on growing and changing. New occupations, new conditions, new meanings bring new words into popular usage. America, the most fluid and youthful of all languages, readily grafts those new words into accepted usage.

Thanks to Noah Webster, you and I today write and talk — American!

Oil Marches On

Denton, April 27—Oil continues to wave its shiny black flag over Texas. Six refineries have been built in the state since April of last year, including some of the largest plants yet constructed. This makes a total of 136 refineries in operation at the end of 1937. Furthermore, the largest investments in any one group of industries have been made in the establishment of petroleum refineries producing asphalt, gasoline, distillate, fuel oil and other products.

Attention Pessimists

"Building for the future" is a reality as well as a slogan in Texas, if the amount of building permits is a true indication. Not including public works, a total of $4,475,942 worth of permits were issued in January, 1938. The largest amount was in Houston, where $1,177,795 went into construction work, and the next was in Dallas, with $965,543 worth of permits.

Farm Income Higher

Recession fears may be equally quieted by the quotation of farm income figures for January of this year, which showed a nine percent increase over January of last year. In other words, the computed farm cash income of Texas for January, 1938, was $21,500,000 compared with $19,750,000 in 1937.

Hidden Missions

Denton, April 27—Although no traces are left, almost as many Indian missions were established in East Texas as in the central part of the state where they now form the tourist's mecca. Built of wood rather than of adobe and stone as are those around San Antonio, they were soon lost through decay. It is believed that one was at Nacogdoches, one at San Augustine, two others in this vicinity and another across the Sabine in Louisiana.

More Clothes for Texas

In one short year the number of clothing factories in Texas has increased ninety per cent. There were 52 establishments in 1936 producing men's clothing and 28 for women, not including millinery. Now 150 are operating, which at least seems an indication that Texas' manufacturing aspirations are well founded.

153 Forgotten Ghosts

Humble sacrifices to a growing civilization are the 153 ghost towns listed by the Texas Almanac. Killed by the failure of an industry or the changing of a train track, these villages started life as optimistically as some of our larger cities today. Their names, Duck Creek, Gertrude, Parson's Seminary (famed for its female school) and others, seem still alive, even though the inhabitants and buildings are gone forever.

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—Members of the Italian Fascist good-will mission pictured during their visit to Tokyo. 2—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford shown as they celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary recently. 3—Erstwhile troops of the Spanish Loyalist army shown as they arrived at a concentration camp at Luchon, France, after they had fled across the border to escape annihilation by General Franco's rebel forces.

FACTS ABOUT TEXAS

An average "take" of $104 from every man, woman and child in America!

A total charge of $13,500,000,000—equal one-fifth of the entire national income, twenty cents out of every dollar earned!

An amount equal to more than the total yearly cost of feeding the 130 million mouths in America! That's our tax bill—local, state, federal!

In the past ten years the cost of government has doubled. In the past two years it has gone up one-third. One business concern paid a 600 per cent tax increase in the past two years—enough to put 6,500 additional men to work for an entire year. Another business paid out $1.15 in taxes for every $5 paid out in wages.

These are facts! The price-tags on local, state, and national government are being marked-up each year. Where is the end to be?

A PRODUCT FROM ROCKS

Add to the long list of Texas products a new one—rock wool! Rock wool—it looks like cotton waste and is proof against fire, vermin, and termites—has recently won national acceptance as an insulating fiber. In the walls of buildings, refrigeration chambers, and furnaces it provides a low-cost barrier to heat and cold.

With an abundant supply of raw material in the native rocks near Temple, Texas industrialists have already established one rock-wool mill, and have completed plans for several others. This Texas product, scheduled to hit the national market on a large scale, will feature low cost, high quality and an abundant supply as its selling points.

Rock wool, by itself, may not mean millions to Texans' future prosperity. But the spirit that discovered a new industry in the shredding of rocks into insulating fiber, will go on discovering ways to keep Texas on top of the prosperity pile.

Texas' rock wool will insulate homes against cold and ice-boxes against heat. The business push and industrial acumen that brought this new plant to Texas, will insulate the state against the chill of recession and the heat of over-confident prosperity.

Prof. James H. Means of the Harvard Medical school and president of the American College of Physicians, who recently urged physicians "who believe in popular government to bestir themselves and organize an effective opposition party to the American Medical association." This was the first time in American medical history that open revolt against the leadership of the most powerful body in American medicine was advocated by any one of Dr. Means' standing.

Design Of Small Homes Improved

FHA Official Notes Evidence Of Change After Planning Conference

Washington, D. C.—Evidence of improvement in planning and designing of homes following a series of small home planning conferences held during the past year is reported by Howard Leland Smith, Chief of the Federal Housing Administration's Architectural Section.

Mr. Smith, who held 38 conferences with builders, architects, contractors, and materials dealers during the year, stated that the evidence of improvement in planning and design tends not only to lessen the risk on mortgage insurance but carries out the intent of the National Housing Act, "to encourage improvement in housing standards and conditions."

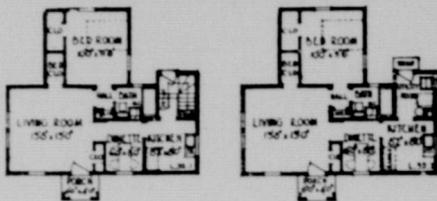

Over 10,000 builders, bankers, architects, material dealers, and the general public attended the small home planning conferences, Mr. Smith said.

"Besides stimulating small home construction," he said, "the conferences demonstrated the need for sound and intelligent planning not only for the neighborhood but for the house itself. We also stressed the necessity of obtaining plans which have a high degree of livability and privacy, together with attractive exteriors which create a desire for ownership. These were the predominating factors of our program."

"The conferences also brought out the fact that competent architectural service is essential in order to obtain low cost. Low cost comes from intelligent use of materials, taking advantage of standard lengths of structural members and stock sizes of millwork, avoiding unnecessary corners, and obtaining a minimum of hall space."

"Through the use of these principles builders are now aware that good homes, well planned and attractive, can be profitably produced at a cost, including the lot, at a cost well under $5,000."

No matter how well furnished a room might be, if the floors are shabby, its entire appearance will be spoiled. Floors that have splintered or rough places are dangerous when there are small children in the family.

CONVENIENT KITCHEN AID TO HOUSEWORK

A kitchen that isn't convenient to work in will make a housewife dissatisfied with her home. Regardless of equipment, the kitchen that does not have adequate storage space will be a trial to the person who has to work in it.

COLORED RECESS ADDS INTEREST TO WALL

When the walls of a room are recessed for bookcases or other purposes an interesting deviation from the usual theme may be found by painting the recess a different color. Blue recesses in a room with ivory walls would be attractive, or white recesses in a green wall could be used. The color of the recess should be chosen to show off books or furniture to advantage.

WALLBOARD JOINTS CAN BE EMPHASIZED

Modern decoration has forced squarely a problem that has been dodged for years. In using wallboard in a room, the hiding of the joints has risen to what amounted to a major crisis. In many modern rooms, a molding of narrow strips of metal is used to emphasize these joints. The metal, of course, is chosen to be in harmony with the furnishings of the room.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. When wood has once started to rot, can anything be done to stop it?

A. We know of no positive means of stopping rot once it has started. The best remedy is to not only remove or cut out the affected part but also to remove the cause of the affliction. The simplest method is to keep the wood dry. This requires that it be kept not only from contact with soil and water but also that moisture pockets be avoided; that free circulation of air be provided and that surfaces exposed to the weather, damp air, or condensation be coated with paint, varnish, or other protective coatings to reduce absorption of moisture.

Q. What is the most satisfactory finish for a new hard pine floor?

A. Before any finish is applied the floor should be properly and carefully prepared for treatment by planing and sandpapering parallel with the grain of the wood. Hard pine is a resinous wood with a pronounced grain. Because of this a filler should first be applied in order to prevent the spring wood in the boards from absorbing all the stain. When dry, apply the stain of the tone desired and then apply at least two coats of wax, rubbing considerably to bring to a glass finish. If your floor must stand hard usage, a good floor or spar varnish may be used in place of the wax.

Q. How can I prevent water from seeping through my cellar windows?

A. The seepage is most likely caused by water coming up thru the bottom of the areas. This water must be carried away, and the best way to do this is to install concrete floors in the areas about 8 inches below the window sills and pipe the water to a dry well located at least 8 feet from the house.

Q. Water runs off over our door from the gutter on the front of the house. Can you tell me how to correct this?

A. One of the gutter supports has most likely given away, causing a sag in the gutter over the doorway. Examine the gutter and, if it is still level, see that the drains are not clogged. If these two items are in order, then you must install larger leaders.

Q. How can I keep my windows from rattling?

A. You can do this by either removing the stop or molding that holds the sash in place and resetting it closer to the sash or by installing metal weatherstripping. Weatherstripping would be the better way, as it accomplishes a saving in fuel as well as stopping the rattling.

Q. What size coal bin is required to hold 10 tons of coal?

A. A ton of coal will occupy about 45 cubic feet of space. Convenient storage of coal should be such that the depth is not over 4½ feet, so that the size of bin required for 10 tons would be 20 feet square.

The LIVESTOCK SITUATION

Los Angeles, April 27 — Texas cattlemen meeting in San Antonio recently for the annual convention of the Texas & Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, found meat advertising among the major issues up for discussion, and ended by doubling their former appropriation of 25 cents per car, paid to the National Livestock and Meat Board for meat promotion.

The address of Jay Taylor, second vice president of the organization, was of intense interest. One of the points he brought out was that meat is far behind other competitive foodstuffs in advertising appropriation, with the result that our per capita consumption is low. In Argentina, for example, the per capita consumption of beef in 1937 was 296 pounds; in Canada, 86.6 pounds; in the British Isles, 64 pounds; and in the United States, 50.6 pounds.

Amounts contributed for advertising other food products, as given by Mr. Taylor, ranged from $2.05 per car for Maine potatoes, the lowest on the list, to $40.60 per capita for California lemons.

He expressed the opinion that because the consumer is constantly being urged by extensive advertising campaigns to buy other foods; meat being neglected, does not receive a fair share of the consumer's dollar. Only by raising an adequate fund for advertising and education of masses of consumers can meat hope to get its share of the consumer's dollar.

While a campaign sponsored by cattle feeders of Southern Arizona and California informing the public that "beef prices were down" was effective in moving an increased volume of meat and terminating a depressed market situation, it is a recognized fact that any permanent meat advertising program should deal with meat food as a builder of brain and brawn, and when the consumer has a real appreciation of the need of meat as an essential part of his daily diet, the cost question becomes secondary.

Mrs. Anita Hunter will be at Hotel Ozona Monday and Tuesday, April 25 and 26, with a lovely line of dresses, Newest styles at new low prices. You are invited to come and inspect them.

Meat is a food that much more than any other food can be enjoyed once or twice a day. What other important food can you think of that will stand the same test?

It is a strange thing to me that when people speak of going on a diet they discard meat, the thing they need the most to sustain and sustain. Meat food runs high in protein. That thing that produces what we call "fat" is not the lean meats, but the carbohydrates obtained from oils, sweets and fats. Lean steaks or lean meats of any kind, without excessive fats, starches or sweets, will keep down the waistline, and is the direct route to Health.

Diphtheria Threat Routed By Science With Toxoid Serum

Austin, April 27 — "Few conquests of science have been so spectacular and complete as the rout of diphtheria. And this victory has most firmly established the value of serum treatment both in its preventive and curative phases. However, toxin-antitoxin or its successor toxoid for immunization, and antitoxin for timely cure, are brilliant achievements of which the general public even yet are not fully aware," states Dr. G. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"As indicated, toxoid is the immunizing or preventive agent now usually employed, however, three to four months are required for the body to develop immunity. At that time the Schick test is applied to determine the results of this preventive treatment. This harmless and painless procedure is performed by injecting into the upper layers of the skin a minute drop of the diphtheria toxin. Your doctor can tell from this whether or not your child is immune.

"However, when a case of diphtheria exists, antitoxin is the only treatment that will save life. Also, to be effective, it must be given early and in large doses. Delay is usually caused by parents failing to realize that any sore throat may actually be diphtheria.

"The means are at hand to fight diphtheria to the death, but it can not be done without a hundred per cent cooperation of parents. May Day, the Child's Health Day, will soon be here and one of the best ways to observe it would be for parents to have their children immunized against diphtheria."

Retail Sales In Texas Continue To Set Nation's Pace

Austin, April 27— Retail sales in Texas continue to make a far better showing than in the Nation as a whole, according to the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas. Aggregate sales, as measured in dollars, during March of a representative group of department stores, dry goods, and apparel stores, men's and women's specialty stores were only slightly below those of the corresponding month last year and exceeded those of February by almost the normal seasonal amount, the report said.

Reports from 106 retail establishments showed total dollar sales during March of only 2.4 per cent below those of the like month last year, while the increase over February was 21.6 per cent. The fact that Easter came in March last year whereas this year it came in April lends further optimism to the current showing.

An inviting outdoor scene, reminding of the near approach of the fishing season, is depicted in a clever window display at the Joe Oberkamp store here this week.

The display shows a silvery stream ending at a lake in which live fish may be seen swimming. The surrounding terrain represents a West Texas scene, with cattle and sheep grazing or resting along the banks of the stream. A camp of fishermen has been pitched on the lake shore.

Senior Tells Of Experiences In Carlsbad

By Catherine Childress

THE ARRIVAL OF SPRING

Some say that Spring always comes on the 22nd of March, but I always maintain that it depends entirely upon the weather. It is certainly hard to believe that Spring can come on "the billowy air" of a Norther, and it is equally hard to understand that during "the balmy air" of a heat wave, Spring may interrupt. Spring comes after the weather has quit being cold, and before the weather becomes hot. In my mind Spring comes when I get tired of school, but as some people are tired of school all the time that can't help them much. When I start planning for summer, 'tis another sure sign that Spring has come, but as some girls plan all winter what boys are going to exert their charms upon the next summer, that way of telling that Spring has come is poor. But then maybe you don't care when Spring comes.

Now we will take physical things. The first larriet has recently been brought to school; some of the students are trying so hard on their term's work in order to pass their courses, etc., etc.

Now, if you are really interested in the arrival of Spring, watch the trees; they are sure clocks for all seasons.

By Elton Smith

1. Is the new San Francisco-Oakland bridge high enough to permit all boats to pass under it?
2. In the expression, "poor as Job's turkey," is the Job of the Old Testament meant?
3. Was Edward Everett Hale related to Nathan Hale, the patriot of the Revolution?
4. How many parts of speech are there?
5. What part of what state is farther north than any other in the Union?

Answers

1. This bridge rises 220 feet in the air, so that in high water all boats can cross.
 2. As turkey is American by origin, it seems incorrect to associate this Job with the ancient Hebrew. Poor, of course, means "slim and skinny," and not short of money.
 3. He was a grand nephew. Edward's father was Nathan's nephew. Nathan was hanged by the British as an American spy.
 4. Eight: Nouns, pronouns, verbs, adverbs, adjectives, prepositions, conjunctions, and interjections.
 5. Lake of the woods country Minnesota.

No wonder all the seniors have such pleasant looks on our faces, we certainly had a wonderful time on our trip to Carlsbad Cavern at Carlsbad, New Mexico.

We left Ozona, Thursday at one o'clock p. m., stopped for gas and cold drinks in Fort Stockton, and then took the route to Carlsbad by Pecos.

Carlsbad, New Mexico, was first seen by our happy group about seven o'clock p. m. We stopped at a very nice tourist court, at which we had reservations. After washing the dust from our eyes, we went on to the down town section of the city and ate supper at a good cafe.

After that meal, we had the pleasure of attending a very good movie at the Cactus Theatre. After seeing the show, we "took Carlsbad in."

About eleven o'clock, we arrived back at the tourist courts. Hot pillow and shoe fights lasted in each cabin for about two hours, which resulted in our getting "kicked out of our rooms." One woman asked a certain group of the girls what they thought she went to bed for, and a man across the street yelled and told another group to be quiet and go to sleep.

It was about three o'clock before the lights went out and all was calm. That morning (Friday) at six o'clock (six o'clock, mind you) the boys started yelling and whooping at the girls to get up.

By eight o'clock we had gone to town and finished breakfast. After which we visited all of the curio shops intown. A few of us went to the Carlsbad High School where through it (most of the boys from Ozona took their kodaks along and took pictures of the pretty Carlsbad girls).

All of us met back at the tourist court at nine o'clock and from there we journeyed to the Caverns. We traveled over a beautiful drive between Carlsbad and the Caverns. At ten thirty all of us students were ready to descend into the Caverns, but we had to walk back up the hills to find our chaperons. Finally, we started our trip of six and one half miles through the Carlsbad Cavern. Nearly everyone had his mouth open at the beautiful sights which we saw.

We had lunch at twelve-thirty in a very beautiful room of the cave. After lunch we wandered on and finally came back to the lunch room. There a few of the group took the elevator out, and the rest walked out.

We left the Caverns about four thirty p. m. and stopped by the Red Bluff Dam, which is between Carlsbad, New Mexico and Pecos, Texas.

In Pecos we stopped and had

Juniors-Sophs vs Seniors-Freshmen

In a hard fought softball game on Tuesday, April 19, the combined forces of the Juniors and Sophomores, easily defeated the Joe Oberkampf softball team. A definite score is not known, but it was believed to be 17-0. McCulley and Hollon were the batters for the faculty, while Vic Montgomery and Arthur Kyle worked for the losers. Besides doing some fine twirling, McCulley did fancy stick work at the plate, collecting several hits, one a home run. At his first base post, Mr. Nelson turned in some fine defensive work.

Band Members Go To Angelo

Members Participate

The Ozona High School rendered their weekly band concert last Wednesday evening on the public square assisted by the drum corps.

The judges selected the following participants:

Outstanding boy in appearance and poise—Miles Pierce.

Most excellent in the band formation—Catherine Childress.

Band Sweetheart — Crystelle Carson.

The drum corps was judged excellent in attire, poise, and time.

The band as a whole was judged fair at the point of review in playing on the march but not up to standard in keeping step, and their poise could be improved.

The Ozona High School Band will play a few more concerts before school is out and we expect to render a concert for the Sonora High School in the near future.

The following band members played their state contest numbers in chapel Wednesday, April 27, just before they went to the State Band and Orchestra contest which meets in San Angelo, April 28, 29 and 30. Doris Bunker acted as master of ceremonies and announced the following numbers:

Campus Philosophy

By Billy Joe West

A proud man is seldom a grateful man for he never thinks he gets as much as he deserves.

By the streets of "by and by", one arrives at the home of "never".

They think too little who talk too much.

You read of but one wise man, and all he knew was that he knew nothing.

There is no good in arguing with the inevitable. The only argument available with a north wind is to put on your coat.

The worth of a state, in the long run is the worth of the individuals composing it.

Great souls have wills; feeble ones have only wishes.

The reason American cities are prosperous is that there is no place to sit down.

Joy is fruit that Americans eat green.

Conceit is God's gift to little men.

I WONDER

If the seniors had a good time on their trip?
 If Dorothy enjoyed her visit in San Angelo?
 If Pete had anything to say about Dot's going?
 If Maurice found what he wanted to know Saturday afternoon?
 If Ora Louise will live for a whole month?

supper and filled the cars with gasoline.

It was decided that we would come back through Balmorhea and then Fort Stockton, because of the good roads that way.

About eleven-thirty we stopped in Fort Stockton to get a snack to eat, after which we "headed for home."

It was some time between one thirty and two o'clock a. m. that we drove into the fair city of Ozona.

Those enjoying the trip were Betty Dudley, P. C. Perner, Mary Margaret Harris, Lurinne Townsend, Buren Arnn, Catherine Childress, Haskell Leath, Norman Rendall, J. W. Johnigan, Sibyl Cooke, Christine Currie, Jack Baggett, Maurice Lemmons, Mickey Couch, Louise Casbeer, Welton Bunker, Lela Mae Phillips, John Coates, Walter Dudley, Mr. C. S. Denham, Mrs. Paul Perner, Miss Terry, Mrs. W. H. Bunker, and Mr. Tom Casbeer.

We all hope that the seniors of 1938-39 will make the same trip.

—: The Prowler :—

By Drake & Lemmons

We wonder who Till had a fight with Sun, morning.

It seems as if Mertis and her boy friend make people back out of parks.

Can someone tell us who P. C. and Phillip had playing tennis with them, Sunday?

Toots seemed to like playing ball Friday. Was it because of that "certain boy", Totos?

We wonder what kept Maurice from seeing what picture show was about at Carlsbad, Thursday night.

Somebody ask Miss Terry if she had any bruises after her trip and see what she says.

We wonder if any of the Senior girls were sleepy Friday night.

Was it possible that Lela Mae was embarrassed when her car broke down.

We would like to know if Mr. Denham rested well Thursday night.

What is the meaning of "What do you think people go to bed for?" Ask Catherine.

Maudie Mae was seen riding around pretty late Sunday night.

The school was surely quiet and peaceful from Thursday afternoon until it was out Friday. I wonder why?

A bunch of the Senior boys took two girls riding in Carlsbad. The girls have a lot to learn, don't you think so, John?

I wonder why Beecher was so low during the weekend. It wasn't girl trouble was it, Till?

Ora Louise was having a nice time. Saturday night, but she still had her troubles. What were they, Ora Louise?

Mary Alyce was seen riding around with a couple of boys Saturday evening. Who were they Toots, and how did they act?

Mary Margaret surely was doing some riding around in a light colored Ford Saturday night.

Some of our gang are playing softball now. Good exercise isn't it, Mary Louise?

W. B. also changed girls for the dance. I wonder why? Tell us, "Dub."

Lurinne better watch a certain Senior boy; he was with the secretary Saturday night.

Jim was with Mary Bess at the Scout dance. Did you learn anything, Jim?

Dorothy H. stood P. C. up Saturday night. Lois also stood Welton up at the same time. What's happened to you girls, anyway?

THE WORLD THIS WEEK

By Robert Patterson

BIRTHDAY FOR A PRINCESS

While the wheels of England's factories furiously spewed forth munitions, metal, and gas masks last week, the rollicking laughter of children resounded through the rooms and gardens of ancient Windsor Castle. For on Thursday Princess Elizabeth, England's next ruler, celebrated her twelfth birthday. There was a big party, with tea, movies and games, and a ride for the princess on Peggy, her pony. There were hundreds of exciting presents to be opened, including one from Uncle David now living, for some funny reason over in France. For a twelve-year old child, Britain's future queen has had an eventful and exacting year, learning the infinite and intricate p's and q's of court etiquette, attending the Coronation, Parliament's opening, and parties at Buckingham Palace. But meanwhile, the roar of England's munitions drive gives solemn augury of the grim world into which Elizabeth, as Queen, must one day enter.

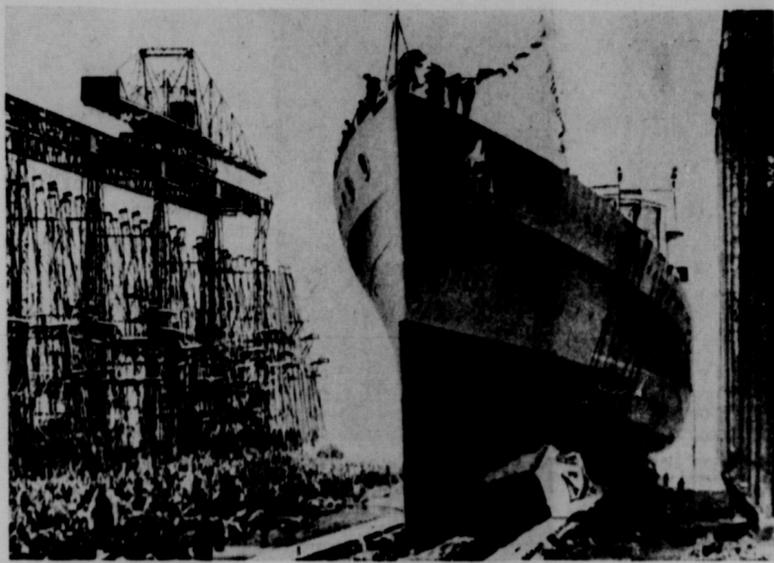

A JOB FOR YOUTH

Now that the pro-spenders and anti-spenders have unleashed such heavy artillery fire in defense, and in attack, over the multi-billion dollar priming program, one truth, at least, emerged — economics is no science! One historian long ago called it the "dismal science." Most people agree today that the former word fits it far better than the latter. It can be shown, with reasonable evidence, that the world is round, that light travels 186,000 miles per second, and that the moon is not a ball of Swiss cheese. But the "science" of economics can boast no such incontrovertible truths upon which all of us can agree. A spender is a spender, an anti-spender is an anti-spender, and never the twain shall meet—except in line at the tax collector's office on March 15. If any of today's ambitious youngsters seek new worlds to conquer, let them beat a trail into the confused wilderness of modern economics and government spending!

ELEVENTH-HOUR PARDON

Today Dr. Townsend walks the streets a free man. By the narrowest squeak he has just escaped being taken from the U. S. Marshalls office to serve a jail term in Washington, D. C. The President's last-minute pardon of the famed pension planner brought relief not only to his thousands of followers. It also relieved Congress, including those who served on the committee which the doctor defied in 1936, who feared imprisonment might mean not only punishment,

Another British Man o' War Launched

H. M. S. Edinburgh, new British battleship, taking the water after the launching ceremony recently at Wallsend-on-Tyne, England. A large crowd watched Lady Gumley, wife of the lord provost of Edinburgh, christen the ship which is the latest addition to Britain's rapidly growing fleet in the rearmament program.

but martyrdom as well. Undoubtedly the venerable physician responded to perfectly harmless and natural impulses when he strode abruptly out of the committee's chambers. Congressional investigating committees, as a rule, are said to be no amateurs at sharp cross-questioning and occasional heavy-handed badgering. We believe President Roosevelt must have been as pleased over the pardon as Dr. Townsend. The President found he could do SOMETHING which nearly everyone agreed was the right thing to do!

HOME-COMING

America witnesses a novel migration today as the Mennonites trek back to the land of their forebears. Good farm land in the Middle West is becoming scarcer. Young people in the East are forsaking farm lands, taking the high road into the cities, leaving idle land behind them. In these factors lies the reason for the Eastward migration of the Mennonites from the Midwest, back to the Pennsylvania homeland where their forefathers settled centuries ago. There, idle lands hold for this new generation the prospects of a new future on an old frontier!

OH, PROMISE ME!

Now that Prime Minister Chamberlain has got his deal with Dictator Mussolini, a conservative French cabinet wants a dish of the same Italian sauce, or should we say apple sauce? It strongly resembles the latter, Mr. Chamberlain professes to find in Britain's newly initiated pact with Italy the promise of peace. But the pact consists chiefly of promises between the two Powers, promising all over again what has already been promised—Britain will keep the Suez Canal open to all ships in peace and war, Mussolini will keep his hands off Spain (after the war is over), and will not upset the status quo in the Mediterranean. Since Mussolini has always promised these things, and then proceeded to yank the British lion's tail anyway, of what worth are more promises? However, Mr. Chamberlain seems to believe the piece of paper he has won from Il Duce constitutes a great victory for his policy of dealing with dictators. Diplomats are strange people!

Isn't this the real problem of Beer —and almost its only problem?

THERE ARE people, of course, who steadfastly and sincerely believe beer to be intoxicating, or its use sinful, harmful, or a first step toward use of "hard liquor."

Just as sincerely we hold that the weight of the evidence is overwhelmingly against them...that beer is a mild, wholesome food beverage...and that "there is nothing more promising to combat the evil of too much alcohol than the opportunity of drinking good beer."

No...it is not in beer itself, we believe, that its gravest problem lies, but in those conditions, undesirable to us all, which sometimes surround its sale.

How should that problem be handled... by brewers, by retailers, by consumers, and by the public authorities? On its handling, we believe, depends the ultimate success or failure of the art and science of brewing, with all its manifold contributions to human pleasure and happiness and to the farm and industrial welfare of this country.

In that belief, a short time ago the Brewers Foundation was organized... to align the brewing industry with forces working for the public good in this country.

Our underlying motive... to perpetuate and promote our industry... is of course obvious. But equally obvious, we hope, is the fact that our interests coincide with the public interest.

Important progress has been made. Brewer-members of the Foundation already represent nearly half the production of beer and ale in the United States; and these members are pledged, individually and collectively, to the Brewers Code, one significant clause of which is as follows:

"We pledge our support to the duly constituted authorities for the elimination of anti-social conditions wherever they may surround the sale of beer to the consumer."

Being practical men, we promise no miracles. We cannot immediately or effectively "police" the quarter-million points where beer is sold (nor, to be fair, have we legal authority in many cases to do so). Nor can we, immediately, bring about full compliance with the law among all retailers, nor honest enforcement by all authorities.

But a beginning has been made... and we do promise that you will see results from it.

How far we can go, and how soon, depends very much on ourselves...but partly also on you.

Public opinion, once aroused, can operate to bring about honest enforcement of existing laws. Restriction of your patronage only to legal, respectable retail outlets can and will operate to raise retailing standards. Public preference for the products of Foundation members* will bear witness of your approval both to members and to cooperating retailers, and will encourage them to renewed efforts.

This is, therefore, at once a statement of our objectives and an appeal for your support, without which we must fall short of our high hopes. We urgently invite your full and sympathetic cooperation.

Miss Nancy Dawes Exhibits Rare Artistic Ability In Concert As Feature Of Music Club Guest Day

Musical Treat Heard By Members And Over 30 Guests

An artist of unusual talent and musical background was "discovered" for many music lovers of Ozona who had not before had opportunity to hear her when Miss Nancy Dawes, public school music teacher in Ozona schools, was presented in a piano concert by the Ozona Music Club Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lee Childress.

The concert was arranged to feature the Guest Day program of the club, which also honored its new members on the occasion. More than thirty guests, besides members of the Music Club who formed the house party, were present for the program.

The afternoon's program opened with two numbers by the Choral Club Steinfeldt's "Song of the River" and Hopkins' "Beneath Thy Lattice."

To admirers of the master, Beethoven, Miss Dawes' interpretation of his Sonata Op. 27 No. 1, her opening number was a soul satisfying experience. Seldom have Ozona music lovers had opportunity to hear an artist who plays with deeper feeling or more artistic ability.

The artist's second group, including compositions by Sgambati, Maszkowsky, Liszt and Chopin, gave a variety of numbers so beautifully rendered as to make it impossible to say which was the most outstanding. The last number, the very difficult Symphonic Etudes by Schumann, was played with an ease and beauty of tone to be fully appreciated only by those who are more or less familiar with this style of musical literature.

As an encore, Miss Dawes played "Fire Ritual Dance" by DeFolla and one of her own original compositions, which was appreciated by her audience. After hearing Miss Dawes' concert, it was the general verdict of the audience that this community is fortunate in having in its school system one so talented and with such a genuine, substantial musical background.

New members of the Music Club who were given special honor at the meeting were Mrs. Joe Oberkamp, Mrs. Elton Smith, Mrs. Eugene Miller, Mrs. Alvin Harrell, Mrs. Claude Hudspeth, Jr., Mrs. Clyde Childers, and Mrs. C. J. Van Zandt. Mrs. V. I. Pierce greeted guests and presented them to Mrs. Lee Childress. Mrs. H. B. Tandy presented Mrs. Oberkamp. Mrs. Oberkamp presented Mrs. Elton Smith, Mrs. Bryan McDonald presented Mrs. Van Zandt, and Mrs. Paul Perner presented Mrs. Miller. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Neal Hannah, Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., Mrs. Madden Road, Mrs. W. S. Willis, Mrs. Joe Clayton, Miss Dixie Davidson, Miss Jo Demmer, and Mrs. Hubert Baker. Mrs. Charles Williams was at the guest book and exhibited the club's scrap book.

The house was decorated with sweet peas and larkspur in pastel shades. Mrs. Tandy and Mrs.

Sow Farrows Litter of 25

Mrs. Albert Marlatt of Medway, Ohio, claims a world's record for her Duroc-Jersey sow with its litter of 25 pigs. Mrs. Marlatt, shown here with the sow and some of the 20 pigs which survived, has found it necessary to resort to bottle feeding for most of the piggie family, as the mother can care for only eight.

Strick Harvick presided at the tea table.

Guests of the club for the occasion were Mrs. Walter Augustine, Mrs. Minnie Crumley, Mrs. Claude Denham, Mrs. W. R. Baggett, Miss Dorothy Spain, Mrs. N. W. Graham, Miss Elizabeth Fussell, Miss Dorothy Drake, Mrs. Lowell Littleton, Mrs. George Bean, Mrs. Pleas Childress, Mrs. Dempster Jones, Mrs. George Montgomery, Mrs. Scott Peters, Mrs. L. B. High Winds Whip Up Showers Over Scattered Areas

4 Inch Moisture Recorded In Blustery Falls Here

High winds, whipping up local dust storms and bringing a dusty haze from distant points ushered in blustery showers here both Monday night and Tuesday night, with a total recorded moisture fall of .4 of an inch locally.

A heavy shower of short duration fell Monday night after strong wind which continued after the rain. Again Tuesday night, the showers rode in on the high wind to fall briefly and then call off the attempt. Scattered showers that will be of benefit in hastening the growth of weeds and grass on range lands in this section were reported over most of the county.

Some hail accompanied Tuesday night's rain here, but the fall was light. Heavy falls of hail in sections north of here resulted in a sharp drop in the temperature Wednesday morning.

Class Of 1938 "Wined And Dined" As Graduation Nears

Seniors, members of the 1938 graduating class of Ozona High School, have entered seriously into the social whirl that precedes the important event of graduation and are being "wined and dined" in a merry round this week.

Starting the Spring social affairs with a "Senior Day" trip to Carlsbad Caverns two weeks ago, then the guests of the Juniors in the annual Junior-Senior banquet, the class has been honored at a number of social affairs the first of this week and are "dated up" for many others as the Commencement date nears.

Tonight Mrs. Paul Perner and Mrs. Bright Baggett are entertaining with a buffet supper at the Perner home, and Mrs. Roger Dudley will entertain with a supper Saturday night. Next week's engagements, - already reported, include a Scavenger Hunt Monday night by Mrs. Massie West, and a swim and supper party by Mrs. Hugh Childress. Baccalaureate services are slated for Sunday, May 15, and Commencement for May 19.

Following are accounts of some of the events at which class members have been complimented:

Source Of Water Supply Is Given Spring Cleaning

Big Tank Emptied And Cleaned; Now Being Refilled

Spring "housecleaning" has just been completed by the Ozona Water Works and patrons of the system who may have been irritated by low pressure this week are given assurance that the system will be geared up to full capacity by the end of this week.

The big half-million gallon tank on top of the water works was emptied and given a thorough cleaning this week. The inside of the tank was scraped and scrubbed and given a coat of specially prepared whitewash.

Refilling of the big tank started Wednesday afternoon. About three days will be necessary to fill the tank to proper level, it was announced. Water from the tank will probably be turned into the mains sometime Saturday or Sunday.

Water for town use is now supplied from a smaller tank, the original supply source prior to construction of the big reservoir a few years ago. Seven wells are pumped with electric motors and a big Diesel engine to supply the city's water.

Regular testing by the state laboratory at Austin shows Ozona's water supply 95 percent pure.

Ozona Bakery In New Quarters In Lemmons Building

S. G. McIntosh Buys Business; Install New Oven

A modern bakery with the newest equipment offered is in prospect for Ozona with the purchase last week of the Ozona Bakery by S. G. McIntosh of Lamesa and removal of the establishment from the rear of the Piggly Wiggly store to the Lemmons building at the north end of the business street.

Mr. McIntosh purchased the business from Gordon Brinegar of San Angelo, who, in partnership with Albert Trowbridge, recently purchased it from J. R. Kersey. Brinegar had lately acquired the interest of Trowbridge in the business.

In addition to moving to more commodious and more accessible quarters, the new management has purchased and installed a modern gas fired oven. The bakery opened for business in its new home Wednesday morning, the first baking in the new oven having been done Tuesday night.

Mrs. McIntosh owns a bakery in Lamesa, where he has been in business five years. The Lamesa business is being operated by a son, he and Mrs. McIntosh making their home here. He has been a baker for more than twenty years. Two employes will assist him in operation of the business.

400,000 Pounds Wool Stored In Local Warehouse

Ralph Watson Clip Is Sold At 21 Cents; Market Quiet

Evidence that Spring shearing is in full swing in Crockett County may be seen in the rapidly increasing accumulation of stored wool in the warehouse of the Ozona Wool and Mohair Co. here, Melvin Brown, manager, reported.

A total of approximately 400,000 pounds of fleeces had been stored here up to yesterday, with the clips coming in at a rapid rate for the last several days. With "Cinco de Mayo" celebrations this week-end, however, shearing is at a standstill while shearers join in Independence celebrations over the area. The local warehouse has storage capacity of a million and a half pounds.

Recent sale of the Ralph Watson clip of 8-months wool at 21 cents was reported here this week. A total of 24,000 pounds moved in this sale. A slowing of demand for wool and mohair has been noted in the last few days, but the market is expected to pick up at the 21 to 23 cent level prevailing recently, growers here are predicting.

Miss Nancy Dawes Exhibits Rare Artistic Ability In Concert As Feature Of Music Club Guest Day

Musical Treat Heard By Members And Over 30 Guests

An artist of unusual talent and musical background was "discovered" for many music lovers of Ozona who had not before had opportunity to hear her when Miss Nancy Dawes, public school music teacher in Ozona schools, was presented in a piano concert by the Ozona Music Club Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lee Childress.

The concert was arranged to feature the Guest Day program of the club, which also honored its new members on the occasion. More than thirty guests, besides members of the Music Club who formed the house party, were present for the program.

The afternoon's program opened with two numbers by the Choral Club Steinfeldt's "Song of the River" and Hopkins' "Beneath Thy Lattice."

To admirers of the master, Beethoven, Miss Dawes' interpretation of his Sonata Op. 27 No. 1, her opening number was a soul satisfying experience. Seldom have Ozona music lovers had opportunity to hear an artist who plays with deeper feeling or more artistic ability.

The artist's second group, including compositions by Spanghetti, Maszkowsky, Liszt and Chopin, gave a variety of numbers so beautifully rendered as to make it impossible to say which was the most outstanding. The last number, the very difficult Symphonic Etudes by Schumann, was played with an ease and beauty of tone to be fully appreciated only by those who are more or less familiar with this style of musical literature.

As an encore, Miss Dawes played "Fire Ritual Dance" by DeFolla and one of her own original compositions, which was appreciated by her audience. After hearing Miss Dawes' concert, it was the general verdict of the audience that this community is fortunate in having in its school system one so talented and with such a genuine, substantial musical background.

New members of the Music Club who were given special honor at the meeting were Mrs. Joe Oberkamp, Mrs. Elton Smith, Mrs. Eugene Miller, Mrs. Alvin Harrell, Mrs. Claude Hutsepeth, Jr., Mrs. Clyde Childers, and Mrs. C. J. Van Zandt. Mrs. V. I. Pierce greeted guests and presented them to Mrs. Lee Childress. Mrs. H. E. Tandy presented Mrs. Oberkamp, Mrs. Oberkamp presented Mrs. Elton Smith, Mrs. Bryan McDonald presented Mrs. Van Zandt, and Mrs. Paul Perner presented Mrs. Miller. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Neal Hannah, Mrs. L. E. Cox, Jr., Mrs. Madelon Road, Mrs. W. S. Willis, Mrs. Joe Clayton, Miss Diane Davidson, Miss Jo Demmer, and Mrs. Hubert Baker. Mrs. Charles Williams was at the guest book and exhibited the club's scrap book.

The house was decorated with sweet peas and larkspur in pastel shades. Mrs. Tandy and Mrs.

Mrs. Albert Mariatt of Medway, Ohio, claims a world's record for her Duroc-Jersey sow with its litter of 25 pigs. Mrs. Mariatt, shown here with the sow and some of the 26 pigs which survived, has found it necessary to resort to bottle feeding for most of the piggie family, as the mother can care for only eight.

Strick Harvick presided at the tea table.

Guests of the club for the occasion were Mrs. Walter Augustine, Mrs. Minnie Crumley, Mrs. Claude Dunham, Mrs. W. R. Baggett, Miss Dorothy Stein, Mrs. N. W. Graham, Miss Elizabeth Fussell, Miss Dorothy Drake, Mrs. Lowell Littleton, Mrs. George Bean, Mrs. Phoebe Childress, Mrs. Dempster Jones, Mrs. George Montgomery, Mrs. Scott Peters, Mrs. L. E.
