Noted Home Economist Is Secured To Direct Stockman's 4th Annual Free Cooking School Scheduled April 7-8

Mrs. Arreva French To Conduct 2-Day Event For Housewives

Arrangements have been completed whereby the Stockman has secured the services of Mrs. Arreva D. French, noted Southern home economist, who will conduct the fourth annual Free Cooking School, sponsored by this newspaper, for the benefit of the women of Ozona and vicinity on Thursday and Friday, April 7 and 8.

The two-days cooking school sessions will be held in the basement of the Methodist Church, starting each afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and continuing two hours. New suggestions, new recipes, new dishes, and many new ideas on the kitchen will be brought to the attention of women who attend.

Mrs. French, while a native Texan, received her principal education in Oklahoma, studying at the Southeastern State Teacher's College at Durant, Okla., with all major studies being confined to foods and food preparation. She has taken several specialized courses in the art of cake baking, cake decorating, bread baking and meat cookery. She is an expert on home canning and is an authority on this subject. Before conducting cooking schools, Mrs. French did Civic Organization and County Home Demonstration work.

Food manufacturers and distributors, dealers, utility and other allied business firms will join The Stockman in presenting this feature for the enjoyment and information of the women of this community. A cordial invitation is extended to every woman in Ozona and surrounding territory to attend these daily lectures and demonstrations by a woman who has spent a life time of study in preparing herself for the task of bringing new ideas in kitchen and home management to the women of America.

Sale Of Tickets Gets Under Way For Senior Play

Class To Present "Oh, My Stars" Next Tuesday Evening

Tickets for the annual Senior Play, to be presented in the High School auditorium next Tuesday evening, were placed on sale here early this week. Advance sale of tickets was said to indicate a record attendance for the class effort Tuesday evening.

A three-act comedy, "Oh, My Stars!" was selected for the 1938 Senior play. It has a cast of ten characters and is full of clever dialogue and comic situations. The cast of characters includes Sibel Cooke, Haskell Leath, Jack Baggett, Betty Dudley, Catherine Childress, Maurice Lemmons, Christine Curry, Maudie Mae Couch, Welton Bunker and Lurline Townsend. The production staff includes John Coates as stage manager, Norman Rendall as press agent and property man, P. C. Perner and J. W. Johnigan as business managers and Louise Casbeer as assistant director.

Proceeds from the play will be used by the class in the purchase of some suitable gift for the school as the parting gift of the class of 1938 to their Alma Mater.

OWENS TO BE RELEASED FROM TEMPLE HOSPITAL

Bob Owens, who has been seriously ill for several months, was to have been released from a Temple hospital the middle of this week. Mr. Owens suffered an attack of pneumonia which was followed by complications that necessitated several operations to relieve lung abscesses. He is well on the road to recovery now, however, and is expected to be able to return to his home in the next few days.

TRY-OUTS HELD

Winners By Grades Selected In Contests This Week

Contestants in the various Interscholastic League literary events will take part in the Crockett County meet to be held in the school auditorium next Thursday evening, March 31. It was announced yesterday by Supt. C. S. Denham.

Story telling for the grades from kindergarten through the fourth grade and declamation for the junior high school and high school grades will constitute events in the county meet. The one-act play eliminations will be held at a later date and essay writing, spelling, number sense, music memory, picture memory, typing and other events will be carried out by individual teachers as class room contests.

Selection of story tellers to represent the various grades was made during the past week in eliminations within each grade. Four representatives were picked from each grade, these to compete in the county meet story telling next Thursday night. Winners of first and second place will be presented with medals.

The story tellers by grades who will participate are as follows:

Kindergarten: Joyce Franklin, Betty Cook, Guida Meinecke, and Glenn Capps; first grade: Neva Trull, Jo Nell Russell, Bernard Lemmons and Lillian Schneemann; second grade: Max Word, Joe Perry, Billy Hoover, and Preston Williams, Jr.; third grade: Myrtastine Hokit, Jo Nell Coose, Muggins Davidson and Fred Currie; fourth grade: Nan Tandy, Barbara White, Joyce West and Ruth Townsend.

Nine girls and nine boys from the Junior high grades will take part in the declamation contests. These contestants are Louise Bean, Mary Elizabeth Gray, Lois Evans, Priscilla Baker, Lottie Jo Owens, Zella Lee Thurman, Doris Stokes, Mary Faye Lucas, and Adelle Keeton, and the boys are Stanley Lemmons, Byron Williams, Lloyd Hokit, Charles McDonald, L. B. Cox, Gene Tyer, Tom Ed Montgomery, Jim Ad Harvick and Calvin Williams.

In the high school division, Senior girl declaimers will be Mary Louise Harvick and Noma V. Miller, and the Junior boys division speaker will be Bobby Lemmons.

Winners in the declamation contests will represent the county in their respective divisions at the district meet in Fort Stockton April 15 and 16. Winners in the essay writing and typing contests will also compete in the district meet.

Warns Motorists To Make Way For Fire Equipment

Sheriff Asks Cooperation In Interest Of Safety, Efficiency

A warning to residents of Ozona to make way for the fire engine on its route to a fire and to refrain from driving too near the scene of a fire and thus interfering with efficient performance of duty by the fire fighting crew was issued this week by Sheriff W. S. Willis.

The warning came as an aftermath of an incident on the downtown street Sunday afternoon when the fire engines were blocked momentarily at the highway intersections by a congestion of cars on their way to the scene of the blaze in the Mexican section.

At the sound of the fire alarm, Sheriff Willis said, motorists should clear the streets immediately, drive their cars to the curb if possible, and if not, come to a halt as far to the side of the street as possible, leaving the center of the street clear for the fire trucks. The purpose of the fire alarm, the sheriff pointed out, is not to inform people of a fire so that they might hop into their cars and go see the fun, but to warn them that an emergency exists and that their cooperation is sought in seeing that the fire fighting equipment is permitted to reach the scene in the shortest possible time. Not only does thoughtless blocking of streets delay the fire truck, but it creates a hazard that might conceivably result in a very serious accident, the officer pointed out.

Sheriff Willis also took occasion to warn spectators against driving their cars too near the scene of a fire and thus hampering the work of firemen. Keep cars at least two blocks away from the fire, he ordered.

Interest Mounts In Revival Meet As Close Nears

Large Crowds Attend Services At Baptist Church

Interest in the revival meeting now under way at the Ozona Baptist Church is mounting each day and crowds are increasing at each meeting, it was reported last night by Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor.

Last night's services saw the largest attendance of the meeting. The evening was featured by the group attendance of 92 members of the Booster Band, an organization of youngsters from seven to sixteen years of age. The Boosters have set their aim at 150 for this afternoon's meeting and 100 at tonight's service. Sunday's church school attendance goal has been set at 125.

Up to last night, there had been two additions by letter and five conversions, the pastor reported.

Good crowds are attending each morning service at 10:15. The pastor, Rev. Clyde Childers, is preaching from the 11th chapter of Hebrews on "Heroes of Faith" at these services.

Tonight Rev. Childers will preach on "The Devil." A group of visitors will be here for that service from Eldorado, bringing a group of singers who will present a special number, "I Dreamed I Searched Heaven for You." The Booster Band will again lead the congregational singing. Rev. J. E. Bagley of Charlotte, Texas, who is directing song services and young people's work, is making a big hit with the congregation.

Rev. Childers last night announced sermon subjects for the balance of the meeting. Tonight's subject will be "The Devil." Friday night will be "Eight Blockades on the Road to Hell." Sunday morning's topic will be "Heaven" and the final sermon subject for Sunday evening will be "The Judgment." Baptismal services will be held at the conclusion of the meeting Sunday evening.

FIRE OPENING GUN IN PLANS FOR FAIR SAT.

Pattern For 1938 Show Will Be Cut In Session At 4 p. m.

URGES TO ATTEND

President Wayne West Asks Support Of Citizens In Plan

Crockett County Rodeo, Race Meet, Stock Show and Sale, will be cut at a mass meeting of interested citizens with officers and directors and members of the Crockett County Fair Association at the Hotel Ozona Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Date for this organization meeting was fixed at the first 1938 meeting of the association last month. At that initial meeting, the financial report of the association was presented and preliminary discussions of this year's show plans made.

A full attendance at next Saturday's meeting is urged by President Wayne West. This is one of the most important meetings of the year as affecting the success of the 1938 show, the president pointed out, and every person interested in the success of the celebration program is urged to be present and on time.

Definite decision by vote of the assembly will be reached at Saturday's meeting on holding this year's show, and plans will be launched at once for the event if a majority favor staging the show this year, which is regarded as probable.

Election of new officers and directors for the coming year will be a feature of the meeting, President West said. Appointment of committees and other routine matters coincident with getting the "ball to rolling" toward a "bigger and better" show will be disposed of during the session.

"The success of the show this year, as in all other years, depends on the interest taken by members of the association and the citizenship in general," Mr. West declared. "It takes everybody to make the show a success and we are expecting a full attendance at Saturday's meeting to tip off the fireworks for the 1938 show."

One More Week Left For Buying New Auto Plates

Registration Office Urges Motorists To Avoid Rush

What amounts to an ultimatum to automobile owners of Crockett County was issued this week from the office of Sheriff W. S. Willis by Office Deputy Claude Russell, in charge of issuance of automobile license plates.

Only one more week remains in which to purchase new license plates for 1938, the deputy pointed out, and a little more than a third of the prospective registration had been entered this week.

Licenses must be secured during the month of March and must be in place on all vehicles by April 1, the sheriff's office pointed out. Unless business picks up sharply in the next day or so, an unprecedented congestion of last-minute seekers for plates is expected the last of next week when the deadline approaches.

Easter Egg Hunt Is Sponsored By Boy Scout Troop

Scouts Take Over Annual Event Formerly Held By Lions

Ozona's Boy Scout troop No. 53 will sponsor an Easter Egg Hunt for the children of Ozona on Easter Sunday afternoon, it was decided at the troop meeting Tuesday night.

Each Scout in the organization will contribute a dozen eggs for the hunt and the boys themselves will dye the eggs and hide them. Altogether it has not been definitely decided and announced, it is thought that the hunt will be held on the hilltop near the Scout cabin, where annual egg hunts were formerly held under auspices of the Ozona Lions Club.

The hunt will start at 2:30 Sunday afternoon and will be open to all children eleven years of age or under.

A MATTER OF TIMING

With the perfection of timing that has marked all his moves, Hitler dropped into Austria for the week end, and departed three days later with the nation neatly tied up in his military knapsack. The annexation of the Hapsburg empire, which ought to have earned Der Fuehrer a diploma in the course of "How to Start a War," will probably serve to clear rather than muddle the European skies.

The timing was indeed perfect! France, without premier or cabinet, was helpless. England, her "good friend" policy just announced, remained silent. Italy, attracted by the English olive branch, was willing to barter Austria for a helping hand in Spain. Russia, her strong men dropped by Stalin's guns, had little inclination to face foreign firing squads.

The present, then, sees Austria and Spain sacrificed to the expansion of the dictators. In point of fact, the annexation of the Viennese state was probably justified in effect if not in means. All who heard Hitler's reception at Linz as it came across the air were forced to admit that at least all those within shouting distance were violently in favor of "one Reich, one nation, and one fatherland." The fate of Spain is more tragic, but even it has not moved the democratic bloc to action.

Sharp on the future's horizon lies the gaunt figure of Czechoslovakia, already half swallowed geographically by Germany. On that front, it is safe to predict, the crisis will be reached. On the line of the Bohmer Wald, Europe will rise towards peace or fall towards war.

Will Hitler seek to bite one more lump from the map of Europe, or will he digest his Austrian dinner? If he chooses to enjoy his meal, the fate of Austria may mean peace for the rest of Europe.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED

The United States contains six per cent of the world's area, and seven per cent of the world's population.

That seven per cent normally consumes 48 per cent of the world's coffee, 58 per cent of its tin, 56 per cent of its rubber, 21 per cent of its sugar, 72 per cent of its silk, 42 per cent of its pig iron, 47 per cent of its copper, and 69 per cent of its crude petroleum.

That seven percent operates 60 per cent of the world's telephones and telegraphs, owns 80 per cent of its motor cars, grows 60 per cent of its cotton, and produces 70 per cent of its oil.

That seven per cent owns half the world's gold.

But that seven per cent, possessing such a giant share of the world's goods, can't keep its own house in order! Those are the figures and that is the indictment of an English economist writing in The Sphere.

His conclusion, uncomfortable as it is, ought to strike home to every American. America has the means and the might to make the wheels of industry turn. America has the cotton, steel, wheat, copper, oil, and manpower to feed, clothe, and house her citizens like the kings of the earth.

America has the power! What has happened to the machine?

on Texas calendars as National Wild Life Week.

Wild Life Week, just to keep the matter straight, has to do not with the popping of corks in a night club, but with the popping of guns in a Lake Sabine duck blind; with the zing of a tarpon line rather than the swing of a jazz band; with the haze of early morning in Big Bend park rather than the daze of early morning in a Dallas night spot.

Under the leadership of Jay Darling, president of the General Wild Life Federation, this week has been set aside to acquaint the public with the fight being made to conserve America's forests, fish and game. The right to hunt and fish is a privilege dear to millions of Americans. That privilege, however, may soon pass if the ducks, geese, and deer perish.

Texas has already made long strides towards conservation of her game and fish. Almost three million acres of private land are posted as game sanctuaries and Big Bend park will add another million to this total.

Conservation means more than sport! The problems of denuded forests and vanishing game can't end with the passing of the antelope and deer. Water impairment, erosion, and range reduction are but first steps towards drouth, dust storms, and floods. Wild Life Week may mean the zip of a striking bass or the zest of an early morning tramp in the woods. It may also mean restoration of Texas' primitive wealth, and protection against those three step-children of wasted land—erosion, drouth, and flood.

THE SOIL OF TEXAS

Texas is winning the fight to keep the soil of Texas in Texas! That fact is revealed this week in the annual report of Texas A. and M. College. With millions of tons of top soil drifting down river to the Gulf, Texas was each year exporting more and more of her basic wealth, soil, and less and less of the products of that soil, cotton, beans, and rice.

The 1937 Soil and Water Conservation report shows that more than three million acres of valuable farm land have been given the protection of terracing and contour planting during the past year. From gradual beginnings 25 years ago, the work has advanced Denton, March 23— If you are an adherent to the belief that cheese develops a better flavor with age, then keep it long if you will, but don't keep it in the oven. Care should be taken not to bake a cheese dish beyond the just-done stage.

Although a baked cheese dish should be light and moist, it must never be sticky. It should be well-browned, at least, on top; it should hold its shape after being removed from the oven and is better if served at once.

Cheese Fondue

(Six servings) Scald one cup milk in double boiler. Add one cup rather stale bread cubes, one tablespoon butter, and one half teaspoon salt. Stir the bread mixture into three egg yolks (well beaten). Cook slowly over hot water until the mixture is slightly thickened; stir constantly. Cool slightly. Fold in one cup grated cheese and three stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour in to greased baking dish. Place in deep pan of warm water. Bake in moderate oven (375 F.) forty to forty five minutes, or until a knife thrust into the center comes out clean. Serve with Tomato Sauce.

Tomato Sauce

Melt two tablespoons butter. Add one half teaspoon chopped onion and fry until cream colored. Add two tablespoons flour and stir until smooth. Remove from heat and stir in one cup tomato (strained), or tomato juice. Cook, stirring constantly, for five to ten minutes, or until of the desired creamy consistency.

Cheese Souffle

(Four to six servings) Melt two tablespoons butter in top of double boiler. Add two tablespoons flour and one half teaspoon salt and stir until smooth and blended. Remove from heat and add one cup rich milk. Stir until well mixed. Return to heat and cook for five minutes, or until of creamy consistency. Place over hot water and add one cup grated cheese and one

Although twelve Texas writers are listed in the 1936-37 Who's Who, there is not a single Texan on the list of Pulitzer Prize Winners since these awards were originated in 1917. John Francis Knott, Dallas News cartoonist, won honorable mention for the best newspaper cartoon of 1937, but otherwise Texas is absent from the Pulitzer roll call. What's Wrong With the PRESS CLUB?

The things wrong with the Press Club are: not enough news, not long enough, and not on time.

Some parts of the "Lion's Roar" like "The Prowler," "Campus Philosophy," and the Grade School News which are so important that they occupy "only" one third of the paper are not often in on time, that is on Friday.

Did you know that when any important things happen, those in the Press Club think so little about it that the item they often send in is so short that it wouldn't make a "first class filler."

Those things that happen Wednesday, why are they never in until Monday? Why can't Assembly programs be ready to be typed Friday morning? Why can't Athletic events which happen on Saturday be written on Sunday, and ready to be typed on Monday morning? Why can't articles be longer? Why can't the "Lion's Roar" be tops in school papers?

There are some students who have only two school nights a week off. They are attending some school activity. Some Press Club member should cover every one of these school activities by Wednesday at least, and that will leave two school days for correcting and typing.

If you are a Press Club member, please come to the editor and get your definite assignment each week!

FORESIGHT

Nathaniel Hawthorne, an American novelist, whose solitary, moody, and introspective life led him to search the "inner man's" conscience, soul, and character, once said, when he wrote "David Swan," that we can be but partially acquainted with the events which actually influence our course through life and our final destiny. He stated that there are innumerable events which come close to us, yet pass without actual results or without betraying their near approach.

Hawthorne said, "Could we know all the vicissitudes of our fortunes, life would be too full of hope and fear, exultation or disappointment, to afford us a single hour of true serenity. Sleeping or waking, we hear not the airy footsteps of the strange things that almost happen. Does it not argue a superstitious Providence that, while witness and unexpected events thrust themselves continually athwart our path, there should still be regularity enough to mortal life to render foresight even partially available?"

GENEROSITY

Do you remember in last week's editorial entitled "Emerson on gifts" something about the difficulty of giving to generous people, because they return a gift which is much better than the one you gave? Don't you think that can apply to other things as well? As an example, suppose members of an organization decide to exchange gifts at Christmas. The chances are that every year someone will try to give a better present than someone else, and everyone else will try to keep up or ahead of those, until those gifts at Christmas are a nuisance to give. That idea, which originated from a friendly attitude, has become nonsense because some over-generous person ruined it. That act of too much generosity has done much harm than good; in fact, it has done about no good. Some people try to impress other people by the expense of their gifts; almost all of these too-generous people wish to show off their money. So, just why must people ever be generous.

ON TO BIG LAKE

On Wednesday of this week our team of typists will go to Big Lake where they will participate in a practice meet where several schools will take part. The event will be at 2 o'clock. The team includes Adelia Willis and Ora Louise Cox.

Note Of Appreciation From Dr. Morelock

Mr. H. W. Morelock, president of Sul Ross State Teacher's College, who spoke to the student body recently, sent a note of appreciation to Supt. C. S. Denham.

The letter said in part: "I thoroughly enjoyed my visit with you and your faculty and students. You have one of the best high school buildings I have examined, your equipment is first class, you have kept the building in fine shape. Moreover, you seem to have an unusually fine student body, and your school spirit is excellent. I congratulate you upon your achievements. To be brief, I believe that the Ozona High School is 'Classic' in every particular. I enjoyed my visit with you personally and professionally, and I appreciate the courtesies you extended to me."

UNUSUAL BOOKS

A type of literature that every student should read more is poetry; in our library there is an abundance of books on this type of literature. For those who are ranch minded, "Cowboy Songs" by Lomax is the book to read; or if one especially likes birds and flowers, there is "Wayside Flowers" by William Wordsworth which is written on nature. For those who do not enjoy the more serious type "A Nonsense Anthology" selected by Carolyn Wells is ideal. Below is a poem quoted from this book.

"A Love Song by a Lunatic"
 There's not a spider in the sky,
 There's not a glowworm in the sea,
 There's not a crab that soars on high,
 But bids me dram, dear maid, of thee!
 When watery Phoebus plough the main,
 When fiery Luna gilds the lea,
 As flies run up the windowpane,
 So fly my thoughts, dear love, to thee!

WHO—WHAT—WHY?

Phillip; popular; because there's not another like him.
 Jean D.; happy; she has nothing to be unhappy about.
 Ora Louise; brilliant; if we knew, maybe we'd all be.
 Mickie; sweet; just because.
 Howard; nonchalant; because he has nothing else to do.
 Maurice; good looking; because we all think so.
 P. C.; self-centered; just because he wants to be.
 Frances W.; worried; about making forty words in typing.
 Eloise; slow; 'cause she's always been that way.
 J. W.; lazy; spring's here.
 Christine C.; valedictorian; because she made the highest average. Logical isn't it?
 Jack B.; heartbroken; 'cause he's so good looking.
 Jim D.; unconcerned; because it really doesn't matter.
 Buren; musician; hours to practice.

GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

SECOND GRADE

The second grade has been making fire posters. We have made eight of them and put them up. We made a telephone switchboard. We made up numbers for ourselves or used our own numbers.

THIRD GRADE

The third grade is studying about ways to send messages. Mr. Carruthers made us a machine that sends dots and dashes. He made a telephone too.
 Miss Allison brought her radio up to the room. Mr. Hollon fixed it for us. — Jo Nell Coese.

We have made a living room out of boxes. Miss Allison brought her radio. It will play. We broadcast sometimes, but we don't every day. The radio is not connected to the station.

We have a telephone booth. We sent our name over it.
 We went out in the hall, Jo Nell and Myrtastine stayed in the room and talked to us. When we heard something we came in the room. — Palma Trull.

Carrying the Mail

We have finished our pictures. They are ways of carrying mail. We have the stage coach, the pony express, the first train, the train we use now, a ship, a boat, a bus, the pigeon carrier and the covered wagon. — Myrtastine Hokit.

Our Living Room

We have made a living room. We have four little chairs in our living room. We have a radio. Jo Nell Coese and I are making a bookcase. — Mildred Porter.

Our Visit to the Telephone Office

The third grade visited the telephone office, Wednesday. Mrs. showed us the switchboard and Mrs. Rannion showed us the telephone office. We surely did have a good time at the telephone office. She asked us to come back any time we wished and look it over. — J. W. Terry.

The American pictures are: The Artist Mother, Whistler; The American Gotee, Wood; The Alamo, Guerin; Christ at Emmas, Melchers; Elephants, Curry; Mexican Child, Rivera; The Mill Pond, Innes.

The one the fifth grade likes best is "The Artist's Mother" by Whistler. We are studying records too.

The Flower Garden Jo Nell Coese

Once upon a time there was a beautiful garden. An old man kept it. The flowers that bloomed were so pretty the people often stopped to look at them. One day the old man was away. A child came along and stopped to pick some of the flowers. A man saw him and said:

"What do you mean by picking the flowers?"
 "I never had any flowers," said the boy, "can't I have some?"
 "I guess so," replied the man. The boy got his flowers and lived happily ever after.

The seventh grade girls took part in the chapel program Thursday afternoon. They sang three songs, "Thanks Be to God," "Shortening Bread," and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling."

Track Meet At Barnhart

On Saturday, March 19, Coach White took his Junior and Senior track teams to the annual Range Country District track meet held at Barnhart. Although they failed to score a large number of points, the team enjoyed the trip to its fullest extent.

The Senior track team, a one-man affair since Beecher Montgomery was injured at a meet in Sonora, participated in the 440-yard dash, 100-yard dash, the low hurdles, the broadjump, and the shot put. In the shot put, Howard Lemmons, representing our Senior track team, won fourth place; and in the 100-yard dash, he won third place, although he did not place in the other events.

And now to the Junior team! Floyd Hokit, by an inspiring finish, managed to race down second in the 50-yard dash. Jim Dudley, another Junior track man, won third place in the broad jump. The Junior relay team failed to place in the 220-yard and 440-yard relays.

P. C.: Darling, I need you. I can't live without you! You're my inspiration in life. Without you I would be a failure. You're my guiding star, my light. With you at my side, I could climb the highest mountain, swim the deepest river — oh, I could go through eternal torment for you, dear. Will you marry me?
 Dorothy H. (meekly): Well, do you love me?

Jack B.: Welton, is that a Jersey cow over there?
 Welton: I couldn't tell you, I couldn't find its license.

Howard: I've changed my mind.
 Maurice: Well, does it work any better.

During the course of conversation in English class Phillip was heard to remark about "Chaucer's stenographer." Miss Terry was immediately interested.
 Good heavens, Phillip! What makes you think Chaucer had a stenographer?

Why just look at that spelling, will you? quote Phillip.

Long Distance calls go through while you "hold the line"

"OUR JOB IS TO MAKE SERVICE FASTER"

The men who head the telephone company have always believed even good service can be better. Their aim, like that of every other telephone worker, has been better and better service at low cost to the user. One result is that today you can call distant cities as quickly, as easily, as you telephone across the street.

A few years ago it took seven minutes (average) to make a long distance connection. Today the average time is 96 seconds!

Welton B. surely talks a big Lois. We wonder if it all is true. I think Boyd should move to Sonora. His mind is always over there.

I wonder why Crystelle wanted to come home so soon Saturday from Barnhart.

Campus Philosophy

By Billy Joe West

When human beings become intelligent enough to fight nature's forces, instead of fighting each other, battles against deserts, sand and winds, will be far more important, and glorious, than Waterloo or the Marne.

It is impossible to keep religion out of any discussion. There is no great invention from fire to flying which has not been hailed as an insult to some god.

Exercise of the will is the power to concentrate thought and keep it concentrated.

Money wasted can be got back, labor wasted is wasted forever. Pity the country or individual in which no dissatisfaction exists, for there you have an end of improvement.

Scout Notes

By Miles Pierce

The meeting of March 22 opened with the Scout oath and the raising of the flag by Norman Adall and Willie Jo Hubbard. On Easter Sunday, at 2:30 p. m. the Scouts are sponsoring an Easter egg hunt. All children that are 11 or under are invited to this hunt. Each Scout will donate one dozen eggs, and on Easter morning the Scouts will hide them. Leslie Nance and John Flecher received their tenderfoot badge to night. These boys have worked very hard on this rank in Scouting and are very proud of their first badge as a Boy Scout of America. Leslie Nance is of the Fox Patrol, whose leader is Miles Pierce, and John Flecher is of the Indian Patrol, whose leader is Bill Carson. Charles McDonald made a talk on the origin of the Scout badge. Welton Bunker told the boys who did not go on the trip to Devils River what they had missed. This is a little of what he said: The Scouts of Troop 53 went to Devils River last Friday afternoon, March 18. The Fox Patrol was first there. They waited until Jack Baggett got there and he led us to the wrong place. After we finally got settled each patrol built a fire and started supper. That night we hiked up and down the river. The next morning we were up early and each patrol ate breakfast. There were two boys who had the privilege of eating in bed. They were served by the Fox Patrol. (I guess that was all right because they didn't get in until real late.) That morning after breakfast had been eaten we started out to fish and swim. After a busy morning of swimming and fishing and riding the canvas boat that Joe Patrick had, we set out to eat. This time each patrol ate off of the Fox Patrol.

If you want to know the story and actually see it, see Mr. Hollon who had with him a candid camera which was always taking pictures Roy Henderson who was taking movies, and Miles Pierce who was also taking movies.

The "Honor Patrol" banner arrived. It looks as though there are about three patrols who haven't done much studying but largely eating. If you want to see the best patrol room in my opinion, go to the Fox Patrol room, where they have curtains for their windows already, and the rest of their patrol room is also decorated very nicely. The Fox Patrol also has 18 Scouts in attendance, which is enough to have two patrols and 2 boys left over.

Ten years in prison for stealing $1.18 was the penalty given by Judge Michael Gernberg to Clinton Adams of Chicago who looted a man's purse on a street car.

National Used Car Sale Clears Dealer Stocks For Trading

Aware of the general interest in National Used Car Exchange Week, recently concluded, W. J. Stevens, local Ford dealer, this week asserted that it had been of immense benefit locally.

"A concerted action of this kind could not help but have a noticeable effect in the community," Mr. Stevens said.

"What is more, every owner of a car who contemplated purchase of a new 1938 car, will find that he has been benefited individually.

"Analysis of the situation will make this plain. When a dealer

"This is the very pleasant state of affairs which followed in the wake of National Used Car Exchange Week."

Mr. Stevens declared that the trading position of his firm had been greatly improved and that people who had been waiting for the right time to buy a new car can now feel assured of an acceptable trade.

You are Paying for this . . .

WHY NOT OWN IT?

YOU can buy, own and operate a Servel Electrolux—the Gas or Kerosene refrigerator—for what your refrigeration costs you now. In other words, you are paying for it now. Why do without it?

We can show you this, with actual figures. They will open your eyes.

Servel Electrolux actually pays for itself in your home—in cash, in dollars and cents—and then pays you a profit besides. What other home equipment does that?

Of course, Servel Electrolux is a different kind of refrigerator. Entirely different from all others. And the only one of its kind. Its freezing unit has no moving parts. Think what that means—no pistons, gears, wheels, belts, bearings. Not one single thing to wear. And no noise. It can't make a noise.

For a tiny gas (or kerosene) flame does all the work. And does it for just a few cents' worth of gas or kerosene a week. A small down payment puts it in your home. You're paying for it anyway—why not own it? Why not NOW?

SERVEL ELECTROLUX THE Gas REFRIGERATOR (OR KEROSENE)

8 Years' Service—Not 1 Cent Repairs!

"Eight years ago when I was looking for the best refrigerator to buy, a friend said: Buy a Servel Electrolux and your worries will be over for all time. There will be no noisy motor to disturb you; there will be only a slight difference in the amount of your gas bill; and not a cent for repairs. He was right. I call the Electrolux 'my household magician', so quietly, perfectly and inexpensively does it work—and with nothing to wear out. It has brought the luxury of perfect refrigeration into my home in a way anyone can afford."—MRS. F. M. BELL, 1527 Owasso St., Fort Worth, Texas.

• BOTTLED GAS

SOLID GROUND

The ground on which concrete or masonry steps are to be placed should be solid and not recently filled. Ground that is recently filled will settle over a long period, and the steps will settle with it.

FOLDING DOORS

Sometimes the door to a bathroom or closet cannot be opened without knocking into fixtures. A door divided in two vertically and hinged with double action hinges might prove helpful.

CAREFULLY FIT EXPOSED TRIM

When installing a porch rail and trim or other exterior portions of the house which are exposed to the weather all of the pieces should be fit together so that water does not drain into the joints. This precaution will assist in preventing deterioration of the material and result in a lower maintenance cost.

Quality Paint, Well Applied Is Home Protection

Skimping in painting is the poorest kind of economy a homebuilder can exercise, Dallas real estate men agree.

"The outside paint of a house is the skin that protects the structure and it is the most conspicuous feature of the house," a Dallas builder of many years' experience said Saturday. "Discolored, cracked or peeling paint will spoil the appearance of the best designed house.

"As soon as the paint coat starts to give way the whole exterior structure is open to the attacks of the elements. If let go until real deterioration starts the expense will be far greater in repainting because all of the old paint must be removed before the new is applied.

"To put new paint over disintegrating old paint is a waste of time and money. Paint has only the strength of its base coat. If that has lost its grip on the surface no amount of new paint will strengthen that hold.

"Next to poor workmanship and materials moisture is the greatest enemy to paint. Moisture may come from within the house as well as from without, and to insure a good paint job the back of all outside wood should be painted before it is erected.

"The original paint job is of great importance. First class materials, expertly mixed and placed are the only insurance against large future repair bills."

ROOMS SHOULD BE HARMONIOUS

When a room or an entire house is to be redecorated, care should be taken that rooms which open into another harmonize. One housewife, who did not wish the entire first floor of her house with the same wall finish, although the rooms all opened into a central hall, had each room finished in a different shade, varying from cream to a dark brown.

BOOK SHELVES HIDE OFFENSIVE RADIATOR

Book shelves the same height as the radiator and on either side will help to conceal it. When possible, the bookcase can extend across an entire wall. When the radiator is at one end of the wall a cupboard can be built at the other end for balance. One row of books above the radiator will conceal it further.

THE WORLD THIS WEEK

By Robert Patterson

SCRATCHING FROM SCRATCH

All the perplexity and mental gymnastics which provide the harrowing accomplishment while America fills out its annual income tax blanks have now faded into the past till another March comes knocking at the door. Though this task left not a few mild headaches on its wake, it also brought its potpourri of comedy and pathos. Taxpayer or not, what American can fail to appreciate the plight which has befallen a Kentucky man confronted with a Federal income tax bill of $7.40. His salary of $400 a month is no more, he says. Someone took his job. The finance company took his car. Someone else took his home. His wife took all the furniture, then departed with another man. Having nothing left but his health and his education, this luckless man wants to pay off his $7.40 bill, working in the Department of Internal Revenue. Uncle Sam said "No!" This week he starts scratching from scratch.

GAMES IN THE SEA

On the stage of the biggest theatre of action the world has ever known, a triangular area in the Pacific enclosing 12 million square miles, the U.S. Navy wages far-flung mock warfare from now till the end of April. These maneuvers are known by the name of "games," but there'll be little light hearted frolicking from the 80,000 men aboard some 150 fighting craft participating in these, the most gruelling tests the fleet has ever undertaken in peacetime. Today "war" rages in the Pacific, but instead of guns, ships flash sudden beams of searchlights on enemy craft, instead of bombs, planes drop flares, and instead of torpedo hits, submarines release smoke bombs. These are the devices which symbolize the death locked struggles of warfare. But they symbolize not only America's might, but America's determination to employ that might, not for aggression, but for defense, not to foster war, but to hinder it.

POLITICS AHEAD!

More than two years must roll by before America begins to talk, think, and worry in earnest about the presidential sweepstakes, but already aspiring standard bearers are silhouetted against the political skyline from both the Republican and Democratic ranks. But as far as the voters themselves are concerned at the present moment, they're rooting for personalities with whom they are already familiar. According to the American Institute of Public Opinion, there's no great inclination to rally behind newcomers to the political arena. Many Democrats today appear to favor John Garner or Jim Farley as their choice for presidential nominee. Republicans are unanimous in their support of Senator Vandenberg of Michigan. But much more significant than voters' current favorites for the great race two years hence, will be the Fall congressional campaigns. They're the barometers to foretell how the gusty winds of 1940 may blow!

JUSTICE IN SLOW TIME

Truly, the mills of justice do sometimes grind slow! Here the citizens of Hampton, N. H., have just restored full citizenship to one Eunice Cole, flogged and sentenced to life imprisonment for "familiarity with the devil" back in 1656. Though the hapless woman, victimized by witchcraft persecution, was later released from jail, she lived alone and despised for the remainder of her days. Gathering in the old town meeting house recently, Hampton inhabitants attempted to right that wrong. All official documents containing the false accusations are to be burned, and Eunice Cole's ashes are to be "reverently" re-interred. Exoneration has arrived just 282 years too late to bring solace to the accused woman. By no means did it arrive too late to give us helpful warning of the irreparable wrongs and shameful misdeeds which can be legally committed when passion and prejudice instead of compassion and consideration, grip the minds of men.

THE WORLD AROUND US

You have probably suspected

TEST, TEST AND TEST

AMERICAN industry, according to Consumers Information, surpasses that of any other country in its exact methods of testing products and so assuring maximum performance before passing them on to the user. One company reports, for instance, that 25% of its labor and cost of production goes into testing. Above are shown tests of two of the 600 different operations which go into the manufacture of their vacuum cleaners. The young lady is balancing the fan, an intricate job in which she puts tiny drops of solder on the light side until the balance is perfect. Inset, operator testing air passage, suction power and wattage, on a government test-block.

this before, but here come proof of it in the black and white figures of a University of Chicago survey. It reveals nothing less than 91 per cent of America's adult population read at least one newspaper. There's an answer for the gloomy of heart who feared newsmagazines would supersede newspapers, that radio's chime signals sounded the forlorn death-knell of papers. But as it's been said before, only the home town paper can provide the full and vivid picture of the world and people around us.

tures while actually doing the things she is talking about. The dishes, both of the plain and fancy variety, which she prepares, will be on display at the close of each lecture, and you are invited to remain after the lecture and discuss your personal problems in cookery and home management with her.

"Hunger never takes a holiday," Mrs. French declares. "The health, hope and happiness, not only of the individual and the family, but also of the nation and the world, depend largely on the way the housewife discharges her duty of properly feeding her household."

In addition to the enjoyment and practical benefits to be derived, you have other attractions in store for you at the cooking school. A large list of attractive samples, souvenirs and gifts will be arranged as in former years, and a good time is in store for all who attend. Remember the dates, April 7 and 8,—make a date with yourself now. The men, too, are invited.

METHODIST CHURCH Eugene Slater, Minister

Sunday School — 9:45 a. m.
Morning Worship — 11:00 a. m.
Young People's — 6:45 p. m.
Evening Worship — 7:45 p. m.
Woman's Missionary Society, Wednesday - 3:00 p. m.
Mid-Week Service, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.
Choir Rehearsal, Wednesday, 8:00 p. m.

Throughout our nation there seems to be a deep-seated hunger for God and for the Good Life. This Church earnestly hopes that it can do two things; first, that it can help to quicken that hunger; and second, that through its fellowship, its worship, and its ministry it can point people to Him who still satisfies hungry souls. We ask all the folk of this community to attend some church service every Sunday. You will find real help in this practice, and you will influence someone else who needs the strength to which the Church keeps pointing.

The date of our District Conference is April 19-20. Ozona is honored in being host to the San Angelo District on this occasion. Of special interest to all of us is the fact that the Rev. Marshall Steel, Pastor of the Highland Park Methodist Church in Dallas, is to be our Conference preacher. Be sure to mark the date, April 19-20, as an event that you cannot miss.
