Damage Of Nearly $1,000 To Hoover Home Result Fire

Defective Furnace Responsible For Noon-day Blaze

Fire, resulting from a defective heating plant, caused damage estimated at nearly $1,000 to the home of Mrs. Laura Hoover here at noon last Thursday.

The fire had already made considerable headway when Mrs. Hoover discovered it. The blaze had eaten through around one of the hot air vents from the plant in the basement and had worked up between the walls to the attic when the fire department arrived on the scene. But for the work of Fire Chief Joe North and his crew, with the two fire engines, the blaze would have been out of control in a few minutes more.

Several pieces of furniture were damaged by fire, smoke and water, although most of the contents of the home was removed to safety. Workmen are at work this week repairing the damage and refinishing the interior. No insurance was carried on the property.

"Buck" Fight Results In $14 Fine For Both

When two bucks fight, it's usually of concern to some ranchman, but hardly a matter for the law as was the case here Sunday when Buck Brown and Buck Davis were arrested on charges of an affray and booked in justice court, where Monday morning they paid fines of $1 and costs each.

J. C. Williams and Cal Warrior, negroes, also paid $1 and cost fines Monday morning on charges of drunkenness and disturbing the peace. Jose Tobar, charged with disturbing the peace in the Mexican quarter, drew a similar fine.

Dr. Tandy May Be Able To Return Home This Week

Dr. H. B. Tandy, who was taken to a hospital in Abilene last week, is reported this week as making satisfactory recovery and is expected to be able to return to his home here by the end of this week, barring the development of further trouble. Examination of the physician in the Abilene hospital indicated a possible appendicitis but physicians could not be certain and with his continued improvement decided that an operation would not be necessary.

Mrs. Tandy and the children returned here early in the week.

Bright Baggett has been ill several days this week, suffering from a severe cold and flu.

Mrs. W. F. Coates, Pioneer Resident Of Crockett County, Honored On Her 80th Birthday At Big Family Dinner Here

30 Descendants Gather To Celebrate Event

Thirty descendants of Mrs. W. F. Coates, resident of Crockett County since 1890 and head of one of the pioneer families of this county, gathered at the Fleet Coates residence here Tuesday to honor the Crockett pioneer on her eightieth birthday.

Still vigorous and able to enjoy life to its fullest, Mrs. Coates spent a happy day surrounded by her children, grand children, great grand children and in-laws gathered to do her honor on her birthday. At the noon hour, she was the honored guest at a big family dinner of turkey and trimmings, with a huge three-tiered birthday cake, elaborately decorated, as the centerpiece of the table. The cake was topped with a replica of a sailboat, the sails of which bore the dates, 1858-1938, the words "Mother" and "Happy Birthday" being inscribed on the first and second tiers, the elaborately formed ship topping the creation.

Mrs. Coates' seven children, five sons and two daughters, were all present. They are Roscoe, Fleet and Charley of Ozona, Collins and Ford Coates, Fort Stockton, Miss Dollye Coates of Ozona and Mrs. Letitia Barton of San Antonio. Grand children present were Betty Lou Coates, daughter of Roscoe Coates; John, Dennis Fleet, Jr., Roy and Joy Coates and Mrs. Gladine Kost, children of Mr. and Mrs. Fleet Coates; Mrs. Dorothy Seagert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Barton; P. Ghosts Of Gay Nineties Walk Again For Former Ozona Saloon Keeper On First Visit In 39 Years

Ghostly shadows of men of another age walked the modern streets of Ozona yesterday for a former resident who was visiting the city for the first time since leaving here 39 years ago.

Shadows of the days when Ozona was a roaring cowtown of the nineties, when there were two saloons for every one of any other type of business house, and when men of the range come to town after payday to make whoopee in the night spots and when gun play of varying degrees of seriousness was a night life occurrence.

Rising above Ozona's modern business buildings of brick and stone, there must have been for this visitor the vision of wooden buildings with their high false

Bill Johnigan Is Candidate For J. P. Post

Incumbent By Appointment Has Had Experience In Office

Bill Johnigan, a veteran in Crockett County politics, has returned to the political arena of the Ozona precinct with his announcement this week of his candidacy for Justice of the Peace for Precinct No. 1.

Mr. Johnigan, who has had many years experience in the justice office in years past, is now serving in that capacity under appointment of the Commissioners Court to serve out the unexpired term of J. T. Glover, who recently resigned because of failing health.

Mr. Johnigan served four years in the J. P. office 28 years ago. He served another term about ten years ago and again three years ago. For many years he was deputy sheriff here.

Simultaneously with his appointment to the justice office, Mr. Johnigan was appointed by the Commissioners Court to be caretaker of county property and buildings, the two posts being remunerative enough to make it attractive enough for him to resign as driver of the Powell Field school bus, this position being taken by A. H. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Rape left yesterday for a week's visit with friends and relatives in Dallas, Fort Worth and Commerce.

Mrs. Walter Green Slightly Hurt, Cars Damaged In Wreck

Mrs. Walter Green suffered slight cuts from flying glass when a car which she was driving collided with one driven by Mrs. Bill Taylor early this morning. The accident occurred in front of the grade school building.

Mrs. Green had just let her children out in front of the school and started to turn around when the two cars hit head on. Both cars were badly wrecked. Mrs. Taylor was not injured.

New Staff Takes Charge Of School Paper Next Issue

Quill Passed By Senior Group At Banquet Of Press Club

With the next issue of The Lions' Roar, Ozona High School newspaper run as a section of the Stockman each week, a new staff will be in charge. A new editor-in-chief, assistant editor and a reorganized reportorial staff have been named by the High School Press Club, and at a banquet staged by the Press Club at the Hotel Ozona Tuesday evening, the quill was passed by the retiring editor to the new.

Jeff Fussell, who has been a member of the staff this year, was elected by his fellows as editor-in-chief, succeeding Welton Bunger. Ora Louise Cox was named assistant editor, filling the position heretofore held by Norman Rendall. Other members of the reorganized staff include Doris Bunter, Crystelle Carson, Dorothy Hannah, Miles Pierce, W. B. Robertson, Billy Jo West, Jean Drake, Howard Lemmons, Adelia Willis, Mary Alyce Smith, Lois Jones, Betty Lou Coates, Walter Escue and Posey Baggett. Frances West will act as typist.

The change in the staff was made at this mid-term period in order that members who are seniors might step out to permit themselves more time for attention to their school work, which will become heavier as graduation nears.

Thirty-five Press Club members and their guests enjoyed a banquet and program in the ballroom of the Hotel Ozona. Entertainment numbers included a reading by Crystelle Carson, a vocal solo by Doris Bunter, a musical sketch "Little Red Riding Hood" and a trio, "Dipsy Doodle," with Mickey Couch, Lurinne Townsend, Ora Louise Cox and Dorothy Hannah.

Supt. C. S. Denham praised the work of the Lions' Roar staff and announced that information is being assembled with a view to the possible publication of a school annual next year. Evart White, Stockman editor, spoke briefly to the group.

Local Dealers Join National Used Car Drive

Special Values Offered March 5-12 During Campaign

Automobile dealers of Ozona manufacturers and 46,000 retail have combined forces, as have the dealers in the United States, in a nation-wide campaign to break the jam in the used car market, which business leaders look upon as one of the primary causes of the national business recession.

Bringing the national campaign closer home to their prospects, the three direct dealer auto agencies in Ozona have caught step with the spirit of the national campaign and are offering unusual values in their entire used car stocks during the week of March 5 to 12.

The Wilson Motor Co., local Buick and Pontiac dealers, the North Motor Co., Chevrolet and Oldsmobile agents, and the Stevens Motor Co., Ford and Lincoln Zephyr dealers, are all offering substantial reductions in used cars for the period.

HOUSTON AND SANTA ANNA

Even the villains of history have their place! Had there been no General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna, there might not have been a war of independence with Mexico, a Texas Republic, and a Lone Star State.

A Santa Anna may indeed make history, but it is a Sam Houston that gives the past its greatness. Texas this week celebrates more than the anniversary of her independence, she celebrates a birthday.

Two men in the endless theater of the past! The one — Santa Anna — immoral, unscrupulous, a miniature Napoleon in baggy trousers, doomed to die alone, poor, broken, and blind.

Those days of '36 — the slaughter of the valiant 183 in the ruins of the Alamo, the capture of General Fannin, the murder of 351 of his men, Houston's strategic retreat, the crushing revenge of the Mexican defeat and Santa Anna's surrender at San Jacinto — all those are deeply engraved in the heritage of every Texan.

General Santa Anna! Texas remembers you as a symbol of broken chains, a symbol of freedom won with the sword in a heroic past. General Sam Houston! Texas honors you for "Remember the Alamo," for the victory at San Jacinto, and for the greatness of this modern Texas of 1938.

ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN!

Most anything can happen in the United States, and usually does!

The police in Atlanta have just been forbidden to carry umbrellas, even if the criminal population does choose to go out in a cat-and-dog rain. A parson in Kansas City recently urged young men "to play pool, dance, and hit the other fellow, preferably on the jaw."

Uncle Sam has ordered all his federal range ponies replaced with automobiles. In the future his cow-hands will go swinging across the prairie with a "Give me my choke and spark plug!"

Yes, most anything can happen in the United States, but we ought to be glad that those things have to do with umbrellas and snakes, tom-toms and caves, instead of the bitter realities of war, aerial bombardment, and strife.

Let's open

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—Gov. George D. Aiken of Vermont munching an apple before he addressed the annual dinner of the National Republican club in New York at which he urged party leaders: "Forget your hatred of President Roosevelt—stop crying every time he makes a move." 2—Dramatic rescue of a baby from flooded home in Mt. Clemens, Mich. 3—Sen. Robert J. Bulkley of Ohio pointing to proposed superhighways which would traverse the continent and call for an expenditure of from six to eight billion dollars.

LET'S HAVE MUSIC

There is a standing joke in the radio industry to the effect that the average sponsor's conception of an ideal hour of broadcast entertainment is two minutes of music, two of comedy, two of drama, and fifty four minutes of dynamic sales talk about the sponsor's product.

The shadow of that joke is cast by the substance of reality — the sponsor's surprisingly inability to realize why millions listen to the radio. Some seek the laughter of a Charlie McCarthy, some the relaxation of symphonic music, some education and information.

A glance at some of the most popular programs on the air today is proof that the five-minute sales blurb doesn't pay. A brief mention of the sponsor's name and product prefaces and closes an auto company's program of fine music. That program, unscarred by the mental torture of lengthy commercials, has enjoyed a long and successful career on the air waves.

It isn't hard to understand that the prospective purchaser of anything from an axe to an automobile will seek his bargains in the columns of the newspaper, the natural medium for such advertising. It isn't hard to understand why he doesn't want his enjoyment interrupted by a lengthy discourse on the merits of a product he may not need, probably can't afford, and doesn't want, anyway.

THE MARCH OF HITLERISM

The march of Hitlerism has begun!

For five years the forces of Nazism have been forging a mighty army, have been tempering a nation to fighting tension, have been preparing at home for conquest abroad. The center and turning point of the whole Nazi program is conquest, conquest for raw materials, conquest for markets, conquest — above all — for prestige and the glory of the Swastika flag.

Today that march of conquest has begun. With the German legions flashing their guns on his border, with Europe's democracies turning a cold shoulder to him, with the Fascist alliance drawing tighter around his throat—Chancellor Schuschnigg had no choice but to surrender Austria to Hitler.

And the march will continue! Down through Austria and the Baltic nations, the sweep of Nazi conquest has begun its move towards the inevitable clash with the red Russian bear.

WORLD MARKET FOR TEXAS

A world market — that is the only trading area big enough to absorb the expanding produce of Texas' plains and valleys. Out of every ten bales of cotton grown in Texas, only one is sold to American buyers. The other nine must find a market across the counters of world trade.

Texas, therefore, has a vital stake in the current agitation against foreign trade agreements. A buyer without dollars is of no use to the Texas farmer. The prospective foreign customer can't get those dollars unless he sells some of his products in American markets.

At the same time, we of Texas can see the merit of the "buy at home" policy. True it is that American products mean dollars for American workers. American industries must not be undermined by the dumping of cheaply-made foreign products. Home industries take first place!

Can these two conflicting policies be reconciled? Under the leadership of Cordell Hull, Department of State has attempted to do just that with its reciprocal trade treaties. If we sell to the signatory nations those things which we have and they need, and accept in exchange those things they produce more economically than we can, then both trade and business will grow through the expanded interchange of products.

How has this policy worked in practice? Figures just released by the State Department show that during 1937 the United States exported over $3 billion worth of merchandise. That $3 billion, an increase of 36 per cent over 1936, represents the dollar and cents value of international trade.

Texas needs the world as a customer! Give Texas farmers a chance and they'll sell their products in Siam and Bali! Foreign trade plus domestic expansion will mean prosperity for Texas!

UNFAIR TO BACTERIA!

What with the coast to coast march of the CIO and the growth of the AF of L, we've been prepared for most any labor news, but we hardly expected the labor organizers to find time to unionize the world of microbes.

Yet now word comes from Dr. Francis E. Clark and Dr. N. R. Smith, two Department of Agriculture scientists, that they have discovered unmistakable signs that the nation's bacteria are organizing. Faced by a water shortage, the germs unite in cooperative societies, and move in picket-like formations across the microscopic field.

There are just two questions we'd like to ask the scientists in Washington. Are craft or industrial unions favored by the Federation of Bombarding Bacteria? Is their march a vertical or horizontal parade?

With those answers on our desk, we'll be in a position to name the winner in the current labor strife. With the backing of Bacteria Local No. 1, victory ought to come easily to the CIO or the AF of L. Think what the union could contribute to the war chest, not to mention what they could do to the chests of the enemy.

HENRY AND HIS MILLIONS

It took Henry Dencieux three years and a million francs to find it out, but now he knows — he doesn't want to be a millionaire!

That's news — even if we don't know Henry and he doesn't happen to live in America. Becoming a millionaire and President are two things we've looked forward to since childhood — both hardly possible, but very nice.

Henry was just a sailor in the French navy with a lot of dreams and a lottery ticket. Then one day, he was a sailor with a lot of dreams — and a million francs. That started the trouble! He bought a car — and wrecked it, killing two companions. He started for Spain with a friend — but the friend vanished with part of his money. He bought a business in Madrid — but the war broke out. He fled into France with his fiancée, but she left him.

That was enough for Henry! Today he is just a sailor in the French navy — without dreams or even a lottery ticket. That's all right with him, says Henry: "I'm happy! Money just means trouble to me!"

Perhaps Henry's right! Perhaps easy money won't buy happiness but we know a lot of people who'd like a million just to find out for themselves.

Speaking of differences between Presidents and Supreme Court justices, the New York Times recalls the animosity which Thomas Jefferson held toward Justice William Cushing, at whose death Jefferson wrote: "I observe old Cushing is dead. At length then we have a chance of getting a majority in the supreme judiciary."

In a recent poll by the American Institute of Public Opinion to determine sentiment as between Ford and the C. I. O., 66 per cent expressed sympathy for Ford, and 34 per cent for the C. I. O. The vote of car owners was even more decisive: 73 per cent for Ford, to 27 per cent for the C. I. O.

The Federal cigarette tax of six cents a package yielded approximately 570 million dollars last year. This does not include the local taxes smokers must pay in many states. In Alabama, for example, the state tax is three cents, making a total of nine cents a package.

Dr. R. N. McMurry of Chicago, advocating mental examinations of persons about to marry, says "there are a large number of mild as well as severe unrecognized cases of mental sickness at large." Cynics might consider the urge to get married as a symptom.

Denton, March 2—If meats are upsetting your food budget, try some of the less tender cuts plus a few cooking secrets and watch the bills go down.

Such cuts as the flank and the chuck, if properly prepared by long, slow cooking, may easily rival the steaks, chops and sirloin in the family's favor.

Swiss Steak with Vegetables
Using the edge of a heavy plate, work about a cup of seasoned flour into a 2 pound slice of round steak, cut 2 inches thick. Try out 1/4 pound of suet in large frying pan. Place steak in hot fat and sear on both sides. Pour in tomato juice to cover. Water and 1/4 cup of lemon juice or vinegar may be used. Around the meat, arrange 4 small potatoes (pared and cut into halves), 6 small onions (peeled), and 6 small carrots (pared or scraped). Cover and simmer about 2 hours, or until meat is tender and vegetables are done. It may be necessary to replenish the water. Serve meat on hot platter with border of vegetables. Swiss steak may be baked in a moderate oven. The meat may be cut into portions suitable for individual servings before cooking.

Macaroni Meat Loaf
(Six servings) Boil 1 cup macaroni, broken into 1/2 inch lengths, in 5 cups water until almost done. When drained, there should be about 2 cups of the cooked macaroni. Mix macaroni with 2 pound ground round steak, 2 tablespoons finely minced onion, 1

Navy Launches New Destroyer

The navy's newest destroyer, the 1,500-ton Maury, launched recently at San Francisco. Second naval vessel to be built privately on the west coast since the World war, the Maury was christened by Miss Virginia Lee Maury Werth, great-granddaughter of the ship's namesake, the late Lieut. Commander Matthew Fontaine Maury. Photograph shows the U. S. S. Maury as it slides down the ways.

teaspoon salt, 1 egg (beaten), 1 1/2 cups dry bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons melted butter and 1/2 (more or less) cup of canned tomato. Form into a loaf in a baking pan and bake in a moderate oven (350 F. to 375 F.) for 50 to 60 minutes. Baste with meat broth and melted butter several times during cooking.

Stuffed Flank Steak
(Six servings) Trim flank steak which weighs about 1 1/2 pounds and cut about 1 1/2 inches thick. Score 1 side. Spread scored side with dressing: Mix 2 cups bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons beef drippings, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, and 1/2 cup water or broth. Roll and fasten with skewers or tie. Melt 2 tablespoons suet in skillet and sear rolled steak on all sides. Add 1 cup broth. Cover and cook in moderate oven (350 F.) until tender (about 2 1/2 hours).

Beef Stew with Dumplings
Cut 2 pounds of round steak into 1 inch cubes. Dredge with seasoned flour. Sear meat in a little melted suet in a large, heavy stew pan. Pour in hot water enough to cover meat. Put on lid and simmer until meat is tender (about 1 1/2 hours). At the beginning of the last hour of cooking, add 1 cup carrot cubes and 6 small onions. In 20 minutes, add 3 cups potato cubes, 20 minutes before serving, add the dumplings: Sift 2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, and 1/2 teaspoon salt into a bowl. Add 2/3 cup milk and 2 tablespoon melted fat to 1 egg (beaten). Turn wet ingredients into dry mixture. Drop by teaspoons on stew. Keep stew pan covered for 15 to 20 minutes until dumplings are well done.

The Methodist Revival in 18th century England was marked by earnest preaching and enthusiastic congregational singing. Every person who shares our services with us is asked to join in the singing of the hymns. The singing of the great hymns of christendom makes our hearts and minds receptive to truth.

We shall observe the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at the morning service this Sunday. On this first Sunday in Lent we should make an earnest preparation for this observance.

January Sheep And Cattle Shipments Above Last Year's

Austin, March 2 — Aggregate shipments of live stock from Texas to Fort Worth stockyards and interstate points during January were 5,212 cars, a decline of nearly 2 per cent from January, 1937, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research has reported. Cattle shipments, 3,516 cars, increased 3 per cent over a year ago; and sheep shipments, 446 cars, increased 20 per cent; while shipments of calves, 702 cars, were 10 per cent lower than during January last year, and hog shipments, 548 cars, dropped 26 per cent.

Receipts of Texas cattle and sheep at the Fort Worth market during January were slightly larger than a year ago; while receipts of calves and hogs were substantially below those of a year ago. Shipments of all classes of Texas live stock to the Los Angeles market were sharply below those of January last year, but marketings to the middle west, especially of sheep, increased substantially.

Candidate for

Railroad Commissioner

In announcing my candidacy for reelection as a member of the Railroad Commission of Texas, I do so with profound appreciation of the trust reposed in me heretofore by the people of my native State.

True to my promises in the past, I have faithfully discharged the duties of an important public office; and due to intensive training and experience I have qualified myself to pass on matters coming before the Railroad Commission — a department which constantly faces complex problems vitally affecting every citizen of our Commonwealth.

The jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission embraces the supervision of railroads, trucks, busses, express companies, dock companies, gas utilities, pipe lines and the administration of the conservation laws of this state dealing with the production of oil and gas; investments totalling more than three billion dollars.

The Commission has caused the rates on cotton to be reduced in some instances from $4.00 to $1.25 per bale, resulting in a saving to the cotton farmers and people of the State of several million dollars annually. Through its action the rates on grain are lower than they otherwise would have been and the grain farmers of Texas have thereby been saved, and are being saved, in excess of two million dollars annually. Because of the action of the Commission the rates on stocker cattle are 15% lower than they would have been, which saving has accrued to the cattlemen of the state.

An order of the Commission directing a reduction of the gas rates to the City of Laredo, by which the consumer will be saved more than 25 per cent was recently sustained by the Supreme Court of the United States. Since I have been a member of the Commission no order of the Commission fixing gas rates has ever been stricken down by the courts.

The Railroad Commission's policy of oil and gas conservation has yielded to the permanent school fund, the University of Texas and A. & M. College more than forty million dollars, the benefits of which will extend to coming generations.

Standing upon my record in these and many other achievements of the Commission, I ask with confidence of my reelection to this highly responsible office; and I pledge a continuation of my best efforts for the public welfare.

A faithful performance of public service in the past is the best guarantee of like service in the future.

OF PEACE

By Maurice Lemmons

The United States is a peace loving nation. They learned their lesson during and after the World War. It was said that this war was to stop all wars and to save democracy. Well, you see what it did? Right now there are two wars going on.

The people of the United States fell as if they would do almost anything before they would be dragged back into war. It seems that these big men that run the government are the people that should fight the wars, not the men that are working back at home in the fields. They are not the people who get us into war.

We, the people of the United States, have learned what a war is. The last war killed thousands of our coming generation, plunged us into a depression, crippled thousands of our young men, and left us in debt to many foreign nations.

We think that if an American citizen is in foreign country in time of war he is on his own risk, not under the protection of the United States. Therefore, we don't have to look out for citizens in foreign countries. We have all we can do to look out after American citizens here.

NEW FAD IN O. H. S.

Listen girls!—here's something else new. Have you heard of the "love bugs"? Coaches' opinion of them is good, but just forget Coach.

O. H. S. school wardrobe for girls for the last three months consists mostly of the skirt and shirt with some bright tie around the neck and of course the white shoes and socks.

Sometimes I think the girls are trying to wear the boys' clothes. They wear ties, shirts, and even the boy's sweaters. The newest thing is a blue and wine skirt with a boy's zipper sweater and white shirt. Dinks have also taken the place in Ozona High street wear, dress wear, and every wear. Just look and see for yourself!

Campus Philosophy

By Mickey Couch

Every man's real life is a life of loneliness. Strive as he may, the outside world is really made up of shadows. It is the effort to make these shadows real that brings us close together and develops kindness.

Our efforts at final understanding simply prove our own mental feebleness.

Earth's greatest curses are ignorance and the superstition bred of ignorance.

Fortunately, the number of those that enjoy luxury or comparative luxury is constantly increasing. And the extent to which the happiness of a few is based on the torment of money is diminishing every day.

We talk too much and think too little.

AN ORCHID TO YOU

This week's orchid for the Senior members of the Press Club, who have worked hard and stayed with their task. These members give up their positions this week to the new members. We students that remain will always remember Maurice as Gossip Finder No. 1, John and P. C. for sports news, Catherine's news from the library, Welton's editorial, Mickey's campus philosophy, Norman's editorials, and Jack's programs at the Press Club meetings. We think you have accomplished much and have enjoyed doing it. Lots of luck to all of you.

REPORT CARDS ISSUED

On Tuesday, March 22, much anxiety was going on among students of Ozona High School. The report cards were coming out! There were, as usual, many "F's," but as a whole, the grades were good. It seems that since mid-term the pupils have perked up, mostly, but some still need to burn midnight oil.

TYPING NEWS

The Ozona typing team went to Eldorado on Saturday, Feb. 26, for an invitation typing meet. The team, Ora Louise Cox and Mary Francis West, won first place, receiving a cup.

This cup was won by the Ozona team in 1933, by Eldorado in 1934, and until this year, there hasn't been an invitation meet. Ozona will be permitted to keep the cup for a year, after which they must return it for the next typing meet.

The team competed against other teams from San Angelo, Eldorado, and Sonora. Ora Louise Cox won first place in individual typing, receiving a blue ribbon for her fine work.

On Wednesday of this week, Sonora will come to Ozona for a weekly practice meet. Good luck, Ozona!

BIOGRAPHIES AND AUTOBIOGRAPHIES

By Catherine Childress

Have you read any of the good biographies and autobiographies that are on the library shelves? There are several good ones which have accumulated in the past few years.

Some of the best biographies are: E. C. Barker's "Life of Stephen F. Austin," R. Valleryradot's "Life of Pasteur," Emil Ludwig's "Napoleon," Tracy Byer's "Martha Berry," Charles Dickens' "The Life of Our Lord," and Wm. Draper Louis' "Life of Theodore Roosevelt."

Autobiographies worth reading are "Edward Livingston Trudeau, M. D.," "Benjamin Franklin," and George Arlis', "Up the Years from Bloomsbury."

ECONOMICS

It has been said that price is an attempt to state the value of a commodity or a service in terms of money. What does this statement mean? Do you know? This is an example of the type of question that the economics class is tackling in their present chapter on "Demand, Supply, and Prices." Just why does the price of an article go up when the demand is large? This group is trying to find the difference between price and value and their relationship. The previous chapter dealt with "Domestic and Foreign Trade."

SPANISH I

For six months the Juniors have been trying to learn Spanish. Not only do they find it very different from anything they have ever attempted to learn, but also they find that it is different and unique and interesting in its foreign way. Every fifth lesson is a review and everyone catches up on breath from Vocabularios and Gramatica; occasionally interesting accounts (in English) of Spanish life are found and read.

How?

Oh, he thought he was still in college and began taking notes.

TOURIST IN SWITZERLAND

By Marie Williams

In Switzerland there are more than 7,000 hotels, and about 43,000 people work in these hotels. About 3,000,000 people visit in Switzerland each year. They arrive in May and leave in October. The winter visitors are increasing. All the people together spend about $50,000,000 each year.

Dairymen and gardeners furnish milk, cream, butter, cheese, and vegetables to hotels and railroad men carrying visitors from place to place. Guides carry travelers over the mountains. Beautiful scenery is seen in Switzerland. Visitors like to hear the cow bells and to see the lofty peaks.

AN AVALANCHE

By Charlene Williams

Yesterday, I put on my snowshoes and walked to get my mail. I was in the post office when I heard a roar and a boom. I rushed out to see what it was. The post office clerk said, "Oui, C'est une avalanche," that means in English, "Yes, it was an avalanche." It was a mass of snow and ice; it came tumbling down the side of the mountain and swept away everything in its path. We heard that some skiers had been lost in the avalanche. Men began digging in the snow. But they soon found that the skiers were safe on the other side of the mountain.

Dear Mr. Carruthers:

THIRD GRADE

We have been writing "Thank You" letters this week. Joe, the janitor, made a microphone for us, and the following letter was written to him.

Ozona, Texas,
Feb. 23, 1938.

Dear Joe:

The third grade appreciates your making our microphone. We hope you can hear us tell a story some day.

Your friend,
Muggins Davidson.

Mr. Denham had a screen made for us. The following letter is one that was written to him:

Ozona, Texas,
Feb. 25, 1938.

Dear Mr. Denham:
Thank you for making our screen. We are glad you made it for our radio broadcasting station. When we are talking over our microphone, come in and listen to us.

Your friend,
J. W. Terry.

The third grade has had another birthday party. It was for Muggins Davidson. We had ice cream in a cup. I will be glad when we have another birthday party. — Azalia Babb.

Jo Nell Coose is out of school, and she will be back Monday. She has been gone all of this week.

We have been writing to Joe. They were thank you letters, because he made our microphone and painted it. — Palma Tred.

We are having a good time with our things we have built. We get letters from everybody. We read books. We tell our stories over our microphone. Would you like to come see it? — Myrtastine Hokit.

We have been having spelling tests. I have made a 100 every day this week. I hope I make a 100 all of the rest of this week.

Yesterday the third grade had four arithmetic tests in addition and four tests in subtraction. They were all hard. The first we had was a two-minute; the next we had was a three-minute; the next four-minute, and the next one we had was a five-minute test. — Peggy Jeffreys.

SEVENTH GRADE

The baseball game played between the seventh and eighth grades, Tuesday at four o'clock, was won by the seventh grade. The score was eight to seven. Seven innings were played.

I don't want you girls to forget what I told you a week or so ago about going to the party in Iraan. This goes for you, Ora Louise, Dorothy, and Lois.

I wonder who it was that was making so much noise during the Junior program last Monday. Do you know, Mary Margaret? I think they were sitting close to you.

Billie Jean P— seemed to be mighty happy when she made '100' on the hundred spelling demons. I wonder why.

I'll bet Lib, the school secretary, got a new little flash light Monday evening and couldn't wait till after the Junior program to try it out.

Philip was mad the day after the Junior program because he could not get all the black off of his face, from acting the part of the colored boy. Philip must have been afraid that his girl would not recognize him.

WHO PAYS THE BILL?

Our national income in 1913 was $343 per capita, and the total governmental debt, Federal, state and local was only about one-sixth as much, $59.29. In 1935 our national income was 469 per capita — and total governmental debt $222 per capita! Since 1936 the situation has grown steadily worse.

Narrowing our study down to Texas, what do we find? The record shows that the income of Texas citizens in 1937 was 15 per cent less than it was in 1929, but their State taxes were 70 per cent more. Under such conditions tenacity, pessimism and general unrest will rapidly increase. Aroused public opinion can bring about a reform.

Some feel but little interest in the subject, being under the delusion that they do not pay taxes. Hidden taxes are paid by every consumer. On bread 58 taxes are paid. A suit of clothes bears 63 taxes, amounting to one-fifth of the price the consumer pays. One-third of the cost of medicine goes for taxes, and 343 taxes are paid on an automobile. And some people wonder why we have a business recession!

The consumer, whether he renders property for taxation or not, is the one who ultimately pays the tax bill. It is to his interest, and that of his posterity, that he lend a hand in this fight.

cline of 4.9 per cent from December but an increase of 6.7 per cent over January, 1937. Aggregate weekly payrolls for these firms during January were $2,412,014, a decline of 5.1 per cent from the month before but 14 per cent above January a year ago.

Manufacturing industries of the state showed a decline in employment of 2.4 per cent from December but an increase of 2.8 per cent over January last year; while total payrolls from manufacturing industries showed a decline of 2.2 per cent from December but an increase of 1.5 per cent over January last year.

Cities making a better showing than the state average for both employment and payrolls in comparison with January last year were Amarillo, Austin, Galveston, and Houston.

The mortgage insurance premium will be charged at the rate of one half of one percent annually on the outstanding principal of the mortgage.

The multi family and group housing operations will be carried on separately from the small homes program designed primarily for individual ownership. A separate insuring fund of $1,000,000 has been set aside out of appraisal fees collected by the Federal Housing Administration during the past three years.

The Federal Housing Administration large scale housing program should not be confused with the slum clearance and government subsidy program of the United States Housing Authority. It is aimed primarily to promote the construction of housing facilities for wage earning and salaried families who by preference or necessity live in rented dwellings. Such families make up the great majority of the urban population and they, therefore, constitute the broadest market for new housing. According to the 1930 census, approximately 56 per cent of all urban families in the United States occupied rented dwellings. The 93 cities of 100,000 and over range in the proportion of renting families from a high of 78.6 per cent for New York City to a low of 37.3 per cent from Tacoma, Washington.

At the same time the program provides exceptional opportunities for sound investment. This is true for two principal reasons. First, the relative breadth of the rental market and second, the planning and construction of the project.

Modernization and Repair Program

Notices have been sent to 7,000 lending institutions throughout the United States authorizing them to begin making modernization and repair loans under Title I of the amended Act.

Persons, partnerships and corporations are eligible to borrow money under the modernization and repair credit plan. The borrower must have an assured income, demonstrate his ability to repay the loan, and own the property to be improved or have a lease on it running at least six months longer than the term of the loan.

Amounts up to $10,000 may be borrowed to repair or improve existing structures and amounts up to $2500 may be borrowed for the erection of new structures.

Repayment of the loans may be spread over a period not to exceed five years for modernization and repair work and not to exceed ten years for the erection of new structures for residential use.

Banks and other lending institutions will be insured against losses up to 10 per cent of the total loans they make under the new Title I program.

If the loan is made for the purpose of building a new home, security will be required in the form of a mortgage or deed of trust covering the property improved. In addition, there will be certain general construction requirements which will assist in protecting the investment of the home owner.

The provision for these new homes costing not in excess of $2500 under Title I should not be confused with the plan of home ownership sponsored under Title II of the Act. The facilities afforded under Title I are intended primarily for those citizens who in the marginal zone surrounding live on farms, or in rural areas or the larger cities where the standards established by the mutual mortgage insurance system are not applicable.

Operations Under Old Law

Gross business transacted by the Federal Housing Administration under the old law has passed the two billion dollar mark.

A SQUARE COLONIAL

Because of economy in construction, savings in foundation and roof, as well as in heating, the square type, two story home is always popular, particularly when developed in the attractive design as that pictured in this plan. A square living room with fireplace and built-in bookshelves, dining room, convenient breakfast nook and conveniently planned kitchen with entrance to basement stairs occupying the first floor. Two bedrooms, one of them extremely large and airy, bath and three closets upstairs complete this house.

Approximately $650,000,000 of this amount was transacted during 1937. The gross total includes:

Mortgages selected for appraisal, $1,399,000,000.

Large scale housing projects approved, $41,694,000.

Modernization and repair notes insured, $560,603,000.

Notwithstanding the decline in construction activity during the last half of 1937, gains were recorded in the volume of business for the entire year over 1936.

For example, mortgages selected for appraisal during 1937 amounted to $590,100,000 compared to $538,900,000 for 1936, a gain of 9.5 per cent. Mortgages accepted for insurance in 1937 totaled $448,167,000 compared to $438,449,000 during the previous year, a gain of 2.2 per cent.

The largest gain was made in premium paying mortgages. In 1936 premium paying mortgages amounting to $308,945,000 were recorded, while in 1937 they amounted to $425,110,000, a gain of 37.6 per cent. The total of premium-paying mortgages on January 28 was $857,996,317, not including those on large scale rental projects.

During the past year mortgages on newly constructed homes represented approximately fifty-six per cent of the total value of mortgages accepted for insurance.

Through appraisal fees, premium payments, and reinvestment of funds, the Federal Housing Administration now has an income averaging $600,000 a month. Part of this is being used under the terms of the National Housing Act to defray expenses of insuring operations and part of it is being added to the mutual mortgage insurance fund to meet possible losses. This fund now amounts to approximately $22,000,000 and losses chargeable against

CARE OF DRAINS, SPOUTS, GUTTERS EMPHASIZED

Ruined walls and ceilings are frequently the result of neglect. Leaky, corroded, loosened flashings, gutters and downspouts cause serious damage to buildings and it is therefore most important that these elements of a house be kept in good condition.

VENETIAN BLINDS POPULAR

Interior decorators report that one of the most noticeable trends in home decoration is the use of Venetian blinds on windows. Their utility and decorative qualities have become well established in the South, where Southern breezes are wanted, bright sunlight is not.

THE WORLD THIS WEEK

By Robert Patterson

PLAYING BALL WITH DYNAMITE

For the moment, dynamic dictatorship appears to be riding high over fearful, perplexed democracies of Europe. In democracy's most potent bulwark in Europe, Great Britain, dissension chiefly prevailed over the wisest policy with which to pour balm on those aggressive twin trouble-makers, Hitler and Mussolini. The so-called realists, headed by Prime Minister Chamberlain, believe in "playing ball" with Germany and Italy, buying them off with concessions if necessary, granting Hitler his thunderous request for colonies, and administering gentle soothing syrup to the fretful, fractious dictators as a nurse administers sedatives to a fever-stricken baby. But the so-called "idealists", headed by handsome Anthony Eden, set their faces firmly against such tactics. And they have no lack of valid reasons for opposing the nursing technique.

RIDING THE TIGER

He who rides a tiger, it is said, cannot dismount. And similarly, declare the Edenites, those who keep throwing meat to a tiger in the hope that it will keep him from attacking them, dare not stop feeding the tiger. That tiger today takes the form of hungry dictator powers. That England's gravest cabinet crisis since the war should have been precipitated over this issue — to feed the tiger or boot him on the snout — indicates the hot intensity of feeling upon this point. Thus far, Mr. Eden's shapely head has been sacrificed and tossed into the tiger's mouth, to the audible pleasure of Germany and Italy who have been purring happily ever since. But if Europe's democracies are prepared to follow a peace-at-any-price program, they must be prepared to pay dearly. Now that they have begun riding the tiger, when will they dare dismount?

AMERICA LOOKS AT HER TRADE

Continent-spanning in size, sumptuous in the wealth and variety of her resources, America naturally

Queen Meets Queen at Mardi Gras

Unknown to each other and to their subjects until the night of the ball, Their Royal Highnesses Norma Locke, Lancaster, and Mabel Mestayer, Beaumont, reigned over the first Mardi Gras masquerade ever staged at Texas State College for Women in Denton. The All-College dance was held in two halls in order to accommodate the 2500 costumed students. The revelers doffed their masks at 9:30, at which time the queens and their courts were announced.

inclines to philosophies of self-sufficiency. But no topic has aroused more intense and thorough interest during the last month than the nation's foreign trade. During the past week, several hours of discussion on that topic streamed through the airwaves of the national network systems, and current periodicals are turning vivid and vari-colored floodlights on the subject. Secretary of State Hull stands, of course, as the outstanding proponent of stimulating international good will through reciprocal trade agreements. But by no means does unanimity exist of the value of foreign trade. America's famed historian, Charles A. Beard, leans strongly toward isolationist self-sufficiency, as do many farm leaders. But isolationist or not, America is today acutely foreign-trade conscious and is vigorously probing its values and merits to this nation.

A DOLLAR A WEEK

A $98 thousand a year income, and only a dollar a week for spending money! There you have not only the sad tale of Freddie Bartholomew, Hollywood child actor, but also the reason why Freddie will not have to part with as much as a tuppence or a shilling for the support of his parents and sisters over in London. A Superior Court at Los Angeles has heard the youngster's plea that the high cost of being a movie actor was so astronomical he couldn't possibly pare off 20 per cent of his salary, during 1938 at any rate, for his family in the old country.

We very much doubt if Freddie was interested in teaching any of us the moral of all this, but we do gather this one truth from the court proceedings: a $100,000 a year man in Hollywood has scarcely more spending money than a $25 a week man in America's Middletown. Freddie gets the plaudits and sees his name on marquees, but darn it! Bright lights won't buy a flock of ice cream sodas!

SKY PILOTS

This is that month again when the lion roars mightily and the lamb bleats softly. But to Johnny and the gang March means more than that. It's the time to get out the glue pot and shears, the wood-staves, big, silky sheets of paper, red, blue and yellow, a ball of strong twine, and start hustling to make himself a whopping kite with its wildly twisted tail knotted with gay bunting. Remember what fun that was? You were skipper, helmsman, and chief mate all in one, when you hiked up a wind-buffed hill and sent your own hand-made creation rocketing aloft and proudly piloted it through the skies. March's young sky pilots will soon be taking to the windy fields and hills again!

Here's Rugged Road to Beauty

An applicant for the course at the free public beauty clinic recently opened in a neighborhood settlement in New York city is being measured before she starts on the rugged road to beauty. Experts tell the ladies where the awkwardness should come of and how to take it off. If necessary, they'll instruct how to put poundage on, but most clients are concerned with shedding it.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Baker are in San Angelo this week. Mr. Baker recuperating from an operation performed last week in a San Angelo hospital. They are visiting in the home of Mr. Baker's sister, and expect to return to Ozona the end of the week.

C. C. Doty, father of Mrs. Stephen Perner, was taken to a hospital in San Angelo Wednesday morning for treatment. He has been ill for several days.

Used Car Drive—

In which all American automobile manufacturers have taken part. The campaign is timed at the outset of the spring selling season when both new and used cars usually begin to move in greatest volume. Mr. Macauley said. It is aimed primarily at stimulating the disposal of used car stocks now in dealer hands. Once this is accomplished, a substantial increase in car manufacturing schedules and employment of wage earners in the automobile factories is anticipated.

Huge Advertising Fund

To support the campaign, Mr. Macauley announced, the manufacturers will spend $1,250,000 in newspaper, radio and outdoor advertising and in other promotional channels. Two thirds of the advertising budget will be spent in newspapers.

"The motor car industry," said Mr. Macauley in making the announcement, "is generally credited with showing the way out of the last depression."

"Today, the automobile manufacturers, their suppliers, the nation's 45,000 dealers and allied industries are launching a similar drive." So far as the automobile industry is concerned, the most serious barrier to business improvement is the large stock of used cars in dealers' hands. Mr. Macauley pointed out.

"Until these cars can be sold, it is impossible for dealers to handle a normal volume of new car business," he explained. "This means that factories will be forced to continue on part time, and thousands of men in the motor car plants and in allied industries must remain either out of work or on part time schedules."

Point Out Values
The primary purpose of the campaign, he said, is to make known to prospective owners the remarkable used car values which now are being offered by automobile dealers in all parts of the United States.

"The present situation has resulted in the best used car values in the country's history. We are confident that used car stocks will be reduced sharply as soon as the public becomes aware of the fact," he added.

During the last few years vast improvements have been made in motor cars and this improved transportation is available on easy terms to those who take advantage of the bargains to be offered during "National Used Car Exchange Week," Mr. Macauley stated. "Too many unsafe, wornout, unreliable cars, without modern safety brakes, safety glass, large tires and steel bodies, are in operation today," he continued. "Too many are costly to operate. Eleven million seven years old or older are licensed for operation throughout the country."

"Many of these cars can be replaced during 'National Used Car Exchange Week'—to the great advantage of the buyer and of the public—with newer, 'up-to-date' cars, without initial investment beyond their present car and on terms to suit the average pocket-book. These new cars offer modern equipment and are a good investment in comfort, safety and economy."

Mrs. Evridge Davidson returned yesterday from San Angelo, where she spent several days in a hospital receiving treatment.

Mrs. W. F. Coates—

of Sonora, and Lottie Jo Owens of Ozona. The only member of the family unable to be present was a granddaughter, Mrs. G. L. Coates, Jr., of Martinez, Calif., the former Miss Geraldine Coates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Coates.

Mrs. Coates was born in Madison County, Mississippi, March 1, 1858. When she was 11 years old, she came with her family to Texas, the family making the trek from Mississippi to Crockett County, Texas, behind a team of oxen. She was married Jan. 16, 1878, to W. F. Coates, the couple moving two years later to Taylor County, where they engaged in farming and stock raising until 1890, when they moved to Crockett County, settling on a ranch north of Ozona. Here the couple reared a family and carved for themselves a share of the coming stock raising empire, still operated by the children. Mr. Coates, who died in 1925, was one of the organizers of Crockett County, formed in 1891, and at the time of his death was operating his ranch interests in cooperation with his sons and was proprietor of a saddle and boot shop in Ozona, now the Jones Saddlery.

50th Anniversary Of W M U Observed In Prayer Week Program

Baptist women throughout the nation this week are observing the Golden Jubilee year, the fiftieth anniversary of Baptist Woman's Missionary Union. During the week they are paying homage to the women who pioneered the organization, reviewing accomplishments of a half century and offering up expressions of gratitude for blessings that have resulted.

Long Distance calls go through while you "hold the line" because telephone management said...

"OUR JOB IS TO MAKE SERVICE FASTER"

The men who head the telephone company have always believed even good service can be better. Their aim, like that of every other telephone worker, has been better and better service at low cost to the user. One result is that today you can call distant cities as quickly, as easily, as you telephone across the street.

A few years ago it took seven minutes (average) to make a long distance connection. Today the average time is 96 seconds!
