ons Ride To 13 Win Over sonora Broncos

at Read's 85-Yard Touchdown Run Feared Thriller

Striking like lightning, with blinding speed and skill which chalked up three touchdowns in the middle of the first quarter, Ozona High School Lions overpowered a hard fighting bunch of Sonora Broncos under an offensive avalanche on the Sonora field last night for a 24 to 13 win in the District 8B crown by virtue of Junction's elimination from the title race at the hands of the Colorado Eagles the same night. Almost before fans had settled their seats as the game got underway, the Lions had chalked their first touchdown, Quarterback Nat Read, the region's standing back, going over the three after he and Bert Lemmons had teamed to carry the ball from the Ozona 40. Ozona kicked off to the Broncos who were forced to kick. Read brought the ball back to his own 40. At that point Lemmons in three carries had a first on the Sonora 45. He picked up five more but a bad pass back from center the Lions back and they kicked. The first break of the game came to the Lions at that point in the Broncos were penalized for roughing the kicker and it was first down. Nat made it a first down on the Sonora 11, Lemmons picked up nine more and Read was over. Lemmons' was wide.

The second touchdown, seconds after the first, was set up when Bissett, a Bronco, was in Ozona's line that evening, and a Bronco fumble of the ball on Sonora's 20. Read flipped a lateral to Lemmons on the play and Lemmons went the distance for the second marker. An extra point try again failed. The third touchdown came as fast as the first two. It was set up when Bill Hoover intercepted a Sonora pass on the 40 and the Sooners end of the field and Read to the 18 before being brought down. Lemmons was good through the line and Read on the next play was through the Sonora secondary like a ghost to put the ball on the 2-yard-line for a first down. Lemmons was bottled in a line play and on the next play, Read slipped through for a marker. The kick from place-kicker for the extra point was blocked and the score was 18 to 0 and the game but minutes old.

The dazed Broncos shook their heads clear at the opening of the second quarter and started some of their own. Solving the Ozona attack, they forced the Lions to kick for the first time and a Bronco, fleet Bronco back, returned the punt to the Ozona 39. He raked up a first down on the 29 through the line. Four carries found the Broncos stalled on the Ozona 22 and the ball at over.

At the Lions were not cut off. They drew a 15-yard penalty for using hands on offense and kicked out to their own 40. At which point the Broncos took the field and drove to their first touchdown. Sonora's Shurley drove to a first on the Ozona 25. Chalk made more and Jackson drove to the end and was over for the touchdown on the next try. A line play on the point was stalled and the score was 18 to 6.

But not for long. Ozona fans reared their greatest thrill of the season when Nat Read took the Sonora kick-off after touchdown. His own 15 eluded two Sonora blockers in the vicinity and, with a field blocking under way, he to the sidelines and raced the yards to the goal line, untouched after eluding the first two blockers. It was a beautiful bit of running and some fine blocking on the part of the Ozona team. Again the try for point failed and the score stood 24 to 6.

The Broncos came back in the second quarter with a more determined defense and it was a see-saw battle through that period. At the beginning of the last quarter, (Continued On Last Page)

Rev. King Attends International Church Meeting in Des Moines

Rev. Horace M. King, pastor of the Ozona Methodist Church, is in Des Moines, Iowa, this week where he is attending a meeting of the international Council on Rural Church Work, an interdenominational and international council.

Rev. King, active in church organizational and educational work for more than nineteen years, is a member of the International Council. He is at present executive secretary for the Town and Country Commission and member of the Board of Missions, a church coordinating commission.

The Ozona pastor will be honored at the Des Moines meeting for his recently completed book, "Bob Returns to Meadowview," a textbook treatise on the layman's responsibility in the church, and the work is to be discussed at the session for adoption on a nationwide scale for use in the church's educational program.

Rev. King will be back in Ozona in time for the regular Sunday morning service in the High School Auditorium. There will be no Sunday evening service, the congregation planning to join the Baptist congregation on the occasion of the opening of the revival at that church.

Lions Conquer Broncos To Win District Title

Junction Defeat at Eldorado Cinches Flag For Ozonans

While Ozonans were celebrating their 24 to 13 victory over Sonora Broncos in Sonora Friday night, the celebration took on new vigor when word came that the Eldorado Eagles had dumped the Junction Eagles in Eldorado the same night to elevate the Lions of Ozona to the 1946 District 8B championship.

With only one district loss, to Junction, the Lions, who finished the season in Sonora, stood as the undisputed champion since the Friday night game the Junction Eagles were the only outfit in the district with a chance for a tie. Junction battled to a tie with the Big Lake team and, although no official records were kept, the officials reportedly gave the game to Big Lake on penetrations. But even if the tie was allowed to stand as a half game won and half game lost, the Eldorado loss put Junction out of the running.

The district title, when it is officially declared in the district, will be the fourth won by Ozona teams in this district, and will give the 1946 edition of the Lions a chance for a fourth bi-district title. This year, too, the Class B league championship race will go to the regional stage, bi-district winners playing for the regional championship.

Ozona will play the winner of district 7B, probably Bronte or Robert Lee for the bi-district flag, and the winner of that contest will meet the winner of the District 5 and 6 bi-district go. District 5 is the next district west, composed of Fort Stockton, McCamey, Iraan, etc., and District 6 is the Alpine, Marfa, Sanderson, etc. area.

Meanwhile, the champs of District 7B must mark time until all issues are settled in this and other districts, probably three weeks. Coach Sikes and Coach Brown are seeking some interim competition for the Lions to keep them "on the ball," so to speak, and in condition for the coming bi-district and regional contests.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ratliff and Carolyn spent the week-end visiting the Carlsbad Caverns near Carlsbad, N. M. They also witnessed the Odessa - Sweetwater football game in Odessa Monday.

James Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chapman, is home with his army discharge after serving nearly two years with the occupation forces in Japan.

Improvement Of Park Discussed By Commissioners

Seek Sprinkler System Plan To Fill Area With New Dirt

Plans for improvement of the city park here, under discussion for some time by members of the Commissioners Court, were up for further consideration when the court met Monday in regular November session.

With a sprinkler system badly needed for adequate watering of grass and shrubs in the park, the court turned its attention to this need preparatory to undertaking the planned filling and leveling of the park grounds with dirt.

Commissioner E. R. Kinser was authorized to investigate the possibility of securing the materials for a sprinkler system from one of the Army installations in the area which have been declared surplus. The court felt that it could realize a considerable saving if such equipment could be purchased.

By using the county's new dirt moving machine, which is capable of moving up to 13 yards of dirt at a time and at a speed of up to 40 miles per hour, the court felt that the park fill could be made at little expense to the county, thus leveling the ground and providing fresh soil for new plantings contemplated. Later it is planned to remove the dead and dying mulberry trees and replace these with pecan or other suitable trees.

The Commissioners in their session this week canvassed the returns of the General Election and took action on a plan for employing a government trapper in north west section of the county to help rid the area of bobcats. The county agreed to pay a third of the supplemental salary paid the trapper in addition to his government pay, ranchmen in the area paying the other two thirds.

Chairman Expresses Thanks for Cooperation In Observing Art Week

Mrs. A. C. Hoover, local chairman of American Art Week observance, expressed appreciation to the merchants of Ozona, local artists and others who assisted in the city wide observance of the week.

Several local business houses lent their windows for displays of various paintings and art objects, some using stock from their own stores, and an exhibit of the work of local artists was made at the Smith Drug Store, all contributing to a fine observance of the week. Mrs. Hoover said. About 30 paintings of local artists were exhibited and work of local school children formed another special exhibit.

$64,000 Outstanding Of Issue Called in By December 16

The 64 bonds, which are to be retired from the state's road bond redemption fund, are bonds numbered 41 to 104 inclusive, last of the $104,000 refunding bonds issued in 1940 for completion of the paving of Highway 163 south from Ozona to the county line. The bonds are optional after December 16, 1946, and the county is exercising its option at the request of the state so that the entire issue can be retired.

Dist. Committee Turns Down Rodeo Protest Issue

Sonora Grudge Protect Thrown Out on Sworn Testimony

On sworn testimony that the boy involved did not receive money as a roping prize, members of the District 8B executive committee, meeting in Menard Wednesday, turned down the grudge protests filed by Supt. A. E. Wells of Sonora against eligibility of Bill Tatum, member of the Junction football squad, because of his participation in a roping event at the Mason rodeo in July. The committee decision was unanimous.

The sworn statement was made by E. E. Eckert of Mason, who declared that the prize money was paid to young Tatum's father and the elder Tatum, who was present at the meeting, presented verbal testimony corroborating the statement.

That the protest, on an issue which has been ignored in this western territory for years because it provides summer entertainment for boys, was on a purely grudge basis was apparent in the wording of the protest as filed by Supt. Wells, the protest opening with the statement, to the effect that the protest was filed "in view of the fact that Supt. McLendon of the Junction schools had protested eligibility of Sonora players." The committee had previously declared three Sonora players ineligible on the ground that they were in effect graduates of the school because they had participated in graduation exercises.

Supt. Wells, in questions fired at various superintendents, indicated eligibility of at least one player on every team in the district might be protested, including Max Word of Ozona.

How to Handle a Fortune

Some months ago I reported in the Clarion how Mel Bate's uncle died up north, and left him with a tidy fortune.

Naturally, our town was curious to see how Mel would spend it: Traveling around the world... getting a new house or car... wearing fancy clothes... or dining on cold pheasant and champagne...?

We can now report, Mel hasn't changed a bit! Drop in on him any night, and you'll find him in his shirt sleeves by the fire, chatting with the Misses, sharing a melting glass of beer with friends.

From where I sit, Mel has learned the art of handling money — as well as handling people. You don't let cash-in-the-bank push you around any more than you let people push you around. If you like the simple, homely life; companionship and quiet conversation of beer and friendly talk — that's worth a fortune, after all!

HOTELS for LIVESTOCK

The central livestock market is as American as the "hot dog." No other country has the like of it. European sellers and buyers haggle over individual animals. In South America most of the dealing is done right on the estancias, where the livestock is raised. But here in the leading livestock nation of the world, for 75 years central markets have played a big part in the job of moving meat toward dinner tables of the United States.

When a carload of livestock rolls off the prairies or out of the mountains into one of the 65 or more great central markets, the animals are "greeted" and "registered" at the unloading dock, much as travelers are received and registered in hotels. From there they are sent to their "rooms"—the pens assigned to the commission man to whom the owner has shipped his animals. There these hogs, cattle, calves and lambs are rested and given food and drink.

Just as hotels compete for guests, so these central markets compete with each other for the business of accommodating the 88 million head of livestock which come in each year. Thousands of livestock buyers and order buyers bid against each other and the sale is made to the highest bidder. With 26,000 meat packers and other commercial slaughterers active in livestock buying, it is easy to see that the American livestock marketing system is the most competitive in the world.

These "livestock hotels" are a separate branch of the livestock-meat industry. They are privately owned. Swift & Company does not own a single share of any stockyards company.

Thanksgiving

In this Thanksgiving month, the people of our nation—and of many other nations—owe a debt of gratitude to the ranchers and farmers of America. All through the war, in spite of its tremendous requirements, our people ate well. And in spite of eating well, today, to be sure, not all the meat they would like to have... but plenty of nutritious food to keep them well and strong. That is because for long years millions of farm and ranch men, women and children have kept the food supply up, working harder than ever before, overcoming shortages of help and machinery and many other obstacles. Yes, Americans may well offer thanks this month to all those who produce our food.

FERTILITY OF RANGE BEEF CATTLE

by A. L. Baker and J. R. Queenberry
United States Department of Agriculture

Cows in the western ranch states drop from a 40 to a 70 percent calf crop with an average of 63 percent. This means that for every 100 cows the average rancher can expect to get only 63 calves.

However, the following recommendations, based on a study made, should aid the rancher in increasing his production:

1. Cows should be identified by proper markings so that shy breeders can be culled from the herd at an early age. Good producing cows may be kept until at least ten years of age without loss of fertility.

SPREAD

When visiting with livestock producers on farms or ranches, or at meetings, the subject of "spread" often comes up for discussion. Then I give them an explanation of the difference between the price they get for livestock and the price we meat packers receive for the meat we sell.

To me it is a source of continual surprise that the spread is not greater than it is. During my years of experience in the livestock-meat industry, here is what I have learned about spread. We at Swift & Company have been paying farmers and ranchers approximately 76¢, on the average, out of every dollar we receive from those to whom we sell, for all products we process and handle, including hides, glands, and all by-products. That leaves us 24¢ to cover the cost of processing and marketing.

Out of the 24¢ comes the cost of buying livestock and other agricultural products. The cost of preparation and refrigeration. The cost of loading them into cars and trucks. The cost of transporting them to our branch houses or to retailers. The cost of branch house operation and of selling and delivering the products to the retail dealers. In addition, we have taxes to pay; plus insurance and all the other necessary costs of doing business. When all these expenses have been paid, we make a profit, which over a period of years has averaged a fraction of a cent a pound on the 6 1/2 billion pounds of products we handle annually.

There is no other business in the country that does so much for so little.

Things Are NOT Always as They Seem

The mechanical device pictured above shoots the ball marked A and at the same instant drops the ball marked B straight down. It certainly looks as if B will hit the ground first, since ball A has so much farther to go. But the fact is that they will both strike the ground at precisely the same instant.

In our business, too, things are not always as they seem. On September 1, 1946, the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture reported that in the entire country there were 356 million pounds of meat stocks in cold storage. That is a lot of pounds. But actually it is the lowest on record for that date... and compares with 626 million a year ago and a 631-million average for 1941-1945. Here in America we eat about 50 million pounds of meat a day, so the September 1 supply of meat in cold storage was barely enough to feed us for seven days.

OZONA, TEXAS, THURSDAY NOV. 7, 1946

NO. 8

NEWS TO THE ROTARIANS

It seems that Mr. Denham almost got a bunch of Rotarians together last Tuesday night by placing a prepositional phrase "We eat, after the invocation."

The stands were almost empty before he could make the last part of his statement heard by the mob. Ben Williams gave the invocation and there was no holding the Lions of 1946 back.

This was the annual Rotary banquet for the Lions' football team, pep squad and band. I have heard it said that the best way to compliment good food is to eat a lot of it. If this be the case, the Rotarians should feel themselves highly honored from the ferocious assault which ensued. If anything was left someone must have hidden it under the table. Around a hundred and fifty people were fed delicious barbecue, beans, potato salad, coffee and ice cream.

The band rendered a brief program which included: "Simitar," "Our Director," and "Military Escort."

We wish to express our appreciation to the Rotary Club, for the good food and enjoyable evening. Thanks again from all of us to all of you.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

By Louise Wood

Dusk closed down upon a huge collection of empty cardboard boxes and discarded papers. Tonight was the big night. The empty lot and street were the stage set for a bonfire and pep rally. Out of nowhere groups of two, three and even more gathered around and not all were students.

A match did its work well and the fire got well under way. Loud, lusty voices rose in volume as the leaping flames roared skyward into the night. The empty spaces around echoed a loud refrain as spirits rose to the clouds. After awhile the fire died away but these same spirits stayed at their highest level even until the big game of the season was over.

If you could have witnessed this display of school spirit, you would have had no doubt as to the outcome of the game between the Ozona Lions and the Sonora Dragons.

FOOTBALL NEWS

The big game with Sonora started when Red, the Lions' halfback, kicked a perfect ball for the first kick-off. The Lions made three touchdowns early in the first quarter making the score 18-0 in favor of Ozona.

When the whistle blew for the half to start, Red again kicked an other perfect kick. Gordon Buford and Bernard Lemmons were both hurt during this period and were taken off the field. A small but efficient sophomore took Bernard's place. The game ended 24-13 in favor of the Ozona Lions. All of the Lions were in the dressing room rubbing their bruises when Coach Sikes walked in with a big smile on his face. We all gathered around and he told us that Eldorado had beaten Junction and that made us district champs. The town of Sonora shook when we began to yell and cheer. The pep squad came to the (Continued on Page Four)

This makes up for a lot!

At long last you slip behind the wheel of your very own Buick.

You look around a minute - straighten your tie - grin a little at the handsome picture you know you must be making.

You turn the key. Step on the starter-treadle. Feel those eight big Fireball cylinders take silken hold.

Easy as a breeze, you slip away in two agile tons of steady-going levelness - and right then and there a lot that was dark is clear.

You see why this car is the most wanted automobile in America today.

You see why this doubles the problem posed by industry-wide slowness of parts and material flow.

You see why Buick production men are gladly putting every waking hour into ceaseless battle against such log-jams, so that they can supply these sweethearts to the greatest possible number.

You see how quickly a

What matters is that this is the best Buick yet.

It's available at OPA prices applying at delivery and - though we like to get trade-ins - with or without a car to trade.

Those things add up to the best deal these times afford anywhere.

If Isabella had ice cubes...

Christopher Columbus would never have discovered America!

Isabella, Queen of Spain, had caskets full of jewels. She had velvet robes and silken gowns and handsome hand-made shoes. But she had no electric refrigerator! So the jewels were pawned. Three little ships set out against the sea. And Columbus happened on America back in 1492.

Fantastic? Not really. In Isabella's day, they tried to keep food from spoiling by spices brought overland at great expense from India. Columbus believed he could reach the Indies by sailing westward on the unknown Atlantic. The rest is in history books. Poor Isabella, with all her clumsy luxuries, never dreamed of ice cubes - nor any of the miracles of modern electric living!

Though electricity plays such a great part in today's comforts and conveniences - you're scarcely conscious of electric service. That's because it's always on hand - all you want - at little cost.

Friday night? Could it have been that she didn't get to stay in Sonora like she had planned?

Who were the cute fellows that Judy and Jane were with Saturday night?
It seems that Mike Friend was down here over the week-end. What about it, Sue?

Lillian, there were some boys from Sonora looking for "Bubbles." Haven't seen her -- have you?

Mary Ann, who is the boy who wants you to write to him. Does he live in Christoval?

Bob B. was that catsup on your face Monday night -- or did we guess it the first time?

It seems that Don C. and Gordon like sleeping in cars. Especially ones that do flips!

Merle, did you have a nice time riding in C. M.'s jeep?

Eda has finally succeeded. She has C. C.'s coat!

Roy G., do all your girls live out of town? San Angelo, maybe?

Why is it that Betty J. and Passy like to go down to Allen's house?

J. G., shame! You had better watch your language in English class!

Bufford, "The Wolf," was doing all right in Fort Stockton with the Iraan Pep squad!

Chris, that was an interesting note which was posted on the bulletin board. Did you ride the ferris wheel with her?

What's the matter Parr? Can't you take up for yourself? Betty Jane, you had better lay off. Why are you such a show-off in science class?

J. B., when did you strike that oil well? Or did you slick your hair down for Villa Acuna?

Why was the attendance at league doubled?

Betty C., who was that fellow you rode with in the airplane? Could have been the driver? What'll Joe say?

We are glad to see Joe Ross back in uniform!

Watch your love letters! Here are a few remarks in one certain letter. We warn you to watch them carefully if you don't want them published!

Dear —

Looks like all we have is trouble. I think I would have been a lot better off if I had never started going with the girls.

If — gets mad at you for speaking to me, don't pay any attention to her.

I don't see how you can like —. He is all right but I can't blame you for not.

As for picking me to blow off your steam on — I love it. You are about the only girl I care about writing notes to.

I wish I were like other boys. I take everything too seriously.

I have run out of anything to say, so answer soon.

however, Chalk connected with Smith, Bronc end, on a long pass. Read bringing down the ball carrier on the Ozona 15. Chalk charged through to make it a first down on the Ozona 3 and then was over for a touchdown on the next play. A pass was good for the extra point and the scoring for the evening was ended at 24 for Ozona and 13 for Sonora.

The Lions started another downfield march which carried to the Sonora 10 for a first down, but a 15-yard penalty for using hands choked off the scoring threat. The Broncs were throwing passes with reckless abandon as the game ended with the Sonorans in possession on Ozona's 30 yard line.

The Story of The Sprouting Telephone Pole
Can you imagine a telephone pole that sprouts like Jack's fabled beanstalk? The tall telephone pole shown above did just that... only it did its sprouting in cost. The two poles shown in the picture are actually the same size and serve the same purpose. However, one was bought four years ago, the other this year. And this sprouting telephone pole is typical of the climbing costs of all labor and material required to provide you with telephone service. Will the pole stop sprouting? Who knows? But we do believe you should know how difficult it is to continue good service under present conditions of higher operating costs.
