AN OLD SPANISH CUSTOM

Last Sunday evening a mixed group of Anglo and Latin Americans enjoyed seeing a rather rare event. Delma Martinez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Martinez, was having her fifteenth birthday. There is a custom among Latin people — and, knowing no better, we will call it "an old Spanish custom" — of acknowledging a daughter's fifteenth birthday with a ceremony which is partly social and partly religious, whereby she is formally inducted into adult life. She has been a "muchacha" (young lady). Socially, it is the equivalent of our custom, not much observed now, of "coming out." Religiously, it reminds one of the confirmation service held in some churches. But wherever it originated and whatever the meaning may be to those who know, to the casual spectator it is an interesting and gracious occasion.

Mass was celebrated in the local Catholic Church. Father Howard presided with his usual dignity. The church was filled almost to capacity with the faithful, friends of the family, and visitors from in and out of town.

The honoree's court of honor, consisting of fourteen couples of young people and the girl's parents entered the church processional style and occupied seats at the front.

Those familiar with the Catholic Mass need no description of it, but even to the visitor who sees only the obvious and does not know the inner meanings, it is still a beautiful and solemn ceremony, and rises at times, to high points of dramatic power. The lighted altar and its furnishings, the disciplined modulations of the priest's voice as he intoned the lines of the ritual, are seen and heard against a background of liberal music by women's voices. We felt that the singing of the choir, sometimes alone and sometimes antiphonally with the priest's chant, was most moving.

When the Mass was over, a part of the congregation assembled again at the Community House. Here the social part of the festivities began with a word of welcome by a very adept Latin American Master of Ceremonies from Del Rio.

To the accompaniment of live orchestra music, the court of honor made a processional under a floral arch, by couples. A high point was the entry of the honoree with her father. Her mother was accompanied by the girl's escort. In this ritual one could see the symbolism of family unity, a feature prominent in Latin culture. To this graceful processional the young couples brought much poise. Another pageant was enacted at the beginning of the dance. The honoree danced first with her father, then with the male members of her family in the order of their ages, then with each escort in the order of honor.

Not only are such occasions enjoyable to those who take part in them, but they also help different groups in the community to better understand and appreciate each other. The Martinez family and their friends are to be congratulated on the splendid planning and arrangements that made this most pleasant to so many.

Someone pointed out that this country is interesting because it is enriched by cross-fertilization with parts of so many customs and cultures.

Since we came from the four corners of the world to settle in this country together, why should we not seek to know and appreciate each other? Each racial and national group has something to give the whole that is America. And each group needs to take from the others.

In witnessing this old Latin custom of introducing a girl to society as if time turned back a century for us, and we recovered fully one of the lost graces of history.

Sheriff's Posse Banquet To Honor Ozona Gridsters

Henry Frnka, Former Tulane Coach, To Be Speaker

Members of the 1955 Ozona High School football squad, their coaches and dads, will be honored guests when the Crockett County Sheriff's Posse entertains at its annual barbecue supper and program in the girls' gym at the high school Tuesday evening, September 6, starting at 7:30 p. m.

Henry Frnka, famous former coach at Tulane University and the University of Tulsa, will be the speaker on the occasion. Frnka first attracted attention as he coached the Greenville, Texas, high school to the state schoolboy grid championship. He stepped into college coaching at Tulsa University and went from there to Tulane where he carved an enviable record. He is now vice president of Trinity University.

Coach Frnka is another in a long list of prominent coaches of the Southwest Conference and other areas who have been secured as guest speakers by Sheriff's Posse in the annual fall banquet to honor members of the high school grid squad. Among other coaches who have talked to the boys and their dads about football, school spirit, fair play and the overall benefits of high school athletics, are Dana X. Bible, now athletic director at the University of Texas and one of the Southwest's most famous coaches; Coach Dutch Meyer of T. C. U.; Coach George Sauer, then at Baylor; Coach Rusty Russell, while he was coach at S. M. U.; and Matty Bell, former coach and now athletic director at S. M. U.

The banquet is slated to start at 7:30. Coaches Pete Hickman and Sozny Cleere will introduce members of the 1955 grid squad and acquaint the Lion boosters with the season's campaign plans and prospects. All men of the community interested in football and the high school athletic program are invited to the banquet.

Four Miles To Be Added To Paving On Pandale Road

Hiway Department Allocates Addition In 2-Year Plan

Approximately four more miles of paving on the new Pandale road, now under construction, will be added within the next two years under a program inaugurated by the Texas Highway Commission in a recent session.

The additional mileage of paving will extend the present 17.8 miles which have already been provided on the Farm to Market road which intersects Highway 290 about four miles west of Ozona and proceeds in a southerly direction.

The Crockett county segment of F. M. road was part of a statewide program inaugurated by the Commission in a two-year program. E. H. Thornton, Jr., chairman of the Texas Highway Commission, said that the funds for this program are being derived from the fund established by Senate Bill 287, 51st legislature.

J. A. Snell, District Engineer of the Texas Highway Department at San Angelo, made the announcement of area road to participate in the program. Mr. Snell said that this year the Commission has authorized the development of some area roads which will serve the dual purpose of service to the adjacent land as well as aiding in the development of the entire area of the state.

It was announced that work will begin on this project just as soon as final planning is completed and right of way secured. Resident Engineer R. A. McCulloch will be in charge of the work in this area.

Boy Suffers Broken Leg In Car-Scooter Crash On Ozona Street

A motor scooter - automobile crash at a street intersection sent a 12-year-old Ozona boy, Johnny Childress, to the hospital with a broken leg here Saturday afternoon.

The scooter on which Johnny and young Van Miller were riding was in collision with an automobile driven by Mrs. Hilda E. Sageor of Ozona. As collisions go the wreck was mild so far as damage to the two vehicles was concerned but in the fall, young Childress suffered a broken thigh bone. Van Miller was uninjured.

The lad was treated at the Crockett County Hospital and then taken Monday to a hospital in San Angelo where the leg has been placed in traction in an effort to prepare it for a cast. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Applewhite, who are at their son's bedside, reported to members of the family here at midweek that satisfactory progress is being made toward setting the broken bone.

Pep Squad Begins Gathering Fuel For Mammoth Bonfire

Already imbued with school spirit even before the term opens and before they have heard the first thud of pighide, the Ozona High School pep squad members are planning their part in the coming football campaigns.

For the opening of the district championship race, on the home field October 21, against Sonora, the girls who will lead the cheering section are planning a gigantic pep rally and bonfire on the parking lot south of the football field.

And because they want it to be the biggest bonfire ever in Ozona, they are going about gathering material for the conflagration now. So, if you have some brush, old lumber, boxes or anything that would add fuel to the fire, call Martha Bailey or some member of the Pep Squad or, if you are having it hauled away, have it unloaded at the site, which will be marked.

Survey Crew To Move Equipment Here Next Week

Chief Engineer Makes Final Arrangements For Start Sept. 12

Paul Kenner, party chief of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service Public Law 566 flood control survey and planning party, was in Ozona this week making preliminary arrangements for moving his crew and equipment to Ozona to begin the Johnson Draw watershed survey.

The party will begin moving its equipment here next week and will be ready to begin operations by Monday, September 12, Mr. Kenner said. The party will establish its office and quarters in the Hotel Ozona for the expected five months period in which the work will be under way.

Around a dozen men will be attached to the engineering crew to be stationed here. The work will consist of making a complete survey of the entire watershed area, with topographic details, historical data on weather, rainfall, flood volume and fall. Geological information of the area will also be ascertained, with core drilling to determine formations as a guide to engineers in preparing specifications for dams.

The survey crew will determine what percentage of the watershed overflow must be controlled, the number and site of dams needed for such control and will prepare detailed plans and specifications for such dams.

The flood control plan also includes Garley draw, the small tributary draw which joins Johnson at the south extreme of Ozona and the survey crew will map the watershed of this small draw and plan its control along with the larger and more extensive Johnson.

When the work of this survey crew is completed, all data will have been collected and detailed plans for the project complete, ready for contract letting by the administrative local group, the Crockett Soil Conservation District.

In the meantime, Crockett county voters will have passed on the question of issuing $200,000 in county bonds to be used to meet (Continued on Last Page)

Air Force Academy To Admit Second Class Of Cadets In July '56

The Academy is now accepting military applications and nominations from Congressmen for appointments.

"To this end, a candidate information and assistance program has been established to aid individuals competing for cadet vacancies by providing information concerning specific qualifications," the Major wrote. Nominations from this area may be sought through Congressman J. T. Rutherford of Odessa.

Special Red Cross Flood Relief Fund Contributions Lag

Ozonans, who know first hand how tremendously important is neighborly help in time of disaster, have so far been strangely indifferent to the call for voluntary donations to a special Red Cross flood relief fund for use in the flood ravaged New England states.

The American Red Cross, which expended nearly $300,000 in flood relief and rehabilitation work in Ozona a little over a year ago, is doing a similar job, only on a vastly expanded scale, in the six-state area on the eastern coast hit by the worst flood disaster in American history.

Local Red Cross chapter officials have left the matter of a local contribution on a strictly voluntary basis and so far the response has been meager. Send or hand your donation to the Ozona National Bank, the Red Cross office of Mrs. W. H. Chandler in the Courthouse, or to the Stockman office. It will be sent directly to National Red Cross headquarters for flood relief in the stricken area.

Name Local Committee To Scan Applications Under Vet Land Act

Under the amended Veterans Land Act passed by the recent legislature, a local committee of three men is required in each county to pass on applications for loans under the act, according to a letter requesting appointment of such a committee by the Commissioners Court here from Earl Rudder, state Land Commissioner and chairman of the Vet. Land Board.

The local committee, to be composed of real property owners familiar with land values in the county, will pass on the financial responsibility of applicants, their eligibility and qualifications and on the reasonable value of land. The committee will serve without pay.

In his letter, Commissioner Rudder suggested that the court consider the county agent as chairman of the committee, and that members be men with a background of experience in agriculture, agricultural values and who are well versed in financial and veterans affairs.

The committee appointment will be considered at the next meeting of the Commissioners Court, County Judge Houston Smith said.

SOLVING TEACHER HOUSING

Growth and progress of a community usually costs taxpayers in keeping public functions in step with developments.

But just at present Ozona faces the peculiar situation of losing money by not spending it in the interest of progress and development.

Take the matter of housing for teachers. The school board this year will rent 20 or more houses from private landlords at a total annual cost of approximately $18,000 in school maintenance money. The schools get a part of that back, of course, in rent paid by teachers, but it also gets the same monthly rent from some fifteen or twenty other houses which the schools built and own.

Now, experience has shown that suitable teacher housing units can be built at a very reasonable sum per unit. On the basis of such experience, it is a good guess that a bond issue of $125,000 would build 20 teacher houses and the saving on rent being paid would be sufficient to retire such an issue in less than ten years. Actually the houses would cost the taxpayers nothing additional and would ultimately mean more money available to make a fine school system even better.

Ozona has enjoyed a steady growth in population through the years and just now faces a very good possibility of a considerable spurt in that direction. The matter of housing has always been a stumbling block in the path of growth and progress for Ozona. It has always been difficult to find housing for families who want to move to Ozona. New houses are being built every year, of course, but the supply never seems to catch up with the demand.

A teacher housing construction program would not only save the taxpayers money now being paid out in rent, but it would be a great shot in the arm for Ozona's continued growth by providing much needed housing for newcomers. It seems to us false economy to do otherwise than start a teacher housing construction project without further delay.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From State Capitol

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Austin, Texas — Main impact of the 54th Legislature will be felt next week when most of the bills it passed will become state law.

Taking effect Sept. 6 will be laws designed to eliminate insurance abuses, overhaul the scandal-racked veterans land program and restrict some labor union activities.

Tax increases are most likely to be noticed first. To augment state revenue by $50 million per year, new levies were placed on beer, cigarettes, gasoline and corporate franchises.

Ultimate payment will fall to the consumer.

Nine major insurance bills are aimed at strengthening the industry and providing better protection for the buying public. Capitalization and surplus requirements will be raised, and sale of insurance securities and stock regulated.

Individual insurance commissioners will be empowered to act together as a board. Insurance counselors will be licensed, and agents will have to pass an examination.

Veterans land program legislation will tighten regulations and impose more stringent controls on both buyers and sellers. Both are made liable to jail terms up to 10 years and fines up to $10,000 for fraud or misrepresentation.

Major labor legislation includes the "Port Arthur bill." It will enable employers to enjoin strikes by a union which cannot show it represents a majority of workers. Already effective is the "Ford Motor bill" denying unemployment payments to union workers by a strike in another plant of their company.

Other new laws will provide $7 million more for public assistance and bring 30,000 more state employees and college professors under federal Social Security. Corruptive comic books will be banned, and incorporation requirements will be broadened to include "any lawful purpose."

Integration Upheld

Big Spring's test case on the legality of Texas public school integration headed toward the Supreme Court.

A suit to enjoin the Texas Education Agency and comptroller from making payments to desegregated schools was denied in district court. Judge Charlie N. Sullivan ruled invalid that part of the Gilmer-Aikin law which applies to segregation.

Notice of appeal was given at once by the attorney for the pro-segregation Texas Citizens Council who brought the suit. If the district court opinion is upheld, there apparently would be no need for an immediate special session of the legislature to revise school laws.

Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd has warned that school integration should not precede legislative action. He, like the Citizens Council, has insisted that the law is presently set up to make state payments only to segregated schools.

Gov. Allan Shivers declined to comment until after the final court action.

Mrs. Ed Simon and three children are here from Tyler for a visit with Mrs. Simon's sister, Mrs. Bit Terry, and family at the ranch south of Ozona.

WTU Inaugurates New Machine Billing Plan

Reddy Kilowatt, West Texas Utilities Company's versatile service symbol, will greet customers on the monthly service statements in a new manner beginning this week. The new card statements, WTU's local office here in Ozona will mail out the new cards for the first time instead of the long statement form used so many years.

Inauguration of the new statement form was decided on after lengthy study and investigation which showed the new method would provide a more convenient statement for the customer and a more efficient system for the Company.

"The new post card statements are prepared on long sheets of heavy paper that feed through machines in a continuous run much as newspaper runs through a printing press," said T. J. Bailey local manager. "The machines figure the statements, prints them and separates them for mailing automatically. The 2 cent postage is printed on each statement at the time the statement is figured and the information is printed on the statement. Use of a mailing permit eliminates the need for stamping the statements separately."

It was pointed out that the new statement is basically a simpler and modernized form of the old statement. There has been no change in rates or manner in calculating the statement. The due date and delivery date remain the same as before.

Experiment Station Ram Progeny Tests To Begin September 7th

Sonora, — Texas Sheep breeders will begin their ninth annual ram performance and progeny test, September 7, at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station near Sonora, Superintendent W. T. Hardy has announced. All sheep intended for the test should arrive prior to this date.

This test is a cooperative effort by breeders and experiment station personnel to improve important economic factors in sheep such as daily rate of gain, fleece weight and staple length. Other traits evaluated include face covering, conformation, belly wool and skin folds.

This test is open to any sheep breeder who wants to test his rams for their production of these characteristics. Rules for entrance of rams require that they be subject to registry, that they be a group of four rams by one sire, and that they were dropped between November 1, 1934 and April 15, 1935. Further information may be obtained by writing to Dr. Hardy.

The only cost to the breeders is for feed the rams eat while on test. Oscar L. Carpenter, animal husbandman at the Sonora station, will handle the feeding and management of these ram lambs.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stockard and son, Kyle, of Corpus Christi, formerly of Ozona, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Haskel Leath and other friends. The Stockards were honored at a covered dish supper and forty-two party Saturday night. Mr. Stockard was formerly principal of the South Elementary school here.

Doves Said Plentiful As Season Opener Near

Austin — Reports indicate that the mourning dove season — first phase of the fall wildlife harvest — will be favorable, according to the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

He said a field survey of the north zone, which opens for mourning doves on September 1, shows that there is a good supply of birds and that food and water conditions are fair to good.

The north zone season runs from noon on September 1 to sunset on October 15. The south zone season is from noon on October 15 until sunset November 28.

Changes this year include a five day extension to a forty-five day season and a two weeks delay in the south zone opener.

Bag limits and shooting hours, and other basic regulations, are the same, said the Executive Secretary. Shooting will be confined to afternoon hours only and the limits are ten per day and ten in possession.

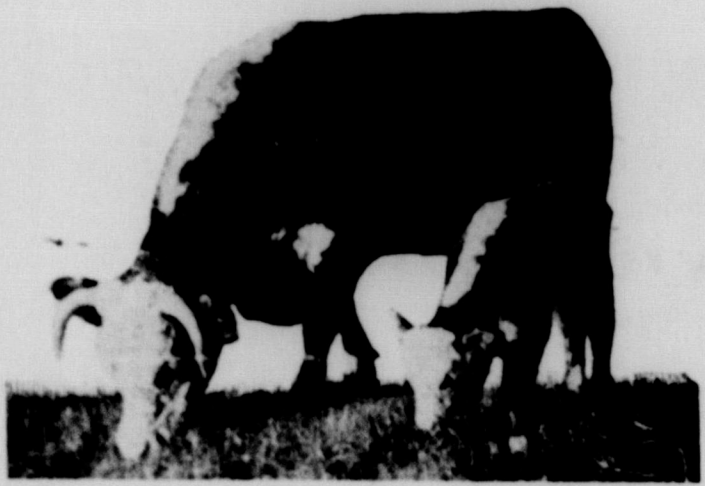

The north zone area comprises about three-fourths of Texas, comprising as it does all the territory running diagonally cross the state on a rough line from Maverick county on the Mexican border to Sabine on the Louisiana border.

calves on the ground are like MONEY IN THE BANK

It costs a lot of money to keep a cow. A lot of that money is lost if she fails to settle or drops small, weak calves that die or develop into "tail-enders."

BIG CROPS of husky calves are a must, if a fellow is going to make money ranching. This is especially true when the price of cattle is off.

Your range needs help. It takes more than grass alone to give your cows what they need to grow and drop the kind of calves that will bring top prices next fall.

PURINA RANGE CHECKERS have proved their worth in research tests and on thousands of ranches. This favorite range supplement has what it takes. Cattle love Checkers, do well on them. Cows stay up in good shape at calving time, have lots of milk for the calves, too.

More and more Southern cattlemen are planning their breeding program so that calves come in the late fall. These calves are ready to eat early grass—hit the early market, which is usually best.

Feed for big calf crops the Purina Way. Purina Range Checkers can help you keep your operation on the profit side of the ledger.

Smaller Cattle Numbers Possible Next Year

FORT WORTH — The recent study of the livestock and meat situation released by USDA pointed out that slaughter of cows and heifers had expanded this year, and reports from over the major market circle currently reveal larger numbers of females than a year ago.

If this trend of increased slaughter of cows and heifers is continued through the last quarter of the year some reduction in the estimate of cattle on farms in the United States is indicated.

However, expanded swine numbers and the expected larger lamb crop in the Southwest next year will likely offset any reduction in total meat animal numbers or tonnage.

Cattle Number Larger Monday At Fort Worth

The offering of cattle and calves was the largest since mid-July at Fort Worth Monday. Drying ranges in many sections of the Southwest and the approach of Fall with the cowmen busy working to shape up herds to go into the winter are credited with the bigger movement.

Most classes showed some weakness. Cows were 50 cents to $1 lower. Steers steady. Bulls unchanged. Slaughter calves and most stocker closed lower.

Comparative prices: Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings $18.00 to $22.00 (quotable to $23.50); common and medium steers and yearlings $12.00 to $18.00; fat cows $9.50 to $11.50; canners and cutters $7.00 to $9.50; bulls $10.00 to $13.50; good and choice slaughter calves $16.00 to $18.50; common and medium $11.00 to $15.00; culls $9.00 to $11.00; stocker steer calves $20.50 down; yearling stockers $19.00 down; replacement cows $8.00 to $12.00.

Sheep And Lambs Steady To Strong

Good and choice fat lambs topped at $18.50 at Fort Worth Monday, and feeders sold from $17 downward. Medium and lower grade lambs sold from $10 to $16. Yearling wethers drew $8 to $16. Old wethers sold from $8 to $12. Old slaughter ewes cashed at $4.50 to $5.50.

Prices were steady on all classes, and high grade sorts very scarce.

Wool Promotion Program Reported Ok'd

Early and incomplete returns of the nation-wide poll of wool producers shows a majority favor the wool promotion program. However, it will be some time before tabulation is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Schneemann have as guests this week their son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. Clyde Sikes and children of California, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Schneemann and children from Grants, N. M.

the county's prorata share of the cost of the overall project, estimated to cost in the neighborhood of $800,000.

With detailed plans complete and all cost data assembled, the matter will be ready to present to the Congress of the United States for federal participation under Public Law 366, which gives authority for the federal government, through the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Soil Conservation Service, to shoulder a part of the cost of watershed control projects. H. N. Smith, State Conservationist, in a recent meeting with local flood control committees gave rough estimates of the cost and estimated that the government would shoulder three-fourths of the total cost. It was on the basis of these estimates that the county will proceed to order the $200,000 bond election to be ready with the local portion of the cost when the project is ready for submission to Congress.

The survey is being carried out here with a $25,000 trust fund provided by the county, to be administered by the Crockett SCD, under an arrangement made with the Soil Conservation Service whereby the local survey will be speeded up by at least a year. The $25,000 advance will be credited back to the county as a prorata share of the total cost. Adding machines at the State
