Report Shows $18,570 Total Tax Collected

Payments To Date Running Higher Than Last Year, Said

The Crockett county tax collector's till has been swelled by a total tax "take" of $18,570.67 to date, according to a check-up made yesterday by Deputy Claude Russell in charge of collections in the office of Sheriff W. S. Willis. Of this amount, $4,362.17 goes to the state coffers, $9,097.65 to the county, and $5,110.85 to the schools. Total poll tax receipts issued to date number 62, the report showed. In addition, fines totalled $192.05 and receipts from car registrations totalled $196.50. Collections at the end of this period are considerably up from the same time last year, in the opinion of the deputy, although no direct comparison in collections was possible. Taxpayers have until the end of January to pay without penalty. Those who paid on the split payment plan, 34 in all, will have until June 30 to pay the second half.

J. W. Owens Buys 12-Sect. Ranch In Pecos County

Part Sherbino Place To Ozonan; Former Owner Leases Land

J. W. Owens, Crockett county rancher and breeder of registered Rambouillet sheep, has added to his ranch holdings by purchase the past week of a 12-section ranch in Pecos county. Mr. Owens purchased the 12 sections out of the N. S. Sherbino ranch of 20 sections about seven miles south of Bakersfield. The ranch is fully improved. The ranch was immediately leased for a four-year period to Mr. Sherbino, the former owner, who retained ownership of the adjoining eight sections. Consideration in the deal was not made public.

ONE THING and THEN ANOTHER

By FRED GIPSON

CORPUS CHRISTI.—The other morning, along about late milking time, I woke up and got out of bed and started padding down the hall toward the bathroom and was suddenly confronted with a curled-tail stinging scorpion. I'd just interrupted him in his stalking of a cockroach and he was pretty irritated about it.

I raised my foot, aiming to stomp him to a grease spot, then held it there, raised, while I thought:

"Now, I really shouldn't destroy this little creature. He's got the same right to life, love and pursuit of happiness as I. For that matter, his life may be more important in the general scheme of things than mine. For who knows—really knows—that man is of more importance than scorpions.

"And then, too, if these evolutionists are right, that scorpion and I both had as our ancestors a pair of wiggly worms in the slimy ooze of the sea bottom. That was millions of years ago, of course, but that still doesn't keep us from being brothers under the skin. And should the blood of brother be upon the foot of brother?"

"And I shook my head. "No!" I said. "Absolutely, not! Not when a man's foot is shoeless and his brother has a stinger all cocked, ready to slap it into a man's bare skin."

Foreman Makes "Sure He's Right" And Davy Crockett's Famed Motto Placed Correctly On Memorial Installation

The crew of workmen who early this week installed the granite base for the Davy Crockett memorial being erected by the state in the city park here failed to read in time the inscription of the motto whose origin is credited to the Texas pioneer and hero of the Alamo.

"Be sure you are right, then go ahead," Davy's motto, is inscribed on one side of the huge block of granite. The truck on which the base had been brought here was backed to the concrete foundation already made to receive it. In order to equalize elevations of the truck bed and the foundation for more convenient unloading, deep holes were dug on the east side of the foundation and the truck wheels dropped off into these holes.

All was set for the complicated unloading process when an onlooker questioned the wisdom of turning the side on which the motto was inscribed to the inside of the park, whereas the statue is to face south or toward the highway. The foreman in charge of operations declared that he had been instructed to turn "all lettering to the rear."

But the foreman walked around and read the inscription. "Be sure you are right, then go ahead." And without further word reached for blueprint plans of the installation. He studied it for a few minutes and then announced to his helpers—"She's got to go the other way, boys."

Impressed with the motto and the near mistake, the foreman spent several more minutes studying the blueprint, and then "sure he was right" he went ahead, dug the truck with its 15,000-pound load out of the holes and proceeded to move to the other side of the foundation to start the unloading operation.

Jim Dudley Chosen By Teammates To Captain 1939 Lions Football Squad At Annual Banquet Wednesday Night

Fast Stepping End On '38 Squad To Spark Team In Fall

Teammates of Jim Dudley, fast and heady end on this year's Ozona High School Lions, last night elevated him to the captaincy of the 1939 football squad with an enthusiastic pledge of loyalty and serious effort as the curtain was rung down on another banquet for the football squad and men of the faculty given by the Home Economics department of the high school.

Captain Dudley, who will be a senior next year, was a consistent headsup player through the past season and figured in many of the ground-gaining passing combinations of Montgomery to Dudley. He is shifty on the field while carrying the mail and is one of the most popular members of the squad. Thunderous applause greeted his simple speech of acceptance—"I appreciate this honor you have shown me, and I will do my best to make you a good cap."

Beatrice Mayo To Sing Here December 22

Mezzo Contralto First Of Four Musical Arts Winter Series

Beatrice Mayo, well known American mezzo contralto, star of opera, screen and radio, will appear in person at the high school auditorium here Thursday evening, December 22, the first in a series of fine arts program sponsored here this winter by the Ozona Music club.

Miss Mayo, a native American, holds a Juillard Fellowship and has spent years of study under some of the world's foremost teachers. She has been said to possess one of the greatest mezzo-contralto voices in America today. Her repertoire is large, and includes Italian, German, French, Spanish, Russian, opera, concert and oratorio.

Miss Mayo's concert here will include four groups of songs, providing a variety performance bound to please all classes of music lovers. There will be another group by the accompanist.

Officials of the Music club, sponsors of the four-artist winter concert series, are anxious to dispose of remaining season tickets for the series. The season ticket prices are $2.50 for adults and $1 for students. Sales booths will be maintained at Smith Drug Store, Hotel Ozona and Piggly Wiggly store, or persons who desire may obtain them by telephoning Mrs. H. B. Tandy. Admission prices for the individual concerts will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Dorley Resigns To Accept Post In Illinois School

Ozonan To Be Supervisor Of Boys In Orphans Home

Carl Dorley, building custodian of the Ozona Public School system the last four and a half years, and home run clouter and crack first baseman on Ozona baseball teams in those years, has resigned his position here with the schools.

Mr. Dorley, with Mrs. Dorley and their small son, will leave Friday for Bloomington, Ill., where Mr. Dorley has accepted a position as supervisor of boys at the Illinois Soldiers and Sailors Children's School at Normal, Ill., a suburb of Bloomington. The institution is a home and school for orphans of American soldiers and sailors.

Mr. Dorley's resignation has been accepted by school authorities and his successor will be named within the next few weeks by the school board. Meanwhile, Jose Martinez, who has been Mr. Dorley's assistant in charge of the elementary school building, will be in charge of both buildings, with an assistant, until the position is filled by the school board.

Base Section Of Memorial to Davy Crockett Set Up

Relief Carving Of Texas Hero To Be Set Up Here Soon

Fifteen thousand pounds of Texas granite, from the Llano granite quarries, was brought here by truck the first of the week and set on the concrete foundation already built in the city park as a base for the statue of David Crockett, Texas independence war hero, final erection of which is to be completed in the next few days.

The foundation block is about 12 feet long, three and a half feet wide and two feet thick. On its face is engraved Davy Crockett's famed motto, "Be sure you are right, then go ahead."

Atop this block, a nine-foot shaft, also of granite, into which the figure of Davy Crockett has been carved in relief, is to be set up. A brief biographical sketch is engraved on the back of the block.

The carving of the statue has been completed, the installing crew said, and was expected to be brought here before the end of this week.

Boyd Cox Escapes Injury In Wreck Of Auto Near McCamey

Boyd Cox, ranchman living near Rankin and a son-in-law of Mrs. Mary Perner of Ozona, escaped serious injury last Monday when the car he was driving collided with a truck on the highway between McCamey and the Cox ranch home.

Mr. Cox was badly bruised and shaken up in the accident but was not otherwise seriously injured, according to information received here by Mrs. Perner. The car, however, a new Buick, was badly wrecked.

Leslie Nance, salesman for the West Texas Utilities Co. here, is able to be out again after a recent major operation in a San Angelo hospital.

At Farm Meeting

Five thousand delegates from 39 states will attend the American Farm Bureau federation's annual convention opening Monday, December 12 at New Orleans. Chief speaker on the program will be Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia of New York City.

Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., Named President Missionary Group

Re-Elected For Third Term; Other Officers Are Chosen

Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., was chosen for a third term as president of the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church at the business session of the group following the regular Wednesday program this week.

Other officers were chosen as follows: vice president, Mrs. Paul Perner; recording secretary, Mrs. Stephen Perner; secretary young women's group, Mrs. Carl Colwick; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Joe Pierce; treasurer, Mrs. B. E. Ingram; assistant treasurer, Mrs. E. E. Baggett; secretary of children's work, Mrs. W. R. Baggett; superintendent of baby specials, Mrs. Walter Augustine; superintendent of study, Mrs. Evert White; superintendent of literature and publicity, Mrs. N. W. Graham; agent for "World Outlook," Mrs. Alvin Harrell; superintendent of Christian social relations, Mrs. Scott Peters; superintendent of supplies, Mrs. Charles Williams; superintendent of local work, Mrs. Roy Henderson.

A report on the International Missionary conference being held at Madras, India, was made by the superintendent of the spiritual life group. The International conference is held every ten years, the last at Jerusalem in 1928. Its purpose is to continue the work of world Christian fellowship. Two delegates from the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, are Dr. A. W. Wasson, foreign secretary of the church, and Miss Sallie Lou McKinnon, from the Woman's Missionary Council Board.

Mrs. E. B. Baggett led the devotional at Wednesday's program. The topic was "God's Gift to Man." Music was by Mrs. Vic Pierce, and the scripture reading was by Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr. "Having by Using" was the meditation talk by Mrs. Paul Perner.

Present were Mesdames E. B. Baggett, Madden Read, L. B. Cox, Jr., J. A. Fussell, Scott Peters, Paul Perner, Stephen Perner, O. D. Busby, Eugene Slater, Welton Bunker, E. R. Ingham, B. B. Ingham, Jr., W. R. Baggett, Minnie Crumley, Mary Flowers, V. I. Pierce, Charles Williams, N. W. Graham and Carl Colwick.

Ozona Puts On Christmas Dress For Santa Claus

Santa Claus is going to find a glittering welcome in Ozona again this Christmas.

Christmas colored lights, many hundreds of them, will blink at him from a solid canopy overhead in the downtown section. Cooperating merchants and the West Texas Utilities Co. have installed more than a dozen strings of colored lights over downtown streets, and in addition four large trees at the corners in the city park have been lighted in Christmas tree fashion and a border of lights outlining the park area.

Adding to the holiday spirit, various of the places of business have strung up colored lights, the Hotel Ozona being notable as one of the most profusely decorated. Glittering show-windows of progressive business firms in Ozona, plus the beautiful display of colored lighting make the business area a fairyland at night.

Ten Days Given For Christmas Holiday Period

Schools Dismiss Dec. 22; Work Resumes January 2

Ozona school children will enjoy a ten-day holiday period for Christmas, it was announced this week by Supt. C. S. Denham.

Schools will be dismissed on Thursday evening, December 22, to resume again on Monday, January 2. The Friday holiday was granted in order to allow teachers ample time in which to reach their homes before Christmas.

Under state department of education rules, holidays, other than Christmas, are limited to five, and one week for Christmas. The granting of the additional holiday for Christmas will be charged up against the local schools and will result in only one holiday for the balance of the present term. This holiday will be observed on April 21, San Jacinto Day.

Mrs. R. A. Harrell is visiting in Fort. Worth.

THE MIDDLE OF THE ROAD

An editorial in the New York Times, one of America's foremost Democratic dailies, says: "A great number of Americans have been encouraged to believe that it is possible to grow richer by working less and by producing less; that it is the proper business of a government to subsidize large numbers of its people; that there is an inexhaustible supply of money which can be used endlessly for this purpose; that those who advise greater caution in the expenditure of public funds, or who urge a relaxation of restraints which needlessly handicap private enterprise, are merely 'dual overlords' who stand in the way of all progress. The dangers involved in such a course as this are an eventual bankruptcy of the national government and encouragement of 'class' prejudice which ought to have no place in the United States."

It then points out that the last election indicates "the American people are moving toward the middle of the road."

The people want social reform, where it is necessary. They want adequate provision made for the needy and the elderly. But at the same time they want to keep our institutions, and our democratic heritage, inviolate. Disregarding all political partisanship, that's the best news in a long while.

ARMS FOR THE ARMY

American civilian citizens who do not give much attention to our comparatively modest military affairs will wonder at the assertion from high military sources that the army is seriously lacking in arms. With all the billions spent on public works of one kind or another it does seem strange that the equipment of our military defense should be seriously inadequate as to both quality and quantity. The great advance in the mechanical agencies of war puts special stress on this situation. Modern weapons are complicated and take much time to manufacture. They cannot be turned out in the great numbers which mobilization and the wastage of war demand in short order, unless elaborate provision for quantity production has been made. It is also necessary to provide stocks for immediate use and ammunition reserves. Dies and tools are needed for quantity production and arrangements made for the prompt and efficient cooperation of private manufacturers. This phase of defense is appreciated by our military authorities who are doing what they can to meet the problem, but congress must provide means. We do not and need not maintain a huge army, but all the more reason why the force we have be equipped with the latest and most efficient arms and adequate supplies be insured.—Chicago Tribune.

FULL INQUIRY

Washington reports say the Administration is making every effort to head off a congressional investigation of WPA. Such an investigation has been foreshadowed by revelations of political abuses during the recent campaign. It would naturally follow in any event from the appeal to congress for additional relief funds, which must be made early in the coming year. The Administration's attitude, if correctly reported, is not a very smart one. The revelations—for example, the Arizona situation which brought indictments by a federal grand jury—have left no doubt the WPA is a prey to grave faults, calculated to forfeit public confidence in it. If Administration leaders sincerely are interested in preserving the WPA form of work relief, they will recognize that these faults must be dealt with, frankly and vigorously. And certainly there is no better time for it than the present, when, with the election out of the way, the temptation to make political capital will be so much less. Efforts to forestall an investigation are not likely to succeed in any event. After what has been disclosed, the people will not be put off but will want to know all there is to know what is being done with their money. The best course for the Administration will be to fall in with the demand for a full and impartial inquiry.—Detroit News.

LABOR WARNED IN OREGON

The Committee for Industrial Organization (C.I.O.), at its recent convention in Pittsburgh, adopted a resolution threatening Ford Motor Company with a boycott of its cars if it continues to refuse to bargain with the union. Under the Wagner Act, coercion and intimidation are forbidden only to the employer, who may not even express an opinion to his employees derogatory of a union or unions, while labor may invite the public to ruin him.

It is such perverted law in our country, that seems to follow pretty closely the pattern of one-sided justice as meted out today in some foreign nations, that brought a revolution of public sentiment in Oregon which has surprised the nation. Oregon voters said labor dictatorship must go, labor unionism may stay. By a heavy majority vote, even in labor centers, an initiative measure was passed which prohibits strikes and picketing except when a majority of a company's employees are in direct dispute over wages, hours and working conditions; limits the collection of money to the actual needs of the union and requires a strict accounting of union funds; forbids union intimidation or coercion of non-union workers and prevents union interference with any lawful commercial, manufacturing or farming operation.

It is just such resolutions as the one passed in Pittsburgh, that turn people against labor radicalism, not against honest unionism. Individual rights and liberties are destroyed by one-sided laws and dictatorship comes into power. Oregon citizens suffered under such a system and threw it out.

COMIC HEROES IN EXILE

American youngsters must have been rudely surprised the other day to learn that two heroes of the comic strips and animated cartoons had been barred from a European dictator country. What, they must have asked, could be objectionable about Mickey Mouse and Popeye the Sailor?—the two comic characters exiled by a dictator's decree.

To these awed Americans, the answer offered to their question must have sounded equally unreasonable. That answer, by the Fascist Dictator, was that his country must think of the future in such a way that the children of today will become the fighters of tomorrow; that children should be trained in the principles of "sleeping with the head on a knapsack."

But, young Americans may counter, what better fighting spirit could any man want than that characterized in Mickey Mouse and Popeye?

There, youngsters, is perhaps the answer. Our comic heroes are fighters for what is morally right and just, and that doesn't fit in very well with the objectives of foreign isms.

Behind The Scenes of American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—BUSINESS—Although the usual year hesitancy is noticeable in certain lines of industrial production, retail trade is maintaining heartening pace. Exceptionally heavy gift and apparel buying is being the parade in most cities. Every day sees added evidence of workers in industrial areas benefiting from employment and payroll gains in the automobile and related industries. Engineering contract awards in November were 31 per cent above last year. Observers estimate that residential building contracts for the quarter will reach $300,000,000, which would represent a 77 per cent increase over 1937.

WASHINGTON—The Temporal-national economic committee, previously labeled the "monopoly committee," last week began a two-year study of the American economic scene. It will be the most sweeping investigation of business practices ever made in this country. The study, however, is not designed to pillory industry but is purely objective, according to on-record statements of committee Chairman O'Mahoney, Wyoming senator. The first witness,

Their Schooling Is Matter for Court

Seeking possession of his four children in order that they might be entered in British schools, Guy Maynard Liddell, head of England's civil intelligence department, has applied for a writ of habeas corpus against his wife, Mrs. Calypso Liddell, mother of the children and from whom he has been separated since 1935. All of the children are honor students in a Miami, Fla., grade school.

labor department's statistically-minded Dr. Isadore Lubin, told the committee that before America can return to 1929 prosperity levels, two immediate problems must be solved. These are, he said: first, providing economic security for farmers and investors as well as workers, and, second, a rise in the standard of living.

MORE AUTO NEWS—While motorists are still talking about the improvements and novel gadgets in 1939 automobiles, designers in Detroit and other automotive centers are already drafting plans for the 1940 models. Prospects are that glass sections in the top of the car will be the next step in auto designing, judging from the popular acceptance of open-air panels in some 1939 models just unveiled. This possibility is heightened by the recent development of a heat-absorbing glass scientists call aklo which lets in light but keeps out heat of sun's rays. In either a laminated or case-hardened form this glass in the roof of an automobile will add to the pleasures of driving while not detracting from its safety factor.

BOOKS OF RETAIL KNOWLEDGE—Many retail merchants are making profitable progress in building up their businesses by adopting modern merchandising methods. In order that all may benefit from the experience of individual storeowners, the department of commerce is now publishing a series of pamphlets based on marketing studies made by its research division. The first, just off the press, discusses store arrangement principles. Included are 30 photographs of what modern practitioners of the ancient art of serving the consumer consider proper store arrangements and displays.

Reservoirs of CREDIT

BANKS are sometimes called reservoirs of credit. Just what does the expression mean? Consider our bank, for example. Scores upon scores of depositors bring their money to us for safekeeping. These amounts, sometimes small, sometimes large, are like the brooks, streams and rivers that help to fill a reservoir. Then borrowers come to the bank and obtain loans of these funds. Sometimes one loan requires the deposits of a hundred people. It can thus be easily seen how we serve as a reservoir of credit by gathering money and giving it effectiveness in the form of loans to worthy borrowers. The importance of this service is quickly apparent.

News Notes From Troops In West Texas Area

ELDORADO—A chart of honor and a training session for Eldorado will be held Monday, Dec. 12, according to Judge J. A. Whitten, chairman of the Court of Honor, and E. W. Brooks, chairman of troop committee. The training course will be the second session of the introduction to Scouting. Rev. Noel P. Wilkerson, Scoutmaster, and Mr. Barber, Scoutmaster for the senior Scout patrol, will assist in presenting badges and conducting the training course.

SONORA—A Court of Honor be held at Sonora on Tuesday, December 13 at 7 p. m. in the Board of Directors' room of the bank, according to J. T. Jones, chairman of the Court of Honor.

After the badges are presented, the second session of the training course in "Elements of Scout Leadership" will be held.

MERTZON—A training course for Scout and Cub leaders in Mertzton and for prospective Scout leaders in Barnhart was held in the Scout cabin in Mertzton on Monday night, December 5. John Bishop, chairman of the Scout committee, was in charge of the program. Merit Badge counselors received their training certificates, and all participated in the first session of the introduction course. Sessions will be held monthly.

PERMAIN BASIN CAMPOREE—The quarterly Permain Basin Camporee and Court of Honor will be held Friday and Saturday, December 9 and 10, according to W. W. Allman, chairman of camping. Scouts from all the troops at Fort Stockton, Imperial, Iran, McCamey, Rankin, Big Lake, Texas and Crane have been invited. A Camporee with an "Adventure Trail" will be on the program.

PRESENTATION SET

Miss Eleanor Roosevelt, niece and namesake of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, will be presented in Washington at a White House dance to be given by President and Mrs. Roosevelt the latter part of December. Her father is Hall Roosevelt of New York city, brother of Mrs. Roosevelt.

Fred Gipson—

So, I put my foot back down and walked around, giving my little brother plenty of room to continue his cockroach-stalking, undisturbed.

Watermelon Sam Davis, ebony-skinned shine boy, peanut vendor, watermelon salesman, philosopher, and frequent inmate of the Corpus Christi city jail, came strolling by the office the other day, whistling the cheeriest of tunes.

"What's making you so happy today, Sam?" I asked.

He cut his whistling short and flashed a row of milk-white teeth at me. "Well, boss, I tells you," he said. "I learns long time ago to be happy today, 'cause tomorrow I may lays me down and not gets me up."

I wish more of us had been blessed with as much sense as Watermelon Sam.

Sam doesn't get in jail now as often as he used to. The cops have a harder time getting anything on or out of him.

"Deese days, Ise nevah sees what I sees, Ise nevah knows what I knows," he says by way of explanation.

Wouldn't there be a lot of backyard gossip hushed up and forgotten if everybody learned what Watermelon Sam learned.

Every now and then I like to lie flat of my back in bed and visit with some old friends of mine—Lao Tzu, Mencius and Chuang Tzu, the wise ones of China who lived way back, five and six hundreds years before Christ.

People in this country are inclined to speak of the Chinese like they do when they're cussing a shepherd or a mangy dog. But I can tell you now, those old boys could have made plenty of our country's leaders get down off the stump.

Just listen to old Lao Tzu on governments: "In the highest antiquity, the people did not know they had rulers. In the next age, they loved and praised them. In the next, they came to fear them. In the next, they despised them." Looks to me like this country's in the last age—or in the last stage.

And listen to old Mencius: "Abstract good principles are not enough to give the kingdom peace; laws cannot execute themselves. If the good and the wise be not trusted, the State will come to naught. The people are the most important element of the state; the ruler the least."

And when a man gets to wondering what would get this country out of the mess it's in, Lao Tzu answers:

"Who can make muddy water clear? But if allowed to remain still, it will clear itself. Leave all things to their natural courses.

Practice inaction, and there is nothing that cannot be done!" I always stop reading right there. There's nothing I get more high-beeled pleasure out of than practicing inaction.

Those old Chinese had plenty on the ball, if you ask me.

She said: "Mmmm! Let's get sugar together!"

Her eyes were brown and her smile a thing mighty good for a man to look upon. So I said:

"Mmmmm! Think you've got something, there!"

So we both stuck our spoons in the same sugar bowl and sweetened our coffee.

The meeting was opened with the Scout Oath, led by William Beecher Montgomery. Upon the calling of the roll, it was found that 23 were present.

The annual registration fees were paid at the last meeting. The fee is 50c a year. The new troop charter will be presented at the Father and Son Banquet, which is to be held on Dec. 15.

At the annual Scouters' Father and Son Banquet, there will be some who get merit badges and some who get other ranks in scouting. Also there will be a tenderfoot investiture ceremony. About four or five Scouts will be in the investiture ceremony.

After Christmas the Scouts will have at least two activities a month. Mrs. Ben Lemmons has agreed to be the recreation counselor for our troop. She is to be in charge of the recreation. It is

Concerts From University Carillon Three Times Weekly

OSTIN, Dec. 9.—A 17-year-old university of Texas freshman has been delegated to make music from 40 pounds of bells in the tower of the University of Texas Administration-Library building three times a week. Marion, a student from Houston, is the University's giant $40,000 carillon in a noonday concert Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

The set of bells, which was purchased by the university for $1 a pound from the makers of the National Washington Memorial carillon at Valley Forge, Pa., had since when the 27 story main building was completed, been used only on special occasions, as the spring Round-Up, and the Texas ex-students' homecoming. However, with the establishment of the College of Fine Arts at the university this year and a new interest in music evidenced by the frequent weekly carillon concerts, it was planned.

White House Greet New Foreign Envoys

war dances. They are constructed from old inner tubes and decorated with discarded oil cans. According to Ray Fadden, teacher at the Tuscorora reservation school, the tom-tom industry originated when an inventive Indian pupil created one of the drums to attract visitors to a display of bead work for sale. There were more demands for the drums than for the beads.

TOO HOT FOR HIM

The following advertisement appeared in a county newspaper: "Old-established baker's business for sale; good oven; present owner been in it 11 years; good reason for leaving."

Press Club Holds Christmas Meeting

The Press Club was entertained by Misses Mary Frances and Billie Jo West, in the home of their mother, Mrs. W. W. West, Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

After the roll had been called and answered by brief news items by each member, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. As new business the club formally welcomed Miss George Ann Kirby as a new member. Miss Kirby entered the club by writing one thousand words in original compositions for the Lions Roar.

The program presented by the program chairman, Miss Bette Lou Coates, was as follows: Miss Crystelle Carson gave a talk on "An Outline of a Newspaper Routine." Miss Doris Bunger told us of "Christmas Across the Ocean." Miss Posey Baggett gave a paper on "What Is News?" These talks were followed by Christmas Carols by the group led by Miss Adelia Willis and accompanied by Miss Dorothy Hannah.

The members present who enjoyed a plate of sandwiches, hot tea, olives, potato chips and cookies were Jeff Fumell, Doris Bunger, Billie Jo West, W. B. Robertson, George Ann Kirby, Ora Louise Cox, Crystelle Carson, Mary Alyce Smith, Mary Frances West, Dorothy Hannah, Howard Lemmons, Gene Drake, Walter Escue, Elton Smith, Adelia Willis, and Bette Lou Coates and Posey Baggett.

The members enjoyed having Miss Margaret Martin as a guest from the faculty. The next meeting will be held in the home of Miss Doris Bunger after the Christmas holidays.

New Basketball Team Shows Promise

Second Week Of Practice Started

With nearly two weeks of practice behind them, the Ozona high school Lions are beginning to look like a basketball team that may surprise a lot of the folks.

Ozona fans who have watched the sessions before believe that Beecher Montgomery will start at one forward position with Jim Dudley, junior, at the other forward. Joe Williams, senior, and Donald Wilson, sophomore, are the next best bets for forwards.

Troy Langford, 6 foot 2 inches, freshman, appears to have the first call for center. Howard Lemmons, the junior, who played a brilliant game at fullback on the football team, looks like the best of the guards. The other guard position will be manned by either Phillip Schneemann, senior, or Walter Escue, who has been alternating between center and guard.

Other promising candidates on the team include Willie Joe Hubbard, Bobby Lemmons, George B. Armentrout, Floyd Hokit, Bill Hannah, W. B. Robertson, Shorty Colquitt, Jessie Hancock, Roy Henderson, Wayne West, Lloyd Coates, Elton Smith, Carl Thurman, Joe B. Chapman. Coach White wishes to invite the people of Ozona to come to all the basketball games played by his team. The Lions have received numerous invitations from the near-by towns to participate in their tournaments, but due to the lack of enough practice, the Lions have refused these invitations. The Lions will open their 1938-39 schedule with a brace of games with the Eldorado Eagles, the first to be played in Eldorado on the night of December 16, the second to be in Ozona on the following night.

GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

KINDERGARTEN NEWS

Notice!
 Watch for our gift shop to appear soon.

We had a Thanksgiving luncheon last week and invited three guests. These guests were Miss Norine Allison, Miss Kay Kirby and Miss Conner Maducks. We hope that they will visit with us again soon.

SECOND GRADE

Mrs. Stephen Perner, room mother, assisted by Mrs. Walter Augustine and Mrs. Hillery Phillips, entertained the second grade with a lovely Thanksgiving party on the afternoon before the holidays. Marshall Phillips won the prize for shooting the heart of the turkey. Pencil sharpeners were given as favors and delicious refreshments were served from an attractively decorated table.

We have finished our airplane. It is red and silver, and we have named it "The Silver Wing."

Mrs. Elton Smith entertained on Wednesday afternoon with a party in honor of Estes' birthday. After games were played and the presents opened, refreshments were served to members of the second grade and other guests.

THIRD GRADE

The third grade pupils are very busy getting ready for Christmas. We have cut Christmas trees free hand, and we are pasting a gift on for each perfect paper. We have made a December calendar in order to check the days before Christmas. We have made wreaths for our windows. We are also working on Christmas presents, but they are secrets and we cannot tell about them.

FOURTH GRADE Mediterranean Cruise

The fourth grade is on a Mediterranean cruise. We will stop at Spain a few days and visit with Leandro on a little Spanish bay. We go from Spain to France. Our ship will stop at Marseilles. We will visit the soup factories there. When we leave France we will go to Italy. We will visit Pepino in Italy. From Italy we go to Greece then on to the Holy Land. We hope to reach the Holy Land by Christmas.

Plans for Christmas
 The fourth grade is busy making plans for Christmas.

ing plans for Christmas. We made Christmas trees and decorated them this week. John Fussell, Dick Lee McDonald and Palma Trull won prizes for having the best trees.

Mrs. Charles E. Davidson, Jr., is going to give the fourth grade some new decorations. The decorations are to be blue and silver. We are very proud that we can have something different.

We are working on a Christmas play. The first four grades are going to have a playlet together.

FIFTH GRADE

The fifth grade enjoyed the Thanksgiving holidays. All pupils of the fifth grade wrote a theme on "How We Spent the Holidays."

SEVENTH GRADE

The seventh grade girls gave a tea for their mothers Wednesday. The girls wore the dresses they had made in home economics. Ice box cookies and spiced tea were served. Mrs. Gray donated some books to our library.

SIXTH GRADE

The Sixth grade is very anxious for Christmas to come. We have made several things for our mothers and fathers. We have worked very hard on them and we hope our mothers will like them. I think we will all be ready for the holidays to come.

HOW I SPENT THE HOLIDAYS

By Ted Anderson
 Wednesday afternoon we got out of school for the Thanksgiving holidays. Daddy took us to the ranch. When we got there, it was dark, so we ate supper, and then I popped some firecrackers. The next morning I got up, ate breakfast, and then went out to kill some birds. I killed six that day. About 10 o'clock daddy was called to Sherwood to a funeral. Daddy, mother and sister went, but I stayed at the ranch. The next day I hunted some more and killed two more birds. I killed them all with a B-B gun.

The next day I went over to James' home on horse-back and stayed until about four o'clock. Then I started home. While I was going home, daddy came back from Sherwood. The next day, which was Sunday, we came in to town. I had a very nice Thanksgiving.

GARDENIAS AND GARLIC

Gardenias to the NRDC for the successful German.

Garlic to P. S. for being too original in mating his socks.

Gardenias to J. B. N. for "sticking by his guns."

Garlic to D. C. for insulting the girl scientists of O. H. S.

Gardenias to M. B. P. for entertaining the S. H. with the Big Apple.

Garlic to T. K. for being a "Doubting Thomas."

Gardenias to T. S. for having such exciting, if horrible, dreams.

Garlic to E. D. for standing four girls up yesterday.

Gardenias to C. C. and D. H. for putting B. M. in his place when he made a "double date" with himself as the only boy.

Garlic to C. W. for being such a flirt.

Gardenias to B. L. C. for having the ability of meeting all the new boys who come to town.

Garlic to T. F. for making the banquet a stag affair.

Gardenias to B. G. L. for having the nerve to go into the gym at noon.

Garlic to G. J. W. for losing her foothold she possessed at the beginning of school.

Gardenias to the former students of O. H. S. for the pride they showed in keeping the building.

BOY SCOUT FISHING TRIP

By Byron Williams

The Boy Scouts went on a fishing trip on Friday, December 2. They left town at 6 o'clock, reaching Devil's river at 8:30 o'clock.

The next morning the group went fishing. The first time Mr. Hollon cast, he caught the first and only fish that was caught on the trip.

The group built a bridge across the river because all of the bridges had been washed out last summer. Taking part in the trip were Stanley Lemmons, Bill Carson, Mr. Hollon, Eddy Cooke, Dick Henderson, Bland Tandy, Charles McDonald, Lorain Wyatt and Byron Williams. The group had a very good time and plan to go on four or five other fishing trips in the spring.

State Superintendent Visits Ozona Schools

Sue B. Mann, deputy state superintendent, with headquarters at Alpine, visited Ozona public schools on Wednesday, Nov. 30. This is one of her semi-annual visits. Miss Mann visited all classrooms after which she made general commendation of the school system, with special approval of the general school morale.

Miss Mann immediately allowed the school one unit of affiliation in band music, the only additional credit asked. Students now taking band may count it toward graduation, one-half unit per year.

Miss Mann lunched with the mothers of home economics I class at one o'clock on the day of her visit. The luncheon was prepared and served by members of the home economics I class.

"NO-RATA-DATA-CLUB"

The "No-Rata-Data-Club" entertained with a German last Saturday morning at 3 a. m. Many different games were enjoyed besides dancing. Refreshments were served to the following: Billie Gene Linthicum, Tommie Kirby, Crystelle Carson, Bette Lou Coates, Doris Bunger, Mary Faye Lucas, Billie Jo West, Lela Mae Phillips, Eloise Garson, Noma V. Miller, Johnnie Boyd, Jean Drake, Mary Bess Parker, Tincy Kirby, Miss Mildred Morris, Mrs. O. A. Kirby, and Mrs. Sam Fowler and Miss Elizabeth Coose.

The party "broke" about dawn.

BIRTHDAYS

The celebrities in this week's birthday column are fond of outdoor sports, particularly horses. These people are temperamental, expansive and altruistic. Being very critical they make very good teachers. These persons are honest and sincere and they form lasting friendships. Since these pupils are easily swayed by opinions of others, their promises are not always fulfilled. These pupils show an unusual degree of mental activity. Those celebrating a birthday from December 1 to 8 are George Armentrout, Eloise Carson, Walter Escue. Happy birthday to each of you!

Home Economics A Class Entertains Mothers With Tea

The Home Economics A Class of Ozona public school, which consists of the seventh grade girls, entertained their mothers and a few guests with a tea and style show in the home economics department Wednesday afternoon, November 30.

The members of the class wore dresses which they had just completed in class work.

Class members are: Priscilla Jean Baker, Joy Coates, Mary Louise Perner, Margaret Russell, Vera McCabb, Lottie Jo Owens, Rozelle Pharr, Florence Luther, Zella Thurman, Elizabeth Evans, and Miss Ada Moss. Guests included Mesdames C. C. Luther, Claude Pharr, Tom Owens, Alvin McCabb, George Russell, Paul Perner, Fleet Coates, Hubert Baker, L. B. Townsend and Ted White.

An Orchid To You

By Billie Jo West

To you, Captain Montgomery, Phillip Schneemann, Walter Escue, Willie Joe Hubbard and Joe Williams, we dedicate this week's orchid. You have played a good game of football for some years, and we are proud of you.

LUNCHEON GIVEN BY FRESHMAN GIRLS

The H. E. I. class members have recently studied luncheons. As a complement to the study, they gave a luncheon for their mothers on Wednesday, Nov. 30, at 1 o'clock. Those present were Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Tyer, Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Keeton, Mary Faye Lucas, Pattie Jean Tyer, Mary Frances Bean, Bernice Green, Gem Ella Dudley, Effie Smith, Dorothy Lee Capps, Mary V. Graham, Adelle Keeton, and Miss Sue B. Mann, state deputy superintendent.

THE VOICE OF EXPERIENCE

By A. SENIOR

What would you do with freedom, if you had it?

You long perhaps for freedom? You probably look forward to the time when you can throw all tasks aside.

Right now is the time for you to make your choice. If you are the sort that has to be forced into making an effort, if you never read a book except upon compulsion, if you never do a stroke of work beyond what is required, then the chances are very slight that you will ever have real freedom to look forward to. In other words, freedom comes to those who attain.

Custodian Dorley Resigns Position

Upon being notified of his election to the position of supervisor of boys at the Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' home for their orphaned children, Mr. Dorley tendered his resignation this week. Mr. Dorley assumed his position here in 1932 as building custodian. Under his care the buildings and grounds have been subject to much praise from townspeople and visitors to our city.

The Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' children school located in Normal, a suburb of Bloomington, Ill., is maintained as an orphanage for the children of the deceased of soldiers and sailors. Dr. Dorley's work will be supervisor of playground and dormitory activities of the boys.

REV. DOSSEY SPEAKS AT HIGH SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

At assembly on December 1, Rev. C. Y. Dossey spoke to the student body. Rev. Dossey is holding a revival meeting at the Baptist church here. He was introduced by Rev. Clyde Childers.

The song leader at the meeting,

The Prowler

Drake and Lemmons

Well of all things! I've heard of seniors pulling some tricks, but Beecher has them all beat. He had a freshman, think of it!

The German was a success, suppose (How was it, Joe?)

Mary Bess, who were your friends Sunday night? Did you know it was not proper to have company at one's home while one goes riding around?

A boy from A. and M. came through town with a message for Dorothy II. He did not know who she lived, so guess what happened. Yes, that's it, Bette Lou and Mary Alyce escorted him on foot so he could deliver the message.

Dorothy, the message must have been long and interesting. As I passed by D. E. home at about— or maybe— shouldn't say, but it was about morning, and the messenger was still there.

Tough luck, Bill. Maybe you will receive a message sent by a cadet and delivered by one also.

Phillip, next time you have a date with C. C. let her sit on a pillow. The gossip editors have got around you, you know. These girls can't be seen when seen in swank cars.

Ora Louise, what could have been the trouble with your friend's car Sunday afternoon? The No-Rata-Data-Club members beg to inform the public "That they don't like tomatoes!" Toots and Bette Lou must be to walk.

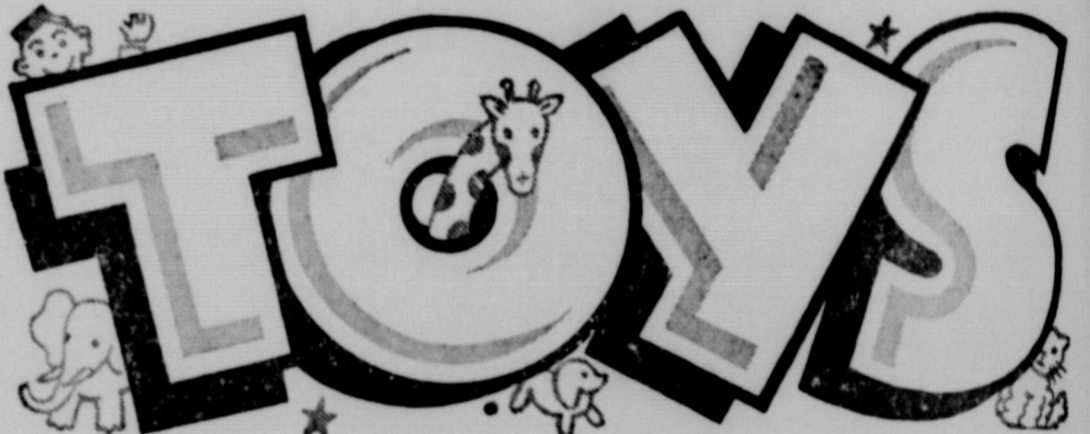

These freshman boys are proud at imitating someone else. Did you think so, Gem Ella?

Everyone should be on the alert because there were two gaspings in town Friday night.

Listen, you disturbers of the peace, Naomi has a hard time getting still when you hunk that little horn and she has to leave school.

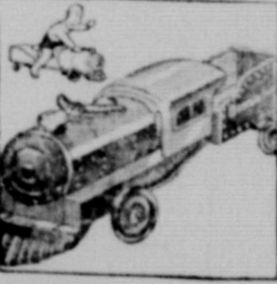

Helien, that tall, dark and handsome Romeo was here Sunday night. Did you get to see him?

Mark Short, played the piano and sang a song. He also led the student body in one of his own compositions.

Low-Cost Bungalow

The bungalow shown in the accompanying sketch is situated in Omaha, Nebr., and is valued at $2,300. The house was built with the assistance of an $1,800 mortgage insured by the Federal Housing Administration.

The natural contour of the site was used advantageously in locating the garage. It does not detract from the symmetry of the house proper and yet it allows entrance into the house. Both the single bedroom and the combined living-dining room are well sized and afford cross ventilation which contributes to the comfort of the dwelling.

Ample Closet Space Needed In Each Room

A prospective home purchaser will do well to examine carefully the closet space in any house that he may have under consideration.

The ideal arrangement provides each room with an adequate, well-designed closet and also supplies closets for linen and basement storage space for trunks and larger objects such as unused furniture.

In addition, the kitchen and pantry should have a closet and shelf space. In existing homes closets may be created from waste space or by decreasing room sizes.

PLUMBING MAY CONTROL HEALTH OF COMMUNITY

The health of a family, sometimes even an entire community, may depend upon a single plumbing system.

Faulty or worn-out plumbing constitutes a serious health hazard and is doubly dangerous because the faults are not usually apparent.

A complete check-up should be made at regular intervals to guard against the possibility of water-supply contamination. Causes for water pollution most often encountered include: The occurrence of a vacuum in the system, leaking valves, general disrepair of water, soil, and waste lines; stopping up of pipes by the development of back pressure; and open water storage tanks.

The degree of danger from plumbing defects usually varies according to the age of buildings, but even a new building may harbor a health menace resulting from faulty installation of plumbing.

BUILT-IN KITCHENETTE VALUABLE IN NURSERY

A built-in kitchenette in the nursery serves a twofold purpose. It keeps the kitchen free from the confusion of special cooking for the child. Moreover, by keeping the child's dishes and utensils separate, it is an added safeguard to health.

Architectural Service Aids Home Owners

The Federal Housing Administration recommends that architectural service be employed in connection of a dwelling, although it does not insist that such service be retained.

Architectural services tend to be added assurance that the mortgage loan will be adequately secured. An inferior structure may be built from even the most attractive plan if skilled service is used in connection with the preparation of the contracts, working drawings, specifications and supervision of the actual construction.

LAUNDRY OFF KITCHEN ADDS TO EFFICIENCY

Laundry rooms are being placed off the kitchen rather than in the basements of many modern homes. Attractive color schemes and gay decorations make them valuable as additional working space.

Such quarters afford play room for children on bad days. The family sewing and mending may be done there without taking the housewife far away from the kitchen.

MODERNIZATION OF OLD HOUSES RETURNS PROFIT

Residential properties which may have become outmoded but which are still structurally sound although no longer in demand because of age, dated architecture, or neighborhood changes may be converted into revenue-producing flats and apartments.

Through the expenditure of a reasonable amount for alterations, additions, or repairs, many old homes may be remodeled into several small apartment units and placed on an income basis that will justify the expenditure.

Interest Grows As Baptist Meet Nears Its Close

Rev. Dossey Brings Interesting Messages Twice Daily

Good crowds are enjoying daily services at the Ozona Baptist church in the revival meeting now being conducted by the Rev. C. Y. Dossey of Dallas, state evangelist for the Baptist General convention. The meeting is scheduled to come to a close with baptismal services next Sunday evening.

A list of sermon subjects for the remaining meetings on the schedule was announced yesterday by Rev. Dossey. They are as follows:

Thursday night—"The Horse Race."

Friday Night—"The Worst Word in the English Language."

Saturday night—"Who Will Be Responsible for Every Lost Soul That Goes to Hell from Ozona."

Sunday morning—"The Three-fold Secret of the Great Life of Moses."

Sunday night—"The Two Ways."

Song services are being directed by Mark Short of Fairfield, Texas, with Mrs. Short as accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Watt Turner were hosts to their contract club and a few guests at the Hotel Ozona Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pierce are driving a new Buick, purchased last week in San Antonio.

WHISTLING CHAMPION

Arlene Lomas, four-year-old New York city miss, is the winner of a gold medal and the champion of the city's whistlers under eight years of age. She won the title at the city's first annual whistling contest sponsored by the department of parks.

Safety Speaker To Address Jr. Woman's Club In Meet Today

A Mr. Coleman, sent out from the Safety division of the State Highway department, will address members of the Junior Woman's club on the subject of safety this afternoon (Thursday) at 3:30 in room 102 of the high school building, it was announced yesterday.

The Junior club has invited members of the senior club to be its guests on this occasion. All others interested in the lecture are invited to attend.

tain." He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Dudley.

Dudley was chosen for the captaincy over Howard Lemmons, backfield powerhouse on this year's squad, and another serious threat to any enemy team.

Plenty of enthusiasm, which augers ill for opponents in district competition next year, was exhibited by squad members present at last night's banquet, the final highlight of a football season with the exception of the award of letters and jackets, sometime later this month.

Of foremost interest at the opening of the evening's program was the delicious menu of moulded fruit salad, spiced baked ham, stuffed potatoes, string beans, pickled peaches, celery curls, hot biscuits and butter, topped off with date crumble with whipped cream and coffee. This was the tasty fare spread around the board by Miss Ada Moss' Home Economics girls.

A brass ensemble composed of Miles Pierce, Crystelle Carson, Billy Hannah and Clifton Taliaferro furnished two numbers and a trio composed of Crystelle Carson, Ora Louise Cox and Dorothy Hannah sang several numbers to constitute the evening's musical entertainment program. Billie Jo West gave a humorous reading, "Sara Jane at the Football Game." Supt. C. S. Denham got in a few good words concerning "team spirit" and loyalty in a talk on "Highlights of the Season." Coach Ted White, in taking charge of the meeting to direct the balloting for 1933 captain, called on his squad members to "play football" from now until next fall and until the end of their high school football careers. Beecher Montgomery, 1932 captain, was master of ceremonies.

Present were Joe Couch, Jim Dudley, W. C. Brock, Jr., Walter Escue, Willie Joe Hubbard, Philip Schneeman, Beecher Montgomery, Joe Williams, Howard Lemmons, Miles Pierce, Clifton Taliaferro, Lloyd Coates, Billy Hannah, Floyd Hokit, Stanley Lemmons, Byron Williams, Louis Wardlow, Troy Langford, Wayne West, Joe B. Chapman, Jesse Hancock, Carl Thurman, Donald Wilson, C. S. Denham, C. E. Nelson, Coach Ted M. White, Evert White, James Nevins, Jake McCulley and Gene Hollon. Squad members unable to be present were Shorty Colquitt, Elton Smith and George B. Armentrout. Guinn Carruthers, another member of the faculty, was also unable to attend.

Phone your news to the Stockman.

Mrs. West Hostess To Woman's Club At Christmas Program

A Christmas program will be given at the December meeting of the Ozona Woman's club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. West.

Mrs. West will direct the afternoon's program and will be assisted by Mrs. Lee Childress and Miss Elizabeth Fussell. Special music will be furnished by Mrs. Vic Pierce.

SON TO FORMER TEACHER

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Halbert of Thalia, Texas, are the parents of a son, William Grady Halbert, Jr., born last month, according to announcements received by friends here. Mrs. Halbert is the former Miss Eunice Johnson, who taught English and reading in the Junior high school here two years ago.

PUPILS IN PROGRAM

Pupils of Mrs. A. W. Jones' expression classes and high school pupils of Mrs. C. E. Nelson's expression classes will be presented in a program in the high school auditorium Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Two pupils from Merle Draper's classes in the afternoon's program.

Mrs. Floyd Henderson is driving a new Buick "61" sedan, delivered this week by the Western Motor Co., local Buick and Pontiac dealers. A new Pontiac coupe was recently delivered to the dealer to Doug Kirby.

SUPPOSIN'

As the child's phrase has it, supposin' some dreadful calamity should overnight destroy the world's supplies of crude and manufactured petroleum lubricants. What would result? Friction would destroy all save an infinitesimal few of our prized machines, and the work of the world would stop. Overnight, civilization would be set backward a thousand years.

No less important than lubricants in general to the world's work is the selection of the proper lubricant for your own—whether you operate a hay baler or a factory employing a thousand men.

The Humble Company specializes in specialized lubricants. It has kept up with the march of machine progress by manufacturing just the right oil, just the right grease each machine needs. The list of these lubricants is too long to print here: it fills a thick catalogue. The point is, each of them has some particular purpose to serve in the mechanical scheme of things, and they're all available to Texans through Humble bulk stations. Discuss your lubrication problem with a Humble representative; chances are, he can show you how to increase both efficiency and economy of machine operation.
