CUMMINS TEST; DRILLING PLUG; IS CLOSELY WATCHED

By PAUL OSBORNE
Drilling of plug after cementing was scheduled for today in Empire No. 1 Cummins, one of several northwest Ector county wildcats which are holding the attention of West Texas oil interests. Total depth of the Cummins test, which is about a half mile southeast of Davidson No. 1 Cummins, a small producer, is 3,800 feet.
Of the other tests in the area, Gulf No. 1 Goldsmith has drilled to 4,115 feet in limestone, according to reports this morning; Landreth No. 1 Cowden heirs is in line at 4,072 feet; and Landreth No. 1-A Scharbauer is drilling salt at 1,700 feet.
Rector No. 2 Monroe, extension to a lone well in western Ward county, is reported to have encountered gas in drilling to 4,754 feet, the gas blowing the tools up the hole and causing a fishing job.
In Upton county, Humble No. 1 Balks has recovered tools and is preparing to drill ahead below 4,944 feet and Baldrige No. 1 Sweetie Peck, wildcat in the northwest part of the county, is drilling anhydrite at 4,170 feet.

San Angelo was reported to have had a three-inch rain.

New Note Attacks Italy Mobilization

Early Action Asked Of League for Settlement
GENEVA, May 13. (AP)—A new Ethiopian note to the League of Nations was made public today. It declared that Italian concentration of troops and war materials in East Africa leaves no doubt as to Italy's hostile intentions. Ethiopia labeled as "absolutely false" the Italian report that general mobilization had been ordered in Ethiopia. The note urged early action by the League to settle the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

CENSORSHIP IS LIFTED AS TWO MEN ARE KILLED

HONOLULU, May 13. (AP)—A destroyer collision which killed one man and injured four and a plane plunged into the sea that took the life of an aviator were revealed here Sunday as the casualties in the American Fleet's secret mid-Pacific "war" operations.
The casualties were disclosed when 22 of the 153 warships steamed into Pearl Harbor here this morning and Admiral J. M. Reeves suddenly lifted the rigid censorship that had shrouded the operations since last Thursday.
Simultaneously, Admiral Reeves made known that the 43 planes which took off here last Thursday for a mass flight somewhere in the mid-Pacific area had reached their secret destination safely 1,200 miles westward and were "executing their missions."
Naval officers said the great maneuvers had simulated actual war to a surprising extent.
The destroyer Lea tore into the stern of the destroyer Sicard just out of the harbor this morning while leading the bigger ships through an "enemy" network of submarines.
Only prompt work by a damage control officer prevented the Lea from sinking. She moved into harbor under her own steam, but her sharp bow was crumpled like a smashed automobile fender.
Rendered helpless, the Sicard was taken in tow by a mine sweeper. She had a great hole in the under side of her fantail stern.
The destroyer collision occurred in inky darkness. They were weaving back and forth to shield the bigger vessels from submarines when the Lea rammed the Sicard.
Richard Chadwick, second class gunner's mate, of Blissfield, Mich., was killed aboard the Sicard; three enlisted men were hurt slightly and another was thrown over the side to suffer from submersion.
Lieut. Mathias B. Wyatt, 26, of San Diego, a native of South Carolina, was the victim of the plane crash, which took place 200 miles east of Hawaii.
Wyatt, in one of 18 fighting planes, had taken off the aircraft carrier Saratoga to ward off an "enemy" attack of submarines coming out from the islands. His ship flew into the slipstream (currents caused by winds and propellers) of a companion plane. His ship plummeted down into water three miles deep.
The destroyer MacLeish and a plane guard reached the spot one minute after the crash, but the plane sank without a trace.

Solons Walk out As Regulatory Bill Favored

WASHINGTON, May 13. (AP)—The senate interstate commerce committee today reported favorably the revised bill to abolish and regulate public utility holding companies over protest of two members who, in high dudgeon, stalked out of a committee session.
Immediately after a fourteen to two vote was taken Senators Hastings of Delaware and Dietrich of Illinois, bitter foes of the section to abolish holding companies by 1942 unless they operate geographically-integrated units, walked out.
Among the measure's new provisions was one to authorize the securities commission to study the investment trusts and investments companies to determine what influence they have over companies whose securities they hold. Such trusts were described as being large holders of public utility securities.

ADMINISTRATION LAUDED BY 3,000 FARMER-VISITORS

WASHINGTON, May 13. (AP)—A trek from the dirt roads of farm political thought began trickling into Washington Sunday for a mass demonstration Tuesday in support of the agriculture adjustment program.
By automobile, bus and train, the pilgrimage, which its organizer estimated would reach 3,000, converged on the capital. Prompting the movement were recent vigorous protests against the cotton processing tax.
"We heard these complaints against the processing tax," said C. H. Day, lanky Texan of Plainview who promoted the farm march. "We felt the administration needed some support up here."
"This is the first time the farmers have had such a common cause and we want to offset some of this opposition noise that has been raised by a few of the disgruntled farmers."
As the first farmers arrived from the West and the Southwest, they heard a Republican spokesman for agriculture, Representative Hope of Kansas, contend the AAA has proven its value and urge farmers to rally to its support.
"I am a Republican," Hope said, "but I will support every sound program for agricultural prosperity, no matter by whom presented."
A determined drive by New England and Southern textile interests for removal of the cotton processing tax lay back of the farm movement. New England governors, joined by congressmen, had protested directly to President Roosevelt that the tax, plus mounting Japanese imports, was closing domestic mills.
AAA Bills Pending
The chief executive designated a cabinet committee of four—Secretary Cordell Hull, Henry Wallace, Daniel Roper and Frances Perkins—to make a study of the textile situation. This survey still is in process.
Day, who farms 320 acres in Texas, has asked Secretary Wallace and Chester C. Davis, AAA administrator, to address the farmers. Senator Bankhead (Dem.) of Alabama, author of the cotton control act, said he will ask President Roosevelt to greet the pilgrims.
Pending on Capitol Hill as the farmers assembled—were bills to clarify the AAA law. They would permit the licensing of processors or handlers if more than 50 per cent of any such group favored the step or if two-thirds of the farmers of an area so voted. Provision for an export bounty was included in the House bill.

Divorce Granted to "5 and 10" Heiress

RENO, May 13. (AP)—Princess Barbara Hutton Mdivani, "five and ten cent store heiress," won an absolute divorce from Prince Alexis Mdivani of Transcaucasian Georgia in a brief, secret trial here today.
Granting of the decree left her case for a possible marriage to a Danish nobleman, Count Kurt Haugwitz-Reventlow. The princess claimed that she had sought the divorce on account of extreme cruelty.

Few Cattle Deals Over the Weekend

Cattle deals reported over the weekend were the purchase by Pepper and Witt, Sweetwater, of 100 head of cows from Bill Bryant and 100 head from T. O. Midkiff. The cattle will be shipped to Oklahoma grass.

Midland Wins 30 to 10 from Lamesa in Sand Belt Golf Tourney Sunday

Midland's Sand Belt golfers Sunday won all but one individual match from Lamesa, on the local country club links, the final score being 30 to 10. Taking attendance points into consideration, the best possible score, even by taking a clean sweep, would have been 32 to 8.
Frank Johnson, with a 34 score out and a 37 in, making a total of 71, was the low score winner of the day. Three Midland men, Dale Scruggs, Morgan Neill and Pat Reilly turned in 75 each and H. S. Forgeron had a 76. The entire Midland aggregation remained under 80.
F. L. Gehr, Midland's No. 8 man, went into 19 holes to win his match from Bernard of Lamesa, making a birdie 4 on the nineteenth. Johnny Crumm, playing No. 7 for Midland, lost to Rose of Lamesa.
Local players, in order, were Neill, Scruggs, Forgeron, Johnson, Reilly, Don Sivals, Crumm and Gehr.
For Lamesa, they were Rose, White, Tuttle, Norman, Vaughn, Gregg, Rose and Bernard.

Expect Decision on Moratorium Today

WASHINGTON, May 13. (AP)—A decision potentially affecting $12,000,000,000 in farm debts and further illuminating the Supreme Court's attitude toward various New Deal proposals is expected today from that tribunal.
It will say whether or not the Frazier-Lemke Farm Mortgage Moratorium Act is constitutional. Whether the "due process" guarantee of the basic law is violated by an enforced reduction in the amount of a debt.
While supporters of the Frazier-Lemke Act draw encouragement from the court's ruling sustaining a Minnesota mortgage moratorium law, the dissimilar points are giving them some uneasy moments.
The federal statute in question enables a farmer to prevent by court action foreclosure on a mortgage in his property for a period of five years. Meanwhile he pays a rental fee and is given an opportunity to discharge the debt in full upon payment of the farm's appraised value.

DEATH OF POLISH DICTATOR CAUSES MARKED CONCERN

Peace Pact System Had Hinged on His Success
WARSAW, May 13. (AP)—National mourning was proclaimed today for Marshal Joseph Pilsudski, Poland's dictator, whose death last night gave diplomats concern over the outlook for peace in Eastern Europe.
Upon the question of Pilsudski's success had hinged the future peace pact system, which France was attempting to promote, as well as Germany's future attitude toward France's program. It may also decide, diplomats said, whether Poland henceforth will cast her lot with France and Russia or continue along the line of German rapprochement which Pilsudski himself had marked out.

WARSAW, May 13. (AP)—Marshal Joseph Pilsudski, 67, Poland's man of power, died at 8:45 p. m. Sunday after an uremia attack, on the ninth anniversary of the 1926 coup that made him virtual dictator of the land.
Unconscious for the three days preceding, while his associates carried on their negotiations for security in Europe, he passed on calmly. The news was announced two hours later to a throng gathered before Belvedere Palace.
Authorities took all possible precautions to prevent his death from precipitating internal disturbances. Police were reinforced and officers patrolling the streets were equipped with tear bombs.
The cabinet gathered quickly in special session to deliberate on the political situation.
Death interrupted the career of Pilsudski, a born aristocrat and from youth a revolutionary, just as he had reached its peak.
Only recently constitutional reforms had been completed placing "virtual" limits on the power of the president of the republic and the marshal was expected to assume this office upon the apparently impending resignation of President Ignacy Pilsudski.
Since the reform of the constitution, the regime has had its power well in hand and no disturbances were expected generally to follow the marshal's death.
An exponent of strong-hand methods, Pilsudski had encountered much stubborn opposition and was accused of using coercion and undue harshness in obtaining the pinnacle of power he sought.

FIVE PERISH AS HOME IS BURNED

WILMINGTON, Del., May 13. (AP)—A young mother and four children were burned to death in a fire that destroyed their home near Stanton, a village six miles from here, early Sunday.
The five, who apparently died in bed, were Mrs. Alice Newcomb, 27; Walter Newcomb, 6; Pearl Newcomb, 3; Norma Newcomb, 2; and Frank Newcomb, 17 months.
The young woman's husband, David, 28, was found lying on the lawn in a dazed condition. He was held by police for questioning.
The five charred bodies were taken from the ruins of the Newcombs' stone house after the flames ruined the building. The mother's body lay on the first floor, where firemen said they believed it had fallen from the story above. The children were found on the second floor.
After a preliminary investigation, the firemen said the origin of the fire was probably an overturned kerosene lamp.

WORLD COMES TO BAT, AT TENSEST MOMENT

Whatever else you may say about the present moment in world history, you at least have to admit that it is exciting.

It is exciting for much the same reason that a baseball game is exciting when you have the bases full and the town's best fence-buster coming to bat; nobody knows just what is going to happen next, but whatever it is, it is bound to be something spectacular.

Sinclair Lewis brought this out admirably in a recent article in Good Housekeeping magazine.

In the uncertainty of the present he sees youth presented with the greatest of all challenges.

"When all of youth that has been born in 1885-1935 shall have had its chance, this half century may perhaps be put down as the noblest in history," he remarks. "But to take that chance, youth must not be afraid to show itself, not as perpetually clever and shiny and speeding, but as filled with the awkward, faith-dipped simplicity which is the quality of greatness."

"It must not be afraid of anything—for just ahead of us may lie the world's most vicious war, or the benign curbing of cancer and tuberculosis; another Shakespeare, or another scourge of Dillinger in low places and Kreugers in high; a flight to Mars, or a descent into an ocean of lava; a peaceful world nation, or a world shattered into 10,000 bandit tribes."

And then he adds this significant comment: "There are two equal sins for a thinker or a doer in this year of 1935: to despair of the noble future of mankind; and to believe that this savage race, mankind—so much more savage than the tigers, because we kill not just for meat, but for our highest ideals—can be made all sweet and holy just by a few fine phrases."

A size-up of this kind is worth re-reading and thinking about. For while nearly all of us are painfully aware of the disastrous things that may happen to the world during the next generation, we often forget that it is equally possible for truly magnificent things to happen.

The world may go up as well as down. It has cut its moorings and is off on one of the most momentous trips it has ever taken; if the prospect is frightening, it can also be encouraging.

Too much optimism at a time like this is silly—and so is too much pessimism. If we can temper optimism with a sane realization of the difficulties ahead and an iron determination to make things work out for the benefit of mankind as a whole, this time may be known as the prelude to the greatest era of advancement in the history of the race.

AN "INCIDENT" THREATENS

Anyone who wants to see world peace maintained must hope that there will be no repetition of the frontier incidents which have recently disturbed Franco-German relations.

The French charge that German airplanes have been making illegal flights over French fortified areas—presumably to try to learn something about France's great new chain of frontier forts. So it is announced that if any more German planes come over, French planes will go aloft and force them down.

It is easy to see how a thing like that could lead directly to war. An over-zealous German flyer wanders over a French fortified zone without authorization; French planes shoot him down—and in each nation there is touched off a wave of anger and suspicion that causes reprisals, counter-reprisals, and ultimately war.

It could happen just that way. We can only hope that it won't.

With that anti-war profits bill, Uncle Sam would have to decline should another power ask him if he wanted to make something out of it.

Detroit writer predicts that some day the way country-side relief now is being handled will be reviewed with pride by the whole nation. Except, possibly, those now on relief.

FEMININE FANCIES

It is trying so hard to rain, we believe that when it does succeed the country should get a really good season. At least we hope so.

Mother's Day is over. We are glad to notice that Midland churches observed the day with appropriate sermons and music. We think that it is a good idea for busy mothers still take time to observe the more sentimental things of life.

One thing we can't understand is how any one can look at airplanes without being definitely attracted to them and the possibilities of adventure which they imply. If we had had 2 per cent more ability and courage which we are told separates the successful man from the ordinary one, we figure we could be a good flyer. Lacking all we can do is look wistfully at every plane that goes over with envy in our heart.

We rather like the type of person who vacates a home or a car and leaves it in better order than

Halt Advance of Ants

By MARIAN ROBINSON Written for NEA Service

A cricket in the house may mean that his "messmate," the ant, is around. Whether living in hotels, apartments, country homes or camps, summer brings swarms of ants. Red, black or brown, they invade pantries, refrigerators and even tightly capped food containers.

Although preferring sweets, some species are carnivorous and will devour raw and cooked meats and foods of all kinds. Watch the line of march, locate the nest and drench it with gasoline, kerosene or benzine.

Ant traps can be bought or made at home. A syrup-soaked sponge attracts hundreds. While the insects are swarming in it, burn the sponge or immerse it in scalding water. Bacon shreds strategically placed will snare them. A paraffin bag having two small holes in the bottom and holding bait will trick them.

In summer resorts and camps, where the situation is acute, they can be warded from tables and shelves by placing receptacles of water mixed with kerosene under table legs or around other uprights.

WITH COUNTY DEMONSTRATION CLUBS

"Westward People," an one-act Centennial play by John William Rodgers will be presented by members of the Blue Bonnet club at Pacific Lee school about June 14, according to plans now being made. This will be one of the first Centennial programs to be given by a home demonstration club.

Miss Myrtle Miller, home demonstration agent, gave a demonstration on style at the meeting of the Willing Workers club at the home of the club's wardrobe demonstrator, Miss Ora Robertson, last week.

Seven things were stressed to be considered in buying material. They were: occasion, the quality, design, color, texture, cleaning possibility, and cost of the material itself, style, construction, wearing, storage, and cleaning.

Present were: Mmes. S. Lewellen, M. E. Payne, W. S. Hudson, E. L. Mattison, Earl Fain, Miss Miller, a visitor, Mrs. J. A. J. Robertson, and the hostess.

The club will meet May 21 with Mrs. Hudson to work on recipe files.

Mrs. H. V. Heidelberg, McClinton wardrobe demonstrator, plans to build a portable clothes closet five feet long and 30 inches deep with five shelves 12 inches wide on one side and four shelves on the other side. A shelf will be built across the back and a rod through the center. A low rod will be built under the shelves on one side for a child's clothing.

The closet will be modeled after a design which won a $1000 prize from a lumber company several years ago.

Expression Students To Present Recital

Expression students of Miss Leona McCormick will be presented in a recital on Friday evening, May 24, at 8 o'clock. The place of the recital will be given later.

Methodist Class Observes Mother's Day With Program

By MISS LYDIE G. WATSON It seems so apropos that Mother's Day should come in the smiling month of May, for at no other season of the year could Nature assemble together such a lovely array of tinted splendor. And we love to think of these flowers as true messengers from our sainted dead.

Mother's Day—truly a time for memory and for tears! And thus the strong stalwart men of the Bible Class observed it in all its beauty and solemnity. A number of them wore the red roses indicative that the gentle hand which had guided them through the sunlit meadows of childhood was still here, to cheer and bless; but the great majority of them wore the memory blossom of white. These flowers were contributed by Mr. Pulliam of "Buddy's Flower Shop."

Mr. Luther Tidwell, president of the class opened the service with a well expressed tribute to Mother as she figures in the life of her boy. "Old Time Religion" was then sung as a chorus, and then a duet, "Tell Mother I'll Be There" was sung by Messrs. Tidwell and Bridges.

Mr. N. G. Oates, teacher of the class, chose as his theme the Mother of the old-time Christian faith, and paid personal tribute to his own Mother, whose finger had pointed the way for her children to those sublime truths which she found in the "dear old Book."

The men stood in tribute when the song leader, Mr. J. E. Bridges, introduced his mother. The only mother who could be present. It was a sweet, a hallowed service, and each heart was made to feel: We love old mothers, mothers with white hair. And kindly eyes, and lips grown softly sweet. With murmured blessings over sleeping babes. There is something in their quiet grace That speaks the calm of Sabbath afternoons. Sweet mothers! As the pass, one again sees Old garden walks, old roses and old loves.

The grave makes love to its mate by presenting her with nesting material.

COLTS BREAK COSDEN'S WINNING STREAK, TAKING GAME ON MIDLAND DIAMOND SUNDAY TO TUNE OF 6-5

The Midland Colts, through the sterling pitching of Don Shifflett and the timely batting of Johnie Woody and Dub Hurst, Sunday afternoon ended the winning ways of the Cosden Oilers at five straight, defeating them 6 to 5, and avenging the defeat of the week before. The game was played on the Municipal diamond here.

Shifflett pitched a very steady, if not brilliant, game, weakened only in the 6th, two walks, an error and three of their six hits produced three runs. Midland put the game on ice in the last half of the sixth. White and Hill singled and scoring on Woody's hard three-bagger to right, Woody scored on Hurst's hit to center, and the game was over as far as Midland was concerned. White and Woody led Midland hitters with three hits each. No Cosden player was able to score Shifflett for more than one hit.

Will Rogers Says His Ambition Is To Become Actor

Will Rogers maintains that his ambition is to become an actor. He is, of course, famed as writer, humorist, and philosopher.

"So far, I have only impersonated myself on the screen," he declares. "Someday I hope to be a real actor."

Will Rogers' latest picture, "Life Begins at 40," is playing today and tomorrow at the Yucca Theatre as the feature attraction. Witicisms such as Rogers himself creates, are strewn through this blithe comedy with the star cast as a country editor who creates mirth in his efforts to right wrongs and sponsor a romance.

In the supporting cast of this Fox Film attraction which Sol M. Wurtzel produced, and George Marshall directed, are such stage and screen figures as Rochelle Hudson, Richard Cromwell, George Barbier, Jane Darwell, Slim Somerville, Sterling Holloway, Thomas Beck, Roger Imhof, Charles Sellon, John Bradford and Ruth Gillette.

Harvey Reports on Midland Race Nags

Paul Harvey of Odessa, just returned from the Fair Park races at Dallas, said today that his brown horse, Little Mickey, probably will make his first start this week.

Still better, the five year old brown, broke down in training on a wet track and will not be raced during the meet. The A. C. Francis mare, My Goal, definitely has been found to be in foal and will not be raced, Harvey said.

Foreign Relations came out of his seven furlong victory last week apparently in good shape. The fifth horse in the string, John Henry Dean's chestnut colt, Bull Boy, ran twice out of the money but was showing decided improvement from the injury which had placed him under Bloss's care all winter.

It has been found that water made chemically pure by distillation or boiling and cooling will freeze faster than ordinary water.

Blackbirds, thrushes, larks, and other birds were sold for food in London during the World War.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

just come onto the market. Inexpensive and unusually harmless, it effectively removes superfluous hair on arms and legs and leaves them as smooth as satin.

Simply rinse your legs with cold water and dry them carefully. Pour a little of the white liquid into a china saucer, wrap cotton around the end of an orange stick, soak it in the depilatory and apply wherever hair is to be removed. Keep the hair saturated from two to five minutes, depending upon the sensitivity of the skin. Then gently rinse off with cold water. Smooth on a bit of cold cream.

The new opalescent eyeshadows are something you shouldn't overlook either. Put up in several shades to harmonize with every type of skin, these give the eyelids an interesting sheen and glow instead of a dull, tired-looking shadow. One particularly handsome mauve tone is for brunettes and it's as good in daylight as it is under artificial light. Apply it sparingly, of course.
