

Soaring Prices May Be Brake To Recession

Higher Incomes To Help Balance Federal Budget

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—While the collapse of OPA's price barriers will jack living costs up a few percentage points, government economists insisted today it also will:

- 1. Delay any business recession, and
2. Help President Truman balance the federal budget.
Despite widespread reports of surging prices, these economists predicted the general cost of living level will not climb more than 5 percent, and probably not that much, before stabilizing.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By LEATRICE ROSS

Open house at HCJC today was a busy occasion for the students of that college. They served as guides, entertained with musical program, and will be at the school until 10 o'clock tonight at which time the open house hours conclude. Chief stress is being put on the newly completed home ec lab, a large chamber divided into six modern kitchenettes. . . . Another room of interest is that one being converted into a chemistry lab, designed for the utmost utility.

Guests are registered at the entrance by Jimmie Peden, Bobbie June Bobb, and occasionally Mickey Butts. Those who have been pointing out assets of the college interior to the visitors include P. D. Gage, Beams Miller, Wilma Taylor, Betty Ray Hall, Charles Love, W. E. Eubanks, Wesley Deats, Mary Ann Goodson, Duke Neel, Byron Jones, Billy Clanton, Millie Blach, Colleen Davidson.

HCJC annual sales began today at 5 bucks the book. Staff of the publication, which is as yet not officially named, includes Kenneth Huett, business manager; Zack Gray, assistant business manager. Others will be announced from time to time. . . . Visitors at the college Monday were Larry, Hall, Sage Underwood, Violet Hartin, and Jean Murphy. Jean was here from San Angelo for the holidays. . . . In from Sul Ross for a few days were Richard Cauble, Glen Brown, Hugh Cochran, H. Alexander, and Howard Smith. . . . Bud Pursler and Thomas Underwood were in Ballinger Monday where they saw the Ballinger-Coleman game.

Gil Barnett, with the paratroopers in Fort Bragg, N. C., came in Sunday for a respite. . . . James Bostick is in school at Roscoe. . . . Some onlookers at the Jayhawk-American Legion game Monday eve: Toar Bryan, Ed McLaren, Norma Jones, Evelyn Green, Betty Ray Hall, Jean Murphy, Bobbie Green, Mae Madison. . . . Legs Thomas left early in the week for Fort Worth and struggles at TCU.

In Odessa Monday for the Broncho-Sweetwater game were Horace Rankin, Catherine Radding, Lefty Todd. Familiar face observed belonged to Jimmy Marshall, who moved to Odessa from here one-two years ago. . . . Jimmie Melvin, one-time big Springer now abiding in Midland, was here for the weekend, piloting a '46 Packard.

Julia Cochran attended the Baylor-Texas U game in Waco Saturday. . . . Pfc. Milton Knowles, Army man in Camp Kessler, Miss., was in town for the weekend. . . . Some seven persons spent the Armistice evening purposing toasts for luck, happiness et al, to Wilda Watts who observed her 18th year on that day. Party was complete with cake and flowers. Taking it all in: Bobbie Hightower, Harold Bishop, Mary Ann Goodson, Billy Chrane, Eugene Jones and Lynn Jeffcoat. . . . James Cass also had a birthday anniversary on the 11th. . . . Jack Cauble is home with his freedom from the navy. Jack, who was some 14 months overseas, was involved in the atom bomb tests on Bikini.

Local football fans were all but mortified Friday night when their band came onto the field in uniform step, only to halted by a straggler, who meandered from the sideline, beseeching the drum major to halt and wait for him to catch up. This leader did; but when the band began to maneuver again, the misfit would go in none but the opposite direction or stop entirely causing those behind him to tread on heels. However, it was not many minutes before the crowd caught on to the hoax, and Billy Wozzgraft (who was doing these unorthodox things) became the sensation of the evening.

Radio Network For Churches Is Proposed

MINERAL WELLS, Nov. 13. (AP)—A Baptist-operated Texas network of frequency modulation radio stations was proposed to the state convention today.

R. Alton Reed of Dallas, chairman of the Texas Baptist Radio Commission recommended, at the convention went into its second day that Baptists should consider owning and operating FM stations over the state.

He proposed that the key station for the network would be located in Dallas with Baptists of Dallas owning the station and the state Baptist board the network.

All network stations would be owned and operated locally.

Thirteen cities have asked the Baptists to obtain local licenses for them, Reed stated. He listed these cities as Houston, Mount Pleasant, Lubbock, Dallas, Harlingen, Baylor, Texas Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Howard Payne (Brownwood), Hardin Simmons at Abilene, Tyler and Henderson.

"This is a new field of broadcasting in which we can get in on the ground floor," Reed said.

He proposed diversified programs would include religion, agriculture, education, sports, news and entertainment.

Eastland, Texas, One Of Bidders For UN Offices

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Nov. 13. (AP)—An invitation from the Chamber of Commerce at Eastland, Texas, will be among the bids received from 19 states delegating to the United Nations when the world organization's headquarters committee meets today to consider the long pending problem.

Although offers have been received from 19 states, delegates were in general agreement that the field has been narrowed to five sites.

They are Westchester county, N.Y., New York City, San Francisco, Boston and Philadelphia.

Corn Crop To Be Largest On Record

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—The Agriculture Department, in its next to final report of the year, today estimated this year's corn crop at 3,380,672,000 bushels—the largest on record.

A month ago its forecast production at 3,374,428,000 bushels. The crop totaled 3,018,000,000 last year and 2,608,499,000 for the 1935-44 ten-year average. The previous record was 3,228,361,000 in 1944.

The department made no changes in last month's estimates for wheat and most other grains.

Earthquake Toll Mounting In Peru

LIMA, Peru, Nov. 13. (AP)—Peru counted at least 100 known dead today in interior towns wrecked by earth shocks which began last Sunday and feared a higher toll might be known with restoration of smashed communications facilities.

More than 60 persons were killed in Sihuas, a town of 11,540 population which was almost completely destroyed; 30 more perished at Pomabamba and several more were reported dead at Mollapata, a town of about 2,800 said to have been about half destroyed.

IN A NIGHTMARE, KILLS OWN CHILD

ARKADELPHIA, Ark., Nov. 13. (AP)—Victim of a nightmare in which her father dreamed he was having a fight, three-year-old Linda Joyce Pollard, died under the hail of his blows early Tuesday, Sheriff W. T. Matlock reported.

The father, Willard Pollard, 25, told the sheriff and a coroner's jury that in the dream he found himself trying to ward off attackers, but that he remembered nothing else. When he awoke, he said, he was standing over the battered body of his daughter.

The coroner's jury took no action but at the suggestion of a physician consented to have Pollard placed under observation at a state or private hospital. Relatives said Pollard, had been a victim of sleep walking for years and was injured 18 months ago in a dynamite explosion while blasting stumps.

Texan Named To Marketing Post

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson has announced the appointment of Jesse B. Gilmer of Texas as acting administrator of the production and marketing administration of the agriculture department.

Anderson said Gilmer will head the agency until a new administrator is named to succeed Robert H. Shields who resigned last month. Gilmer has been on leave from his post as deputy administrator since July.

In June, 1942, Gilmer was named Farm Security Administrator for the West Texas area with offices in Amarillo. Previously he had served as assistant FSA director for the area.

Pinza To Be Guest Of Crosby Tonight

Never afraid to invade a new field, Bing Crosby will get a first hand look at the longhair side of life when he welcomes Ezio Pinza, star basso of the Metropolitan Opera Company, to Philco Radio Time, tonight at 9 o'clock over the American Broadcasting Company, and KBST.

The courage will not be all on Bing's side, however, for Pinza will risk his artistic reputation by entering into partnership with "The Groaner" in the performance of a doubtful ditty called "Timber." He will be given a chance to regain his musical stature however, by singing "Che Fiero Costume" unaided.

Homes Bombed In Film Strike

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 13. (AP)—Homes of two more non-striking movie workers were blasted by home-made grenades today, in the second successive night of new violence in the two-month AFL jurisdictional strike.

No one was injured in the bombings, which brought the total for two nights to five, but front porches of two residences were shattered, windows blown in and plaster loosened.

In one of them Paul Byrd, 34, special effects man at Columbia studio, was sleeping but his wife, Margaret, and mother-in-law, Mrs. Plainy Chapin were chatting in the living room.

Alarmed by the loud exhaust of a car which drove into their driveway, they fled to the rear of the house just as the explosion rocked it. The chair in which Mrs. Chapin was sitting was splintered.

The new outbreaks came as the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, biggest of the warring movie labor combines, pulled out of peace conferences because of the earlier attacks against its members.

Templar Degree Work Scheduled Saturday

Members of the Dallas commandery and the Tancred commandery of Dallas will be here Saturday to confer work in all Knights Templar orders, R. B. Reeder, commander, said Wednesday.

Approximately 20 knights from the two commanderies are expected to be here for the work, which starts at 1 p.m. in the Masonic temple. A banquet is to be spread at 7 p.m., said Reeder.

Flaws In An Academic Question

The proposal, spoken first by Sen. W. J. Fulbright and echoed in both democratic and republican quarters, that President Truman appoint a republican secretary of state and then resign is chiefly academic.

In the first place, few seriously expect that the President would do this. In the second place, there are three serious flaws in the idea.

Regardless of the fact that the process would be constitutional, it would be violating the constitution in spirit. Framers of that document provided the biennial plebiscite on congress with a four-year executive term with full knowledge that divisions could and probably would occur. This has happened 13 times in our history as a nation, and candidly, with not too happy results. It has been proposed that under such circumstances as now exist that the President be required to resign or that Congress could initiate such a step. This puts our system on a parallel with the British parliamentary procedure. It also has been proposed that congress be elected for four year terms concurrent with that of the executive. This overlooks the fact that one party could be maintained in power two years after it had lost its popular support, such as would now be the case with the democrats had they held four-year terms.

Resignation of the president in favor of a successor from another party would put one man in the position of selecting his successor as head of the republic, a power no one man was ever to hold in our nation. As a practical matter, this would have to be done with the consent of the opposing party, which certainly would not let a sour apple be foisted upon it, and thus be in the position of riding a weak horse or repudiating their own administration through a different presidential choice. Thus, GOP approval of a successor would, in effect, amount to republican politicians and not the American people naming the president.

Finally, were such a thing come to pass, the action would result, in all probability, in the selection of a president for a six-year term instead of the constitutional four. Were an acceptable GOP figure elevated to the presidency under the proposed manipulation, he certainly would have a commanding position for election in 1948.

As confusing as the situation may be, it is best to leave the system like it is unless we are of a mind to overhaul our basic legislative and executive concepts.

Tariff Barriers Should Be Cut

Announcement that the administration will renew its programs for tariff reductions is most welcome.

Made as it is at this moment, it may have the effect of putting the republican congress in a hot spot. Doubtless some republicans will go along with it, while some Northern democrats will be lukewarm. The Southern wing of the democratic party might then find itself in a potent position.

Regardless, we needn't look for a whole sale abandonment of tariffs, for immediate abandonment of this economic dope might react violently on our economy. But there is a need for orderly and progressive relaxation. Despite all the high sounding words about protecting our standard of living, the facts that we cannot remain international politically and national economically. We must trade (and that is a two-way proposition) with the world to be a working partner in it. We cannot do this effectively in the long run until we knock down many trade barriers. For a nation that gives such great lip service to "free enterprise," surely there could be no other consistent course save eventual free trade.

Showdown Looms On Closed Shop

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The closed shop—one of the sorest of all union problems—is headed for a showdown in Congress and the US Supreme Court.

Senator Joseph Ball, Minnesota Republican, says he will try to get the new, Republican-controlled Congress to pass a law outlawing the closed shop.

And the voters of five states—Florida, Arkansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, Arizona—have now approved amendments to their state constitutions doing just that. If Congress passes such a law the unions certainly will fight it through the courts.

The unions already have started their fight against the state amendments and will go on up to the Supreme Court if they have to.

ing dues or sharing other union obligations.

But the closed shop has been a battle-ground for years, with the unions on one side and, on the other not only labor-haters and labor-baiters, but a great many sincere people who oppose it because they think it violates an individual's freedom.

The voters of Florida and Arkansas—on Nov. 7, 1944—and the voters of Nebraska, South Dakota, and Arizona—on Nov. 5, 1946—approved the amendments to their state constitutions forbidding closed shops.

Soon after the Florida amendment was approved, the AFL and CIO went to bat against it. They took it to the federal court in Florida. That court upheld it. Then they appealed to the US Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court—in its opinion of March 25, 1946—declined to give a decision. It said the test should have been made in the first place in a state court.

So now the AFL is carrying its fight through the Florida State courts. The case undoubtedly will land back eventually in the US Supreme Court for a final decision.

Whatever that high court verdict is in the Florida case, it almost surely will apply to the constitutional amendments approved by the other four states.

Veterans At Work

NEW YORK. (AP)—It was 2 a.m. at the crossroads of nightlife in Greenwich Village.

A tall young man, his clothing awry, stood swaying drunkenly in the middle of the sidewalk. A short stock man bumped against him in passing.

"Tryin' to start somp'n," said the tall man and swung his fist into the short one's face.

And with no more words they clashed savagely and in silence. Fists thudded against chins, and then they were both down on the sidewalk, tearing and kicking each other.

Neither went for the face then. They tried for the groin with the knuckles, knees and feet, swirling over and over in tangled fury. There was no sound but grunts and the impact of flesh against flesh. They were both young men, well-matched in strength and agility.

A crowd gathered slowly and watched impartially. No one thought at first of interfering; in crowded New York people don't like to stick their nose in other people's quarrels.

A taxi drew up and stopped. The caddy watched the fight philosophically.

"Veterans," he said. "Both of them. I can tell the veterans every time."

The tall man was slowly beginning to tire. Liquor had dulled and slowed him. The short man methodically worked him into position. He brought his knee up hard once, twice, three times. A look of agony came over the face of the tall man. He lay contorted and pain-paralyzed.

The short man warily straddled him. He took the helpless tall man's head between his hands and leisurely pounded it against the sidewalk. It sounded like coconuts falling off a peddler's wagon.

When the tall man went limp, the short one turned the head sideways and deliberately rubbed it back and forth on the concrete until one side was a red pulp.

No one in the crowd protested. Some women turned their eyes away for a second, but looked again.

The short man, winded but satisfied, rose slowly to tired feet. His beaten foe came to and wobbled upright. Shredded skin hung from his bloody face.

"C'mon, I'll buy you a drink," he mumbled to the short man. They headed for a bar, walking slowly on legs shaky with fatigue. The crowd began to ebb away.

"They both hit below the belt," said the indignant lady.

"I knew they was veterans," said the caddy, admiringly. "Nobody but veterans fight like that."

Waterproof Watch Pays Off

By JACK RUTLEDGE, Associated Press Staff

These advertisements in the paper about pens that write under water and watches that no matter how deeply immersed keep on ticking have intrigued many practical souls.

Who writes letters in the bathtub? Who keeps his watch in the glass with his uppers beside the bed at night? That's what practical souls ask.

Here's one answer. A modern submarine-type timepiece paid off for a gentleman in Matamoros, across from Brownsville.

He was boasting about his watch's excellent qualities, saying that he had accidentally taken a shower with it strapped to his wrist. Another man said he didn't believe it. Any watch that took a shower would quit.

To settle the argument, the owner said he'd dunk his watch in a glass of beer.

"You buy the drinks until it stops running," he said. The other took him up.

Two hours later the owner of the watch retrieved his still-ticking timepiece from the beer mug, and gaped his way back across the border. . . .

But this modern, complicated world wasn't as generous to an inebricated gentleman in Denison.

He got involved with a revolving door, first was puzzled and then angry when he thought someone was following him, took a belligerent swing at his own reflection and smashed the door.

He also cut his hand and was taken home for treatment.

Students at the Gregg County White Oak school are perfectly satisfied with not having a modern, storm-proof school. A high wind unroofed the building and they received a week's vacation while it was being fixed.

A sturdy boot, on the other hand, probably saved the life of Wilfred Hank, 31, of Dalhart. He was doing custom combining when his foot was caught in a feeder chain. The boot heel caught in just such a way to halt operation of the machine. He was seriously hurt, but the boot, he thinks, saved his life.

GOP May Cut Foreign Loans

WASHINGTON. — With Republican leaders gathering in the capital to begin organizing their own G. O. P. - ruled Congress for the first time in 16 years, here is a Merry-Go-Round view of what the country can expect during the next two years:

Foreign Policy

In the surface there will be no outward change. Later, however, important changes will become apparent. The British already are worried over our swing to the right.

Budget

The three largest expenditures of government are for Army and Navy, veterans and service on the national debt. These can't be pruned — unless the Republicans want to cut down the Army and Navy, which they are not likely to do. Easiest pruning job, therefore, is on foreign loans and relief. UNRRA will be the first to go. A $300,000,000 loan to Italy, planned by Truman, will be ditched next. Other loans to European and Latin American countries will be axed.

Immigration

Republicans are traditionally hostile to immigration and minority groups, and the House Immigration Committee now is inherited by Rep. Noah Mason of Illinois, well-known witch-hunter who takes his cues from the Chicago Tribune. Displaced persons in Europe will get little comfort from Mason. A revived and stronger "Dies Committee" can be expected — probably in both Houses of Congress.

Economic Outlook

Prices generally will rise during the next six months, though not so rapidly, and with some commodities such as food and textiles dropping in the winter. Food prices should slump after the Argentine and Australian crops are harvested in February. Clothing and furniture prices should come down soon, certainly after Christmas. Autos will remain scarce for some time.

Taxes

Despite current talk of tax relief for small wage-earners, will be only minor tax cuts. One of two things will happen. Either expenditures will be such as to forbid major tax reduction. Or a cut will be made in the lower brackets, after which G. O. P. congressmen, pressured by higher-bracket groups, won't be able to resist the temptation to get aboard the gravy train. If they add tax reduction for the higher brackets, it means that Truman will veto the bill.

Tariffs

Midwest Republicans would like to go back to the old Hoover high tariffs. Some of the eastern G. O. P.ers from manufacturing regions will go along with them. If they get going in earnest, however, there will be a stalemate. Truman will veto.

Labor

One Republican faction favors immediate and outright repeal of the entire Wagner Act. However, they know this would bring veto and that the veto probably would

Texas Today—

Tracy To Be Busy

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Spencer Tracy, who has been making pictures at a leisurely pace in recent years, will be plenty of action in 1947. After "Cass Timberlane," he will star in "American Cavalcade," the story MGM commissioned Carl Sanburg to write. The poet has completed the yarn, which covers US history from the Revolution to the present time. Sidney Franklin, who did the beautiful "Yearling," will produce.

The band industry is due for an upheaval which will bring some changes. Reason: the big-name bands just aren't drawing the customers. For instance, Harry James' recent tours have been largely floperous. Dopesters blame the poor business on the apathy of the leaders. That sounds a logical enough. There's hardly a band today with the drive, the showmanship and the inspiration of the early Benny Goodman, Glenn Miller and Tommy Dorsey outfits.

Don't look for an early sequel to "Anchors Aweigh." Gene Kelly has to do "The Pirates" with Judy Garland, then "Cabbages and Kings," in which he'll play a Coney Island banker. Producer Joe Pasternak doubts if he can get Kelly, Kathryn Grayson and Frank Sinatra together for "All Ashore" within two years. And by that time the Navy idea will be passe.

Bob Burns took his radio show to San Francisco to help celebrate the leatherneck birthday and open the new Marine Memorial Club. That is a sumptuous former hotel now designed for, the com-

Coahoma, Forsan To Tangle In Six Man Tilt Thursday

Local Fans Get Initial Chance To See Contest

Local football fans get a chance to see their only six-man football game of the season Thursday night when Forsan's Buffaloes and the Coahoma Bulldogs tangle at Steer stadium in a game slated to begin at 8 p.m.

The battle, which annually highlights the schedule of each series regardless of the won-and-lost records, was originally scheduled to be unreeled here Friday night but was moved up due to conflict with the Big Spring-Midland contest, which is slated to be played in Midland.

The abbreviated game has caught on sensationally in this section and a large turnout is anticipated. Both the Howard county schools will send large delegations. The clubs are out of the running for the District Ten six-man title but a first division finish will be guaranteed the winner.

Coahoma's offense is built around tiny but speedy Wayne DeVaney, who led the Bulldogs to the regional championship last fall. DeVaney has help from such operatives as Dennis Turner, Everett Self, LeRoy Shafter and Vern Wolf.

The Forsan attack boasts such standouts as Bobby Wash, Max Anderson, Elton Prater, Charles Long and Joe Green.

J. Z. Thompson is the Coahoma mentor while Frank Honeycutt handles the coaching reins at Forsan. Both are new to this section.

Jaycees Scrap Ackerly Quint

Still unbeaten after five starts, the Howard County Junior college basketball Jayhawks invade Ackerly this evening to do battle with the Dawson county Independents.

The Hawks had their closest call of the campaign Monday evening but managed to break by the newly formed American Legion team of Big Spring, 34-33, in a contest unreeled at the high school gymnasium.

Jack Griffin looped 13 points to set the scoring pace for the winners. Frank Hardesty was outstanding for the Legionnaires.

Grade School 11's Play Final Games

Final games of the Grade school football league's schedule will be played at Steer stadium starting at 3:30 p.m. this afternoon.

Opener sends North Ward, still seeking its first victory, out against College Heights. East Ward clashes with West Ward in the second contest while Central Ward, the reigning champion, gets South Ward in the final battle.

The East-West collision will decide the second place team. Central won the title for the second year in a row last week by turning back West Ward.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Immediately prior to the 1946 football season, several Southwest Conference coaches went on record as saying that some of the greatest teams in the history of the league would be developed this year. Among those who committed themselves thusly were Matty Bell, head man at Southern Methodist university, and Texas university's Dana Bible.

The writer was privileged to see Bell's Mustangs fight a losing battle with Texas A&M last Saturday. We were quite let down. We only have to go back to the 1939 Texas Aggie team, the TCU Horned Frogs of 1938 and the SMU Mustangs of 1935 to single out what we thought were better, stronger and certainly smarter ball clubs.

The SMU club boasted no backs, outside of young Frank Payne, who knew what to do with the ball when they got it. Bell, as usual, has a great line but his secondary leaves much to be desired.

A&M, on the other hand, probably is richer in material than any other Southwestern team. Yet it had all the earmarks of a poorly coached eleven. It boasts a tremendous kicker in young Stanley Hollmig—who, incidentally, appeared here with the Honro AAF club last fall—and a nice passer in Buryl Baty. Coach Homer Norton has made great defensive backs out of such operatives as Leo Daniels, Babe Hallmark, Willie Zapalac, Bob Goode, Ed Dusak, Tom Pickett and Leo Daniels. But Norton has forged no offense.

SMU looked like the proverbial million dollars in the middle of the field. Once the Cayuses were in the danger zones, however, the backs froze up and virtually all blocking stopped.

Gene Wilson, the Ponies' All-Conference wing, is as great a defensive end as we ever saw. The Aggies rarely headed his way. He could not be sucked in and it was next to impossible to block him down. He floats beautifully and deceptively and always seems to be on top of the play. The Aggies, of course, gave him special attention but could not get him out of their hair.

The time-honored football huddle is fast being outmoded. In fact, it may reach the point in a few short seasons when teams return to calling signals in an attempt to beat the changing defenses that are creating such havoc with attacks these days.

What chance has a quarterback these days when he steps back to eye the defensive setup, bends down in the huddle to try a play at what he thinks is a weak spot, then has the defense shift from something like a 6, 2, 2, 1 to an 8, 2, 1 or 6, 3, 2, before he can run the play?

A lot of signal barkers are going batty, trying to outguess the opposition. In these items, it's not uncommon for a play engineer to call his boys back into the huddle as often as 12 or 15 times to re-chart the course of action.

In its way, the old policy of having the quarter bark out the signals was colorful and made the game more interesting. When the custom died out and the huddle came on, something thrilling died with it.

If the old signal-calling system did nothing else, it kept all the players on their toes interpreting the numbers game. They had to grasp the significance of the chant in a split second or lose out altogether.

The Associated Press' 1946 All-America football team will appear in the Dec. edition of the Daily Herald. The fight for the line berths is wide open but the four backs who'll dominate most A-A teams are fairly well established. Why not Charles Trippi of Georgia, Glenn Davis and Felix Blanchard of Army and Herman Wedemeyer of St. Mary's? Johnny Lujack, Notre Dame, would have had a chance had he beaten the Cadets last Saturday but his quarterbacking wasn't up to par.

From the mail-bag: "I just got home from the San Angelo - Big Spring football game. I think it was the most one-sided game I have ever seen. By this, I mean the referees. I think Angelo had 12 players on the field. A football fan."

One of the rules infractions that cost the locals 15 yards in the Bobcat go was for alleged unnecessary roughness. Interpreted to the 'stands in the accompanying picture's manner. Most of the fans did not challenge the official's right to call the play. It was the manner in which he went about it that caused them to raise the roof. He speared the ball before the play had fairly stopped and stepped

Druggists Cut Hosteler Lead

State Drug was the only first division contingent to make any progress toward cutting down the Douglass Innkeepers' lead in the Classic Bowling league Tuesday evening, sweeping a three-game series from Texas Electric while the the Hostelers were copping two of three from Big Spring Neon.

Fox Drug, currently a game ahead of the Druggists in the fight for second place, edged HiWay Package stores, 2-1, while Nathan's Jewelers dropped Elmo Watson's Haberdashers by the same count.

Ward Hall, Innkeeper star, had a 235 to outdistance G. G. Runyan's 231 for scoring laurels in the individual game. However, Runyan—who kleges for Fox—had high aggregate with a 588, beating out Escal Compton of Big Spring Neon by 12 pins.

Fox's 2662 captured team scoring honors for the evening.

Curtis Wrestles Illini Tonight

A quartet of the better junior heavyweights wrestling in the Great Southwest pair off at Pat O'Dowdy's Athletic arena in the West Texas Auction barn this evening for the second of the Irishman's winter grapple shows.

George Curtis, who rang the bell in an interesting and successful outing with one Leo Jensen last week, returns to action with George Bruckman of Chicago. Curtis, a clean cut youngster from Vicksburg, may have his hands full with Bruckman, who comes to town with a lot of promise.

The other bout features Art Brady, the Hollywood double for the bobby-sox idol, Van Johnson, and Johnny LaRue of Dallas. Brady hit this section of the country after a successful tour of West Coast rings. Though he's built better, he's often taken for the movie prince.

Both matches are to be decided by the best two-of-three falls. If no deciding fall results, the time keeper will call a halt at the end of an hour's action. The fans are usually out of the arena by 10:30 p.m.

O'Dowdy says he intends to give Jensen another chance to show his wares here. Jensen claims Curtis took advantage of his better nature last week and "did him in." Leo won the first fall from the Mississippian but then succumbed to a series of drop kicks and follow-up pins.

Starting time for tonight's show is 8 p.m.

Sammy Baugh has averaged a gain of 12.3 yards per competition on 905 successful passes for the Washington Redskins.

Munger Warns Cadets Of Trouble In Army-Penn Battle Saturday

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13. (AP)—Pennsylvania coach George Munger let it be known today that "we may have an upset" when his team meets Army Saturday in Philadelphia's football game of the year.

But, said Munger, there are two big "ifs" involved. "If the Army is not in the proper mental attitude and should make mistakes and if we should get the breaks..."

And then the 34-year-old coach got down to points. "The Army has one of the most dangerous passers in college ranks in Arnold Tucker but we also have a good pair—Bob Evans and Skippy Minial.

"Don't ask me to compare Doc Blanchard with our fullbacks but we are pretty deep there and Ed Allen and Bill Luongo can be counted on for a fine job."

"This game is a great opportunity for our players," said Munger. "Physically I think we will be at top form. We came out of the Columbia game in good shape. Frank Jenkins (one of the nation's finest ends), who hasn't played since the Navy game, is ready again and our backfield appears fit.

"Up front we have plenty of weight but Army's more experienced. All in all it should be a terrific game. The boys want to win this one more than any other."

The game, a sellout for two months, will draw 78,000 to Franklin Field.

Preston Named Checker Prexy

A. C. Preston of Big Spring, who captured first place in the West Texas Checker association's tournament held at the YMCA Monday, was later elected president of that organization.

Other officers named to fill posts were M. G. Riggan, Lamesa, first vice president; J. F. Wright, Brownwood, second vice president; D. G. Kulsms, Ropesville, third vice president; and Leonard L. Ware, Big Spring, secretary-treasurer.

Wright finished runnerup in the tournament. First prize in the B group went to G. E. Ware of Lubbock, who beat out B. J. Greer of Lubbock in the finals. B consolation prize went to Slim Weaver of Ackerly.

Persons present for the meeting, which will be held annually henceforth, were Preston, T. R. Morris, A. W. Avant, Ted Fields, Otto Peters, Sr., Dr. A. N. Bowden and A. H. Tate, all of Big Spring; Riggan and M. S. Duncan of Lamesa; Weaver and Obie Awall of Ackerly; J. H. Hunter of Coleman; Ware and Wright.

PACING RECORD LONDON, Nov. 13. (AP)—Bert Couzens started walking around and around and around a Greyhound track on Sept. 30 and today he claimed a world's record of pacing 2,652 miles in 1,000 hours.

ELIZONDO WINS SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 13. (AP)—Tony Elizondo, Texas welterweight champion from Corpus Christi, took a unanimous 10-round decision from Southern Middleweight Champion Bobby Britton of Miami, Fla., before a packed house here last night.

"Thanks a million for the tip, Pal!"

There's no blade like PAL HOLLOW GROUND

And there isn't—except another Pal! No "ifs" or "buts" about it, every Pal blade gives you the last word in smooth shaving satisfaction!

Usual safety razor blades are ground like a pocket knife. Pal Blades are different—they're Leather Stripped and Hollow Ground just like a barber's razor.

Result: Pal Blades are flexible in your razor—follow facial contours effortlessly. Your shave is cool, quick, no "beating down." And delicate edges last longer, too. That's why millions call it the Pal Feather Touch shave.

LOST AND FOUND ITEMS FILE UP IN GERMANY

BREMENHAVEN, Germany, (AP)—The Lost and Found department of this American entry port into Germany has a piggy bank, a picture of General MacArthur and a barrel of soap for whom it would like to find the owners.

The amount of unidentified household goods, shipped to Germany by American dependents, has grown so rapidly that a circular has been distributed with a description of the goods in hopes of finding the owners.

The list, which gives a clue to what dependents expect to find or not find in Germany, included: clothes pins, wash basin, a Sam Brown belt with ammunition carrier, light bulbs, a broom a baby crib, a folding baby's bath, baby food, swing frames, a pale green silk bed cover, coffee maker and assorted pans, a suntan chair, a clothes hamper, a maple chair, a folding bench grinder and two triangles.

And finally, a truck without identification and addressed to "Eldorado."

Another Bond Campaign On

There's another bond drive on.
The government has set aside another 30-day period which opened No. 11, to renew interest of the public in government savings bonds. Howard county has been given a quota of $80,000, and Ira Thurman, county bond chairman, is at work again to see that this goal is met.

By Wednesday, $7,500 in E
bonds had been sold here.
For thrift purposes, for anti-inflation safeguards, for Christmas gifts—for a multitude of reasons—savings bonds deserve consideration, Thurman points out. He's confident Howard countians will do the job expected of them.

Dogs Expected To Be At Peak

Coach Johnny Dibrell and his cohorts expect their Big Spring high school football team to catch the Midland Bulldogs on the rebound when the two eleven clash
Friday night in Midland.
The Dogs hit the skids two weeks ago against San Angelo, losing a 14-7 decision. They were idle last week but Barnes Milam has been working them hard in preparations for the Big Spring invasion. He's been spending a lot of time with his pony backs, who were sensational in the early season games.
Midland came to town last year and handed the Steers a surprise package, winning a 9-6 decision.
They have most of the players back this year that administered the 1945 beating to the Longhorns.
Reserve duets for the battle are on sale at the school tax office,

Steffy Honored As Week's Top Grid Lineman

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. (AP)—
Joe Steffy, Army guard, smeared Notre Dame men all over the place in last Saturday's "Game Of The Year" at the Yankee stadium. For his stellar performance of the cadet from Chattanooga was named today as the lineman of the week in the sixth Associated Press weekly poll of the season.

"Steffy was superb defensively and offensively amongst an array of outstanding stars," was the tribute to Steffy's feats by Herman Hickman, Army line coach, who seldom goes overboard on a player.

Steffy had the stiffest kind of opposition in the balloting from ends Alton Baldwin, of Arkansas;
Neil Armstrong, Oklahoma Aggies;
Kelly Mote, Duke; and Jim Martin, Notre Dame; tackles Ed Champagne, Louisiana State and George

Franco Claims UN Isolation A Spur To War

MADRID, Nov. 13. (AP)— Generalissimo Francisco Franco maintained today that United Nations isolation of Spain would greatly increase the possibility of war.

"Every action of violence and injustice always tends rather towards war than towards peace," Spain's chief of state said last night in answer to questions handed him by the Associated Press.
He said a diplomatic break would bring about "disunion among nations and dissension in the interior of many" and cost the UN prestige, and "the undermining and disunion of the latter would greatly increase the possibility of war."

(The UN general assembly, now meeting in New York, has on its agenda the question of what to do about the Spanish government.
Poland demanded the United Nations all break diplomatic relations with Franco. Secretary-general Trygve Lie has urged action by which "democratic government may be restored in Spain.") Franco said the UN charter prohibited intervention in matters essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of any state.

"If those very nations which are members are not obliged to submit to agreements concerning essentially domestic matters," he said, "to a much lesser degree would there be submission on the part of one which is not under its jurisdiction and has not even requested to be admitted."
Franco added that the UN security council had been shown "that Spain had not caused a breach of the peace, and could in no case through her population, industrial preparation or military power—constitute an effective threat to the peace with respect to the power and means of the United Nations."
