Mysterious Man Seen Before Deaths, Negro Tells Police

20 ANGELO PERSONS CONVICTED OF PROHIBITION CONSPIRACY

Six of Arrested Are Women, Reports Give Out

SAN ANGELO, May 3.—(UP)—Carroll Bates, former police chief, A. W. Brown, until recently a member of the police force, and 18 others were convicted in the federal court here today of conspiracy to violate the national prohibition act. Six of the number were women. Sentence will be passed this afternoon.

FARMER HERE TO GIVE LAND TO AN IRRIGATIONIST

If any qualified irrigation farmer wants a chance to make money and become known as the first experimenter in the county for his particular type of farming, he can have a chance, says E. N. Snodgrass. Snodgrass, known as one of the most scientific farmers in the Southwest, has a tract of land which he will give over for irrigation farming to some one. He will give that tenant free rein. All production will go into the tenant's pocket. Water is to be had from a shallow depth. The electric company here will make special prices for power pumping. Snodgrass makes the proposition for the effect it would have on experimentation. He believes that there is valuable acreage in the county which is almost unproductive because of the dearth of water. What the farmer wants raised on the tract is truck: radishes, turnips, mustard, cabbage, beans, watermelons, peas, onions, potatoes, tomatoes and a variety of other vegetables.

National Music Week Committee Is Busy Here

Members of the committee named for making provisions for National Music week have been unusually busy this week. Among other activities, these ladies have placed placards advertising local activities during the week, in special windows of the business section.

PROCTOR TO SHIP OUT 5,000 HEAD YEARLINGS

Shipment of 5,000 head of steer and heifer yearlings will be made by Foy Proctor next week, loading out 2,500 head from Odessa and 2,500 head from Midland on May 9 and 12. These cattle were formerly owned by Brass and Myers and Proctor, and Mr. Proctor sold his interest to Brass and Myers some time ago, to deliver the cattle early in May. This is one of the largest shipments of cattle to have been made this season, and the cattle are the choice yearlings from some of the leading herds in the Midland country. They were bought from Midland ranchmen by Mr. Proctor.

ORDERS FOR 314 CATTLE CARS PLACED

Shipment was made from Midland Thursday by the Scharbauer Cattle company of 550 head of cows which the company sold to C. B. Henderson of Alma, Kansas. A report to J. W. B. Hogan, inspector for the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association, shows that orders for 314 cars have been placed on the Rio Grande division of the T. and P. railroad for use between April 29 and May 20.

BASEBALL--PAGE 4

As a service to baseball fans and Reporter-Telegram readers, the paper was not run off the press this afternoon until after the game between the Midland Colts and the Big Spring Cowboys.

See page 4 of this paper for a full account of the game, play by play, as covered by the Reporter-Telegram sports writer.

With a typewriter busy all through the game, each inning's results were sent in by special messenger, and the linotypes were busy setting the account of the game while it was being played.

Juanita Johnson Wins Her Preliminary In State Meet

Juanita Johnson, Midland high school student, who is at Austin completing in the senior declamation contest, and winner in this division at the recent district meet at San Angelo, has won out in the first preliminaries, according to advice to D. D. Shifflett, high school principal here. Midland people attending the state interscholastic league meet at the University of Texas are Juanita Johnson, in the senior girl's declamation contest; Imogene Cox, in the typewriting contest, winner of the district contest at Lubbock; W. W. Lackey, superintendent of schools; Misses Thelma Lee Rippey and Quinnie Cordill, high school faculty members, and Mrs. J. S. Cordill.

CAMERON SELLS MATERIALS FOR SCHARBAUER JOB

Award of the contract to supply brick, lumber and concrete, and to install the tile flooring for the six story addition to Hotel Scharbauer was made late Wednesday to Wm. Cameron Company of Midland. It was stated by A. E. Anderson, manager.

This is indeed recognition of the company's buying and jobbing power, as they were bidding against keen competition.

Work is expected to be started at once on the hotel addition, and materials will be delivered as needed, Mr. Anderson said.

T. A. T. Making Good Time On Schedule Through Midland

T. A. T. passenger plans are running on schedule now, and it is not infrequent that both east and west bound ships are crowded to the cabin walls with tourists, business men who are hurrying to an engagement at a distance, and the thrill seeker. Thrill seekers are generally disappointed, however, on the trip, for the pilots are unusually careful and take no chances. All flying is on even keel, and bad weather causes the ship to make landings at once. T. A. T. has adopted the habit of connecting up its schedule at terminal points, but it does not overlook any bet in doing so with perfect safety.

MIDLAND COLTS ARE OWNERS OF NEW FORD BUS

Midland Colts will be transported from town to town in the West Texas League this season in a new Ford bus, fitted especially for comfortable and speedy travel. This bus was purchased by the Midland Baseball Club from the Cowden Motor Company, and is already in service. By having a Midland owned bus, the Colts may get better transportation service and be in better condition for games throughout the season.

TWO BURN TO DEATH IN BLAZE

Negro Held Without Charges Being Filed

COOLEIDGE, Texas, May 3 (UP)—Screams, followed by a man running from the house with a flashlight in his hand, preceded the burning of a farm home near here early today in which Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Davidson, about 60, lost their lives, George Simmons, negro, told the police. Simmons, frightened, said he remained in his house nearby until about 5 o'clock when he notified neighbors. He is being held without charges being filed.

The couple was alone at the time. Their daughter, Mrs. G. Hutson, usually living with them, was at the home of relatives for the night. The Davidson's had lived 15 years in the community. Oil cans in the house indicated the fire was of incendiary origin.

COTTON OVER THE SECTION RUINED BY SAND STORMS

Cotton which was planted in the county before the sand storms of this week is almost a total loss, farmers say. There are few agriculturists, if any, who will not have to replant. Gardens are in the same condition.

Farmers say, however, that the fault is all their own; that they knew of their risk in early planting from experience; that they had gambled and lost.

M. W. Whitmire, well-known farmer, said that cotton planted in this section on May 15, or even later, would be in majority of cases catch and pass the growth of that planted from 15 to 20 days earlier. A combined influence of cold weather and sand storms attributes to the fact, he said.

A. B. Wilson, Mrs. Sallie Blanton and John Pliska were some of the others who agreed with Whitmire's statements of late planting.

Motive Sought In Shooting at McCamey Thurs.

SAN ANGELO, May 3.—(AP)—Officers today still had found no possible motive for the shooting of Hugh Rutledge, Sonora cafe owner, who was wounded at McCamey last night.

Rutledge, with a bullet through his chest, was near death today. One arrest had been made.

Report Favorable On Borah Bill To Protect Products

WASHINGTON, May 3.—(UP)—The Borah bill to "suppress unfair fraudulent practices in the marketing of perishable agricultural commodities in inter-state and foreign commerce" was voted in a favorable report by the senate agricultural committee today.

SAYS GOODWILL COULD SETTLE MEXICO TROUBLE

WASHINGTON, May 3.—(UP)—Belief that the religious difficulty in Mexico can be adjusted by using goodwill on both sides was expressed today in a statement by Archbishop Leopoldo Ruiz, senior of the Mexican Hierarchy and chairman of the committee of Mexican bishops. He is visiting friends here.

Are We Seeing Things?

SCHARBAUER LATEST TO BE LET

Construction of Residences Is Quite Noticeable

With the granting today of a permit of $128,000 to the J. O. Everett Construction company for the erection of a six-story addition to Hotel Scharbauer, building permits in Midland for 1929 had reached a total of $509,485.

Exact figures for the same portion of last year were not available this afternoon, but the steady building activity in Midland is regarded as greater than in any city of the same size in Texas.

Many New Homes Residence construction has been responsible for approximately $350,000 of the half million dollar total, and there are now 50 or more substantial residences under construction.

Activity Steady The monthly average of building permits, not including today's permit for the hotel addition, has run almost $96,000. May will be the heaviest month for the first five months of 1929, and C. E. Nolan, city building inspector, estimated that the total for this month will amount to at least $150,000. The warehouse for Walker-Smith Wholesale Grocery, which it is believed will start soon, would swell the monthly figures past that amount.

Month Average $96,000

The total by months thus far in city building permits is as follows:
January.....$ 66,150
February..... 80,000
March..... 126,105
April..... 110,350
May, incomplete..... 126,000
Total.....$509,485

Hotel Work Starts Work on the Hotel Scharbauer addition will start at once, Mr. Nolan was informed by J. O. Everett, general contractor. Machinery and equipment are being unloaded at the site today, and sub-contracts are being let.

Communists and Police Fighting In Berlin Today

BERLIN, May 3.—(AP)—Communist disorders broke out again this afternoon in the principal street of Subrin Neukoln and the battle ground of last night's troubles.

Numbers of shots were fired on police from windows, and a bombardment of stones began from house tops. Simultaneously, a steady stream of Communists began pouring in from adjacent streets.

Most of the Communists were armed with clubs, brass and iron knuckles. They charged the police who fired shots in the air.

The attack soon grew so that the police began to shoot to wound. By 2 o'clock this afternoon, the fighting was full blast with incessant firing by both sides to the accompaniment of yells and shrieks from the wounded.

Vernon Wants Data On Air Port of City

Vernon is one of the West Texas cities to ask information on the Midland airport. The Chamber of Commerce in that place said that Midland was recognized as having a landing field and service facilities quite out of the common for a city of its size, and asked that full specifications be sent them.

Were to Have Been Mere May First

A confirming telegram from the War Department saying that the landing of the first great fleet of air fighters and bombers of the government would land here on May 12 was received this morning by Frank Gore, a member of the aeronautical committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The wire explained that the new dates were set too late to let Midland know that the fleets would not arrive when expected, on May 1, and continued:

MAKING CHESS HARDER

Devotees of the game of chess will be highly interested in Jose Capablanca's recently presented suggestion for widening the scope of the game.

Capablanca, who has claimed for years that chess needs revision because the experts have solved all its possible combinations, has suggested and demonstrated some changes. He has enlarged the size of the board, so that it contains 100 squares instead of 64. Each side has four new pieces; two new pawns, and two composite pieces, one of which combines the powers of the rook and the knight, while the other combines the powers of the bishop and the knight.

Chess lovers will doubtless be eager to see how this new game works out. For the ordinary man chess still contains unnumbered riddles. It may be, however, that the masters' tournaments will contain fewer monotonous draws if Capablanca's suggestions are adopted.

HAPPINESS AND SUCCESS

By Bruce Catton

Ask any father what his chief ambitions are, and he will inevitably close his list by remarking, "and of course, I want to make sure that my kids have a happy childhood."

This is the most natural emotion imaginable. A child, because of its dependence and helplessness, can be lonelier and unhappier than most people dream. Every parent wants to make the period of childhood as joyous and care-free as possible.

But a disturbing thought is raised by a recent interview in which Joseph Hergesheimer, one of the country's most gifted novelists, suggested that a happy childhood may not lead to a successful manhood.

Remarking that he himself had taken to literature because he had been unhappy and discontented, Mr. Hergesheimer said:

"Nobody amounts to anything if they've had a happy childhood and youth. Happy people are so adjusted to life, they just live. We have to seek something to convince ourselves that we amount to something. We have to surmount obstacles—otherwise we don't believe in ourselves."

Mr. Hergesheimer has put his finger on one of the oldest conflicts in the world—the conflict between man's desire to find happiness and his desire to amount to something. The two do not often go together. Accomplishment ordinarily springs from discontent, whether we like to admit it or not.

It is not without significance that most of our great leaders in politics, industry and commerce began life as poor boys.

Run over a list of the names of our great men—Ford, Over, Edison, Rockefeller, for instance. Would any one of them have reached his present high position if sharp, bitter circumstances had not compelled him to go without playtime, as a boy, and dig in to amount to something? Do be sure, there are exceptions to the rule—but they aren't very common. For the old proverb, after all, is right; genius is one per cent inspiration and 99 per cent perspiration. And the man who is willing to work his head off to get what he wants is usually the man who was compelled to do that from his early youth.

Unfortunately for our dreams of universal happiness, it is discontent that makes the world move forward. This has been true since the cave man, miserable and hungry because he was too slow-footed to catch game, invented a bow and arrow so that he could kill it from a distance; and it always will be true, down to the day when we shall have wiped out poverty, ended disease and learned how to travel to Mars.

Most of us, of course, will continue to try to give our children happiness and let them take their chances on accomplishment. But while we're doing it, we might as well admit that some poor youngsters from an orphan asylum may outdistance them in the race for success.

"Sinnie Kimling's" Show Coming Back To Grand Theatre

Hundreds of theatre goers will remember "Sinnie Kimling's" show, which played the Grand theatre last year, and was regarded by many as the best show of the season. Mr. Bonner, manager of the Grand theatre, announces the return of this popular comedian and his company of high-class entertainers, who are scheduled to open at this local play house next Sunday afternoon for a week's engagement.

Kimling and his "Radio Girls" are said to have even a better show than they had last season. To the cast has been added a couple of popular entertainers, decidedly augmenting the entertainment value of each performance. They are: "Fat" Wilds, noted Uke specialty musician, heard throughout the country over such radio stations as WFAA, KR, LD, WRR, WBAP. He has been strikingly fitted into the cast of Kimling's Radio Girls. "Slats" Taylor, dubbed "The Duke From Dixie," the other recruit, is claimed to rival "Shinnie" himself, as a comedy star of first rank.

Mr. Wilds has just finished a successful tour with "Lasses White" on Big Time engagements, as well as his work over the radio. The big Beauty Chorus is recommended as more elaborate than last year, well costumed and offering a new touch of personality to the stage presentations, seldom found in a twelve-people aggregation. The scheduled picture program will share the bills throughout the week, making a strong program daily.

Country Club House Scene of Festive Bridge Affair

Mesdames Tolbert and Moran Entertain More Than Hundred With Merry Springtime Function.

Springtime bridge affairs were brought to a climax yesterday afternoon when Mesdames Earl Moran and Allan Tolbert honored friends with a festive events at the country club house.

Twenty-nine tables were placed in the spacious rooms, where a profusion of roses of every hue and fern in baskets and bowls added charm to the garden scene.

PASTEL SHADES PREDOMINATE

Guests were greeted at the doorway by the hostesses, attractively gowned in orchid and yellow evening dresses, and also by Mrs. W. J. Moran.

Games were then played at tables marked with covers, tallies and score books in orchid, yellow and green shades, which colors also predominated in the floral decorations.

SCORE FAVORS

Score favors for high, second high and low were presented in packages prettily wrapped in the favored colors. These went to Miss Cordelia Taylor, who held high and was awarded a lovely green and gold compartment bon bon dish; to Mrs. I. K. Parker, who received a gold pickard relish dish for holding second high, and to Mrs. Bob Estes, who was given a vanity case for consolation.

COLORS IN PARTY PLATE

At tea time, tables were centered with ferns in pots of pastel colors, which later went as high table cuts. Party plates of molded roses, in the varnished colors, individual cakes covered with green icing and topped with pink roses, and iced tea were

Women Stride Forward--In Trousers

The Paris Couturiers Smile Favorably On New Mode

By MINOTT SAUNDERS
NEA Service Writer

PARIS, April 3.—It won't be long now, girls, when you may put on breeches and step out like a man—or a perfect lady.

Paris has begun to consider the problem of the trousered woman. Give her what she wants, or at least get it ready for her when she wants it, is the principle upon which the quick-thinking couturiers here operate. And so they are now showing pants—shamelessly, artistically and successfully—pants for women.

TOMORROW'S LINE TODAY

They call it the "Line of Tomorrow," but most women who see these lovely little trouserettes, or whatever they might be called, just go into properly refined hysterics over the very idea of being able to pull them on and step out with a big stride forward toward the liberty of action of the gentler sex. Many of them want to do it today.

The trouser idea was the triumphant "tone" of the "Line of Tomorrow" contest held by Madame Mag-Helly, to which nearly a thousand designers contributed their ideas about what women will wear. The majority of the wise ones who by profession look up and down the lines of a woman saw nothing but trousers.

THEY'RE MODEST, 'TIS SAID

Nothing-but-trousers, is one of the strongest arguments in favor of this new style. Some sort of a skirt will be worn, certainly at first, but it will be short and probably slit up the side, and when Milady steps into her car, or anywhere else with a determined foot forward, that which will be seen underneath will be nothing but trousers. They will Believe it or not, the feminine note hasn't been lost in this knickered sports suit created by Mag-Heely. It is made entirely of crepe de chine in several shades of green.

Silks and Satins Aid In Returning the Feminine Note

To hear some of the enthusiastic talk, these trousers will be much more modest and ladylike than the old-fashioned silk undies now being worn and too often revealing a stretch of skin or what-will-you. Trousers will just let women be themselves.

WILL SHE WEAR 'EM—?

That is, if they work. A few years ago, M. Paul Poiret, one of the most famous and daring of Paris couturiers, predicted that conditions of present-day life would demand that women wear divided skirts, or trousers. He created quite a sensation with a collection featuring what were called his fantastic ideas. He had trousered dresses for sports, for afternoon wear, and seductively divided skirts after the Turkish mode for evening wear. Somehow, they didn't quite click, and after the first surprise little was thought of them. In subsequent collections he showed a decreasing number of these models. Now there are those who say he lost his nerve.

MAG-HELLY TAKES OWN MEDICINE

Foremost of these is Madame Mag-Heely, who, in her own maison, wears an abbreviated skirt of satin crepe, slit along the side, and underneath trouserettes of the same material. As she moves gracefully the trousers may be seen, but they are not very surprising and that's all there is to it.

Mme. Mag-Heely, following the ideas of the quick-guessing designers, has made several trousered suits which she is featuring. They are meant chiefly for sports use, but she predicts that women in business or other active persuasions will very soon be wearing trousers because modern conditions demand it.

BISHOP IN A DAY

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., May 3.—(UP)—From a non-church member to a bishop in a day was the rise of Dr. H. B. Curtis, Kansas City. Dr. Curtis, long an unaffiliated worker, was voted for membership, chosen an elder, and then a member of the general bishopric, the processes necessary for holding the highest office in the Church of Christ.

MIAMI, Fla., May 3. (UP)—Four ducks, now the property of President Machado of Cuba, were flown to Havana from Miami in a Pan-American Airways plane. They were the gift of the Cuban consul at Miami and sat quietly in a crate during the flight.

NEGRO INFANT BURIED

HERE THIS MORNING
The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Townsel, Negro, was buried this morning with the Ellis Funeral Parlor in charge of the services.

SPAIN A LEADER IN ARBITRATION

GENEVA, May 3 (UP)—Spain is rapidly taking the lead among European countries for the settlement of all disputes by arbitration, conciliation or other peaceful means.

Up to the present time Spain has registered with the Secretariat of the League of Nations no less than 19 treaties with other nations providing for the pacific settlement of all disputes.

In addition Spain is also one of the latest of the very limited number of nations that have signed the optional clause of the Statutes of the League's Permanent Court of International Justice at the Hague, accepting the court's compulsory jurisdiction for the settlement of all judicial disputes.

Many of the individual treaties which Spain has negotiated with other countries go much farther than the usual arbitration and conciliation treaty in that they provide for a procedure embodying a compulsory decision.

The wise housewife takes advantage of the occasional cool day to cook a large piece of meat, which she can use to prepare left-overs without the expenditure of much time or effort. Here are some timely suggestions on how these left-overs make summer meals easy.

Cooking a whole or a half ham provides meat dishes for several days. A roast of lamb, beef, veal, or pork may be utilized in any number of quickly prepared main dishes. A pot-roast of beef or veal, or a beef or calf's tongue are other possibilities.

Meat salads are always acceptable as the piece de resistance of the summer meal. With them may be served one or two warm vegetable dishes, such as creamed potatoes, asparagus, peas, green corn.

Creamed meat dishes may be made ready and assembled just before serving time.

A mousse of ham or veal, molded in large or small molds, is nice for the company luncheon or informal dinner, because it may be prepared early and forgotten about until time to serve. A well-seasoned sauce such as a horseradish sauce adds zest.

A simple, but a very attractive way of serving left-over meat is to slice it and arrange on a prettily garnished platter.

Tomatoes or green peppers may

STUFFED PEPPERS

1/2 cup minced ham.
1/2 cup diced celery.
1 chopped onion.
1 chopped pimento.
1/2 cup bread crumbs.
1/2 cup tomato sauce.
1 teaspoon salt.
Green peppers.

Scoup out peppers. Drop in salted boiling water and boil for fifteen minutes. Cook diced celery in butter until tender. Mix with other ingredients and fill the pepper cups. Sprinkle with buttered bread crumbs and place in a shallow pan containing a half-inch of water. Bake in a hot oven for ten minutes.

George McQueen of Fort Worth is here today on business. Mr. McQueen is an employee of the Gulf Production company in Fort Worth.

COSTLY CALLOUS CURSES COUNTRY

Corns Cripple Coin Capacity, Chiropodist Complains

BOSTON, May 3. (UP)—Corns and callouses cost the country something like $100,000,000 each year in reduced personal efficiency, according to Dr. S. M. Harmolin, president of the National Association of Chiropodists.

"There may be a pair of perfect feet in this nation, but we doubt it," he said. "At least we were unable to find a pair that closely approximated the anatomically normal foot in an exhaustive survey of the nations feet that included reports of hundreds of public clinics in city and town, kindergarten and college, marts of trade and great industrial plants the country over."

Modern methods of living increased liability to foot ills, he declared. The railroads of the United States use about 130,000,000 new wood ties every year.

COLTS LOST OPENING HOME GAME TO BIG SPRING 17 TO 6

COLTS UNABLE TO COPE WITH HEAVY SLUGGING

Under an avalanche of hits and home runs, Midland went down before the Big Spring Cowboys this afternoon, 17-6. Eight four-ply clouts were unleashed by the slugging visitors. Rose, outfielder, collected three of these, and "Blackie Adams, former Colt, two. Vick, pitcher for the Springers, added to his laurels by slamming out two homers.

Play by play:

The grandstand started filling early as the gray and blue warriors of Big Spring began their warm up. By the time Midland's snappy team began tossing the ball around the corners and picking out individual boards upon which to train their telescopic sights, speculation was rife in the backwash of the Ahilene "Blackdotts" out there for musical effect.

Vickers introduced managers of both clubs and the men of each aggregation. Vickers presented for the fans a silver cigarette lighter to both managers. He vacillatingly announced that there would be five kinds of ball at and after the game.

First Inning
Big Spring—Glossup flied out to Cheeves. Sain was out, Storey to Shires. White singled to Segrist. Adams flied out to Cheeves in deep left.

Midland—Storey sent a long single to right that bounced back from the boards. Shires walked. Cheeves was out on a high fowl to Shaw near the grandstand. Manley flied out to Seitz in the center garden. Flynn was out on a high fowl to White at first.

Second Inning
Big Spring—Leedy hit for two bases down the third-base line to Cheeves. Rose, homer over the right wall, scoring Leedy ahead of him. Seitz flied out to Johnson in right field. Shaw was out on a pop-up to Smith. Vick doubled to deep center when Manley seemed to lose the ball in the sun. Glossup flied out to Manley in right center.

Midland—Segrist, Midland manager, swung at the third one. Smith singled to Rose in center. The hit was sizzling. Johnson's third one was called. Andrews singled to right field, advancing Smith to second. Storey was out at first when Glossup handed the chance and threw to White.

Third Inning
Big Spring—Saine singled to deep right. White bunted along third-base line, advancing the runner to second. Adams doubled, scoring Saine. White went to third. Leedy hit to short, who tossed White out at third. Rose hit a home run over the right-center wall, scoring Leedy and Adams ahead of him. Seitz fanned. Shaw hit a home run over the right wall. Vick hit a home run over the left wall. Glossup was out, Segrist to Shires.

Midland—Shires was out, Saine to White. Cheeves was out, Saine to White. Manley hit a high one to short center that went for a hit. Flynn forced Manley at second. Glossup to Saine.

Fourth Inning
Big Spring—Saine flied out to Cheeves in left. White hit to Cheeves in left. He couldn't go farther than first, but "Blackie" Adams gave him a ride on the second ball pitched by slamming it west of the water tower, over the right wall. Leedy was passed. Leedy was out on an attempted steal. Flynn to Storey. Rose hit his third home run. Milton went into the pitcher's box for Midland. Seitz fanned, swinging.

Midland—Segrist singled through second out Seitz in center. Smith was out swinging. Johnson was hit by one of Vick's slants. Milton struck out. Storey singled to center, scoring Segrist and advancing all runners. Shires went out to White, unassisted.

Fifth Inning
Big Spring—Shaw flied out to Johnson next the boards in right. Vick hit a home run over the boards in right, the second for the day. Glossup was out. Storey to Shires. Saine was out on a long fly to Manley in center.

Midland—Cheeves hit a single to Leedy at third. Manley hit into a double play, Vick to Glossup to White. Flynn got to first on White's error. Segrist scratched a hit to Leedy. Smith fanned.

Sixth Inning
Big Spring—White put double to the left field wall. Adams hit long single to right center, advancing White to third. White scores and Adams takes second on Milton's balk. There was some discussion raised by Segrist at this point. Johnson pulled down Leedy's long fly on the right fowl line. Rose walked when four wide ones were given him. Seitz bunted perfectly to advance Adams and Rose. Manley took Shaw's fly in deep center, but Adams scored. Vick was crossed up by Milton's slants and fanned.

Midland—Johnson was out, Saine to Shires. Milton hit for two bases down the third-base line. Storey reached first on the error of White after Saine's throw. Shires hit a single, a freak single, to first, filling the bases. Cheeves, home run member of the "Gold Dust Twins," of last year, was given a passage, forcing in Milton. Manley forced Cheeves, Leedy to Saine. Storey scored on the play. Manley stole second. Flynn had the third one called.

Seventh Inning
Big Spring—Glossup flied out to Johnson in right. Saine walked. White was out, Smith to Shires. Adams hit his second home run to score Saine ahead of him. Leedy was out, Smith to Shires.

Midland—Segrist walked. Smith was called out. Ritz (hitting for Johnson) lined to Glossup. Milton lofted to Rose.

Eighth Inning
Big Spring—Ritz took right field for Midland. Rose singled to center. Seitz was out on a sacrifice bunt. Milton to Shires. Shaw hit to right. Ritz who let the ball get between his legs. Rose scored. Vick hit into a double play, story to Segrist to Shires.

Midland—Grossett took the pitching role for Big Spring. Storey's hit to Leedy was too hard to handle. Shires singled to right, advancing Storey to second, but Storey over-shot the base and was caught in a hot box, and was out. Cheeves drew his second walk of the day. The Big Spring pitchers were looking this man over when the bases were loaded. Manley's hit to Grossett was too hard to handle. Flynn's long fly over the right wall curved fowl, and his next one, a pop up, was caught by White. Segrist's long double to center scored three, Shires, Cheeves and Manley. Smith popped up Glossup.

Ninth Inning
Big Spring—Smith made a nice catch of Glossup's hot grounder. Saine singled sharply to center. White flied out to Cheeves, who made a nice run for the catch. Adams singled to right, advancing Saine to second. Leedy lofted to deep short to end the session.

Midland—Ritz was out, Saine to White. Jones, batting for Milton, was out, Leedy to White. Storey was out on a pop to Glossup.

Score by Innings:
Big Spring ..... 026 312 210—17 22 1
Midland ..... 000 102 030—6 15 2
Batteries—Big Spring, Vick and Grossett; Shaw.

EVANGELISTS TO TRAVEL BY AIR
Former Bandit Will Lead Troupe Around Nation

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, May 3. (UP)—The world's first "Convict-Evangelist Troupe" will start saving souls.

When Jenks D. Harris, former cowboy, movie stunt actor and bandit is paroled in October the troupe will start a tour of the United States and will use an airplane to travel from city to city.

Harris is the leader and organizer of the troupe. His six-year sentence for robbing a bank in Peru induced him to enter the evangelistic field.

Johnnie Backus, who once was known as a "flying tramp" will act as advance man and publicity agent. He is soon to be released from prison here.

Another convict, an amateur aviator, and a man of means, will pilot the plane and advance the necessary cash to get the troupe started on its journey. His name is being withheld.

Harris said that his organization would be known as the "Church of God Evangelistic Troupe" and would be undenominational.

SPORT BRIEFS

By R. C. HANKINS

Everything's all right so far, as the man who fell off the Woolworth building said as he passed the fourteenth floor. The scampering Colts were a bit wild yesterday and let the cowboys bridle them to the rather doleful tune of a 10-4 refrain.

"That sort of thing must happen, you know. It will probably happen again—several times during the season. Sports writers of the majors are not unacquainted with the amenities arising from such a condition. But the real beauty comes from a realization that there are numerous games between the opener and the flag, and Midland has a club that first of all is young and energetic, and one that will grow stronger rather than jaded with the nerve racking days of Mid-July and early August.

Two other good teams had a slugfest yesterday. Abilene putting the drapery about the shoulders of the murdering row from Coleman, 19-10. And, if you don't think that reversal comes to the best of clubs, look at Shreveport's 16-9 cleaning of Waco. The Wacoans are leading the league, thanks to a multitude of factors in their favor, one of the most effective of these being Bob Sanguinet, former Colt outfielder.

"Oh yes, that sort of thing is bound to happen. And Midland must expect it. Every other town in the league does, no doubt. It's the team that stays in there with the support of the fans as an aerial tailwind at their back that grabs off the major per cent of games played, and hangs the galeforce at the mast head at the end. And Midland fans can go a long way toward being such a conclusion to the season.

Sportsmanship, by the way, could be more pronounced here. Too often it is seen that Midland fans are razzing Midland's own club. Do you remember how a petition was passed around in the Texas League-phony last year for the same thing? And how, after fans had agreed to be more than fans—sports—they went to the game that afternoon and rooted for their team rather than booed it. Well—and here's the demerolment, if there is one—the home town team was so surprised at the support that players thought there was something in the air that smelled fish. They booted chances and muffed chances and garbled chances. Three fans watched the development and forgot their promise. Straightway they started vocally to pass sentence on the nine culprits on the diamond and a few myrmidons on the bench, not excepting the water boy and bat boy. The moral to this rather digressive yarn is now in order: The fans who had kept their celluloid collars on their shirts yanked themselves from their seats and, to the extreme edification of the ball club who thought the moment of expatriation had come, grabbed the offending fans by the scruff of the neck, the seat of the trousers, the end of the nose or the lobe of the ear—the records do not bear out just what appendages were most insistently used as handles—and clean up week started in the grandstand. Chiropractors and osteopaths and tailors and plastic surgeons testify that their business as well as that of good sportsmanship was heightened from that minute.

Why cannot Midland take the fable and draw from it a satisfactory conclusion? Human nature is to boo the mistakes of others—especially when the others are out on the diamond. But human nature also takes into account a realization of human values—and the fellow who early in the game brands himself as an egg cannot expect to sell real estate the next morning to the fellow who sat next to him in the game, rooting for the team he wanted to see come out of the maze of errors and play with the consistency which, while it might not inherently belong to them, he wished them.

Midland wishes Big Spring citizens an enjoyable visit while in Midland today and tomorrow. We also take occasion to compliment the sister city on the discharge of its reception to Midland there on Wednesday and Thursday. And, while a little bantering in a paragraph that essentially began with felicitations might be a bit of crudity, we would like for our neighbors to go with us to the top of our office building for a birds-eye view of the Midland area. This for a bit of instructive education, not sarcasm. Big Spring is building, too. The sports writer here would like to have the same proposition put up to him when he goes to Big Spring with the club there.

There are some 178,000 miles of roads in Great Britain.

It is estimated that a motor car travels two and a half million miles for every fatal accident.

Which reminds ye sports writer that Big Spring aviators, not having a building which gets disconcertingly in the way of the pendant vapor (mustn't use the words of Shelley and Keats so the change will be made to "clouds") took him into the upper strata last Sunday and showed him around. Nice country, green fields, winding drives, plenty of industrial smoke, refineries on the horizon—all needed to make the place seem like Midland is a big office building. T. J. Richards and G. H. Byrne almost make you feel, however, that this is not an absolute necessity, that it would be a luxury. Well spoken, at that. However, we in Midland like a balanced ration, not so?

And now, the Four-State league is organized with six clubs, Boise City and Keys, Okla.; Dalhart and Stratford, Tex.; Clayton, N. M., and Pritchett, Colo. And the season starts Sunday. Well, well! Which expression may or may not be committal.

EDITORIAL WRITER

'Town is Forehanded' PRAISES MIDLAND

Recognition of future evolution of Midland as a result of plans of the new city council is general in the press of Texas. Editorials are continually being seen. Speakers' comments are being reproduced.

The following editorial, called Midland's Forehandedness," appeared this week in the Dallas News.

Midland, one of the fast-growing cities observable everywhere throughout West Texas, is taking time by the forelock to prepare for future growth. It is preparing to inaugurate zoning.

Most of the larger cities in Texas are now wrestling with the problem of shaping their physical development so as to afford a maximum of safety, comfort and expansion to all the varied activities and interests of its citizens. The work has been costly, and will continue to be so until the neglect of past years is made up. It cost vastly more to widen streets, to provide new streets, and to fix the size, character and usage of buildings in a given region, after the city has grown entirely over the area affected, than it costs to do the work in advance of the growth.

It is in recognizing this aspect of the zoning problem that Midland is wise. If Fort Worth had exercised the requisite foresight 50 years ago many millions of dollars would have been saved to Fort Worth taxpayers. Cities of the present have found their streets to be entirely too narrow to handle modern automobile traffic, which is increasing in volume every day. Zoning and city planning, new sciences created by the need thus established, seek to remedy as best they may the consequences of past errors and to guard against such errors in the future. As in human ailments, early diagnosis and application of proved remedies bring best results.

Enstranged Wife Spent Most of Alimony on Face-Creams

DALLAS, Texas, May 3. (UP)—A Dallas man complained to Judge Noland G. Williams of County Criminal Court of the way his wife was expending "support" money he was furnishing. The husband, separated from his wife, had been paying a certain amount each week toward her support.

Investigation disclosed that out of the $8 furnished one week by the husband, she had made the following purchases: Face powder, cream and lotions, $5.35; dog collar, 75c; dog meat, 50c; flea powder, 50c.

Judge Williams dismissed a contempt case he had docketed against the husband.

GORDON LIKE NEW MAN SINCE HE TOOK SARGON

Words cannot express the good I derived from Sargon," recently declared B. H. Gordon, Southwestern Representative of Dodd, Mead & Co., one of the largest school book publishing houses in America.

"I was in a terribly run down condition and suffered constantly from stomach trouble. My kidneys gave me so much trouble I had to get up eight or ten times every night. I was underweight and had so little strength I could attend to no business at all that required physical exertions. Treatments and medicines consistently failed to help me.

"I talked with several people who had taken Sargon. They were so enthusiastic over the medicine I decided to try it. I was greatly surprised by the actual results. I am like a new person. I am no longer troubled with my kidneys, and I sleep like a child. I ridish my meals and everything agrees with me. I have gained ten pounds and attend to every duty now without tiring.

"Sargon is wonderful and I would tell everybody in the world about it if I could."

"Say, what do you do for your headstrong kid?" asked Jones. "I had to lick the tar out of my boy last night. He kept crossing me about everything and I couldn't stand it any longer. I never was that way. Were you?"
"None," denied Miller. "I say Bert's like his mother. I get it both coming and going. They're exactly alike. And of course she takes his part. There's the deuce to pay sometimes."
"That's the way it goes," said Jones. "I believe a lot in this heredity business, though. Just as you can, my kid and his mother are dead ringers too." Jones waxed confidential. "Honestly, some nights are just h— at my house. Good thing I'm different. I say, someone's got to give in."
Miller held out his hand. They shook again.
"Say, let's go to a show tonight. I'll buy a paper and see what's on. Here, boy, give me a Telescope."
"You gettin' a Telescope? Give me a Star. I wouldn't read that darn sheet."
"None? Well, after the Star" boasted that old son of horsehair for congress, I wouldn't allow it in my house."
"Is that so?" Well, the owner of the Telescope is a lying, sneaking old hypocrite. A decent person wouldn't read it."

VOL 1 HAROLD GOOCH, Editor BUSH ELKIN, Associate Editor NUMBER 13

EDITORIAL

We have recently been assigned a number of songs and one poem to be memorized. It was possibly from this that Mr. Lackey derived his inspiration of having us stay after 8:15 to do memory work. In fact our hour of freedom does not arrive until just after four, and everyone can rest assured that if we continue to stay in, it won't be long until every student will know his songs. Some of the teachers, however, have been so generous as to require only one poem daily to be given at any opportunity during the day, while upon failure to comply with these terms, each student will be assessed, possibly, a few demerits or at least sufficient time after school to memorize everything. At any rate, every one will surely be able to sing his part when the commencement exercises are given. —Harold Gooch.

CONTRIBUTORS

Contributors are Nez Casper, Laura Helen Sowell, Jewel Dillard, Rita Merle Young, Ernest McKinney, Harie Hamlin, Mrs. Bishop, Lillian Dunaway, Harold Gooch, Bush Elkin, and Mary Lou Thrower. Typing was done by C. C. Foster, Nez Casper and Ernest McKinney. HALF HOLIDAY FOR 9A

Tuesday afternoon the nine A's gladly received a holiday for selling Chautauqua tickets. They went to the matinee and afterwards assembled at Martha Louise Nobles' house to get ready for the picnic. They had their picnic at "Lonesome." It was very much enjoyed by Conrad Dunagan and all. After the picnic the nine A group and friends spent an enjoyable evening at Helen Margaret Ulmer's home.

PLAY GIVEN AT THE AUDITORIUM TONIGHT

An announcement was made in chapel Wednesday morning about the play called "The Arrival of Kitty" to be given tonight in the high school auditorium. Mr. Shull, manager of the play, made this announcement and also mentioned the characters in the play. A prize of ten dollars will be given to the individual selling the greatest amount of tickets—in dollars and cents. The next prize is five dollars.

COMMENCEMENT WORK IS STARTED EARLY

The Students of Midland High have started early to learn the songs and poems for Commencement. "By the Rivers of Babylon," "The Angelus," "Come Unto Me," and "Who Shall Roll Away the Stone," are four songs that have already been assigned. "The Quality of Mercy" from Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice," and a selection from "Hamlet" are the poems now causing so much struggle and sweating.

CAST FOR SENIOR PLAY HAS BEEN SELECTED

"The senior play," stated Mrs. Bishop, who is director, "will probably be given by May 16. However, the date has not been definitely set."

The students in the play are evidently devoting much time and study to the task in order to make Mrs. Bishop's statement, as to the date, exact, because each of them is practicing each afternoon. It is said to be a real comedy.

The cast follows: Edward Worthington Swinger, just out of college, Bill Blodgett; Septimus Pickering, in the pickle business, Charles Edwards; Prof. H. Dalrymple Bliss, apostle of repose, Ernest McKinney, "Slivers" Mason, old college chum, Wade Stevens; Jack Lindsay, Winston Elkin; Tom Catlin, Dick Austin; Harvey Hughes, Madison Sandridge; Rufus, an office-boy, Robert Caldwell; Ernest Bradford, a book-keeper, Marton Compbell; A Collector of Souvenirs, Paul Cole; A Ticket Seller, Ford Schrock; A Train Caller, Houston Payne; A Subscription Book Agent, Tom Polter; A Solicitor of Insurance, Rex Long; A Delegate from the Union, Joseph Archer.

DALLAS REPRESENTATIVES LEFT WEDNESDAY

Midland is well represented at Dallas this week in the Annual Clothing Contest by Miss Imogene Simmons with her beautiful evening dress, Janell Edwards with her wash dress, and Ruth Long with her traveling or sport dress. We hope they win all the honor. They were accompanied by Mrs. Edwards, C. W. Edwards, Elma Collins, Dorothy Weinstein, and Mrs. Stockard. Cars were taken by Elma Collins and Mrs. Stockard. Their return is anxiously awaited.

A telegram from Mrs. Stockard arrived Thursday morning stating that they arrived safely and that the exhibit would be held Thursday evening and the contest on Friday morning.

AMERICAN LITERATURE STUDENTS STUDY CONTEMPORARY WRITERS

Books containing information about modern American authors and their works have been completed this week by members of the American Literature classes. Each pupil chose one contemporary author to study and collected material for a book on that author. The subject matter of these books has been taken from every available source, and consists chiefly of criticisms, biographies, and extracts from the writers' works.

Authors studied are Edwin Arlington Robinson, Robert Frost, Edgar Lee Masters, Carl Sandburg, Vachel Lindsay, John Gould Fletcher, Amy Lowell, Ezra Pound, Edna St. Vincent Millay, Sara Teasdale, Nathalia Crane, Margaret Widdemer, Stephen V. Benet, William Rose Benet, James Branch Cabell, Sherwood Anderson, Theodore Dreiser, Booth Tarkington, Sinclair Lewis, Hamlin Garland, Ambrose Bierce, John Erskine, Joseph Hergesheimer, H. L. Mencken, Willa Catharine, Edith Wharton, Ellnor Wylie Fannie Hurst, Edna Ferber, Zona Gale, Gertrude Atherton and Eugene O'Neill.

"THE ARRIVAL OF KITTY"

"The Arrival of Kitty" is being presented by the Epworth League at the high school auditorium tonight. This play has been presented in the United States 14,000 times.

The characters are: James Kilgough, Henry Padcock, H. D. Johnson, Clyde Gwyn, Ralph Hallman, Marion Wadley, Hazel Marie Graham, Alta Mae Johnson, and Mildred McClusky.

CATOICO IS COMPLETED

Welcome news received by the Annual Staff recently stated that all copies of "The Catoico," Midland High School yearbook, will be ready for distribution about May 12. This is a much earlier date than was expected by members of the staff, due to the fact that work on the book was started so late in the season. Work was begun about the first of February, and since then has progressed so rapidly that all copy was in about the middle of April.

As has been stated before, the book will be one of the most beautiful in this section of the state. A cover carrying a new and beautiful design, sectional drawings showing unusual ability, and page borders, will help to make the book a work of art.

Many of the subscriptions have been paid for, and it is hoped that all students who have pledged to buy a book will pay for their copies as soon as possible, so that there will be no delay in the issuing of the books.

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

A pleasant odor in the chemistry lab? Miss Kerl enjoying a sandstorm? Miss Cordill not able to drive Mr. Lackey's car? Lillian writing a poetic masterpiece? Ovel Ellen eating carrots for the sake of her beauty? "Percy" Southworth making a hit with everybody? Clarice a snake charmer? Ernest wearing "Percy's" golf knickers? Ida Beth laughing decently? Nez Casper was ill Monday and Tuesday.

HIGH SCHOOL GOLLY TREE I KNOW IT

Dear Diary: The poor Fishes and Juniors seem to be left without a holiday, but I'm sure they would rather not have one and get in a quarrel.

The Seniors and Sophs both had grand times on their days off, but it looks as though the Seniors are letting a superiority complex get the best of them. They missed it far when they sang "The Sophs Will Weep Tonight." Because I'm sure everyone had a grand time and if any had as good a time as I have heard Helen Margaret Ulmer did, they certainly enjoyed themselves.

The party the Sophs gave Tuesday night seemed to have turned out to be a quarrelling contest. It must be hard for Senior boys to go and get along with Sophomore girls when the classes are against each other.

Archie is wearing his ring again, or I believe it is the first time he has worn it. Maybe Janelle was afraid of losing it in Dallas. Martha Louise and Thomas Lee seem to have a crush. My, but Thomas Lee changes a lot. I wonder how Bush takes this one. I hope as a good sport.

Oh, I'll be so glad when I can sign my name after my diary! It won't be long off, either. I am in hopes I can leave town immediately afterwards, though, because I'm afraid I have made several enemies. Even though some don't realize it, I have brought them closer to "what was their S L's."

Annie Laurie has another S. L., or maybe it's the old one revived. Well, so have I!

A girl told me an experience she had the other night, and I believe it's the funniest one I have heard this year. I hope she won't be angry with me if I tell it. Well, she and her date and another couple were out riding. Everything seemed to be very quiet. About ten fifteen an alarm clock went off. It nearly scared the girls to death. I wonder why the boys had it? It might have been a hint for the girls to ask to be taken home, or it might have been that the boys only wanted to be reminded that they were to be home early. It's a good idea, though, and next time I'll just take one along with me and set it the time I want to go home, and then I'll get there on time.

I have been just holding my breath, and waiting for the group of girls who were playing Ring Around the Rosy to come to school and play dolls and jump the rope. It is bore-some to have to stand around at noon and not get to go riding.

Myrtle Turpin was on the absentee list Wednesday afternoon.

J. T. Godsey has been absent from school for several days on account of illness.

THEATRE COLUMN

The students who attend the picture shows will be interested to know that John Gilbert appears in Desert Nights at the Grand, Sunday. Emil Jannings appears in The Betrayal at the Ritz Sunday.

Bill is so absent minded that it is told that the other night he slammed his girl and kissed the door.

Mr. Hinds received a telegram today about "their little son George." Me claims that some one else in town has about the same name as his. What do you think about this?

Mr. Lackey: What are you doing back at school? I thought I expelled you last week.

C. W.: Yes, but don't ever do it again. My dad carried on something awful.

Archie (home from his first day of school): Mother, the teacher asked me a question today that no one in the room could answer but me.

Mrs. Estes (proudly): That's fine. What was it? Archie She asked what our telephone number was.

Mary Lou: Why are you running a steam roller over the field?

Farmer: I'm going to raise mashed potatoes this year.

Johnnie Helen: I can't find a single pin! Where do they all go to, anyway?

Mollie B.: It's hard to tell, because they're pointed in one direction and headed in another.

Motor Cop: Here, you, pull over! Chas. S.: Wha's matter?

M. C.: You were doing fine!

Chas.: Say, will you write that down and sign it so I can show it to my friends?

Helen Hodges has been absent from school for the last week on account of illness.

Mary Bell Pratt was absent from school Tuesday and Wednesday on account of illness.

Georgia Barber was unable to attend school Thursday.

Harry Dashill has withdrawn from school. He has moved to Abilene.

"Eyes of Texas" Dirge-Like, Say Varsity Coaches

AUSTIN, Texas, May 3 (UP)—Warm debate rages at the University of Texas over the "Eyes of Texas" official university chant.

Athletic coaches claim it has a bad effect on the University teams. Not the words, but the dirge like tune to which they are sung. Athletic teams need something snappy, Coach Fred Walker of the basketball team, said. Walker believes the customary playing just before an athletic contest "slows up" the men involuntarily, especially as it is the custom to drag out the final "till Gabriel blows his horn." Even the yells that follow cannot offset the effect, Walker said. Snappy tunes are being used on phonographs to speed the typing in the commercial school. Those who deplore "The Eyes of Texas" as an athletic number think the same effect would be had on athletics. But it will be a hard battle to supplant "The Eyes of Texas." The old grads believe it has inspired many a team in time of peril and steadied the men to better effort.
