GREGG COUNTY VOTE PROTESTED

BOARD TO HOLD LINT OFF SALE

Plan for Achieving Big Loan Is Proclaimed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—All remaining stores of stabilization wheat and cotton and approximately 2,000,000 additional bales of cotton controlled by cooperatives are to be held from the market until next year under an agreement announced last night by Chairman Stone of the farm board.

The definite plan was made public after a week of negotiations between the board and the reconstruction corporation following announcement that the corporation had allotted $50,000,000 as a loan to enable the cotton to be withheld.

Wheat Also Held

Chairman Stone returned from a boat trip on Chesapeake Bay with Jesse Jones and Harvey Couch, directors of the corporation, and made the announcement shortly thereafter in the names of the farm board affiliates affected.

The grain stabilization corporation's statement said it now holds less than 3,000,000 bushels of wheat.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6. (UP).—Cotton soared almost two dollars a bale following the announcement by the farm board that it would hold its cotton the remainder of the year and a report of rain damage to Texas cotton.

The market opened 32 to 51 points higher in New Orleans. Leading stocks advanced one to five points, reaching new highs for the year, but lost ground in the afternoon.

as compared with more than 250,000,000 bushels in July, 1931. This present store is not to be reduced by sales before next January, except such sales as may be made for shipment to foreign countries that otherwise would not be important buyers of United States wheat.

Regarding cotton, Stone's statement said:

"Of the 650,000 bales of cotton proposed to be marketed by the cotton stabilization corporation prior to July 31, 1933, more than 300,000 bales have been sold. The corporation will immediately withhold its remaining stocks from sale until March 1, 1933, with the exception of certain small amounts now on consignment in foreign countries, and such cotton as may be sold at 12 cents per pound or more based on the near month of the New York cotton exchange."

These steps are being taken and loans obtained so that the cotton growers will get the full benefit of the market for their crop of this year and for the purpose of enabling the corporation to gradually liquidate their holdings during periods when more active demand is anticipated."

EL PASO, Sept. 6. (UP).—Twenty-five hundred persons cheered Pascual Ortiz Rubio, resigned president of Mexico, upon the arrival of his special train at Duraz today. They shouted "Long live Ortiz Rubio."

He announced that he was going to San Diego to live with his family instead of Arkansas and reiterated that his resignation was because of his health and not differences with Calles. An exploratory train carrying an escort of fifty soldiers will precede the special of Rubio toward the Pacific coast this afternoon.

Readers Aiding News Gathering

Increased telephone calls were received by The Reporter-Telegram this morning, as Midland people answered to the request of the newspaper that more news be telephoned in.

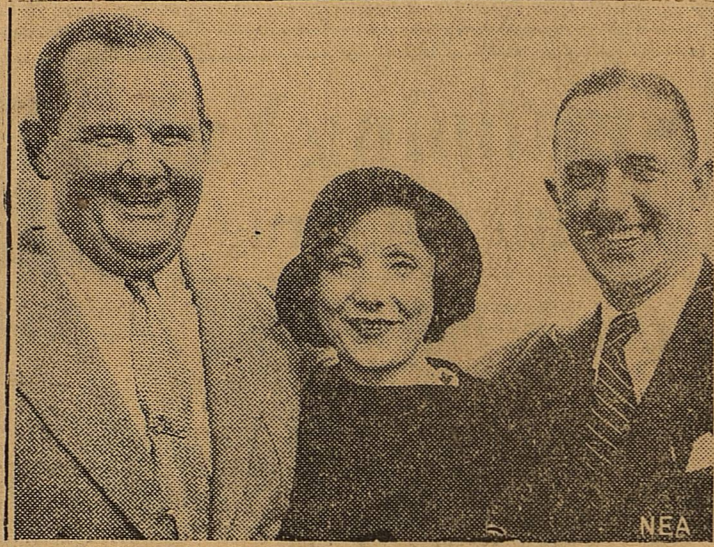

Persons, brief news stories, parties, announcements—all these were represented in the calls received.

The newspaper is making a drive to get all the local news that happens. Readers can help by calling Telephone No. 7. While calls can be received all day, society news can best be handled when received before 10 o'clock and persons before 11. Other news should be phoned in before 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

But the paper appreciates all calls, no matter what time they are made. If the news is too late for today's issue, the paper will be glad to use it tomorrow. You can help make a better newspaper.

JEAN HARLOW IN COLLAPSE AFTER DEATH OF MATE

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 6. (UP).—Jean Harlow was in collapse following the fatal shooting, apparently suicide, of Paul Bern, 42, producer, her husband of six weeks.

Police were investigating the case. Bern's nude body was found before the mirror of a second floor dressing room at their secluded home late yesterday, clutching a pistol. One shoe had been fired, resulting in a wound in Bern's temple. Another loaded pistol on a nearby table was not called to the attention of police until nearly three hours after the bullet found it.

DEATH NOTE MYSTERY TO BERN'S FRIEND

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Sept. 6.—A bullet through the head ended the life of Paul Bern, motion picture executive, and writer in the idyllic home he gave Jean Harlow, blonde actress, when they were married two months ago.

Police said it was an unquestionable case of suicide, but ordered an investigation.

Miss Harlow was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bello, Bern had failed to keep a dinner appointment at the Harlow home, informing his parents by telephone according to authorities, that he wished to be alone.

Vet Delegates Not Communicative on All of Inside Dope

Lee Haynes and George Underwood, Midland delegates to the national convention of Veterans of Foreign Wars returned late Sunday from Sacramento, California. They represented the Brooks W. Lynch post, of Midland.

Making the trip by automobile, the Midland men went out the southern or Arizona route and returned through Nevada and Colorado.

About 30,000 persons were in Sacramento for the convention, Haynes and Underwood said, about half the number being authorized voting delegates. Wright Patman and other prominent statesmen addressed the gathering concerning the likelihood of having the bonus bill passed at the next session of congress and said it was believed that lawmakers were seeing the proposal now in a different light.

Patman deplored the few disorders in connection with the occupation of bonuses in Washington but said that there was never a better behaved lot, considering the numbers, the hungry women and children and the general conditions under which the march was made.

Many humorous anecdotes were related by the returned delegates. They said that one of the most common cracks heard was when a delegate was asked: "Where are you from?"

Regardless of the name of his home town, even if one of the largest cities, a chorus would immediately yell: "Never heard of it."

Underwood, a local bachelor of note, commented upon the divorcee crop seen in Reno. Haynes refused to comment upon a report that he hired out as a gigolo in Reno.

The sights of Salt Lake City were recounted by the men as among the most interesting features of the trip. While in Sacramento they saw the fire in which thirteen barges and four boats were burned on the Sacramento river.

An abundant fruit crop, reasonably good employment conditions and a note of optimism among the residents of the west coast were reported.

NEW MONEY RACKET

SAN ANGELO.—A new racket in making money is the substance of a recent warning sent out by the Merchants Board of Trade here. Picked up and sold bills recently appeared in circulation are the basis for necessary caution.

The secret service is now investigating two men allegedly operating in Texas.

In perpetrating the fraud the men are reported to have joined two different notes, binding them together with a heavy strip of paper, giving one the appearance of having been torn, when as a matter of fact they are two different notes entirely. The idea is to make six notes out of five or five notes out of four, whichever the case may be.

5 INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED; NEGRO BILLED

Five indictments were returned by the district court grand jury when it reported today, two of them against Dorris Dixon, negro who fired a fatal shot into the body of a negro orchestra member a few weeks ago. The case is set for trial September 19.

The negro was indicted for the murder of Dewey Edwards and for assault with intent to murder growing out of an attempt on another negro.

No indictments in gambling and juvenile burglary were returned. District Judge Charles Spillier, who read the criminal docket this morning. This week is likely to see nothing but civil suits, most of them uncontested.

Partial Blindness Suffered by Sister

J. Homer Epley and wife returned last night from Abilene where he was called Saturday when his sister, Miss Ruth Epley, suffered a partial loss of eyesight. Specialists had not issued definite information as to the cause of the attack, but were hoping to be able to relieve the considerable controversy over treatment soon. Miss Epley, formerly a resident of Midland, was having resumed her position in the Abilene public schools this week.

Through Rate Plea Of S. W. Cattlemen

Restoration of the through rate on cattle shipments is being sought by the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers association, according to digest of an article in the September issue of the Cattleman mailed to W. W. Brunson of Midland, a director of the association, by E. B. Spiller, secretary.

Spiller urges all cattlemen to read this article in the Cattleman. His letter to Brunson follows:

"This is a matter in which we are in considerable controversy with the packers. Before the new tariff went into effect on January 25 last, the thru rate applied when the shipment of cattle was sold and forwarded on to destination beyond Ft. Worth and other markets. Through the influence of the packing interests, this was taken out of the tariff. The interstate commerce commission advised that the railroads are authorized to restore this privilege. Some of the railroads stated that they wanted to restore it, and took steps to do so. However, all of this has been opposed by the packers.

"The packers are now sending some of their representatives over the country to do some propaganda work for the purpose of trying to show shippers that this market privilege should not be restored. That is one of the reasons we are calling particular attention to the article and to this situation."

DALLAS, Sept. 6. (UP).—Hugh Bradford Jenkins, 9, who inherited a $200,000 trust fund last week from the late millionaire, Mayor Tom L. Bradford, was missing today following a visit from his father, Hugh Jenkins, or Louisville, Kentucky, divorced husband of the child's late mother. Attorneys for Bradford's widow, the child's step-grandmother, hired private detectives, saw the police and visited the grand jury.

LABOR DAY TOLL OVER NATION IS UNUSUALLY HIGH

(By United Press) Two hundred deaths were reported in national Labor day celebrations. Six were killed in airplane mishaps and most of the remainder were caused by automobile accidents and drownings.

Automobile accidents and drownings combined to mar the annual tribute to labor. Two hundred were killed in auto collisions and dozens were injured.

Highway officials expected the toll to be increased greatly by heavy traffic to a hospital of a tractor-trailer with cars near the metropolitan centers and accidents and collisions were numerous.

Automobile races accounted for six life in Massachusetts. The water ranked second to automobiles as a contributing factor to the fatality list, a dozen or more drownings being reported. At New York a fishing launch overturned, throwing its six occupants into the water. Four were rescued, one drifted ashore on the overturned boat, but the sixth, Capt. Emil Steffens, was drowned.

Flyer Known to Midland Is Dead

CLEVELAND, Sept. 6.—Al Wilson, Hollywood, Calif., stunt aviator, died today at a hospital of a fractured skull suffered Saturday in an accident of the national air races.

He was piloting a 1910 "pusher" plane in a dramatic appearance of tricks when it collided with the rotors of an autogyro flown by John Miller of Poughkeepsie, N. Y. The autogyro pilot was uninjured.

Wilson landed his famous pusher plane at Sloan field last year and made a dramatic appearance at the Ritz. His most hazardous flying was in the Hughes production, "Hell's Angels." He flew with the Canadian air service during the war.

Took Three Years but U. S. Paid Him Real Check

WASHINGTON.—The wheels of government sometimes grind slow. Alonzo L. Keefer has discovered. And fine, too fine, to suit him.

Keefer had been a watchman at the War Trade Board, under the Office of Public Buildings and Parks, for about three years. He resigned. The Government paid him off.

Then, on May 18, 1928, Keefer received a letter saying he had a refund coming from the Retirement Fund, into which all Federal employees are required to pay. Enclosed was an application of some several closely-typed pages.

Keefer spent a whole evening filling in the question spaces with the assistance of some of his friends. Next day he closed his Washington carpenter shop and called on the department, using the street car each way, at ten cents a throw.

But some trouble developed about his "claim." There was correspondence to and from, covering a period of years. Also several telephone calls, on the part of Keefer, from a convenient pay station.

Finally, the big day arrived. Keefer was notified that his "claim" had been approved. He had "broad-chested" been approved. On the strength of this, the old gentleman, slightly pinched for funds, made a loan of $3 from a neighboring locksmith.

"I'll pay you when I get my check from the Government," he said reassuringly. "I'll be here any day now."

It came, dated Aug. 23, 1932. "TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA," read the bold type on the green slip to Mr. Keefer's fading eyes. Now for the pay-off!

Stencilled carefully, in smaller type, was the next line:

RIO GRANDE WATER IS 4 MILES WIDE

East Coast Warning Of Storms Is Issued

BROWNSVILLE, Sept. 6. (UP).—The Rio Grande flood was four miles wide today, with its crest some distance above Mission where it was due early tonight. The crest passed Rio Grande City last night, the water dropping 24.3 feet from 8 o'clock to 32.8 at 7 o'clock this morning.

Today the government river bulletin said that a third more water was coming than in 1922, the record flood.

Lowlands on both sides of the River Donna flooded levees. Both sides were broken and in many places sand bags are now piled against the Brownsville and Fort Brown levees.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6. (UP).—Storm warnings from Wilmington to Cape Hatteras, for a Bermuda hurricane, were issued today by the government weather bureau.

GREAT SECTION OF COUNTRY IS SOAKED

Dick Winton of El Paso said he had come from Denver, through El Paso and thence to Midland, and that he had encountered bad weather most of the way.

Travellers from the east say rain has been falling during the past week most of the way to the Mississippi basin.

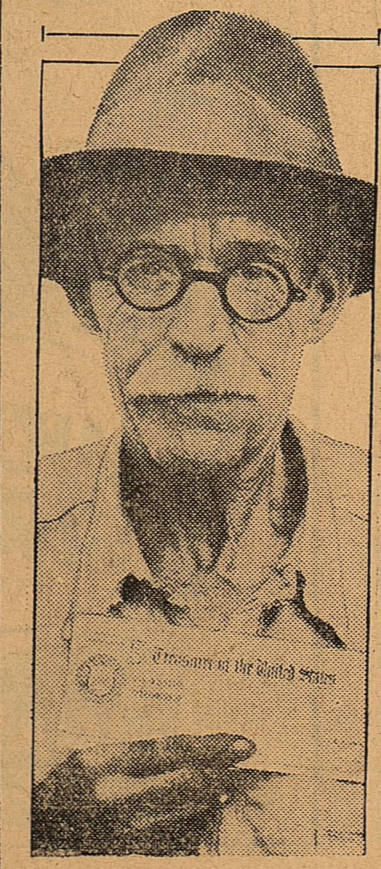

HOLIDAYS FOR BUSINESS MEN MAY BE POSTED

Determination of holidays to be observed in Midland by business men for the entire year will be discussed Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 when the retail committee of the chamber of commerce meets at the organization's office. Every committee member and every man in Midland in any kind of retail business is urged by Chairman George D. McCormick to attend the 30-minute session.

Business men are thinking of setting five holidays a year in advance, which all business houses will be requested to observe, thereby making closing fair for all, and allowing employees these days for rest and recreation.

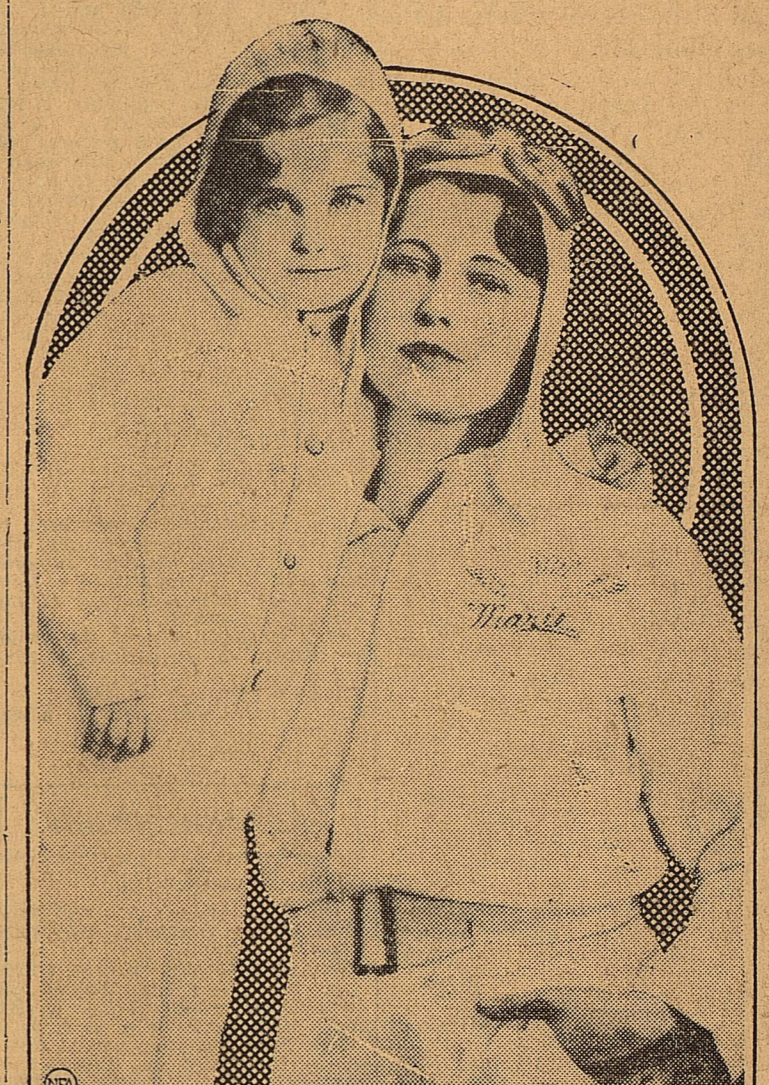

WEBB'S CAR SMASHED

An automobile belonging to Reed Webb, Edger county sheriff, was towed to Midland by a wrecker this week. The car was smashed on the right side, as though it had been in a bad wreck. It was not known this afternoon whether Webb had been injured.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAKING CATTLE LOANS FROM RFC BANK SET FORTH IN LETTER TO MIDLAND DIRECTOR

Data on how cattlemen may apply for federal loans from the Reconstruction Finance corporation's agricultural loan bank is contained in the following article prepared by the banking and industrial committee of the Eleventh Federal Reserve bank for the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers association, and mailed by Secretary E. B. Spiller to W. W. Brunson of Midland and other association directors.

"Our committee desires to ascertain the extent, if any, to which business and industry in the Eleventh federal reserve district may be in need of the credit facilities set up by the recent act of congress which gave federal reserve banks authority, under certain conditions and restrictions, to make direct loans to individuals, partnerships and corporations. In order to make an effective investigation as to the needs for these loans in this section of the country, our committee needs the assistance of the various trade associations in this district, and accordingly I am writing to solicit your cooperation.

"Under the act referred to above, the federal reserve bank of our district is authorized to make short-term loans directly to individuals, partnerships and corporations, subject to certain conditions which are quoted in part as follows:

"1. The obligation offered as the basis for the loan must be of the type reserve would be eligible and acceptable for rediscount with Federal Reserve banks if offered by a member bank; that is, if it is the obligation of a merchant or manufacturing concern it must represent a loan made for the purpose of financing some step in the process of the production or distribution of commodities, and it must have a maturity not greater than 90 days at the time it is offered for discount.

"2. It must be endorsed by an endorser, or endorsers, whose financial responsibility is satisfactory to the Federal Reserve bank.

"3. It must be fully secured by acceptable collateral.

"4. It must be accompanied by a statement on the part of the applicant as to his inability to secure the loan from his local bank or from other banks to which he ordinarily has access, and the reasons therefor.

"5. It must represent a loan for the purpose of financing the temporary or seasonal needs of the applicant, and not for the purpose of supplying capital deficiencies or carrying investments in real estate and other fixed assets.

"Primarily, this new credit facility was created to accommodate the normal seasonal borrowing needs of such merchants, manufacturers and agricultural or livestock producers as may be unable to obtain from their local or other banks the credit accommodations to which they are entitled but which such banks are unable or unwilling to grant.

"If there are any such cases in this district our committee desires to ascertain the extent to which they exist, and for that purpose your association substantially in the form outlined in the sample questionnaire which I am enclosing herein. It is requested that you give

Charge Causes Mexia Man to Face a Jury Probe

AUSTIN, Sept. 6. (UP).—Alleged illegal Gregg county primary voting was the subject of debate in the senate today upon receipt of a telegram from Sam McCorkle of Mexia to Walter Woodul of Houston saying that excess votes over Gregg county poll taxes were caused by tramps on freights voting.

Senators Thomas Pollard and Margie Neal denied the statement and urged that McCorkle be brought before the grand jury, wiring District Attorney John Taylor of Longview.

The house continued to work on the combination bill to relieve counties taxes for payment of road bonds.

MIDLAND FAILS TO OBTAIN NEXT SHERIFFS' MEET

Arthur G. Jury, manager of Hotel Schafbauer, addressed the West Texas Sheriffs' association in session at Big Spring Tuesday inviting the next meeting at Midland. Due to personal solicitation made by the sheriff from Seymour during the two day meeting, the officers voted to go to Seymour.

They were so well impressed with Midland, however, that they cheered when Jury told them Midland still wanted them and would continue to have its hat in the ring for the next meeting at Midland. The sheriff from Seymour, a member of the West Texas group, the talk made by Jury was augmented by an invitation from the secretary of the Midland chamber of commerce.

W. B. SIMPSON'S MOTHER DIES OF PARALYSIS

W. B. Simpson, Midland grocer, was called to Sweetwater this morning upon receipt of news that his mother, Mrs. J. K. Simpson, 76, had died suddenly at four o'clock today from a stroke.

T. S. Patterson of Midland, brother of Mrs. J. K. Simpson, was unable to go on account of his serious illness. Mrs. W. B. Simpson planned to leave later today.

Funeral services were scheduled for Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock. All members of the immediate family were in Sweetwater today.

Sheriff Proves He Is a Good Farmer

Sheriff Audey C. Francis of Midland county is cutting four tons of maize per acre on one field of his farm south of Midland. The maize grows on sub-irrigated land. Farmers say the sheriff will harvest 60 bushels of corn and two bales of cotton per acre on the land. Water rises to within four feet of the surface and good wells may be had by digging a 14-foot hole.

Experts Study Motherhood

LONDON, (UP).—Great Britain's heavy toll of motherhood could be reduced by one-half at least.

This revelation is made in the final report of their investigations into maternity mortality by 13 famous specialists and doctors, headed by Sir George Newman, chief medical officer of the Ministry of Health.

Their report tells the tragic tale of the needless sacrifice that the mothers still are making despite the enormous strides in medical science. Maternity mortality in 1931, although lower than the previous year, was higher than it was 20 years ago. In 1911 the death rate among mothers was 3.8. Last year it was 4.1.

The committee makes the following suggestions: The wearing of masks with rubber gloves by midwives and doctors to prevent infection.

Better instruction for midwives in ante-natal care and nursing methods. There is a great need for "refresher" courses. Special provision should be made in maternity hospitals for emergency cases which may be a source of danger.

Besides the general instruction of the adult population much might be done to prepare the girl for marriage and motherhood by suitable teaching during school life and adolescence.

HARDWARE-ALL STAR SERIES OF SPONGEBALL LEAGUE ON TONIGHT

BEST TEN MEN AVAILABLE IN THE NOCTURNE CLUSTERED TO PLAY THE SENSATIONAL WINNERS OF SEASON

By HERB ROUNTREE

The beginning of the end of Nocturne play this season will be initiated at 7:30 this evening, when the Midland Hardware, easy winners of both halves of the sockball loop, engages an all-star club selected after 20 men tried out for positions in a stiff workout last night. Others games will be Thursday and Friday evenings.

A ten-cent admission charge will be clapped on for each game. The league moguls explain the equipment contracts at the beginning of the season has not been completely paid for, and they cite the likelihood of the public's desire to help pay for this, especially as games have been free all season. The public was asked in a statement to give all the financial help possible—but only through attendance at each game of the playoff.

The probable lineup for the all-stars was announced today as: Woods, Hokus Pokus, second base; Stevens, Bell Telephone, third base; Woody, Petroleum Drug, right field; Brunson, United Dry Goods, short stop; E. B. Estes, Texas Electric, first base; D. Howland, United, center field; R. Parrott, Hokus Pokus, left field; Burris, Texas Electric, utility field; A. Estes, Texas Electric, catcher; Gemmill, Reporter-Telegram, pitcher. Umpires were announced as Kinikin and Hiett.

Leading hitters and home run hitters for last week were announced today, and each of the following receive a free pass to the Yucca theatre by applying to the official scorer this evening: Ratliff, Lewis, Branch, Pyron, Price, E. B. Estes, R. Parrott, E. Conner, Vic Smith, Smith, Wally Heath, H. L. Smith, Fred Girdley and C. C. Day.

QUICK CLOSING SHOWS BENEFIT IN A LONG RUN

The adage that there is a silver lining in every cloud is strikingly demonstrated in the case of Wynne Gibson, who plays the most vigorously dramatic role of her career in Paramount's "The Strange Case of Clara Deane" at the Yucca today and Wednesday.

She began her theatrical life in a succession of "flop" shows, and became a close friend of the sheriff who was sent to close them. In fact, she opened and closed in so many shows in Boston without ever reaching New York that she used to regard herself as a "stranded citizen" of that town.

Although the long series of unsuccessful plays did not bring her work to the attention of the public, she had excellent roles which gave her invaluable training.

BULLETIN 305 GIVES MIDLAND SCHOOL CREDIT

The Texas high school bulletin 305, an official directory of all classified and accredited high schools in Texas, has just been received by school authorities here. This bulletin was published by the state department of education July, 1932, and shows Midland high as a member of the southern association of colleges and high schools, and as accredited with 38 units of affiliation as follows:

English 4 units, Ancient History 1 unit, Modern history 1 unit, English history 1 unit, American history 1 unit, Civics 1 unit, Economics 1-2 unit, Algebra 2 units, Plane geometry 1 unit, Solid geometry 1-2 unit, Plane trigonometry 1-2 unit, Latin 4 units, Spanish 4 units, General science 1 unit, Physiography 1-2 unit, Physiology and Hygiene 1-2 unit, Biology 1 unit, Chemistry 1 unit, Physics 1 unit, Home economics 3 units, Home nursing 1-2 unit, Book-keeping 1 unit, Short-hand 1 unit, Commercial geography 1-2 unit, Commercial arithmetic 1-2 unit, Commercial law 1-2 unit, Typing 1-2 unit, Public speaking 1 unit, Music 3 units. Total 38 units.

It is rather noteworthy that of the 961 accredited high schools in Texas, only 15 including Midland high school, have the fourth unit in Spanish. Other high schools in this group include Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, El Paso, Lubbock, Brownsville, and Corpus Christi.

Drane Official Is New City Resident

F. M. Drane, president of the Drane Tank company, decided Monday to become a permanent resident of Midland. He has been here about two months experimenting with various Permian basin towns to determine the most advantageous place of residence. He told a chamber of commerce representative Monday he had positively decided on Midland and the commercial organization is assisting him in finding a house this week.

Wink to Enjoy Midland Canning

Mrs. A. W. Hickey of Wink was in Midland Tuesday to get Midland farmers to can vegetables for oil families and others at Wink. She conferred with the Midland chamber of commerce and that organization guaranteed to find farmers to do the canning for as many people as Drane at Wink as wish to get vegetables.

So far this year, Midland farmers have filled cans for families in Midland, Big Spring, Crane City and Wink through information supplied by the Midland chamber. Farmers at Midland receive a bonus for their work.

GOAT RUINS MIRROR

A young Billy goat belonging to J. J. Holiday of Crane evidently did not like the looks of his own reflection. One day last week, Holiday, who runs a barber shop in Crane City, noticed his goat strolling in the door.

The goat espied himself in one of the large mirrors and made a high jump, butting into the center of the large mirror, smashing it to bits. . . not harming the hard head.

BABY GIRL BORN

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Brunson are the parents of a new baby girl, born Sunday night. The mother and child are resting well at their home on West Kansas, it was reported today.

Jean Harlow--

Irving Thalberg, production executive of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, who was called to the home in Benedict canyon by a butler who found the body, denied there had been a disagreement between him and Miss Harlow and authorities said they were making little progress in discovering the cause.

Their puzzlement was increased, they declared, by a note in Bern's handwriting addressed to Miss Harlow reading:

"Dearest: Dear: Unfortunately this is the only way to make good the frightful wrong I have done you, and to wipe out my abject humiliation. I love you. Paul."

A postscript read:

"You understand last night was only a comedy."

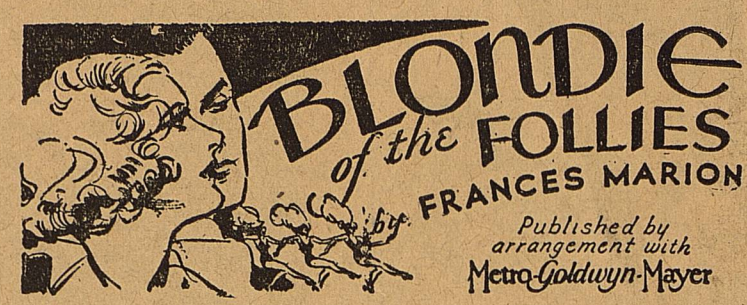

Miss Harlow, the original "Platinum Blonde" of the screen, was reported hysterical, under the care of a physician and unable to advance an explanation.

Bern's butler and cook, John and Winifred Carmichael, who had accompanied Miss Harlow to her parents' home to prepare the dinner, returned to the Benedict canyon honeymoon house shortly before noon.

Cotton--

300,000 bales of cotton had been accomplished on a rising market. At the beginning of this fiscal year the cotton stabilization corporation held 1,300,000 bales, but 500,000 were appropriated by congress for relief of distress. Congress also took 35,000,000 bushels of stabilization wheat for the needy.

CHAPTER XVII

Before Blondie could answer her father, Larry said quickly: "With me, I'm afraid. . . Now you know who are you?" said Larry to him.

"My name happens to be Larry Belmont. . . now there's nothing to be alarmed about. . . she's been in very good luck. . . uh. . . she's been well looked after. . . and Larry laughed understandingly at the father. "It's only because. . ."

"You're intoxicated. . ." Pa was glaring fiercely. "And you're. . ." said Larry violently. Then shrugging his shoulders he said quietly, "Oh, well."

"Please, Pa!" said Blondie, suddenly realizing this was going too far. "What's the matter with you?" "Goodbye, Blondie. I'm very sorry," and Larry started down the stairs.

"Larry!" Blondie called, and he stopped suddenly. "don't be cross. . ." Here, "said her father, quickly taking hold of her arm, "come in here. . ." and he pulled her roughly. "Don't do that. . ." commanded Larry. Pa turned on him again.

"Get out!" he ordered. Blondie shook herself free, and suddenly caught Larry around the neck as he stood at the top of the stairs. "I'm going to call you up," she said seriously, as she looked deep into his eyes.

"Do," said Larry affectionately. . . and explain to all of them how good we've been. . . Then giving her a little intimate pat on the cheek, "God bless. . . good night." He turned suddenly and ran down the stairs.

Blondie watched him longingly as he went through the door and out of sight to the street. Then she turned and slowly walked past her father and into the flat. Her father followed her closely into the living room. As Blondie started for her own room, he said:

"Come here. I want to talk to you." "Not now. I've heard enough. I'm going to bed." "Bed? You're due at the store in three hours!" Blondie turned on him suddenly.

"The store? Don't be silly. . . no more store. . . I'm in the Follies. . . I've seen Mr. Ziggle." "You're in the Follies?" Pa echoed incredulously. Then, seeing the look of triumph on her face, "Is that where you've been?" "Yes, back of the stage. . . the dressing rooms. . . a speakeasy. . . and that Lurline. . . Say, is that a palace she lives in. . . Oh, Pa, listen. . . and Blondie took off her hat and coat. . . "Look at that," as she held up the hat. . . and get this for piece," proudly displaying the coat. She laid them carefully down on the box couch. "Let me tell you about Lurline—you wouldn't have believed it—"

"Wild-eyed, Blondie watched her father step to the couch, and pick up the hat and coat. "Here, Pa, what are you doing?" Blondie cried.

"With wild swing Pa contemptuously threw them down the room. They landed in a heap in the corner. Blondie dashed after them. Her father was trying desperately to keep some semblance of self-control.

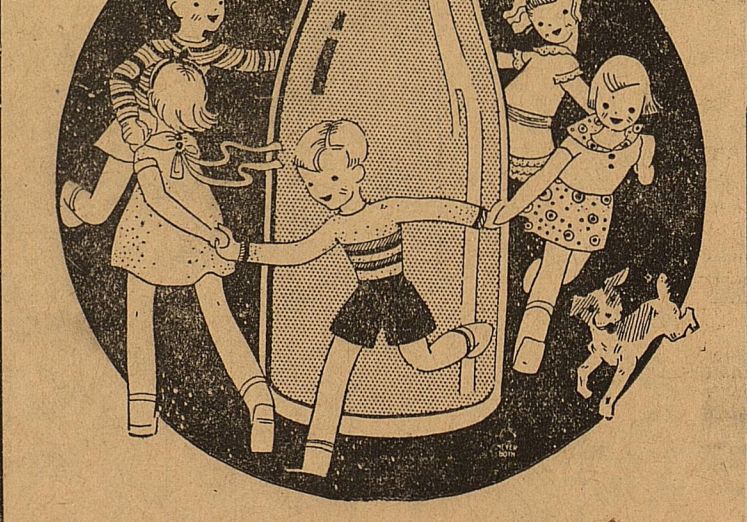

Quail Repeats on Big Spring Course

BIG SPRING, Sept. 6.—Charlie Quails of Post Monday won the Big Spring country club invitation golf tournament for the second consecutive year. He defeated Bob Scott of Colorado 1 up in the 18-hole final, played in a rain.

Scott was 2 up at the end of the first nine, fell behind, then evened the match on the thirteenth. Quails regained the lead on the seventeenth.

HI SCHOOL GRID SQUADS PUNTING BALL WITH GUSTO

By VERNON A. MCGEE United Press Staff Correspondent

FORT WORTH, (UP).—Footballers were booted about on 90 high school gridirons in Texas today as squads of school-boy athletes began training for the annual Texas Interscholastic League contest.

Coaches have 30 days to fashion raw-boned athletes into gridiron machines. First games of the season will be played Sept. 30. A new league rule, forbidding practice games before the last week in September and limiting the season to two months, went into effect for 1932 play.

The Class A circuit of the league is larger by two teams this year. Weatherford high school and Masonic Home, Class B titans of 1931, have been admitted to district seven. Entry of Masonic Home endangers chances of Central High, Fort Worth, to repeat as district champion.

Abilene high school 1931 champion of the interscholastic league, will open its titular campaign with six veterans. Among them are Stanley Smith and Glynn Wyatt, center and quarterback on last year's mythical all-star eleven.

Other veterans are Lennon Blackman, halfback, Verl Hughes and Pug Cox, guards, and Pete Barber, a tackle. Despite this advantage, Breckenridge promises strong competition before a champion goes out of the oil belt looking for new gridirons to conquer.

Down in Waco one man, who is not even a player, promises to change football fates. Paul Tyson, one of the best-loved and foremost school-boy coaches in Texas, again has the high school gridirons under his tutelage. Wharton, Fort Worth, powerful line but uncertain backfield, will do about it is a secret of the season's schedule.

Beaumont lost its principal stars and half the line at the end of the 1931 melee and may fall to Tom Dennis' Port Arthur squad, thus becoming one of the seven or eight 1932 outsiders.

Orange of San Antonio threatens a similar fate for Austin High, Vernon and Wichita Falls are obstacles in Quanah's path. Oak Cliff in the Dallas district will be a tough nut to crack on the other side of the Trinity river.

Corpus Christi, John Reagan at Houston, Harlingen, Tyler, Greenville, Sherman, San Angelo, Amarillo and El Paso are among pre-season favorites to take their respective district titles.

Crude Production Increase Reported

TULSA, Sept. 6, (UP).—Crude production increased 3,577 barrels to a total daily average of 2,103,504 last week, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

East Texas dropped from 331,885 barrels to 327,716, from 89,843 to 98,317, Louisiana from 127,625 to 125,936 and Joiner from 104,417 to 103,463; but increases over Texas fields and California offset the total. Texas production decreased from 865,122 to 862,753 barrels daily.

INDIANS FACE PROSPECT OF A MEXICAN SERIES

The horsehide wallpapers of Doc Ellis have played the Midland Mexicans so many games this season they have attracted the attention in the mother country of the Sons of Montezuma—a man offer to play a series of games at Monterey has been made through the Mexican city's chamber of commerce.

Negotiations have been reopened with the Mexicans by Skipper Ellis after a lapse of several days devoted to an ill-fated attempt to arrange a series with Texon, which with the Mose Simms Oilers of Abilene is one of the strongest clubs in West Texas.

The Monterey chamber is to let me know the middle of this month whether we shall play in Mexico the latter part," Ellis said. He added he would take about 10 men if the series is arranged.

Ellis will have his men turn in their suits after about two weeks in case the invasion of Mexico falls through.
