Sam Insull, Power Magnate, Ordered to Leave Greece

JAN. 31 DATE
SPECIFIED BY GREECE COURTS

U. S. Authorities in Hopes Insull May Face Trial

ATHENS, Dec. 15. (UP)—Samuel Insull, 74, former American utilities magnate, was ordered today to leave Greece by January 31.

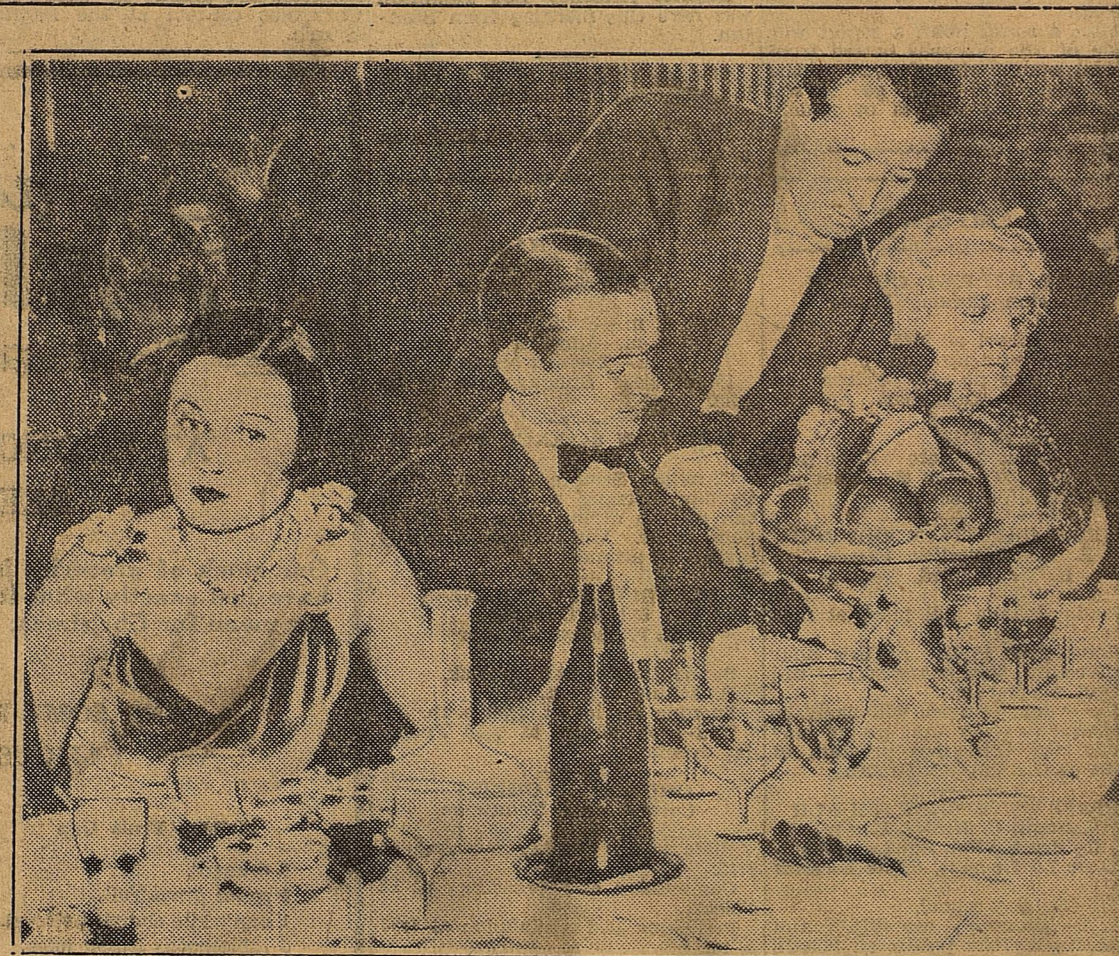

Ill in health, he was summoned before John Rallis, minister of the interior, where he was informed that he was an undesirable alien.

Insull was asked to leave as soon as possible and was told that he would not be permitted to remain after expiration of his residence permit December 31, but later was granted a month's grace upon request.

The former utilities head is wanted in the United States on charges of violation of the bankruptcy laws in connection with the collapse of his utilities empire.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15. (UP)—State department officials were confident today that Greece's request that Insull leave would result in his return here to face fraud charges. His passport was cancelled and a new one is obtainable only for direct travel to the United States, it was explained.

Contracts Made For Pasture Land

SAN ANGELO.—The first blue-stem pasture contracts for grazing steers in the Osage region of Oklahoma have already been made at prices about 21 above last spring.

G. R. White of Brady has contracted for the moving of some aged steers at $5 a season, beginning in April, while several other pasture contracts have been made. Yearling steers will go at prices of $3.50 to $4 a season, according to Oklahoma men here yesterday. White has moved 3,000 calves in recent days from Fort Stockton, Andrews county, and Brady to the Pawhuska, Okla., country. About 150,000 head of cattle are being wintered on cake, roughness and old grass in the Osage region of Oklahoma. Few are being wintered in Kansas.

NEW PRODUCER BEST IN POOL

Initial flowing production of 326 barrels in 24 hours from Fred Turner, Jr. No. B-1 Addis, the Harrison-Addis pool's sixth producer and three-quarters of a mile southeast extension, gives it rank as the second largest flush well in the field.

The approximate rate, 13 1/2 barrels per hour, was maintained almost uniform throughout the first 24-hour period. The well was shot with 200 quarts from 3,850 to 3,930 feet. It was plugged back from 4,073 to 3,924 feet.

Stanolind Oil and Gas company No. 2 Elliott F. Cowden, in the northeast corner of section 26, block 43, township 2 south, T. & P. railway survey, produced 354 barrels in 24 hours after shooting with nitro and treatment with acid.

Turner No. B-1 Addis is in the southeast corner of section 35, block 43, township 2 south, T. & P. railway survey.

Shooting with nitro developed another flowing producer Thursday in the Permian basin. The other well was Gulf Production company and Cranfill Brothers No. 1 Tubbs in West Central Crane county, which flowed 85 barrels the first 12 hours after a shot with 100 quarts from 4,288 to 4,342 feet. The hole, originally drilled below 5,000 feet two years ago and recently plugged back for work over, was redrilled from around 4,000 feet to the present steel line measured depth of 4,342 feet.

Gulf and Cranfill Brothers No. 1 Tubbs is in section 8, block B-27, public school land.

The well was reached between now and January on whether to make an Ordovician test in Loffland Brothers No. 1 Tubbs in section 9, block B-27, public school land, which is now shut down at 4,500 feet. Loffland Brothers' test failed to obtain showing worth testing in the horizon at 4,300 feet, from which the Gulf and Cranfill Brothers' well produced.

Further details of the recent sale by Elliott F. Cowden, Midland land owner, of lease on two 320-acre tracts in the Harper pool in Ector county reveal that Superior Oil company paid on the basis of $375 per acre for the north half of section 30, block 43, township 2 south, T. & P. railway survey, according to Stanley Norman, oil writer. Superior paid $60,000 in cash and $50,000 in oil for the north half of section 30, which is a half mile northeast of the Broderick & Calvert et al. No. 1 Cowden discovery well, 440 feet from the center of the south line of section 25, block 44, township 1 south.

Cowden received $40,000 in cash and $40,000 in oil, or at the rate of $250 per acre, for the west half of section 42, block 43, township 2 south, T. & P. railway survey, a mile southeast of the Broderick & Calvert et al. discovery well.

Get Along Little Dogie—All's Over

SAN ANGELO.—The branding iron, used for decades in placing identification marks on livestock that roamed the grazing lands of the "old west" is passing.

New fluids invented by chemists may replace it. Today there are several such chemicals on the market. It is claimed the new methods of branding are painless, do not damage the hide, that those handling the "little dogies" do not have to do as much wrestling and that it is altogether more successful than the old way.

Thus, the chemist with a paint brush may soon replace the old-time cowboy with his leather chaps, following calves and odor of burning hair and cow hide.

23-Point Buck Dropped by Boy

Every boy born into the J. Eugene Cowden family of Kerrville, and there are five, apparently is destined to become a "Dead-Eye Dick."

Harry, 11, Monday evening stalked into his parents' home and calmly asked for the family automobile, saying he had shot a buck too large to carry. The family investigated and found the buck had 23 points, the greatest shot in the Kerrville section this year and one of the greatest in several seasons.

Harry had sat down in a thick coat to wait for a buck. One shot broke the deer's neck. A radio announcement said a prize will be given the lad by Kerrville merchants.

Charles Edwards of Midland, the boy said: "I'm saving the biggest buck for you."

Two years ago, Jerry, then 10, killed a 12-point buck.

BOBCATS READY FOR HARVESTERS

LUBBOCK, Dec. 15.—Quarterfinal football stirred the air in spite of a West Texas wind here Thursday afternoon as Harry Taylor and his San Angelo Bobcats arrived for the Saturday contest with the Pampa Harvesters.

The game, at 2 p. m., Saturday on Texas Tech gridiron, is the main topic around town.

Pete Cawthon, Tech coach, and a group of fans took the Bobcats to the field, where a closed gate workout was held.

Injuries received in the Bowie bidistrict struggle had about healed, with the exception of a cut lip sustained by Big Pete Castello, star center.

A large bandage and plenty of iodine showed on the upper lip, but by Saturday he and the rest of the Bobcat machine, including the bruised Curley Hays, full, and Herb Reid, quarter, will be in shape.

Pampa will arrive Friday and will make headquarters at the Lubbock hotel. They will be met and extended the same hospitality afforded the Bobcats.

Two special trains will come in about noon Saturday from Pampa and San Angelo, and a chamber of commerce hospitality committee, headed by Dude Buster, is making plans to transport every fan to and from the Tech field.

Two hundred football fans, coaches, members of the Libbock and San Angelo high school teams and the Texas Tech Matadors participated in a gridiron banquet here Thursday night.

Everybody joined in giving a big hand to Harry Taylor and his San Angelo Bobcats.

Fire Destroys Midland Home

When Mrs. L. H. Pittman went back to her dishes after going for a moment into an adjoining room to see about her baby she found the kitchen afire, and the home, 305 E. Mulberry Lane, was destroyed Thursday evening despite efforts of the fire department to extinguish the blaze.

When the department arrived, the north side of the residence was burning fast and the roof had caught. Paint stored in the attic of the house fed the flames, it was explained by firemen.

All household furnishings were lost.

The plant still is in bloom.

Christmas Divorce Asked by Mexican

Marking the oddest request for a Christmas present, a Mexican asked a county official to give the woman he wants to marry an immediate divorce.

He explained that his wife had died a year ago, that the judge's taken a fancy to has not been supported by her husband for three years, that both he and the woman have children who need the advance of both—a woman and a man in the family—and that he can't see why somebody can't tell him it's all right to go ahead and live with the woman until a divorce can be arranged.

He was back a few hours later with a story of another man living with the woman, and his beard bristled as he said he couldn't get the other caballero to move out. In fact, he said the other fellow told him to "vamos"—that he couldn't marry the woman, or that she couldn't leave her own house. No, they were never married.

He was told to think it over when he wanted to marry her in the light of new revelations, but was quite certain these made no difference. With Navidad and Nochebuena, Christmas eve and Christmas, approaching, he believed he ought to give him an armful of escort drive out the Mexican equivalent for chiseler and let the would-be bridegroom live there instead.

It is not unusual for the poorer classes to ask for "bawbag" rates" on court proceedings, officials said. They seem to be unaware that the law specifies fees that must be charged, that an accounting must be made to proper higher authorities.

Beef Canning an Employment Outlet

HOUSTON (UP)—Canning 130 South Texas beef has started in the civil works administration's plant, providing work for nearly 600 women and 100 men.

The plant, one of 16 to be operated in the state, draws its beef from 20 counties surrounding Harris county. County agents made a survey of available cattle and issued certificates to owners whose stock would be accepted at the plant.

Cattle are bought direct from the raiser and only those with certificates may sell to the plant. The price paid on the Fort Worth daily quotation, with provision for a minimum of $1.75 per hundred pounds.

Benefits for both the livestock owners and the people employed at the plant is the object of the program, federal representatives explained.

Two shifts work during the day and one at night. Each employee will work three days on a wage scale ranging from 10 cents to $1 an hour for unskilled and skilled laborers.

Three of the shifts are for white workers, two for negroes and one for Mexicans.

Wives of many men physically unable to work are given preference in hiring people at the plant.

Health is half of success

Few men achieve their goal without vitality and drive. And so many are held back from their best by a common ailment: constipation. It dulls energy, often causes headaches, sleeplessness. It takes the vim out of your day's work.

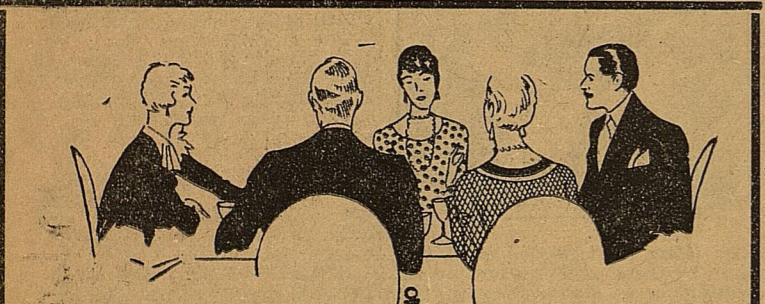

Correct constipation by eating a delicious cereal. Laboratory tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Within the body, it becomes a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. How much better than using pills and drugs—so often harmful.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will correct most types of constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

ALL-BRAN also has iron for the blood. At all grocers. In the red and green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Beauty Entirely Unnecessary For Success on Stage, Screen

HOLLYWOOD. (U.P.)—Beauty is entirely unnecessary for success on the stage or screen, avers Pert Kelton.

"The girl who gives up because friends say she is not pretty enough makes a tragic mistake," are Pert's encouraging words for girls who are ambitious to crash the movies but are afraid to try.

"Katherine Hepburn is a remarkable example," she said. "Katherine admits her lack of beauty. I could name a score of others who gained fame as beauties behind the footlights, whose features were not at all fair when seen in the light of day."

"The real secret of getting into the movies, therefore, is not beauty. It is wisdom and personality. Girls should not shrink back because they lack beauty. Even an expert photographer cannot tell just how one is going to screen."

not beautiful to the eye. There is but one conclusive test, and that is a screen test. No one should give up until such a test shows that they are not fit for the movies.

"Always remember that some of the most beautiful women who today are soaring through the cinematic heavens are not gloriously beautiful off the screen."

form for the entire hog and claims exemption for the portion consumed at home.
A restaurant or hotel that slaughters its own hogs and feeds the pork to boarders must pay the processing tax.
The tax is 50 cents per hundred pounds until November 30, when it becomes $1 per hundred during December, and $1.50 per hundred during January.

Bell county farmers netted almost one and one-half million dollars more for their cotton crop this year than in 1932, it is revealed in figures compiled by George P. McCarthy, county agent. The 1932 net return to producers was $906,200. This year the producer will net about $2,366,592 including cotton sales, cotton plow-up money and estimated net return of 4 cents per pound on optional cotton, and payments made to committees for campaign work.

New Charlie Chan Picture Is Called Best of a Series

Warner Oland is Charlie Chan, and Charlie Chan is Warner Oland. The famous characterization by this equally famous actor has achieved so staunch a following that the names have become synonymous. His latest is in "Charlie Chan's Greatest Case," the new Fox production that opened today at the Yuca theatre, and he grows in stature to a tremendous degree.
This picture is far the best of the Charlie Chan saga, and gives Oland the chance of his life to show that he is one of the screen's outstanding performers. In the leading feminine role, Heather Angel goes a long way to start on her career as a potential star. She is a splendid actress, and as attractive and charming as anything we have recently seen in pictures.
The cast is splendid and includes Roger Inhoff, John Warburton, Walter Byron, Ivan Simpson, Virginia Cherrill, Francis Ford, Robert Warwick, and Gloria Roy. Hampton MacFadden's direction from Lester Cole's and Marion Orth's adaptation of the Earl Derr Biggers story, is superb.

High School Nude Charge 'Ridiculous'

BEAUMONT, Dec. 15.—Praise came for Beaumont high school authorities, whom a Baptist minister accused of encouraging a "miniature nudist colony" by permitting pictures to be taken of nude girls.
Mothers of the girls, representing the Parent-Teachers Assn., "The New Way."
My landlady and myself will go ahead, plant the 100 acres to cotton, not cooperating with the government and enough of us go ahead and plant the 100 acres to cotton to have 40,000,000 acres, producing a 20,000,000 bale crop, which will bring us about 5¢ a pound. On the 100 acres of cotton 1/2 bale to the acre or 50 bales at 5¢ or $25 a bale, this will bring us $1,250, one fourth to the landlord, $312.50, which is all he gets out of it that year. The tenant farmer is further in debt than he was before he started the crop.

The New Way
The same 100 acres. Sixty acres to cotton, or 25,000,000 acres to cotton at 1/2 bale to the acre, or 12,500,000 bale crop, which will bring 12 cents a pound or $60 a bale, easier than the old way would bring 5 cents a pound or $25 a bale. Sixty acres of 1/2 bale to the acre, or 30 bales at 12¢ a pound or $60 a bale, will bring $1,800.00. One-fourth to the landlord would be $450. Now we have 40 acres to lease to the government, say at $7 an acre, or $280. Landlord's fourth, $70. 20 bales of the 60 acres, the government pays us a party of $5 a bale or $100. Landlord's fourth is $25. The new way: the landlord has received off the 60 acres $450, $70 and $252.50 more money off the 60 acres than he would the old way, and that is not all. We still have the 40 acres to plant to feed. A reasonable year will produce 400 bundles to the acre of 15,000 bundles. Landlord's third is 5,333 bundles.
Now I think it is unjust and unfair for the landlord to exact more than 1/4 of the reduction money on the 3rd and 4th tenants and 1/2 on the 1/2 tenant, for it has not cost the landlord any more for his tenant to produce this 12¢ cotton instead of 5¢ cotton. It does cost the tenant more to produce 12¢ cotton than 5¢ cotton, for he has to pay about twice the price for planting seed, labor, picking and ginning on the 12¢ cotton, as he does on 5¢ cotton.
The landlords will say, "I have to pay taxes and interest, dry years when we don't make anything." The average tenant will spend more money (if he can get it) a dry year trying to make a crop than he will a good year. Now I'd say to the landlord, "if it is good for the goose, it is good for the gander; be fair with your tenant, and we will all come out better; if you will show me where I am wrong in this analysis, I will change my views."
Yours truly,
F. C. Dale
Midland.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Dear Sir: Through the columns of your valuable paper, I would like to discuss the purpose of the cotton acreage reduction campaign that we are soon to put on in this county. As I see it, it is the aim of the government to help the cotton farmer, instead of the cotton farmer helping the government; therefore, I think it is the duty of every landlord and tenant farmer in the county to cooperate with the government and to cooperate among themselves. We all know we must reduce our surplus in cotton to get a living price for what we do raise. To make my views clear I am going to give my analysis on 100 acres of land, to show the old way we have been doing. I will call the first part of this analysis "The Old Way" and the second part of the analysis

Powell and Talbot In Terrific Battle For 'College Coach'

Climaxing a week of ill-feeling, Lyle Talbot and Dick Powell mixed in a real old rough and tumble fist fight during the production of the Warner Bros. picture, "College Coach," which comes to the Ritz theatre Sunday and Monday.
Despite the fact that Powell is noted for his crooning rather than his socking, and was outweighed by 20 pounds, he handed Talbot a sound thrashing. The casualties were a cut lip and slightly discolored eye for Talbot, skinned knuckles and a bruised cheek-bone for Powell.

Powell has the role of a clean-cut young college athlete in the picture who objects to many of Talbot's mannerisms when the two are forced to bunk together at college. Talbot is a subsidized player of the "big show" at the theatre, and the two temperaments clash. After a week of minor irritations the two really tangle to decide who's who.

The scene is one of the highlights of "College Coach" and will go down in Hollywood history as one that was on the up and up. Chairs were sent flying, tables overturned, and Powell and Talbot crashed around like two wild-cats.

This is but one of the smashing scenes in a picture filled with the thrills of champion football battles in which the famous stars of California's Universities took part. Besides the romance of campus life, the picture gives a startling glimpse into football tactics at certain colleges where certain professional coaches play to win at any cost. This includes Pat O'Brien in the title role, Ann Dvorak in the leading feminine part, Arthur Byron, Hugh Herbert, Arthur Hohl and Phillip Faversham. Niven Busch and Manuel Seff wrote the story.

The Jefferson county grand jury, to which Rev. A. C. Maxwell's accusation was referred, recessed without action after the report of the women.
The minister made his charge Sunday night and repeated it Monday night at a meeting which precipitated organization of the Christian Laymen's league and appointment of a committee of men to view the photographs.
Resolutions commended Supt. M. E. and Principal E. C. McDonald for their interest in the students' physical well-being and branded references to a "nudist colony" as "absurd and ridiculous."
