

HART ADMITTEDLY BOUND, SHOT

JURY ACQUITS HALLMARK; OUT TEN MINUTES

Deliberations Mark Time Record for Several Years

To conclude one of the briefest deliberations in years, a 70th district court jury Thursday afternoon at 5:20 returned an acquittal verdict for E. Hallmark, charged by indictment with the murder of P. J. (Cat) Currie, who died in a Wichita Falls hospital October 25, five days after he had entered a Midland hospital for treatment of a gunshot wound allegedly inflicted in a pistol duel at the Alamo garage.

The jury was out exactly 10 minutes. The case moved swiftly, attorneys announcing readiness, the case was called that morning and the jury being completed just before court was recessed for noon. Taking of testimony was completed by 3:30 and, after slightly less than an hour, the court's charge to the jury had been prepared, arguments beginning at 4:20.

District Attorney Bob Hamilton of Stanton spoke 35 minutes, recalling testimony and asking the jury repeatedly to consider Hallmark as having "acted hastily," of having given Currie "no chance," of having "shot down Currie in cold blood." He said Currie drove to the Hallmark station to transact business with the defendant, that the blast from Hallmark's gun found Currie unprepared, that witnesses for the state and defense gave the evidence to show Currie made threatening moves at the station, or had indicated threats before his last visit there.

Repeatedly, the district attorney asked the jury if Hallmark had legal reason to fire, answering his own question by saying the defendant took authority not granted in the law. E. W. Dunaway, defense counsel, spoke slightly longer than 30 minutes. He hammered at the testimony, saying there was no doubt but that threats had been made both before the pistol battle and at the station. He struck at the testimony of Tommy Irwin, Midland boxer, witness for the state, and cited testimony of Mike Carrasco, Mexican deputy sheriff, and Bill Chevington to show that verbal threats had been made by Currie.

"The state continually says Hallmark gave Currie 'no chance,'" he said. "The law does not compel one to hide in his own home or place of business from assault, and the testimony shows that the defendant did hide—that he attempted to avert trouble. He came to the sheriff's office twice, asking that something be done in order to prevent trouble. The sheriff said on the stand he tried to fire Currie, but failed; further saying he warned Hallmark to 'look out for Currie and try to avoid any trouble.' Dunaway said the defendant would have hidden on the last visit of Currie to the station had he been warned of Currie's approach—but that Currie came up in his car from another route of city and the defendant unprepared to hide.

Dunaway said Hallmark ceased firing when he saw Currie was "stopped," that he had no wish to keep shooting." He said the case was one of the clearest of self defense he had ever argued. He said there was no controversy between the men that could not have been settled by civil action but that Currie forced a physical issue. Dunaway concluded at 5 o'clock, after paying testimony to the honesty and fair dealing of Currie in business affairs, of which he mentioned several times, he said, "and considered him a friend; but his grievance against the defendant was one that should have been settled in a civil court," he said.

The district attorney made brief rebuttal argument.

Minister Misses "Texas Sunshine"

The Rev. W. C. Cole, who with Mrs. Cole, recently concluded a series of revival services at the First Christian church of Midland, has received 30 members into a suburban Chicago church, where he is now engaged in a revival. In writing the Rev. E. B. Chancellor, pastor of the Midland church and a friend for years, Mr. Cole said it had been snowing most of the time he had been in Chicago and that he "misses West Texas sunshine."

Missiles Fly and Fezzes Topple in Rioting

A clash that was heard around the world was caught by the cameraman in this remarkable picture as hordes of shrieking Arabs demonstrating against Jewish immigration hurled missiles at British police massed down the street. An instant after the scene was recorded in the main square of Jaffa, Palestine, police charged the attackers. In the two hour fight that followed more than 20 persons were killed. Note the Moslem fezzes scattered about the street, lost by rioters.

RED CROSS DRIVE SUCCESS IS SEEN

Nearly everybody in Midland was joining the Red Cross Friday, workers reported. Mrs. J. Homer Epley, commander-in-chief of the solicitation committees and workers met at 9 a. m. with Marion F. Peters, roll call chairman, to make the final plans. Peters announced Saturday the booths would not be set up on the streets till a week from tomorrow because of school girls' being at the football game Saturday. School girls will conduct the booths on Nov. 25. Response to the workers was good Friday, they reported. Midland people realize that the Red Cross has been doing much more for Midland than Midland has done for the Red Cross, officials say, and are responding generously.

McCormick was with the hardware company for 20 years, and enjoyed the distinction of being the only ex-serviceman of the county who returned from the war to find his old job awaiting him. McCormick, who was unusually active in civic work, was a member of the Rotary club; was vice-president of the chamber of commerce and director of that organization for about 15 years; was a Mason; served at one time as secretary-treasurer of the board of stewards of the First Methodist church, and was one of the best known business men of this area.

Other patients of hospitals were recovering satisfactorily, surgeons said.

SERVICES WILL BE CONCLUDED

In the services at Trinity Episcopal church this morning the Rev. Mr. Martin continued the series of sermons on "The Culture of the Soul." The theme of the sermon included time, place, and methods for giving "food to the souls, and the opportunity to partake of the quickening power of the spirit of Christ." The Vicar said: "The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, faith, temperance. So today let us continue in our study of the best means for the culture of the soul, and ascertain what fruits should be the result of our best efforts. Saint Paul wrote to the Galatians, who were on the verge of losing the fruit of the good life, and told them in the words of our text what they might expect to find, and how to know when their best efforts were successful, and had borne spiritual fruit. Mere adherence to a code of morals, or legal correctness in obeying the letter of the law; but that it is in the possession and the use in private and in public life of the true spiritual graces. 'Love and joy are the first-fruits of every soul that is Christian. This is the fruit that every soul must bring forth if it is to be perfect and acceptable to God. 'When Christ was going about His Father's business, He was not misled or blinded by the men He encountered. 'And when he saw the men of His time, since human nature has changed so little since the days of Adam, Christ knew the men of every age. 'Sometimes, when we think over His life, we may imagine that He saw the gods and the devils of His day, but He saw the men of His time, and He saw the men of every age. 'For more than three years, he sensed the stability in the shifting sands of Peter's weak facilitating character. Above the demon in the character of Mary Magdalene, He saw the good and the devout spirit with which she was yet to find and use in His cause. 'He looked into the soul of the treasurer of his little band of followers and saw the devils of ambition and greed that were urging Judas on to his doom; and that were the mainsprings of the soul of that selfish, traitorous only tempted by his enemies to condemn the woman taken in adultery, Jesus saw the cruel, murderous blackness in the souls of her accusers, and stamping down the nobly virtuous secret sinner each one of them in the sands at His feet. 'Jesus also knew the good, and all that it can do for the soul of man, lovingly alive to all its changes and trials. He had time to note the homemaking of the sparrows; the beauty of the lilies; the glories of the new day; the depths of another life; the innocence and degradation of the poor; the afflicted, and the unfortunate among his countrymen. 'Humanity, the first of all, a spiritual existence. The heart and soul of Christianity is that the spirit of man is transcendently important; above physical or material estates. 'Men and women who yesterday were blinded by materialism, by the honors, the wealth, and the seats of the mighty, are at last opening their eyes to the true standards of life; and when they are fully awake, fully alive they will be ready to serve the Lord and Master of all, and to bring forth all the fruit of the spirit, love, joy, peace. France Mourns Last Wartime Premier

PARIS, (UP).—The "Royal Railroad Station" here, used especially to welcome kings and queens, and where President Woodrow Wilson was received in triumph by Clemenceau and Poincare in 1918, has been transformed, in part, into a tea room and an "American Bar."

It still is used for local traffic, however, but its days of pomp and glory are ended. Where the brass-helmeted Republican Guards came to salute for a visiting monarch, elegant Parisiennes now sip tea and visitors imbibe cocktails.

JONES' RETURN TO PRACTICE PUTS NEW COMPLEXION ON CHANCES FOR MIDLAND TO WIN SATURDAY GAME

Midland became the reestablished favorite to win the Saturday game here against Marfa, when announcements were made today that Gordon Jones, flashy little quarterback and captain of the Midland Bulldogs, would be back at his post after missing a couple of days of practice. Contrary to reports that Jones was A. W. O. L. on a deer hunt at San Saba, it has been learned that Jones drove his father to Mason for treatment. The father explained to school officials the trip was necessary, that the only irregularity that could be charged to the quarterback was his failure to report to school officials and coaches before leaving.

While comparatively little is known of the invading Shorthorn club, its record for the season is less impressive than that of Midland, the club that by virtue of a close win over Stanton stands in third place in 9B standings. The fact that Pecos won over Midland and Marfa by the same score, 20-6, makes for an interesting possibility on paper—but Midland is a smoother club and offers more offensive dash.

ENROLLMENT OF SCHOOLS HIKED

The estate is estimated at from $50,000,000 to $83,000,000.

SUSPECTS HELD AND CONFESSION HAS BEEN MADE

Both Face Death as Penalty of Violence in Case

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17. (UP).—One of two confessed kidnapers and slavers of Brooke Hart, 22, emptied shot in the youth as he was struggling bound in the waters of San Francisco bay, prior to his death last night, federal agents charged today as new details were bare.

The act was attributed to Thomas Harold Thurmond, 28, unemployed oil worker, with John Holmes, father of two, who confessed kidnaping, slugging and throwing Hart alive from the San Mateo bridge. It was explained that the men were trapped by a special hookup for listening in on calls to the Hart home. Agents traced them to a garage as the call was completed. The revolver was not mentioned in the confession. Agents agreed that the kidnapers had planned to kill Hart to avoid detection. The case was likened to the Lindbergh and Marion Parker slayings. Dragging operations in the bay near the bridge were continued today, bits of shirt and flesh being recovered.

Feeling was intense and the prisoners were transferred to the San Francisco jail. Authorities said they would be prosecuted under the new California kidnaping law which provides the death penalty where violence is used.

German Duty Boosts Eel Price in Canada

MONTREAL (UP)—Import duty recently imposed by the German Government on Quebec eels has resulted in higher prices being obtained by Canadian fishermen for their product. Last year the average price received was three cents per pound. This year the price is from five to six cents. Something like 500,000 pounds of Quebec eels are going to Hamburg this year, with a similar quantity destined for New York and German-Americans.

Eel fishing is an industry in itself, and keeps between 250 and 350 people busy all season. The eels, averaging from three to five pounds each, are caught in traps, which are lowered into the St. Lawrence river in the spring, and only removed when ice forms. A 40-mile stretch of St. Lawrence water is the scene of eeling operations, with a couple of hundred boats out on the river daily during the busy season.

CLEAN FOOTBALL JOCK SUTHERLAND FAMOUS PITT COACH

THE rules state that a lineman may make use of his arms, if he keeps his hands together; if he does this he may legally use the projecting parts of his arms on offense.

This rule gives the linemen a great many opportunities for poor sportsmanship. The accompanying sketch shows why.

Here the offensive lineman at left is attempting to throw his opponent backward. His hands are joined together, which is intended to mislead the referee, but his arms are NOT close to his body. He has thrown them out and up, catching his opponent under the chin and delivering a blow that can break the defensive lineman's neck.

Officials cannot be too strict on this type of player. The penalty of half the distance to the goal line is hardly stiff enough.

Screen, Stage Attractions at Yucca Tonight

The Yucca today offers a double entertainment fare, with the film "Above the Clouds," a thriller of the news photography game, featuring Robert Armstrong, Richard Cromwell and Dorothy Wilson; and a stage company of 20 girls, headed by the lovely Irene Jay, former Midland dancer who now lives at Abilene and maintains a dance studio there. If you're the sort of film fan who always stays to see the newsreel twice, you won't want to miss "Above the Clouds," the Columbia production dealing with the exploits of newsreel cameramen. "Above the Clouds" is the first picture to be made revealing the hectic lives of the men who follow adventure all over the world and capture it in film for the entertainment and enlightenment of millions of motion picture patrons.

Handset Phone Reduction Soon

A reduction from 25 to 15 cents a month for handset telephones in Midland, effective December 6, was announced today by District Manager W. G. Riddle of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company. "The handsets cost us $4.32 more than the desk telephone and involve additional recurring charges of $1.73 a year," Riddle said. "These charges include additional taxes, extra maintenance, depreciation and interest on the additional investment. Then, without an additional charge it is apparent practically everyone would want a handset, which would mean virtually throwing away several hundred thousand good desk sets," Riddle said. "The telephone company maintains that handsets are not essential to good telephone service, are in the nature of a luxury item, and that the cost of rendering the extra service should be paid for by those enjoying it, rather than by the customers generally. "The handset was first introduced to Texas in 1927. The original charge of 50 cents was made to offset extra costs, and also to prevent the premature retirement of too large a number of desk telephones. In 1928 the 50-cent rate was voluntarily reduced to 25 cents, a figure thought to approximate the additional cost of rendering handset service at that time. Improvement in manufacturing methods and the gradual extension of handset equipment now make it possible to render this service at 15 cents a month," he said.

Every kiddie in the city between the ages of 5 and 11 who brings as many as 10 cans strung on a string or wire will be admitted to the theatre free. The picture is Jack Pearl's first film and a knockout comedy, "Meet the Baron," Leon Goodman, mayor and member of the clean-up drive committee of the Rotary club, announced that the city will transport the tin cans from the front of the theatre to the city dumping grounds.

Veal, Mutton on SS Menu Tuesday

Two members of the Brotherhood Bible class of the Baptist Sunday school will furnish the foundation for a barbecue Tuesday evening when that class is host to the Evangelists organization.

The Brotherhood class, with a membership of approximately fifty men, is taught by the Rev. Winston F. Borum. The Evangelists class, composed of a similar number of women, is taught by Mrs. Borum. Wives of the Brotherhood members and husbands of the Evangelists, regardless of Sunday school attendance, also are invited. It was announced, as are general officers of the Sunday school and the church. The barbecue will be served in doors, at the Masonic building. Frank Cowden is furnishing a fat calf and J. L. McGrew a fat mutton for the feed. Claude Cowden and C. E. Gamm are in charge of handling the feed.

WANTS HER PUP BACK A three-year-old child, Marlan Lewallen has lost her playmate, a 5-months-old Boston terrier, and she's quite put out over it, she said in a telephone conversation with The Reporter-Telegram. "He's got three tipped feet and one stocking," she said, "and I don't know where he is. He was out South side last time I heard of him. Will you tell everybody to find him for me?" Hearing, as a rule, is more acute with the right ear than with the left.

Advertisement for pie recipes. It features a large illustration of a woman in a dress holding a pie. The text says "She stoops to conquer" and "FAMOUS PIE RECIPES Will hail you as the Conqueror". Below the illustration are several pie recipes including Raisin Pie, Date Pies, Cottage Cheese Pie, Deep-dish Apple Pie, Pineapple Pie, Cherry Pie, and Custard Pie.

This is excellent pie weather and we are giving you another list of pie recipes.

- Raisin Pie: 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup seeded raisins, 1 1/2 cups boiling water, 1/2 level teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 3 tablespoons orange juice, 1 tablespoon grated orange rind, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1/2 cup walnut meats. Cook raisins in boiling water for five minutes, pour in sugar and cornstarch which have been mixed together. Cook until thick. Remove from fire, add other ingredients and bake between crusts.
- Date Pies: One cup corn syrup, three tablespoons sugar, three tablespoons flour, three-fourths teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, three tablespoons butter, one-half teaspoon vanilla, two eggs, one cup broken pecan meats, one cup chopped dates. Mix corn syrup with sugar, flour, salt, cinnamon, melted butter and vanilla. Add well-beaten egg yolks, fold in beaten egg whites. Add the pecans and dates. Put into pastry shells and bake about fifteen minutes in a hot oven. Reduce temperature and cook until done.
- Cottage Cheese Pie: 1 1/2 cups cottage cheese, 2 eggs, separated, 1-3 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1/2 cup thick sour milk, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 3 tablespoons melted lard. Press cheese through sieve. Beat egg yolks, sugar, cornstarch and salt, together with rotary egg beater. Heat in sour milk, gradually till mixture is light and smooth. Then blend in cheese and nutmeg. Add lard. Add lemon juice and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Line a pie plate with pastry. Brush with melted butter. Pour in filling. Bake in a hot oven. Test filling with a silver knife—when it is set the knife will come out clean. Cool and serve.
- Deep-dish Apple Pie: 3-4 cup sugar, 3 cups apples, 1 cup crumbled butter crackers, 1-3 cup butter, 1 pkg. cream cheese, 1/2 cup cream, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg. Reserve one tablespoon of sugar for crust and mix remainder with apples, peeled and sliced, add nutmeg. Put in shallow buttered dish. Mix crackers (about twenty rolled fine) with softened butter and one tablespoon sugar and spread mixture in an even layer over the apples. Cover and bake in a hot oven until apples are tender, about thirty minutes. Uncover, brown lightly, garnish with cheese blended with cream.
- Cherry Pie: 1 can unsweetened cherries, 1 cup sugar, 6 tablespoons cornstarch, 1/2 teaspoon lemon extract, 1 teaspoon butter, Pinch of salt. The pastry is made with 1 cup flour, 1/2 cup lard, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1-3 cup ice water. Drain juice from cherries and place it over the fire. When it boils add sugar into which cornstarch and salt has been mixed. Take from fire, add butter and pour over cherries. When filling is cooling, make pastry by sifting flour and salt, add lard to two-thirds of the flour and mix with fork until well blended; add rest of flour, working in until light and flaky. Add ice water. Roll thin and handle as little as possible. Bake in hot oven until nicely brown.
- Lemon Meringue Pie: 1/2 cup sifted flour, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 1 cup boiling water, 1-3 cup milk, 3 egg whites beaten with 1 egg white, 1/2 tablespoon butter, 2 lemons (1/2 cup juice). Grated rind of one lemon, 1 baked 9-inch pie shell, 4 tablespoons sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 egg whites beaten stiff. Combine flour and sugar in top of double boiler. Add water stirring constantly, then add milk. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Pour from spoon. Add butter, lemon juice and rind. Cool and pour into pie shell. Fold sugar and salt into egg whites. File lightly on filling. Bake in a slow oven twelve minutes or until delicately brown.
- Cocoanut Cream Pie: 1-2 cup sifted flour, 1/2 cup sugar, 1-3 teaspoon salt, 2 cups milk, scalded, 2 egg yolks well beaten, 1 cup shredded cocoanut, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 baked 9-inch shell, 4 tablespoons sugar, 2 egg whites stiffly beaten, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Combine flour, sugar and salt, add milk. Cook in double boiler stirring constantly until thickened. Pour a small amount over egg yolks, stirring vigorously. Return to double boiler and continue cooking until mixture drops in thick sheets from spoon. Add butter, lemon juice and rind. Cool and pour into pie shell. Fold sugar and salt into egg whites. File lightly on filling. Bake in a slow oven twelve minutes or until delicately brown. In order to have meals that are well balanced and that will supply the minerals and other valuable food elements necessary to health, salads should be served at least once a day. It is easy—even in late fall or winter—to procure fruits and vegetables that may be used to create salads fit for an epicure.

What Do You Want To Know? Hindu Seer Will Answer Your Questions

DR. RAJAH ROMA Radio and Stage Artist

The Midland Reporter-Telegram has made arrangements to have Dr. Rajah Roma, Mystic Hindu Seer here in person, to answer questions for the readers of the paper. Enclose 25c with each question and address Dr. Rajah Roma, in care of the Reporter-Telegram. This famous Clairvoyant, Psychic-Analyst will answer the questions through the columns of the Reporter-Telegram the following day. Sign initials only, yours or any initials will do but questions must be in your own handwriting.

Dr. Roma, the man who knows, may be seen at the Scharbauer Hotel for private interview during his stay here. If you enclose three questions and one dollar with birth date and self-addressed, stamped envelope, Dr. Roma will mail you a complete horoscope for the coming year and answer the three questions.

(NOTE: If your question does not appear in today's issue, watch for it in subsequent issues of The Reporter-Telegram. All questions cannot be answered at once.)

- Q. Does the man I am in love with love me?—M. B. A. As it appears to me this man is very interested in you, but you are a little self-conscious when he is near. I advise you to overcome this if you want to keep your lover's attention.
- Q. When will I be reunited with the ones I love?—J. R. C. A. As it appears to me your family is in a western town not so far away from Midland. There is every indication that you will be enabled to move your family to Midland in the next thirty days.
- Q. What is wrong with my boy friend?—S. N. O. A. Your boy friend found out about the date you had with R. J. and he is very hurt, but he will be all right in a few days. Don't pay any attention to his attitude. Hereafter, if you want to date out with someone else, be a little more discreet, or you will lose your real boy friend entirely.
- Q. Will you please advise me what to do in regard to this trouble I am in?—K. G. S. A. The crystal reveals your trouble to be domestic and there is only one solution—a divorce. Your wife is in love with someone else, she thinks, and you are in the same condition. There will never be any more confidence on either side and the best you can do is ask for a new deal.
- Q. Is there mineral on our land?—V. X. A. There are several different kinds of minerals on your land, but I don't see their immediate development. I see a new oil activity in your locality, with an opportunity for you to lease your land at a nominal sum.
- Q. Should I make the deal I am contemplating?—J. B. C. A. As it appears to me you have decided to invest in a certain piece of real estate in Midland. I see this will be a good move for you and you will not make a mistake by completing the deal as soon as possible.
- Q. When will my husband get out of the trouble he is in?—M. N. H. A. Concentration reveals your husband will receive a pardon before the year is over.
